sword, and they went striking one another down. So now, to the spoil,[a] O Mo′ab!" 24 When they came into the camp of Israel, the Israelites[b] immediately rose up and began striking the Mo′ab·ites down so that they took to flight from before them.[c] Hence they came into Mo′ab, striking the Mo′ab·ites down as they came. 25 And the cities they went throwing down,[d] and, as for every good tract of land, they would pitch each one his stone and actually fill it; and every spring of water they would stop[e] up, and every good tree they would fell,[f] until they left only the stones of Kir-har′e·seth[g] remaining in it; and the slingers began going around it and striking it down.

26 When the king of Mo′ab saw that the battle had proved too strong for him, he at once took with him seven hundred men drawing sword to break through to the king of E′dom;[h] but they were not able to. 27 Finally he took his firstborn son who was going to reign in place of him and offered[i] him up as a burnt sacrifice upon the wall. And there came to be great indignation against Israel, so that they pulled away from against him and returned to their land.

4 Now there was a certain woman of the wives of the sons[j] of the prophets that cried out to E·li′sha, saying: "Your servant, my husband, is dead; and you yourself well know that your own servant had continually feared[k] Jehovah, and the creditor[l] himself has come to take both my children for his slaves." 2 At this E·li′sha said to her: "What shall I do for you?[m] Tell me; what do you have in the house?" To this she said: "Your maidservant has nothing at all in the house but a spouted jar of oil."[n] 3 Then he said: "Go, ask for vessels for yourself from outside, from all your neighbors, empty vessels. Do not hold yourself to a few. 4 And you must go and close the door behind yourself and your sons, and you must pour out into all these vessels, and the full ones you should set aside." 5 Upon that she went away from him.

When she closed the door behind herself and her sons, they were bringing [the vessels] near to her, and she was doing the pouring out.[a] 6 And it came about that as soon as the vessels were full she went on to say to her son: "Do bring still another vessel near to me."[b] But he said to her: "There is no other vessel." At that the oil stopped.[c] 7 So she came in and told the man of the [true] God, and he now said: "Go, sell the oil and pay off your debts,[d] and you [and] your sons should live from what is left."[e]

8 And it came about one day that E·li′sha went passing along to Shu′nem,[f] where there was a prominent woman, and she began to constrain[g] him to eat bread. And it came about that as often as he would pass by, he would turn aside there to eat bread. 9 At length she said to her husband:[h] "Here, now, I well know that it is a holy man of God[i] that is passing by us constantly. 10 Please, let us make a little roof chamber[j] on the wall and put there for him a couch and a table and a chair and a lampstand;[k] and it must occur that whenever he comes in to us he can turn aside there."[l]

11 And it came about one day that as usual he came in there and turned aside to the roof chamber and lay down there. 12 So he said to Ge·ha′zi[m] his attendant: "Call this Shu′nam·mite[n] woman." At that he called her that she might stand before him. 13 Then he said to him: "Please, say to her, 'Here you have restricted yourself for us with all this restriction.[a] What is there to be done for you?[b] Is there anything to speak to the king[c] or to the chief[d] of the army for you?'" To this she said: "In among my own people I am dwelling."[e] 14 And he went on to say: "What, then, is there to be done for her?" Ge·ha'zi now said: "For a fact, a son she does not have,[f] and her husband is old." 15 Immediately he said: "Call her." So he called her, and she kept standing at the entrance. 16 Then he said: "At this appointed time next year you will be embracing a son."[g] But she said: "No, my master, O man of the [true] God! Do not tell lies in connection with your maidservant."

17 However, the woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son[h] at this appointed time the next year, just as E·li'sha had spoken to her.[i] 18 And the child kept on growing up, and it came about one day that he went out as usual to his father with the reapers.[j] 19 And he kept saying to his father: "My head, O my head!"[k] At last he said to the attendant: "Carry him to his mother."[l] 20 Accordingly he carried him and brought him to his mother. And he kept sitting upon her knees until noon, and gradually he died.[m] 21 Then she went up and laid him upon the couch[n] of the man of the [true] God[o] and closed the door upon him and went out. 22 She now called her husband and said: "Do send me, please, one of the attendants and one of the she-asses, and let me run as far as the man of the [true] God and return."[p] 23 But he said: "Why are you going to him today? It is not a new moon[q] nor a sabbath." However, she said: "It is all right." 24 So she saddled up the she-ass[r] and said to her attendant: "Drive and go ahead. Do not hold back for my sake from riding unless I shall have said so to you."

25 And she proceeded to go and come to the man of the [true] God at Mount Car'mel. And it came about that, as soon as the man of the [true] God saw her out ahead, he immediately said to Ge·ha'zi his attendant:[a] "Look! The Shu'nam·mite woman over there. 26 Now run, please, to meet her and say to her, 'Is it all right with you? Is it all right with your husband? Is it all right with the child?'" To this she said: "It is all right." 27 When she came to the man of the [true] God at the mountain, she at once took hold of him by his feet.[b] At this Ge·ha'zi came near to push her away,[c] but the man of the [true] God[d] said: "Let her alone,[e] for her soul is bitter[f] within her; and Jehovah himself has hidden[g] it from me and not told me." 28 She now said: "Did I ask for a son through my lord? Did I not say, 'You must not lead me to a false hope'?"[h]

29 Immediately he said to Ge·ha'zi:[i] "Gird up your loins[j] and take my staff[k] in your hand and go. In case you encounter anyone, you must not greet him;[l] and in case anyone should greet you, you must not answer him. And you must place my staff upon the face of the boy."[m] 30 At this the mother of the boy said: "As Jehovah is living[n] and as your soul is living,[o] I will not leave you."[p] Therefore he got up and went with her. 31 And Ge·ha'zi himself passed along before them and then put the staff upon the boy's face, but there was no voice nor paying of attention.[q] So he went back to meet him and told him, saying: "The boy did not wake up."[r]

32 At last E·li'sha came into the house, and there the boy was dead, being laid upon his couch.[s] 33 Then he came in and closed the door behind them both[a] and began to pray to Jehovah.[b] 34 Finally he went up and lay down upon the child[c] and put his own mouth upon his mouth and his own eyes upon his eyes and his own palms upon his palms and kept bent over him, and gradually the child's flesh grew warm. 35 Then he began walking again in the house, once this way and once that way, after which he went up and bent over him. And the boy began to sneeze as many as seven times, after which the boy opened his eyes.[d] 36 He now called Ge·ha'zi and said: "Call this Shu'nam·mite[e] woman." So he called her and she came in to him. Then he said: "Lift up your son."[f] 37 And she proceeded to come in and fall at his feet and bow down to him to the earth,[g] after which she lifted up her son and went out.[h]

38 And E·li'sha himself returned to Gil'gal,[i] and there was famine[j] in the land. As the sons[k] of the prophets were sitting before him,[l] he in time said to his attendant:[m] "Put the large cooking pot on and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."[n] 39 Accordingly a certain one went out to the field to pick mallows,[o] and he got to find a wild vine and went picking wild gourds from it, his garment full, and then came and sliced them into the stewpot, for they were not acquainted with them. 40 Later they poured it out for the men to eat. And it came about that, as soon as they ate from the stew, they themselves cried out and began saying: "There is death in the pot,[p] O man of the [true] God."[q] And they were not able to eat. 41 So he said: "FETCH, then, flour." After he threw it into the pot, he went on to say: "Pour out for the people that they may eat." And nothing injurious proved to be in the pot.[r]

42 And there was a man that came from Ba'al-shal'i·shah,[a] and he came bringing[b] to the man of the [true] God bread of the first ripe fruits,[c] twenty barley loaves,[d] and new grain in his bread bag. Then he said: "Give it to the people that they may eat."[e] 43 However, his waiter said: "How shall I put this before a hundred men?"[f] To this he said: "Give it to the people that they may eat, for this is what Jehovah has said, 'There will be an eating and a having of leftovers.'"[g] 44 At that he put it before them, and they began to eat, and they had leftovers according to the word of Jehovah.[h]

5 Now a certain Na'a·man,[i] the chief of the army of the king of Syria, had become a great man before his lord and held in esteem, because it was by him that Jehovah had given salvation to Syria;[j] and the man himself had proved to be a valiant, mighty man, though a leper. 2 And the Syrians, for their part, had gone out as marauder bands,[k] and they got to take captive from the land of Israel a little girl,[l] and she came to be before Na'a·man's wife. 3 In time she said[m] to her mistress: "If only my lord were before the prophet[n] that is in Sa·mar'i·a! In that case he would recover him from his leprosy."[o] 4 Subsequently someone came and reported to his lord, saying: "It was like this and that that the girl spoke[p] who is from the land of Israel."

5 Then the king of Syria said: "Get going! Come, and let me send a letter to the king of Israel." So he proceeded to go and take in his hand[q] ten talents of silver and six thousand pieces of gold[r] and ten changes of garments.[s] 6 And he came bringing the letter[t] to the king of Israel, saying: "And now at the same time that this letter comes to you, here I do send to you Na'a·man my servant, that you may recover him from his leprosy." 7 And it came about that as soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he immediately ripped[a] his garments apart and said: "Am I God,[b] to put to death and to preserve alive?[c] For this person is sending to me to recover a man from his leprosy; for just take note, please, YOU men, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me."[d]

8 And it came about that, as soon as E·li′sha the man of the [true] God heard that the king of Israel had ripped his garments apart,[e] he at once sent to the king, saying: "Why did you rip your garments apart? Let him come, please, to me that he may know that there exists a prophet in Israel."[f] 9 So Na′a·man came with his horses and his war chariots and stood at the entrance of the house of E·li′sha. 10 However, E·li′sha sent a messenger to him, saying: "Going there, you must bathe[g] seven times[h] in the Jordan that your flesh may come back to you;[i] and be clean." 11 At this Na′a·man grew indignant[j] and began to go away and say: "Here I had said [to myself],[k] 'To me he will come out all the way and will certainly stand and call upon the name of Jehovah his God and move his hand to and fro over the place and actually give the leper recovery.' 12 Are not the A·ba′nah and the Phar′par, the rivers of Damascus,[l] better than all the waters[m] of Israel? Can I not bathe in them and certainly be clean?"[n] With that he turned and went away in a rage.[o]

13 His servants now approached and spoke to him and said: "My father,[p] had it been a great thing that the prophet himself had spoken to you, would you not do it? How much more, then, since he said to you, 'Bathe and be clean'?" 14 At that he went down and began to plunge into the Jordan seven times according to the word of the man of the [true] God;[a] after which his flesh came back like the flesh of a little boy[b] and he became clean.[c]

15 Then he went back to the man of the [true] God,[d] he with all his camp, and came and stood before him and said: "Here, now, I certainly know that there is no God anywhere in the earth but in Israel.[e] And now accept, please, a blessing gift[f] from your servant." 16 However, he said: "As Jehovah before whom I do stand is living,[g] I will not accept it."[h] And he began to urge him to accept it, but he kept refusing. 17 Finally Na′a·man said: "If not, please, let there be given to your servant some ground,[i] the load of a pair of mules; because your servant will no more render up a burnt offering or a sacrifice to any other gods but to Jehovah.[j] 18 In this thing may Jehovah forgive your servant: When my lord comes into the house of Rim′mon[k] to bow down there, and he is supporting himself[l] upon my hand, and I have to bow down[m] at the house of Rim′mon, when I bow down at the house of Rim′mon may Jehovah, please, forgive your servant in this respect."[n] 19 At this he said to him: "Go in peace."[o] Accordingly he went away from him for a good stretch of the land.

20 Then Ge·ha′zi[p] the attendant of E·li′sha the man of the [true] God[q] said: "Here my master has spared Na′a·man[r] this Syrian by not accepting from his hand what he brought. As Jehovah is living,[s] I will run after him and take something from him."[t] 21 And Ge·ha′zi went chasing after Na′a·man. When Na′a·man saw someone running after him, he at once got down from his chariot to meet him and then said: "Is all well?"[u] 22 To this he said:

"All is well. My master[a] himself has sent me,[b] saying, 'Look! Just now there have come to me two young men from the mountainous region of E′phra·im from the sons of the prophets.[c] Do give them, please, a talent of silver and two changes of garments.'"[d] 23 At that Na′a·man said: "Go on, take two talents." And he kept urging[e] him and finally bound up two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and gave them to two of his attendants, that they might carry them before him.

24 When he came to O′phel, he immediately took them from their hand and deposited them in the house[f] and sent the men away. So off they went. 25 And he himself came in and then stood by his master.[g] E·li′sha now said to him: "Where [did you come] from, Ge·ha′zi?" But he said: "Your servant did not go anywhere at all."[h] 26 At that he said to him: "Did not my heart itself go along just as the man turned [to get down] off his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept silver or to accept garments or olive groves or vineyards or sheep or cattle or menservants or maidservants?[i] 27 So the leprosy[j] of Na′a·man will stick to you and your offspring to time indefinite."[k] Immediately he went out from before him, a leper white as snow.[l]

6 And the sons[m] of the prophets began to say to E·li′sha: "Look, now! The place[n] where we are dwelling before you is too cramped[o] for us. 2 Let us go, please, as far as the Jordan and take from there each one a beam and make for ourselves[p] there a place in which to dwell." So he said: "Go." 3 And a certain one went on to say: "Come on, please, and go with your servants." At that he said: "I myself shall go." 4 Accordingly he went with them, and they finally came to the Jordan and began to cut down the trees.[a] 5 And it came about that a certain one was felling his beam, and the axhead[b] itself fell into the water. And he began to cry out and say: "Alas, my master,[c] for it was borrowed!"[d] 6 Then the man of the [true] God said: "Where did it fall?" So he showed him the place. Immediately he cut off a piece of wood and threw it there and made the axhead float.[e] 7 He now said: "Lift it up for yourself." At once he thrust his hand out and took it.

8 And the king of Syria,[f] for his part, became involved in war against Israel. Accordingly he took counsel with his servants,[g] saying: "At such and such a place YOU will encamp with me."[h] 9 Then the man of the [true] God[i] sent to the king of Israel, saying: "Guard yourself against passing by this place,[j] because there is where the Syrians are coming down."[k] 10 So the king of Israel sent to the place that the man of the [true] God had said to him.[l] And he warned[m] him, and he kept away from there, not once or twice.

11 Consequently the heart of the king of Syria became enraged over this matter,[n] so that he called his servants and said to them: "Will YOU not tell me who from those who belong to us is for the king of Israel?"[o] 12 Then one of his servants said: "None, my lord the king, but it is E·li′sha[p] the prophet who is in Israel that tells[q] the king of Israel the things that you speak in your inner bedroom."[r] 13 So he said: "YOU men go and see where he is, that I may send and take him."[s] Later the report was made to him, saying: "There he is in Do′than."[t] 14 Immediately he sent horses and war chariots and a heavy military force[u] there; and they proceeded to come by night and close in upon the city.

15 When the minister[a] of the man of the [true] God rose early to get up, and went out, why, there a military force was surrounding the city with horses and war chariots. At once his attendant said to him: "Alas, my master![b] What shall we do?" 16 But he said: "Do not be afraid,[c] for there are more who are with us than those who are with them."[d] 17 And E·li′sha began to pray[e] and say: "O Jehovah, open his eyes,[f] please, that he may see." Immediately Jehovah opened the attendant's eyes, so that he saw; and, look! the mountainous region was full of horses and war chariots[g] of fire all around E·li′sha.[h]

18 When they began to come down to him, E·li′sha went on to pray to Jehovah and say: "Please, strike this nation with blindness."[i] So he struck them with blindness according to the word of E·li′sha. 19 E·li′sha now said to them: "This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and let me conduct YOU to the man YOU look for." However, he conducted them to Sa·mar′i·a.[j]

20 And it came about that as soon as they arrived at Sa·mar′i·a, E·li′sha then said: "O Jehovah, open the eyes of these that they may see."[k] Immediately Jehovah opened their eyes, and they got to see; and here they were in the middle of Sa·mar′i·a. 21 The king of Israel now said to E·li′sha as soon as he saw them: "Shall I strike [them] down, shall I strike [them] down,[l] my father?"[m] 22 But he said: "You must not strike [them] down. Are those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow the ones that you are striking down?[n] Set bread and water before them that they may eat and drink[o] and go to their lord." 23 Accordingly he spread a great feast for them; and they began to eat and drink, after which he sent them away and they went to their lord. And not once did the marauding bands[a] of the Syrians come again into the land of Israel.

30 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the woman's words, he immediately ripped[k] his garments apart; and as he was passing along upon the wall, the people got to see, and, look! sackcloth was underneath upon his flesh. 31 And he went on to say: "So may God do to me, and so may he add to it, if the head of E·li′sha the son of Sha′phat continues standing upon him today!"[l]

32 And E·li′sha was sitting in his own house, and the older men were sitting with him,[a] when he sent a man from before him. Before the messenger could come in to him, he himself said to the older men: "Have YOU seen how this son of a murderer[b] has sent to take off my head? See to it: as soon as the messenger comes, close the door, and YOU must press him back with the door. Is there not the sound[c] of the feet of his lord behind him?" 33 While he was yet speaking with them, here was the messenger coming down to him, and [the king] proceeded to say: "Here this is the calamity from Jehovah.[d] Why should I wait any longer for Jehovah?"[e]

7 E·li′sha now said: "Listen, YOU men, to the word of Jehovah.[f] This is what Jehovah has said, 'Tomorrow about this time a seah measure of fine flour will be worth a shekel, and two seah measures of barley worth a shekel in the gateway of Sa·mar′i·a.'"[g] 2 At that the adjutant upon whose hand the king was supporting[h] himself answered the man of the [true] God and said: "If Jehovah were making floodgates in the heavens,[i] could this thing take place?"[j] To this he said: "Here you are seeing it with your own eyes,[k] but from it you will not eat."[l]

3 And there were four men, lepers, that happened to be at the entrance of the gate;[m] and they began to say the one to the other: "Why are we sitting here until we have died? 4 If we had said, 'Let us enter the city,' when the famine is in the city, we would also have to die there.[n] And if we do sit here, we shall also have to die. So now come and let us invade the camp of the Syrians. If they preserve us alive, we shall live; but if they put us to death, then we shall have to die."[o] 5 Accordingly they rose up in the evening darkness to enter the camp of the Syrians; and they got to come as far as the outskirts of the camp of the Syrians, and, look! nobody was there.

6 And Jehovah himself had caused the camp of the Syrians to hear[a] the sound of war chariots, the sound of horses, the sound of a great military force,[b] so that they said to one another: "Look! The king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hit′tites[c] and the kings of Egypt[d] to come against us!" 7 Immediately they got up and went fleeing in the evening darkness[e] and leaving their tents and their horses[f] and their asses—the camp just as it was—and they kept fleeing for their soul.[g]

8 When these lepers came as far as the outskirts of the camp, they then entered into one tent and began to eat and drink and carry from there silver and gold and garments and go off and stick them away. After that they returned and entered into another tent and carried things from there and went off and stuck them away.[h]

9 Finally they began to say the one to the other: "It is not right what we are doing. This day is a day of good news![i] If we are hesitating, and we actually wait until the morning light, guilt must also catch up with us.[j] So now come and let us enter and make report at the king's house." 10 So they came and called to the gatekeepers[k] of the city and reported to them, saying: "We came into the camp of the Syrians, and, look! there was nobody there nor sound of a man, but only the horses tied and the asses tied and the tents just as they were."[l] 11 At once the gatekeepers called out and they reported to the king's house inside.

12 Immediately the king rose up by night and said to his servants:[a] "Let me tell you, please, what the Syrians have done to us.[b] They well know that we are hungry;[c] and so they went out from the camp to hide themselves in the field,[d] saying, 'They will come out from the city, and we shall catch them alive, and into the city we shall enter.'" 13 Then one of his servants answered and said: "Let them take, please, five of the remaining horses that have remained in the city.[e] Look! They are the same as all the crowd of Israel that have remained in it. Look! They are the same as all the crowd of Israel that have perished.[f] And let us send out and see." 14 Accordingly they took two chariots with horses and the king sent them out after the camp of the Syrians, saying: "Go and see." 15 At that they went following them as far as the Jordan; and, look! all the way was full of garments and utensils[g] that the Syrians had thrown away as they were hurrying away.[h] Then the messengers returned and reported to the king.

16 And the people proceeded to go out and plunder[i] the camp of the Syrians; and so a seah measure of fine flour came to be worth a shekel, and two seah measures of barley worth a shekel, according to the word[j] of Jehovah. 17 And the king himself had appointed the adjutant upon whose hand he was supporting[k] himself to have charge of the gateway; and the people kept trampling[l] him in the gateway, so that he died, just as the man of the [true] God had spoken,[m] when he spoke at the time that the king came down to him. 18 Thus it came about just as the man of the [true] God had spoken to the king, saying: "Two seah measures of barley worth a shekel and a seah measure of fine flour worth a shekel it will come to be tomorrow at this time in the gateway of Sa·mar′i·a."[a] 19 But the adjutant answered the man of the [true] God and said: "Even if Jehovah were making floodgates in the heavens, could it take place according to this word?"[b] To this he said: "Here you are seeing it with your own eyes, but from it you will not eat."[c] 20 Thus it happened to him like that,[d] when the people kept trampling[e] him in the gateway, so that he died.

8 And E·li′sha himself had spoken to the woman whose son he had revived,[f] saying: "Rise up and go, you with your household, and reside as an alien wherever you can reside as an alien;[g] for Jehovah has called for a famine,[h] and, besides, it must come upon the land for seven years."[i] 2 So the woman got up and did according to the word of the man of the [true] God and went,[j] she with her household,[k] and took up residence as an alien in the land of the Phi·lis′tines[l] for seven years.

3 And it came about at the end of seven years that the woman proceeded to return from the land of the Phi·lis′tines and go forth to cry out to the king[m] for her house and for her field. 4 Now the king was speaking to Ge·ha′zi[n] the attendant of the man of the [true] God, saying: "Do relate to me, please, all the great things that E·li′sha has done."[o] 5 And it came about that as he was relating to the king how he had revived the dead one,[p] why, here the woman whose son he had revived was crying out to the king for her house and for her field.[q] At once Ge·ha′zi said: "My lord[r] the king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom E·li′sha revived." 6 At that the king asked the woman, and she went on to relate to him the story.[s] Then the king gave her a court official,[t] saying:

"Return all that belongs to her and all the products of the field from the day of her leaving the land until now."[a]

7 And E·li′sha proceeded to come to Damascus;[b] and Ben-ha′dad[c] the king of Syria was sick. Accordingly the report was made to him, saying: "The man of the [true] God[d] has come as far as here." 8 At that the king said to Haz′a·el:[e] "Take a gift[f] in your hand and go and meet the man of the [true] God, and you must inquire[g] of Jehovah through him, saying, 'Shall I revive from this sickness?'" 9 So Haz′a·el went to meet him and took a gift in his hand, even every sort of good thing of Damascus, the load of forty camels, and came and stood before him and said: "Your son,[h] Ben-ha′dad, the king of Syria, has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I revive from this sickness?'" 10 Then E·li′sha said to him: "Go, say to him, 'You will positively revive,' and Jehovah has shown me[i] that he will positively die."[j] 11 And he kept a fixed look and kept it set to the point of embarrassment. Then the man of the [true] God gave way to weeping.[k] 12 At this Haz′a·el said: "Why is my lord weeping?" To this he said: "Because I well know what injury[l] you will do to the sons of Israel. Their fortified places you will consign to the fire, and their choice men you will kill with the sword, and their children you will dash to pieces,[m] and their pregnant women you will rip up."[n] 13 Upon that Haz′a·el said: "What is your servant, [who is a mere] dog,[o] that he could do this great thing?" But E·li′sha said: "Jehovah has shown me you as king over Syria."[p]

14 After that he went from E·li′sha and came to his own lord, who then said to him: "What did E·li′sha say to you?" To this he said: "He said to me, 'You will positively revive.'"[a] 15 And it came about on the next day that he proceeded to take a coverlet and dip it in water and spread it out over his face,[b] so that he died.[c] And Haz′a·el[d] began to reign in place of him.

16 And in the fifth year of Je·ho′ram[e] the son of A′hab the king of Israel, while Je·hosh′a·phat was king of Judah, Je·ho′ram[f] the son of Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah became king. 17 Thirty-two years old he happened to be when he became king, and for eight years he reigned in Jerusalem.[g] 18 And he went walking in the way of the kings of Israel,[h] just as those of the house of A′hab had done;[i] for it was A′hab's daughter that became his wife,[j] and he kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. 19 And Jehovah did not want to bring Judah[k] to ruin for the sake of David his servant,[l] just as he had promised him to give a lamp[m] to him [and] to his sons always.

20 In his days E′dom[n] revolted from under the hand of Judah, and then made a king[o] reign over them. 21 Consequently Je·ho′ram passed over to Za′ir, also all the chariots with him. And it came about that he himself rose up by night and got to strike down the E′dom·ites that were surrounding him and the chiefs of the chariots; and the people went fleeing to their tents. 22 But E′dom kept up its revolt from under the hand of Judah down to this day. It was then that Lib′nah[p] began to revolt at that time.

23 And the rest of the affairs of Je·ho′ram and all that he did, are they not written in the book[q] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 24 Finally Je·ho′ram lay down with his forefathers[a] and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David.[b] And A·ha·zi'ah[c] his son began to reign in place of him.

25 In the twelfth year of Je·ho'ram the son of A'hab the king of Israel, A·ha·zi'ah the son of Je·ho'ram the king of Judah became king.[d] 26 Twenty-two years old was A·ha·zi'ah when he began to reign, and for one year he reigned in Jerusalem.[e] And his mother's name was Ath·a·li'ah[f] the granddaughter of Om'ri[g] the king of Israel. 27 And he went walking in the way of the house of A'hab[h] and kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,[i] like the house of A'hab, for he was a relative of the house of A'hab by marriage.[j] 28 Accordingly he went with Je·ho'ram the son of A'hab to the war against Haz'a·el[k] the king of Syria at Ra'moth-gil'e·ad,[l] but the Syrians struck[m] down Je·ho'ram. 29 So Je·ho'ram[n] the king returned to get healed at Jez're·el[o] from the wounds that the Syrians got to inflict upon him at Ra'mah when he fought Haz'a·el the king of Syria. As for A·ha·zi'ah[p] the son of Je·ho'ram the king of Judah, he went down to see Je·ho'ram the son of A'hab in Jez're·el, for he was sick.

9 And E·li'sha the prophet, for his part, called one of the sons[q] of the prophets and then said to him: "Gird up your loins[r] and take this flask[s] of oil in your hand and go to Ra'moth-gil'e·ad.[t] 2 When you have come in there, see Je'hu[u] the son of Je·hosh'a·phat the son of Nim'shi there; and you must come in and make him get up from the midst of his brothers and bring him into the innermost chamber.[v] 3 And you must take the flask of oil and pour it out upon his head[w] and say, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "I do anoint[x] you as king[y] over Israel."' And you must open the door and flee and not wait."

4 And the attendant, the prophet's attendant, got on his way to Ra'moth-gil'e·ad. 5 When he came in, why, there the chiefs of the military force were seated. He now said: "There is a word I have for you,[a] O chief." At this Je'hu said: "For which one of all of us?" Then he said: "For you, O chief." 6 So he got up and came into the house; and he proceeded to pour the oil out upon his head and say to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'I do anoint you as king[b] over Jehovah's people,[c] that is, over Israel. 7 And you must strike down the house of A'hab your lord, and I must avenge[d] the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of Jehovah at the hand of Jez'e·bel.[e] 8 And the whole house of A'hab must perish; and I must cut off from A'hab[f] anyone urinating against a wall[g] and any helpless and worthless one[h] in Israel. 9 And I must constitute the house of A'hab like the house of Jer·o·bo'am[i] the son of Ne'bat and like the house of Ba'a·sha[j] the son of A·hi'jah. 10 And Jez'e·bel the dogs will eat[k] up in the tract of land at Jez're·el, and there will be no one burying her.'" With that he opened the door and went fleeing.[l]

11 As for Je'hu, he went out to the servants of his lord, and they began to say to him: "Is everything all right?[m] Why did this crazy[n] man come in to you?" But he said to them: "You yourselves well know the man and his sort of talk." 12 But they said: "It is false! Tell us, please." Then he said: "It was like this and like that that he talked to me, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "I do anoint you as king over Israel."'"[o] 13 At this they hurriedly took each one his garment[a] and put it under him upon the bare steps, and they began to blow the horn[b] and say: "Je'hu has become king!"[c] 14 And Je'hu[d] the son of Je·hosh'a·phat the son of Nim'shi[e] proceeded to conspire[f] against Je·ho'ram.

And Je·ho'ram himself had happened to be keeping guard at Ra'moth-gil'e·ad,[g] he with all Israel, because of Haz'a·el[h] the king of Syria. 15 Later Je·ho'ram[i] the king returned to get healed at Jez're·el[j] from the wounds that the Syrians got to inflict upon him when he fought Haz'a·el the king of Syria.[k]

Je'hu now said: "If YOUR soul agrees,[l] do not let anyone go out in escape from the city to go and make report in Jez're·el." 16 And Je'hu began to ride and go to Jez're·el; for Je·ho'ram was lying there, and A·ha·zi'ah[m] the king of Judah himself had gone down to see Je·ho'ram. 17 And the watchman[n] was standing upon the tower[o] in Jez're·el,[p] and he got to see the heaving mass of Je'hu's [men] as he was coming, and he at once said: "There is a heaving mass [of men] that I am seeing." At that Je·ho'ram said: "Take a cavalryman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is there peace?'"[q] 18 Accordingly a rider on a horse went to meet him and said: "This is what the king has said, 'Is there peace?'" But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'?[r] Get around to my rear!"

And the watchman[s] went on to report, saying: "The messenger came as far as to them, but he has not returned." 19 So he sent out a second rider on a horse, who, when he came to them, proceeded to say: "This is what the king has said, 'Is there peace?'" But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'?[t] Get around to my rear!"

20 And the watchman went on to report, saying: "He came as far as to them, but he has not returned; and the driving is like the driving of Je'hu[a] the grandson of Nim'shi,[b] for it is with madness that he drives."[c] 21 At that Je·ho'ram said: "Hitch up!"[d] So his war chariot was hitched up and Je·ho'ram the king of Israel and A·ha·zi'ah[e] the king of Judah went out, each in his own war chariot. As they continued on out to meet Je'hu, they got to find him in the tract of land of Na'both[f] the Jez're·el·ite.

22 And it came about that as soon as Je·ho'ram saw Je'hu, he immediately said: "Is there peace, Je'hu?" But he said: "What peace[g] could there be as long as there are the fornications of Jez'e·bel[h] your mother and her many sorceries?"[i] 23 At once Je·ho'ram made a turn with his hands, that he might flee, and said to A·ha·zi'ah: "There is trickery,[j] A·ha·zi'ah!" 24 And Je'hu himself filled his hand with a bow[k] and proceeded to shoot Je·ho'ram between the arms, so that the arrow came out at his heart, and he collapsed in his war chariot.[l] 25 He now said to Bid'kar his adjutant:[m] "Lift him up; throw him into the tract of the field of Na'both the Jez're·el·ite;[n] for remember: I and you were riding teams behind A'hab his father, and Jehovah himself lifted up this pronouncement[o] against him: 26 '"Certainly the blood[p] of Na'both and the blood of his sons[q] I saw yesterday," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and I shall certainly repay[r] you in this tract of land," is the utterance of Jehovah.' So now, lift him up; throw him into the tract of land according to the word of Jehovah."[s]

"Him also! STRIKE him down!" So they struck him down while in the chariot on the way up to Gur, which is by Ib'le·am.[a] And he continued his flight to Me·gid'do[b] and got to die there.[c] 28 Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and so they buried him in his grave with his forefathers in the City of David.[d] 29 And it was in the eleventh year of Je·ho'ram[e] the son of A'hab that A·ha·zi'ah[f] had become king over Judah.)

30 At length Je'hu came to Jez're·el,[g] and Jez'e·bel[h] herself heard of it. And she proceeded to paint[i] her eyes with black paint and do her head up beautifully[j] and to look down through the window.[k] 31 And Je'hu himself came in by the gate. She now said: "Did it go all right with Zim'ri[l] the killer of his lord?" 32 At that he raised his face toward the window and said: "Who is with me? Who?"[m] Immediately two or three court officials[n] looked down at him. 33 So he said: "Let her drop!"[o] Then they let her drop, and some of her blood went spattering upon the wall and upon the horses; and he now trampled[p] upon her. 34 After that he came on in and ate and drank and then said: "YOU men, please, take care of this accursed[q] one and bury her, for she is the daughter of a king."[r] 35 When they went to bury her, they did not find anything of her but the skull and the feet and the palms of the hands.[s] 36 When they returned and told him, he went on to say: "It is the word of Jehovah that he spoke by means[t] of his servant E·li'jah the Tish'bite, saying, 'In the tract of land of Jez're·el the dogs will eat the flesh of Jez'e·bel.[u] 37 And the dead body of Jez'e·bel will certainly become as manure[v] upon the face of the field in the tract of land of Jez're·el, that they may not say: "This is Jez'e·bel."'"[a]

10 Now A'hab had seventy[b] sons in Sa·mar'i·a.[c] Therefore Je'hu wrote letters and sent them to Sa·mar'i·a to the princes[d] of Jez're·el, the older men[e] and the caretakers of A'hab, saying: 2 "Now, then, at the very time that this letter comes to YOU there are with YOU the sons of YOUR lord, and there are with YOU the war chariots and the horses[f] and a fortified city and the armor. 3 And YOU must see which is the best and most upright of the sons of YOUR lord and put him upon the throne of his father.[g] Then fight for the house of YOUR lord."

4 And they became very greatly afraid and began to say: "Look! Two kings[h] themselves did not stand before him, and how shall we ourselves stand?"[i] 5 Consequently the one who was over the house and the one who was over the city and the older men and the caretakers[j] sent to Je'hu, saying: "We are your servants, and everything that you say to us we shall do. We shall not make anyone king. What is good in your own eyes do."

6 At that he wrote them a second letter, saying: "If YOU belong to me,[k] and it is my voice that YOU are obeying, take the heads of the men that are sons[l] of YOUR lord and come to me tomorrow at this time at Jez're·el."[m]

Now the sons of the king, seventy men, were with the distinguished men of the city that were bringing them up. 7 And it came about that as soon as the letter came to them, they went taking the sons of the king and slaughtering [them], seventy men,[n] after which they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jez're·el. 8 Then the messenger[o] came in and told him, saying: "They have brought the heads[a] of the sons of the king." So he said: "PUT them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."[b] 9 And it came about in the morning that he proceeded to go out. Then he stood still and said to all the people: "YOU are righteous.[c] Here I myself conspired[d] against my lord, and I got to kill him;[e] but who struck down all these? 10 Know, then, that nothing of Jehovah's word will fall [unfulfilled] to the earth[f] that Jehovah has spoken against the house of A'hab;[g] and Jehovah himself has done what he spoke by means of his servant E·li'jah."[h] 11 Moreover, Je'hu went on to strike down all who were left over of the house of A'hab in Jez're·el and all his distinguished men[i] and his acquaintances and his priests,[j] until he had let no survivor of his remain.[k]

12 And he proceeded to rise and come in, then get on his way to Sa·mar'i·a. The binding house of the shepherds was on the way. 13 And Je'hu himself encountered the brothers[l] of A·ha·zi'ah[m] the king of Judah. When he said to them, "Who are YOU?" then they said: "We are the brothers of A·ha·zi'ah, and we are on our way down to ask if all is well with the sons of the king and the sons of the lady." 14 Immediately he said: "Seize them alive,[n] YOU men!" So they seized them alive and slaughtered them at the cistern of the binding house, forty-two men, and he did not let a single one of them remain.[o]

15 As he was going along from there he got to encounter Je·hon'a·dab[p] the son of Re'chab[q] [coming] to meet him. When he blessed[r] him, he accordingly said to him: "Is your heart upright with me, just as my own heart is with your heart?"[s]

To this Je·hon'a·dab said: "It is."

"If it is, do give me your hand."

So he gave him his hand. At that he made him get up into the chariot with him.[a] 16 Then he said: "Do go along with me and look upon my toleration of no rivalry[b] toward Jehovah." And they kept him riding with him in his war chariot. 17 Finally he came to Sa·mar'i·a. Now he went striking down all who were left over of A'hab's in Sa·mar'i·a, until he had annihilated them,[c] according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken to E·li'jah.[d]

18 Further, Je'hu collected all the people together and said to them: "A'hab, on the one hand, worshiped Ba'al a little.[e] Je'hu, on the other hand, will worship him a great deal. 19 So now call all the prophets[f] of Ba'al, all his worshipers[g] and all his priests[h] to me. Do not let a single one be missing, because I have a great sacrifice for Ba'al. Anyone that is missing will not keep living." As for Je'hu, he acted slyly,[i] for the purpose of destroying the worshipers of Ba'al.

20 And Je'hu went on to say: "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Ba'al." Accordingly they proclaimed it. 21 After that Je'hu sent through all Israel,[j] so that all the worshipers of Ba'al came in. And not a single one was left over that did not come in. And they kept coming into the house of Ba'al,[k] and the house of Ba'al came to be full from end to end. 22 He now said to the one who was over the wardrobe: "Bring out garments for all the worshipers of Ba'al." So he brought the attire out for them. 23 Then Je'hu entered with Je·hon'a·dab[l] the son of Re'chab into the house of Ba'al. He now said to the worshipers of Ba'al: "Search carefully and see that there may be here with

YOU none of the worshipers of Jehovah, but only the worshipers of Ba'al."[a] 24 Finally they came in to render up sacrifices and burnt offerings, and Je'hu himself stationed eighty men outside at his disposal and went on to say: "As for the man that escapes from the men whom I am bringing into YOUR hands, the one's soul will go for the other's soul."[b]

25 And it came about that as soon as he finished rendering up the burnt offering, Je'hu immediately said to the runners and the adjutants: "Come in, strike them down! Do not let a single one go out."[c] And the runners and the adjutants[d] began to strike them down with the edge of the sword and to throw them out, and they kept going as far as the city of the house of Ba'al. 26 Then they brought out the sacred pillars[e] of the house of Ba'al and burned[f] each one. 27 Further, they pulled down the sacred pillar of Ba'al[g] and pulled down the house of Ba'al,[h] and they kept it set aside for privies[i] down to this day.

28 Thus Je'hu annihilated Ba'al out of Israel. 29 It was only the sins of Jer·o·bo'am[j] the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin,[k] that Je'hu did not turn aside from following them, [that is,] the golden calves[l] of which one was in Beth'el and one in Dan.[m] 30 Consequently Jehovah said to Je'hu: "For the reason that you have acted well in doing what is right in my eyes,[n] [and] according to all that was in my heart you have done to the house of A'hab,[o] sons themselves to the fourth generation will sit for you upon the throne of Israel."[p] 31 And Je'hu himself did not take care to walk in the law of Jehovah the God of Israel with all his heart.[q] He did not turn aside from the sins of Jer·o·bo'am with which he caused Israel to sin.[r]

32 In those days Jehovah started to cut off Israel piece by piece; and Haz'a·el[a] kept striking them in all the territory of Israel, 33 from the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, all the land of Gil'e·ad,[b] the Gad'ites[c] and the Reu'ben·ites[d] and the Ma·nas'sites,[e] from A·ro'er,[f] which is by the torrent valley of Ar'non, even Gil'e·ad and Ba'shan.[g]

34 And the rest of the affairs of Je'hu and all that he did and all his mightiness, are they not written in the book[h] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 35 Finally Je'hu lay down with his forefathers,[i] and they buried him in Sa·mar'i·a; and Je·ho'a·haz[j] his son began to reign in place of him. 36 And the days that Je'hu had reigned over Israel were twenty-eight years in Sa·mar'i·a.

11 Now as regards Ath·a·li'ah[k] the mother of A·ha·zi'ah,[l] she saw that her son had died. So she rose up and destroyed all the offspring of the kingdom.[m] 2 However, Je·hosh'e·ba[n] the daughter of King Je·ho'ram, the sister of A·ha·zi'ah, took Je·ho'ash[o] the son of A·ha·zi'ah and stole him from among the sons of the king that were to be put to death, even him and his nursing woman, into the inner room for the couches, and they kept him concealed[p] from the face of Ath·a·li'ah, and he was not put to death. 3 And he continued with her at the house of Jehovah in hiding for six years, while Ath·a·li'ah was reigning over the land.[q]

4 And in the seventh year Je·hoi'a·da[r] sent and then took the chiefs of hundreds of the Ca'ri·an[s] bodyguard and of the runners[t] and brought them to himself at the house of Jehovah and concluded a covenant[u] with them and made them swear[a] at the house of Jehovah, after which he showed them the son of the king. 5 And he went on to command them, saying: "This is the thing that YOU will do: One third of YOU are coming in on the sabbath and keeping strict watch over the king's house;[b] 6 and one third will be at the Gate[c] of the Foundation, and one third will be at the gate behind the runners; and YOU must keep strict watch over the house[d] by turns. 7 And there are two divisions among YOU that are all going out on the sabbath, and they must keep strict watch over the house of Jehovah in behalf of the king. 8 And YOU must encircle the king all around, each one with his weapons in his hand; and anyone entering within the rows will be put to death. And continue with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

9 And the chiefs of hundreds[e] proceeded to do according to all that Je·hoi'a·da the priest had commanded. So they took each one his men that were coming in on the sabbath,[f] together with those that were going out on the sabbath, and then came in to Je·hoi'a·da the priest. 10 The priest now gave the chiefs of hundreds the spears and the circular shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the house of Jehovah.[g] 11 And the runners[h] kept standing each one with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house clear to the left side of the house, by the altar[i] and by the house, all around near the king. 12 Then he brought the son[j] of the king out and put upon him the diadem[k] and the Testimony;[l] and so they made him king[m] and anointed him.[n] And they began to clap their hands[o] and say: "Let the king live!"[p]

13 When Ath·a·li'ah heard the sound of the people running, she at once came to the people at the house of Jehovah.[a] 14 Then she saw, and there the king was standing by the pillar[b] according to the custom, and the chiefs and the trumpets[c] by the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing[d] and blowing the trumpets. Immediately Ath·a·li'ah[e] ripped her garments apart and began crying: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!"[f] 15 But Je·hoi'a·da the priest commanded the chiefs of hundreds, the appointed ones of the military force,[g] and said to them: "Take her out from inside the rows, and, as for anyone coming after her, let there be an execution of death with the sword!"[h] For the priest had said: "Do not let her be put to death in the house of Jehovah." 16 So they laid their hands upon her and she came by the way of the horse entry[i] of the king's house,[j] and she got put to death there.[k]

17 Then Je·hoi'a·da concluded the covenant[l] between Jehovah[m] and the king[n] and the people, that they should prove themselves the people of Jehovah; and also between the king and the people.[o] 18 After that all the people of the land came to the house of Ba'al and pulled down his altars;[p] and his images they broke up thoroughly,[q] and Mat'tan[r] the priest of Ba'al they killed before the altars.[s]

And the priest proceeded to put overseers over the house of Jehovah.[t] 19 Further, he took the chiefs of hundreds and the Ca'ri·an[u] bodyguard and the runners[v] and all the people of the land, that they might bring the king down from the house of Jehovah; and they came gradually by the way of the gate[w] of the runners to the king's house; and he began to sit upon the throne[x] of the kings. 20 And all the people of the land continued to rejoice;[y] and the city, for its part, had no disturbance, and Ath·a·li'ah herself they had put to death with the sword at the king's house.[a]

21 Seven years old Je·ho'ash[b] was when he began to reign.[c]

4 And Je·ho'ash proceeded to say to the priests:[h] "All the money for the holy offerings[i] that is brought to the house of Jehovah,[j] the money at which each one is assessed,[k] the money for the souls according to individual valuation,[l] all the money that it comes up on the heart of each one to bring to the house of Jehovah,[m] 5 let the priests take for themselves, each one from his acquaintance;[n] and let them, for their part, repair the cracks of the house wherever any crack is found."[o]

6 And it came about that by the twenty-third year of King Je·ho'ash, the priests had not yet repaired the cracks of the house.[p] 7 So King Je·ho'ash called Je·hoi'a·da[q] the priest and the priests and said to them: "Why is it that YOU are not repairing the cracks of the house? Now, then, do not take any more money from YOUR acquaintances, but for the cracks of the house YOU should give it."[r] 8 At that the priests consented not to take any more money from the people and not to repair the cracks of the house.

9 Je·hoi'a·da the priest now took a chest[s] and bored a hole in its lid and put it beside the altar on the right as a person comes into the house of Jehovah, and there the priests, the doorkeepers,[a] put all the money[b] that was being brought into the house of Jehovah. 10 And it came about that as soon as they saw that there was a great deal of money in the chest, the secretary[c] of the king and the high priest would come up, and they would bind it up and count the money that was being found at the house of Jehovah.[d] 11 And they gave the money that had been counted off over to the hands of doers[e] of the work that were appointed [to] the house of Jehovah. In turn they paid it out to the workers in wood and to the builders that were working at the house of Jehovah, 12 and to the masons and to the hewers of stone,[f] and to buy timbers and hewn stones for repairing the cracks of the house of Jehovah and for all that was expended upon the house to repair it.

13 Only as respects the house of Jehovah there were not made basins of silver, extinguishers,[g] bowls,[h] trumpets,[i] any sort of gold article and article of silver from the money that was being brought to the house of Jehovah;[j] 14 for it was to the doers of the work that they would give it, and with it they repaired the house of Jehovah.[k] 15 And they would not call for an accounting[l] with the men into whose hand they would give the money to give to the doers of the work,[m] because it was with faithfulness[n] that they were working. 16 As for the money for guilt offerings[o] and the money for sin offerings, it was not being brought to the house of Jehovah. So it came to belong to the priests.[p]

17 Then it was that Haz'a·el[q] the king of Syria proceeded to go up and fight against Gath[r] and capture it, after which Haz'a·el set his face[s] to go up against Jerusalem.[a] 18 At that Je·ho'ash the king of Judah took all the holy offerings[b] that Je·hosh'a·phat and Je·ho'ram and A·ha·zi'ah his forefathers, the kings of Judah, had sanctified and his own holy offerings and all the gold to be found in the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the house of the king and sent[c] them to Haz'a·el the king of Syria. So he withdrew from against Jerusalem.

19 As for the rest of the affairs of Je·ho'ash and all that he did, are they not written in the book[d] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 20 However, his servants[e] rose up and leagued together in a conspiracy[f] and struck Je·ho'ash down at the house[g] of the Mound,[h] [on the way] that goes down to Sil'la. 21 And Jo'za·car the son of Shim'e·ath and Je·hoz'a·bad[i] the son of Sho'mer, his servants, were the ones that struck him down, so that he died. Accordingly they buried him with his forefathers in the City of David; and Am·a·zi'ah[j] his son began to reign in place of him.

13 In the twenty-third year of Je·ho'ash[k] the son of A·ha·zi'ah[l] the king of Judah, Je·ho'a·haz[m] the son of Je'hu[n] became king over Israel in Sa·mar'i·a for seventeen years. 2 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes[o] and went walking in pursuit of the sin of Jer·o·bo'am[p] the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.[q] He did not turn aside from it. 3 And Jehovah's anger[r] became hot against Israel, so that he gave them into the hand of Haz'a·el[s] the king of Syria and into the hand of Ben-ha'dad[t] the son of Haz'a·el all their days.

4 In time Je·ho'a·haz softened[u] the face of Jehovah, so that Jehovah listened[v] to him; for he had seen the oppression upon Israel,[a] because the king of Syria had oppressed them.[b] 5 Consequently Jehovah gave Israel a savior,[c] so that they came out from under the hand of Syria, and the sons of Israel continued to dwell in their homes as formerly.[d] 6 (Only they did not depart from the sin of the house of Jer·o·bo'am, with which he caused Israel to sin.[e] In it he walked;[f] and even the sacred pole[g] itself stood in Sa·mar'i·a.) 7 For he had not left to Je·ho'a·haz any people but fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand men on foot,[h] because the king of Syria had destroyed them,[i] that he might make them like the dust at threshing.[j]

8 As for the rest of the affairs of Je·ho'a·haz and all that he did and his mightiness, are they not written in the book[k] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 9 Finally Je·ho'a·haz lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in Sa·mar'i·a;[l] and Je·ho'ash[m] his son began to reign in place of him.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Je·ho'ash the king of Judah, Je·ho'ash[n] the son of Je·ho'a·haz became king over Israel in Sa·mar'i·a for sixteen years. 11 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[o] He did not depart from all the sins of Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat, with which he made Israel sin.[p] In them he walked.

had taken sick with the sickness with which he was to die.[a] So Je·ho'ash the king of Israel came down to him and began to weep over his face and say: "My father,[b] my father, the war chariot of Israel and his horsemen!"[c] 15 And E·li'sha proceeded to say to him: "Take a bow and arrows." So he took to himself a bow and arrows. 16 And he went on to say to the king of Israel: "Put your hand to the bow." Accordingly he put his hand to it, after which E·li'sha laid his hands upon the hands[d] of the king. 17 Then he said: "Open the window to the east." So he opened it. Finally E·li'sha said: "Shoot!" So he shot. He now said: "Jehovah's arrow of salvation, even the arrow of salvation[e] against Syria! And you will certainly strike down Syria at A'phek[f] to the finishing point."

18 And he went on to say: "Take the arrows." At that he took [them]. Then he said to the king of Israel: "Strike on the earth." So he struck three times and stopped.[g] 19 And the man of the [true] God[h] grew indignant at him; hence he said: "It was meant to strike five or six times! In that case you would certainly be striking down Syria to the finishing point, but now it is three times that you will strike down Syria."[i]

20 After that E·li'sha died and they buried him.[j] And there were marauding bands[k] of the Mo'ab·ites[l] that regularly came into the land at the coming in of the year. 21 And it came about that as they were burying a man, why, here they saw the marauding band. At once they threw the man into E·li'sha's burial place and went off. When the man touched the bones of E·li'sha, he immediately came to life[m] and stood upon his feet.[n]

22 As for Haz'a·el[o] the king of Syria, he oppressed[a] Israel all the days of Je·ho'a·haz. 23 However, Jehovah showed them favor[b] and had mercy[c] upon them and turned to them for the sake of his covenant[d] with Abraham,[e] Isaac[f] and Jacob;[g] and he did not want to bring them to ruin,[h] and he did not cast them away from before his face until now. 24 Finally Haz'a·el the king of Syria died, and Ben-ha'dad his son began to reign in place of him. 25 And Je·ho'ash the son of Je·ho'a·haz proceeded to take back again from the hand of Ben-ha'dad the son of Haz'a·el the cities that he had taken from the hand of Je·ho'a·haz his father in war. Three times Je·ho'ash struck him down, and he got to recover the cities of Israel.[i]

14 In the second year of Je·ho'ash[j] the son of Je·ho'a·haz the king of Israel, Am·a·zi'ah[k] the son of Je·ho'ash the king of Judah became king. 2 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je·ho·ad'din[l] of Jerusalem. 3 And he continued to do what was upright in Jehovah's eyes,[m] only not like David his forefather.[n] According to all that Je·ho'ash his father had done, he did.[o] 4 It was only the high places that did not disappear.[p] The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.[q] 5 And it came about that as soon as the kingdom had become firm in his hand, he began to strike down[r] his servants that had struck down the king his father.[s] 6 And the sons of the strikers he did not put to death, according to what is written in the book of Moses' law that Jehovah gave in command, saying:[t] "Fathers should not be put to death for sons, and sons themselves should not be put to death for fathers; but for his own sin should each one be put to death."[a] 7 He himself struck down the E'dom·ites[b] in the Valley of Salt,[c] ten thousand men, and got to seize Se'la in the war, and its name came to be called Jok'the·el down to this day.

8 Then it was that Am·a·zi'ah sent messengers to Je·ho'ash the son of Je·ho'a·haz the son of Je'hu the king of Israel, saying: "Do come. Let us look each other in the face."[d] 9 At that Je·ho'ash the king of Israel sent to Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah, saying: "The thorny weed itself that was in Leb'a·non sent to the cedar[e] that was in Leb'a·non, saying, 'Do give your daughter to my son as a wife.' However, a wild beast of the field that was in Leb'a·non passed by and trampled the thorny weed down.[f] 10 You have unmistakably struck down[g] E'dom, and your heart has lifted you up.[h] Enjoy your honor[i] and dwell in your own house. Why, then, should you engage in strife[j] under unfavorable conditions[k] and have to fall, you and Judah with you?" 11 And Am·a·zi'ah did not listen.[l]

So Je·ho'ash the king of Israel came up, and they proceeded to look each other in the face,[m] he and Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah, at Beth-she'mesh,[n] which belongs to Judah. 12 And Judah came to be defeated before Israel,[o] so that they took to flight, each one to his tent. 13 And it was Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah the son of Je·ho'ash the son of A·ha·zi'ah that Je·ho'ash the king of Israel captured at Beth-she'mesh, after which they came to Jerusalem and he made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem at the Gate of E'phra·im[p] clear to the Corner Gate,[q] four hundred cubits. 14 And he took all the gold and silver and all the articles to be found at the house of Jehovah[a] and in the treasures of the house of the king and the hostages and then returned to Sa·mar'i·a.

15 As for the rest of the affairs of Je·ho'ash, what he did and his mightiness and how he fought against Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book[b] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 16 Finally Je·ho'ash lay down with his forefathers[c] and was buried in Sa·mar'i·a[d] with the kings of Israel, and Jer·o·bo'am[e] his son began to reign in place of him.

17 And Am·a·zi'ah[f] the son of Je·ho'ash the king of Judah continued to live after the death of Je·ho'ash[g] the son of Je·ho'a·haz the king of Israel for fifteen years.[h] 18 As for the rest of the affairs of Am·a·zi'ah, are they not written in the book[i] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah?[j] 19 At length they leagued against him in a conspiracy[k] at Jerusalem, and he went fleeing to La'chish;[l] but they sent in pursuit of him to La'chish and put him to death there.[m] 20 So they carried him upon horses and he was buried[n] in Jerusalem with his forefathers in the City of David.[o] 21 Then all the people of Judah took Az·a·ri'ah,[p] he at the time being sixteen years old,[q] and they made him king in place of his father Am·a·zi'ah.[r] 22 He himself built E'lath[s] and got to restore it to Judah after the king lay down with his forefathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Am·a·zi'ah the son of Je·ho'ash the king of Judah, Jer·o·bo'am[t] the son of Je·ho'ash the king of Israel became king in Sa·mar'i·a for forty-one years. 24 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. He did not depart from all the sins of Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.[u]

25 He it was that restored the boundary of Israel from the entering in of Ha'math[a] clear to the sea of the Ar'a·bah,[b] according to the word of Jehovah the God of Israel who spoke by means of his servant Jo'nah[c] the son of A·mit'tai, the prophet that was from Gath-he'pher.[d] 26 For Jehovah had seen the very bitter affliction of Israel.[e] There was neither any helpless one nor any worthless one, nor was there a helper for Israel.[f] 27 And Jehovah had promised not to wipe out the name of Israel from under the heavens.[g] Consequently he saved[h] them by the hand of Jer·o·bo'am the son of Je·ho'ash.

28 As for the rest of the affairs of Jer·o·bo'am and all that he did and his mightiness, how he fought and how he restored Damascus[i] and Ha'math[j] to Judah in Israel, are they not written in the book of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 29 Finally Jer·o·bo'am lay down with his forefathers, with the kings of Israel, and Zech·a·ri'ah[k] his son began to reign in place of him.

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jer·o·bo'am the king of Israel, Az·a·ri'ah[l] the son of Am·a·zi'ah[m] the king of Judah became king. 2 Sixteen years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for fifty-two years he reigned in Jerusalem.[n] And his mother's name was Je·co·li'ah of Jerusalem. 3 And he continued to do what was upright in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that Am·a·zi'ah his father had done.[o] 4 It was only that the high places did not disappear.[p] The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.[q] 5 Finally Jehovah plagued the king,[r] and he continued to be a leper[s] until the day of his death, and he kept dwelling in his house exempt from duties,[t] while Jo'tham[a] the king's son was over the house, judging[b] the people of the land. 6 As for the rest of the affairs of Az·a·ri'ah and all that he did, are they not written in the book[c] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 7 At length Az·a·ri'ah lay down with his forefathers,[d] and they buried him with his forefathers in the City of David; and Jo'tham his son began to reign in place of him.[e]

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Az·a·ri'ah[f] the king of Judah, Zech·a·ri'ah[g] the son of Jer·o·bo'am became king over Israel in Sa·mar'i·a for six months. 9 And he went on doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as his forefathers had done.[h] He did not depart from the sins of Jer·o·bo'am[i] the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.[j] 10 Then Shal'lum the son of Ja'besh conspired[k] against him and struck[l] him down at Ib'le·am[m] and put him to death and began to reign in place of him. 11 As for the rest of the affairs of Zech·a·ri'ah, there they are written in the book[n] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel. 12 That was Jehovah's word[o] that he had spoken to Je'hu, saying:[p] "Sons[q] themselves to the fourth generation will sit for you upon the throne of Israel." And it came to be that way.[r]

13 As for Shal'lum the son of Ja'besh, he became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uz·zi'ah[s] the king of Judah, and he continued to reign for a full lunar month in Sa·mar'i·a.[t] 14 Then Men'a·hem[u] the son of Ga'di came up from Tir'zah[v] and came to Sa·mar'i·a and struck down Shal'lum[w] the son of Ja'besh in Sa·mar'i·a and put him to death; and he began to reign in place of him. 15 As for the rest of the affairs of Shal'lum and his conspiracy[x]

with which he conspired, there they are written in the book of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel. 16 It was then that Men'a·hem proceeded to strike down Tiph'sah and all that was in it and its territory out from Tir'zah, because it did not open up, and he went striking it down. All its pregnant women he ripped up.[a]

17 In the thirty-ninth[b] year of Az·a·ri'ah the king of Judah, Men'a·hem the son of Ga'di became king over Israel for ten years in Sa·mar'i·a. 18 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[c] He did not depart from all the sins of Jer·o·bo'am[d] the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin,[e] all his days. 19 Pul[f] the king of As·syr'i·a[g] came into the land. Consequently Men'a·hem gave[h] Pul a thousand talents of silver,[i] that his hands might prove to be with him to strengthen the kingdom in his own hand.[j] 20 So Men'a·hem brought forth the silver at the expense of Israel, at the expense of all the valiant, mighty men,[k] to give to the king of As·syr'i·a fifty silver shekels for each man. At that the king of As·syr'i·a turned back, and he did not stay there in the land. 21 As for the rest of the affairs of Men'a·hem[l] and all that he did, are they not written in the book[m] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 22 Finally Men'a·hem lay down with his forefathers, and Pek·a·hi'ah[n] his son began to reign in place of him.

23 In the fiftieth year of Az·a·ri'ah the king of Judah, Pek·a·hi'ah the son of Men'a·hem became king over Israel in Sa·mar'i·a for two[o] years. 24 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[p] He did not depart from the sins of Jer·o·bo'am[q] the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.[r] 25 Then Pe'kah[s] the son of Rem·a·li'ah his adjutant[t] conspired[a] against him and struck him down in Sa·mar'i·a in the dwelling tower of the king's house[b] with Ar'gob and A·ri'eh, and with him there were fifty men of the sons of Gil'e·ad. So he put him to death and began to reign in place of him. 26 As for the rest of the affairs of Pek·a·hi'ah and all that he did, there they are written in the book[c] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel.

27 In the fifty-second year of Az·a·ri'ah the king of Judah, Pe'kah[d] the son of Rem·a·li'ah[e] became king over Israel in Sa·mar'i·a for twenty years. 28 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[f] He did not depart from the sins of Jer·o·bo'am[g] the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.[h] 29 In the days of Pe'kah the king of Israel, Tig'lath-pil·e'ser[i] the king of As·syr'i·a[j] came in and proceeded to take I'jon[k] and A'bel-beth-ma'a·cah[l] and Ja·no'ah and Ke'desh[m] and Ha'zor[n] and Gil'e·ad[o] and Gal'i·lee,[p] all the land of Naph'ta·li,[q] and to carry them into exile in As·syr'i·a.[r] 30 Finally Ho·she'a[s] the son of E'lah formed a conspiracy[t] against Pe'kah the son of Rem·a·li'ah and struck him[u] and put him to death; and he began to reign in place of him in the twentieth year of Jo'tham[v] the son of Uz·zi'ah. 31 As for the rest of the affairs of Pe'kah and all that he did, there they are written in the book[w] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second year of Pe'kah the son of Rem·a·li'ah the king of Israel, Jo'tham[x] the son of Uz·zi'ah[y] the king of Judah became king. 33 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je·ru'sha the daughter of Za'dok.[z] 34 And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes.[a] According to all that Uz·zi'ah his father had done, he did.[b] 35 It was only that the high places did not disappear. The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.[c]

He it was that built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah.[d] 36 As for the rest of the affairs of Jo'tham, what he did, are they not written in the book of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah?[e] 37 In those days Jehovah started to send[f] against Judah Re'zin[g] the king of Syria and Pe'kah[h] the son of Rem·a·li'ah. 38 Finally Jo'tham lay down with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David his forefather;[i] and A'haz[j] his son began to reign in place of him.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pe'kah the son of Rem·a·li'ah, A'haz[k] the son of Jo'tham the king of Judah became king. 2 Twenty years old was A'haz when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the eyes of Jehovah his God like David his forefather.[l] 3 And he went walking in the way of the kings of Israel,[m] and even his own son he made pass through the fire,[n] according to the detestable[o] things of the nations whom Jehovah drove out because of the sons of Israel. 4 And he kept sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places[p] and upon the hills[q] and under every luxuriant tree.[r]

5 It was then that Re'zin[s]
the king of Syria and Pe'kah[t]
the son of Rem·a·li'ah the king of Israel proceeded to come up against Jerusalem in war and laid siege against A'haz, but they were not able to fight.[u] 6 At that time Re'zin the king of Syria restored E'lath[v] to E'dom, after which he cleared out the Jews from E'lath; and the E'dom·ites, for their part, entered E'lath and kept dwelling there down to this day.
7 So A'haz sent messengers to Tig'lath-pil·e'ser[a] the king of
As·syr'i·a, saying: "I am your servant[b] and your son. Come up and save[c] me out of the palm of the king of Syria and out of the palm of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me."
8 Accordingly A'haz took the silver and the gold that was to be found at the house of Jehovah and in the treasures of the king's house[d] and sent the king of As·syr'i·a a bribe.[e] 9 At that the king of As·syr'i·a listened to him and the king of As·syr'i·a went up to Damascus[f] and captured it[g] and led its [people] into exile at Kir,[h] and Re'zin[i] he put to death.

10 Then King A'haz[j] went to meet Tig'lath-pil·e'ser[k] the king of As·syr'i·a at Damascus, and he got to see the altar[l] that was in Damascus. So King A'haz sent U·ri'jah the priest the design of the altar and its pattern as respects all its workmanship.[m] 11 And U·ri'jah[n]
the priest proceeded to build the altar.[o] According to all that King A'haz had sent from Damascus was the way that U·ri'jah the priest made it, pending the time that King A'haz came from Damascus.
12 When the king came from Damascus, the king got to see the altar; and the king began to go near to the altar[p] and make offerings upon it.[q] 13 And he continued to make his burnt offering[r] and his grain offerings[s] smoke[t] and to pour out his drink offering[u] and to sprinkle the blood of the communion sacrifices that were his upon the altar. 14 And the copper altar[v] that was before Jehovah he now brought near from in front of the house, from between his altar and the house[a] of Jehovah, and put it at the north side of his altar. 15 And King A'haz went on to command him, even U·ri'jah[b] the priest, saying:

"Upon the great altar make the burnt offering of the morning smoke,[c] also the grain offering of the evening[d] and the burnt offering of the king[e] and his grain offering and the burnt offering of all the people of the land and their grain offering and their drink offerings; and all the blood of burnt offering and all the blood of a sacrifice you should sprinkle upon it. As for the copper altar, it will become something for me to take under consideration." 16 And U·ri'jah[f] the priest went doing according to all that King A'haz had commanded.[g]

17 Furthermore, King A'haz cut[h] the sidewalls[i] of the carriages[j] in pieces and removed from off them the basins;[k] and the sea[l] he took down off the copper bulls[m] that were underneath it and then put it upon a stone pavement. 18 And the covered structure for the sabbath that they had built in the house and the king's outer entryway he shifted from the house of Jehovah because of the king of As·syr'i·a.

19 As for the rest of the affairs of A'haz, what he did, are they not written in the book[n] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 20 Finally A'haz lay down with his forefathers
and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David;[o] and Hez·e·ki'ah[p] his son began to reign in place of him.

17 In the twelfth year of A'haz the king of Judah, Ho·she'a[q] the son of E'lah became king in Sa·mar'i·a[r] over Israel for nine years. 2 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, only not as the kings of Israel that happened to be prior to him.[s] 3 It was against him that Shal·man·e'ser[a] the king of As·syr'i·a[b] came up, and Ho·she'a came to be his servant and began to pay tribute[c] to him. 4 However, the king of As·syr'i·a got to find conspiracy[d] in Ho·she'a's case, in that he had sent messengers to So the king of Egypt[e] and did not bring the tribute up to the king of As·syr'i·a as in former years. Hence the king of As·syr'i·a shut him up and kept him bound in the house of detention.[f]

5 And the king of As·syr'i·a proceeded to come up against all the land and to come up to Sa·mar'i·a and lay siege[g] against it for three years. 6 In the ninth year of Ho·she'a, the king of As·syr'i·a captured Sa·mar'i·a[h] and then led Israel into exile[i] in As·syr'i·a and kept them dwelling in Ha'lah[j] and in Ha'bor at the river Go'zan[k] and in the cities of the Medes.[l]

7 And it came about because the sons of Israel had sinned[m] against Jehovah their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Phar'aoh the king of Egypt,[n] and they began to fear other gods;[o] 8 and they kept walking in the statutes[p] of the nations whom Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel, and [in the statutes of] the kings of Israel that they had made; 9 and the sons of Israel went searching into the things that were not right toward Jehovah their God[q] and kept building themselves high places[r] in all their cities, from the tower[s] of the watchmen clear to the fortified city; 10 and they kept setting up for themselves sacred pillars[t] and sacred poles[u] upon every high hill[v] and under there on all the high places they continued to make sacrificial tions[a] whom Jehovah had taken into exile because of them, and they kept doing bad things to offend[b] Jehovah;

12 And they continued to serve dungy idols,[c] concerning which Jehovah had said to them: "You must not do this thing";[d] 13 and Jehovah kept warning[e] Israel[f] and Judah[g] by means of all his prophets[h] [and] every visionary,[i] saying: "Turn back from YOUR bad ways[j] and keep my commandments,[k] my statutes,[l] according to all the law[m] that I commanded YOUR forefathers[n] and that I have sent to YOU by means of my servants the prophets";[o] 14 and they did not listen but kept hardening their necks[p] like the necks of their forefathers that had not exercised faith[q] in Jehovah their God; 15 and they continued rejecting his regulations and his covenant[r] that he had concluded with their forefathers and his reminders[s] with which he had warned them, and they went following vain idols[t] and became vain[u] themselves, even in imitation of the nations that were all around them, concerning whom Jehovah had commanded them not to do like them;[v]

16 And they kept leaving all the commandments[w] of Jehovah their God and proceeded to make for themselves molten statues,[x] two calves,[y] and to make a sacred pole,[z] and they began to bow down to all the army of the heavens[a] and to serve Ba'al;[b] 17 and they continued to make their sons and their daughters pass through the fire[c] and to practice divination[d] and to look for omens,[e] and they kept selling[f] themselves to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, to offend[g] him;

18 Therefore Jehovah got very incensed[h] against Israel, so that he removed them from his sight.[i] He did not let any remain but the tribe of Judah alone.[a]

19 Even Judah itself did not keep the commandments of Jehovah their God,[b] but they went walking in the statutes of Israel[c] that they had made. 20 Consequently Jehovah rejected all the seed[d] of Israel and kept afflicting them and giving them into the hand of pillagers, until he had cast them away from before him.[e] 21 For he ripped Israel off from the house of David, and they proceeded to make Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat king; and Jer·o·bo'am[f] proceeded to part Israel from following Jehovah, and he caused them to sin with a great sin.[g] 22 And the sons of Israel went walking in all the sins of Jer·o·bo'am that he had done.[h] They did not depart from them, 23 until Jehovah removed Israel from his sight,[i] just as he had spoken by means of all his servants the prophets.[j] So Israel went off its own soil into exile in As·syr'i·a down to this day.[k]

24 Subsequently the king of As·syr'i·a brought people from Babylon[l] and Cu'thah and Av'va[m] and Ha'math[n] and Seph·ar·va'im[o] and had them dwell in the cities of Sa·mar'i·a[p] instead of the sons of Israel; and they began to take possession of Sa·mar'i·a and to dwell in its cities. 25 And it came about at the start of their dwelling there that they did not fear[q] Jehovah. Therefore Jehovah sent lions[r] among them, and they came to be killers among them. 26 So they sent word to the king of As·syr'i·a, saying: "The nations that you have taken into exile and then settled in the cities of Sa·mar'i·a have not known the religion of the God of the land, so that he keeps sending lions among them;[a] and, look! they are putting them to death, inasmuch as there are none knowing the religion of the God of the land."

27 At that the king of As·syr'i·a commanded, saying: "Have one of the priests[b] go there whom YOU led into exile from there, that he may go and dwell there and teach them the religion of the God of the land." 28 Accordingly one of the priests whom they had led into exile from Sa·mar'i·a came and began dwelling in Beth'el,[c] and he came to be a teacher of them as to how they ought to fear Jehovah.[d]

29 However, each different nation came to be a maker of its own god,[e] which they then deposited in the house of the high places that the Sa·mar'i·tans had made, each different nation, in their cities where they were dwelling. 30 And the men of Babylon, for their part, made Suc'coth-be'noth, and the men of Cuth,[f] for their part, made Ner'gal, and the men of Ha'math, for their part, made A·shi'ma. 31 As for the Av'vites,[g] they made Nib'haz and Tar'tak; and the Se'phar·vites[h] were burning their sons in the fire[i] to A·dram'me·lech and A·nam'me·lech the gods of Seph·ar·va'im. 32 And they came to be fearers of Jehovah and went making for themselves from the people in general priests[j] of high places, and they came to be functionaries for them in the house of the high places. 33 It was of Jehovah that they became fearers,[k] but it was of their own gods that they proved to be worshipers,[l] according to the religion of the nations from among whom they had led them into exile.[m]

34 Down to this day they are doing according to their former religions.[n] There were none fearing Jehovah[a] and none doing according to his statutes and his judicial decisions[b] and the law[c] and the commandment[d] that Jehovah had commanded the sons of Jacob,[e] whose name he made Israel;[f] 35 when Jehovah concluded a covenant[g] with them and commanded them, saying: "YOU must not fear other gods,[h] and YOU must not bow down to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them.[i] 36 But Jehovah, who brought YOU up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched-out arm,[j] is the One whom YOU should fear,[k] and to him YOU should bow down,[l] and to him YOU should sacrifice.[m] 37 And the regulations[n] and the judicial decisions[o] and the law and the commandment that he wrote for YOU,[p] YOU should take care to do always;[q] and YOU must not fear other gods. 38 And the covenant that I have concluded with YOU, YOU must not forget;[r] and YOU must not fear other gods.[s] 39 But it is Jehovah[t] YOUR God that YOU should fear, as he is the one that will deliver YOU out of the hand of all YOUR enemies."[u]

40 And they did not obey, but it was according to their former religion that they were doing.[v] 41 And these nations came to be fearers of Jehovah,[w] but it was their own graven images that they proved to be serving. As for both their sons and their grandsons, it was just as their forefathers had done that they themselves are doing down to this day.

18 And it came about in the third year of Ho·she'a[x] the son of E'lah the king of Israel that Hez·e·ki'ah[y] the son of A'haz[z] the king of Judah became king. 2 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Aʹbi the daughter of Zech·a·riʹah.[a] 3 And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes,[b] according to all that David his forefather had done.[c] 4 He it was that removed the high places[d] and broke the sacred pillars[e] to pieces and cut down the sacred[f] pole and crushed to pieces the copper serpent[g] that Moses had made;[h] for down to those days the sons of Israel had continually been making sacrificial[i] smoke to it, and it used to be called the copper serpent-idol.[j] 5 In Jehovah the God of Israel he trusted;[k] and after him there proved to be no one like him among all the kings of Judah,[l] even those who had happened to be prior to him.[m] 6 And he kept sticking to Jehovah.[n] He did not turn aside from following him, but he continued keeping his commandments that Jehovah had commanded Moses.[o] 7 And Jehovah proved to be with him.[p] Wherever he would go out, he would act prudently;[q] and he proceeded to rebel against the king of As·syrʹi·a and did not serve him.[r] 8 It was he that struck down the Phi·lisʹtines[s] clear to Gaʹza[t] and also its territories, from the tower[u] of the watchmen clear to the fortified city.

9 And it came about in the fourth year of King Hez·e·kiʹah, that is, the seventh year of Ho·sheʹa[v] the son of Eʹlah the king of Israel, that Shal·man·eʹser[w] the king of As·syrʹi·a came up against Sa·marʹi·a and began to lay siege to it.[x] 10 And they got to capture it[y] at the end of three years; in the sixth year of Hez·e·kiʹah, that is, the ninth year of Ho·sheʹa the king of Israel, Sa·marʹi·a was captured.[z] 11 After that the king of As·syrʹi·a[a] took Israel into exile[b] in As·syrʹi·a and set them down in Haʹlah[c] and in Haʹbor[d] at the river Goʹzan[a] and in the cities of the Medes,[b] 12 over the fact that they had not listened[c] to the voice of Jehovah their God, but kept overstepping his covenant,[d] even all that Moses[e] the servant of Jehovah had commanded.[f] They neither listened nor performed.

13 And in the fourteenth year of King Hez·e·kiʹah, Sen·nachʹer·ib[g] the king of As·syrʹi·a[h] came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and proceeded to seize them. 14 So Hez·e·kiʹah the king of Judah sent to the king of As·syrʹi·a at Laʹchish, saying: "I have sinned. Turn back from against me. Whatever you may impose upon me I shall carry."[i] Accordingly the king of As·syrʹi·a laid upon Hez·e·kiʹah the king of Judah three hundred silver talents[j] and thirty gold talents. 15 Therefore Hez·e·kiʹah gave all the silver that was to be found at the house of Jehovah[k] and in the treasures of the king's house.[l] 16 At that time Hez·e·kiʹah cut off the doors of the temple of Jehovah[m] and the doorposts that Hez·e·kiʹah the king of Judah had overlaid[n] and then gave them to the king of As·syrʹi·a.

17 And the king of As·syrʹi·a[o] proceeded to send Tarʹtan[p] and Rabʹsa·ris and Rabʹsha·keh[q] from Laʹchish[r] to King Hez·e·kiʹah with a heavy military force to Jerusalem, that they might go up and come to Jerusalem. So they went up and came and stood still by the conduit[s] of the upper pool,[t] which is at the highway of the laundryman's field.[u] 18 And they began to call out to the king, but there came out to them E·liʹa·kim[v] the son of Hil·kiʹah, who was over the household, and Shebʹnah[w] the secretary and Joʹah the son of Aʹsaph the recorder.

19 Accordingly Rabʹsha·keh[a] said to them: "Please, say to Hez·e·kiʹah, 'This is what the great king,[b] the king of As·syrʹi·a, has said: "What is this confidence in which you have trusted?[c] 20 You have said (but it is the word of lips), 'There are counsel[d] and mightiness for the war.' Now in whom have you put your trust, that you have rebelled[e] against me? 21 Now, look! you have put your trust in the support of this crushed reed,[f] Egypt,[g] which, if a man should brace himself upon it, would certainly enter into his palm and pierce it. That is the way Pharʹaoh[h] the king of Egypt is to all those putting their trust in him. 22 And in case YOU men should say to me, 'It is Jehovah[i] our God in whom we have put our trust,'[j] is he not the one whose high places[k] and whose altars Hez·e·kiʹah[l] has removed, while he says to Judah and Jerusalem, 'Before this altar YOU should bow down in Jerusalem'?"'[m] 23 Now, then, make a wager,[n] please, with my lord the king of As·syrʹi·a, and let me give you two thousand horses [to see] whether you are able, on your part, to put riders upon them.[o] 24 How, then, could you turn back the face of one governor of the smallest servants of my lord,[p] while you, for your part, put your trust in Egypt for chariots[q] and for horsemen?[r] 25 Now is it without authorization from Jehovah that I have come up against this place to bring it to ruin? Jehovah himself said to me,[s] 'Go up against this land, and you must bring it to ruin.'"

26 At this E·liʹa·kim[t] the son of Hil·kiʹah and Shebʹnah[u] and Joʹah[v] said to Rabʹsha·keh:[w] "Speak with your servants, please, in the Syrian language,[x] for we can listen; and do not speak with us in the Jews' language[a] in the ears of the people that are on the wall." 27 But Rabʹsha·keh said to them: "Is it to your lord and to you that my lord has sent me to speak these words? Is it not to the men sitting upon the wall, that they may eat their own excrement[b] and drink their own urine with YOU men?"[c]

28 And Rabʹsha·keh continued to stand and call out in a loud voice in the Jews' language;[d] and he went on to speak and say: "HEAR the word of the great king,[e] the king of As·syrʹi·a. 29 This is what the king has said, 'Do not let Hez·e·kiʹah deceive YOU people, for he is not able to deliver YOU out of my hand.[f] 30 And do not let Hez·e·kiʹah cause YOU to trust in Jehovah,[g] saying: "Without fail Jehovah will deliver[h] us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syrʹi·a."[i] 31 Do not listen to Hez·e·kiʹah; for this is what the king of As·syrʹi·a has said: "Make a capitulation to me, and come out to me, and eat each one from his own vine and each one from his own fig tree[j] and drink each one the water of his own cistern,[k] 32 until I come and I actually take YOU to a land like YOUR own land,[l] a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread[m] and vineyards,[n] a land of oil-olive trees and honey;[o] and keep living that YOU may not die. And do not listen to Hez·e·kiʹah, for he allures YOU, saying, 'Jehovah himself will deliver us.'[p] 33 Have the gods of the nations at all delivered[q] each one his own land out of the hand of the king of As·syrʹi·a?[r] 34 Where are the gods of Haʹmath[s] and Arʹpad?[t] Where are the gods of Seph·ar·vaʹim,[u] Heʹna[v] and Ivʹvah?[w] Have they delivered Sa·marʹi·a out of my hand?[x] 35 Who are there among all the gods of the lands that have delivered their land out of my hand,[a] so that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"'"[b]

36 And the people kept[c] silent and did not answer him[d] a word, for the commandment of the king was, saying: "You must not answer him."[e] 37 But E·li′a·kim[f] the son of Hil·ki′ah, who was over the household, and Sheb′nah[g] the secretary and Jo′ah[h] the son of A′saph the recorder came to Hez·e·ki′ah with their garments ripped apart[i] and told him the words of Rab′sha·keh.

19 And it came about that as soon as King Hez·e·ki′ah[j] heard, he immediately ripped his garments apart[k] and covered himself with sackcloth[l] and came into the house of Jehovah.[m] 2 Further, he sent E·li′a·kim,[n] who was over the household, and Sheb′nah[o] the secretary and the older men of the priests covered with sackcloth to Isaiah[p] the prophet the son of A′moz.[q] 3 And they proceeded to say to him: "This is what Hez·e·ki′ah has said, 'This day is a day of distress[r] and of rebuke[s] and of scornful insolence;[t] for the sons have come as far as the womb's mouth,[u] and there is no power to give birth.[v] 4 Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear[w] all the words of Rab′sha·keh, whom the king of As·syr′i·a his lord sent to taunt[x] the living God, and he will actually call him to account for the words that Jehovah your God has heard.[y] And you must lift up prayer[z] in behalf of the remnant[a] that are to be found.'"

5 So the servants of King Hez·e·ki′ah came in to Isaiah.[b] 6 Then Isaiah said to them: "This is what YOU should say to YOUR lord, 'This is what Jehovah has said:[c] "Do not be afraid[d] because of the words that you have heard with which the attendants[a] of the king of As·syr′i·a spoke abusively of me. 7 Here I am putting a spirit[b] in him, and he must hear a report[c] and return to his own land; and I shall certainly cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'"[d]

8 After that Rab′sha·keh[e] returned and found the king of As·syr′i·a fighting against Lib′nah;[f] for he had heard that he had pulled away from La′chish.[g] 9 He heard it said respecting Tir·ha′kah the king of E·thi·o′pi·a: "Here he has come out to fight against you." Therefore he sent messengers[h] again to Hez·e·ki′ah, saying: 10 "This is what YOU men should say to Hez·e·ki′ah the king of Judah, 'Do not let your God in whom you are trusting deceive you,[i] saying: "Jerusalem[j] will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a."[k] 11 Look! You yourself have heard what the kings of As·syr′i·a did to all the lands by devoting them to destruction;[l] and will you yourself be delivered?[m] 12 Have the gods[n] of the nations that my forefathers brought to ruin delivered them, even Go′zan[o] and Ha′ran[p] and Re′zeph and the sons of E′den[q] that were in Tel-as′sar?[r] 13 Where is he—the king of Ha′math[s] and the king of Ar′pad[t] and the king of the cities of Seph·ar·va′im, He′na and Iv′vah?'"[u]

14 Then Hez·e·ki′ah took the letters out of the hand of the messengers and read them,[v] after which Hez·e·ki′ah went up to the house of Jehovah and spread it out before Jehovah.[w] 15 And Hez·e·ki′ah began to pray[x] before Jehovah and say: "O Jehovah the God of Israel,[y] sitting upon the cherubs,[z] you alone are the [true] God of all the kingdoms[a] of the earth.[b] You yourself have made the heavens[c] and the earth.[d] 16 Incline your ear, O Jehovah, and hear.[e] Open your eyes,[f] O Jehovah, and see, and hear the words of Sen·nach′er·ib that he has sent to taunt[g] the living God. 17 It is a fact, O Jehovah, the kings of As·syr′i·a have devastated the nations and their land.[h] 18 And they have consigned their gods to the fire, because they were no gods,[i] but the workmanship of man's hands,[j] wood and stone; so that they destroyed them. 19 And now, O Jehovah our God,[k] save us,[l] please, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O Jehovah, are God alone."[m]

20 And Isaiah the son of A′moz proceeded to send to Hez·e·ki′ah, saying: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said,[n] 'The prayer[o] that you have made to me concerning Sen·nach′er·ib the king of As·syr′i·a I have heard.[p] 21 This is the word that Jehovah has spoken against him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you,[q] she has held you in derision.[r]
Behind you the daughter of Jerusalem[s] has wagged her head.[t]
22 Whom have you taunted[u] and spoken of abusively?[v]
And against whom have you lifted up your voice[w]
And do you raise your eyes on high?[x]
It is against the Holy One of Israel![y]
23 By means of your messengers[z] you have taunted Jehovah and you say,[a]
'With the multitude of my war chariots I myself[b]—
I shall certainly ascend the height of mountainous regions,[a]
The remotest parts of Leb′a·non;[b]
And I shall cut down its lofty cedars,[c] its choice juniper trees.[d]
And I will enter its final lodging place, the forest of its orchard.[e] 24 I myself shall certainly dig and drink strange waters,
And I shall dry up with the soles of my feet all the Nile canals of Egypt.'[f]
25 Have you not heard?[g] From remote times it is what I will do.[h]
From bygone days I have even formed it.[i]
Now I will bring it in.[j]
And you will serve to make fortified cities desolate as piles of ruins.[k]
26 And their inhabitants will be feeble-handed;[l]
They will simply be terrified and will be ashamed.[m]
They must become as vegetation of the field and green tender grass,[n]

27 And your sitting quiet and your going out[q] and your coming in I well know,[r]

And I shall certainly put my hook in your nose and my bridle between your lips,[a]
And I shall indeed lead you back by the way by which you have come."[b]

29 "'And this will be the sign for you:[c] There will be an eating this year of the growth from spilled kernels,[d] and in the second year grain that shoots up of itself; but in the third year sow seed,[e] you people, and reap and plant vineyards and eat their fruitage.[f] 30 And those who escape of the house of Judah, those who are left,[g] will certainly take root downward and produce fruitage upward.[h] 31 For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go forth,[i] and those who escape from Mount Zion.[j] The very zeal[k] of Jehovah of armies will do this.

32 "'That is why this is what Jehovah has said concerning the king of As·syr′i·a:[l] "He will not come into this city[m] nor will he shoot an arrow[n] there nor confront it with a shield nor cast up a siege rampart[o] against it. 33 By the way by which he proceeded to come, he will return, and into this city he will not come, is the utterance of Jehovah.[p] 34 And I shall certainly defend[q] this city to save it for my own[r] sake and for the sake of David my servant."'"[s]

35 And it came about on that night that the angel of Jehovah proceeded to go out and strike down a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp[t] of the As·syr′i·ans.[u] When people rose up early in the morning, why, there all of them were dead carcasses.[v] 36 Therefore Sen·nach′er·ib[w] the king of As·syr′i·a pulled away and went and returned,[x] and he took up dwelling in Nin′e·veh.[y] 37 And it came about that as he was bowing down at the house of Nis′roch[z] his god,[a] A·dram′me·lech and Shar·e′zer, his sons, themselves struck him down with the sword,[a] and they themselves escaped to the land of Ar′a·rat.[b] And E′sar-had′don[c] his son began to reign in place of him.

20 In those days Hez·e·ki′ah got sick to the point of dying.[d] Accordingly Isaiah[e] the son of A′moz the prophet came in to him and said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Give commands to your household,[f] for you yourself will indeed die and will not live.'"[g] 2 At that he turned his face to the wall[h] and began to pray to Jehovah,[i] saying: 3 "I beseech you, O Jehovah, remember,[j] please, how I have walked[k] before you in truthfulness[l] and with a complete heart,[m] and what was good in your eyes I have done."[n] And Hez·e·ki′ah began to weep profusely.[o]

4 And it came about that Isaiah himself had not yet gone out to the middle court when Jehovah's word itself came to him,[p] saying: 5 "Go back, and you must say to Hez·e·ki′ah the leader[q] of my people, 'This is what Jehovah the God[r] of David your forefather has said: "I have heard[s] your prayer.[t] I have seen your tears.[u] Here I am healing[v] you.[w] On the third day you will go up to the house of Jehovah.[x] 6 And I shall certainly add fifteen years to your days, and out of the palm of the king of As·syr′i·a I shall deliver you and this city, and I will defend[y] this city for my own sake and for the sake of David my servant."'"[z]

7 And Isaiah went on to say: "You men, take a cake of pressed[a] dried figs." So they took and put it upon the boil,[b]

after which he gradually revived.[a]

8 Meantime, Hez·e·ki′ah said to Isaiah: "What is the sign[b] that Jehovah will heal me and I shall certainly go up on the third day to the house of Jehovah?" 9 To this Isaiah said: "This is the sign[c] for you from Jehovah that Jehovah will perform the word that he has spoken: Shall the shadow actually go forward ten steps [of the stairs] or should it go back ten steps?" 10 Then Hez·e·ki′ah said: "It is an easy thing for the shadow to extend itself ten steps,[d] but not that the shadow should go backward ten steps." 11 At that Isaiah the prophet began to call out to Jehovah; and he made the shadow that had gone down gradually go back on the steps, that is, on the steps [of the stairs] of A′haz, ten steps backward.[e]

12 At that time Be·ro′dach-bal′a·dan[f] the son of Bal′a·dan the king of Babylon[g] sent letters[h] and a gift to Hez·e·ki′ah; for he had heard that Hez·e·ki′ah had been sick. 13 And Hez·e·ki′ah proceeded to listen to them and show them all his treasure-house,[i] the silver and the gold[j] and the balsam oil[k] and the good oil and his armory and all that was to be found in his treasures. There proved to be nothing that Hez·e·ki′ah did not show them in his own house and in all his dominion.[l]

14 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez·e·ki′ah and said to him:[m] "What did these men say and from where did they proceed to come to you?"[n] So Hez·e·ki′ah said: "From a distant land they came, from Babylon." 15 And he went on to say: "What did they see in your house?" To this Hez·e·ki′ah said: "Everything that is in my house they saw. There proved to be nothing that I did not show them in my treasures."[o]

16 Isaiah now said to Hez·e·ki′ah: "Hear the word of Jehovah,[a] 17 '"Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your own house[b] and that your forefathers have stored up down to this day will actually be carried to Babylon.[c] Nothing will be left,"[d] Jehovah has said. 18 "And some of your own sons that will come forth from you to whom you will become father will themselves be taken[e] and actually become court officials[f] in the palace of the king of Babylon."'"[g]

19 At that Hez·e·ki′ah said to Isaiah: "The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good."[h] And he went on to say: "Is it not so, if peace and truth[i] themselves will continue in my own days?"[j]

20 As for the rest of the affairs of Hez·e·ki′ah and all his mightiness and how he made the pool[k] and the conduit[l] and then brought the water into the city, are they not written in the book[m] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 21 Finally Hez·e·ki′ah lay down with his forefathers;[n] and Ma·nas′seh[o] his son began to reign in place of him.

21 Twelve years old was Ma·nas′seh[p] when he began to reign, and for fifty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Heph′zi·bah.[q] 2 And he proceeded to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,[r] according to the detestable things of the nations[s] that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel. 3 So he built again the high places that Hez·e·ki′ah his father had destroyed,[t] and set up altars to Ba′al and made a sacred pole, just as A′hab[u] the king of Israel had done; and he began to bow[v] down to all the army of the heavens[w] and to serve them.[x]

4 And he built altars in the house of Jehovah,[a] respecting which Jehovah had said: "In Jerusalem
I shall put my name."[b]
5 And he went on to build altars to all the army of the heavens[c] in two courtyards of the house of Jehovah.[d] 6 And he made his own son pass through the fire,[e] and he practiced magic[f] and looked for omens and made spirit mediums[g] and professional foretellers[h] of events.
He did on a large scale what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, to offend him.

7 Further, he put the carved image[i] of the sacred pole that he had made in the house[j] of which Jehovah had said to David and to Sol'o·mon his son:
"In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name to time indefinite.[k] 8 And I shall not again make the foot of Israel wander from the ground that I gave to their forefathers,[l] provided only they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them,[m] even concerning all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." 9 And they did not listen,[n] but Ma·nas'seh kept seducing them to do what was bad[o] more than the nations[p] whom Jehovah had annihilated from before the sons of Israel.

10 And Jehovah kept speaking by means of his servants
the prophets,[q] saying:
11 "For the reason that Ma·nas'seh[r]
the king of Judah has done these detestable[s] things, he has acted more wickedly than all that the Am'or·ites[t] did that were prior to him, and he proceeded to make even Judah sin[u] with his dungy idols. 12 That is why this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Here I am bringing a calamity upon Jerusalem[v] and Judah, of which if anyone hears both his ears will tingle.[w] 13 And I shall certainly stretch upon Jerusalem the measuring line[a] applied to Sa·mar'i·a[b] and also the leveling instrument applied to the house of A'hab;[c] and I shall simply wipe[d] Jerusalem clean just as one wipes the handleless bowl clean, wiping it clean and turning it upside down.[e] 14 And I shall indeed forsake the remnant[f] of my inheritance[g] and give them into the hand of their enemies, and they will simply become plunder and pillage to all their enemies,[h] 15 for the reason that they did what was bad in my eyes and were continually offending me from the day that their forefathers came out from Egypt down to this day.'"[i]

16 And there was also innocent blood that Ma·nas'seh shed[j] in very great quantity, until he had filled Jerusalem from end to end, besides his sin with which he caused Judah to sin by doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah.[k]
17 As for the rest of the affairs of Ma·nas'seh and all that he did and his sin with which he sinned, are they not written in the book[l] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 18 Finally Ma·nas'seh lay down with his forefathers[m] and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uz'za;[n] and A'mon his son began to reign in place of him.

19 Twenty-two years old was A'mon[o] when he began to reign, and for two years[p] he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Me·shul'le·meth
the daughter of Ha'ruz from
to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as Ma·nas'seh his father had done.[q] 21 And he kept walking in all the way that his father had walked,[r] and he continued serving the dungy idols[s] that his father had served and bowing down to them. 22 Thus he left Jehovah[a]

the God of his forefathers, and he did not walk in the way of Jehovah.[b] 23 Eventually servants of A'mon conspired against him and put the king to death[c] in his own house.
24 But the people of the land struck down all the conspirators[d] against King A'mon. Then the people of the land made Jo·si'ah[e] his son king in place of him. 25 As for the rest of the affairs of A'mon, what he did, are they not written in the book[f] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 26 So they buried him in his grave in the garden of Uz'za;[g] and Jo·si'ah[h] his son began to reign in place of him.

22 Eight years old was Jo·si'ah[i] when he began to reign, and for thirty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je·di'dah
the daughter of A·dai'ah from Boz'kath.[j] 2 And he proceeded to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes[k] and to walk in all the way of David his forefather,[l] and he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.[m]

3 And it came about in the eighteenth year of King Jo·si'ah that the king sent Sha'phan[n]
the son of Az·a·li'ah the son of Me·shul'lam the secretary to the house of Jehovah, saying: 4 "Go up to Hil·ki'ah[o]
the high priest,[p] and let him complete the money[q] that is being brought into the house of Jehovah[r] that the doorkeepers[s] have gathered from the people; 5 and let them put it into the hand of those doing the work,[t] the appointed ones, in the house of Jehovah, that they may give it to those doing the work who are in the house of Jehovah to repair the cracks of the house,[u] 6 to the craftsmen and the builders and the masons, and to buy timbers and hewn stones to repair the house.[a] 7 Only no accounting should be taken of the money with them into whose hand it is being put,[b] for it is in faithfulness[c] that they are working."

8 Later Hil·ki'ah[d] the high priest said to Sha'phan[e] the secretary:[f] "The very book of the law[g] I have found in the house of Jehovah." So Hil·ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan, and he began to read it. 9 Then Sha'phan the secretary came in to the king and replied to the king and said: "Your servants have poured out the money that was to be found in the house, and they keep putting it into the hand of the doers of the work, the ones appointed, in the house of Jehovah."[h]
10 And Sha'phan the secretary went on to tell the king, saying:
"There is a book[i] that Hil·ki'ah the priest has given me." And Sha'phan began to read it before the king.

11 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words of the book of the law, he immediately ripped his garments apart.[j] 12 Then the king commanded Hil·ki'ah the priest and A·hi'kam[k] the son of Sha'phan and Ach'bor the son of Mi·cai'ah and Sha'phan the secretary and A·sai'ah[l] the king's servant, saying: 13 "Go, inquire[m] of Jehovah in my own behalf and in behalf of the people and in behalf of all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is Jehovah's rage[n] that has been set afire against us over the fact that our forefathers[o] did not listen to the words of this book by doing according to all that is written concerning us."[p]

14 Accordingly Hil·ki'ah the priest and A·hi'kam and Ach'bor and Sha'phan and A·sai'ah went to Hul'dah the prophetess[q]
the wife of Shal'lum the son of Tik'vah the son of Har'has,

the caretaker of the garments,[a] as she was dwelling in Jerusalem in the second quarter; and they proceeded to speak to her.[b] 15 In turn she said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said,[c] 'Say to the man that has sent YOU men to me: 16 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am bringing calamity[d] upon this place and upon its inhabitants,[e] even all the words[f] of the book that the king of Judah has read;[g] 17 due to the fact that they have left me and have gone making sacrificial smoke to other gods[h] in order to offend me with all the work of their hands,[i] and my rage has been set afire against this place and will not be extinguished.'"'[j] 18 And as to the king of Judah who is sending YOU to inquire of Jehovah, this is what YOU should say to him, 'This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: "As regards the words that you have heard,[k] 19 for the reason that your heart[l] was soft so that you humbled[m] yourself because of Jehovah at your hearing what I have spoken against this place and its inhabitants [for it] to become an object of astonishment and a malediction,[n] and then you ripped[o] your garments apart and began weeping before me, I, even I, have heard," is the utterance of Jehovah.[p] 20 "That is why here I am gathering[q] you to your forefathers, and you will certainly be gathered to your own graveyard in peace,[r] and your eyes will not look upon all the calamity that I am bringing upon this place."'" And they proceeded to bring the king the reply.

23 Then the king sent and they gathered together to him all the older men of Judah and Jerusalem.[s] 2 After that the king went up to the house of Jehovah, and also all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and also the priests[a] and the prophets and all the people, from small to great;[b] and he began to read[c] in their ears all the words of the book[d] of the covenant[e] that had been found in the house of Jehovah.[f] 3 And the king kept standing by the pillar[g] and now concluded the covenant[h] before Jehovah, to walk[i] after Jehovah and to keep his commandments[j] and his testimonies[k] and his statutes[l] with all the heart[m] and with all the soul[n] by carrying out the words of this covenant that were written in this book.[o] Accordingly all the people took their stand in the covenant.[p]

4 And the king went on to command Hil·ki'ah[q] the high priest and the priests of the second rank and the doorkeepers[r] to bring out from the temple of Jehovah all the utensils made for Ba'al[s] and for the sacred pole[t] and for all the army of the heavens.[u] Then he burned them outside Jerusalem on the terraces of Kid'ron,[v] and he brought the dust of them to Beth'el.[w] 5 And he put out of business the foreign-god priests, whom the kings of Judah had put in that they might make sacrificial smoke on the high places in the cities of Judah and the surroundings of Jerusalem, and also those making sacrificial smoke to Ba'al,[x] to the sun and to the moon and to the constellations of the zodiac and to all the army of the heavens.[y] 6 Furthermore, he brought out the sacred pole[z] from the house of Jehovah to the outskirts of Jerusalem, to the torrent valley of Kid'ron, and burned it[a] in the torrent valley of Kid'ron and ground it to dust and cast its dust upon the burial place[b] of the sons of the people. 7 Further, he pulled down the houses of the male temple prostitutes[a] that were in the house of Jehovah, where the women were weaving tent shrines for the sacred pole.

8 Then he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, that he might make unfit for worship the high places where the priests had made sacrificial smoke, from Ge'ba[b] as far as Be'er-she'ba;[c] and he pulled down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua, the chief of the city, which was at the left as a person came into the gate of the city. 9 Only the priests[d] of the high places would not come up to the altar of Jehovah in Jerusalem, but they ate unfermented[e] cakes in among their brothers. 10 And he made unfit for worship To'pheth,[f] which is in the valley of the sons of Hin'nom,[g] that no one might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire[h] to Mo'lech.[i] 11 Further, he caused the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun to cease from entering the house of Jehovah by the dining room[j] of Na'than-mel'ech the court official, which was in the porticoes; and the chariots of the sun[k] he burned in the fire. 12 And the altars that were upon the roof of the roof[l] chamber of A'haz that the kings of Judah had made, and the altars[m] that Ma·nas'seh had made in two courtyards of the house of Jehovah, the king pulled down, after which he crushed them there, and he cast their dust into the torrent valley of Kid'ron. 13 And the high places that were in front[n] of Jerusalem, that were to the right of the Mount of Ruination, that Sol'o·mon[o] the king of Israel had built to Ash'to·reth[p] the disgusting thing of the Si·do'ni·ans and to Che'mosh[q] the disgusting thing of Mo'ab and to Mil'com[a] the detestable thing of the sons of Am'mon, the king made unfit for worship. 14 And he broke[b] the sacred pillars to pieces and went on to cut down the sacred poles and to fill their places with human bones. 15 And also the altar that was in Beth'el,[c] the high place that Jer·o·bo'am[d] the son of Ne'bat, who caused Israel to sin,[e] had made, even that altar and the high place he pulled down. Then he burned the high place; he ground [it] to dust and burned the sacred pole.

16 When Jo·si'ah turned, he got to see the burial places that were there in the mountain. So he sent and took the bones from the burial places and burned[f] them upon the altar, that he might make it unfit for worship, according to Jehovah's word[g] that the man of the [true] God had proclaimed,[h] who proclaimed these things. 17 Then he said: "What is the gravestone over there that I am seeing?" At this the men of the city said to him: "It is the burial[i] place of the man of the [true] God that came from Judah[j] and proceeded to proclaim these things that you have done against the altar of Beth'el."[k] 18 So he said: "Let him rest.[l] Do not let anyone disturb his bones." Consequently they let his bones alone along with the bones of the prophet[m] that had come from Sa·mar'i·a.

19 And also all the houses[n] of the high places that were in the cities[o] of Sa·mar'i·a that the kings[p] of Israel had built to cause offense[q] Jo·si'ah removed, and he went on to do to them according to all the doings that he had done at Beth'el.[r] 20 Accordingly he sacrificed all the priests[s] of the high places that were there upon the altars and burned human bones upon them.[t] After that he returned to Jerusalem.

21 The king now commanded all the people, saying: “Hold a passover[a] to Jehovah YOUR God according to what is written in this book of the covenant.”[b] 22 For no passover like this had been held from the days of the judges that had judged Israel,[c] nor all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.[d] 23 But in the eighteenth year of King Jo·si′ah this passover was held to Jehovah in Jerusalem.[e]

24 And also the spirit mediums[f] and the professional foretellers[g] of events and the teraphim[h] and the dungy idols[i] and all the disgusting[j] things that had appeared in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem Jo·si′ah cleared out, in order that he might actually carry out the words of the law[k] that were written in the book[l] that Hil·ki′ah the priest had found at the house of Jehovah.[m] 25 And like him there did not prove to be a king prior to him who returned[n] to Jehovah with all his heart and with all his soul[o] and with all his vital force, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him has there risen up one like him.

26 Nevertheless, Jehovah did not turn back from the great burning of his anger, with which his anger burned against Judah[p] over all the offensive things with which Ma·nas′seh had made them offend.[q] 27 But Jehovah said: “Judah,[r] too, I shall remove from my sight,[s] just as I have removed Israel;[t] and I shall certainly reject this city that I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I have said, ‘My name will continue there.’”[u]

28 As for the rest of the affairs of Jo·si′ah and all that he did, are they not written in the book[v] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 29 In his days Phar′aoh Ne′choh[a] the king of Egypt came up to the king of As·syr′i·a by the river Eu·phra′tes,[b] and King Jo·si′ah proceeded to go to meet him;[c] but he put him to death[d] at Me·gid′do[e] as soon as he saw him. 30 So his servants conveyed him dead in a chariot from Me·gid′do and brought him to Jerusalem[f] and buried him in his grave. Then the people of the land took Je·ho′a·haz[g] the son of Jo·si′ah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

31 Twenty-three years old was Je·ho′a·haz[h] when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ha·mu′tal[i] the daughter of Jeremiah from Lib′nah. 32 And he began to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that forefathers of his had done.[j] 33 And Phar′aoh Ne′choh[k] got to put him in bonds[l] at Rib′lah[m] in the land of Ha′math, to keep him from reigning in Jerusalem, and then imposed a fine[n] upon the land of a hundred silver[o] talents and a gold talent.[p] 34 Furthermore, Phar′aoh Ne′choh made E·li′a·kim[q] the son of Jo·si′ah king in place of Jo·si′ah his father and changed his name to Je·hoi′a·kim; and Je·ho′a·haz he took and then brought to Egypt, where he eventually died.[r] 35 And the silver[s] and the gold Je·hoi′a·kim gave to Phar′aoh. Only he taxed[t] the land, to give the silver at the order of Phar′aoh. According to each one's individual tax[u] rate he exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, to give it to Phar′aoh Ne′choh.

36 Twenty-five years old was Je·hoi′a·kim[v] when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem.[w] And his mother's name was Ze·bi′dah the daughter of Pe·dai′ah from Ru′mah. 37 And he continued to do what was bad[a] in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that forefathers of his had done.[b]

In his days Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[c] the king of Babylon came up, and so Je·hoi′a·kim became his servant[d] for three years. However, he turned back and rebelled against him. 2 And Jehovah began to send against him marauder bands of Chal·de′ans[e] and marauder bands of Syrians and marauder bands of Mo′ab·ites[f] and marauder bands of the sons of Am′mon, and he kept sending them against Judah to destroy it, according to Jehovah's word[g] that he had spoken by means of his servants the prophets. 3 It was only by the order of Jehovah that it took place against Judah, to remove[h] it from his sight for the sins of Ma·nas′seh,[i] according to all that he had done; 4 and also [for] the innocent blood[j] that he had shed, so that he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and Jehovah did not consent to grant forgiveness.[k]

5 As for the rest of the affairs of Je·hoi′a·kim[l] and all that he did, are they not written in the book[m] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 6 Finally Je·hoi′a·kim lay down with his forefathers,[n] and Je·hoi′a·chin his son began to reign in place of him.

7 And never again[o] did the king of Egypt come out from his land,[p] for the king of Babylon had taken all that happened to belong to the king of Egypt[q] from the torrent valley[r] of Egypt up to the river Eu·phra′tes.[s]

8 Eighteen years old was Je·hoi′a·chin[t] when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem.[u] And his mother's name was Ne·hush′ta the daughter of El·na′than of Jerusalem. 9 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that his father had done.[a] 10 During that time the servants of Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, so that the city came under siege.[b] 11 And Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon proceeded to come against the city, while his servants were laying siege against it.[c]

12 At length Je·hoi′a·chin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon,[d] he with his mother[e] and his servants and his princes and his court officials; and the king of Babylon got to take him in the eighth[f] year of his being king. 13 Then he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house,[g] and went on to cut to pieces all the gold utensils[h] that Sol′o·mon the king of Israel had made in the temple of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had spoken. 14 And he took into exile[i] all Jerusalem and all the princes[j] and all the valiant, mighty[k] men—ten thousand he was taking into exile—and also every craftsman[l] and builder of bulwarks. No one had been left behind except the lowly class[m] of the people of the land. 15 Thus he took Je·hoi′a·chin[n] into exile to Babylon;[o] and the king's mother[p] and the king's wives and his court officials[q] and the foremost men of the land he led away as exiled people from Jerusalem to Babylon. 16 As for all the valiant men, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the builders of bulwarks, a thousand, all the mighty men carrying on war, the king of Babylon proceeded to bring them as exiled people to Babylon.[a] 17 Further, the king of Babylon[b] made Mat·ta·ni′ah his uncle[c] king in place of him. Then he changed his name to Zed·e·ki′ah.[d]

18 Twenty-one years old was Zed·e·ki′ah[e] when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ha·mu′tal[f] the daughter of Jeremiah from Lib′nah. 19 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that Je·hoi′a·kim had done.[g] 20 For on account of the anger[h] of Jehovah it took place in Jerusalem and in Judah, until he had cast them out of his sight.[i] And Zed·e·ki′ah began to rebel against the king of Babylon.[j]

25 And it came about in the ninth[k] year of his being king, in the tenth month on the tenth[l] day of the month, that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[m] the king of Babylon came,[n] yes, he and all his military force, against Jerusalem and began camping against it and building against it a siege wall all around.[o] 2 And the city came to be under siege until the eleventh year of King Zed·e·ki′ah. 3 On the ninth[p] day of the [fourth] month the famine[q] was severe in the city, and there proved to be no bread[r] for the people of the land. 4 And the city got to be breached,[s] and all the men of war [fled] by night by the way of the gate between the double wall that is by the king's garden,[t] while the Chal·de′ans[u] were all around against the city; and [the king] began to go[v] in the direction of the Ar′a·bah.[w] 5 And a military force of Chal·de′ans[x] went chasing after the king, and they got to overtake him[y] in the desert plains of Jer′i·cho;[z] and all his own military force was scattered from his side. 6 Then they seized the king[a] and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Rib′lah,[a] that they might pronounce a judicial decision upon him. 7 And Zed·e·ki′ah's sons they slaughtered before his eyes,[b] and Zed·e·ki′ah's eyes he blinded,[c] after which he bound him with copper fetters[d] and brought him to Babylon.[e]

8 And in the fifth month on the seventh [day] of the month, that is to say, the nineteenth[f] year of King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon, Neb·u′zar·ad′an[g] the chief of the bodyguard, the servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.[h] 9 And he proceeded to burn the house[i] of Jehovah and the king's house[j] and all the houses of Jerusalem;[k] and the house of every great man he burned with fire.[l] 10 And the walls of Jerusalem, all around, the entire military force of Chal·de′ans that were with the chief of the bodyguard pulled down.[m] 11 And the rest of the people[n] that were left behind in the city and the deserters that had gone over to the king of Babylon and the rest of the crowd Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the bodyguard took into exile.[o] 12 And some of the lowly people[p] of the land the chief of the bodyguard let remain as vinedressers and compulsory laborers.[q] 13 And the pillars[r] of copper that were in the house of Jehovah, and the carriages[s] and the copper sea[t] that were in the house of Jehovah, the Chal·de′ans broke in pieces and went carrying the copper of them to Babylon.[u] 14 And the cans and the shovels and the extinguishers and the cups and all the utensils[v] of copper with which they used to minister they took. 15 And the chief of the bodyguard took the fire holders and the bowls that were of genuine gold[a] and those that were of genuine silver.[b] 16 As for the two pillars, the one sea and the carriages that Sol′o·mon had made for the house of Jehovah, there happened to be no way to tell the weight of the copper of all these utensils.[c] 17 Eighteen cubits[d] was the height of each pillar, and the capital[e] upon it was of copper; and the height of the capital was three cubits; and the network and the pomegranates[f] all around upon the capital, the whole of it, was copper; and the second pillar had the same as these upon the network.

18 Furthermore, the chief of the bodyguard took Se·rai′ah[g] the chief priest and Zeph·a·ni′ah[h] the second priest and three doorkeepers;[i] 19 and from the city he took one court official that had a command over the men of war, and five men from those having access to the king that were found in the city; and the secretary of the chief of the army, the one mustering the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land that were to be found in the city;[j] 20 and Neb·u′zar·ad′an[k] the chief of the bodyguard then took them[l] and conducted them to the king of Babylon at Rib′lah.[m] 21 And the king of Babylon proceeded to strike them down[n] and put them to death at Rib′lah in the land of Ha′math.[o] Thus Judah went into exile from off its soil.[p]

25 And it came about in the seventh[d] month that Ish′ma·el[e] the son of Neth·a·ni′ah the son of E·lish′a·ma of the royal offspring came, and also ten men with him, and they got to strike down Ged·a·li′ah,[f] so that he died, and also the Jews and the Chal·de′ans that happened to be with him in Miz′pah.[g] 26 After that all the people, from small to great, and the chiefs of the military forces rose up and came into Egypt;[h] for they had become afraid because of the Chal·de′ans.[i]

27 And it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Je·hoi′a·chin[j] the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that E′vil-mer′o·dach[k] the king of Babylon, in the year of his becoming king, raised up the head[l] of Je·hoi′a·chin the king of Judah out of the house of detention; 28 and he began to speak good things with him, and then put his throne higher than the thrones of the kings that were with him in Babylon.[m] 29 And he took off his prison garments;[n] and he ate bread[o] constantly before him all the days of his life. 30 As for his allowance,[p] an allowance was constantly given him from the king, daily as due, all the days of his life.

All these were the sons of Ke·tu′rah.

34 And Abraham came to be father to Isaac.[p] The sons of Isaac were E′sau[q] and Israel.[r]

35 The sons of E′sau were El′i·phaz, Reu′el[s] and Je′ush and Ja′lam and Ko′rah.[t]

36 The sons of El′i·phaz were Te′man[u] and O′mar, Ze′pho and Ga′tam, Ke′naz[v] and Tim′na[w] and Am′a·lek.[x]

37 The sons of Reu′el were Na′hath, Ze′rah, Sham′mah and Miz′zah.[y]

38 And the sons of Se′ir[z] were Lo′tan and Sho′bal and Zib′e·on and A′nah[a] and Di′shon and E′zer and Di′shan.[b]

39 And the sons of Lo′tan were Ho′ri and Ho′mam. And Lo′tan′s sister was Tim′na.[c]

40 The sons of Sho′bal were Al′van and Man′a·hath and E′bal, She′pho and O′nam.[d]

And the sons of Zib′e·on were A′iah and A′nah.[e]

41 The sons of A′nah were Di′shon.[f]

And the sons of Di′shon were Hem′dan and Esh′ban and Ith′ran and Che′ran.[g]

42 The sons of E′zer[h] were Bil′han and Za′a·van and A′kan.[i]

The sons of Di′shan were Uz and A′ran.[j]

43 And these are the kings that reigned in the land of E′dom[a] before any king[b] reigned over the sons of Israel: Be′la the son of Be′or, the name of whose city was Din′ha·bah.[c] 44 Eventually Be′la died, and Jo′bab the son of Ze′rah[d] from Boz′rah[e] began to reign in place of him. 45 Eventually Jo′bab died, and Hu′sham[f] from the land of the Te′man·ites[g] began to reign in place of him. 46 Eventually Hu′sham died, and Ha′dad[h] the son of Be′dad, who defeated Mid′i·an[i] in the field of Mo′ab, began to reign in place of him. And the name of his city was A′vith.[j] 47 Eventually Ha′dad died, and Sam′lah from Mas·re′kah[k] began to reign in place of him. 48 Eventually Sam′lah died, and Sha′ul from Re·ho′both[l] by the River began to reign in place of him. 49 Eventually Sha′ul died, and Ba′al-ha′nan the son of Ach′bor[m] began to reign in place of him. 50 Eventually Ba′al-ha′nan died, and Ha′dad began to reign in place of him; and the name of his city was Pa′u, and the name of his wife was Me·het′a·bel, the daughter of Ma′tred, the daughter of Me′za·hab.[n] 51 Eventually Ha′dad died.

And the sheiks of E′dom came to be sheik Tim′na, sheik Al′vah, sheik Je′theth,[o] 52 sheik O·hol·i·ba′mah, sheik E′lah, sheik Pi′non,[p] 53 sheik Ke′naz, sheik Te′man, sheik Mib′zar,[q] 54 sheik Mag′di·el, sheik I′ram.[r] These were the sheiks[s] of E′dom.

2 These were the sons of Israel:[t] Reu′ben,[u] Sim′e·on,[v] Le′vi[w] and Judah,[x] Is′sa·char[y] and Zeb′u·lun,[z] 2 Dan,[a] Joseph[b] and Benjamin,[c] Naph′ta·li,[d] Gad[e] and Ash′er.[f]

3 The sons of Judah were

Er[a] and O'nan[b] and She'lah.[c] The three were born to him from Shu'a's daughter, the Ca'naan·it·ess. And Er the firstborn of Judah came to be bad in the eyes of Jehovah, so that he put him to death.[d] 4 And Ta'mar[e] his daughter-in-law it was that bore to him Pe'rez[f] and Ze'rah. All the sons of Judah were five.

5 The sons of Pe'rez were Hez'ron and Ha'mul.[g]

6 And the sons of Ze'rah[h] were Zim'ri and E'than and He'man and Cal'col and Da'ra.[i] There were five of them in all.

7 And the sons of Car'mi[j] were A'char the bringer of ostracism upon Israel,[k] who committed an act of unfaithfulness respecting the thing devoted to destruction.[l]

8 And the sons of E'than[m] were Az·a·ri'ah.

9 And the sons of Hez'ron[n] that were born to him were Je·rah'me·el[o] and Ram[p] and Che·lu'bai.

10 As for Ram, he became father to Am·min'a·dab.[q] Am·min'a·dab, in turn, became father to Nah'shon[r] the chieftain of the sons of Judah. 11 Nah'shon, in turn, became father to Sal'ma.[s] Sal'ma, in turn, became father to Bo'az.[t] 12 Bo'az, in turn, became father to O'bed.[u] O'bed, in turn, became father to Jes'se.[v] 13 Jes'se, in turn, became father to his firstborn E·li'ab,[w] and A·bin'a·dab[x] the second, and Shim'e·a[y] the third, 14 Ne·than'el the fourth, Rad'dai the fifth, 15 O'zem the sixth, David[z] the seventh. 16 And their sisters were Ze·ru'iah and Ab'i·gail;[a] and the sons of Ze·ru'iah were A·bish'ai[b] and Jo'ab[c] and As'a·hel,[d] three. 17 As for Ab'i·gail, she gave birth to A·ma'sa;[e] and the father of A·ma'sa was Je'ther[a] the Ish'ma·el·ite.

18 As for Ca'leb the son of Hez'ron,[b] he became father to sons by A·zu'bah his wife and by Jer'i·oth; and these were her sons: Je'sher and Sho'bab and Ar'don. 19 Eventually A·zu'bah died. So Ca'leb took to himself Eph'rath,[c] who in time bore Hur[d] to him. 20 Hur, in turn, became father to U'ri.[e] U'ri, in turn, became father to Bez'al·el.[f]

21 And afterward Hez'ron had relations with the daughter of Ma'chir[g] the father of Gil'e·ad.[h] And he himself took her when he was sixty years old, but she bore Se'gub to him. 22 Se'gub, in turn, became father to Ja'ir,[i] who came to have twenty-three cities[j] in the land of Gil'e·ad. 23 Later Gesh'ur[k] and Syria[l] took Hav'voth-ja'ir[m] from them, with Ke'nath[n] and its dependent towns, sixty cities. All these were the sons of Ma'chir the father of Gil'e·ad.

24 And after the death of Hez'ron[o] in Ca'leb-eph'ra·thah, with A·bi'jah being the wife of Hez'ron, she then bore him Ash'hur the father of Te·ko'a.[p]

25 And the sons of Je·rah'me·el[q] the firstborn of Hez'ron were Ram[r] the firstborn and Bu'nah and O'ren and O'zem, A·hi'jah. 26 And Je·rah'me·el came to have another wife, whose name was At'a·rah. She was the mother of O'nam. 27 And the sons of Ram[s] the firstborn of Je·rah'me·el came to be Ma'az and Ja'min and E'ker. 28 And the sons of O'nam[a] came to be Sham'mai and Ja'da. And the sons of Sham'mai were Na'dab and A·bi'shur. 29 And the name of A·bi'shur's wife was Ab'i·ha·il, who in time bore him Ah'ban and Mo'lid. 30 And the sons of Na'dab[b] were Se'led and Ap'pa·im. But Se'led died without sons. 31 And the sons of Ap'pa·im were Ish'i. And the sons of Ish'i were She'shan;[c] and the sons of She'shan, Ah'lai. 32 And the sons of Ja'da the brother of Sham'mai were Je'ther and Jon'a·than. But Je'ther died without sons. 33 And the sons of Jon'a·than were Pe'leth and Za'za. These became the sons of Je·rah'me·el.

34 And She'shan[d] came to have no sons, but daughters. Now She'shan had an Egyptian servant[e] whose name was Jar'ha. 35 So She'shan gave his daughter to Jar'ha his servant as a wife, who in time bore him At'tai. 36 At'tai, in turn, became father to Nathan. Nathan, in turn, became father to Za'bad.[f] 37 Za'bad, in turn, became father to Eph'lal. Eph'lal, in turn, became father to O'bed. 38 O'bed, in turn, became father to Je'hu. Je'hu, in turn, became father to Az·a·ri'ah. 39 Az·a·ri'ah, in turn, became father to He'lez. He'lez, in turn, became father to El·e·a'sah. 40 El·e·a'sah, in turn, became father to Sis'mai. Sis'mai, in turn, became father to Shal'lum. 41 Shal'lum, in turn, became father to Jek·a·mi'ah. Jek·a·mi'ah, in turn, became father to E·lish'a·ma.

42 And the sons of Ca'leb[g] the brother of Je·rah'me·el were Me'sha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Ma·re'shah the father of He'bron. 43 And the sons of He'bron were Ko'rah and Tap'pu·ah and Re'kem and She'ma. 44 She'ma, in turn, became father to Ra'ham the father of Jor'ke·am. Re'kem, in turn, became father to Sham'mai. 45 And the son of Sham'mai was Ma'on; and Ma'on was the father of Beth-zur.[a] 46 As for E'phah the concubine of Ca'leb, she gave birth to Ha'ran and Mo'za and Ga'zez. As for Ha'ran, he became father to Ga'zez. 47 And the sons of Jah'dai were Re'gem and Jo'tham and Ge'shan and Pel'et and E'phah and Sha'aph. 48 As for Ca'leb's concubine Ma'a·cah, she gave birth to She'ber and Tir'ha·nah. 49 In time she bore Sha'aph the father of Mad·man'nah,[b] She'va the father of Mach·be'nah and the father of Gib'e·a.[c] And Ca'leb's[d] daughter was Ach'sah.[e] 50 These became the sons of Ca'leb.

The sons of Hur[f] the firstborn of Eph'ra·thah:[g] Sho'bal[h] the father of Kir'i·ath-je'a·rim,[i] 51 Sal'ma the father of Beth'le·hem,[j] Ha'reph the father of Beth-ga'der. 52 And Sho'bal[k] the father of Kir'i·ath-je'a·rim came to have sons: Ha·ro'eh, half of the Me·nu'hoth. 53 And the families of Kir'i·ath-je'a·rim were the Ith'rites[l] and the Pu'thites and the Shu'math·ites and the Mish'ra·ites. It was from these that the Zo'rath·ites[m] and the Esh'ta·ol·ites[n] came out. 54 The sons of Sal'ma were Beth'le·hem[o] and the Ne·toph'athites,[a] At'roth-beth-jo'ab and half of the Man·a·ha'thites, the Zor'ites. 55 And the families of the scribes dwelling at Ja'bez[b] were the Ti'rath·ites, the Shim'e·ath·ites, the Su'cath·ites. These were the Ken'ites[c] that came from Ham'math the father of the house of Re'chab.[d]

3 And these became the sons of David[e] that were born to him in He'bron:[f] the firstborn Am'non,[g] of A·hin'o·am[h] the Jez're·el·i·tess,[i] the second, Daniel, of Ab'i·gail[j] the Car'mel·it·ess,[k] 2 the third, Ab'sa·lom[l] the son of Ma'a·cah[m] the daughter of Tal'mai[n] the king of Gesh'ur,[o] the fourth, Ad·o·ni'jah[p] the son of Hag'gith,[q] 3 the fifth, Sheph·a·ti'ah, of A·bi'tal,[r] the sixth, Ith're·am, of Eg'lah[s] his wife. 4 There were six born to him in He'bron; and he continued to reign there seven years and six months, and for thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem.[t]

5 And there were these born to him in Jerusalem:[u] Shim'e·a[v] and Sho'bab[w] and Nathan[x] and Sol'o·mon,[y] four of Bath-she'ba[z] the daughter of Am'mi·el,[a] 6 and Ib'har[b] and E·lish'a·ma[c] and E·liph'e·let,[d] 7 and No'gah and Ne'pheg and Ja·phi'a,[e] 8 and E·lish'a·ma[f] and E·li'a·da and E·liph'e·let,[g] nine, 9 all the sons of David besides the sons of the concubines, and Ta'mar[h] their sister.

10 And the son of Sol'o·mon was Re·ho·bo'am,[i] A·bi'jah[j] his son, A'sa[k] his son, Je·hosh'a·phat[l] his son, 11 Je·ho'ram his son,[m] A·ha·zi'ah[n] his son, Je·ho'ash[o] his son, 12 Am·a·zi'ah[p] his son, Az·a·ri'ah[q] his son, Jo'tham[r] his son, 13 A'haz[s] his son, Hez·e·ki'ah[t] his son, Ma·nas'seh[u] his son, 14 A'mon[v] his son, Jo·si'ah[w] his son. 15 And the sons of Jo·si'ah were the firstborn Jo·ha'nan, the second, Je·hoi'a·kim,[a] the third, Zed·e·ki'ah,[b] the fourth, Shal'lum. 16 And the sons of Je·hoi'a·kim were Jec·o·ni'ah[c] his son, Zed·e·ki'ah his son. 17 And the sons of Jec·o·ni'ah as prisoner were She·al'ti·el[d] his son 18 and Mal·chi'ram and Pe·dai'ah and She·naz'zar, Jek·a·mi'ah, Hosh'a·ma and Ned·a·bi'ah. 19 And the sons of Pe·dai'ah were Ze·rub'ba·bel[e] and Shim'e·i; and the sons of Ze·rub'ba·bel were Me·shul'lam and Han·a·ni'ah (and She·lo'mith was their sister); 20 and Ha·shu'bah and O'hel and Ber·e·chi'ah and Has·a·di'ah, Ju'shab-he'sed, five. 21 And the sons of Han·a·ni'ah were Pel·a·ti'ah[f] and Je·sha'iah, the sons of [Je·sha'iah] Re·pha'iah, the sons of [Re·pha'iah] Ar'nan, the sons of [Ar'nan] O·ba·di'ah, the sons of [O·ba·di'ah] Shec·a·ni'ah; 22 and the sons of Shec·a·ni'ah, She·mai'ah, and the sons of She·mai'ah, Hat'tush and I'gal and Ba·ri'ah and Ne·a·ri'ah and Sha'phat, six. 23 And the sons of Ne·a·ri'ah were El·i·o·e'nai and Hiz·ki'ah and Az·ri'kam, three. 24 And the sons of El·i·o·e'nai were Hod·a·vi'ah and E·li'a·shib and Pe·la'iah and Ak'kub and Jo·ha'nan and De·la'iah and A·na'ni, seven.

4 The sons of Judah were Pe'rez,[g] Hez'ron[h] and Car'mi[i] and Hur[j] and Sho'bal.[k] 2 As for Re·a'iah[l] the son of Sho'bal, he became father to Ja'hath; Ja'hath, in turn, became father to A·hu'mai and La'had. These were the families of the Zo'rath·ites.[m] 3 And these were [the sons of] the father of E'tam:[n] Jez're·el[o] and Ish'ma and Id'bash, (and the name of their sister was Haz·ze·lel·po'ni,) 4 and Pe·nu'el the father of Ge'dor[p] and E'zer the father of Hu'shah. These were the sons of Hur[a] the firstborn of Eph'ra·thah the father of Beth'le·hem.[b] 5 And Ash'hur[c] the father of Te·ko'a[d] came to have two wives, He'lah and Na'a·rah. 6 In time Na'a·rah bore to him A·huz'zam and He'pher and Te'me·ni and Ha·a·hash'ta·ri. These were the sons of Na'a·rah. 7 And the sons of He'lah were Ze'reth, Iz'har and Eth'nan. 8 As for Koz, he became father to A'nub and Zo·be'bah and the families of A·har'hel the son of Ha'rum.

9 And Ja'bez[e] came to be more honorable[f] than his brothers; and it was his mother that called his name Ja'bez, saying: "I have given him birth in pain."[g] 10 And Ja'bez began to call upon the God[h] of Israel, saying: "If you will without fail bless[i] me and actually enlarge my territory[j] and your hand[k] really proves to be with me, and you really preserve [me] from calamity,[l] that it may not hurt me,[m]—" Accordingly God brought [to pass] what he had asked.[n]

11 As for Che'lub the brother of Shu'hah, he became father to Me'hir, who was the father of Esh'ton. 12 Esh'ton, in turn, became father to Beth-ra'pha and Pa·se'ah and Te·hin'nah the father of Ir-na'hash. These were the men of Re'cah. 13 And the sons of Ke'naz[o] were Oth'ni·el[p] and Se·rai'ah, and the sons of Oth'ni·el, Ha'thath. 14 As for Me·o'no·thai, he became father to Oph'rah. As for Se·rai'ah, he became father to Jo'ab the father of Ge-har'a·shim; for craftsmen[q] are what they became.

15 And the sons of Ca'leb[r] the son of Je·phun'neh[s] were I'ru, E'lah and Na'am; and the sons of E'lah, Ke'naz. 16 And the sons of Je·hal'le·lel were Ziph and Zi'phah, Tir'i·a and As'a·rel. 17 And the sons of Ez'rah were Je'ther and Me'red and E'pher and Ja'lon; and she got to conceive Mir'i·am and Sham'mai and Ish'bah the father of Esh·te·mo'a.[a] 18 As for his Jewish wife, she gave birth to Je'red the father of Ge'dor and He'ber the father of So'co and Je·ku'thi·el the father of Za·no'ah. And these were the sons of Bi·thi'ah the daughter of Phar'aoh, whom Me'red took.

19 And the sons of Ho·di'ah's wife, the sister of Na'ham, were the father of Kei'lah[b] the Gar'mite and Esh·te·mo'a the Ma·ac'a·thite. 20 And the sons of Shi'mon were Am'non and Rin'nah, Ben-ha'nan and Ti'lon. And the sons of Ish'i were Zo'heth and Ben-zo'heth.

21 The sons of She'lah[c] the son of Judah were Er the father of Le'cah and La'a·dah the father of Ma·re'shah and the families of the house of the workers of fine fabric[d] of the house of Ash·be'a; 22 and Jo'kim and the men of Co·ze'ba and Jo'ash and Sa'raph, who became owners of Mo'ab·ite wives,[e] and Jash'u·bi-le'hem. And the sayings are of old tradition.[f] 23 They were the potters[g] and the inhabitants of Ne·ta'im and Ge·de'rah. It was with the king in his work that they dwelt there.[h]

24 The sons of Sim'e·on were Nem'u·el[i] and Ja'min,[j] Ja'rib, Ze'rah, Sha'ul,[k] 25 Shal'lum his son, Mib'sam his son, Mish'ma his son. 26 And the sons of Mish'ma were Ham'mu·el his son, Zac'cur his son, Shim'e·i his son. 27 And Shim'e·i had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many sons, and none of their families had as many as the sons of Judah.[l] 28 And they continued to dwell in Be'er-she'ba[m] and Mo·la'dah[n] and Ha'zar-shu'al[o] 29 and in Bil'hah[p] and in E'zem[q] and in To'lad[r] 30 and in Be·thu'el[s] and in Hor'mah[t] and in Zik'lag[u] 31 and in Beth-mar'ca·both and in Ha'zar-su'sim[a] and in Beth-bir'i and in Sha'a·ra'im.[b] These were their cities down till David reigned.

32 And their settlements were E'tam and A'in, Rim'mon and To'chen and A'shan,[c] five cities. 33 And all their settlements that were all around these cities were as far as Ba'al.[d] These were their dwelling places and their genealogical enrollments for them. 34 And Me·sho'bab and Jam'lech and Jo'shah the son of Am·a·zi'ah, 35 and Joel and Je'hu the son of Josh·i·bi'ah the son of Se·rai'ah the son of As'i·el, 36 and El·i·o·e'nai and Ja·a·ko'bah and Jesh·o·hai'ah and A·sai'ah and Ad'i·el and Je·sim'i·el and Be·nai'ah, 37 and Zi'za the son of Shi'phi the son of Al'lon the son of Je·da'iah the son of Shim'ri the son of She·mai'ah. 38 These who came in by names were the chieftains among their families,[e] and the household itself of their forefathers increased in multitude. 39 And they proceeded to go to the entryway of Ge'dor, clear to the east of the valley, to look for pasturage for their flocks. 40 Eventually they found fat and good pasturage,[f] and the land was quite wide and having no disturbance[g] but at ease; for those dwelling there in former times were of Ham.[h] 41 And these written down by [their] names proceeded to come in in the days of Hez·e·ki'ah[i] the king of Judah and strike[j] down the tents of the Ham'ites and the Me·u'nim that were to be found there, so that they devoted them to destruction[k] down to this day; and they began to dwell in their place, because there was pasturage[l] for their flocks there.

42 And from them there were some of the sons of Sim'e·on that went to Mount Se'ir,[m] five hundred men, with Pel·a·ti'ah and Ne·a·ri'ah and Re·pha'iah and Uz'zi·el the sons of Ish'i at their head. 43 And they proceeded to strike down the remnant that had escaped of Am'a·lek,[a] and they continued to dwell there down to this day.

5 And the sons of Reu'ben[b] the firstborn of Israel—for he was the firstborn;[c] but for his profaning the lounge of his father[d] his right as firstborn was given to the sons of Joseph[e] the son of Israel, so that he was not to be enrolled genealogically for the right of the firstborn. 2 For Judah[f] himself proved to be superior among his brothers, and the one for leader was from him;[g] but the right as firstborn was Joseph's[h]— 3 the sons of Reu'ben the firstborn of Israel were Ha'noch[i] and Pal'lu,[j] Hez'ron and Car'mi.[k] 4 The sons of Joel were She·mai'ah his son, Gog his son, Shim'e·i his son, 5 Mi'cah his son, Re·a'iah his son, Ba'al his son, 6 Be·er'ah his son, whom Til'gath-pil·ne'ser[l] the king of As·syr'i·a took into exile, he being a chieftain of the Reu'ben·ites. 7 And his brothers by their families in the genealogical[m] enrollment by their descendants were, as the head, Je·i'el, and Zech·a·ri'ah, 8 and Be'la the son of A'zaz the son of She'ma the son of Joel[n]—he was dwelling in A·ro'er[o] and as far as Ne'bo[p] and Ba'al-me'on.[q] 9 Even to the east he dwelt as far as where one enters the wilderness at the river Eu·phra'tes,[r] for their livestock itself had become numerous in the land of Gil'e·ad.[s] 10 And in the days of Saul they made war upon the Hag'rites,[t] who came to fall by their hand; and so they dwelt in their tents throughout all the country east of Gil'e·ad.

11 As for the sons of Gad[u] in front of them, they dwelt in the land of Ba'shan[v] as far as Sal'e·cah.[w] 12 Joel was the head, and Sha'pham the second, and Ja'nai and Sha'phat in Ba'shan.

13 And their brothers belonging to the house of their forefathers were Mi'cha·el and Me·shul'lam and She'ba and Jo'rai and Ja'can and Zi'a and E'ber, seven. 14 These were the sons of Ab'i·ha·il the son of Hu'ri, the son of Ja·ro'ah, the son of Gil'e·ad, the son of Mi'cha·el, the son of Je·shish'ai, the son of Jah'do, the son of Buz; 15 A'hi the son of Ab'di·el, the son of Gu'ni, head of the house of their forefathers. 16 And they continued to dwell in Gil'e·ad,[a] in Ba'shan[b] and in its dependent towns[c] and in all the pasture grounds of Shar'on as far as their terminations. 17 They were all of them enrolled genealogically in the days of Jo'tham[d] the king of Judah and in the days of Jer·o·bo'am[e] the king of Israel.

18 As for the sons of Reu'ben and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh; of those who were valiant[f] fellows, men carrying shield and sword and bending the bow and trained in war, there were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty going out to the army.[g] 19 And they began to make war upon the Hag'rites,[h] and Je'tur[i] and Na'phish[j] and No'dab. 20 And they came to be helped against them, so that the Hag'rites and all those who were with them were given into their hand, for it was to God that they called for aid[k] in the war, and he let himself be entreated in their favor because they trusted in him.[l] 21 And they got to take captive their livestock,[m] their camels fifty thousand, and sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and asses two thousand, and human souls a hundred thousand.[n] 22 For there were many that had fallen slain, because it was on the part of the [true] God that the fighting was.[o] And they continued to dwell in their place down to the time of the exile.[p]

23 As for the sons of the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh,[a] they dwelt in the land from Ba'shan[b] to Ba'al-her'mon[c] and Se'nir[d] and Mount Her'mon.[e] They themselves became numerous. 24 And these were the heads of the house of their forefathers: E'pher and Ish'i and E'li·el and Az'ri·el and Jeremiah and Hod·a·vi'ah and Jah'di·el, men that were valiant, mighty fellows, men of fame, heads of the house of their forefathers. 25 And they began to act unfaithfully toward the God of their forefathers and went having immoral intercourse[f] with the gods[g] of the peoples of the land, whom God had annihilated from before them. 26 Consequently the God of Israel stirred up the spirit[h] of Pul[i] the king of As·syr'i·a[j] even the spirit of Til'gath-pil·ne'ser[k] the king of As·syr'i·a, so that he took into exile[l] those of the Reu'ben·ites and of the Gad'ites and of the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh and brought them to Ha'lah[m] and Ha'bor and Ha'ra and the river Go'zan [to continue] until this day.

6 The sons of Le'vi[n] were Ger'shon,[o] Ko'hath[p] and Me·rar'i.[q] 2 And the sons of Ko'hath were Am'ram,[r] Iz'har[s] and He'bron[t] and Uz'zi·el.[u] 3 And the sons of Am'ram[v] were Aar'on[w] and Moses,[x] and there was Mir'i·am.[y] And the sons of Aaron were Na'dab[z] and A·bi'hu,[a] El·e·a'zar[b] and Ith'a·mar.[c] 4 As for El·e·a'zar,[d] he became father to Phin'e·has.[e] Phin'e·has himself became father to Ab·i·shu'a.[f] 5 Ab·i·shu'a, in turn, became father to Buk'ki; Buk'ki, in turn, became father to Uz'zi.[g] 6 Uz'zi, in turn, became father to Zer·a·hi'ah; Zer·a·hi'ah, in turn, became father to Me·ra'ioth.[a] 7 Me·ra'ioth himself became father to Am·a·ri'ah; Am·a·ri'ah, in turn, became father to A·hi'tub.[b] 8 A·hi'tub, in turn, became father to Za'dok;[c] Za'dok, in turn, became father to A·him'a·az.[d] 9 A·him'a·az, in turn, became father to Az·a·ri'ah. Az·a·ri'ah, in turn, became father to Jo·ha'nan. 10 Jo·ha'nan, in turn, became father to Az·a·ri'ah.[e] He was the one that acted as priest in the house that Sol'o·mon built in Jerusalem.

11 And Az·a·ri'ah came to be father to Am·a·ri'ah.[f] Am·a·ri'ah, in turn, became father to A·hi'tub.[g] 12 A·hi'tub, in turn, became father to Za'dok.[h] Za'dok, in turn, became father to Shal'lum. 13 Shal'lum, in turn, became father to Hil·ki'ah. Hil·ki'ah,[i] in turn, became father to Az·a·ri'ah. 14 Az·a·ri'ah, in turn, became father to Se·rai'ah.[j] Se·rai'ah, in turn, became father to Je·hoz'a·dak.[k] 15 And Je·hoz'a·dak it was that went away when Jehovah took Judah and Jerusalem into exile by the hand of Neb·u·chad·nez'zar.

16 The sons of Le'vi[l] were Ger'shom, Ko'hath and Me·rar'i. 17 And these are the names of the sons of Ger'shom: Lib'ni[m] and Shim'e·i.[n] 18 And the sons of Ko'hath[o] were Am'ram[p] and Iz'har and He'bron and Uz'zi·el.[q] 19 The sons of Me·rar'i were Mah'li and Mu'shi.[r]

And these were the families of the Levites by their forefathers:[s] 20 Of Ger'shom, Lib'ni[t] his son, Ja'hath his son, Zim'mah his son, 21 Jo'ah[u] his son, Id'do his son, Ze'rah his son, Je·ath'e·rai his son. 22 The sons of Ko'hath were Am·min'a·dab his son, Ko'rah[v] his son, As'sir his son, 23 El·ka'nah his son and E·bi'a·saph[w] his son and As'sir his son; 24 Ta'hath his son, U·ri'el his son, Uz·zi'ah his son, and Sha'ul his son. 25 And the sons of El·ka'nah[a] were A·ma'sai and A·hi'moth. 26 As for El·ka'nah, the sons of El·ka'nah were Zo'phai[b] his son and Na'hath his son, 27 E·li'ab[c] his son, Je·ro'ham his son, El·ka'nah[d] his son. 28 And the sons of Samuel[e] were the firstborn [Joel] and the second A·bi'jah.[f] 29 The sons of Me·rar'i were Mah'li,[g] Lib'ni his son, Shim'e·i his son, Uz'zah his son, 30 Shim'e·a his son, Hag·gi'ah his son, A·sai'ah his son.

31 And these were the ones to whom David[h] gave positions for the direction of the singing at the house of Jehovah after the Ark had a resting-place.[i] 32 And they came to be ministers[j] in the singing[k] before the tabernacle of the tent of meeting until Sol'o·mon built the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem;[l] and they kept attending upon their service according to their commission.[m] 33 And these were those in attendance and also their sons: Of the sons of the Ko'hath·ites He'man[n] the singer, the son of Joel,[o] the son of Samuel,[p] 34 the son of El·ka'nah,[q] the son of Je·ro'ham, the son of E'li·el,[r] the son of To'ah, 35 the son of Zuph,[s] the son of El·ka'nah, the son of Ma'hath, the son of A·ma'sai, 36 the son of El·ka'nah, the son of Joel, the son of Az·a·ri'ah, the son of Zeph·a·ni'ah, 37 the son of Ta'hath, the son of As'sir, the son of E·bi'a·saph,[t] the son of Ko'rah,[u] 38 the son of Iz'har,[v] the son of Ko'hath, the son of Le'vi, the son of Israel.

39 As for his brother A'saph,[w] who was attending at his right, A'saph was the son of Ber·e·chi'ah,[x] the son of Shim'e·a, 40 the son of Mi'cha·el, the son of Ba·a·se'iah, the son of Mal·chi'jah, 41 the son of Eth'ni, the son of Ze'rah, the son of A·dai'ah, 42 the son of E'than, the son of Zim'mah, the son of Shim'e·i, 43 the son of Ja'hath,[a] the son of Ger'shom,[b] the son of Le'vi.

44 As regards the sons of Me·rar'i[c] their brothers on the left hand, there was E'than[d] the son of Kish'i,[e] the son of Ab'di, the son of Mal'luch, 45 the son of Hash·a·bi'ah, the son of Am·a·zi'ah, the son of Hil·ki'ah, 46 the son of Am'zi, the son of Ba'ni, the son of She'mer, 47 the son of Mah'li, the son of Mu'shi,[f] the son of Me·rar'i,[g] the son of Le'vi.

48 And their brothers the Levites[h] were the ones given for all the service[i] of the tabernacle of the house of the [true] God. 49 And Aaron[j] and his sons were making sacrificial smoke[k] upon the altar of burnt offering[l] and upon the altar of incense[m] for all the work of the most holy things and to make atonement[n] for Israel,[o] according to all that Moses the servant of the [true] God had commanded. 50 And these were the sons of Aaron:[p] El·e·a'zar[q] his son, Phin'e·has[r] his son, Ab·i·shu'a[s] his son, 51 Buk'ki his son, Uz'zi his son, Zer·a·hi'ah[t] his son, 52 Me·ra'ioth[u] his son, Am·a·ri'ah his son, A·hi'tub[v] his son, 53 Za'dok[w] his son, A·him'a·az[x] his son.

54 And these were their dwelling places by their walled camps in their territory,[y] for the sons of Aaron belonging to the family of the Ko'hath·ites,[z] for the lot had come to be theirs. 55 Accordingly they gave them He'bron[a] in the land of Judah, with its pasture grounds all around it. 56 And the field of the city and its settlements[b] they gave to Ca'leb[c] the son of Je·phun'neh.[d] 57 And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge,[e] He'bron,[f] and Lib'nah[g] with its pasture grounds and Jat'tir[h] and Esh·te·mo'a[i] with its pasture grounds, 58 and Hi'len[j] with its pasture grounds, De'bir[k] with its pasture grounds, 59 and A'shan[a] with its pasture grounds and Beth-she'mesh[b] with its pasture grounds; 60 and from the tribe of Benjamin Ge'ba[c] with its pasture grounds and Al'e·meth[d] with its pasture grounds and An'a·thoth[e] with its pasture grounds. All their cities were thirteen[f] cities among their families.

61 And to the sons of Ko'hath that were left over [they gave] from the family of the tribe, from the half tribe, the half of Ma·nas'seh, by the lot ten[g] cities.

62 And to the sons of Ger'shom[h] by their families [they gave] from the tribe of Is'sa·char[i] and from the tribe of Ash'er[j] and from the tribe of Naph'ta·li[k] and from the tribe of Ma·nas'seh[l] in Ba'shan, thirteen cities.

63 To the sons of Me·rar'i[m] by their families [they gave] from the tribe of Reu'ben[n] and from the tribe of Gad[o] and from the tribe of Zeb'u·lun[p] by the lot twelve cities.

64 Thus the sons of Israel gave the Levites[q] the cities with their pasture grounds.[r] 65 Furthermore, by the lot they gave from the tribe of the sons of Judah[s] and from the tribe of the sons of Sim'e·on[t] and from the tribe of the sons of Benjamin[u] these cities, which they proceeded to call by names.

66 And some of the families of the sons of Ko'hath came to have the cities of their territory from the tribe of E'phra·im.[v] 67 Accordingly they gave them the cities of refuge, She'chem[w] with its pasture grounds in the mountainous region of E'phra·im, and Ge'zer[x] with its pasture grounds, 68 and Jok'me·am[y] with its pasture grounds and Beth-ho'ron[z] with its pasture grounds, 69 and Ai'ja-

lon[a] with its pasture grounds and Gath-rim'mon[b] with its pasture grounds; 70 and from half of the tribe of Ma·nas'seh, A'ner[c] with its pasture grounds and Bil'e·am[d] with its pasture grounds, to the family of the sons of Ko'hath that were left over.[e]

71 And to the sons of Ger'shom[f] [they gave] from the family of the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh Go'lan[g] in Ba'shan with its pasture grounds and Ash'ta·roth[h] with its pasture grounds; 72 and from the tribe of Is'sa·char, Ke'desh[i] with its pasture grounds and Dab'e·rath[j] with its pasture grounds, 73 and Ra'moth[k] with its pasture grounds and A'nem[l] with its pasture grounds; 74 and from the tribe of Ash'er, Ma'shal with its pasture grounds and Ab'don[m] with its pasture grounds, 75 and Hu'kok[n] with its pasture grounds and Re'hob[o] with its pasture grounds; 76 and from the tribe of Naph'ta·li,[p] Ke'desh[q] in Gal'i·lee[r] with its pasture grounds and Ham'mon with its pasture grounds and Kir·i·a·tha'im[s] with its pasture grounds.

77 To the sons of Me·rar'i that were left over [they gave] from the tribe of Zeb'u·lun[t] Rim'mo·no[u] with its pasture grounds, Ta'bor with its pasture grounds, 78 and in the region of the Jordan at Jer'i·cho to the east of the Jordan, from the tribe of Reu'ben,[v] Be'zer[w] in the wilderness with its pasture grounds and Ja'haz[x] with its pasture grounds, 79 and Ked'e·moth[y] with its pasture grounds and Meph'a·ath[z] with its pasture grounds; 80 and from the tribe of Gad,[a] Ra'moth[b] in Gil'e·ad with its pasture grounds and Ma·ha·na'im[c] with its pasture grounds, 81 and Hesh'bon[d] with its pasture grounds and Ja'zer[e] with its pasture grounds.

7 Now the sons of Is'sa·char were To'la[a] and Pu'ah,[b] Ja'shub and Shim'ron,[c] four. 2 And the sons of To'la were Uz'zi and Re·pha'iah and Je'ri·el and Jah'mai and Ib'sam and She·mu'el, heads of the house of their forefathers. Of To'la there were valiant, mighty men, by their descendants. Their number in the days of David[d] was twenty-two thousand six hundred. 3 And the sons of Uz'zi were Iz·ra·hi'ah; and the sons of Iz·ra·hi'ah were Mi'cha·el and O·ba·di'ah and Joel, Is·shi'ah, , five, all of them being heads. 4 And with them by their descendants, according to the house of their forefathers, there were troops of the army for war, thirty-six thousand, for they had many wives and sons.[e] 5 And their brothers of all the families of Is'sa·char were valiant, mighty men,[f] eighty-seven thousand by the genealogical enrollment of them all.[g]

6 [The sons of] Benjamin[h] were Be'la[i] and Be'cher[j] and Je·di'a·el,[k] three. 7 And the sons of Be'la[l] were Ez'bon and Uz'zi and Uz'zi·el and Jer'i·moth and I'ri, five, heads of the house of their forefathers, valiant, mighty men; and their genealogical enrollment[m] was twenty-two thousand and thirty-four. 8 And the sons of Be'cher were Ze·mi'rah and Jo'ash and E·li·e'zer and Eli·o·e'nai and Om'ri and Jer'e·moth and A·bi'jah and An'a·thoth and Al'e·meth, all these the sons of Be'cher. 9 And their genealogical enrollment[n] by their descendants as respects the heads of the house of their forefathers, valiant, mighty men, was twenty thousand two hundred. 10 And the sons of Je·di'a·el[o] were Bil'han; and the sons of Bil'han were Je'ush and Benjamin and E'hud and Che·na'a·nah and Ze'than and Tar'shish and A·hish'a·har.

11 All these were the sons of Je·di'a·el, according to the heads of their forefathers, valiant, mighty men,[a] seventeen thousand two hundred going out to the army for war.

12 And the Shup'pim[b] and the Hup'pim[c] were the sons of Ir;[d] the Hu'shim were the sons of A'her.

13 The sons of Naph'ta·li[e] were Jah'zi·el[f] and Gu'ni[g] and Je'zer and Shal'lum,[h] the sons of Bil'hah.[i]

14 The sons of Ma·nas'seh[j] were As'ri·el, whom his Syrian concubine bore. (She bore Ma'chir[k] the father of Gil'e·ad. 15 And Ma'chir himself took a wife for Hup'pim and for Shup'pim, and the name of his sister was Ma'a·cah.) And the name of the second was Ze·lo'phe·had,[l] but Ze·lo'phe·had came to have daughters.[m] 16 In time Ma'a·cah, Ma'chir's wife, bore a son and called his name Pe'resh; and the name of his brother was She'resh; and his sons were U'lam and Re'kem. 17 And the sons of U'lam were Be'dan. These were the sons of Gil'e·ad the son of Ma'chir the son of Ma·nas'seh. 18 And his sister was Ham·mo'le·cheth. She gave birth to Ish'hod and Abi·e'zer[n] and Mah'lah. 19 And the sons of She·mi'da came to be A·hi'an and She'chem and Lik'hi and A·ni'am.

20 And the sons of E'phra·im[o] were Shu'the·lah[p] and Be'red his son and Ta'hath his son and E·le·a'dah his son and Ta'hath his son, 21 and Za'bad his son and Shu'the·lah his son and E'zer and E'le·ad. And the men of Gath[q] that were born in the land killed them because they came down to take their livestock. 22 And E'phra·im their father carried on mourning for many days,[r] and his brothers kept coming in to comfort him. 23 Afterward he had relations with his wife, so that she became pregnant[a] and gave birth to a son. But he called his name Be·ri'ah, because it was with calamity[b] that she happened to be in his house. 24 And his daughter was She'e·rah, and she got to build Beth-ho'ron,[c] the lower[d] and the upper,[e] and Uz'zen-she'e·rah. 25 And there was Re'phah his son, and Re'sheph, and Te'lah his son, and Ta'han his son, 26 La'dan his son, Am·mi'hud his son, E·lish'a·ma his son, 27 Nun[f] his son, Je·hosh'u·a[g] his son.

28 And their possession and their dwelling places were Beth'el[h] and its dependent towns and, to the east, Na'a·ran[i] and, to the west, Ge'zer[j] and its dependent towns, and She'chem[k] and its dependent towns clear to Ga'za and its dependent towns; 29 and by the side of the sons of Ma·nas'seh Beth-she'an[l] and its dependent towns, Ta'a·nach[m] and its dependent towns, Me·gid'do[n] and its dependent towns, Dor[o] and its dependent towns. In these the sons of Joseph[p] the son of Israel dwelt.

30 The sons of Ash'er[q] were Im'nah[r] and Ish'vah and Ish'vi[s] and Be·ri'ah;[t] and Se'rah was their sister. 31 And the sons of Be·ri'ah were He'ber and Mal'chi·el, who was the father of Bir'za·ith. 32 As for He'ber, he became father to Japh'let and Sho'mer and Ho'tham, and to Shu'a their sister. 33 And the sons of Japh'let were Pa'sach and Bim'hal and Ash'vath. These were the sons of Japh'let. 34 And the sons of She'mer were A'hi and Roh'gah, Je·hub'bah and A'ram. 35 And the sons of He'lem his brother were Zo'phah and Im'na and She'lesh and A'mal. 36 The sons of Zo'phah were Su'ah and Har'ne·pher and Shu'al and Be'ri and Im'rah, 37 Be'zer and Hod and Sham'ma and Shil'shah and Ith'ran and Be·e'ra. 38 And the sons of Je'ther were Je·phun′neh and Pis′pah and A′ra. 39 And the sons of Ul′la were A′rah and Han′ni·el and Ri·zi′a. 40 All these were the sons of Ash′er, heads[a] of the house of the forefathers, select, valiant,[b] mighty men, heads of the chieftains; and their genealogical enrollment[c] was in the army in the war. Their number was twenty-six thousand men.[d]

8 As for Benjamin,[e] he became father to Be′la[f] his firstborn, Ash′bel[g] the second and A·har′ah[h] the third, 2 No′hah[i] the fourth and Ra′pha the fifth. 3 And Be′la came to have sons, Ad′dar and Ge′ra[j] and A·bi′hud, 4 and Ab·i·shu′a and Na′a·man and A·ho′ah, 5 and Ge′ra and She·phu′phan[k] and Hu′ram.[l] 6 And these were the sons of E′hud. These were the heads of [the houses of] forefathers belonging to the inhabitants of Ge′ba,[m] and they proceeded to take them into exile at Man′a·hath. 7 And Na′a·man and A·hi′jah; and Ge′ra—he was the one that took them into exile, and he became father to Uz′za and A·hi′hud. 8 As for Sha·ha·ra′im, he became father to [children] in the field[n] of Mo′ab after he sent them away. Hu′shim and Ba′a·ra were his wives. 9 And by Ho′desh his wife he came to be father to Jo′bab and Zib′i·a and Me′sha and Mal′cam, 10 and Je′uz and Sa·chi′a and Mir′mah. These were his sons, heads of [the houses of] forefathers.

11 And by Hu′shim he became father to A·bi′tub and El·pa′al. 12 And the sons of El·pa′al were E′ber and Mi′sham and She′med, who built O′no[o] and Lod[p] and its dependent towns, 13 and Be·ri′ah and She′ma. These were heads of [the houses of] forefathers, belonging to the inhabitants of Ai′ja·lon.[q] These were the ones that chased away the inhabitants of Gath. 14 And [there were] A·hi′o, Sha′shak and Jer′e·moth, 15 and Zeb·a·di′ah and A′rad and E′der, 16 and Mi′cha·el and Ish′pah and Jo′ha, the sons of Be·ri′ah,[a] 17 and Zeb·a·di′ah and Me·shul′lam and Hiz′ki and He′ber, 18 and Ish′me·rai and Iz·li′ah and Jo′bab, the sons of El·pa′al, 19 and Ja′kim and Zich′ri and Zab′di, 20 and E·li·e′nai and Zil′le·thai and E′li·el, 21 and A·dai′ah and Be·ra′iah and Shim′rath, the sons of Shim′e·i,[b] 22 and Ish′pan and E′ber and E′li·el, 23 and Ab′don and Zich′ri and Ha′nan, 24 and Han·a·ni′ah and E′lam and An·tho·thi′jah, 25 and Iph·de′iah and Pe·nu′el, the sons of Sha′shak, 26 and Sham′she·rai and She·ha·ri′ah and Ath·a·li′ah, 27 and Ja·a·re·shi′ah and E·li′jah and Zich′ri, the sons of Je·ro′ham. 28 These were heads of [the houses of] forefathers by their descendants, headmen. These were the ones that dwelt in Jerusalem.[c]

29 And it was in Gib′e·on[d] that the father of Gib′e·on, [Je·i′el,] dwelt, and his wife's name was Ma′a·cah.[e] 30 And his son, the firstborn, was Ab′don, and Zur and Kish and Ba′al and Na′dab,[f] 31 and Ge′dor and A·hi′o and Ze′cher.[g] 32 As for Mik′loth, he became father to Shim′e·ah.[h] And these really were the ones that dwelt in front of their brothers in Jerusalem along with brothers of theirs.

33 As for Ner,[i] he became father to Kish;[j] Kish, in turn, became father to Saul;[k] Saul, in turn, became father to Jon′a·than[l] and Mal′chi-shu′a[m] and A·bin′a·dab[n] and Esh·ba′al.[o] 34 And Jon′a·than's son was Mer′ib-ba′al.[p] As for Mer′ib-ba′al, he became father to Mi′cah.[q] 35 And the sons of Mi′cah were Pi′thon and Mel′ech and Ta·re′a[r] and A′haz. 36 As for A′haz, he became father to Je·ho′ad·dah; Je·ho′ad·dah, in turn, became father to Al′e·meth and Az′ma·veth and Zim′ri. Zim′ri, in turn, became father to Mo′za; 37 Mo′za, in turn, became father to Bin′e·a, Ra′phah[a] his son, El·e·a′sah his son, A′zel his son. 38 And A′zel had six sons, and these were their names: Az·ri′kam, Bo′che·ru and Ish′ma·el and She·a·ri′ah and O·ba·di′ah and Ha′nan. All these were the sons of A′zel. 39 And the sons of E′shek his brother were U′lam his firstborn, Je′ush the second and E·liph′e·let the third. 40 And the sons of U′lam came to be valiant,[b] mighty men, bending the bow,[c] and having many sons[d] and grandsons, a hundred and fifty. All these were from the sons of Benjamin.

9 As for all Israelites, they were enrolled genealogically;[e] and there they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. And Judah itself was taken into exile[f] at Babylon for their unfaithfulness. 2 And the first inhabitants that were in their possession in their cities were the Israelites,[g] the priests,[h] the Levites[i] and the Neth′i·nim.[j] 3 And in Jerusalem[k] there dwelt some of the sons of Judah[l] and some of the sons of Benjamin[m] and some of the sons of E′phra·im and of Ma·nas′seh: 4 U′thai the son of Am·mi′hud the son of Om′ri the son of Im′ri the son of Ba′ni, of the sons of Pe′rez[n] the son of Judah.[o] 5 And of the Shi′lo·nites,[p] A·sai′ah the firstborn and his sons. 6 And of the sons of Ze′rah,[q] Je·u′el, and six hundred and ninety brothers of theirs.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin, Sal′lu the son of Me·shul′lam the son of Hod·a·vi′ah the son of Has·se·nu′ah, 8 and Ib·ne′iah the son of Je·ro′ham, and E′lah the son of Uz′zi the son of Mich′ri, and Me·shul′lam the son of Sheph·a·ti′ah the son of Reu′el the son of Ib·ni′jah. 9 And the brothers of theirs by their descendants were nine hundred and fifty-six. All these were men that were heads of the fathers by the house of their forefathers.

10 And of the priests there were Je·da′iah and Je·hoi′a·rib and Ja′chin,[a] 11 and Az·a·ri′ah[b] the son of Hil·ki′ah the son of Me·shul′lam the son of Za′dok the son of Me·ra′ioth the son of A·hi′tub, a leader of the house of the [true] God, 12 and A·dai′ah the son of Je·ro′ham the son of Pash′hur the son of Mal·chi′jah, and Ma′a·sai the son of Ad′i·el the son of Jah′ze·rah the son of Me·shul′lam the son of Me·shil′le·mith[c] the son of Im′mer, 13 and their brothers, heads of the house of their forefathers, a thousand seven hundred and sixty, mighty men of ability[d] for the work of the service of the house of the [true] God.

14 And of the Levites there were She·mai′ah the son of Has′shub the son of Az·ri′kam the son of Hash·a·bi′ah[e] from the sons of Me·rar′i; 15 and Bak·bak′kar, He′resh and Ga′lal, and Mat·ta·ni′ah[f] the son of Mi′ca[g] the son of Zich′ri[h] the son of A′saph,[i] 16 and O·ba·di′ah the son of She·mai′ah[j] the son of Ga′lal the son of Je·du′thun,[k] and Ber·e·chi′ah the son of A′sa the son of El·ka′nah, who was dwelling in the settlements of the Ne·toph′a·thites.[l]

17 And the gatekeepers[m] were Shal′lum[n] and Ak′kub and Tal′mon and A·hi′man and their brother Shal′lum the head, 18 and up till then he was in the king's gate[o] to the east. These were the gatekeepers of the camps of the sons of Le′vi.[p] 19 And Shal′lum the son of Ko′re the son of E·bi′a·saph[q] the son[r] of Ko′rah[s] and his brothers of the house of his father the Ko′rah·ites,[t] over the work of the service, the doorkeepers[u] of the tent, and their fathers over the camp of Jehovah, the keepers of the entryway.

20 And it was Phin'e·has[a] the son of El·e·a'zar[b] that happened to be leader over them in the past. Jehovah was with him.[c] 21 Zech·a·ri'ah[d] the son of Me·shel·e·mi'ah was the gatekeeper of the entrance of the tent of meeting.

22 All of them who were selected as gatekeepers at the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. They were in their settlements[e] by their genealogical[f] enrollment. These David[g] and Samuel the seer[h] ordained in their office of trust.[i] 23 And they and their sons were over the gates of the house of Jehovah, even the house of the tent, for guard service.[j] 24 It was to the four directions that the gatekeepers came to be, to the east,[k] to the west,[l] to the north[m] and to the south.[n] 25 And their brothers in their settlements were to come in for seven[o] days, from time to time, along with these. 26 For in office of trust there were four mighty men of the gatekeepers.
They were Levites, and they proved to be in charge of the dining rooms[p] and of the treasures[q] of the house of the [true] God. 27 And all around the house of the [true] God they would spend the night; for guard[r] service was upon them, and they were in charge of the key, even [to open up] from morning to morning.[s]

28 And some of them were in charge of the utensils[t] of the service, for it was by number that they would bring them in and it was by number that they would take them out. 29 And some of them were men appointed over the utensils and over all the holy[u] utensils and over the fine flour[v] and the wine[w] and the oil[x] and the frankincense[y] and the balsam oil.[z] 30 And some of the sons of the priests were makers of the ointment[a] mixture of balsam
oil. 31 And Mat·ti·thi'ah
of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shal'lum[a] the Ko'rah·ite, was in the office of trust over the things baked in pans.[b] 32 And some of the sons of the Ko'hath·ites, their brothers, were in charge of the layer bread,[c] to prepare it sabbath
by sabbath.[d]

33 And these were the singers,[e]
the heads of the fathers of the Levites in the dining rooms,[f] those set free from duty;[g] for by day and by night it was their responsibility to be in the work.[h] 34 These were the heads of the fathers of the Levites by their descendants, headmen. These were the ones that dwelt in Jerusalem.[i]

35 And in Gib'e·on[j] was where the father of Gib'e·on, Je·i'el, dwelt. And his wife's name was Ma'a·cah. 36 And his son, the firstborn, was Ab'don, and Zur and Kish and Ba'al and Ner and Na'dab, 37 and Ge'dor and A·hi'o and Zech·a·ri'ah[k] and Mik'loth. 38 As for Mik'loth, he became father to Shim'e·am.
And it was really they that dwelt in front of their brothers in Jerusalem along with brothers of theirs. 39 As for Ner,[l] he became father to Kish;[m] Kish, in turn, became father to Saul;[n]
Saul, in turn, became father to Jon'a·than[o] and Mal'chi-shu'a[p]
and A·bin'a·dab[q] and Esh·ba'al.[r] 40 And the son of Jon'a·than was Mer'ib-ba'al.[s] As for Mer'ib-ba'al, he became father to Mi'cah.[t] 41 And the sons of Mi'cah were Pi'thon and Mel'ech and Tahr'e·a [and A'haz].[u] 42 As for A'haz, he became father to Ja'rah; Ja'rah, in turn, became father to Al'e·meth and Az'ma·veth and Zim'ri. Zim'ri, in turn, became father to Mo'za.
43 As for Mo'za, he became father to Bin'e·a and Re·pha'iah[v]
his son, El·e·a'sah his son, A'zel his son. 44 And A'zel had six sons, and these were their names: Az·ri'kam, Bo'che·ru and Ish'ma·el and She·a·ri'ah and O·ba·di'ah and Ha'nan.

These were the sons of A'zel.[a]

10 And the Phi·lis'tines,[b] for their part, made war upon Israel; and the men of Israel went fleeing from before the Phi·lis'tines and kept falling slain in Mount Gil·bo'a.[c] 2 And the Phi·lis'tines kept in close range of Saul and his sons; and the Phi·lis'tines got to strike down Jon'a·than[d] and A·bin'a·dab[e] and Mal'chi-shu'a,[f] sons of Saul.[g] 3 And the fighting became heavy against Saul; and those shooting with the bow finally found him, and he got wounded by the shooters.[h] 4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer:[i]
"Draw your sword[j] and run me through with it, that these uncircumcised[k] men may not come and certainly deal abusively[l] with me." And his armor-bearer was unwilling,[m] because he was very much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell upon it.[n] 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul had died, then he too fell upon the sword and died.[o] 6 Thus Saul and three sons of his died,[p] and all those of his house died together.
7 When all the men of Israel that were in the low plain saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, then they began to leave their cities and flee;[q] after which the Phi·lis'tines came on in and took up dwelling in them.

8 And it came about the next day that, when the Phi·lis'tines came to strip[r] the slain, they got to find Saul and his sons fallen upon Mount Gil·bo'a.[s] 9 And they proceeded to strip him and take off his head[t] and his armor and send into the land of the Phi·lis'tines all around to inform[u] their idols[v] and the people.
10 Finally they put his armor in the house of their god,[w] and his skull they fastened to the house of Da'gon.[x] 11 And all those of Ja'besh[y] in Gil'e·ad got to hear of all that the Phi·lis'tines had done to Saul.[a] 12 So all the valiant men rose up and carried off the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons and brought them to Ja'besh and buried their bones under the big tree[b] in Ja'besh;[c] and they went fasting[d] for seven days.

13 Thus Saul died for his unfaithfulness with which he had acted faithlessly[e] against Jehovah concerning the word of Jehovah that he had not kept and also for asking of a spirit medium[f] to make inquiry.
14 And he did not inquire of Jehovah.[g] Consequently he put him to death and turned the kingship over to David the son of Jes'se.[h]

11 In time all the Israelites[i] collected themselves together to David at He'bron,[j] saying: "Look! We are your bone and your flesh.[k] 2 Both yesterday and previously, even while Saul happened to be king, you were the one leading Israel out and bringing it in;[l] and Jehovah your God proceeded to say to you, 'You yourself will shepherd[m] my people Israel, and you yourself will become leader[n] over my people Israel.'" 3 So all the older men of Israel came to the king at He'bron and David concluded a covenant with them in He'bron before Jehovah; after which they anointed[o] David as king over Israel, according to Jehovah's word[p] by means of Samuel.[q]

4 Later David and all Israel went to Jerusalem,[r] that is to say, Je'bus,[s] where the Jeb'usites[t] were the inhabitants of the land. 5 And the inhabitants of Je'bus began to say to David: "You will not come in here."[u] Just the same, David proceeded to capture the stronghold of Zion,[a] that is to say, the City of David.[b] 6 So David said: "Anyone striking[c]

the Jeb'u·sites first, he will become head and prince." And Jo'ab[d] the son of Ze·ru'iah got to go up first, and he came to be head. 7 And David took up dwelling in the place difficult to approach.[e] That is why they called it the City of David.[f] 8 And he began to build the city all around, from the Mound even to the parts round about, but Jo'ab himself brought to life[g] the rest of the city. 9 And David went on getting greater and greater,[h] for Jehovah of armies was with him.[i]

10 Now these are the heads of the mighty[j] men that belonged to David, holding strongly with him in his kingship together with all Israel, to make him king according to Jehovah's word[k] concerning Israel.
11 And this is the list of the mighty men that belonged to David: Ja·sho'be·am[l] the son of a Hach'mon·ite, the head of the three. He was brandishing his spear over three hundred slain at one time.[m] 12 And after him there was El·e·a'zar[n] the son of Do'do the A·ho'hite.[o] He was among the three mighty men.[p] 13 He it was that happened to be with David at Pas-dam'mim,[q] where the Phi·lis'tines had gathered themselves together for war. Now there happened to be a tract of the field full of barley, and the people, for their part, had fled because of the Phi·lis'tines.[r] 14 But he took his stand in the middle of the tract and delivered it, and kept striking down the Phi·lis'tines, so that Jehovah saved[s] with a great salvation.[t]

15 And three of the thirty[u] head ones proceeded to go down to the rock, to David at the cave of A·dul'lam,[v] while a camp of the Phi·lis'tines was camping in the low plain of Reph'a·im.[a] 16 And David was then in the place hard to approach;[b] and a garrison of the Phi·lis'tines[c] was then in Beth'le·hem.
17 After a while David showed his craving and said: "O that I might have a drink[d] of the water from the cistern of Beth'le·hem,[e] which is at the gate!" 18 At that the three forced their way into the camp of the Phi·lis'tines and drew water from the cistern of Beth'le·hem, which is at the gate, and came carrying and bringing it to David.[f] And David did not consent to drink it, but poured it out to Jehovah.[g] 19 And he went on to say: "It is unthinkable on my part, as regards my God, to do this! Is it the blood[h] of these men that I should drink at the risk of their souls? For it was at the risk of their souls that they brought it." And he did not consent to drink it.[i] These are the things that the three mighty men did.

20 As for A·bish'ai[j] the brother of Jo'ab,[k] he himself became head of the three; and he was brandishing his spear over three hundred slain, and he had a reputation like the three.
21 Of the three he was more distinguished than the two others, and he came to be a chief to them; and yet he did not come[l] up to the [first] three.

22 As for Be·nai'ah[m] the son of Je·hoi'a·da,[n] the son of a valiant man, who did many deeds in Kab'ze·el,[o] he himself struck down the two [sons] of Ar'i·el of Mo'ab; and he himself descended and struck down a lion[p] inside a waterpit in the day of snowfall. 23 And he it was that struck down the Egyptian man, a man of extraordinary size, of five cubits.[q] And in the hand of the Egyptian there was a spear[r] like the beam of loom workers; yet he went on down to him with a rod and snatched the spear away from the Egyptian's hand and miah the tenth, Mach'ban·nai the eleventh. 14 These were of the sons of Gad,[a] heads of the army. The least one was equal to a hundred, and the greatest to a thousand.[b] 15 These are the ones that crossed the Jordan[c] in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks,[d] and they then chased away all those of the low plains, to the east and to the west.

16 And some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah proceeded to come clear to the place difficult to approach,[e] to David. 17 Then David went out before them and answered and said to them: "If it is for peace[f] that YOU have come to me to help me, my own heart will become at unity with YOU.[g] But if it is to betray me to my adversaries when there is no wrong on my palms,[h] let the God[i] of our forefathers see to it and set it in order."[j] 18 And spirit[k] itself enveloped A·ma'sai, the head of the thirty:

"Yours [we are], O David, and with you [we are],[l]
O son of Jes'se.
Peace, peace be yours, and peace to the one helping you,
For your God has helped you."[m]

So David received them and put them among the heads of the troops.[n]

19 And there were some of Ma·nas'seh that deserted to David when he came with the Phi·lis'tines[o] against Saul for battle; but he did not help them, for on counsel the axis[p] lords of the Phi·lis'tines sent him away, saying: "At the risk of our own heads he will desert to his lord Saul."[q] 20 When he came to Zik'lag[r] there deserted to him from Ma·nas'seh Ad'nah and Jo'za·bad and Je·di'a·el and Mi'cha·el and Jo'za·bad and E·li'hu and Zil'le·thai, heads[s] of the thousands that belonged to Ma·nas'seh. 21 And they, for their part, were of help to David against the marauder band,[a] because all of them were mighty men[b] of valor, and they came to be chiefs in the army; 22 for day by day people kept coming[c] to David to help him, until it was a great[d] camp, like the camp of God.[e]

23 And these were the numbers of the heads of those equipped for the army that came to David at He'bron[f] to turn the kingship[g] of Saul over to him according to Jehovah's order.[h] 24 The sons of Judah carrying the large shield and the lance were six thousand eight hundred, equipped for the army. 25 Of the sons of Sim'e·on the mighty men of valor of the army were seven thousand one hundred.

26 Of the sons of the Levites four thousand six hundred. 27 And Je·hoi'a·da was the leader[i] [of the sons] of Aaron,[j] and with him there were three thousand seven hundred. 28 Also Za'dok[k] a young man, mighty in valor, and the house of his forefathers, twenty-two chiefs.

29 And of the sons of Benjamin,[l] the brothers of Saul,[m] there were three thousand, and up till then the greater number of them were keeping strict watch of the house of Saul. 30 And of the sons of E'phra·im there were twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men[n] of valor, men of fame, by the house of their forefathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh[o] there were eighteen thousand that had been designated by name to come to make David king. 32 And of the sons of Is'sa·char[p] having a knowledge of how to discern the times[q] to know what Israel ought to do,[r] there were two hundred head ones of theirs, and all their brothers were at their orders. 33 Of Zeb'u·lun[s] those going out to the army, drawing up in battle formation with all the weapons of war, there were fifty thousand, and for flocking together [to David] they were not of a double heart. 34 And of Naph'ta·li[a] there were a thousand chiefs, and with them with the large shield and the spear there were thirty-seven thousand. 35 And of the Dan'ites those drawing up in battle formation were twenty-eight thousand six hundred. 36 And of Ash'er[b] those going out to the army for drawing up in battle formation were forty thousand.

37 And from across the Jordan[c] of the Reu'ben·ites and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh with all the weapons of the military army there were a hundred and twenty thousand. 38 All these were men of war, flocking together in battle line; with a complete heart[d] they came to He'bron to make David king over all Israel; and also all the remainder of Israel were of one heart for making David king.[e] 39 And they continued there with David three days, eating and drinking,[f] for their brothers had made preparation for them. 40 And also those near to them, as far as Is'sa·char[g] and Zeb'u·lun[h] and Naph'ta·li,[i] were bringing food upon asses[j] and upon camels and upon mules and upon cattle, eatables of flour,[k] cakes of pressed figs[l] and cakes of raisins[m] and wine[n] and oil[o] and cattle[p] and sheep[q] in great quantity, for there was rejoicing[r] in Israel.

13 And David proceeded to consult with the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds and with every leader;[a] 2 and David went on to say to all the congregation of Israel: "If it seems good to YOU and it is acceptable with Jehovah our God, let us send to our brothers that are left over in all the lands of Israel[b] and with them [to] the priests[a] and the Levites[b] in their cities[c] with pasture grounds, that they may collect themselves together to us. 3 And let us bring the ark[d] of our God around to ourselves." For they had not cared for it in the days of Saul.[e] 4 So all the congregation said to do that way, for the thing seemed right in the eyes of all the people.[f] 5 Accordingly David congregated[g] all Israel from the river of Egypt[h] as far as the entering of Ha'math,[i] to bring the ark[j] of the [true] God from Kir'i·ath-je'a·rim.[k]

6 And David and all Israel proceeded to go up to Ba'al·ah,[l] to Kir'i·ath-je'a·rim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of the [true] God, Jehovah, sitting on the cherubs,[m] where [his] name is called on. 7 However, they had the ark of the [true] God ride upon a new wagon[n] from the house of A·bin'a·dab, and Uz'zah and A·hi'o[o] were leading the wagon. 8 And David and all Israel were celebrating[p] before the [true] God with full power and with songs[q] and with harps[r] and with stringed instruments[s] and with tambourines[t] and with cymbals and with trumpets.[u] 9 And they came gradually as far as the threshing floor of Chi'don,[v] and Uz'zah now thrust his hand out to grab hold of the Ark,[w] for the bulls nearly caused an upset. 10 At that Jehovah's anger blazed against Uz'zah, so that he struck him down because he had thrust his hand out upon the Ark,[x] and he died there before God.[y] 11 And David became angry[z] because Jehovah had broken through in a rupture against Uz'zah; and that place came to be called Pe'rez-uz'zah down to this day.

12 And David became afraid of the [true] God on that day,[a] saying: "How shall I bring the ark of the [true] God to me?"[b]

13 And David did not remove the Ark to himself at the City of David, but he carried it aside to the house of O′bed-e′dom[a] the Git′tite.[b] 14 And the ark of the [true] God kept dwelling with the household of O′bed-e′dom, at his house[c] three months; and Jehovah kept blessing[d] the household of O′bed-e′dom and all that was his.

14 And Hi′ram[e] the king of Tyre[f] proceeded to send messengers to David and cedar timbers[g] and builders of walls and workers in wood to build him a house.[h] 2 And David came to know that Jehovah had firmly established[i] him as king over Israel, for his kingship was highly exalted on account of his people Israel.[j]

3 And David went on to take more wives[k] in Jerusalem, and David came to be father to more sons and daughters.[l] 4 And these are the names of the children that became his in Jerusalem: Sham·mu′a[m] and Sho′bab,[n] Nathan[o] and Sol′o·mon,[p] 5 and Ib′har[q] and E·li′shu·a and El′pe·let,[r] 6 and No′gah and Ne′pheg[s] and Ja·phi′a, 7 and E·lish′a·ma[t] and Be·e·li′a·da and E·liph′e·let.[u]

8 And the Phi·lis′tines got to hear that David had been anointed as king over all Israel.[v] At that all the Phi·lis′tines came up to look for David.[w] When David heard of it, then he went out against them. 9 And the Phi·lis′tines, for their part, came in and kept making raids in the low plain of Reph′a·im.[x] 10 And David began to inquire of God,[y] saying: "Shall I go up against the Phi·lis′tines, and will you certainly give them into my hand?" At this Jehovah said to him: "Go up, and I shall certainly give them into your hand." 11 So David went up to Ba′al-pe·ra′zim[z] and there got to strike them down. At that David said: "The [true] God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a gap made by waters." That is why they called the name of that place[a] Ba′al-pe·ra′zim. 12 Consequently they left their gods there.[b] Then David said [the word], and so they were burned in the fire.[c]

13 Later the Phi·lis′tines once again made a raid in the low plain.[d] 14 At that David inquired[e] again of God, and the [true] God now said to him: "You must not go up after them. Go around from directly against them, and you must come at them in front of the ba′ca bushes.[f] 15 And let it occur that, when you hear the sound of the marching in the tops of the ba′ca bushes,[g] then you go out into the fight,[h] because the [true] God will have gone out before you[i] to strike the camp of the Phi·lis′tines down." 16 So David did just as the [true] God had commanded him,[j] and they went striking down the camp of the Phi·lis′tines from Gib′e·on[k] to Ge′zer.[l] 17 And David's fame[m] began to go out into all the lands, and Jehovah himself put the dread of him upon all the nations.[n]

15 And he continued building houses[o] for himself in the City of David; and he went on to prepare a place[p] for the ark of the [true] God and pitch a tent for it. 2 It was then that David said: "No one is to carry the ark of the [true] God but the Levites, for they are the ones whom Jehovah has chosen to carry the ark of Jehovah[q] and to minister[r] to him to time indefinite." 3 Then David congregated all Israel at Jerusalem[s] to bring the ark[t] of Jehovah up to its place that he had prepared for it.

4 And David proceeded to gather the sons of Aaron[u] and the Levites; 5 of the sons of Ko′hath, U·ri′el[a] the chief and his brothers, a hundred and twenty; 6 of the sons of Me·rar′i,[b] A·sai′ah[c] the chief and his brothers, two hundred and twenty; 7 of the sons of Ger′shom,[d] Joel[e] the chief and his brothers, a hundred and thirty; 8 of the sons of E·li·za′phan,[f] She·mai′ah[g] the chief and his brothers, two hundred; 9 of the sons of He′bron, E′li·el the chief and his brothers, eighty; 10 of the sons of Uz′zi·el,[h] Am·min′a·dab the chief and his brothers, a hundred and twelve. 11 Furthermore, David called Za′dok[i] and A·bi′a·thar[j] the priests, and the Levites U·ri′el,[k] A·sai′ah[l] and Joel,[m] She·mai′ah[n] and E′li·el[o] and Am·min′a·dab, 12 and he went on to say to them: "YOU are the heads[p] of the fathers of the Levites. Sanctify[q] yourselves, YOU and YOUR brothers, and YOU must bring the ark of Jehovah the God of Israel up to the place that I have prepared for it. 13 Because at the first time YOU did not,[r] Jehovah our God broke through against us,[s] for we did not search after him according to the custom."[t] 14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified[u] themselves to bring up the ark of Jehovah the God of Israel.

15 Then the sons of the Levites began to carry[v] the ark of the [true] God, just as Moses had commanded by Jehovah's word, upon their shoulders with the rods upon them.[w] 16 David now said to the chiefs of the Levites to station their brothers the singers[x] with the instruments of song,[y] stringed instruments[z] and harps[a] and cymbals,[b] playing aloud to cause a sound of rejoicing to arise.

17 Accordingly the Levites stationed He′man[c] the son of Joel and, of his brothers, A′saph[d] the son of Ber·e·chi′ah; and, of the sons of Me·rar′i their brothers, E′than[a] the son of Kush·a′iah; 18 and with them their brothers of the second division,[b] Zech·a·ri′ah,[c] Ben and Ja·a′zi·el and She·mir′a·moth and Je·hi′el and Un′ni, E·li′ab and Be·nai′ah and Ma·a·sei′ah and Mat·ti·thi′ah and E·liph′e·le·hu and Mik·ne′iah, and O′bed-e′dom[d] and Je·i′el the gatekeepers. 19 And the singers He′man,[e] A′saph[f] and E′than, with the copper cymbals to play aloud;[g] 20 and Zech·a·ri′ah and A′zi·el[h] and She·mir′a·moth and Je·hi′el and Un′ni and E·li′ab and Ma·a·sei′ah and Be·nai′ah with stringed instruments tuned to Al′a·moth,[i] 21 and Mat·ti·thi′ah[j] and E·liph′e·le·hu and Mik·ne′iah and O′bed-e′dom and Je·i′el and Az·a·zi′ah with harps[k] tuned to Shem′i·nith,[l] to act as directors; 22 and Chen·a·ni′ah[m] the chief of the Levites in carrying, he giving instruction in carrying, for he was expert;[n] 23 and Ber·e·chi′ah and El·ka′nah the gatekeepers[o] for the Ark; 24 and Sheb·a·ni′ah and Josh′a·phat and Ne·than′el and A·ma′sai and Zech·a·ri′ah and Be·nai′ah and E·li·e′zer the priests loudly sounding the trumpets[p] before the ark of the [true] God, and O′bed-e′dom and Je·hi′ah the gatekeepers for the Ark.

25 And David[q] and the older men of Israel[r] and the chiefs[s] of the thousands came to be the ones walking along to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the house of O′bed-e′dom[t] with rejoicing.[u] 26 And it came about when the [true] God helped[v] the Levites while carrying the ark of the covenant of Jehovah that they proceeded to sacrifice seven young bulls and seven rams.[w] 27 And David was dressed in a sleeveless coat of fine fabric, and also all the Levites carrying the Ark and the singers and

Chen·a·ni′ah[a] the chief of the carrying by the singers;[b] but upon David there was an eph′od[c] of linen. 28 And all the Israelites were bringing up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with joyful shouting[d] and with the sounding of the horn[e] and with trumpets[f] and with cymbals,[g] playing aloud on stringed instruments and harps.[h]

29 And it came about that, when the ark of the covenant[i] of Jehovah came as far as the City of David, Mi′chal,[j] Saul's daughter, herself looked down through the window and got to see King David skipping about and celebrating;[k] and she began to despise[l] him in her heart.

16 Thus they brought the ark of the [true] God in[m] and placed it inside the tent that David had pitched for it;[n] and they began to present burnt offerings and communion sacrifices before the [true] God.[o] 2 When David finished offering up the burnt offering[p] and the communion sacrifices,[q] he went on to bless[r] the people in the name of Jehovah.[s] 3 Further, he apportioned[t] to all the Israelites, man as well as woman, to each one a round loaf of bread and a date cake and a raisin cake. 4 Then he put before the ark of Jehovah some of the Levites[u] as ministers,[v] both to call to remembrance[w] and to thank[x] and praise[y] Jehovah the God of Israel, 5 A′saph[z] the head, and second to him Zech·a·ri′ah, [and] Je·i′el and She·mir′a·moth and Je·hi′el and Mat·ti·thi′ah and E·li′ab and Be·nai′ah and O′bed-e′dom and Je·i′el,[a] with instruments of the string type and with harps,[b] and A′saph[c] with the cymbals playing aloud,[d] 6 and Be·nai′ah and Ja·ha·zi′el the priests with the trumpets[e] constantly before the ark of the covenant of the [true] God.

7 It was then on that day that David made a contribution[a] for the first time to thank[b] Jehovah by means of A′saph[c] and his brothers:

8 “Give thanks to Jehovah,[d] YOU people; call upon his name,[e]
Make his deeds known among the peoples![f]
9 Sing[g] to him, make melody to him,[h]
Concern yourselves with all his wonderful acts.[i] 10 Make YOUR boast in his holy[j] name,[k]
Let the heart of those seeking Jehovah rejoice.[l]
11 Search after Jehovah and his strength,[m]
Seek his face constantly.[n]
12 Remember his wonderful acts that he has performed,[o]
His miracles and the judicial decisions of his mouth,[p]
13 O offspring of Israel his servant,[q]
YOU sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.[r]
14 He is Jehovah our God;[s] in all the earth are his judicial decisions.[t]
15 Remember his covenant even to time indefinite,[u]
The word that he commanded, to a thousand generations,[v]
16 Which [covenant] he concluded with Abraham,[w]
And his sworn statement to Isaac,[x]
17 And which [statement] he kept standing as a regulation even to Jacob,[y]
As an indefinitely lasting covenant even to Israel,[z]
18 Saying, ‘To you I shall give the land of Ca′naan,[a]
As the allotment of YOUR inheritance.’[b]

19 [This was] when YOU happened to be few in number,[a]
Yes, very few, and alien residents in it.[b]
20 And they kept walking about from nation to nation,[c]
And from one kingdom to another people.[d]
21 He did not allow anyone to defraud them,[e]
But on their account he reproved kings,[f]
22 [Saying,] ‘Do not YOU men touch my anointed ones,
And to my prophets do nothing bad.’[g]
23 Sing to Jehovah, all YOU of the earth![h]
Announce from day to day the salvation he gives![i] 24 Relate among the nations his glory,
Among all the peoples his wonderful acts.
25 For Jehovah is great and very much to be praised,[j]
And he is to be feared more than all [other] gods.[k]
26 For all the gods of the peoples are valueless gods.[l]
As for Jehovah, he made the heavens.[m]
27 Dignity and splendor are before him,[n]
Strength and joy are at his place.[o]
28 Attribute to Jehovah, O families of peoples, Attribute to Jehovah glory and strength.[p]
29 Attribute to Jehovah the glory of his name,[q]
Carry a gift and come in before him.[r]
Bow down to Jehovah in holy adornment.[s]
30 Be in severe pains on account of him, all [YOU people of] the earth!
Also the productive land is firmly established:
Never will it be made to totter.[a]
31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be joyful,[b]
And let them say among the nations, ‘Jehovah himself has become king!’[c]
32 Let the sea thunder and also that which fills it,[d]
Let the field exult and all that is in it.[e]
33 At the same time let the trees of the forest break out joyfully on account of Jehovah,[f]
For he has come to judge the earth.[g]
34 Give thanks to Jehovah, YOU people, for he is good,[h]
For to time indefinite is his loving-kindness.[i] laid in command upon Israel;[a] 41 and with them He'man[b] and Je·du'thun and the rest of the select men that were designated[c] by names to thank Jehovah,[d] because "to time indefinite is his loving-kindness";[e] 42 and with them He'man[f] and Je·du'thun,[g] to sound forth the trumpets[h] and cymbals and instruments of the song of the [true] God; and the sons[i] of Je·du'thun at the gate. 43 And all the people proceeded to go each one to his own house.[j] Accordingly David went around to bless his own house.

17 And it came about that as soon as David had begun dwelling in his own house,[k] David proceeded to say to Nathan[l] the prophet: "Here I am dwelling in a house of cedars,[m] but the ark[n] of the covenant of Jehovah is under tent cloths."[o] 2 Upon that Nathan said to David: "Everything that is in your heart do,[p] for the [true] God is with you."[q]

3 And it came about on that night that the word[r] of God came to Nathan, saying: 4 "Go, and you must say to David my servant, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "It will not be you that will build me the house in which to dwell.[s] 5 For I have not dwelt in a house from the day that I brought Israel up until this day,[t] but I continued from tent to tent and from one tabernacle[u] [to another].[v] 6 During all the time that I walked[w] about in all Israel, did I speak a single word with one of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, 'Why have YOU men not built me a house of cedars?'"'[x]

7 "And now this is what you will say to my servant David, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "I myself took you from the pasture ground from following the flock[y] to become a leader[z] over my people Israel. 8 And I shall prove to be with you wherever you do walk,[a] and I shall cut off all your enemies[b] from before you, and I shall certainly make for you a name[c] like the name of the great ones that are upon the earth.[d] 9 And I shall certainly appoint a place for my people Israel and plant them,[e] and they will indeed reside where they are and no more will they be disturbed; and the sons of unrighteousness[f] will not wear them out again, just as they did at the first,[g] 10 even since the days that I put judges[h] in command over my people Israel. And I shall certainly humble all your enemies.[i] And I tell you, 'Also a house Jehovah will build for you.'[j]

11 "'"And it must occur that when your days have come to the full [for you] to go [to be] with your forefathers,[k] I shall certainly raise up your seed after you that will come to be one of your sons,[l] and I shall indeed firmly establish his kingship.[m] 12 He is the one that will build me a house,[n] and I shall certainly establish his throne firmly to time indefinite.[o] 13 I myself shall become his father,[p] and he himself will become my son;[q] and my loving-kindness I shall not remove from him[r] the way I removed it from the one that happened to be prior to you.[s] 14 And I will cause him to stand in my house[t] and in my kingship[u] to time indefinite, and his throne[v] will itself become one lasting to time indefinite."'"

15 According to all these words and according to all this vision was the way that Nathan spoke to David.[w]

16 After that King David came in and sat down before Jehovah[x] and said: "Who am I,[y]

O Jehovah God, and what is my house[a] that you have brought me thus far?[b] 17 As though this should be something little in your eyes,[c] O God,[d] yet you speak concerning the house of your servant down to a distant future time,[e] and you have looked on me according to the opportunity of the man in the ascendancy,[f] O Jehovah God. 18 What more could David say to you as to honoring your servant,[g] when you yourself know your servant well?[h] 19 O Jehovah, for the sake of your servant and in agreement with your own heart[i] you have done all these great things by making all the great achievements known.[j] 20 O Jehovah, there is none like you,[k] and there is no God except you[l] in connection with all that we have heard with our ears. 21 And what other nation in the earth is like your people Israel,[m] whom the [true] God went to redeem to himself as a people,[n] to assign to yourself a name of great achievements[o] and fear-inspiring things by driving out nations[p] from before your people whom you have redeemed from Egypt? 22 And you proceeded to constitute your people Israel as your people[q] to time indefinite, and you yourself, O Jehovah, became their God.[r] 23 And now, O Jehovah, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house prove faithful to time indefinite, and do just as you have spoken. 24 And let your name[s] prove faithful and become great[t] to time indefinite, saying, 'Jehovah of armies,[u] the God of Israel,[v] is God to Israel,'[w] and let the house of David your servant be one lasting before you.[x] 25 For you yourself, my God, have revealed to your servant the purpose to build him a house.[y] That is why your servant has found occasion to pray before you. 26 And now, O Jehovah, you are the [true] God,[a] and you promise this goodness concerning your servant.[b] 27 And now you must take it upon yourself and bless the house of your servant [for it] to continue to time indefinite before you;[c] for you yourself, O Jehovah, have blessed, and it is blessed to time indefinite."[d]

18 And it came about afterward that David proceeded to strike down the Phi·lis'tines[e] and subdue them and take Gath[f] and its dependent towns out of the hand of the Phi·lis'tines. 2 Then he struck Mo'ab[g] down, and the Mo'ab·ites came to be David's servants bearing tribute.[h]

3 And David went on to strike down Had·ad·e'zer[i] the king of Zo'bah[j] at Ha'math[k] as he was going his way to set up his control at the river Eu·phra'tes.[l] 4 Further, David captured from him a thousand chariots and seven thousand horsemen and twenty thousand men on foot.[m] Then David hamstrung[n] all the chariot horses,[o] but he let a hundred chariot horses of them remain. 5 When Syria of Damascus came to help Had·ad·e'zer the king of Zo'bah,[p] David went striking down among the Syrians twenty-two thousand men. 6 After that David put [garrisons] in Syria of Damascus,[q] and the Syrians came to be David's servants bearing tribute.[r] And Jehovah kept giving salvation to David wherever he went.[s] 7 Moreover, David took the circular shields[t] of gold that happened to be on the servants of Had·ad·e'zer and brought them to Jerusalem.[u] 8 And from Tib'hath[v] and Cun, cities of Had·ad·e'zer, David took very much copper. the copper sea[a] and the pillars[b] and the copper utensils.[c]

9 When To'u the king of Ha'math[d] heard that David had struck down all the military force of Had·ad·e'zer[e] the king of Zo'bah, 10 he immediately sent Ha·do'ram[f] his son to King David to ask him about his welfare and congratulate him over the fact that he had fought against Had·ad·e'zer so that he struck him down, (for Had·ad·e'zer had become trained in warfare against To'u,) and [there were with him] all sorts of articles of gold and silver[g] and copper. 11 These also King David sanctified[h] to Jehovah together with the silver and the gold that he had carried off from all the nations,[i] from E'dom and from Mo'ab[j] and from the sons of Am'mon[k] and from the Phi·lis'tines[l] and from Am'a·lek.[m]

12 As for A·bish'ai[n] the son of Ze·ru'iah,[o] he struck down the E'dom·ites in the Valley of Salt,[p] eighteen thousand. 13 So he put garrisons in E'dom, and all the E'dom·ites came to be David's servants.[q] And Jehovah kept saving David wherever he went.[r] 14 And David continued to reign over all Israel,[s] and he was continually rendering judicial decision and righteousness for all his people.[t] 15 And Jo'ab the son of Ze·ru'iah was over the army,[u] and Je·hosh'a·phat[v] the son of A·hi'lud was recorder. 16 And Za'dok[w] the son of A·hi'tub and A·him'e·lech[x] the son of A·bi'a·thar were priests, and Shav'sha[y] was secretary. 17 And Be·nai'ah[z] the son of Je·hoi'a·da[a] was over the Cher'e·thites[b] and the Pel'e·thites;[c] and the sons of David were the first in position at the side of the king.[d]

19 And it came about afterward that Na'hash[e] the king of the sons of Am'mon came to die, and his son began to reign in place of him.[a] 2 At that David said: "I shall exercise loving-kindness[b] toward Ha'nun the son of Na'hash, because his father exercised loving-kindness toward me."[c] Accordingly David sent messengers to comfort him over his father, and the servants of David proceeded to come into the land of the sons of Am'mon[d] to Ha'nun to comfort him. 3 However, the princes of the sons of Am'mon said to Ha'nun: "Is David honoring your father in your eyes in that he has sent comforters to you? Is it not for the sake of making a thorough search and causing an overthrow and for spying[e] out the land that his servants have come in to you?"[f] 4 So Ha'nun took the servants of David[g] and shaved them[h] and cut their garments in half to their buttocks[i] and sent them away.[j] 5 Later people went and told David about the men; and he at once sent to meet them, because they had become men very much humiliated; and the king went on to say: "Dwell in Jer'i·cho[k] until YOUR beards grow abundantly. Then YOU must return."

6 In time the sons of Am'mon saw that they had become foul-smelling[l] to David, and Ha'nun[m] and the sons of Am'mon proceeded to send a thousand silver talents[n] to hire for themselves chariots[o] and horsemen from Mes·o·po·ta'mi·a and from A'ram-ma'a·cah[p] and from Zo'bah.[q] 7 Thus they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots[r] and the king of Ma'a·cah and his people.[s] Then they came in and camped before Med'e·ba;[t] and as for the sons of Am'mon, they gathered together from their cities and now came in for the war.

8 When David heard of it, he immediately sent Jo'ab[u] and all the army [and] the mighty men.[v] 9 And the sons of Am'mon began to go out and draw up in battle formation at the entrance of the city, and the kings[a] that had come were by themselves in the open field.

10 When Jo'ab saw that the battle charges had come to be against him from the front and from the rear, he at once chose some of all the choice men in Israel and drew them up in formation to meet the Syrians.[b] 11 And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of A·bish'ai[c] his brother, that they might draw up in formation to meet the sons of Am'mon.[d] 12 And he went on to say: "If the Syrians[e] become too strong for me, you must also serve as a salvation for me;[f] but if the sons of Am'mon themselves become too strong for you, I must also save you.[g] 13 Be strong,[h] that we may show ourselves courageous in behalf of our people and in behalf of the cities of our God;[i] and as for Jehovah, what is good in his own eyes he will do."[j]

14 Then Jo'ab and the people that were with him advanced before the Syrians to the battle,[k] and they took to flight[l] from before him. 15 As for the sons of Am'mon, they saw that the Syrians had fled, and they themselves also took to flight[m] from before A·bish'ai his brother and then came into the city.[n] Later Jo'ab came into Jerusalem.

16 When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated[o] before Israel, they proceeded to send messengers and bring out the Syrians that were in the region of the River,[p] with Sho'phach the chief of the army of Had·ad·e'zer before them.

17 When the report was made to David, he immediately gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan and came to them and drew up in formation against them.[q] When David drew up in battle formation to meet the Syrians, they began to fight against him. 18 But the Syrians took to flight[a] because of Israel; and David went killing of the Syrians seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand men on foot, and Sho'phach the chief of the army himself he put to death.[b] 19 When the servants of Had·ad·e'zer saw that they had been defeated before Israel,[c] they promptly made peace with David and began to serve him;[d] and Syria did not want to try saving the sons of Am'mon anymore.[e]

20 And it came about at the time of the year's return,[f] at the time that kings sally forth,[g] that Jo'ab proceeded to lead the combat force of the army[h] and lay the land of the sons of Am'mon in ruin and to come and besiege Rab'bah,[i] while David was dwelling in Jerusalem; and Jo'ab went on to strike[j] Rab'bah and throw it down. 2 But David took the crown of Mal'cam off its head,[k] and found it to be a talent of gold in weight, and in it there were precious stones; and it came to be on David's head. And the spoil of the city that he brought out was very much.[l] 3 And the people that were in it he brought out, and he kept them employed[m] at sawing stones and at sharp instruments of iron and at axes;[n] and that was the way David proceeded to do to all the cities of the sons of Am'mon. Finally David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And it came about after this that war began breaking out at Ge'zer[o] with the Phi·lis'tines.[p] It was then that Sib'be·cai[q] the Hu'shath·ite struck down Sip'pai of those born of the Reph'a·im,[r] so that they were subdued.

5 And there came to be war again with the Phi·lis'tines; and El·ha'nan[s] the son of Ja'ir got to strike down Lah'mi the brother of Go·li'ath[t] the Git'tite, the shaft of whose spear was like the beam of loom workers.[a] 6 And there came to be war again at Gath,[b] when there happened to be a man of extraordinary size[c] whose fingers and toes were in sixes, twenty-four;[d]

and he, too, had been born to the Reph′a·im.[e] 7 And he kept taunting[f] Israel. Finally Jon′a·than the son of Shim′e·a[g]
the brother of David struck him down.
8 These were the ones that had been born to the Reph′a·im[h] in Gath;[i] and they came to fall[j] by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

21 And Satan proceeded to stand up against Israel and to incite[k] David to number Israel. 2 So David said to Jo′ab[l] and the chiefs of the people:
"Go, count[m] Israel from Be′er-she′ba[n] to Dan[o] and bring it to me that I may know their number."[p] 3 But Jo′ab said:
"May Jehovah add to his people a hundred times as many as they are.[q] Do they not, O my lord the king, all of them belong to my lord as servants?
Why does my lord seek this?[r]
Why should he become a cause of guilt to Israel?"
4 The king's word,[s] however, prevailed over Jo′ab, so that Jo′ab went out[t] and walked through all Israel, after which he came to Jerusalem.[u] 5 Jo′ab now gave the number of the registration of the people to David; and all Israel amounted to a million one hundred thousand men drawing sword,[v] and Judah four hundred and seventy thousand men drawing sword. 6 And Le′vi[w] and Benjamin he did not register in among them,[x] because the king's word had been detestable to Jo′ab.
7 Now this thing was bad
in the eyes of the [true] God,[y]
and so he struck down Israel.
8 Consequently David said to the [true] God: "I have sinned[z] very much in that I have done this thing. And now, please, cause your servant's error to pass away;[a] for I have acted very foolishly."[b] 9 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Gad,[c] David's visionary,[d] saying:
10 "Go, and you must speak to David, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "There are three things that I am directing against you.[e] Choose for yourself one of them, that I may do it to you."'"[f] 11 Accordingly Gad went in to David[g] and said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said,
'Take your pick, 12 whether for three years there is to be a famine;[h] or for three months
there is to be a sweeping away from before your adversaries[i] and for the sword of your enemies to overtake [you], or for three days there is to be the sword of Jehovah,[j] even pestilence,[k] in the land, with Jehovah's angel bringing ruin[l] in all the territory of Israel.' And now see what I should reply to the One sending me." 13 So David said to Gad: "It is very distressing to me. Please, let me fall into the hand of Jehovah,[m] for very many are his mercies;[n] but into the hand of man do not let me fall."[o] 14 Then Jehovah gave a pestilence[p] in Israel, so that out of Israel seventy thousand persons fell.[q] 15 Moreover, the [true] God sent an angel to Jerusalem to bring ruin to it;[r] and as soon as he began bringing the ruin, Jehovah saw it and began to feel regret over the calamity;[s] and so he said to the angel that was bringing the ruin: "It is enough![t] Now let your hand drop." And Jehovah's angel was standing close by the threshing floor of Or′nan[u]
the Jeb′u·site.[v]
16 When David raised his eyes, he got to see Jehovah's angel[w] standing between the earth and the heavens with his drawn sword[a] in his hand extended toward Jerusalem; and David and the older men, covered with sackcloth,[b] at once fell down upon their faces.[c] 17 And David proceeded to say to the [true] God: "Was it not I that said to make a numbering of the people, and is it not I that have sinned and have unquestionably done bad?[d] As for these sheep,[e] what have they done? O Jehovah my God, let your hand, please, come to be upon me and my father's house;

but not upon your people,[f] for a scourge."
18 And Jehovah's angel, for his part, said to Gad[g] to say to David that David should go up to erect an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Or′nan the Jeb′u·site.[h] 19 Accordingly David went up at the word of Gad that he had spoken in the name of Jehovah.[i] 20 Meantime, Or′nan[j] turned back and saw the angel; and his four sons with him were hiding themselves.
Now Or′nan had been threshing wheat. 21 So David came as far as Or′nan. When Or′nan looked and saw David,[k] he immediately went out of the threshing floor and bowed down to David with his face to the earth. 22 Then David said to Or′nan: "Do give me the place of the threshing floor, that I may build in it an altar to Jehovah.
For the money[l] in full give it to me,[m] that the scourge[n] may be halted from upon the people."
23 But Or′nan said to David:
"Take it as your own,[o] and let my lord the king do what is good in his own eyes. See, I do give the cattle[p] for burnt offerings and the threshing[q] sledge for the wood[r] and the wheat as a grain offering. The whole I do give."[s]
24 However, King David said to Or′nan: "No, but without fail
I shall make the purchase for the money in full,[t] because I shall not carry what is yours to Jehovah to offer up burnt sacrifices without cost." 25 So David gave Or′nan for the place gold shekels to the weight of six hundred.[a] 26 Then David built there an altar[b] to Jehovah and offered up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices, and he proceeded to call upon Jehovah,[c] who now answered him with fire[d] from the heavens upon the altar of burnt offering.
27 Moreover, Jehovah said the word to the angel,[e] who accordingly returned his sword to its sheath. 28 At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him at the threshing floor of Or′nan the Jeb′u·site,
he continued to sacrifice there.[f]
29 But the tabernacle of Jehovah that Moses had made in the wilderness and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gib′e·on.[g] 30 And David had not been able to go before it to consult God, for he had been terrified[h] because of the sword of Jehovah's angel.

22 Then David said: "This is the house[i] of Jehovah the [true] God, and this is an altar[j] for burnt offering for Israel."
2 David now said to bring together the alien residents[k] that were in the land of Israel, and then he set them as stone hewers[l] to hew squared stones[m] for building the house of the [true] God. 3 And iron in great quantity for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps David prepared, and also copper in such quantity
as to be beyond weighing,[n] 4 and also cedar[o] timbers without number; for the Si·do′nians[p] and the Tyr′i·ans[q] brought in cedar timbers in great quantity to David. 5 Accordingly David said: "Sol′o·mon my son is young and delicate,[r] and the house to be built to Jehovah is to be surpassingly magnificent[s] for beauteous[t] distinction to all the lands. Let me, then, make preparation for him." So David made preparation in great quantities before his death.[a] 6 Moreover, he called Sol′o·mon his son that he might command him to build a house to Jehovah the God of Israel. 7 And David went on to say to Sol′o·mon his son: "As for myself, it became close to my heart[b] to build a house to the name[c] of Jehovah my God. 8 But Jehovah's word came against me, saying, 'Blood in great quantity you have spilled,[d] and great wars you have waged.[e] You will not build a house to my name,[f] for a great deal of blood you have spilled on the earth before me. 9 Look! There is a son[g] being born to you. He himself will prove to be a restful man, and I shall certainly give him rest from all his enemies all around;[h] for Sol′o·mon[i] is what his name will become, and peace[j] and quietness I shall bestow upon Israel in his days. 10 It is he that will build a house to my name,[k] and he himself will become a son[l] to me, and I a father[m] to him. And I shall certainly establish the throne of his kingship[n] firmly over Israel to time indefinite.'

11 "Now, my son, may Jehovah prove to be with you, and you must prove successful and build the house of Jehovah your God, just as he has spoken concerning you.[o] 12 Only may Jehovah give you discretion and understanding,[p] and may he give you commandment concerning Israel even to keep the law of Jehovah your God.[q] 13 In that case you will prove successful[r] if you take care to carry out the regulations[s] and the judicial decisions[t] that Jehovah commanded[u] Moses respecting Israel. Be courageous and strong.[v] Do not be afraid[w] nor be terrified.[x] 14 And here during my affliction[y] I have prepared for Jehovah's house a hundred thousand talents of gold[a] and a million talents of silver, and the copper[b] and the iron[c] there is no means of weighing because they have come to be in such quantity; and timbers and stones I have prepared, but to them you will make additions. 15 And with you there are in great number doers of work, stone hewers and workers in stone[d] and wood and every one skillful in every sort of work.[e] 16 The gold, the silver and the copper and the iron there is no means of numbering.[f] Rise and act,[g] and may Jehovah prove to be with you."[h]

17 And David went on to command all the princes of Israel to help Sol′o·mon his son: 18 "Is not Jehovah YOUR God with YOU,[i] and has he not given YOU rest all around?[j] For he has given into my hand the inhabitants of the land, and the land has been subdued before Jehovah[k] and before his people. 19 Now set YOUR heart and YOUR soul[l] to inquire after Jehovah YOUR God,[m] and rise and build the sanctuary[n] of Jehovah the [true] God,[o] to bring the ark[p] of the covenant of Jehovah and the holy utensils of the [true] God to the house built to the name[q] of Jehovah."

23 And David himself had grown old[r] and satisfied with days, and so he made Sol′o·mon[s] his son king over Israel. 2 And he proceeded to gather all the princes[t] of Israel and the priests[u] and the Levites.[v] 3 Accordingly the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years upward;[w] and their number, head by head of them, able-bodied man by able-bodied man, came to be thirty-eight thousand. 4 Of these for acting as supervisors over the work of the house of Jehovah there were twenty-four thousand; and as officers[a] and judges[b] six thousand; 5 and four thousand gatekeepers[c] and four thousand givers of praise[d] to Jehovah on the instruments[e] that [David said] "I have made for giving praise."

6 Then David distributed them in divisions[f] to the sons of Le′vi,[g] to Ger′shon, Ko′hath and Me·rar′i. 7 To the Ger′shon·ites, La′dan and Shim′e·i. 8 The sons of La′dan were Je·hi′el[h] the headman and Ze′tham and Joel,[i] three. 9 The sons of Shim′e·i were She·lo′moth and Ha′zi·el and Ha′ran, three. These were the heads of the fathers for La′dan. 10 And the sons of Shim′e·i were Ja′hath, Zi′na and Je′ush and Be·ri′ah. These four were the sons of Shim′e·i. 11 And Ja′hath came to be the head, and Zi′zah the second. As for Je′ush and Be·ri′ah, they did not have many sons; so they became a paternal[j] house for one official class.

12 The sons of Ko′hath[k] were Am′ram, Iz′har,[l] He′bron[m] and Uz′zi·el,[n] four. 13 The sons of Am′ram were Aaron[o] and Moses.[p] But Aaron was separated[q] that he might sanctify the Most Holy,[r] he and his sons to time indefinite, to make sacrificial[s] smoke before Jehovah, to minister to him[t] and to pronounce blessing[u] in his name to time indefinite. 14 As for Moses the man of the [true] God,[v] his sons themselves continued to be called among the tribe of the Levites.[w] 15 The sons of Moses were Ger′shom[x] and E·li·e′zer.[y] 16 The sons of Ger′shom were Sheb′u·el[z] the head. 17 And the sons of E·li·e′zer came to be Re·ha·bi′ah[a] the head; and E·li·e′zer did not come to have other sons, but the sons of Re·ha·bi′ah did themselves become exceedingly many. 18 The sons of Iz′har[b] were She·lo′mith[c] the headman. 19 The sons of He′bron were Je·ri′ah the head, Am·a·ri′ah the second, Ja·ha·zi′el the third and Jek·a·me′am[a] the fourth. 20 The sons of Uz′zi·el[b] were Mi′cah the head and Is·shi′ah the second.

21 The sons of Me·rar′i[c] were Mah′li and Mu′shi.[d] The sons of Mah′li were El·e·a′zar[e] and Kish. 22 But El·e·a′zar died; and he had come to have, not sons, but daughters. So the sons of Kish their brothers took them [as wives].[f] 23 The sons of Mu′shi were Mah′li and E′der and Jer′e·moth,[g] three.

24 These were the sons of Le′vi by the house of their fathers,[h] the heads of the fathers, by their commissioned ones, in the number of the names, head by head of them, the doers of the work for the service[i] of the house of Jehovah, from the age of twenty years upward.[j] 25 For David had said: "Jehovah the God of Israel has given rest to his people,[k] and he will reside in Jerusalem to time indefinite.[l] 26 And also the Levites will not have to carry the tabernacle or any of its utensils for its service."[m] 27 For by the last words[n] of David these were the number of the sons of Le′vi from the age of twenty years upward. 28 For their function was at the disposition of the sons of Aaron[o] for the service of the house of Jehovah over the courtyards[p] and over the dining rooms[q] and over the purification of every holy thing[r] and the work of the service of the house of the [true] God, 29 even for the layer bread[s] and for the fine flour[t] for the grain offering and for the wafers[u] of unfermented bread[v] and for the griddle[w] [cakes] and for the mixed[x] dough and for all measures of quantity and size;[y] 30 and for standing[z] morning by morning[a] to thank[b] and praise[c] Jehovah, and likewise at evening; 31 and for every offering up of the burnt sacrifices to Jehovah at the sabbaths,[a] at the new moons[b] and at the festival seasons,[c] by number according to the rule concerning them, constantly before Jehovah.

32 And they took care of the guarding[d] of the tent of meeting and the guarding of the holy place[e] and the guarding of the sons of Aaron their brothers for the service of the house of Jehovah.[f]

24 Now the sons of Aaron had their divisions. The sons of Aaron were Na'dab[g] and A·bi'hu,[h] El·e·a'zar[i] and Ith'a·mar.[j]
2 However, Na'dab and A·bi'hu[k] died before their father,[l] and they did not happen to have any sons, but El·e·a'zar[m] and Ith'a·mar continued to act as priests. 3 And David, and Za'dok[n] from the sons of El·e·a'zar, and A·him'e·lech[o] from the sons of Ith'a·mar proceeded to make divisions of them for their office in their service.[p] 4 But the sons of El·e·a'zar were found to be more numerous in headmen than the sons of Ith'a·mar.
So they distributed them to the sons of El·e·a'zar, as heads for [their] paternal houses, sixteen, and to the sons of Ith'a·mar, [as heads] for their paternal houses, eight.

5 Further, they distributed them by lots,[q] these along with those, for there had to be chiefs of the holy place[r] and chiefs of the [true] God from the sons of El·e·a'zar and from the sons of Ith'a·mar. 6 Then She·mai'ah the son of Ne·than'el the secretary[s] of the Levites wrote them down before the king and the princes and Za'dok[t] the priest and A·him'e·lech[u] the son of A·bi'a·thar[v] and the heads of the fathers of the priests and of the Levites,[w] one paternal house being picked out for El·e·a'zar[x] and one being picked out for Ith'a·mar.[y]

7 And the lot proceeded to come out: the first for Je·hoi'a·rib;[z]
for Je·da'iah the second, 8 for Ha'rim the third, for Se·o'rim
the fourth, 9 for Mal·chi'jah the fifth, for Mij'a·min the sixth, 10 for Hak'koz the seventh,
for A·bi'jah[a] the eighth, 11 for Jesh'u·a the ninth, for Shec·a·ni'ah the tenth, 12 for E·li'a·shib the eleventh, for Ja'kim
the twelfth, 13 for Hup'pah the thirteenth, for Je·sheb'e·ab the fourteenth, 14 for Bil'gah the fifteenth, for Im'mer
the sixteenth, 15 for He'zir the seventeenth, for Hap'piz·zez the eighteenth, 16 for Peth·a·hi'ah the nineteenth,
for Je·hez'kel the twentieth, 17 for Ja'chin the twenty-first,
for Ga'mul the twenty-second, 18 for De·la'iah the twenty-third,
for Ma·a·zi'ah the twenty-fourth.

19 These were their offices[b] for their service,[c] to come into the house of Jehovah according to their due right[d] by the hand of Aaron their forefather, just as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded him.

20 And of the sons of Le'vi that were left over, of the sons of Am'ram[e] there was Shu'ba·el;[f]
of the sons of Shu'ba·el, Jeh·de'iah; 21 of Re·ha·bi'ah:[g] of the sons of Re·ha·bi'ah, Is·shi'ah
the head; 22 of the Iz'har·ites,[h]
She·lo'moth;[i] of the sons of
She·lo'moth, Ja'hath; 23 and the sons [of He'bron],[j] Je·ri'ah[k]
the head, Am·a·ri'ah the second, Ja·ha·zi'el the third, Jek·a·me'am
the fourth. 24 The sons of Uz'zi·el, Mi'cah; of the sons of Mi'cah,[l] Sha'mir. 25 The brother of Mi'cah was Is·shi'ah;
of the sons of Is·shi'ah, Zech·a·ri'ah.

26 The sons of Me·rar'i[m] were Mah'li[n] and Mu'shi;[o] the sons of Ja·a·zi'ah, Be'no. 27 The sons of Me·rar'i: Of Ja·a·zi'ah, Be'no and Sho'ham and Zac'cur and Ib'ri. 28 Of Mah'li, El·e·a'zar, who did not come to have any sons.[p] 29 Of Kish: the sons of Kish were Je·rah'me·el.
30 And the sons of Mu'shi were Mah'li[a] and E'der and Jer'i·moth.[b]

These were the sons of the Levites by their paternal[c] houses.
31 And they themselves also proceeded to cast lots[d] exactly as their brothers the sons of Aaron did before David the king and Za'dok and A·him'e·lech and the heads of the paternal houses of the priests and of the Levites. As respects paternal houses,[e] the head one was exactly as his younger brother.

25 Further, David and the chiefs[f] of the service groups[g] separated for the service
some of the sons of A'saph, He'man[h] and Je·du'thun[i] the ones prophesying with the harps,[j] with the stringed instruments[k]
and with the cymbals.[l]
And from their number the official men for their service came to be. 2 Of the sons of A'saph, Zac'cur and Joseph[m] and Neth·a·ni'ah and Ash·a·re'lah,[n] the sons of A'saph under the control of A'saph[o] the one prophesying under the control of the king. 3 Of Je·du'thun:[p] the sons of Je·du'thun, Ged·a·li'ah[q] and Ze'ri[r] and Je·sha'iah,[s] [and Shim'e·i,] Hash·a·bi'ah and Mat·ti·thi'ah,[t] six, under the control of their father Je·du'thun, who was prophesying with the harp for thanking and praising Jehovah.[u] 4 Of He'man:[v]
the sons of He'man, Buk·ki'ah,[w] Mat·ta·ni'ah,[x] Uz'zi·el,[y] Sheb'u·el and Jer'i·moth, Han·a·ni'ah,[z] Ha·na'ni, E·li'a·thah,[a] Gid·dal'ti[b] and Ro·mam'ti-e'zer,[c] Josh·be·kash'ah,[d]
Mal·lo'thi,[e] Ho'thir,[f]
Ma·ha'zi·oth. 5 All these were sons of He'man, a visionary[g] of the king in the things of the [true] God to raise up his horn;
thus the [true] God proceeded to give He'man fourteen sons and three daughters.[h] 6 All these were under the control of their father in song at the house of Jehovah, with cymbals,[i] stringed instruments[j] and harps[a] for the service of the house of the [true] God.

Under the control of the king were A'saph and Je·du'thun and He'man.[b]

7 And the number of them together with their brothers trained in song to Jehovah,[c] all experts,[d] came to be two hundred and eighty-eight.
8 So they cast lots[e] as to the things to be taken care of, the little being just the same as the great,[f] the expert[g] along with the learner.

9 And the lot proceeded to come out: the first belonging to A'saph for Joseph,[h] for Ged·a·li'ah[i] the second (he and his brothers and his sons were twelve); 10 the third for Zac'cur,[j] his sons and his brothers, twelve; 11 the fourth for Iz'ri,[k] his sons and his brothers, twelve; 12 the fifth for Neth·a·ni'ah,[l] his sons and his brothers, twelve; 13 the sixth for Buk·ki'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 14 the seventh for Jesh·a·re'lah,[m] his sons and his brothers, twelve; 15 the eighth for Je·sha'iah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;
16 the ninth for Mat·ta·ni'ah,
his sons and his brothers,
twelve; 17 the tenth for Shim'e·i, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 18 the eleventh for Az'ar·el,[n] his sons and his brothers, twelve; 19 the twelfth for Hash·a·bi'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;
20 for the thirteenth, Shu'ba·el,[o]
his sons and his brothers,
twelve; 21 for the fourteenth, Mat·ti·thi'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 22 for the fifteenth, for Jer'e·moth, his sons and his brothers, twelve;
23 for the sixteenth, for Han·a·ni'ah,
his sons and his brothers,
twelve; 24 for the seventeenth,
for Josh·be·kash'ah,
his sons and his brothers,
twelve; 25 for the eighteenth, nineteenth, for Mal·lo′thi, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 27 for the twentieth, for E·li′a·thah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 28 for the twenty-first, for Ho′thir, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 29 for the twenty-second, for Gid·dal′ti, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 30 for the twenty-third, for Ma·ha′zi·oth,[a] his sons and his brothers, twelve; 31 for the twenty-fourth, for Ro·mam′ti-e′zer,[b] his sons and his brothers, twelve.

26 For the divisions of gatekeepers:[c] Of the Ko′rah·ites,[d] Me·shel·e·mi′ah[e] the son of Ko′re of the sons of A′saph. 2 And Me·shel·e·mi′ah had sons: Zech·a·ri′ah the firstborn, Je·di′a·el the second, Zeb·a·di′ah the third, Jath′ni·el the fourth, 3 E′lam the fifth, Je·ho·ha′nan the sixth, El′ie·ho·e′nai the seventh. 4 And O′bed-e′dom[f] had sons: She·mai′ah the firstborn, Je·hoz′a·bad the second, Jo′ah the third and Sa′car the fourth and Ne·than′el the fifth, 5 Am′mi·el the sixth, Is′sa·char the seventh, Pe·ul′le·thai the eighth; for God had blessed him.[g]

6 And to She·mai′ah his son there were sons born that were rulers of the house of their father, for they were capable, mighty men. 7 The sons of She·mai′ah, Oth′ni and Reph′a·el and O′bed, El·za′bad, whose brothers were capable men, E·li′hu and Sem·a·chi′ah. 8 All these were of the sons of O′bed-e′dom, they and their sons and their brothers, capable men with the power for the service, sixty-two belonging to O′bed-e′dom. 9 And Me·shel·e·mi′ah[h] had sons and brothers, capable men, eighteen. 10 And Ho′sah of the sons of Me·rar′i had sons. Shim′ri was the head, for he did not happen to be the firstborn[i] but his father appointed him as head;[j] 11 Hil·ki′ah the second, Teb·a·li′ah the third, Zech·a·ri′ah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Ho′sah were thirteen.

12 Of these divisions of the gatekeepers, the headmen had duties exactly as their brothers did,[a] to minister at the house of Jehovah. 13 So they cast lots[b] for the small the same as for the great by their paternal houses,[c] for the different gates. 14 Then the lot to the east fell to Shel·e·mi′ah.[d] For Zech·a·ri′ah[e] his son, a counselor[f] with discretion, they cast the lots, and his lot got to come out to the north.[g] 15 O′bed-e′dom had his to the south, and his sons[h] had the storehouses.[i] 16 Shup′pim and Ho′sah[j] had theirs to the west close by the Gate Shal′lech·eth by the highway that goes up, guard group[k] corresponding with guard group;[l] 17 to the east there were six Levites; to the north for a day, four; to the south for a day,[m] four; and for the stores,[n] two by two; 18 for the portico to the west, four at the highway,[o] two at the portico. 19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of the Ko′rah·ites[p] and of the sons of Me·rar′i.[q]

20 As regards the Levites, A·hi′jah was over the treasures[r] of the house of the [true] God and over the treasures of the things made holy.[s] 21 The sons of La′dan,[t] the sons of the Ger′shon·ite belonging to La′dan; the heads of the paternal houses belonging to La′dan the Ger′shon·ite, Je·hi′e·li.[u] 22 The sons of Je·hi′e·li, Ze′tham and Joel[v] his brother, were over the treasures[w] of the house of Jehovah. 23 For the Am′ram·ites, for the Iz′har·ites, for the He′bron·ites, for the Uz·zi′el·ites,[x] 24 even Sheb′u·el[y] the son of Ger′shom the son of Moses was a leader over the stores. 25 As regards his brothers, of E·li·e′zer[z] there was Re·ha·bi′ah[a] his son and Je·sha′iah his son and Jo′ram his son and Zich′ri his son and She·lo′moth his son. 26 This She·lo′moth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the things made holy,[a] that David[b] the king and the heads of the paternal houses,[c] and the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds, and the chiefs of the army had made holy. 27 From the wars[d] and from the spoil[e] they had made [things] holy to maintain the house of Jehovah. 28 And also all that Samuel the seer[f] and Saul the son of Kish and Ab′ner[g] the son of Ner and Jo′ab[h] the son of Ze·ru′iah[i] had made holy. What anyone made holy was under the control of She·lo′mith and his brothers.

29 Of the Iz′har·ites,[j] Chen·a·ni′ah and his sons were for the outside[k] business as officers and as judges[l] over Israel.

30 Of the He′bron·ites,[m] Hash·a·bi′ah and his brothers, capable men,[n] a thousand seven hundred, were over the administration of Israel in the region of the Jordan to the west for all the work of Jehovah and for the king's service. 31 Of the He′bron·ites, Je·ri′jah[o] was the head of the He′bron·ites by its generations by forefathers. In the fortieth[p] year of David's kingship they were sought out, and valiant, mighty men came to be found among them in Ja′zer[q] in Gil′e·ad.[r] 32 And his brothers, capable men,[s] were two thousand seven hundred, heads of the paternal houses.[t] So David the king assigned them over the Reu′ben·ites and the Gad′ites and the half tribe of the Ma·nas′sites,[u] for every matter of the [true] God and matter[v] of the king.

27 As for the sons of Israel by their number, the heads of the paternal[w] houses and the chiefs[x] of the thousands and of the hundreds[y] and their officers that were ministering[z] to the king in every matter of the divisions of those that came in and that went out month by month for all the months of the year, each division was twenty-four thousand.

2 Over the first division of the first month there was Ja·sho′be·am[a] the son of Zab′di·el, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 3 Some of the sons of Pe′rez[b] the head of all the chiefs of the service groups were for the first month. 4 And over the division of the second month there was Do′dai[c] the A·ho′hite[d] with his division, and Mik′loth was the leader, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 5 The chief of the third service group for the third month was Be·nai′ah[e] the son of Je·hoi′a·da[f] the chief priest, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 6 This Be·nai′ah[g] was a mighty man of the thirty[h] and over the thirty; and [over] his division there was Am·miz′a·bad his son. 7 The fourth for the fourth month was As′a·hel,[i] Jo′ab's brother,[j] and Zeb·a·di′ah his son after him, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 8 The fifth chief for the fifth month was Sham′huth[k] the Iz′rah·ite, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 9 The sixth for the sixth month was I′ra[l] the son of Ik′kesh[m] the Te·ko′ite,[n] and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 10 The seventh for the seventh month was He′lez[o] the Pel′o·nite[p] of the sons of E′phra·im, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 11 The eighth for the eighth month was Sib′be·cai[q] the Hu′shath·ite of the Ze′rah·ites,[r] and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 12 The ninth for the ninth month was Abi-e′zer[s] the An′a·thoth·ite[t] of the Ben′ja·min·ites, and in his division

there were twenty-four thousand. 13 The tenth for the tenth month was Ma'ha·rai[a] the Ne·toph'a·thite of the Ze'rah·ites,[b] and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 14 The eleventh for the eleventh month was Be·nai'ah[c] the Pir'a·thon·ite of the sons of E'phra·im,[d] and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 15 The twelfth for the twelfth month was Hel'dai[e] the Ne·toph'a·thite, of Oth'ni·el, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand.

16 And over the tribes of Israel,[f] of the Reu'ben·ites, E·li·e'zer the son of Zich'ri was leader; of the Sim'e·on·ites, Sheph·a·ti'ah the son of Ma'a·cah; 17 of Le'vi, Hash·a·bi'ah the son of Kem·u'el; of Aaron, Za'dok;[g] 18 of Judah, E·li'hu,[h] one of David's brothers;[i] of Is'sa·char, Om'ri the son of Mi'cha·el; 19 of Zeb'u·lun, Ish·ma'iah the son of O·ba·di'ah; of Naph'ta·li, Jer'i·moth the son of Az'ri·el; 20 of the sons of E'phra·im, Ho·she'a the son of Az·a·zi'ah; of the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh, Joel the son of Pe·dai'ah; 21 of the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh in Gil'e·ad, Id'do the son of Zech·a·ri'ah; of Benjamin, Ja·a·si'el the son of Ab'ner;[j] 22 of Dan, Az'ar·el the son of Je·ro'ham. These were the princes[k] of the tribes of Israel.

23 And David did not take the number of those from twenty years of age and under, because Jehovah had promised to make Israel as many as the stars of the heavens.[l] 24 Jo'ab[m] the son of Ze·ru'iah had himself started to take the count, but he did not finish;[n] and for this there came to be indignation[o] against Israel, and the number did not come up into the account of the affairs of the days of King David.

25 And over the treasures of the king[p] there was Az'ma·veth the son of Ad'i·el. And over the treasures in the field,[a] in the cities[b] and in the villages and in the towers there was Jon'a·than the son of Uz·zi'ah. 26 And over the doers of work in the field,[c] for the cultivation of the soil, there was Ez'ri the son of Che'lub. 27 And over the vineyards[d] there was Shim'e·i the Ra'math·ite; and over that which was in the vineyards for the wine supplies there was Zab'di the Shiph'mite. 28 And over the olive groves and the sycamore[e] trees that were in the She·phe'lah[f] there was Ba'al-ha'nan the Ge'de·rite; and over the oil[g] supplies there was Jo'ash. 29 And over the herds that were grazing in Shar'on[h] there was Shit'rai the Shar'on·ite; and over the herds in the low plains there was Sha'phat the son of Ad'lai. 30 And over the camels[i] there was O'bil the Ish'ma·el·ite;[j] and over the she-asses there was Jeh·de'iah the Me·ron'o·thite. 31 And over the flocks there was Ja'ziz the Hag'rite. All these were the chiefs of the goods that belonged to King David.

32 And Jon'a·than,[k] David's nephew, was a counselor, a man of understanding,[l] he being also a secretary; and Je·hi'el the son of Hach'mo·ni[m] was with the king's sons.[n] 33 And A·hith'o·phel[o] was a counselor[p] of the king; and Hu'shai[q] the Ar'chite[r] was the king's companion.[s] 34 And after A·hith'o·phel there were Je·hoi'a·da the son of Be·nai'ah[t] and A·bi'a·thar;[u] and Jo'ab[v] was chief of the army of the king.

28 And David proceeded to congregate all the princes[w] of Israel, the princes[x] of the tribes and the princes[y] of the divisions of those ministering to the king and the chiefs of thousands[z] and the chiefs of hundreds[a] and the chiefs of all the goods[b] and livestock[c] of the king and of his sons,[d] together with the court officials[a] and the mighty men,[b] even every valiant, mighty man, to Jerusalem. 2 Then David the king rose to his feet and said:

"Hear me, my brothers and my people. As for me, it was close to my heart[c] to build a resting house for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and as the footstool[d] of our God, and I had made preparation to build.[e] 3 And the [true] God himself said to me, 'You will not build a house to my name;[f] for a man of wars you are, and blood you have spilled.'[g] 4 Accordingly Jehovah the God of Israel chose me out of all the house of my father[h] to become king[i] over Israel to time indefinite; for it was Judah that he chose as leader,[j] and in the house of Judah my father's house,[k] and among my father's sons,[l] I was the one whom he approved,[m] to make me king over all Israel; 5 and out of all my sons (for many are the sons whom Jehovah has given me)[n] he then chose Sol'o·mon[o] my son to sit upon the throne[p] of the kingship of Jehovah over Israel.

6 "Further, he said to me, 'Sol'o·mon your son is the one that will build my house[q] and my courtyards; for I have chosen him as my son,[r] and I myself shall become his father.[s] 7 And I shall certainly establish his kingship[t] firmly to time indefinite if he will be strongly resolved to do my commandments[u] and my judicial decisions,[v] as at this day.' 8 And now, before the eyes of all Israel, Jehovah's congregation,[w] and in the ears of our God,[x] take care and search for all the commandments of Jehovah YOUR God, in order that YOU may possess the good land[y] and may certainly pass it on as an inheritance to YOUR sons after YOU to time indefinite.

9 "And you, Sol'o·mon my son, know[z] the God of your father and serve[a] him with a complete heart[b] and with a delightful soul;[c] for all hearts Jehovah is searching,[d] and every inclination of the thoughts he is discerning.[e] If you search for him, he will let himself be found by you;[f] but if you leave him,[g] he will cast you off forever.[h] 10 See, now, for Jehovah himself has chosen you to build a house as a sanctuary. Be courageous and act."[i]

11 And David proceeded to give Sol'o·mon his son the architectural plan[j] of the porch[k] and of its houses and its storerooms[l] and its roof chambers[m] and its dark inner rooms and the house of the propitiatory cover;[n] 12 even the architectural plan of everything that had come to be with him by inspiration[o] for the courtyards[p] of Jehovah's house and for all the dining rooms[q] all around, for the treasures of the house of the [true] God and for the treasures of the things made holy;[r] 13 and for the divisions[s] of the priests and of the Levites and for all the work of the service of Jehovah's house and for all the utensils of the service of Jehovah's house; 14 for the gold by weight, the gold for all the utensils for the different services, for all the utensils of silver by weight, for all the utensils[t] for the different services; 15 and the weight for the lampstands[u] of gold and their lamps of gold, by weight of the different lampstands and their lamps, and for the lampstands of silver by weight for the lampstand and its lamps according to the service of the different lampstands; 16 and the gold by weight for the tables of the layer bread,[v] for the different tables, and silver for the tables of silver; 17 and the forks and the bowls[w] and the pitchers of pure gold, and for the small gold bowls[x] by weight for the different small bowls, and for the small silver bowls by weight for the different small bowls; 18 and for the incense altar[a] refined gold by weight and for the representation of the chariot,[b] namely, the cherubs[c] of gold for spreading [their wings] out and screening over the ark of the covenant of Jehovah. 19 "He gave insight for the entire thing in writing[d] from the hand of Jehovah upon me, even for all the works of the architectural plan."[e]

20 And David went on to say to Sol'o·mon his son: "Be courageous[f] and strong and act. Do not be afraid[g] nor be terrified,[h] for Jehovah God, my God, is with you.[i] He will not desert you[j] or leave you until all the work of the service of Jehovah's house is finished. 21 And here are the divisions of the priests[k] and of the Levites[l] for all the service of the house of the [true] God; and with you in all the work there is every willing[m] one with skill for all the service,[n] and also the princes[o] and all the people, for all your words."

29 David the king now said to all the congregation:[p] "Sol'o·mon my son, the one [whom] God has chosen,[q] is young[r] and delicate, but the work is great; for the castle is not for man,[s] but for Jehovah God. 2 And according to all my power[t] I have prepared[u] for the house of my God the gold[v] for the goldwork, and the silver for the silverwork, and the copper for the copperwork, the iron[w] for the ironwork, and the timbers[x] for the timberwork; onyx[y] stones, and stones to be set with hard mortar, and mosaic pebbles, and every precious stone, and alabaster stones in great quantity. 3 And since I am taking pleasure[z] in the house of my God, there is yet a special property of mine,[a] gold and silver; I do give it to the house of my God over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house:[a] 4 three thousand talents of gold of the gold of O'phir,[b] and seven thousand talents of refined silver, for coating the walls of the houses; 5 of the gold for the goldwork, and of the silver for the silverwork and for all the work by the hand of the craftsmen. And who is there volunteering to fill his hand today [with a gift] for Jehovah?"[c]

6 And the princes[d] of the paternal[e] houses and the princes[f] of the tribes of Israel and the chiefs of thousands[g] and of hundreds[h] and the chiefs of the business[i] of the king proceeded to volunteer. 7 Accordingly they gave to the service of the house of the [true] God gold worth five thousand talents and ten thousand darics and silver worth ten thousand talents and copper worth eighteen thousand talents and iron worth a hundred thousand talents.[j] 8 And what stones were found with any persons they gave to the treasure of the house of Jehovah under the control of Je·hi'el[k] the Ger'shon·ite.[l] 9 And the people gave way to rejoicing over their making voluntary offerings, for it was with a complete heart that they made voluntary offerings to Jehovah;[m] and even David the king himself rejoiced with great joy.[n]

10 Consequently David blessed[o] Jehovah before the eyes of all the congregation[p] and David said: "Blessed may you be,[q] O Jehovah the God of Israel[r] our father, from time indefinite even to time indefinite. 11 Yours, O Jehovah, are the greatness[s] and the mightiness[t] and the beauty[u] and the excellency[v] and the dignity;[w] for everything in the heavens and in the earth is [yours].[x] Yours is the kingdom,[y] O Jehovah, the One also lifting yourself up as head over all.[a] 12 The riches[b] and the glory[c] are on account of you, and you are dominating[d] everything; and in your hand there are power[e] and mightiness,[f] and in your hand is [ability] to make great[g] and to give strength to all.[h] 13 And now, O our God, we are thanking you[i] and praising[j] your beauteous[k] name.

14 "And yet, who am I[l] and who are my people, that we should retain power to make voluntary offerings like this?[m] For everything is from you,[n] and out of your own hand we have given to you. 15 For we are alien residents before you and settlers[o] the same as all our forefathers. Like a shadow our days are upon the earth[p] and there is no hope. 16 O Jehovah our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build for you a house for your holy name, from your hand it is, and to you it all belongs.[q] 17 And I well know, O my God, that you are an examiner of the heart,[r] and that it is in rectitude that you take pleasure.[s] I, for my part, in the uprightness of my heart have voluntarily offered all these things, and now your people who are on hand here I have enjoyed seeing make offerings voluntarily to you. 18 O Jehovah the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel our forefathers,[t] do keep this to time indefinite as the inclination of the thoughts of the heart of your people,[u] and direct their heart to you.[v] 19 And to Sol'o·mon my son give a complete heart[w] to keep your commandments,[x] your testimonies[y] and your regulations,[z] and to do everything, and to build the castle[a] for which I have made preparation."[b]

20 And David went on to say to all the congregation:[c] "Bless,[d] now, Jehovah YOUR God." And all the congregation proceeded to bless Jehovah the God of their forefathers and bow low[a] and prostrate[b] themselves to Jehovah and to the king. 21 And they continued to sacrifice[c] sacrifices to Jehovah and offer up burnt offerings[d] to Jehovah on the day following that day, a thousand young bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand male lambs and their drink offerings,[e] even sacrifices in great number for all Israel.[f] 22 And they continued eating and drinking before Jehovah on that day with great rejoicing;[g] and they proceeded a second time to make Sol'o·mon the son of David king[h] and to anoint him to Jehovah as leader[i] and also Za'dok[j] as priest. 23 And Sol'o·mon began to sit upon Jehovah's throne[k] as king in place of David his father and to make a success of it,[l] and all the Israelites were obedient to him. 24 As for all the princes[m] and the mighty men[n] and also all the sons of King David,[o] they submitted themselves to Sol'o·mon the king. 25 And Jehovah continued to make Sol'o·mon surpassingly great[p] before the eyes of all Israel and to put upon him such royal dignity as had not come to be upon any king before him over Israel.[q]

26 As for David the son of Jes'se, he reigned over all Israel;[r] 27 and the days that he reigned over Israel were forty years.[s] In He'bron he reigned for seven years,[t] and in Jerusalem he reigned for thirty-three [years].[u] 28 And gradually he died in a good old age,[v] satisfied with days, riches[w] and glory;[x] and Sol'o·mon his son began to reign in place of him.[y] 29 As for the affairs of David the king, the first ones and the last, there they are written among the words of Samuel the seer[z]

THE SECOND OF

CHRONICLES

2 And Sol′o·mon proceeded to say the word to all Israel, to the chiefs of the thousands[d] and of the hundreds[e] and to the judges[f] and to all the chieftains of all Israel,[g] the heads of the paternal houses.[h] 3 Then Sol′o·mon and all the congregation with him went to the high place that was at Gib′e·on;[i] for there was where the tent of meeting[j] of the [true] God, which Moses the servant[k] of Jehovah had made in the wilderness, happened to be. 4 However, the ark[l] of the [true] God David had brought up from Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim[m] to the place that David had prepared for it,[n] for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.[o] 5 And the copper altar[p] that Bez′al·el[q] the son of U′ri the son of Hur[r] had made had been put before the tabernacle of Jehovah; and Sol′o·mon and the congregation applied as usual to it. 6 Sol′o·mon now made offerings there before Jehovah upon the copper altar that belonged to the tent of meeting, and he proceeded to offer upon it a thousand burnt offerings.[s]

7 During that night God appeared to Sol′o·mon and then said to him: "Ask! What shall I give you?"[t] 8 At that Sol′o·mon said to God: "You are the One that exercised great loving-kindness toward David my father[a] and that have made me king in place of him.[b] 9 Now, O Jehovah God, let your promise with David my father prove faithful,[c] for you yourself have made me king[d] over a people as numerous as the dust particles of the earth.[e] 10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge[f] that I may go out before this people and that I may come in,[g] for who could judge this great people of yours?"[h]

11 Then God said to Sol′o·mon: "For the reason that this has proved to be close to your heart[i] and you have not asked for wealth, riches and honor or for the soul of those hating you, neither is it even many days that you have asked for,[j] but you ask for wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may judge my people over whom I have made you king,[k] 12 the wisdom and the knowledge are being given you;[l] also wealth and riches and honor I shall give you such as no kings that were prior to you happened to have,[m] and such as no one after you will come to have."[n]

13 So Sol′o·mon came [from] the high place that was at Gib′e·on,[o] from before the tent of meeting,[p] to Jerusalem and continued to reign over Israel.[q] 14 And Sol′o·mon kept gathering chariots and steeds so that he came to have a thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand steeds,[a] and he kept them stationed in chariot cities[b] and close by the king at Jerusalem. 15 And the king came to make the silver and the gold in Jerusalem like the stones;[c] and cedarwood he made like the sycamore trees[d] that are in the She·phe′lah[e] for great quantity. 16 And there was the export of the horses that Sol′o·mon had from Egypt,[f] and the company of the king's merchants would themselves take the horse drove for a price.[g] 17 And they customarily brought up and exported from Egypt a chariot for six hundred silver pieces and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and that was the way it was for all the kings of the Hit′tites and the kings of Syria.[h] It was by means of them that they did the exporting.

2 Sol′o·mon now gave the word to build a house[i] to Jehovah's name[j] and a house for his kingship.[k] 2 Accordingly Sol′o·mon counted off seventy thousand men as burden bearers and eighty thousand men as cutters in the mountain,[l] and as overseers over them three thousand six hundred.[m] 3 Further, Sol′o·mon sent to Hi′ram[n] the king of Tyre, saying: "Just as you dealt with David[o] my father and you kept sending him cedarwood to build himself a house in which to dwell,— 4 here I am building[p] a house to the name[q] of Jehovah my God to sanctify[r] it to him, to burn perfumed incense[s] before him, with the constant layer bread[t] and burnt offerings in the morning and in the evening,[u] on the sabbaths[v] and on the new moons[w] and at the festival seasons[x] of Jehovah our God. To time indefinite[y] this will be upon Israel. 5 And the house that I am building will be great,[z] for our God is greater than all the [other] gods.[a] 6 And who could retain power to build him a house?[a] For the heavens and the heaven of the heavens cannot contain him,[b] and who am I[c] that I should build him a house except for making sacrificial smoke before him?[d] 7 And now send me a skillful man to work in gold and in silver and in copper[e] and in iron and in wool dyed reddish purple and crimson and blue thread, and knowing how to cut engravings, along with the skillful ones that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father has prepared.[f] 8 And send me timbers of cedar,[g] juniper[h] and algum[i] from Leb′a·non,[j] for I myself well know that your servants are experienced at cutting down the trees of Leb′a·non,[k] (and here my servants are together with your servants,) 9 even for preparing timbers for me in great number, for the house that I am building will be great, yes, in a wonderful way. 10 And, look! to the gatherers of wood, the cutters of the trees, I do give wheat as food for your servants, twenty thousand cors,[l] and barley twenty thousand cors, and wine[m] twenty thousand baths, and oil twenty thousand baths."

11 At that Hi′ram the king of Tyre[n] said [the word] in writing and sent [it] to Sol′o·mon: "Because Jehovah loved[o] his people he has constituted you king over them."[p] 12 And Hi′ram went on to say: "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel,[q] who made the heavens and the earth,[r] because he has given to David the king a wise son, experienced in discretion and understanding,[s] who will build a house to Jehovah and a house for his kingship.[t] 13 And now I do send a skillful man, experienced in understanding, belonging to Hi′ram-a'bi,[a] 14 the son of a woman of the sons of Dan but whose father was a man of Tyre, experienced, to work in gold and in silver, in copper,[b] in iron, in stones[c] and in timbers, in wool dyed reddish purple,[d] in blue thread[e] and in fine[f] fabric and in crimson[g] and at cutting every sort of engraving[h] and at designing every sort of device[i] that may be given to him along with your own skillful men and the skillful men of my lord David your father. 15 And now the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine that my lord has promised, let him send to his servants.[j] 16 As for ourselves, we shall cut down trees[k] from Leb'a·non according to all your need,[l] and we shall bring them to you as rafts by sea[m] to Jop'pa,[n] and you, for your part, will take them up to Jerusalem."

17 Then Sol'o·mon took a count of all the men that were alien residents, who were in the land of Israel,[o] after the census that David his father had taken of them;[p] and there came to be found a hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred. 18 So he made seventy thousand of them burden bearers[q] and eighty thousand cutters[r] in the mountain and three thousand six hundred overseers for keeping the people in service.[s]

3 Finally Sol'o·mon started to build the house of Jehovah[t] in Jerusalem on Mount Mo·ri'ah,[u] where [Jehovah] had appeared to David his father,[v] in the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Or'nan[w] the Jeb'u·site. 2 Accordingly he started to build in the second month on the second [day], in the fourth year of his reign.[x] 3 And these things Sol'o·mon laid as a foundation for building the house of the [true] God, the length in cubits by the former measurement being sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.[y] 4 And the porch[a] that was in front of the length was twenty cubits in front of the width of the house, and its height was a hundred and twenty; and he proceeded to overlay it inside with pure gold. 5 And the great house[b] he covered with juniper wood, after which he covered it with good gold,[c] and then he brought up upon it palm-tree[d] figures and chains.[e] 6 Further, he overlaid the house with precious stone for beauty;[f] and the gold[g] was gold from the gold country. 7 And he went on to cover the house, the rafters, the thresholds and its walls and its doors with gold;[h] and he engraved cherubs upon the walls.[i]

8 And he proceeded to make the house of the Most Holy,[j] its length in relation to the width of the house being twenty cubits, and its own width being twenty cubits;[k] and then he covered it with good gold to the amount of six hundred talents. 9 And the weight for the nails[l] was fifty gold shekels; and the roof chambers he covered with gold.

10 Then he made in the house of the Most Holy two cherubs[m] in the workmanship of images, and overlaid them with gold.[n] 11 As for the wings of the cherubs,[o] their length was twenty cubits, the one wing of five cubits reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing of five cubits reaching to the wing of the other cherub.[p] 12 And the wing of the one cherub of five cubits was reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing of five cubits was in contact with the wing of the other cherub.[q] 13 The wings of these cherubs were spread out twenty cubits; and they were standing upon their feet with their faces inward.

14 Further, he made the curtain[r] of blue thread[s] and wool dyed reddish purple and crimson and fine fabric, and worked in cherubs upon it.[a]

15 Then he made before the house two pillars,[b] thirty-five cubits in length, and the capital[c] that was upon the top of each one was five cubits. 16 Further, he made chains[d] in necklace style and put them upon the tops of the pillars, and made a hundred pomegranates[e] and put them on the chains. 17 And he proceeded to set up the pillars in front of the temple, one to the right and one to the left, after which he called the name of the right-hand one Ja'chin and the name of the left-hand one Bo'az.[f]

4 Then he made the copper altar,[g] twenty cubits being its length, and twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.[h]

2 And he proceeded to make the molten sea[i] ten cubits from its one brim to its other brim, circular all around, and its height was five cubits, and it took a line of thirty cubits to circle all around it.[j] 3 And there was the likeness of gourd-shaped[k] ornaments under it clear around, surrounding it, ten in a cubit, enclosing the sea all around.[l] The gourd-shaped ornaments were in two rows, being cast in its casting. 4 It was standing upon twelve bulls,[m] three facing the north and three facing the west and three facing the south and three facing the east; and the sea was above upon them, and all their hind parts were inward.[n] 5 And its thickness was a handbreadth; and its brim was like the workmanship of the brim of a cup, a lily blossom.[o] As a receptacle, three thousand bath[p] measures were what it could contain.[q]

6 Further, he made ten basins, and put five to the right and five to the left,[r] to wash in them.[s] Things having to do with the burnt offering[t] they would rinse in them. But the sea was for the priests to wash in it.[a]

7 He then made lampstands[b] of gold, ten of them of the same plan,[c] and put them in the temple, five to the right and five to the left.[d]

8 Further, he made ten tables, and stationed them in the temple, five to the right and five to the left,[e] and made a hundred bowls of gold.

9 Then he made the courtyard[f] of the priests[g] and the great enclosure[h] and the doors belonging to the enclosure, and their doors he overlaid with copper. 10 And the sea he placed at the right side, to the east, toward the south.[i]

11 Finally Hi'ram made the cans[j] and the shovels[k] and the bowls.[l]

So Hi'ram finished doing the work that he did for King Sol'o·mon on the house of the [true] God. 12 The two pillars[m] and the round capitals[n] upon the top of the two pillars and the two networks[o] to cover the two round capitals that were upon the top of the pillars 13 and the four hundred pomegranates[p] for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two round capitals that were upon the pillars,[q] 14 and the ten carriages[r] and the ten basins[s] upon the carriages; 15 the one sea[t] and the twelve bulls under it,[u] 16 and the cans and the shovels[v] and the forks[w] and all their utensils[x] Hi'ram-a'biv[y] made for King Sol'o·mon for the house of Jehovah, of polished copper. 17 In the District of the Jordan the king cast them in the thick ground between Suc'coth[z] and Zer'e·dah.[a] 18 Thus Sol'o·mon made all these utensils in very great quantity, for the weight of the copper was not ascertained.[b]

19 And Sol'o·mon proceeded to make all the utensils[c] that were at the house of the [true]

God and the golden altar[a] and the tables[b] with the showbread upon them, 20 and the lampstands[c] and their lamps[d] of pure gold, to light them up before the innermost room[e] according to the rule; 21 and the blossoms and the lamps and the snuffers,[f] of gold, (it was the purest gold,) 22 and the extinguishers and the bowls and the cups and the fire holders, of pure gold,[g] and the entrance of the house,[h] its inner doors for the Most Holy and the doors[i] of the house of the temple, of gold.

5 Finally all the work that Sol'o·mon had to do for the house of Jehovah was at its completion,[j] and Sol'o·mon began to bring in the things made holy by David his father;[k] and the silver and the gold and all the utensils he put in the treasures of the house of the [true] God.[l] 2 It was then that Sol'o·mon proceeded to congregate the older men of Israel[m] and all the heads of the tribes,[n] the chieftains of the paternal[o] houses of the sons of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring the ark[p] of the covenant of Jehovah up from[q] the City of David,[r] that is to say, Zion.[s] 3 So all the men of Israel congregated themselves to the king at the festival, that of the seventh month.[t]

4 So all the older men of Israel came,[u] and the Levites began to carry the Ark.[v] 5 And they came bringing up the Ark[w] and the tent of meeting[x] and all the holy utensils[y] that were in the tent. The priests the Levites brought them up.[z] 6 And King Sol'o·mon and all the assembly of Israelites that were keeping their appointment with him before the Ark were sacrificing[a] sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. 7 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of Jehovah into its place, into the innermost[a] room of the house, into the Most Holy,[b] to underneath the wings of the cherubs.[c] 8 Thus the cherubs were continually spreading out their wings over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubs covered over the Ark and its poles[d] from above.[e] 9 But the poles were long, so that the tips of the poles were visible at the Holy in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible outside, and they continue there down to this day.[f] 10 There was nothing in the Ark but the two tablets[g] that Moses had given at Ho'reb,[h] when Jehovah covenanted[i] with the sons of Israel while they were coming out from Egypt.[j]

11 And it came about when the priests came out from the holy place (for all the priests that were to be found had, for their part, sanctified[k] themselves—there was no need to observe the divisions);[l] 12 and the Levites[m] that were singers belonging to all of them, namely, to A'saph,[n] to He'man,[o] to Je·du'thun[p] and to their sons and to their brothers clothed in fine fabric with cymbals[q] and with stringed instruments[r] and harps,[s] were standing to the east of the altar and along with them priests to [the number of] a hundred and twenty sounding the trumpets;[t] 13 and it came about that as soon as the trumpeters and the singers were as one[u] in causing one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Jehovah, and as soon as they lifted up the sound with the trumpets and with the cymbals and with the instruments of song[v] and with praising[w] Jehovah, "for he is good,[x] for to time indefinite is his loving-kindness,"[y] the house itself was filled with a cloud,[a] the very house of Jehovah,[b] 14 and the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud;[c] for the glory[d] of Jehovah filled the house of the [true] God.

6 It was then that Sol'o·mon said:[e] "Jehovah himself said he was to reside in the thick gloom;[f] 2 and I, for my part, have built a house of lofty abode for you[g] and an established place for you to dwell in to time indefinite."[h]

3 Then the king turned his face and began to bless[i] all the congregation of Israel, while all the congregation of Israel were standing up.[j] 4 And he went on to say: "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel,[k] who spoke with his own mouth with David my father[l] and by his own hands has given fulfillment,[m] saying, 5 'From the day that I brought my people out from the land of Egypt I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house for my name[n] to prove to be there, and I have not chosen a man to become leader over my people Israel.[o] 6 But I shall choose Jerusalem[p] for my name to prove to be there, and I shall choose David to come to be over my people Israel.'[q] 7 And it came to be close to the heart of David my father to build a house to the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.[r] 8 But Jehovah said to David my father, 'For the reason that it proved to be close to your heart to build a house to my name, you did well because it proved to be close to your heart.[s] 9 Only you yourself will not build the house,[t] but your son who is coming forth from your loins is the one that will build the house to my name.'[u] 10 And Jehovah proceeded to carry out his word[v] that he had spoken, that I might rise up in the place of David my father[w] and sit upon the throne[x] of Israel, just as Jehovah had spoken,[a] and that I might build the house to the name of Jehovah the God of Israel,[b] 11 and that I might place there the ark[c] where the covenant of Jehovah is that he concluded with the sons of Israel."[d]

12 And he began standing before the altar of Jehovah in front of all the congregation of Israel,[e] and he now spread out his palms.[f] 13 (For Sol'o·mon had made a platform[g] of copper and then put it in the middle of the enclosure.[h] Its length was five cubits, and its width five cubits, and its height three cubits; and he kept standing upon it.) And he proceeded to kneel[i] upon his knees in front of all the congregation of Israel and to spread his palms out to the heavens.[j] 14 And he went on to say: "O Jehovah the God of Israel,[k] there is no God like you[l] in the heavens or on the earth, keeping the covenant[m] and the loving-kindness toward your servants who are walking before you with all their heart;[n] 15 you who have kept toward your servant David my father what you promised him,[o] so that you made the promise with your mouth, and with your own hand you have made fulfillment as at this day.[p] 16 And now, O Jehovah the God of Israel, keep toward your servant David my father what you promised him, saying, 'There will not be cut off a man of yours from before me to sit upon the throne of Israel,[q] if only your sons[r] will take care of their way by walking in my law,[s] just as you have walked before me.'[t] 17 And now, O Jehovah the God of Israel,[u] let your promise[v] that you have promised to your servant David prove trustworthy.[w]

18 "But will God truly dwell with mankind upon the earth?[x]

Look! Heaven, yes, the heaven of the heavens themselves, cannot contain you;[a] how much less, then, this house that I have built?[b] 19 And you must turn toward the prayer of your servant[c] and to his request for favor,[d] O Jehovah my God, by listening to the entreating cry[e] and to the prayer with which your servant is praying before you,[f] 20 that your eyes may prove to be opened[g] toward this house day and night, toward the place where you said you would put your name,[h] by listening to the prayer with which your servant prays toward this place.[i] 21 And you must listen to the entreaties of your servant[j] and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place,[k] that you yourself may hear from the place of your dwelling, from the heavens;[l] and you must hear and forgive.[m]

22 "If a man sins against his fellowman[n] and he actually lays a cursing upon him to bring him under liability[o] to the curse, and he actually comes [within] the curse before your altar in this house,[p] 23 then may you yourself hear from the heavens,[q] and you must act[r] and judge your servants so as to pay back the wicked by putting his course upon his own head[s] and by pronouncing the righteous one righteous[t] by giving to him according to his own righteousness.[u]

24 "And if your people Israel are defeated before an enemy[v] because they kept sinning against you,[w] and they indeed return[x] and laud your name[y] and pray[z] and make request for favor before you in this house,[a] 25 then may you yourself hear from the heavens,[b] and you must forgive[c] the sin of your people Israel and bring them back[d] to the ground that you gave to them and their forefathers.[e]

26 "When the heavens are shut up so that no rain occurs[a] because they kept sinning[b] against you, and they actually pray toward this place[c] and laud your name [and] from their sin they turn back because you kept afflicting them,[d] 27 then may you yourself hear from the heavens, and you must forgive the sin of your servants, even of your people Israel, because you instruct[e] them regarding the good way[f] in which they should walk; and you must give rain[g] upon your land that you have given to your people as a hereditary possession.[h]

28 "In case a famine[i] occurs in the land, in case a pestilence[j] occurs, in case scorching[k] and mildew,[l] locusts[m] and cockroaches[n] occur; in case their enemies[o] besiege them in the land of their gates[p]—any sort of plague and any sort of malady[q]— 29 whatever prayer,[r] whatever request for favor[s] there may occur on the part of any man or of all your people Israel,[t] because they know each one his own plague[u] and his own pain; when he actually spreads out his palms toward this house,[v] 30 then may you yourself hear from the heavens, the place of your dwelling,[w] and you must forgive[x] and give to each one according to all his ways,[y] because you know his heart[z] (for you yourself alone well know the heart of the sons of mankind);[a] 31 to the end that they may fear[b] you by walking in your ways all the days that they are alive upon the surface of the ground that you gave to our forefathers.[c]

comes from a distant land by reason of your great name[a] and your strong hand[b] and your stretched-out arm,[c] and they actually come and pray toward this house,[d] 33 then may you yourself listen from the heavens, from your established place of dwelling,[e] and you must do according to all for which the foreigner calls to you;[f] in order that all the peoples of the earth may know your name[g] and may fear[h] you the same as your people Israel do, and may know that your name has been called upon this house that I have built.[i]

34 "In case your people go out to the war[j] against their enemies in the way that you send[k] them, and they indeed pray[l] to you in the direction of this city that you have chosen and the house that I have built to your name,[m] 35 you must also hear from the heavens their prayer and their request for favor,[n] and you must execute judgment for them.[o]

36 "In case they sin against you[p] (for there is no man that does not sin),[q] and you have to be incensed at them and abandon them to an enemy, and their captors actually carry them off captive to a land distant or nearby;[r] 37 and they indeed come to their senses in the land where they have been carried off captive, and they actually return and make request to you for favor in the land where they are captives,[s] saying, 'We have sinned,[t] we have erred[u] and we have acted wickedly';[v] 38 and they indeed return to you with all their heart[w] and with all their soul in the land where they are captives[x] of those who carried them off captive, and they indeed pray in the direction of their land that you gave to their forefathers and the city that you have chosen[y] and the house that I have built to your name;[a] 39 you must also hear from the heavens, from your established place of dwelling,[b] their prayer and their requests for favor,[c] and you must execute judgment[d] for them and forgive[e] your people who have sinned against you.

40 "Now, O my God, please, let your eyes[f] prove to be opened and your ears[g] attentive to the prayer respecting this place. 41 And now do rise up,[h] O Jehovah God, into your rest,[i] you and the Ark of your strength.[j] Let your priests themselves, O Jehovah God, be clothed with salvation, and let your loyal ones themselves rejoice in goodness.[k] 42 O Jehovah God, do not turn back the face of your anointed one.[l] O do remember the loving-kindnesses to David your servant."[m]

7 Now as soon as Sol′o·mon finished praying,[n] the fire itself came down from the heavens[o] and proceeded to consume the burnt offering[p] and the sacrifices, and Jehovah's glory[q] itself filled the house. 2 And the priests were unable to enter into the house of Jehovah[r] because Jehovah's glory had filled the house of Jehovah. 3 And all the sons of Israel were spectators when the fire came down and the glory of Jehovah was upon the house, and they immediately bowed[s] low with their faces to the earth upon the pavement and prostrated[t] themselves and thanked Jehovah, "for he is good,[u] for his loving-kindness is to time indefinite."[v]

4 And the king and all the people were offering sacrifice before Jehovah.[w] 5 And King Sol′o·mon went on offering the sacrifice of twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep.[x] Thus the king and all the people inaugurated[a] the house of the [true] God. 6 And the priests[b] were standing at their posts of duty, and the Levites[c] with the instruments of song[d] to Jehovah that David[e] the king had made to thank Jehovah, "for his loving-kindness is to time indefinite," when David would render praise by their hand; and the priests were loudly sounding the trumpets[f] in front of them, while all the Israelites were standing.

7 Then Sol'o·mon sanctified[g] the middle of the courtyard that was before the house of Jehovah, because there he rendered up the burnt offerings[h] and the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices, for the copper altar[i] that Sol'o·mon had made was itself not able to contain the burnt offering and the grain offering[j] and the fat pieces.[k] 8 And Sol'o·mon proceeded to hold the festival[l] at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him,[m] a very great congregation[n] from the entering in of Ha'math[o] down to the torrent valley of Egypt.[p] 9 But on the eighth day they held a solemn assembly,[q] because the inauguration of the altar they had held for seven days and the festival for seven days. 10 And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their homes, joyful[r] and feeling good at heart over the goodness[s] that Jehovah had performed toward David and toward Sol'o·mon and toward Israel his people.[t]

11 Thus Sol'o·mon finished the house of Jehovah[u] and the house of the king;[v] and in everything that had come into Sol'o·mon's heart to do regarding the house of Jehovah and his own house he proved successful. 12 Jehovah now appeared[w] to Sol'o·mon during the night and said to him: "I have heard your prayer,[x] and I have chosen[y] this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.[a] 13 When I shut up the heavens that no rain may occur[b] and when I command the grasshoppers to eat up the land[c] and if I send a pestilence among my people,[d] 14 and my people[e] upon whom my name[f] has been called humble[g] themselves and pray[h] and seek my face[i] and turn back from their bad ways,[j] then I myself shall hear from the heavens[k] and forgive their sin,[l] and I shall heal their land.[m] 15 Now my own eyes[n] will prove to be opened and my ears[o] attentive to prayer at this place. 16 And now I do choose[p] and sanctify this house that my name[q] may prove to be there to time indefinite,[r] and my eyes and my heart will certainly prove to be there always.[s]

17 "And if you yourself will walk before me, just as David[t] your father walked, even by doing according to all that I have commanded you,[u] and you will keep my regulations[v] and my judicial decisions,[w] 18 I will also establish the throne of your kingship,[x] just as I covenanted with David your father,[y] saying, 'There will not a man of yours be cut off from ruling over Israel.'[z] 19 But if YOU yourselves turn back[a] and actually leave my statutes[b] and my commandments[c] that I have put before YOU, and YOU actually go and serve other gods[d] and bow down to them,[e] 20 I will also uproot them from off my ground that I have given them;[f] and this house that I have sanctified[g] for my name, I shall throw away from before my face,[h] and I shall make it a proverbial saying[i] and a taunt among all the peoples.[j] 21 As for this house that had become heaps of ruins,[k] everyone passing by it will stare in amazement[l] and be certain to say, 'For what reason did Jehovah do like this to this land and to this house?'[a] 22 And they will have to say, 'It was for the reason that they left Jehovah[b] the God of their forefathers who had brought them out of the land of Egypt,[c] and they proceeded to take hold of other gods[d] and bow down to them and serve them.[e] That is why he brought upon them all this calamity.'"[f]

8 And it came about at the end of twenty years,[g] in which Sol'o·mon had built the house of Jehovah[h] and his own house,[i] 2 that the cities that Hi'ram[j] had given to Sol'o·mon—Sol'o·mon rebuilt them and then caused the sons of Israel to dwell there. 3 Furthermore, Sol'o·mon went to Ha'math-zo'bah and prevailed over it. 4 Then he rebuilt Tad'mor in the wilderness and all the storage[k] cities that he had built in Ha'math.[l] 5 And he went on to build Upper Beth-ho'ron[m] and Lower Beth-ho'ron,[n] fortified cities with walls,[o] doors and bar,[p] 6 and Ba'al·ath[q] and all the storage cities that had become Sol'o·mon's and all the chariot cities[r] and the cities for the horsemen[s] and every desirable thing of Sol'o·mon[t] that he had desired to build in Jerusalem and in Leb'a·non[u] and in all the land of his dominion.

7 As for all the people that were left over of the Hit'tites[v] and the Am'or·ites[w] and the Per'iz·zites[x] and the Hi'vites[y] and the Jeb'u·sites,[z] who were no part of Israel,[a] 8 from their sons that had been left behind them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not exterminated,[b] Sol'o·mon kept levying[c] men for forced labor until this day.[d] 9 But there were none out of the sons of Israel that Sol'o·mon constituted slaves for his work;[e] for they were warriors[f] and chiefs of his adjutants and chiefs of his charioteers[a] and of his horsemen.[b] 10 These were the chiefs of the deputies[c] that belonged to King Sol'o·mon, two hundred and fifty, the foremen over the people.[d]

11 And Phar'aoh's daughter[e] Sol'o·mon brought up out of the City of David[f] to the house that he had built for her,[g] for he said: "Although a wife of mine, she should not dwell in the house of David the king of Israel, for the places to which the ark of Jehovah has come are something holy."[h]

12 It was then that Sol'o·mon offered up burnt sacrifices[i] to Jehovah upon the altar[j] of Jehovah that he had built before the porch,[k] 13 even as a daily[l] matter of course to make offerings according to the commandment of Moses for the sabbaths[m] and for the new moons[n] and for the appointed festivals[o] three times in the year,[p] at the festival of unfermented cakes[q] and at the festival of the weeks[r] and at the festival of the booths.[s] 14 Further, he set the divisions[t] of the priests over their services according to the rule of David his father,[u] and the Levites[v] at their posts of duty, to praise[w] and to minister[x] in front of the priests as a daily matter of course,[y] and the gatekeepers in their divisions for the different gates,[z] for such was the commandment of David the man of the [true] God. 15 And they did not turn aside from the king's commandment to the priests and the Levites concerning any matter and concerning the supplies.[a] 16 So Sol'o·mon's work was all in a prepared[b] state from the day of the foundation-laying of the house of Jehovah until it was finished.[a] [So] the house of Jehovah was complete.[b]

17 It was then that Sol'o·mon went to E'zi·on-ge'ber[c] and to E'loth[d] upon the shore of the sea in the land of E'dom.[e] 18 And Hi'ram[f] regularly sent to him by means of his servants ships and servants having a knowledge of the sea,[g] and they would come with Sol'o·mon's servants to O'phir[h] and take from there four hundred and fifty talents[i] of gold[j] and bring it to King Sol'o·mon.[k]

9 And the queen of She'ba[l] herself heard the report about Sol'o·mon, and she proceeded to come to test Sol'o·mon with perplexing questions[m] at Jerusalem, along with a very impressive train and camels[n] carrying balsam oil,[o] and gold in great quantity, and precious stones.[p] At length she came in to Sol'o·mon and spoke with him about everything that happened to be close to her heart.[q] 2 Sol'o·mon, in turn, went on to tell her all her matters,[r] and no matter was hidden from Sol'o·mon that he did not tell her.[s]

3 When the queen of She'ba got to see Sol'o·mon's wisdom[t] and the house that he had built,[u] 4 and the food of his table[v] and the sitting of his servants and the table service of his waiters and their attire[w] and his drinking service[x] and their attire, and his burnt sacrifices[y] that he regularly offered up at the house of Jehovah,[z] then there proved to be no more spirit in her. 5 So she said to the king: "True was the word that I heard in my own land about your matters and about your wisdom.[a] 6 And I did not put faith[b] in their words until I had come that my own eyes might see;[c] and, look! there has not been told me the half of the abundance of your wisdom.[d] You have surpassed the report that I have heard.[e] 7 Happy[f] are your men, and happy are these servants of yours who are standing before you constantly and listening to your wisdom.[a] 8 May Jehovah your God come to be blessed,[b] who has taken delight[c] in you by putting you upon his throne[d] as king for Jehovah your God;[e] because your God loved[f] Israel, to make it stand to time indefinite, so that he put you over them as king[g] to execute judicial decision[h] and righteousness."[i]

9 Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold,[j] and balsam oil[k] in very great quantity, and precious stones;[l] and there had not come to be the like of that balsam oil which the queen of She'ba gave to King Sol'o·mon.[m]

10 And, besides, the servants of Hi'ram[n] and the servants of Sol'o·mon who brought gold[o] from O'phir brought timbers of algum trees[p] and precious stones.[q] 11 And the king proceeded to make out of the timbers of the algum trees stairs[r] for the house of Jehovah and for the king's houses[s] and also harps[t] and stringed instruments[u] for the singers,[v] and the like of them had never been seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And King Sol'o·mon himself gave the queen[w] of She'ba all her delight for which she had asked, besides [the value of] what she brought to the king. So she turned about and went to her own land, she together with her servants.[x]

13 And the weight of the gold that came to Sol'o·mon in one year amounted to six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,[y] 14 aside from the men of travel and the merchants[z] who were bringing in and all the kings of the Arabs[a] and the governors of the land who were bringing in gold and silver to Sol'o·mon.

15 And King Sol'o·mon went on to make two hundred large shields of alloyed gold[a] (six hundred [shekels] of alloyed gold he proceeded to lay upon each large shield),[b] 16 and three hundred bucklers of alloyed gold (three mi'nas of gold he proceeded to lay upon each buckler).[c] Then the king put them in the House of the Forest of Leb'a·non.[d]

17 Further, the king made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold.[e] 18 And there were six steps to the throne, and there was a footstool in gold to the throne (they were attached), and there were armrests on this side and on that side by the place of sitting, and two lions[f] were standing beside the armrests.[g] 19 And there were twelve lions[h] standing there upon the six steps on this side and on that side. No other kingdom had any made just like it.[i] 20 And all the drinking vessels[j] of King Sol'o·mon were of gold,[k] and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Leb'a·non[l] were of pure gold. There was nothing of silver; it was considered as nothing at all[m] in the days of Sol'o·mon. 21 For ships belonging to the king were going to Tar'shish[n] with the servants of Hi'ram.[o] Once every three years ships of Tar'shish would come in, carrying gold and silver,[p] ivory,[q] and apes[r] and peacocks.

22 So King Sol'o·mon was greater than all the other kings of the earth in riches[s] and wisdom.[t] 23 And all the kings of the earth were seeking[u] the face of Sol'o·mon to hear his wisdom,[v] which the [true] God had put in his heart.[w] 24 And they were bringing each his gift,[x] articles of silver and articles of gold[y] and garments,[z] armor and balsam oil, horses and mules as a yearly matter of course.[a] 25 And Sol'o·mon came to have four thousand stalls of horses[a] and chariots[b] and twelve thousand steeds, and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities[c] and close by the king in Jerusalem. 26 And he came to be ruler over all the kings from the River down to the land of the Phi·lis'tines and down to the boundary of Egypt.[d] 27 Furthermore, the king made the silver in Jerusalem like the stones; and cedarwood he made like the sycamore[e] trees that are in the She·phe'lah[f] for abundance.[g] 28 And there were those bringing out horses[h] to Sol'o·mon from Egypt[i] and from all the other lands.

29 As for the rest of the affairs of Sol'o·mon,[j] the first and the last, are they not written among the words of Nathan[k] the prophet and in the prophecy of A·hi'jah[l] the Shi'lo·nite[m] and in the record of visions of Id'do[n] the visionary concerning Jer·o·bo'am[o] the son of Ne'bat?[p] 30 And Sol'o·mon continued to reign in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. 31 Finally Sol'o·mon lay down with his forefathers. So they buried him in the City of David his father;[q] and Re·ho·bo'am[r] his son began to reign in place of him.[s]

10 And Re·ho·bo'am[t] proceeded to go to She'chem,[u] for it was to She'chem that all the Israelites came to make him king. 2 And it came about that as soon as Jer·o·bo'am[v] the son of Ne'bat heard of it while he was yet in Egypt,[w] (because he had run away on account of Sol'o·mon the king,) Jer·o·bo'am immediately came back from Egypt.[x] 3 So they sent and called him, and Jer·o·bo'am and all Israel came and spoke to Re·ho·bo'am, saying:[y] 4 "Your father, for his part, made our yoke hard;[z] and now make the hard service of your father and the heavy yoke[a] that he put upon us lighter, and we shall serve you."[b]

5 At this he said to them: "Let there be yet three days. Then return to me." So the people went away. 6 And King Re·ho·bo'am began to take counsel[c] with the older men that were continually attending upon Sol'o·mon his father while he continued alive, saying: "How are YOU advising to reply to this people?"[d] 7 Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: "If you would prove yourself good to this people and actually be pleasing to them and indeed speak good words to them,[e] they also will certainly become your servants always."[f]

8 However, he left the counsel[g] of the older men with which they had advised him, and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him,[h] who were the ones attending upon him.[i] 9 And he went on to say to them: "What is it that YOU are offering in counsel[j] that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put upon us lighter'?"[k] 10 In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke with him, saying: "This is what you should say to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us'; this is what you should say to them,[l] 'My own little finger will certainly be thicker than my father's hips.[m] 11 And now my father, for his part, loaded upon YOU a heavy yoke, but I, for my part, shall add to YOUR yoke.[n] My father, for his part, chastised YOU with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges.'"[o]

12 And Jer·o·bo'am and all the people proceeded to come to Re·ho·bo'am on the third[p] day, just as the king had spoken, saying: "Return to me on the third day." 13 And the king began to answer them harshly.[a] Thus King Re·ho·bo'am left the counsel[b] of the older men,[c] 14 and he went on to speak to them according to the counsel of the young men,[d] saying: "I shall make YOUR yoke heavier, and I, for my part, shall add to it. My father, for his part, chastised YOU with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges."[e] 15 And the king did not listen to the people; for it proved to be a turn of affairs from the [true] God[f] in order that Jehovah might carry out his word[g] that he had spoken by means of A·hi'jah[h] the Shi'lo·nite[i] to Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat.[j]

16 As for all Israel, because the king did not listen to them, the people now replied to the king, saying: "What share do we have in David?[k] And there is no inheritance in the son of Jes'se.[l] Each one to your gods,[m] O Israel! Now see to your own house, O David."[n] With that all Israel began to go to its tents.

17 As for the sons of Israel that were dwelling in the cities of Judah, Re·ho·bo'am continued to reign over them.[o]

18 Subsequently King Re·ho·bo'am sent Ha·do'ram,[p] who was over those conscripted for forced labor, but the sons of Israel pelted him with stones,[q] so that he died. And King Re·ho·bo'am himself managed to get up into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.[r] 19 And the Israelites kept up their revolt[s] against the house of David down to this day.

11 When Re·ho·bo'am arrived at Jerusalem,[t] he immediately congregated the house of Judah and Benjamin,[u] a hundred and eighty thousand choice men able-bodied for war,[v] to fight against Israel so as to bring the kingdom back to Re·ho·bo'am. 2 Then

v Ps 33:16

the word of Jehovah came to She·mai'ah[a] the man of the [true] God, saying: 3 "Say to Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon the king of Judah[b] and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 4 'This is what Jehovah has said: "YOU must not go up and fight against YOUR brothers.[c] Return each one to his house, for it is at my own instance that this thing has been brought about."'"[d] So they obeyed the word of Jehovah and returned from going against Jer·o·bo'am.[e]

5 And Re·ho·bo'am continued to dwell in Jerusalem and proceeded to build fortified cities in Judah. 6 Thus he rebuilt Beth'le·hem[f] and E'tam[g] and Te·ko'a,[h] 7 and Beth-zur[i] and So'co[j] and A·dul'lam,[k] 8 and Gath[l] and Ma·re'shah[m] and Ziph,[n] 9 and Ad·o·ra'im and La'chish[o] and A·ze'kah,[p] 10 and Zo'rah[q] and Ai'ja·lon[r] and He'bron,[s] fortified cities, which were in Judah and Benjamin. 11 Further, he reinforced the fortified places[t] and put leaders[u] in them and supplies of food and oil and wine, 12 and in all the different cities large shields[v] and lances;[w] and he went on reinforcing them to a very great degree. And Judah and Benjamin continued his.

13 And the priests and the Levites themselves that were in all Israel took their stand by him out of all their territories. 14 For the Levites left their pasture grounds[x] and their possession[y] and then came to Judah and Jerusalem,[z] because Jer·o·bo'am[a] and his sons had discharged[b] them from acting as priests to Jehovah. 15 And he proceeded to put in office for himself priests for the high places[c] and for the goat-shaped demons[d] and for the calves that he had made.[e] 16 And following them from all the tribes of Israel those that were giving their heart to seek Jehovah the God of Israel came themselves to Jerusalem[a] to sacrifice[b] to Jehovah the God of their forefathers. 17 And they kept strengthening the kingship of Judah[c] and confirming Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Sol'o·mon for three years.[d]

18 Then Re·ho·bo'am took as his wife Ma'ha·lath the daughter of Jer'i·moth the son of David, and of Ab'i·ha·il the daughter of E·li'ab[e] the son of Jes'se. 19 In time she bore him sons, Je'ush and Shem·a·ri'ah and Za'ham. 20 And after her he took Ma'a·cah[f] the granddaughter of Ab'sa·lom.[g] In time she bore him A·bi'jah[h] and At'tai and Zi'za and She·lo'mith. 21 And Re·ho·bo'am was more in love with Ma'a·cah the granddaughter of Ab'sa·lom than all his other wives[i] and his concubines; for there were eighteen wives that he had taken, also sixty concubines, so that he became father to twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. 22 Consequently Re·ho·bo'am put A·bi'jah the son of Ma'a·cah in office as head, as leader among his brothers, for [he thought] of making him king. 23 However, he acted understandingly[j] and distributed some out of all his sons to all the lands of Judah and of Benjamin,[k] to all the fortified cities,[l] and gave them food in abundance[m] and procured a multitude of wives [for them].[n]

12 And it came about that, as soon as the kingship of Re·ho·bo'am was firmly established[o] and as soon as he was strong, he left the law of Jehovah,[p] and also all Israel[q] with him. 2 And it came about in the fifth year of King Re·ho·bo'am[r] that Shi'shak[s] the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, (for they had behaved unfaithfully toward Jehovah,)[t]

3 with twelve hundred chariots[a] and with sixty thousand horsemen; and there was no number[b] to the people that came with him out of Egypt—Lib'y·ans,[c] Suk'ki·im and E·thi·o'pi·ans.[d] 4 And he got to capture the fortified cities that belonged to Judah[e] and finally came as far as Jerusalem.[f]

5 Now as for She·mai'ah[g] the prophet, he came to Re·ho·bo'am and the princes of Judah who had gathered themselves at Jerusalem because of Shi'shak, and he proceeded to say to them: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'YOU, for your part, have left me,[h] and I, too, for my part, have left YOU[i] to the hand of Shi'shak.'" 6 At that the princes of Israel and the king humbled[j] themselves and said: "Jehovah is righteous."[k] 7 And when Jehovah saw[l] that they had humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to She·mai'ah,[m] saying: "They have humbled themselves. I shall not bring them to ruin, and in a little while I shall certainly give them an escape, and my rage[n] will not pour forth upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shi'shak.[o] 8 But they will become servants of his,[p] that they may know the difference between my service[q] and the service of the kingdoms of the lands."[r]

9 So Shi'shak[s] the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took the treasures of the house of Jehovah[t] and the treasures of the king's house.[u] Everything he took; and so he took the gold shields that Sol'o·mon had made.[v] 10 Consequently King Re·ho·bo'am made in their place copper shields, and he committed them to the control of the chiefs of the runners,[w] the guards[x] of the entrance of the king's house.[y] 11 And it would occur that as often as the king came to the house of Jehovah, the runners came in and carried them and returned them to the guard chamber of the runners.[a] 12 And because he humbled himself, Jehovah's anger turned back from him,[b] and he [did] not [think] of bringing them to ruin completely.[c] And, besides, there happened to be good things in Judah.[d]

13 And King Re·ho·bo'am continued to make his position strong in Jerusalem and kept reigning; for Re·ho·bo'am[e] was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and for seventeen years he reigned in Jerusalem, the city[f] that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there.[g] And his mother's name was Na'a·mah[h] the Am'mon·it·ess.[i] 14 But he did what was bad,[j] for he had not firmly established his heart to search for Jehovah.[k]

15 As for Re·ho·bo'am's affairs, the first and the last,[l] are they not written among the words of She·mai'ah[m] the prophet and of Id'do[n] the visionary by genealogical enrollment? And there were wars between Re·ho·bo'am[o] and Jer·o·bo'am[p] all the time. 16 Finally Re·ho·bo'am lay down with his forefathers[q] and was buried in the City of David;[r] and A·bi'jah[s] his son began to reign in place of him.

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jer·o·bo'am it was that A·bi'jah began to reign over Judah.[t] 2 Three years he reigned in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Mi·cai'ah[u] the daughter of U·ri'el of Gib'e·ah.[v] And war itself took place between A·bi'jah and Jer·o·bo'am.[w]

3 So A·bi'jah engaged in the war with a military force of four hundred thousand mighty men of war,[x] chosen men. And Jer·o·bo'am himself drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, valiant, mighty men.[a] 4 A·bi'jah now rose up upon Mount Zem·a·ra'im, which is in the mountainous region of E'phra·im,[b] and said: "Hear me, O Jer·o·bo'am and all Israel. 5 Is it not for YOU to know that Jehovah the God of Israel himself gave a kingdom to David[c] over Israel to time indefinite,[d] to him and to his sons,[e] by a covenant of salt?[f] 6 And Jer·o·bo'am[g] the son of Ne'bat, the servant[h] of Sol'o·mon the son of David, proceeded to rise up and rebel[i] against his lord.[j] 7 And idle men,[k] good-for-nothing fellows,[l] kept collecting themselves together by him. Finally they proved superior to Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon, when Re·ho·bo'am[m] himself happened to be young and fainthearted,[n] and he did not hold his own against them.

8 "And now YOU men are thinking of holding YOUR own against the kingdom of Jehovah in the hand of the sons of David,[o] when YOU are a large crowd[p] and there are with YOU the golden calves that Jer·o·bo'am made for YOU as gods.[q] 9 Have YOU not driven out Jehovah's priests,[r] the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and do YOU not keep making priests for yourselves like the peoples of the lands?[s] As for anyone that came and filled his hand with power by means of a young bull and seven rams, he became a priest of what are no gods.[t] 10 As for us, Jehovah is our God,[u] and we have not left him; but priests are ministering to Jehovah, the sons of Aaron, and also the Levites in the work.[v] 11 And they are making burnt offerings smoke to Jehovah morning by morning and evening by evening[w] and also perfumed incense;[x] and the layers of bread are upon the table of pure [gold],[y] and there are the golden lampstand[a] and its lamps to light up evening by evening;[b] because we are keeping the obligation[c] to Jehovah our God, but YOU yourselves have left him.[d] 12 And, look! with us there is at the head the [true] God[e] with his priests[f] and the signal trumpets[g] for sounding the battle alarm against YOU. O sons of Israel, do not fight against Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers,[h] for YOU will not prove successful."[i]

13 And Jer·o·bo'am, for his part, dispatched an ambush around to come behind them, so that they proved to be in front of Judah and the ambush behind them.[j] 14 When those of Judah turned around, why, there they had the battle in front and behind.[k] And they began to cry out to Jehovah,[l] while the priests were loudly sounding the trumpets. 15 And the men of Judah broke out shouting a war cry.[m] And it came about, when the men of Judah shouted a war cry, then the [true] God himself defeated[n] Jer·o·bo'am and all Israel before A·bi'jah[o] and Judah. 16 And the sons of Israel took to flight from before Judah, and then God gave them into their hand.[p] 17 And A·bi'jah and his people went striking them down with a vast slaughter; and the slain of Israel kept falling down, five hundred thousand chosen men. 18 Thus the sons of Israel were humbled at that time, but the sons of Judah proved superior because they leaned[q] upon Jehovah the God of their forefathers. 19 And A·bi'jah kept chasing after Jer·o·bo'am and got to capture cities from him, Beth'el[r] and its dependent towns, and Jesh'a·nah and its dependent towns, and E'phra·in and its dependent towns.[s] 20 And Jer·o·bo'- am did not retain any more power[a] in the days of A·bi'jah; but Jehovah dealt him a blow,[b] so that he died.

21 And A·bi'jah continued to strengthen himself.[c] In time he got fourteen wives for himself,[d] and became father to twenty-two sons[e] and sixteen daughters. 22 And the rest of A·bi'jah's affairs, even his ways and his words, are written in the exposition of the prophet Id'do.[f]

14 Finally A·bi'jah lay down with his forefathers,[g] and they buried him in the City of David;[h] and A'sa[i] his son began to reign in place of him. In his days the land had no disturbance[j] for ten years.

2 And A'sa proceeded to do what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. 3 So he removed the foreign altars[k] and the high places[l] and broke up the sacred pillars[m] and cut down the sacred poles.[n] 4 Further, he said to Judah to search[o] for Jehovah the God of their forefathers and to do the law[p] and the commandment.[q] 5 Accordingly he removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense stands;[r] and the kingdom continued without disturbance[s] before him. 6 And he went on to build fortified cities in Judah,[t] for the land had no disturbance; and there was no war against him during these years, for Jehovah gave him rest.[u] 7 So he said to Judah: "Let us build these cities and make walls[v] around and towers,[w] double doors and bars.[x] For us the land is yet available, because we have searched for Jehovah our God.[y] We have searched, and he gives us rest all around."[z] And they went building and proving successful.[a]

8 And A'sa came to have a military force bearing the large shield[b] and lance,[c] three hundred thousand out of Judah.[d] And out of Benjamin those bearing the buckler and bending the bow[a] were two hundred and eighty thousand.[b] All these were valiant, mighty men.

9 Later Ze'rah the E·thi·o'pi·an[c] went out against them with a military force of a million men[d] and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Ma·re'shah.[e] 10 Then A'sa went out against him and they drew up in battle formation in the valley of Zeph'a·thah at Ma·re'shah. 11 And A'sa began to call to Jehovah his God[f] and say: "O Jehovah, as to helping, it does not matter with you whether there are many or [those with] no power.[g] Help us, O Jehovah our God, for upon you we do lean,[h] and in your name[i] we have come against this crowd. O Jehovah, you are our God.[j] Do not let mortal man retain strength against you."[k]

12 At that Jehovah defeated[l] the E·thi·o'pi·ans before A'sa and before Judah, and the E·thi·o'pi·ans took to flight. 13 And A'sa and the people that were with him kept pursuing them as far as Ge'rar,[m] and those of the E·thi·o'pi·ans continued falling down till there was no one alive of them; for they were broken to pieces before Jehovah[n] and before his camp.[o] Afterward they carried off a very great deal of spoil.[p] 14 Further, they struck all the cities round about Ge'rar, for the dread[q] of Jehovah had come to be upon them; and they went plundering all the cities, for there happened to be much to plunder in them.[r] 15 And even the tents[s] with livestock they struck so that they took captive[t] flocks in great number and camels,[u] after which they returned to Jerusalem.

15 Now for Az·a·ri'ah the son of O'ded,[a] the spirit[b] of God came to be upon him. 2 Consequently he went out before A'sa and said to him: "Hear me, O A'sa and all Judah and Benjamin! Jehovah is with YOU as long as YOU prove to be with him;[c] and if YOU search[d] for him, he will let himself be found by YOU, but if YOU leave him he will leave YOU.[e] 3 And many were the days that Israel[f] had been without a true God and without a priest teaching[g] and without Law. 4 But when in their distress[h] they returned to Jehovah the God of Israel[i] and looked for him, then he let himself be found by them.[j] 5 And in those times there was no peace for one going out or for one coming in,[k] because there were many disorders among all the inhabitants of the lands.[l] 6 And they were crushed to pieces, nation against nation[m] and city against city, because God himself kept them in disorder with every sort of distress.[n] 7 And YOU, be courageous[o] and do not let YOUR hands drop down,[p] because there exists a reward for YOUR activity."[q]

8 And as soon as A'sa heard these words and the prophecy of O'ded[r] the prophet, he took courage and proceeded to cause the disgusting things[s] to vanish from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities that he had captured from the mountainous region of E'phra·im,[t] and to renew Jehovah's altar that was before the porch of Jehovah.[u] 9 And he began to collect together all Judah and Benjamin[v] and the alien residents[w] with them from E'phra·im and Ma·nas'seh and Sim'e·on, for they had deserted to him from Israel in great number when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him.[x] 10 So they were collected together at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of A'sa's reign. 11 Then they sacrificed to Jehovah on that day from the spoil that they had brought, seven hundred cattle and seven thousand sheep. 12 Furthermore, they entered into a covenant[a] to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers with all their heart and with all their soul;[b] 13 that anyone that would not search for Jehovah the God of Israel should be put to death,[c] whether small or great,[d] whether man or woman.[e] 14 So they swore[f] to Jehovah with a loud voice and with joyful shouting and with the trumpets and with horns. 15 And all Judah gave way to rejoicing[g] over the thing sworn; for it was with all their heart that they had sworn and with full pleasure on their part that they had looked for him, so that he let himself be found by them;[h] and Jehovah continued to give them rest all around.[i]

16 As for even Ma'a·cah[j] [his] grandmother, A'sa the king himself[k] removed her from [being] lady,[l] because she had made a horrible idol for the sacred pole;[m] and then A'sa cut down her horrible idol[n] and pulverized it and burned[o] it in the torrent valley of Kid'ron.[p] 17 And the high places[q] themselves did not disappear from Israel.[r] Only A'sa's heart itself proved to be complete all his days.[s] 18 And he proceeded to bring the things made holy by his father and the things[t] made holy by himself into the house of the [true] God, silver and gold and utensils.[u] 19 As for war, it did not occur down to the thirty-fifth year of A'sa's reign.[v]

low anyone to go out or come in to A'sa the king of Judah.[a] 2 A'sa now brought out silver and gold from the treasures of Jehovah's house[b] and the king's house[c] and sent to Ben-ha'dad[d] the king of Syria,[e] who was dwelling at Damascus,[f] saying: 3 "There is a covenant between me and you and between my father and your father. Here I do send you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Ba'a·sha[g] the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."[h]

4 So Ben-ha'dad listened to King A'sa and sent the chiefs of the military forces that were his against the cities of Israel, so that they struck I'jon[i] and Dan[j] and A'bel-ma'im[k] and all the storage places[l] of the cities of Naph'ta·li.[m] 5 And it came about that as soon as Ba'a·sha heard of it, he immediately quit building Ra'mah and stopped his work.[n] 6 As for A'sa the king, he took all Judah,[o] and they proceeded to carry away the stones of Ra'mah[p] and its timbers with which Ba'a·sha had built,[q] and he began to build with them Ge'ba[r] and Miz'pah.[s]

7 And at that time Ha·na'ni[t] the seer came to A'sa the king of Judah and then said to him: "Because you leaned upon the king of Syria[u] and did not lean upon Jehovah your God,[v] for that reason the military force of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. 8 Did not the E·thi·o'pi·ans[w] and the Lib'y·ans[x] themselves happen to be a very great military force in multitude, in chariots and in horsemen;[y] and because of your leaning upon Jehovah did he not give them into your hand?[z] 9 For, as regards Jehovah, his eyes[a] are roving about through all the earth[b] to show his strength in behalf of those whose heart[c] is complete toward him. You have acted foolishly[d] respecting this, for from now on there will exist wars against you."[a]

10 However, A'sa became offended at the seer and put him in the house of the stocks,[b] because he was in a rage at him over this.[c] And A'sa began to crush[d] some others of the people at that same time. 11 And, look! the affairs of A'sa, the first and the last, there they are written in the Book[e] of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.

12 And A'sa in the thirty-ninth year of his reign developed an ailment in his feet until he was very sick;[f] and even in his sickness he searched not for Jehovah[g] but for the healers.[h] 13 Finally A'sa lay down with his forefathers[i] and died in the forty-first year of his reigning. 14 So they buried him in his grand burial place[j] that he had excavated for himself in the City of David;[k] and they laid him in the bed that had been filled with balsam oil[l] and different sorts of ointment[m] mixed in an ointment of special make.[n] Further, they made an extraordinarily great funeral burning[o] for him.

17 And Je·hosh'a·phat[p] his son began to reign in place of him and to make his position strong over Israel. 2 And he proceeded to put military forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and to put garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of E'phra·im that A'sa his father had captured.[q] 3 And Jehovah continued with Je·hosh'a·phat,[r] because he walked in the former ways of David his forefather[s] and did not search for the Ba'als.[t] 4 For it was for the God of his father that he searched[u] and in his commandment he walked,[v] and not according to the doing of Israel.[w] 5 And Jehovah kept the kingdom firmly established in his hand;[a] and all Judah continued to give presents[b] to Je·hosh'a·phat, and he came to have riches and glory in abundance.[c] 6 And his heart became bold in the ways[d] of Jehovah, and he even removed the high places[e] and the sacred poles[f] from Judah.

7 And in the third year of his reigning he sent for his princes, namely, Ben-ha'il and O·ba·di'ah and Zech·a·ri'ah and Ne·than'el and Mi·cai'ah, to teach in the cities of Judah, 8 and with them the Levites, She·mai'ah and Neth·a·ni'ah and Zeb·a·di'ah and As'a·hel and She·mir'a·moth and Je·hon'a·than and Ad·o·ni'jah and To·bi'jah and Tob-ad·o·ni'jah the Levites, and with them E·lish'a·ma and Je·ho'ram the priests.[g] 9 And they began teaching[h] in Judah, and with them there was the book of Jehovah's law;[i] and they kept going around through all the cities of Judah and teaching among the people.

10 And the dread[j] of Jehovah came to be upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were all around Judah, and they did not fight against Je·hosh'a·phat.[k] 11 And from the Phi·lis'tines they were bringing to Je·hosh'a·phat presents[l] and money as tribute.[m] The Arabs[n] also were bringing to him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred he-goats.[o]

12 And Je·hosh'a·phat continued advancing and growing great[p] to a superior degree; and he went on building fortified places[q] and storage cities[r] in Judah. 13 And there were many interests that became his in the cities of Judah; and warriors,[s] valiant, mighty men,[t] were in Jerusalem. 14 And these were their offices by the house of their forefathers: Of Judah the chiefs of thousands, Ad'nah the chief, and with him there were three hundred thousand valiant, mighty men.[a] 15 And under his control there was Je·ho·ha'nan the chief, and with him there were two hundred and eighty thousand. 16 And under his control there was Am·a·si'ah the son of Zich'ri the volunteer[b] for Jehovah, and with him there were two hundred thousand valiant, mighty men. 17 And out of Benjamin[c] there was the valiant, mighty man E·li'a·da, and with him there were two hundred thousand men equipped with the bow and shield.[d] 18 And under his control there was Je·hoz'a·bad, and with him there were a hundred and eighty thousand men outfitted for the army. 19 These were the ones ministering to the king apart from those whom the king put in the fortified cities[e] throughout all Judah.

18 And Je·hosh'a·phat came to have riches and glory in abundance;[f] but he formed a marriage alliance[g] with A'hab.[h] 2 So years later he went down to A'hab at Sa·mar'i·a;[i] and A'hab proceeded to sacrifice sheep[j] and cattle in abundance for him and for the people that were with him. And he began to allure[k] him to go up against Ra'moth-gil'e·ad.[l] 3 And A'hab the king of Israel went on to say to Je·hosh'a·phat the king of Judah: "Will you go with me to Ra'moth-gil'e·ad?"[m] At this he said to him: "I am the same as you are, and my people are like your people and with you in the war."[n]

4 However, Je·hosh'a·phat said to the king of Israel: "Please, inquire[o] first of all for the word of Jehovah." 5 So the king of Israel collected the prophets[p] together, four hundred men, and said to them: "Shall we go against Ra'moth-gil'e·ad in war, or shall I refrain?"[q] And they began to say: "Go up, and the [true] God will give [it] into the king's hand."

6 But Je·hosh′a·phat said: “Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah still?[a] Then let us inquire through him.”[b] 7 At that the king of Israel said to Je·hosh′a·phat:[c] “There is still one man[d] through whom to inquire of Jehovah, but I myself certainly hate him,[e] for he is prophesying concerning me, not for good, but, all his days, for bad.[f] He is Mi·cai′ah the son of Im′lah.”[g] However, Je·hosh′a·phat said: “Do not let the king say a thing like that.”[h]

8 Accordingly the king of Israel called a court official[i] and said: “Bring Mi·cai′ah the son of Im′lah quickly.”[j] 9 Now the king of Israel and Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah were sitting each one on his throne, clothed in garments,[k] and were sitting in the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Sa·mar′i·a; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them.[l] 10 Then Zed·e·ki′ah the son of Che·na′a·nah made for himself horns[m] of iron and said: “This is what Jehovah has said,[n] ‘With these you will push the Syrians until you exterminate them.’ ”[o] 11 And all the other prophets were prophesying the same as that, saying: “Go up to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad and prove successful,[p] and Jehovah will certainly give [it] into the king’s hand.”[q]

12 And the messenger that went to call Mi·cai′ah spoke to him, saying: “Look! The words of the prophets are unanimously of good to the king; and let your word, please, become like one of them[r] and you must speak good.”[s] 13 But Mi·cai′ah said: “As Jehovah is living,[t] what my God will say, that is what I shall speak.”[u] 14 Then he came in to the king, and the king proceeded to say to him: “Mi·cai′ah, shall we go to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad in war, or shall I refrain?” At once he said: “Go up and prove successful; and they will be given into YOUR hand.”[a] 15 At that the king said to him: “For how many times am I putting you under oath[b] that you should not speak to me anything but truth in the name of Jehovah?”[c] 16 So he said: “I certainly see all the Israelites scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd.[d] And Jehovah went on to say: ‘These have no masters.[e] Let them go back each one to his house in peace.’ ”[f]

17 Then the king of Israel said to Je·hosh′a·phat: “Did I not say to you, ‘He will prophesy concerning me, not good things, but bad’?”[g]

18 And he went on to say: “Therefore HEAR the word of Jehovah:[h] I certainly see Jehovah sitting upon his throne[i] and all the army[j] of the heavens standing at his right and his left.[k] 19 And Jehovah proceeded to say, ‘Who will fool A′hab the king of Israel that he may go up and fall at Ra′moth-gil′e·ad?’ And there was talk, this one saying something like this, and that one saying something like that.[l] 20 Finally a spirit[m] came out and stood before Jehovah and said, ‘I myself shall fool him.’ At that Jehovah said to him, ‘By what means?’[n] 21 To this he said, ‘I shall go forth and certainly become a deceptive spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’[o] So he said, ‘You will fool him, and, what is more, you will come off the winner.[p] Go out and do that way.’[q] 22 And now here Jehovah has put a deceptive spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours;[r] but Jehovah himself has spoken calamity concerning you.”[s]

23 Zed·e·ki′ah[t] the son of Che·na′a·nah[u] now approached and struck Mi·cai′ah[v] on the cheek[w] and said: “In just which way did the spirit of Jehovah pass along from me to speak with you?”[a] 24 At that Mi·cai′ah said: “Look! You are seeing [which way] on that day[b] when you will enter the innermost chamber to hide yourself.”[c] 25 Then the king of Israel said: “TAKE Mi·cai′ah and turn him back to A′mon the chief of the city and to Jo′ash the king’s son.[d] 26 And YOU men must say, ‘This is what the king has said: “PUT this fellow in the house of detention[e] and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread[f] and a reduced allowance of water until I return in peace.” ’ ”[g] 27 Upon that Mi·cai′ah said: “If you return at all in peace, Jehovah has not spoken with me.”[h] And he added: “Hear, all YOU peoples.”[i]

28 And the king of Israel and Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah proceeded to go up to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad.[j] 29 The king of Israel now said to Je·hosh′a·phat: “There will be a disguising[k] and entering into the battle [for me], but you, for your part, put on your garments.”[l] Accordingly the king of Israel disguised himself, after which they entered into the battle.[m] 30 As for the king of Syria, he had commanded the chiefs of the chariots that were his, saying: “YOU must fight, neither with the small nor with the great, but with the king of Israel alone.”[n] 31 And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw Je·hosh′a·phat, they, for their part, said to themselves: “It is the king of Israel.”[o] So they turned around against him to fight; and Je·hosh′a·phat began to cry for aid,[p] and Jehovah himself helped him,[q] and God at once allured them away from him.[r] 32 And it came about that as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw that it did not prove to be the king of Israel, they immediately came back from following him.[s]

33 And there was a man that bent the bow in his innocence, but he got to strike[a] the king of Israel between the appendages and the coat of mail, so that he said to the charioteer:[b] “Turn your hand around, and you must take me out from the camp, because I have been badly wounded.”[c] 34 And the battle kept rising in intensity on that day, and the king of Israel himself had to be kept in a standing position in the chariot facing the Syrians until the evening; and gradually he died at the time of the setting of the sun.[d]

19 Then Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah returned in peace[e] to his own house at Jerusalem. 2 Je′hu[f] the son of Ha·na′ni[g] the visionary[h] now went out before him and said to King Je·hosh′a·phat: “Is it to the wicked that help is to be given,[i] and is it for those hating[j] Jehovah that you should have love?[k] And for this there is indignation[l] against you from the person of Jehovah. 3 Nevertheless, there are good[m] things that have been found with you, because you have cleared out the sacred poles from the land[n] and you have prepared your heart to search for the [true] God.”[o]

4 And Je·hosh′a·phat continued dwelling in Jerusalem; and he began to go out again among the people from Be′er-she′ba[p] to the mountainous region of E′phra·im,[q] that he might bring them back to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.[r] 5 And he proceeded to station judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.[s] 6 And he went on to say to the judges: “See what YOU are doing,[t] because it is not for man that YOU judge but it is for Jehovah;[u] and he is with YOU in the matter of judgment.[v] 7 And now let the dread[w] of Jehovah come to be upon YOU.[x] Be careful and act,[y] for with Jehovah our God there is no unrighteousness[a] or partiality[b] or taking of a bribe."[c]

8 And in Jerusalem also Je·hosh'a·phat stationed some of the Levites[d] and the priests[e] and some of the heads of the paternal[f] houses of Israel for the judgment[g] of Jehovah and for the legal cases[h] of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 9 Further, he laid a command upon them, saying: "This is how YOU should do in the fear[i] of Jehovah with faithfulness and with a complete heart. 10 As for every legal case that will come to YOU of YOUR brothers who are dwelling in their cities, involving the shedding of blood,[j] involving law[k] and commandment[l] and regulations[m] and judicial decisions,[n] YOU must warn them that they may not do wrong against Jehovah and indignation[o] may not have to take place against YOU and against YOUR brothers. This is how YOU should do that YOU may not incur guilt. 11 And here is Am·a·ri'ah the chief priest over YOU for every matter of Jehovah;[p] and Zeb·a·di'ah the son of Ish'ma·el the leader of the house of Judah for every matter of the king; and as officers the Levites are available for YOU. Be strong[q] and act, and let Jehovah[r] prove to be with what is good."[s]

20 And it came about afterward that the sons of Mo'ab[t] and the sons of Am'mon[u] and with them some of the Am'mon·im[v] came against Je·hosh'a·phat in war.[w] 2 So people came and told Je·hosh'a·phat, saying: "There has come against you a large crowd from the region of the sea, from E'dom;[x] and there they are in Haz'a·zon-ta'mar, that is to say, En-ge'di."[y] 3 At that Je·hosh'a·phat became afraid[z] and set his face to search for Jehovah.[a] So he proclaimed a fast[b] for all Judah. 4 Eventually those of Judah were collected together to inquire of Jehovah.[a] Even from all the cities of Judah they came to consult Jehovah.[b]

5 Then Je·hosh'a·phat stood up in the congregation of Judah and of Jerusalem in the house of Jehovah[c] before the new courtyard,[d] 6 and he proceeded to say:[e]

"O Jehovah the God of our forefathers,[f] are you not God in the heavens,[g] and are you not dominating over all the kingdoms of the nations,[h] and are there not in your hand power and mightiness, with no one to hold his ground against you?[i] 7 Did not you yourself, O God of ours,[j] drive away the inhabitants of this land from before your people Israel[k] and then give[l] it to the seed of Abraham, your lover,[m] to time indefinite? 8 And they took up dwelling in it, and they proceeded to build in it for you a sanctuary for your name,[n] saying, 9 'If there should come upon us calamity,[o] sword, adverse judgment, or pestilence[p] or famine,[q] let us stand before this house[r] and before you (for your name[s] is in this house), that we may call to you for aid out of our distress, and may you hear and save.'[t] 10 And now here the sons of Am'mon,[u] and Mo'ab[v] and the mountainous region of Se'ir,[w] whom you did not allow Israel to invade when they were coming out of the land of Egypt, but they turned away from them and did not annihilate them,[x] 11 yes, here they are rewarding[y] us by coming in to drive us out from your possession that you caused us to possess.[z] 12 O our God, will you not execute judgment upon them?[a] For in us there is no power before this large crowd that is coming against us;[b] and we ourselves do not know what we ought to do,[a] but our eyes are toward you."[b]

13 All the while all those of Judah were standing before Jehovah,[c] even their little ones,[d] their wives and their sons.

14 Now as for Ja·ha·zi'el the son of Zech·a·ri'ah the son of Be·nai'ah the son of Je·i'el the son of Mat·ta·ni'ah the Levite of the sons of A'saph,[e] the spirit[f] of Jehovah came to be upon him in the middle of the congregation. 15 Consequently he said: "Pay attention, all Judah and YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Je·hosh'a·phat! Here is what Jehovah has said to YOU, 'Do not YOU be afraid[g] or be terrified because of this large crowd; for the battle is not YOURS, but God's.[h] 16 Tomorrow go down against them. There they are coming up by the pass of Ziz; and YOU will be certain to find them at the end of the torrent valley in front of the wilderness of Je·ru'el. 17 YOU will not need to fight[i] in this instance. Take YOUR position, stand still[j] and see the salvation[k] of Jehovah in YOUR behalf. O Judah and Jerusalem, do not be afraid or be terrified.[l] Tomorrow go out against them, and Jehovah will be with YOU.'"[m]

18 At once Je·hosh'a·phat bowed low with his face to the earth,[n] and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem themselves fell down before Jehovah to do obeisance to Jehovah.[o] 19 Then the Levites[p] of the sons of the Ko'hath·ites[q] and of the sons of the Ko'rah·ites[r] rose up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with an extraordinarily loud voice.[s]

20 And they proceeded to rise early in the morning and go out to the wilderness[t] of Te·ko'a.[u] And as they went out, Je·hosh'a·phat stood up and then said: "Hear me, O Judah and YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem![v] Put faith[a] in Jehovah YOUR God that YOU may prove yourselves of long duration. Put faith in his prophets[b] and so prove successful."

21 Further, he took counsel[c] with the people and stationed singers[d] to Jehovah and those offering praise[e] in holy adornment[f] as they went out ahead of the armed men,[g] and saying: "GIVE praise to Jehovah,[h] for to time indefinite is his loving-kindness."[i]

22 And at the time that they started off with the joyful cry and praise, Jehovah set men in ambush[j] against the sons of Am'mon, Mo'ab and the mountainous region of Se'ir who were coming into Judah, and they went smiting one another.[k] 23 And the sons of Am'mon and Mo'ab proceeded to stand up against the inhabitants of the mountainous region of Se'ir[l] to devote them to destruction and annihilate them; and as soon as they finished with the inhabitants of Se'ir, they helped each one to bring his own fellow to ruin.[m]

24 But as for Judah, it came to the watchtower of the wilderness.[n] When they turned their faces toward the crowd, why, there they were, their carcasses fallen to the earth[o] without anyone escaping. 25 So Je·hosh'a·phat and his people came to plunder the spoil[p] on them, and they got to find among them in abundance both goods and clothing and desirable articles; and they went stripping them off for themselves until they could carry no more.[q] And it came to be three days that they were plundering the spoil, for it was abundant. 26 And on the fourth day they congregated together at the low plain of Ber'a·cah, for there they blessed Jehovah.[r] That is why they called the name[s] of that place Low Plain of Ber'a·cah —until today.

27 Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned, with Je·hosh'a·phat at their head, to return to Jerusalem with rejoicing, for Jehovah had made them rejoice over their enemies.[a] 28 So they came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments[b] and with harps[c] and with trumpets[d] to the house of Jehovah.[e] 29 And the dread[f] of God came to be upon all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Jehovah had fought against the enemies of Israel.[g] 30 Thus the royal realm of Je·hosh'a·phat had no disturbance, and his God continued to give him rest all around.[h]

31 And Je·hosh'a·phat[i] went on reigning over Judah. Thirty-five years old he was when he began to reign, and for twenty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A·zu'bah[j] the daughter of Shil'hi. 32 And he kept walking in the way of his father A'sa,[k] and he did not turn aside from it, by doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes.[l] 33 Only the high places[m] themselves did not disappear; and the people themselves had not yet prepared their heart for the God of their forefathers.[n]

34 As for the rest of the affairs of Je·hosh'a·phat, the first and the last, there they are written among the words of Je'hu[o] the son of Ha·na'ni,[p] which were inserted in the Book[q] of the Kings of Israel. 35 And after this Je·hosh'a·phat the king of Judah had partnership with A·ha·zi'ah[r] the king of Israel, who acted wickedly.[s] 36 So he made him a partner with himself in making ships to go to Tar'shish[t] and they made ships in E'zi·on-ge'ber.[u] 37 However, E·li·e'zer the son of Dod·av'a·hu of Ma·re'sha spoke prophetically against Je·hosh'a·phat, saying: "Inasmuch as you have had partnership with A·ha·zi'ah,[a] Jehovah will certainly break down your works."[b] Accordingly the ships were wrecked,[c] and they did not retain strength to go to Tar'shish.[d]

4 When Je·ho'ram rose up over the kingdom of his father he proceeded to make his position strong, and so he killed all his brothers[l] with the sword and also some of the princes of Israel. 5 Thirty-two years old was Je·ho'ram when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned[m] in Jerusalem. 6 And he went on walking in the way of the kings of Israel,[n] just as those of the house of A'hab had done; for A'hab's own daughter had become his wife,[o] and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[p] 7 And Jehovah did not want to bring the house of David to ruin,[q] for the sake of the covenant[r] that he had concluded with David, and just as he had said he would give him[s] and his sons a lamp always.[t]

8 In his days E'dom[u] revolted from under the hand of Judah[v] and then made a king to reign over them.[w] 9 So Je·ho'ram together with his chiefs passed over and also all the chariots with him. And it came about that he rose up by night and went striking down the E'dom·ites that were surrounding him and also the chiefs of the chariots. 10 But E'dom kept up its revolt from under the hand of Judah down to this day. It was then that Lib'nah[a] began to revolt at the same time from under his hand, because he had left Jehovah the God of his forefathers.[b] 11 He himself also had made high places[c] on the mountains of Judah, that he might cause the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have immoral intercourse,[d] and that he might drive Judah away.[e]

12 Eventually there came a writing[f] to him from E·li'jah[g] the prophet, saying: "This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather has said, 'Due to the fact that you have not walked in the ways of Je·hosh'a·phat[h] your father or in the ways of A'sa[i] the king of Judah, 13 but you walk in the way of the kings of Israel[j] and cause Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have immoral intercourse[k] the same way that the house of A'hab caused the having of immoral intercourse,[l] and even your own brothers, the household of your father, who were better than you, you have killed;[m] 14 look! Jehovah is dealing a great blow[n] to your people[o] and to your sons[p] and to your wives and to all your goods. 15 And you will be with many sicknesses,[q] with a malady of your intestines, until your intestines have come out because of the sickness day by day.'"[r]

16 Accordingly Jehovah aroused against Je·ho'ram the spirit[s] of the Phi·lis'tines[t] and the Arabs[u] that were by the side of the E·thi·o'pi·ans.[v] 17 So they came up into Judah and forced it open and took captive all the goods that were to be found in the king's house and also his sons[a] and his wives,[b] and there was not left to him a son but Je·ho'a·haz,[c] his youngest son. 18 And after all this Jehovah plagued him in his intestines with a sickness for which there was no healing.[d] 19 And it came about that in the days to come, even when the term of two full years had expired, his intestines[e] came out during his sickness, and he gradually died in his bad maladies; and his people did not make a burning for him like the burning[f] for his forefathers. 20 Thirty-two years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned in Jerusalem. Finally he went away without being desired.[g] So they buried him in the City of David,[h] but not in the burial places of the kings.[i]

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made A·ha·zi'ah[j] his youngest son king in place of him, (for the marauder band that came with the Arabs[k] to the camp had killed all the older ones,)[l] and A·ha·zi'ah the son of Je·ho'ram began to reign as king of Judah. 2 Twenty-two years old was A·ha·zi'ah when he began to reign,[m] and for one year he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ath·a·li'ah[n] the granddaughter of Om'ri.[o]

3 He himself also walked in the ways of the house of A'hab,[p] for his mother[q] herself became his counselor in doing wickedly. 4 And he went on doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, the same as the house of A'hab, for they themselves became counselors[r] to him after the death of his father, to his ruination. 5 It was also in their counsel that he walked,[s] so that he went with Je·ho'ram[t] the son of

A'hab the king of Israel to the war against Haz'a·el[a] the king of Syria at Ra'moth-gil'e·ad,[b] at which the shooters got to strike Je·ho'ram.[c] 6 Hence he returned to get healed at Jez're·el[d] from the wounds that they had inflicted upon him at Ra'mah[e] when he fought Haz'a·el the king of Syria.

As for Az·a·ri'ah[f] the son of Je·ho'ram[g] the king of Judah, he went down to see Je·ho'ram[h] the son of A'hab in Jez're·el, for he was sick.[i] 7 But it was from God[j] that the downfall[k] of A·ha·zi'ah occurred by [his] coming to Je·ho'ram; and when he came, he went out[l] with Je·ho'ram to Je'hu[m] the grandson of Nim'shi,[n] whom Jehovah had anointed[o] to cut off the house of A'hab.[p] 8 And it came about that as soon as Je'hu had entered into controversy with the house of A'hab,[q] he got to find the princes of Judah and the sons of the brothers of A·ha·zi'ah,[r] ministers of A·ha·zi'ah, and he proceeded to kill them.[s] 9 Then he went looking for A·ha·zi'ah, and they finally captured him,[t] as he was hiding in Sa·mar'i·a,[u] and brought him to Je'hu. Then they put him to death and buried him,[v] for they said: "He is the grandson of Je·hosh'a·phat,[w] who searched for Jehovah with all his heart."[x] And there was no one of the house of A·ha·zi'ah to retain power for the kingdom.

10 As regards Ath·a·li'ah[y] the mother of A·ha·zi'ah, she saw that her son had died. So she rose up and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah.[z] 11 However, Je·ho·shab'e·ath[a] the daughter of the king took Je·ho'ash[b] the son of A·ha·zi'ah and stole him away from among the sons of the king that were to be put to death, and put him and his nursing woman in the inner room for the couches. And Je·ho·shab'e·ath the daughter of King Je·ho'ram,[a] the wife of Je·hoi'a·da[b] the priest, (for she herself happened to be the sister of A·ha·zi'ah,) kept him concealed because of Ath·a·li'ah, and she did not put him to death.[c] 12 And he continued with them in the house of the [true] God hidden for six years,[d] while Ath·a·li'ah was ruling as queen[e] over the land.[f]

23 And in the seventh year Je·hoi'a·da[g] showed himself courageous and proceeded to take the chiefs of hundreds,[h] namely, Az·a·ri'ah the son of Je·ro'ham, and Ish'ma·el the son of Je·ho·ha'nan and Az·a·ri'ah the son of O'bed and Ma·a·sei'ah the son of A·dai'ah and E·li·sha'phat the son of Zich'ri, with him into the covenant. 2 Afterward they went around throughout Judah and collected together the Levites[i] from all the cities of Judah and the heads[j] of the paternal[k] houses of Israel. So they came to Jerusalem. 3 Then all the congregation concluded a covenant[l] with the king in the house[m] of the [true] God, after which he said to them:

"Look! The son[n] of the king himself will reign,[o] just as Jehovah promised concerning the sons of David.[p] 4 This is the thing that YOU will do: one third of YOU who are coming in on the sabbath,[q] of the priests[r] and of the Levites,[s] will be for doorkeepers;[t] 5 and one third will be at the house of the king;[u] and one third will be at the Gate of the Foundation;[v] and all the people will be in the courtyards[w] of the house of Jehovah. 6 And do not let anyone enter the house of Jehovah[x] but the priests and those of the Levites ministering.[y] These are the ones that will enter, because they are a holy group,[z] and all the people themselves will keep the obligation to Jehovah. 7 And the Levites must encircle the king all around,[a] each one with his weapons in his hands; and as for anyone coming into the house, he should be put to death. And continue with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

8 And the Levites and all Judah proceeded to do according to all that Je·hoi'a·da[b] the priest had commanded.[c] So they took each one his men that were coming in on the sabbath together with those going out on the sabbath,[d] for Je·hoi'a·da the priest had not set the divisions[e] free from duty. 9 Further, Je·hoi'a·da the priest gave the chiefs of hundreds[f] the spears and the shields and the circular shields[g] that had belonged to King David,[h] which were in the house of the [true] God.[i] 10 And he went on to station all the people,[j] even each one with his missile in his hand, from the right side of the house clear to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, all around near the king. 11 Then they brought the king's son out[k] and put upon him the diadem[l] and the Testimony[m] and made him king, and so Je·hoi'a·da and his sons anointed[n] him and said: "Let the king live!"[o]

12 When Ath·a·li'ah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king,[p] she at once came to the people at the house of Jehovah. 13 Then she saw, and there was the king standing by his pillar[q] at the entry, and the princes[r] and the trumpets[s] by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing[t] and blowing[u] the trumpets, and the singers[v] with the instruments of song and those giving the signal for offering praise. Immediately Ath·a·li'ah ripped her garments apart and said: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!"[w] 14 But Je·hoi'a·da the priest brought out the chiefs of hundreds, the appointed ones of the military force, and said to them: "Take her out from inside the rows;[a] and as for anyone coming after her, he should be put to death with the sword!" For the priest had said: "You must not put her to death at the house of Jehovah." 15 So they laid their hands upon her. When she came to the entry of the horse gate of the king's house, they at once put her to death there.[b]

16 Then Je·hoi'a·da concluded a covenant between himself and all the people and the king that they would continue as the people[c] of Jehovah. 17 After that all the people came to the house of Ba'al and pulled it down;[d] and his altars[e] and his images they broke up,[f] and Mat'tan[g] the priest of Ba'al they killed[h] before the altars. 18 Further, Je·hoi'a·da put the offices of the house of Jehovah in the hand of the priests [and] the Levites, whom David[i] had put in divisions over the house of Jehovah to offer up the burnt sacrifices of Jehovah according to what is written in the law of Moses,[j] with rejoicing and with song by the hands of David. 19 So he stationed the gatekeepers[k] by the gates[l] of the house of Jehovah that no one unclean in any respect might enter. 20 He now took the chiefs of hundreds[m] and the lordly ones and the rulers over the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the house of Jehovah.[n] Then they came right through the upper gate to the king's house and seated the king upon the throne[o] of the kingdom. 21 And all the people of the land continued to rejoice;[p] and the city itself had no disturbance, and Ath·a·li'ah they had put to death with the sword.[q]

24 Seven years old was Je·ho'ash when he began to reign,[a] and for forty years he reigned in Jerusalem.[b] And his mother's name was Zib'i·ah from Be'er-she'ba.[c] 2 And Je·ho'ash[d] kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes[e] all the days of Je·hoi'a·da the priest.[f] 3 And Je·hoi'a·da proceeded to get two wives for him, and he came to be father to sons and daughters.[g]

4 Now it occurred afterward that it became close to the heart of Je·ho'ash to renovate the house of Jehovah.[h] 5 Accordingly he collected the priests[i] and the Levites together and said to them: "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair[j] the house of YOUR God from year to year;[k] and YOU, for YOUR part, should act quickly in the matter." And the Levites did not act quickly.[l] 6 So the king called Je·hoi'a·da the head and said to him:[m] "Why is it that you have not required an account of the Levites for bringing in from Judah and Jerusalem the sacred tax ordered by Moses[n] the servant of Jehovah, even that of the congregation of Israel, for the tent of the Testimony?[o] 7 For as regards Ath·a·li'ah the wicked woman, her sons[p] themselves had broken into the house of the [true] God,[q] and even all the holy[r] things of the house of Jehovah they had rendered up to the Ba'als."[s] 8 Then the king said [the word], and so they made a chest[t] and put it outside at the gate of the house of Jehovah. 9 After that they issued a call throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the sacred tax[u] ordered by Moses[v] the servant of the [true] God upon Israel in the wilderness. 10 And all the princes[w] and all the people began to rejoice,[x] and they kept bringing and casting it into the chest[a] until they all had given.

11 And it came about at the proper time he would bring the chest to the care of the king by the hand of the Levites,[b] and, as soon as they saw that there was plenty of money,[c] the secretary[d] of the king and the commissioner of the chief priest came and then emptied the chest and lifted it up and returned it to its place. That was the way they did from day to day, so that they gathered money in abundance. 12 Then the king and Je·hoi'a·da would give it to the doers[e] of the work of the service of Jehovah's house,[f] and they came to be hirers of the stonecutters[g] and of the craftsmen[h] for renovating Jehovah's house,[i] and also of the workers in iron and copper for repairing Jehovah's house.[j] 13 And the doers of the work began operations,[k] and the repair work kept advancing by their hand, and finally they made the house of the [true] God stand as it structurally should and made it strong. 14 And as soon as they had finished they brought before the king and Je·hoi'a·da the rest of the money, and they proceeded to make utensils for the house of Jehovah, utensils for the ministry[l] and for making offerings and cups[m] and utensils of gold[n] and of silver; and they came to be offerers of burnt sacrifices[o] in the house of Jehovah constantly all the days of Je·hoi'a·da.

15 And Je·hoi'a·da got to be old and satisfied with years[p] and gradually died, being a hundred and thirty years old at his death. 16 So they buried him in the City of David along with the kings,[q] because he had done good in Israel[r] and with the [true] God and His house.

17 And after Je·hoi'a·da's death the princes[s] of Judah came in and proceeded to bow down to the king. At that time the king listened to them.[a] 18 And gradually they left the house of Jehovah the God of their forefathers and began serving the sacred poles[b] and the idols,[c] so that there came to be indignation against Judah and Jerusalem because of this guilt of theirs.[d] 19 And he kept sending prophets[e] among them to bring them back to Jehovah; and they kept bearing witness against them, but they did not give ear.[f]

20 And God's spirit[g] itself enveloped[h] Zech·a·ri'ah[i] the son of Je·hoi'a·da[j] the priest, so that he stood up above the people and said to them: "This is what the [true] God has said, 'Why are YOU overstepping the commandments of Jehovah, so that YOU cannot prove successful?[k] Because YOU have left Jehovah, he will, in turn, leave YOU.'"[l] 21 Finally they conspired against him[m] and pelted him with stones[n] at the king's commandment in the courtyard of Jehovah's house. 22 And Je·ho'ash the king did not remember the loving-kindness that Je·hoi'a·da his father had exercised toward him,[o] so that he killed his son, who, when he was at the point of dying, said: "Let Jehovah see to it and ask it back."[p]

23 And it came about at the turn[q] of the year a military force of Syria[r] came up against him,[s] and they began to invade Judah and Jerusalem. Then they brought all the princes[t] of the people to ruin from among the people, and all their spoil they sent to the king of Damascus.[u] 24 For it was with a small number of men that the military force of the Syrians made an invasion,[v] and Jehovah himself gave into their hand a military force of very great number,[w] because they had left Jehovah the God of their forefathers; and upon Je·ho'ash they executed acts of judgment.[x] 25 And when they went away from him (for they left him with many diseases),[a] his own servants conspired[b] against him because of the blood[c] of the sons of Je·hoi'a·da[d] the priest; and they got to kill him upon his own couch, so that he died.[e] Then they buried him in the City of David,[f] but they did not bury him in the burial places of the kings.[g]

26 And these were the conspirators against him: Za'bad[h] the son of Shim'e·ath the Am'mon·it·ess and Je·hoz'a·bad the son of Shim'rith the Mo'ab·i·tess. 27 As for his sons and the abundance of the pronouncement against him[i] and the founding[j] of the house of the [true] God, there they are written in the exposition of the Book[k] of the Kings. And Am·a·zi'ah[l] his son began to reign in place of him.

25 At the age of twenty-five years Am·a·zi'ah[m] became king, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je·ho·ad'dan[n] of Jerusalem. 2 And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes,[o] only not with a complete[p] heart. 3 And it came about that as soon as the kingdom had become strong upon him, he promptly killed[q] his servants[r] who had struck down the king his father.[s] 4 And their sons he did not put to death, but [did] according to what is written in the law, in the book of Moses,[t] that Jehovah commanded, saying: "Fathers should not die for sons,[u] neither should sons themselves die for fathers;[v] but it is each one for his own sin that they should die."[w]

5 And Am·a·zi'ah proceeded to collect Judah together and to have them stand according to the house of the forefathers,[a] by the chiefs of thousands[b] and by the chiefs of hundreds[c] for all Judah and Benjamin; and he went on to register them from twenty[d] years of age upward, and finally he found them [to be] three hundred thousand choice men going out to the army, handling lance[e] and large shield.[f] 6 Further, he hired from Israel a hundred thousand valiant, mighty men for a hundred silver talents. 7 And a certain man of the [true] God[g] came to him, saying: "O king, do not let the army of Israel come with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel,[h] [that is,] all the sons of E'phra·im. 8 But come you yourself, act, be courageous for the war.[i] The [true] God could cause you to stumble before an enemy; for there exists power with God to help[j] and to cause stumbling."[k] 9 At this Am·a·zi'ah[l] said to the man of the [true] God: "But what is there to do about the hundred talents that I have given to the troops of Israel?"[m] To this the man of the [true] God said: "There exists with Jehovah the means to give you much more than this."[n] 10 Accordingly Am·a·zi'ah separated them, namely, the troops that had come to him from E'phra·im, to go to their own place. However, their anger got very hot against Judah, so that they returned to their own place in the heat of anger.[o]

11 And Am·a·zi'ah, for his part, took courage and proceeded to lead his own people and go to the Valley of Salt;[p] and he went striking down the sons of Se'ir,[q] ten thousand [of them].[r] 12 And there were ten thousand that the sons of Judah captured alive. So they brought them to the top of the crag, and proceeded to throw them from the top of the crag; and they, one and all, burst apart.[s]

13 As for the members of the troop whom Am·a·zi'ah had sent back from going with him to the war,[a] they began making raids upon the cities of Judah, from Sa·mar'i·a[b] clear to Beth-ho'ron,[c] and went striking down three thousand of them and taking a great plunder.

14 But it occurred after Am·a·zi'ah came from striking down the E'dom·ites that he now brought the gods[d] of the sons of Se'ir and set them up for himself as gods,[e] and before them he began to bow down,[f] and to them he began to make sacrificial smoke.[g] 15 Consequently Jehovah's anger became hot against Am·a·zi'ah, and so he sent a prophet to him and said to him: "Why have you searched[h] for the people's gods[i] that did not deliver their own people out of your hand?"[j] 16 And it came about when he spoke to him that [the king] immediately said to him: "Was it a counselor of the king that we constituted you?[k] Quit for your own sake.[l] Why should they strike you down?" Accordingly the prophet quit, but he said: "I certainly know that God has resolved to bring you to ruin,[m] because you have done this[n] and you have not listened to my counsel."[o]

17 Then Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah took counsel and sent to Je·ho'ash the son of Je·ho'a·haz the son of Je'hu the king of Israel,[p] saying: "Come! Let us look each other in the face."[q] 18 At that Je·ho'ash the king of Israel sent to Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah, saying:[r] "The thorny weed itself that was in Leb'a·non[s] sent to the cedar that was in Leb'a·non, saying, 'Do give your daughter to my son as a wife.'[t] However, a wild beast[u] of the field that was in Leb'a·non passed by and trampled the thorny weed down. 19 You have said to yourself, Here you have struck down

E'dom.[a] And your heart[b] has lifted you up to be glorified.[c] Now do keep dwelling in your own house.[d] Why should you engage in strife in a bad position[e] and have to fall, you and Judah with you?"[f]

20 But Am·a·zi'ah did not listen; for it was from the [true] God[g] for the purpose of giving them into his hand, because they had searched for the gods of E'dom.[h] 21 So Je·ho'ash the king of Israel went up,[i] and they proceeded to look each other in the face,[j] he and Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah, at Beth-she'mesh,[k] which belongs to Judah. 22 And Judah came to be defeated before Israel,[l] so that they took to flight each one to his tent.[m] 23 And it was Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah, the son of Je·ho'ash the son of Je·ho'a·haz, that Je·ho'ash the king of Israel seized[n] at Beth-she'mesh, after which he brought him to Jerusalem[o] and made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem, from the Gate of E'phra·im[p] clear to the Corner Gate,[q] four hundred cubits. 24 And [he took] all the gold and the silver and all the articles that were to be found in the house of the [true] God with O'bed-e'dom[r] and the treasures of the king's house[s] and the hostages, and then returned to Sa·mar'i·a.[t]

25 And Am·a·zi'ah[u] the son of Je·ho'ash the king of Judah continued to live after the death of Je·ho'ash[v] the son of Je·ho'a·haz the king of Israel fifteen years.[w] 26 As for the rest of the affairs of Am·a·zi'ah, the first and the last,[x] look! are they not written in the Book[y] of the Kings of Judah and Israel?[z] 27 And from the time that Am·a·zi'ah turned aside from following Jehovah, they proceeded to form a conspiracy[a] against him in Jerusalem. At length he fled to La'chish;[b] but they sent after him to La'chish and put him to death there.[a] 28 So they carried him upon horses[b] and buried him with his forefathers in the city of Judah.[c]

26 Then all the people[d] of Judah took Uz·zi'ah,[e] he being sixteen years old, and they made[f] him king in place of his father Am·a·zi'ah.[g] 2 He it was that rebuilt E'loth[h] and then restored it to Judah after the king had lain down with his forefathers.[i] 3 Sixteen years old was Uz·zi'ah[j] when he began to reign, and for fifty-two years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je·co·li'ah[k] of Jerusalem. 4 And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,[l] according to all that Am·a·zi'ah his father had done.[m] 5 And he continually tended to search[n] for God in the days of Zech·a·ri'ah, the instructor in the fear of the [true] God;[o] and, in the days of his searching for Jehovah, the [true] God made him prosperous.[p]

6 And he proceeded to go out and fight against the Phi·lis'tines[q] and break through the wall of Gath[r] and the wall of Jab'neh[s] and the wall of Ash'dod,[t] after which he built cities in Ash'dod[u] [territory] and among the Phi·lis'tines. 7 And the [true] God continued to help[v] him against the Phi·lis'tines and against the Arabians[w] that were dwelling in Gur·ba'al and the Me·u'nim.[x] 8 And the Am'mon·ites[y] began to give tribute[z] to Uz·zi'ah. Eventually his fame[a] went even as far as Egypt, for he displayed strength to an extraordinary degree. 9 Moreover, Uz·zi'ah built towers[b] in Jerusalem by the Corner Gate[c] and by the Valley Gate[d] and by the Buttress, and made them strong.

10 Further, he built towers[a] in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns (for there was a great deal of livestock that became his), and also in the Shephe'lah[b] and on the tableland. There were farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Car'mel, for a lover of agriculture he proved to be.

11 Moreover, Uz·zi'ah came to have a force engaging in war, those going out on military service in troops,[c] by the number of their registration[d] by the hand of Je·i'el the secretary[e] and Ma·a·sei'ah the officer under the control[f] of Hana·ni'ah of the king's princes.[g] 12 The entire number of the heads of the paternal houses,[h] of the valiant,[i] mighty men,[j] was two thousand six hundred. 13 And under their control the army forces were three hundred and seven thousand five hundred men engaging in war with the power of a military force to help the king against the enemy.[k] 14 And Uz·zi'ah continued to prepare for them, for the entire army, shields[l] and lances[m] and helmets[n] and coats of mail[o] and bows[p] and slingstones.[q] 15 Further, he made in Jerusalem engines of war, the invention of engineers, that they might come to be upon the towers[r] and upon the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones. Consequently his fame[s] went out to a great distance, for he was helped wonderfully until he was strong.

16 However, as soon as he was strong, his heart became haughty[t] even to the point of causing ruin,[u] so that he acted unfaithfully against Jehovah his God and came into the temple of Jehovah to burn incense upon the altar of incense.[v] 17 Immediately Az·ari'ah the priest and with him priests of Jehovah, eighty valiant men, came in after him. 18 Then they stood up against Uz·zi'ah the king[a] and said to him: "It is not your business,[b] O Uz·zi'ah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but it is the business of the priests the sons of Aaron,[c] the ones sanctified, to burn incense. Go out from the sanctuary; for you have acted unfaithfully, and it is not for any glory[d] to you on the part of Jehovah God."

19 But Uz·zi'ah became enraged[e] while in his hand there was a censer[f] for burning incense, and, during his rage against the priests, leprosy[g] itself flashed up[h] in his forehead before the priests in the house of Jehovah beside the altar of incense. 20 When Az·a·ri'ah the chief priest and all the priests turned toward him, why, there he was stricken with leprosy in his forehead![i] So they excitedly began to remove him from there, and he himself also hastened to go out, because Jehovah had smitten him.[j]

21 And Uz·zi'ah[k] the king continued to be a leper until the day of his death, and he kept dwelling in a house exempt from duties, as a leper;[l] for he had been severed from the house of Jehovah, while Jo'tham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 And the rest of the affairs of Uz·zi'ah,[m] the first and the last, Isaiah[n] the son of A'moz[o] the prophet has written. 23 Finally Uz·zi'ah lay down with his forefathers; and so they buried him with his forefathers, [but] in the burial field that belonged to the kings,[p] for they said: "He is a leper." And Jo'tham[q] his son began to reign in place of him.

27 Twenty-five years old was Jo'tham[r] when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jeru'shah[s] the daughter of Za'dok.

2 And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,[a] according to all that Uz·zi'ah his father had done.[b] Only he did not invade the temple of Jehovah.[c] However, the people were yet acting ruinously.[d] 3 He himself built the upper gate[e] of Jehovah's house, and on the wall of O'phel[f] he did a great deal of building. 4 And cities[g] he built in the mountainous region of Judah,[h] and in the woodlands[i] he built fortified places[j] and towers.[k] 5 And he himself warred against the king of the sons of Am'mon[l] and eventually proved stronger than they were, so that the sons of Am'mon gave him in that year a hundred silver talents and ten thousand cor[m] measures of wheat[n] and ten thousand of barley.[o] This was what the sons of Am'mon paid to him, also in the second year and the third.[p] 6 So Jo'tham kept strengthening himself, for he prepared his ways before Jehovah his God.[q]

7 As for the rest of the affairs of Jo'tham[r] and all his wars and his ways, there they are written in the Book[s] of the Kings of Israel and of Judah. 8 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem.[t] 9 Finally Jo'tham lay down with his forefathers,[u] and they buried him in the City of David.[v] And A'haz[w] his son began to reign in place of him.

28 Twenty years old was A'haz[x] when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem,[y] and he did not do what was right in Jehovah's eyes like David his forefather.[z] 2 But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel,[a] and even molten[b] statues he made of the Ba'als.[c] 3 And he himself made sacrificial smoke[d] in the valley of the son of Hin'nom[e] and proceeded to burn up his sons[f] in the fire, according to the detestable[a] things of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel.[b] 4 And he regularly sacrificed[c] and made sacrificial smoke on the high places[d] and upon the hills[e] and under every sort of luxuriant tree.[f]

5 Consequently Jehovah his God gave him into the hand[g] of the king of Syria,[h] so that they struck him and carried off from him a great number of captives and brought them to Damascus.[i] And also into the hand of the king of Israel[j] he was given, so that he struck him with a great slaughter. 6 Accordingly Pe'kah[k] the son of Rem·a·li'ah[l] killed in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all valiant men, because of their leaving Jehovah[m] the God of their forefathers. 7 Further, Zich'ri, a mighty man of E'phra·im,[n] killed Ma·a·sei'ah the son of the king and Az·ri'kam the leader of the household and El·ka'nah the one next to the king. 8 Moreover, the sons of Israel took two hundred thousand of their brothers captive, women, sons and daughters; and also a great deal of spoil they took from them as plunder, after which they brought the spoil to Sa·mar'i·a.[o]

9 And there happened to be a prophet of Jehovah there whose name was O'ded. So he went out before the army that was coming to Sa·mar'i·a and said to them: "Look! It was because of the rage[p] of Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers against Judah that he gave them into YOUR hand, so that YOU did a killing among them with a raging[q] that has reached clear to the heavens.[r] 10 And now the sons of Judah and of Jerusalem

YOU are thinking of reducing to menservants[a] and maidservants for yourselves. Nevertheless, are there not with YOU yourselves cases of guilt against Jehovah YOUR God? 11 And now listen to me and return the captives that you have captured from YOUR brothers,[b] for Jehovah's burning anger is against YOU."[c]

12 At that [certain] men of the heads[d] of the sons of E'phra·im,[e] Az·a·ri'ah the son of Je·ho·ha'nan, Ber·e·chi'ah the son of Me·shil'le·moth and Je·hiz·ki'ah the son of Shal'lum and A·ma'sa the son of Had'lai, rose up against those coming in from the military campaign, 13 and they said to them: "YOU must not bring in the captives here, for it will result in guilt against Jehovah on our part. YOU are thinking of adding to our sins and to our guilt, for abundant is the guilt we have,[f] and there is burning anger[g] against Israel." 14 Accordingly the armed[h] men left the captives[i] and the plunder before the princes[j] and all the congregation. 15 Then the men that were designated by their names[k] rose up and took hold of the captives, and all their naked ones they clothed from the spoil. So they clothed them[l] and furnished them with sandals and fed them[m] and gave them drink[n] and greased them. Furthermore, in the case of anyone tottering, they gave them transportation[o] on the asses and brought them to Jer'i·cho,[p] the city of palm trees,[q] beside their brothers. After that they returned to Sa·mar'i·a.[r]

16 At that time King A'haz[s] sent to the kings of As·syr'i·a[t] for them to help him. 17 And once again the E'dom·ites[u] themselves came in and went striking down Judah and carrying off captives. 18 As for the Phi·lis'tines,[v] they made a raid upon the cities of the She·phe'lah[a] and the Neg'eb[b] of Judah and got to capture Beth-she'mesh[c] and Ai'ja·lon[d] and Ge·de'roth[e] and So'co[f] and its dependent towns and Tim'nah[g] and its dependent towns and Gim'zo and its dependent towns; and they took up dwelling there. 19 For Jehovah humbled[h] Judah on account of A'haz the king of Israel, because he let unrestraint grow in Judah,[i] and there was an acting with great unfaithfulness toward Jehovah.

20 Eventually Til'gath-pil·ne'ser[j] the king of As·syr'i·a came against him and caused him distress,[k] and did not strengthen him. 21 For A'haz stripped the house of Jehovah[l] and the house of the king[m] and of the princes[n] and thus made a gift to the king of As·syr'i·a;[o] but it was of no assistance to him. 22 However, at the time that he was causing him distress, he acted unfaithfully still more toward Jehovah, that is, King A'haz did.[p] 23 And he began to sacrifice to the gods[q] of Damascus[r] that were striking him, and he went on to say: "Because the gods of Syria are helping them,[s] to them I shall sacrifice, that they may help[t] me." And they themselves became to him a cause for making him and all Israel stumble.[u] 24 Furthermore, A'haz gathered together the utensils[v] of the house of the [true] God and cut to pieces the utensils of the house of the [true] God,[w] and closed the doors[x] of the house of Jehovah, and made altars for himself at every corner in Jerusalem.[y] 25 And in all cities, even the cities of Judah, he made high places[z] for making sacrificial smoke to other gods,[a] so that he offended[b] Jehovah the God of his forefathers.

26 As for the rest of his affairs[a] and all his ways, the first and the last, there they are written in the Book[b] of the Kings of Judah and of Israel. 27 Finally A'haz lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the burial places of the kings of Israel.[c] And Hez·e·ki'ah his son began to reign in place of him.

29 Hez·e·ki'ah[d] himself became king at the age of twenty-five years, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A·bi'jah the daughter of Zech·a·ri'ah.[e] 2 And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,[f] according to all that David his forefather had done.[g] 3 He himself, in the first year of his reigning, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of Jehovah and began to repair them.[h] 4 Then he brought the priests and the Levites and gathered them to the open place[i] to the east. 5 And he proceeded to say to them: "Listen to me, YOU Levites. Now sanctify[j] yourselves and sanctify the house of Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers, and bring the impure thing out from the holy place.[k] 6 For our fathers have acted unfaithfully[l] and have done what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah our God,[m] so that they left him[n] and turned around their face away from the tabernacle of Jehovah[o] and offered the back of the neck. 7 They also closed the doors[p] of the porch and kept the lamps extinguished,[q] and incense they did not burn,[r] and burnt sacrifice they did not offer up in the holy place to the God of Israel.[s] 8 And Jehovah's indignation[t] came to be against Judah and Jerusalem, so that he constituted them an object at which to quake,[u] an object of astonishment[v] and a cause for whistling,[a] just as YOU are seeing with YOUR own eyes. 9 And here our forefathers fell by the sword,[b] and our sons and our daughters and our wives were in captivity for this.[c] 10 Now it is close to my heart to conclude a covenant[d] with Jehovah the God of Israel, that his burning anger may turn back from us. 11 Now, my sons, do not give yourselves up to rest,[e] for YOU are the ones whom Jehovah has chosen to stand before him to minister to him[f] and to continue as his ministers[g] and makers of sacrificial smoke."[h]

12 At that the Levites[i] rose up, Ma'hath the son of A·ma'sai and Joel the son of Az·a·ri'ah of the sons of the Ko'hath·ites;[j] and from the sons of Me·rar'i,[k] Kish the son of Ab'di and Az·a·ri'ah the son of Je·hal'le·lel; and from the Ger'shon·ites,[l] Jo'ah the son of Zim'mah and E'den the son of Jo'ah; 13 and from the sons of E·li·za'phan,[m] Shim'ri and Je·u'el; and from the sons of A'saph,[n] Zech·a·ri'ah and Mat·ta·ni'ah; 14 and from the sons of He'man,[o] Je·hi'el and Shim'e·i; and from the sons of Je·du'thun,[p] She·mai'ah and Uz'zi·el. 15 Then they gathered their brothers together and sanctified[q] themselves and came according to the king's commandment in the words[r] of Jehovah, to cleanse[s] the house of Jehovah. 16 The priests now came inside the house of Jehovah to do the cleansing and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah to the courtyard[t] of the house of Jehovah. In turn the Levites received it to take it out to the torrent valley of Kid'ron[u] outside. 17 Thus they got started on the first [day] of the first month at sanctifying, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch[v] of Jehovah; so that they sanctified the house of Jehovah in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first[a] month they finished.

18 After that they came inside to Hez·e·ki'ah the king and said: "We have cleansed the whole house of Jehovah, the altar[b] of burnt offering and all its utensils,[c] and the table[d] of the layer bread and all its utensils.[e] 19 And all the utensils[f] that King A'haz[g] removed from employment during his reign in his unfaithfulness[h] we have prepared, and have sanctified[i] them; and there they are before the altar of Jehovah."

20 And Hez·e·ki'ah[j] the king proceeded to get up early[k] and gather the princes[l] of the city together and go up to the house of Jehovah. 21 And they came bringing seven bulls[m] and seven rams and seven male lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering[n] for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. So he said to the sons of Aaron the priests[o] to offer them up upon the altar of Jehovah. 22 Accordingly they slaughtered[p] the cattle and the priests received the blood[q] and sprinkled[r] it upon the altar; after which they slaughtered the rams[s] and sprinkled the blood[t] upon the altar, and they slaughtered the male lambs and sprinkled the blood upon the altar. 23 Then they brought the male goats[u] of the sin offering near before the king and the congregation and laid their hands upon them.[v] 24 The priests now slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood upon the altar, to make atonement for all Israel;[w] because it was for all Israel[x] that the king said the burnt offering and the sin offering [should[y] be].

25 Meantime, he had the Levites[z] stationed at the house of Jehovah, with cymbals,[a] with stringed instruments[b] and with harps,[c] by the commandment of David[a] and of Gad[b] the king's visionary and of Nathan[c] the prophet, for it was by the hand of Jehovah that the commandment was by means of his prophets.[d] 26 So the Levites kept standing with the instruments[e] of David, and also the priests with the trumpets.[f]

27 Then Hez·e·ki'ah said to offer up the burnt sacrifice on the altar; and at the time that the burnt offering started, the songs[g] of Jehovah started and also the trumpets, even under the direction of the instruments of David the king of Israel. 28 And all the congregation were bowing[h] down while the song was resounding[i] and the trumpets were blaring—all this until the burnt offering was finished. 29 And as soon as they finished offering it up, the king and all those found with him bowed low and prostrated themselves.[j] 30 Hez·e·ki'ah the king and the princes[k] now said to the Levites to praise Jehovah in the words of David[l] and of A'saph[m] the visionary. So they began to offer praise even with rejoicing,[n] and they kept bending down and prostrating themselves.[o]

31 Finally Hez·e·ki'ah answered and said: "Now YOU have filled[p] YOUR hand with power for Jehovah. Approach, and bring sacrifices[q] and thanksgiving[r] sacrifices to the house of Jehovah." And the congregation began to bring sacrifices and thanksgiving sacrifices,[s] and also every one willing of heart, burnt offerings. 32 And the number of the burnt offerings that the congregation brought came to be seventy cattle, a hundred rams, two hundred male lambs—all these as a burnt offering to Jehovah;[t] 33 and also the holy offerings, six hundred cattle and three thousand of the flock. 34 Only the priests[a] themselves happened to be too few, and they were not able to skin all the burnt offerings.[b] So their brothers[c] the Levites helped them out until the work was finished[d] and until the priests could sanctify themselves, for the Levites[e] were more upright[f] of heart for sanctifying themselves than the priests. 35 And, too, the burnt offerings[g] were in great quantity with the fat[h] pieces of the communion[i] sacrifices and with the drink[j] offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of Jehovah was prepared.[k] 36 Consequently Hez·e·ki'ah and all the people rejoiced over the fact that the [true] God had made preparation for the people,[l] because it was all of a sudden that the thing had occurred.[m]

30 And Hez·e·ki'ah proceeded to send to all Israel[n] and Judah, and even letters he wrote to E'phra·im[o] and Ma·nas'seh,[p] to come to the house of Jehovah[q] in Jerusalem to hold the passover[r] to Jehovah the God of Israel. 2 However, the king and his princes[s] and all the congregation[t] in Jerusalem resolved to hold the passover in the second month;[u] 3 for they had not been able to hold it at that time,[v] because not enough priests,[w] on the one hand, had sanctified themselves and the people, on the other hand, had not gathered themselves to Jerusalem. 4 And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and in the eyes of all the congregation.[x] 5 So they decided to have the call[y] pass through all Israel, from Be'er-she'ba[z] to Dan,[a] to come and hold the passover to Jehovah the God of Israel at Jerusalem; for it was not as a multitude that they had done so[b] according to what is written.[c]

6 Accordingly the runners[d] with the letters from the hand of the king and of his princes[a] went throughout all Israel and Judah, even according to the commandment of the king, saying: "YOU sons of Israel, return[b] to Jehovah the God[c] of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to the escaped[d] ones that are left of YOU out of the palm of the kings of As·syr'i·a.[e] 7 And do not become like YOUR forefathers[f] and like YOUR brothers that acted unfaithfully toward Jehovah the God of their forefathers, so that he constituted them an object of astonishment,[g] just as YOU are seeing. 8 Now do not stiffen YOUR neck[h] as YOUR forefathers did. Give place to Jehovah[i] and come to his sanctuary[j] that he has sanctified[k] to time indefinite and serve[l] Jehovah YOUR God, that his burning anger[m] may turn back from YOU. 9 For when YOU return[n] to Jehovah, YOUR brothers and YOUR sons will be objects of mercy[o] before those holding them captive, and be allowed to return to this land;[p] for Jehovah YOUR God is gracious[q] and merciful,[r] and he will not turn away the face from YOU if YOU return to him."[s]

10 So the runners[t] continued on, passing along from city to city throughout the land of E'phra·im[u] and Ma·nas'seh, even to Zeb'u·lun; but they were continually speaking in mockery of them and deriding them.[v] 11 Only individuals[w] from Ash'er and Ma·nas'seh and from Zeb'u·lun humbled[x] themselves so that they came to Jerusalem. 12 The hand of the [true] God proved to be also in Judah to give them one heart[y] to perform the commandment[z] of the king and the princes in the matter of Jehovah.[a]

gather themselves together at Jerusalem,[a] a numerous people, to hold the festival[b] of the unfermented cakes in the second[c] month, a congregation very multitudinous. 14 Then they rose up and removed the altars[d] that were in Jerusalem, and all the incense altars[e] they removed and then threw [them] into the torrent valley of Kid'ron.[f] 15 After that they slaughtered the passover[g] victim on the fourteenth [day] of the second month; and the priests and the Levites themselves had been humiliated, so that they sanctified[h] themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of Jehovah. 16 And they kept standing[i] at their place according to their rule, according to the law of Moses the man of the [true] God, the priests[j] sprinkling the blood received from the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the congregation that had not sanctified themselves; and the Levites[k] were in charge of slaughtering the passover victims[l] for all that were not clean, to sanctify them to Jehovah. 18 For there was a great number of the people, many from E'phra·im[m] and Ma·nas'seh,[n] Is'sa·char and Zeb'u·lun,[o] that had not cleansed[p] themselves, for they did not eat the passover according to what is written;[q] but Hez·e·ki'ah prayed for them,[r] saying: "May the good[s] Jehovah himself make allowance for 19 every one that has prepared his heart[t] to search for the [true] God, Jehovah, the God of his forefathers, though without the purification for what is holy."[u] 20 Accordingly Jehovah listened to Hez·e·ki'ah and healed the people.[v]

21 So the sons of Israel that were found in Jerusalem held the festival[w] of the unfermented cakes seven days with great rejoicing;[x] and the Levites[y] and the priests[a] were offering praise to Jehovah day by day with loud instruments, even to Jehovah.[b] 22 Moreover, Hez·e·ki'ah spoke to the heart[c] of all the Levites who were acting with fine discretion toward Jehovah.[d] And they proceeded to eat the appointed feast for seven days,[e] sacrificing communion sacrifices[f] and making confession[g] to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

23 Then all the congregation decided[h] to hold it for seven more days,[i] and so they held it for seven days with rejoicing. 24 For Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah himself contributed[j] for the congregation a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the princes[k] themselves contributed for the congregation a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and priests[l] kept sanctifying themselves in great number. 25 And all the congregation of Judah[m] and the priests and the Levites[n] and all the congregation that came from Israel[o] and the alien residents[p] that came from the land of Israel[q] and those dwelling in Judah continued rejoicing.[r] 26 And there came to be great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for from the days of Sol'o·mon[s] the son of David the king of Israel there was none like this in Jerusalem.[t] 27 Finally the priests, the Levites, stood up and blessed[u] the people; and a hearing was granted to their voice, so that their prayer came to his holy dwelling, the heavens.[v]

31 And as soon as they finished all this, all the Israelites[w] that were found [there] went out to the cities of Judah,[x] and they proceeded to break up the sacred pillars[y] and cut down the sacred poles[z] and pull down the high places[a] and the altars[b] out of all Judah[c] and Benjamin and in E'phra·im[a] and Ma·nas'seh[b] until they had finished; after which all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each one to his own possession.

2 Then Hez·e·ki'ah set the divisions[c] of the priests and of the Levites[d] in their divisions, each one in accordance with its service for the priests[e] and for the Levites[f] as regards the burnt offering[g] and the communion sacrifices[h] to minister[i] and to give thanks[j] and praise[k] in the gates of the camps of Jehovah. 3 And there was a portion of the king from his own goods[l] for the burnt offerings,[m] for the burnt offerings of the morning[n] and the evening, and also the burnt offerings for the sabbaths[o] and for the new moons[p] and for the festival seasons,[q] according to what is written in the law of Jehovah.[r]

4 Furthermore, he said to the people, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to give the portion of the priests[s] and of the Levites,[t] in order that they might adhere[u] strictly to the law of Jehovah.[v] 5 And as soon as the word broke forth, the sons of Israel[w] increased the firstfruits of the grain,[x] new wine,[y] and oil[z] and honey[a] and all the produce of the field,[b] and the tenth of everything they brought in abundantly.[c] 6 And the sons of Israel and of Judah that were dwelling in the cities of Judah,[d] even they themselves [brought in] the tenth of cattle and sheep and the tenth of the holy things,[e] the things sanctified to Jehovah their God. They brought in and so gave heaps upon heaps. 7 In the third[f] month they started the heaps by laying the lowest layer, and in the seventh[g] month they finished. 8 When Hez·e·ki'ah and the princes[h] came and saw the heaps, they proceeded to bless[i] Jehovah and his people Israel.[j]

9 In time Hez·e·ki'ah inquired of the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.[a] 10 Then Az·a·ri'ah[b] the chief priest of the house of Za'dok[c] said to him, yes, he said: "From the time they started to bring the contribution[d] into the house of Jehovah there has been an eating and getting satisfied[e] and having a surplus in abundance;[f] for Jehovah himself has blessed his people,[g] and what has been left over is this great plenty."

11 At this Hez·e·ki'ah said to prepare dining rooms[h] in the house of Jehovah. Accordingly they prepared [them]. 12 And they kept bringing in the contribution[i] and the tenth[j] and the holy things in faithfulness;[k] and Con·a·ni'ah the Levite was in charge of them as leader, and Shim'e·i his brother was second. 13 And Je·hi'el and Az·a·zi'ah and Na'hath and As'a·hel and Jer'i·moth and Jo'za·bad and E'li·el and Is·ma·chi'ah and Ma'hath and Be·nai'ah were commissioners at the side of Con·a·ni'ah and Shim'e·i his brother, by the order of Hez·e·ki'ah the king, and Az·a·ri'ah[l] was the leading one of the house of the [true] God. 14 And Ko're the son of Im'nah the Levite was the gatekeeper[m] to the east,[n] in charge of the voluntary[o] offerings of the [true] God, to give Jehovah's contribution[p] and the most holy things.[q] 15 And under his control there were E'den and Mi·ni'a·min and Jesh'u·a and She·mai'ah, Am·a·ri'ah and Shec·a·ni'ah, in the cities of the priests,[r] in office of trust,[s] to give to their brothers in the divisions,[t] equally to great and small;[u] 16 apart from their genealogical[v] enrollment of the males from three years of age upward,[w] of all those coming to the house of Jehovah as a daily matter of course, for their service by their obligations according to their divisions.

17 This is the genealogical enrollment of the priests by the house of their fathers[a] and also of the Levites,[b] from the age of twenty[c] years upward, by their obligations in their divisions;[d] 18 both for the genealogical enrollment among all their little ones, their wives and their sons and their daughters, for all the congregation, because in their office of trust[e] they proceeded to sanctify[f] themselves for what was holy; 19 and for the sons of Aaron,[g] the priests, in the fields[h] of pasture ground of their cities. In all the different cities there were men that had been designated by [their] names, to give portions to every male among the priests and to the entire genealogical enrollment among the Levites.

20 And Hez·e·ki'ah proceeded to do like this in all Judah, and he continued to do what was good[i] and right[j] and faithful[k] before Jehovah his God. 21 And in every work that he started in the service[l] of the house of the [true] God and in the law[m] and in the commandment to search[n] for his God, it was with all his heart[o] that he acted, and he proved successful.[p]

32 After these things and this faithful course[q] Sen·nach'er·ib[r] the king of As·syr'i·a[s] came and proceeded to invade Judah and camp against the fortified cities,[t] and kept thinking of making them his by a breakthrough.

2 When Hez·e·ki'ah saw that Sen·nach'er·ib had come with his face[u] set for war against Jerusalem, 3 then he decided with his princes[v] and his mighty men to stop up the waters of the springs that were outside the city;[w] and so they helped him. 4 Accordingly many people were collected together, and they went stopping up all the fountains and the torrent[x] that floods through the middle of the land, saying: "Why should the kings of As·syr'i·a come and actually find a great deal of water?"

5 Furthermore, he took courage and built up all the broken-down wall[a] and raised towers[b] upon it, and on the outside another wall,[c] and repaired the Mound[d] of the City of David, and made missiles[e] in abundance and shields.[f] 6 And he proceeded to put military chiefs[g] over the people and collect them to him at the public square[h] of the gate of the city and speak to the heart[i] of them, saying: 7 "Be courageous and strong.[j] Do not be afraid[k] nor be terrified[l] because of the king of As·syr'i·a[m] and on account of all the crowd that is with him;[n] for with us there are more than there are with him. 8 With him there is an arm of flesh,[o] but with us there is Jehovah our God to help us[p] and to fight our battles."[q] And the people began to brace themselves upon the words of Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah.[r]

9 It was after this that Sen·nach'er·ib[s] the king of As·syr'i·a sent his servants to Jerusalem, while he was at La'chish[t] and all his imperial might with him,[u] to Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah and to all the Ju·de'ans that were in Jerusalem, saying:

10 "This is what Sen·nach'er·ib the king of As·syr'i·a has said,[v] 'In what is it that YOU are trusting while sitting quiet under siege in Jerusalem?[w] 11 Is not Hez·e·ki'ah[x] alluring[y] YOU so as to give YOU over to die by famine and by thirst, saying: "Jehovah our God himself will deliver us out of the palm of the king of As·syr'i·a"?[z] 12 Is it not Hez·e·ki'ah himself that removed his high places[a] and his altars[b] and then said to Judah and to Jerusalem: "Before one altar[a] YOU should bow[b] and upon it YOU should make sacrificial smoke"?[c] 13 Do YOU not know what I myself and my forefathers did to all the peoples of the lands?[d] Did the gods[e] of the nations of the lands at all prove able to deliver their land out of my hand? 14 Who was there among all the gods of these nations that my forefathers devoted to destruction that proved able to deliver his people out of my hand, so that YOUR God should be able to deliver YOU out of my hand?[f] 15 And now do not let Hez·e·ki'ah deceive YOU[g] or allure[h] YOU like this and do not put faith in him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand and out of the hand of my forefathers. How much less, then, will YOUR own God deliver YOU out of my hand?' "[i]

16 And his servants spoke yet further against Jehovah the [true] God[j] and against Hez·e·ki'ah his servant. 17 Even letters he wrote[k] to reproach Jehovah the God of Israel[l] and to talk against him, saying: "Like the gods[m] of the nations of the lands who did not deliver their people out of my hand,[n] so the God of Hez·e·ki'ah will not deliver his people out of my hand." 18 And they[o] kept calling with a loud voice[p] in the Jews'[q] language to the people of Jerusalem that were upon the wall, to make them afraid[r] and to disturb them, in order that they might capture the city. 19 And they went on speaking against[s] the God of Jerusalem[t] the same way as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of man's hands.[u] 20 But Hez·e·ki'ah[v] the king and Isaiah[w] the son of A'moz,[x] the prophet,[y] kept praying over this[z] and crying to the heavens for aid.[a]

21 And Jehovah proceeded to send an angel[b] and efface every valiant, mighty man[a] and leader and chief in the camp of the king of As·syr'i·a,[b] so that he went back with shame of face to his own land. Later on he entered the house of his god and there certain ones that had come out of his own inward parts felled him with the sword.[c] 22 Thus Jehovah saved Hez·e·ki'ah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of the hand of Sen·nach'er·ib the king of As·syr'i·a[d] and out of the hand of all others and gave them rest all around.[e] 23 And there were many bringing gifts[f] to Jehovah at Jerusalem and choice things to Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah,[g] and he came to be exalted[h] in the eyes of all the nations after that.

24 In those days Hez·e·ki'ah fell sick to the point of dying,[i] and he began to pray[j] to Jehovah. So He talked to him,[k] and a portent[l] He gave him. 25 But according to the benefit rendered him Hez·e·ki'ah made no return,[m] for his heart became haughty[n] and there came to be indignation[o] against him and against Judah and Jerusalem. 26 However, Hez·e·ki'ah humbled[p] himself for the haughtiness of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Jehovah's indignation did not come upon them in the days[q] of Hez·e·ki'ah.

27 And Hez·e·ki'ah came to have riches and glory to a very great amount;[r] and storehouses he made for himself for silver and for gold[s] and for precious stones[t] and for balsam oil[u] and for shields[v] and for all the desirable articles;[w] 28 and also storage[x] places for the produce of grain and new wine[y] and oil, and also stalls[z] for all the different sorts of beasts and stalls for the droves. 29 And cities he acquired for himself, and also livestock of the flock[a] and of the herd[b] in abundance; for God gave him very many goods.[c] 30 And Hez·e·ki′ah was the one that stopped up[d] the upper source of the waters[e] of Gi′hon[f] and kept them directed straight along down to the west to the City of David,[g] and Hez·e·ki′ah continued to prove successful in every work of his.[h] 31 And thus it was that by the spokesmen of the princes of Babylon[i] that were sent to him[j] to inquire about the portent[k] that had happened in the land, the [true] God left him[l] to put him to the test,[m] to get to know everything in his heart.[n] 32 As for the rest of the affairs[o] of Hez·e·ki′ah and his acts of loving-kindness,[p] there they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of A′moz,[q] in the Book[r] of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

33 Finally Hez·e·ki′ah lay down with his forefathers,[s] and they buried him in the ascent to the burial places of the sons of David;[t] and honor was what all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem rendered to him at his death.[u] And Ma·nas′seh[v] his son began to reign in place
of him.

33 Twelve years old was Manas′seh[w]
when he began to reign, and for fifty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem.[x]
2 And he proceeded to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,[y] according to the detestable[z] things of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel.[a] 3 So he built again the high places[b] that Hez·e·ki′ah his father had pulled down,[c] and set up altars[d]
to the Ba′als[e] and made sacred poles,[f] and he began to bow[g] down to all the army of the heavens[h] and serve them.[i] 4 And he built altars[j] in the house of Jehovah, respecting which Jehovah had said: "In Jerusalem
my name will prove to be to time indefinite."[a] 5 And he went on to build altars to all the army of the heavens[b] in two courtyards[c] of the house of Jehovah.[d] 6 And he himself made his own sons pass through the fire[e] in the valley of the son of Hin′nom,[f] and practiced magic[g] and used divination[h] and practiced sorcery[i]
and made spiritistic mediums[j] and professional foretellers[k] of events. He did on a grand scale what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, to offend him.[l] 7 Furthermore, he put the carved image[m] that he had made in the house of the [true]
God,[n] respecting which God had said to David and to Sol′o·mon his son: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen[o] out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name[p] to time indefinite.[q] 8 And I shall not remove the foot of Israel again from off the ground that I assigned[r] to their forefathers,[s] provided only that they take care to do all that I have commanded them[t] concerning all the law[u] and the regulations[v] and the judicial decisions[w] by the hand of Moses."[x] 9 And Ma·nas′seh[y] kept seducing Judah[z] and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do worse[a] than the nations that Jehovah had annihilated from before the sons of Israel.[b]
10 And Jehovah kept speaking to Ma·nas′seh and his people, but they paid no attention.[c] 11 Finally Jehovah brought against them[d] the chiefs of the army that belonged to the king of As·syr′i·a,[e] and so they captured Ma·nas′seh in the hollows[f] and bound[g] him with two fetters of copper and took him to Babylon. 12 And as soon as it caused him distress,[a] he softened the face of Jehovah his God[b] and kept humbling[c] himself greatly because of the God of his forefathers. 13 And he kept praying to Him, so that He let himself be entreated[d] by him and He heard his request for favor and restored him to Jerusalem to his kingship;[e] and Ma·nas′seh came to know that Jehovah is the [true] God.[f] 14 And after this he built an outer[g] wall for the City of David[h] to the west of Gi′hon[i] in the torrent valley and as far as the Fish Gate,[j] and he ran [it] around to O′phel[k] and proceeded to make it very high.

Further, he put chiefs of the military force in all the fortified cities in Judah.[l] 15 And he proceeded to remove the foreign gods[m] and the idol image[n] from the house of Jehovah and all the altars[o] that he had built in the mountain of the house of Jehovah and in Jerusalem and then had them thrown outside the city.
16 Moreover, he prepared the altar of Jehovah[p] and began to sacrifice upon it communion sacrifices[q] and thanksgiving sacrifices[r] and went on to say to Judah to serve Jehovah the God of Israel.[s] 17 Nevertheless, the people were still sacrificing upon the high places;[t]
only it was to Jehovah their God.
18 As for the rest of the affairs of Ma·nas′seh and his prayer[u] to his God and the words of the visionaries[v] that kept speaking to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, there they are among the affairs of the kings of Israel.[w] 19 As for his prayer[x] and how his entreaty[y] was granted him and all his sin[z] and his unfaithfulness[a] and the locations in which he built high places[b] and set up the sacred poles[c] and the graven images[d] before he humbled[e] himself, there they are written among the words of his visionaries. 20 Finally Ma·nas′seh lay down with his forefathers,[a] and they buried[b] him at his house; and A′mon[c]
his son began to reign in place
of him.
21 Twenty-two years old was
A′mon[d] when he began to reign, and for two years he reigned in Jerusalem.[e] 22 And he proceeded to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,[f] just as Ma·nas′seh his father had done;[g] and to all the graven images[h] that Ma·nas′seh[i] his father had made A′mon sacrificed,[j] and he continued serving them.[k] 23 And he did not humble[l] himself because of Jehovah the same as Ma·nas′seh his father humbled himself,[m] for A′mon was one that made guiltiness increase.[n] 24 Finally his servants conspired[o] against him and put him to death in his own house.[p] 25 But the people of the land struck down[q] all the conspirators[r] against King A′mon,[s] and the people[t] of the land then made Jo·si′ah[u] his son king in place of him.

34 Eight[v] years old was Josi′ah[w]
when he began to reign, and for thirty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem.[x] 2 And he proceeded to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes[y] and walk in the ways of David his forefather;[z] and he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.[a] 3 And in the eighth year of his reigning, while he was still a boy,[b] he started to search[c] for the God of David his forefather;
and in the twelfth year he started to cleanse[d] Judah and Jerusalem from the high places[e] and the sacred poles[f] and the graven images[g] and the molten statues. 4 Further, they pulled down before him the altars[a] of the Ba'als;[b] and the incense stands[c] that were up above he cut down from off them; and the sacred poles[d] and the graven images[e] and the molten statues he broke in pieces and reduced to powder,[f] and then sprinkled [it] upon the surface of the burial places of those that used to sacrifice to them.[g] 5 And the bones[h] of priests he burned upon their altars.[i] Thus he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 Also, in the cities of Ma·nas'seh[j]
and E'phra·im[k] and Sim'e·on and clear to Naph'ta·li, in their devastated places all around, 7 he even went pulling down the altars[l] and the sacred poles,[m] and the graven images[n] he crushed and reduced to powder;[o] and all the incense stands[p] he cut down in all the land of Israel, after which he returned to Jerusalem.

8 And in the eighteenth[q] year of his reigning, when he had cleansed the land and the house, he sent Sha'phan[r] the son of Az·a·li'ah and Ma·a·sei'ah
the chief of the city and Jo'ah
the son of Jo'a·haz the recorder to repair[s] the house of Jehovah his God. 9 And they proceeded to come to Hil·ki'ah[t] the high priest and give the money that was being brought to the house of God, which the Levites the doorkeepers[u] had gathered from the hand of Ma·nas'seh[v] and E'phra·im[w] and from all the rest of Israel[x] and from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
10 Then they put [it] into the hand of the doers of the work that were appointed over the house of Jehovah.[y] In turn the doers of the work who were active in the house of Jehovah applied it to mending and repairing the house. 11 So they gave it to the craftsmen and the builders[z] to buy hewn stones[a] and timbers for clamps and to build with beams the houses that the kings[a] of Judah had brought to ruin.

12 And the men were acting in faithfulness[b] in the work;
and over them there were appointed Ja'hath and O·ba·di'ah
the Levites, from the sons of Me·rar'i,[c] and Zech·a·ri'ah and Me·shul'lam, from the sons of the Ko'hath·ites,[d] to act as overseers.
And the Levites, each of whom was expert with the instruments of song,[e] 13 were over the burden bearers,[f] and the overseers[g] of all the doers of the work for the different services; and from the Levites[h] there were secretaries[i] and officers and gatekeepers.[j]

14 Now while they were bringing out the money[k] that was being brought to the house of Jehovah, Hil·ki'ah[l] the priest found the book[m] of Jehovah's law[n] by the hand of Moses.[o] 15 So Hil·ki'ah answered and said to Sha'phan[p] the secretary:
"The very book of the law I have found in the house of Jehovah." With that Hil·ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan.
16 Then Sha'phan brought the book to the king and replied further to the king, saying:
"All that has been put in the hand of your servants they are doing. 17 And they pour out the money that is found in the house of Jehovah and put it in the hand of the appointed men and into the hand of the doers of the work."[q] 18 And Sha'phan the secretary went on to report to the king, saying:
"There is a book[r] that Hil·ki'ah the priest gave me."[s] And Sha'phan began to read out of it before the king.[t]

19 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words of the law, he immediately ripped his garments apart.[u] 20 Then the king commanded Hil·ki'ah[v] and A·hi'kam[w] the son of Sha'phan and Ab'don
the son of Mi'cah and Sha'phan[x]
the secretary[y] and A·sai'ah[a]
the king's servant, saying: 21 "Go, inquire[b] of Jehovah in my own behalf[c] and in behalf of what is left in Israel and in Judah concerning the words of the book[d] that has been found, for great is Jehovah's rage[e] that must be poured out against us because of the fact that our forefathers did not keep the word of Jehovah by doing according to all that is written in this book."[f]

22 Accordingly Hil·ki'ah along with those whom the king [had said] went to Hul'dah[g] the prophetess,[h] the wife of Shal'lum the son of Tik'vah the son of Har'has the caretaker[i] of the garments, as she was dwelling in Jerusalem in the second quarter; and they proceeded to speak to her like this. 23 In turn she said to them:

"This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'SAY to the man that sent YOU to me: 24 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am bringing calamity[j] upon this place and its inhabitants,[k] all the curses[l] that are written in the book that they read before the king of Judah,[m] 25 due to the fact that they have left me[n] and gone making sacrificial smoke to other gods,[o] in order to offend[p] me with all the doings of their hands[q] and that my rage[r] may pour forth upon this place and not be extinguished.'"[s] 26 And to the king of Judah, who is sending YOU to inquire of Jehovah, this is what YOU should say to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said,[t] 'As regards the words[u] that you have heard, 27 for the reason that your heart[v] was soft so that you humbled[w] yourself because of God at your hearing his words concerning this place and its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before me[x] and ripped[y]
your garments apart and wept before me, I, even I, have heard,[a]
is the utterance of Jehovah.
28 Here I am gathering you to your forefathers, and you will certainly be gathered to your graveyard in peace,[b] and your eyes will not look upon all the calamity[c] that I am bringing upon this place and its inhabitants.'"'"[d]

Then they brought the reply to the king. 29 And the king proceeded to send and gather all the older men of Judah and of Jerusalem.[e] 30 The king now went up to the house of Jehovah[f] with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests[g] and the Levites and all the people, the great as well as the small;
and he began to read[h] in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant, which had been found at the house of Jehovah.[i] 31 And the king kept standing in his place[j] and proceeded to conclude the covenant[k]
before Jehovah to go following Jehovah and to keep his commandments[l] and his testimonies[m]
and his regulations[n] with all his heart[o] and with all his soul,[p] to perform[q] the words of the covenant that were written in this book.[r] 32 Furthermore, he had all those who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to take their stand [to it]. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem proceeded to do according to the covenant of God,
the God of their forefathers.[s] 33 After that Jo·si'ah removed all the detestable[t] things out of all the lands that belonged to the sons of Israel,[u] and he had all who were found in Israel take up service, to serve Jehovah their God. All his days they did not turn aside from following Jehovah the God of their forefathers.[v]

35 Then Jo·si'ah[a] held in Jerusalem a passover[b] to Jehovah and they slaughtered the passover victim[c] on the fourteenth[d] day of the first[e] month. 2 So he stationed the priests over the things under their care[f] and encouraged[g] them in the service of the house of Jehovah.[h] 3 And he went on to say to the Levites, the instructors[i] of all Israel, those holy to Jehovah: "Put the holy[j] Ark in the house[k] that Sol'o·mon the son of David the king of Israel built; it is not YOURS as a burden upon the shoulder.[l] Now serve[m] Jehovah YOUR God and his people Israel. 4 And make preparation by the house of YOUR forefathers[n] according to YOUR divisions,[o] by the writing[p] of David the king of Israel and by the writing[q] of Sol'o·mon his son. 5 And stand[r] in the holy place by the classes of the house of the forefathers for YOUR brothers, the sons of the people, and the portion of a paternal[s] house belonging to the Levites.[t] 6 And slaughter the passover[u] victim and sanctify[v] yourselves and make preparation for YOUR brothers to do according to the word of Jehovah by means of Moses."[w]

7 Jo·si'ah now contributed to the sons of the people flocks, male lambs and male kids, the whole for the passover victims for all who were to be found, to the number of thirty thousand, and cattle, three thousand.[x] These were from the goods of the king.[y] 8 And his princes[z] themselves made a contribution as a voluntary offering for the people,[a] for the priests and for the Levites. Hil·ki'ah[b] and Zech·a·ri'ah and Je·hi'el themselves as leaders of the house of the [true] God gave to the priests for the passover victims two thousand six hundred, and three hundred cattle. 9 And Con·a·ni'ah and She·mai'ah and Ne·than'el his brothers and Hash·a·bi'ah and Je·i'el and Jo'za·bad, the chiefs of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for passover victims five thousand, and five hundred cattle.

10 And the service was prepared[a] and the priests kept standing[b] at their places,[c] and the Levites by their divisions,[d] according to the king's commandment.[e] 11 And they proceeded to slaughter the passover victim[f] and the priests[g] sprinkled[h] [the blood] from their hand, while the Levites were stripping the skins[i] off. 12 Further, they prepared the burnt offerings so as to give them to the classes[j] by the paternal[k] house, to the sons of the people, so as to make a presentation[l] to Jehovah according to what is written in the book of Moses;[m] and thus also with the cattle. 13 And they went boiling[n] the passover[o] offering over the fire according to the custom; and the things made holy they boiled[p] in cooking pots and in round-bottomed pots and in banquet bowls, after which they brought it quickly to all the sons of the people.[q] 14 And afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests,[r] because the priests the sons of Aaron were engaged in offering up the burnt sacrifices[s] and the fat[t] pieces until night, and the Levites, for their part, prepared[u] for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers[v] the sons of A'saph[w] were at their office according to the commandment of David[x] and of A'saph[y] and He'man[z] and of Je·du'thun[a] the visionary[b] of the king; and the gatekeepers[c] were at the different gates.[d] There was no need for them to turn aside from their service, because their brothers the Levites themselves prepared[a] for them. 16 And all the service of Jehovah was prepared on that day to hold the passover[b] and to offer up the burnt offerings upon the altar of Jehovah, according to the commandment of King Jo·si'ah.[c]

17 And the sons of Israel that were to be found proceeded to hold the passover[d] at that time and also the festival of the unfermented cakes for seven days.[e] 18 And there had never been held a passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet,[f] neither had any of the other kings[g] of Israel themselves held a passover like that which Jo·si'ah and the priests and the Levites and all Judah and Israel that were to be found and the inhabitants of Jerusalem held. 19 In the eighteenth year of Jo·si'ah's reign this passover was held.[h]

20 After all this when Jo·si'ah had prepared the house, Ne'cho[i] the king of Egypt[j] came up to fight at Car'che·mish[k] by the Eu·phra'tes. Then Jo·si'ah[l] went out to an encounter with him.[m] 21 At that he sent messengers to him, saying: "What do I have to do with you, O king of Judah? It is not against you that I am coming today, but it is against another house that my fight is and that God himself said that I should cause disturbance. Refrain for your own sake because of God, who is with me, and do not let him bring you to ruin."[n] 22 And Jo·si'ah did not turn his face away from him,[o] but to fight against him he disguised[p] himself and did not listen to the words of Ne'cho[q] from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the valley plain of Me·gid'do.[r]

23 And the shooters[s] got to shoot at King Jo·si'ah, so that the king said to his servants: "Take me down, for I have been very severely wounded."[a] 24 Accordingly his servants took him down from the chariot and had him ride in the second war chariot that was his and brought him to Jerusalem.[b] Thus he died[c] and was buried in the graveyard of his forefathers;[d] and all Judah and Jerusalem were mourning[e] over Jo·si'ah. 25 And Jeremiah[f] began to chant[g] over Jo·si'ah; and all the male singers and female[h] singers keep talking about Jo·si'ah in their dirges down till today; and they have them set as a regulation over Israel, and there they are written among the dirges.[i]

26 As for the rest of the affairs[j] of Jo·si'ah and his acts of loving-kindness,[k] according to what is written in the law[l] of Jehovah, 27 and his affairs, the first and the last,[m] there they are written in the Book[n] of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the people of the land took Je·ho'a·haz[o] the son of Jo·si'ah and made him king in the place of his father in Jerusalem.[p] 2 Twenty-three years old was Je·ho'a·haz when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem.[q] 3 However, the king of Egypt removed him in Jerusalem[r] and fined the land a hundred silver[s] talents and a gold talent. 4 Furthermore, the king[t] of Egypt made E·li'a·kim[u] his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed his name to Je·hoi'a·kim; but his brother Je·ho'a·haz, Ne'cho[v] took and brought to Egypt.[w]

5 Twenty-five years old was Je·hoi'a·kim[x] when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem;[y] and he continued to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah his God.[z] 6 Against him Neb·u·chad·nez'zar[a] the king of Babylon came up[b] that he might bind him with two fetters of copper to carry him off to Babylon.[a] 7 And some of the utensils[b] of the house of Jehovah Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[c] brought to Babylon and then put them in his palace in Babylon.[d] 8 As for the rest of the affairs[e] of Je·hoi′a·kim and his detestable[f] things that he did and what was to be found against him, there they are written in the Book[g] of the Kings of Israel and Judah; and Je·hoi′a·chin[h] his son began to reign in place of him.

9 Eighteen years old was Je·hoi′a·chin[i] when he began to reign, and for three months[j] and ten days he reigned in Jerusalem; and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[k] 10 And at the return[l] of the year King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar sent[m] and proceeded to bring him to Babylon[n] with desirable articles of the house of Jehovah.[o] Further, he made Zed·e·ki′ah[p] his [father's] brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.[q]

11 Twenty-one years old was Zed·e·ki′ah[r] when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem.[s] 12 And he continued to do what was bad[t] in the eyes of Jehovah his God. He did not humble[u] himself on account of Jeremiah[v] the prophet[w] at the order of Jehovah. 13 And even against King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar he rebelled,[x] who had made him swear by God;[y] and he kept stiffening[z] his neck and hardening[a] his heart so as not to return to Jehovah the God of Israel. 14 Even all the chiefs of the priests[b] and the people themselves committed unfaithfulness on a large scale, according to all the detestable[c] things of the nations, so that they defiled the house of Jehovah which he had sanctified in Jerusalem.[d]

15 And Jehovah the God of their forefathers kept sending against them by means of his messengers,[a] sending again and again, because he felt compassion for his people[b] and for his dwelling.[c] 16 But they were continually making jest[d] at the messengers of the [true] God and despising his words[e] and mocking[f] at his prophets, until the rage[g] of Jehovah came up against his people, until there was no healing.[h]

17 So he brought up against them the king of the Chal·de′ans,[i] who proceeded to kill their young men with the sword[j] in the house of their sanctuary,[k] neither did he feel compassion for young man or virgin, old or decrepit.[l] Everything He gave into his hand. 18 And all the utensils,[m] great[n] and small, of the house of the [true] God and the treasures[o] of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king[p] and of his princes, everything he brought to Babylon. 19 And he proceeded to burn the house of the [true] God[q] and pull down the wall[r] of Jerusalem; and all its dwelling towers they burned with fire and also all its desirable articles,[s] so as to cause ruin.[t] 20 Furthermore, he carried off those remaining from the sword captive to Babylon,[u] and they came to be servants to him[v] and his sons until the royalty of Persia[w] began to reign; 21 to fulfill Jehovah's word by the mouth of Jeremiah,[x] until the land had paid off its sabbaths.[y] All the days of lying desolated it kept sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.[z]

22 And in the first year of Cyrus[a] the king of Persia,[b] that Jehovah's word[c] by the mouth of Jeremiah[d] might be accomplished, Jehovah roused the spirit[e] of Cyrus[f] the king of

1 And in the first year of Cyrus[a] the king of Persia, that Jehovah's word from the mouth of Jeremiah[b] might be accomplished, Jehovah roused[c] the spirit of Cyrus the king of Persia so that he caused a cry[d] to pass through all his realm, and also in writing,[e] saying:

2 "This is what Cyrus the king of Persia has said,[f] 'All the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah the God of the heavens[g] has given me,[h] and he himself has commissioned me to build him a house in Jerusalem,[i] which is in Judah. 3 Whoever there is among YOU of all his people, may his God prove to be with him.[j] So let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of Jehovah the God of Israel—he is the [true] God[k]—which was in Jerusalem.[l] 4 As for anyone that is left from all the places where he is residing as an alien,[m] let the men of his place assist him with silver and with gold and with goods and with domestic animals along with the voluntary offering[n] for the house of the [true] God, which was in Jerusalem.'"

5 Then the heads[o] of the fathers of Judah and of Benjamin and the priests and the Levites rose up, even everyone whose spirit[p] the [true] God had roused, to go up and rebuild the house of Jehovah,[q] which was in Jerusalem. 6 As for all those round about them, they strengthened[a] their hands with utensils of silver, with gold, with goods and with domestic animals and with choice things, besides all that which was voluntarily offered.[b]

7 Also, King Cyrus himself brought forth the utensils of the house of Jehovah,[c] which Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had brought out from Jerusalem[d] and then put in the house of his god.[e] 8 And Cyrus the king of Persia proceeded to bring them forth under the control of Mith′re·dath the treasurer and to number them out to Shesh·baz′zar[f] the chieftain of Judah.[g]

9 Now these are the numbers of them: thirty basket-shaped vessels of gold, a thousand basket-shaped vessels of silver, twenty-nine replacement vessels, 10 thirty small bowls[h] of gold, four hundred and ten small secondary bowls of silver, a thousand other utensils. 11 All the utensils of gold and of silver were five thousand four hundred. Everything Shesh·baz′zar[i] brought up, along with the bringing up of the exiled[j] people out of Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 And these were the sons of the jurisdictional district[k] that went up out of the captivity of the exiled[l] people whom what is written[a] in the law of Moses the man of the [true] God.

3 So they established the altar firmly upon its own site,[b] for fright [came] upon them because of the peoples of the lands,[c] and they began offering up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah upon it, the burnt sacrifices of the morning and of the evening.[d] 4 Then they held the festival of booths[e] according to what is written,[f] with the burnt sacrifices day by day in number according to the rule of what was due each day.[g] 5 And afterward there was the constant burnt offering[h] and that for the new moons[i] and for all the sanctified festival[j] seasons of Jehovah and for everyone that willingly offered a voluntary[k] offering to Jehovah. 6 From the first day of the seventh month[l] on they started to offer up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah, when the foundation of Jehovah's temple itself had not yet been laid.

7 And they proceeded to give money[m] to the cutters[n] and to the craftsmen,[o] and eatables[p] and drink and oil[q] to the Si·do′ni·ans[r] and the Tyr′i·ans,[s] to bring cedar timbers from Leb′a·non[t] to the sea at Jop′pa,[u] according to the permission granted by Cyrus[v] the king of Persia to them.

8 And in the second year of their coming to the house of the [true] God at Jerusalem, in the second month,[w] Ze·rub′ba·bel[x] the son of She·al′ti·el[y] and Jesh′u·a[z] the son of Je·hoz′a·dak and the rest of their brothers, the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity[a] to Jerusalem started; and they now put in positions the Levites[b] from twenty years of age upward to act as supervisors over the work of the house of Jehovah.[c] 9 Accordingly Jesh′u·a,[d] his sons and his brothers, [and] Kad′mi·el and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood up as one group to act as supervisors over the doers of the work in the house of the [true] God, [also] the sons of Hen′a·dad,[a] their sons and their brothers, the Levites.

10 When the builders laid the foundation[b] of the temple of Jehovah, then the priests in official clothing,[c] with the trumpets,[d] and the Levites the sons of A′saph,[e] with the cymbals,[f] stood up to praise Jehovah according to the direction[g] of David the king of Israel. 11 And they began to respond by praising[h] and giving thanks to Jehovah, "for he is good,[i] for his loving-kindness toward Israel is to time indefinite."[j] As for all the people, they shouted with a loud shout[k] in praising Jehovah over the laying of the foundation of the house of Jehovah. 12 And many of the priests[l] and the Levites and the heads of the paternal[m] houses, the old men that had seen the former house,[n] were weeping[o] with a loud voice at the laying of the foundation[p] of this house before their eyes, while many others were raising the voice in shouting for joy.[q] 13 Hence the people were not distinguishing the sound of the shout of rejoicing[r] from the sound of the weeping of the people, for the people were shouting with a loud shout, and the sound itself was heard even to a great distance.

4 When the adversaries[s] of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the Exile[t] were building a temple to Jehovah the God of Israel, 2 they immediately approached Ze·rub′ba·bel[u] and the heads[v] of the paternal houses and said to them: "Let us build along with

YOU;[a] for, just like YOU, we search for YOUR God[b] and to him we are sacrificing since the days of E′sar-had′don[c] the king of As·syr′i·a, who brought us up here."[d] 3 However, Ze·rub′ba·bel and Jesh′u·a[e] and the rest of the heads[f] of the paternal houses of Israel said to them: "YOU have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God,[g] for we ourselves shall together build to Jehovah the God of Israel, just as King Cyrus[h] the king of Persia has commanded us."

4 At that the people of the land were continually weakening[i] the hands of the people of Judah and disheartening them from building,[j] 5 and hiring[k] counselors against them to frustrate their counsel all the days of Cyrus the king of Persia down till the reign of Da·ri′us[l] the king of Persia. 6 And in the reign of A·has·u·e′rus, at the start of his reign, they wrote an accusation[m] against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. 7 Also, in the days of Ar·ta·xerx′es, Bish′lam, Mith′re·dath, Tab′e·el and the rest of his colleagues wrote to Ar·ta·xerx′es the king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was written in Ar·a·ma′ic characters and translated into the Ar·a·ma′ic[n] language.

8 Re′hum the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Ar·ta·xerx′es the king, as follows: 9 Then Re′hum[o] the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues, the judges and the lesser governors across the River,[p] the secretaries,[q] the people of E′rech,[r] the Babylonians,[s] the inhabitants of Su′sa,[t] that is, the E′lam·ites,[u] 10 and the rest of the nations[v] whom the great and honorable As′e·nap·par[w] took into exile and settled in the cities of Sa·mar′i·a,[x] and the rest beyond the River, —; and now 11 this is a copy of the letter that they sent concerning it:

"To Ar·ta·xerx′es[a] the king your servants, the men beyond the River: And now 12 let it become known to the king that the Jews who came up here from you to us have come to Jerusalem. They are building the rebellious and bad city, and they proceed to finish the walls[b] and to repair the foundations. 13 Now let it become known to the king that, if this city should be rebuilt and its walls be finished, neither tax[c] nor tribute[d] nor toll[e] will they give, and it will cause loss to the treasuries[f] of the kings. 14 Now inasmuch as we do eat the salt of the palace, and it is not proper for us to see the denuding of the king, on this account we have sent and made [it] known to the king, 15 that there may be an investigation of the book of records[g] of your ancestors. Then you will find in the book of records and learn that that city is a city rebellious and causing loss to kings and jurisdictional districts, and within it there were movers of revolt from the days of old. For this reason that city has been laid waste.[h] 16 We are making known to the king that, if that city should be rebuilt and its walls be finished, you also will certainly have no share beyond the River."[i]

17 The king sent word to Re′hum[j] the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues[k] who were dwelling in Sa·mar′i·a and the rest beyond the River:

"Greetings![l] And now 18 the official document that YOU have sent us has been distinctly read before me. 19 So an order has been put through by me, and they have investigated[m] and found that that city has from the days of old been one rising up against kings and one in which rebellion and revolt have been carried on.[a] 20 And there proved to be strong kings[b] over Jerusalem and governing all beyond the River,[c] and tax, tribute and toll were being given to them.[d] 21 Now PUT an order through for these able-bodied men to stop, that that city may not be rebuilt until the order is put through by me. 22 So be careful that there be no negligence about acting in this regard, that the harm may not increase to the injury of kings."[e]

23 Now after the copy of the official document of Ar·ta·xerx'es the king had been read before Re'hum[f] and Shim'shai[g] the scribe and their colleagues,[h] they went in a hurry to Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by force of arms.[i] 24 It was then that the work on the house of God, which was in Jerusalem, stopped; and it continued stopped until the second year of the reign of Da·ri'us[j] the king of Persia.

5 And Hag'gai[k] the prophet and Zech·a·ri'ah[l] the grandson of Id'do[m] the prophet prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and in Jerusalem, in the name[n] of the God of Israel [who was] over them.[o] 2 It was then that Ze·rub'ba·bel[p] the son of She·al'ti·el[q] and Jesh'u·a[r] the son of Je·hoz'a·dak got up and started to rebuild the house of God, which was in Jerusalem; and with them there were God's prophets[s] giving them aid. 3 At that time Tat'te·nai[t] the governor beyond the River[u] and She'thar-boz'e·nai and their colleagues came to them, and this is what they were saying to them: "Who put an order through to YOU to build this house and to finish this beam structure?"[v] 4 Then they said to them this: "What are the names of the able-bodied men that are building this building?" 5 And the eye[w] of their God proved to be upon[a] the older men of the Jews, and they did not stop them until the report could go to Da·ri'us and then an official document concerning this could be sent back.

6 [Here] is a copy[b] of the letter that Tat'te·nai[c] the governor beyond the River[d] and She'thar-boz'e·nai[e] and his colleagues,[f] the lesser governors that were beyond the River, sent to Da·ri'us the king; 7 they sent the word to him, and the writing in it was in this manner:

"To Da·ri'us the king:

"All peace![g] 8 Let it become known to the king that we went to the jurisdictional district[h] of Judah to the house of the great God,[i] and it is being built with stones rolled [into place], and timbers are being laid in the walls; and that work is being eagerly done and is making progress in their hands. 9 Then we asked these older men. This is what we said to them: 'Who put an order through to YOU to build this house and to finish this beam structure?'[j] 10 And we also asked them their names, so as to let you know, that we might write the names of the able-bodied men that are at their head.[k]

11 "And this is the word that they gave back to us, saying: 'We are the servants of the God of the heavens and the earth,[l] and we are rebuilding the house that had been built many years before this, which a great king of Israel built and finished.[m] 12 However, because our fathers irritated[n] the God of the heavens, he gave[o] them into the hand of Neb·u·chad·nez'zar[p] the king of Babylon, the Chal·de'an,[q] and he demolished this house[r] and took the people into exile at Babylon.[a] 13 Nevertheless, in the first year of Cyrus[b] the king of Babylon, Cyrus the king put an order through to rebuild this house of God.[c] 14 And also the gold and silver vessels[d] of the house of God that Neb·u·chad·nez'zar had taken out of the temple, which was in Jerusalem, and brought to the temple of Babylon,[e] these Cyrus the king[f] took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were given to Shesh·baz'zar,[g] the name of the one whom he made governor.[h] 15 And he said to him: "Take these vessels.[i] Go, deposit them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt upon its place."[j] 16 When that Shesh·baz'zar came he laid the foundations of the house of God,[k] which is in Jerusalem; and from then until now it is being rebuilt but it has not been completed.'[l]

17 "And now if to the king it seems good, let there be an investigation[m] in the king's house of treasures that is there in Babylon, whether it is so that from Cyrus the king an order[n] was put through to rebuild that house of God in Jerusalem; and the decision of the king concerning this let him send to us."

6 It was then that Da·ri'us the king put an order through, and they made an investigation in the house of the records[o] of the treasures deposited there in Babylon. 2 And at Ec·bat'a·na, in the fortified place that was in the jurisdictional district[p] of Me'di·a, there was found a scroll, and the memorandum to this effect was written within it:

3 "In the first year of Cyrus the king,[q] Cyrus the king put an order through concerning the house of God in Jerusalem: Let the house be rebuilt as the place where they are to offer sacrifices,[r] and its foundations are to be fixed, its height being sixty cubits, its width sixty cubits,[a] 4 with three layers of stones rolled[b] [into place] and one layer of timbers;[c] and let the expense be given from the king's house.[d] 5 And also let the gold and silver[e] vessels of the house of God that Neb·u·chad·nez'zar[f] took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon be returned, that they may reach the temple that is in Jerusalem at its place and be deposited in the house of God.[g]

6 "Now Tat'te·nai[h] the governor beyond the River,[i] She'thar-boz'e·nai[j] and their colleagues, the lesser governors[k] that are beyond the River, keep YOUR distance from there.[l] 7 Let the work on that house of God alone.[m] The governor of the Jews and the older men of the Jews will rebuild that house of God upon its place. 8 And by me an order[n] has been put through as to what YOU will do with these older men of the Jews, for rebuilding that house of God; and from the royal treasury[o] of the tax beyond the River the expense will promptly be given[p] to these able-bodied men without cessation.[q] 9 And what is needed, young bulls[r] as well as rams[s] and lambs[t] for the burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat,[u] salt,[v] wine[w] and oil,[x] just as the priests that are in Jerusalem say, let there be given them continually day by day without fail; 10 that they may continually[y] be presenting soothing offerings[z] to the God of the heavens and praying for the life of the king and his sons.[a] 11 And by me an order has been put through that, as for anybody that violates[b] this decree, a timber[c] will be pulled out of his house and he will be impaled[d] upon it, and his house will be turned into a public privy on this account.[a] 12 And may the God who has caused his name[b] to reside there overthrow any king and people that thrusts his hand out to commit a violation and destroy[c] that house of God, which is in Jerusalem. I, Da·ri′us, do put through an order. Let it be done promptly."

13 Then Tat′te·nai the governor beyond the River,[d] She′thar-boz′e·nai[e] and their colleagues, just as Da·ri′us the king had sent [word], so they did promptly. 14 And the older men[f] of the Jews were building[g] and making progress under the prophesying of Hag′gai[h] the prophet and Zech·a·ri′ah[i] the grandson of Id′do,[j] and they built and finished [it] due to the order of the God of Israel[k] and due to the order of Cyrus[l] and Da·ri′us[m] and Ar·ta·xerx′es[n] the king of Persia. 15 And they completed this house by the third day of the lunar month A′dar,[o] that is, in the sixth year of the reign of Da·ri′us the king.

16 And the sons of Israel, the priests and the Levites[p] and the rest of the former exiles[q] held the inauguration[r] of this house of God with joy. 17 And they presented for the inauguration of this house of God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.[s] 18 And they appointed the priests in their classes and the Levites in their divisions,[t] for the service of God which is in Jerusalem, according to the prescription of the book of Moses.[u]

19 And the former exiles proceeded to hold the passover[v] on the fourteenth [day] of the first month.[w] 20 As the priests and the Levites had cleansed[x] themselves as one group, they were all of them clean, and so they slaughtered the passover victim[a] for all the former exiles and for their brothers the priests and for themselves. 21 Then the sons of Israel that had returned from the Exile ate,[b] and everyone that had separated himself to them from the uncleanness[c] of the nations of the land, to search for Jehovah the God of Israel.[d] 22 And they went on to hold the festival of unfermented cakes[e] seven days with rejoicing; for Jehovah caused them to rejoice, and he had turned[f] the heart of the king of As·syr′i·a around toward them to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of the [true] God, the God of Israel.

7 And after these things in the reign of Ar·ta·xerx′es[g] the king of Persia, Ez′ra[h] the son of Se·rai′ah[i] the son of Az·a·ri′ah the son of Hil·ki′ah[j] 2 the son of Shal′lum[k] the son of Za′dok[l] the son of A·hi′tub[m] 3 the son of Am·a·ri′ah[n] the son of Az·a·ri′ah[o] the son of Me·ra′ioth[p] 4 the son of Zer·a·hi′ah[q] the son of Uz′zi[r] the son of Buk′ki[s] 5 the son of Ab·i·shu′a[t] the son of Phin′e·has[u] the son of El·e·a′zar[v] the son of Aaron[w] the chief priest[x]— 6 the said Ez′ra himself went up from Babylon; and he was a skilled copyist[y] in the law of Moses,[z] which Jehovah the God of Israel had given, so that the king granted him, according to the hand of Jehovah his God upon him, all his request.[a]

7 Consequently some of the sons of Israel and of the priests[b] and the Levites[c] and the singers[d] and the gatekeepers[e] and the Neth′i·nim[f] went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Ar·ta·xerx′es[g] the king. 8 At length he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, that is, in the seventh year of the king. 9 For on the first [day] of the first month he himself appointed the going up from Babylon, and on the first [day] of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.[a] 10 For Ez′ra himself had prepared[b] his heart to consult the law of Jehovah[c] and to do [it][d] and to teach[e] in Israel regulation[f] and justice.[g]

11 And this is a copy of the letter that King Ar·ta·xerx′es gave Ez′ra the priest the copyist,[h] a copyist of the words of the commandments of Jehovah and of his regulations toward Israel:

12 "Ar·ta·xerx′es,[i] the king of kings,[j] to Ez′ra the priest, the copyist of the law of the God of the heavens:[k] [Peace] be perfected.[l] And now 13 by me an order[m] has been put through that everyone in my realm[n] of the people of Israel and their priests and Levites that is willing to go to Jerusalem with you should go.[o] 14 Inasmuch as from before the king and his seven counselors[p] [an order] was sent to investigate[q] concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the law[r] of your God[s] that is in your hand, 15 and to bring the silver and the gold that the king and his counselors have voluntarily given[t] to the God of Israel, whose residence is in Jerusalem,[u] 16 with all the silver and the gold that you find in all the jurisdictional district of Babylon along with the gift of the people[v] and the priests who are voluntarily giving to the house of their God,[w] which is in Jerusalem; 17 accordingly you will promptly buy with this money bulls,[x] rams,[y] lambs[z] and their grain offerings[a] and their drink offerings[b] and you will present them upon the altar of the house of YOUR God,[c] which is in Jerusalem.[d]

18 "And whatever it seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and gold,[a] according to the will[b] of YOUR God, YOU men will do.[c] 19 And the vessels[d] that are being given to you for the service of the house of your God deliver in full before God at Jerusalem.[e] 20 And the rest of the necessities of the house of your God that it devolves upon you to give, you will give out of the king's house of treasures.[f]

21 "And by me myself, Ar·ta·xerx′es the king, an order[g] has been put through to all the treasurers[h] that are beyond the River,[i] that everything that Ez′ra[j] the priest, the copyist of the law of the God of the heavens, requests of YOU men it will be done promptly, 22 even to a hundred talents[k] of silver and a hundred cor[l] measures of wheat and a hundred bath[m] measures of wine[n] and a hundred bath measures of oil,[o] and salt[p] without limit. 23 Let all that is by the order[q] of the God of the heavens be done with zeal[r] for the house of the God of the heavens,[s] that there may occur no wrath against the king's realm and his sons.[t] 24 And to YOU men it is being made known that, as respects any of the priests[u] and the Levites,[v] the musicians,[w] the doorkeepers,[x] the Neth′i·nim,[y] and the workers of this house of God, no tax, tribute[z] or toll[a] is allowed to be imposed upon them.

25 "And you, Ez′ra, according to the wisdom[b] of your God that is in your hand appoint magistrates and judges that they may continually judge[c] all the people that are beyond the River, even all those knowing the laws of your God; and anyone that has not known [them] YOU men will instruct.[d] 26 And as for everyone that does not become a doer of the law of your God[e] and the law of the king, let judgment be promptly executed upon him, whether for death[a] or for banishment,[b] or for money fine[c] or for imprisonment."

27 Blessed be Jehovah the God of our forefathers,[d] who has put such a thing into the heart[e] of the king, to beautify[f] the house of Jehovah, which is in Jerusalem! 28 And toward me he has extended loving-kindness[g] before the king and his counselors[h] and as respects all the mighty princes of the king. And I, for my part, strengthened myself according to the hand[i] of Jehovah my God upon me, and I proceeded to collect out of Israel the head ones to go up with me.

8 Now these were the heads of their paternal[j] houses and the genealogical[k] enrollment of those going up with me during the reign of Ar·ta·xerx'es[l] the king out of Babylon: 2 Of the sons of Phin'e·has,[m] Ger'shom;[n] of the sons of Ith'a·mar,[o] Dan'iel;[p] of the sons of David,[q] Hat'tush; 3 of the sons of Shec·a·ni'ah, of the sons of Pa'rosh,[r] Zech·a·ri'ah, and with him there was an enrollment of a hundred and fifty males; 4 of the sons of Pa'hath-mo'ab,[s] El'ie·ho·e'nai the son of Zer·a·hi'ah, and with him two hundred males; 5 of the sons [of Zat'tu],[t] Shec·a·ni'ah the son of Ja·ha·zi'el, and with him three hundred males; 6 and of the sons of A'din,[u] E'bed the son of Jon'a·than, and with him fifty males; 7 and of the sons of E'lam,[v] Je·sha'iah the son of Ath·a·li'ah, and with him seventy males; 8 and of the sons of Sheph·a·ti'ah,[w] Zeb·a·di'ah the son of Mi'cha·el, and with him eighty males; 9 of the sons of Jo'ab, O·ba·di'ah the son of Je·hi'el, and with him two hundred and eighteen males; 10 and of the sons of [Ba'ni],[x] She·lo'mith the son of Jo·si·phi'ah, and with him a hundred and sixty males; 11 and of the sons of Be'bai, Zech·a·ri'ah the son of Be'bai,[a] and with him twenty-eight males; 12 and of the sons of Az'gad,[b] Jo·ha'nan the son of Hak'ka·tan, and with him a hundred and ten males; 13 and of the sons of Ad·o·ni'kam,[c] those who were the last, and these were their names: E·liph'e·let, Je·i'el and She·mai'ah, and with them sixty males; 14 and of the sons of Big'vai,[d] U'thai and Zab'bud, and with them seventy males.

15 And I proceeded to collect them at the river[e] that comes to A·ha'va;[f] and we kept encamped there three days, that I might scrutinize the people[g] and the priests,[h] but none of the sons of Le'vi[i] did I find there. 16 Accordingly I sent for E·li·e'zer, Ar'i·el, She·mai'ah and El·na'than and Ja'rib and El·na'than and Nathan and Zech·a·ri'ah and Me·shul'lam, head ones, and for Joi'a·rib and El·na'than, instructors.[j] 17 Then I gave them a command concerning Id'do the head one in the place Ca·si·phi'a, and I put in their mouth words[k] to speak to Id'do [and] his brothers the Neth'i·nim[l] in the place Ca·si·phi'a, to bring to us ministers[m] for the house of our God. 18 So they brought to us, according to the good hand[n] of our God upon us, a man of discretion[o] from the sons of Mah'li[p] the grandson of Le'vi[q] the son of Israel, namely, She·re·bi'ah[r] and his sons and his brothers, eighteen; 19 and Hash·a·bi'ah and with him Je·sha'iah from the sons of Me·rar'i,[s] his brothers, and their sons, twenty. 20 And from the Neth'i·nim, whom David and the princes gave to the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Neth'i·nim, all of whom had been designated by [their] names.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river A·ha'va, to humble[t] ourselves before our God, to seek from him the right way[a] for us and for our little ones[b] and for all our goods. 22 For I felt ashamed to ask a military force[c] and horsemen[d] from the king to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had said to the king: "The hand[e] of our God is over all those seeking him for good,[f] but his strength and his anger[g] are against all those leaving him."[h] 23 Therefore we fasted[i] and made request[j] of our God concerning this, so that he let himself be entreated[k] by us.

24 I now separated from the chiefs of the priests twelve, namely, She·re·bi'ah,[l] Hash·a·bi'ah,[m] and with them ten of their brothers. 25 And I proceeded to weigh out to them the silver and the gold and the utensils,[n] the contribution to the house of our God that the king[o] and his counselors[p] and his princes and all the Israelites[q] who were to be found had contributed. 26 Thus I weighed out into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver[r] and a hundred silver utensils worth [two] talents, [and] gold a hundred talents, 27 and twenty small gold bowls worth a thousand darics and two utensils of good copper, gleaming red, as desirable as gold.

28 Then I said to them: "YOU are something holy[s] to Jehovah, and the utensils[t] are something holy, and the silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers. 29 Keep awake and be on guard until YOU weigh[u] [them] out before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the princes of the fathers of Israel in Jerusalem, in the dining halls[v] of the house of Jehovah." 30 And the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold and the utensils, to bring [them] to Jerusalem to the house of our God.[w]

31 Finally we pulled away from the river A·ha'va[a] on the twelfth [day] of the first month[b] to go to Jerusalem, and the very hand of our God proved to be over us, so that he delivered[c] us out of the palm of the enemy and the ambush by the way. 32 So we came to Jerusalem[d] and dwelt there three days. 33 And on the fourth day we proceeded to weigh out the silver and the gold[e] and the utensils[f] in the house of our God into the hand of Mer'e·moth[g] the son of U·ri'jah the priest and with him El·e·a'zar the son of Phin'e·has and with them Jo'za·bad[h] the son of Jesh'u·a and No·a·di'ah the son of Bin'nu·i[i] the Levites, 34 by number [and] by weight for everything, after which all the weight was written down at that time. 35 Those coming out of the captivity, the former exiles,[j] themselves presented burnt sacrifices[k] to the God of Israel, twelve bulls[l] for all Israel, ninety-six rams,[m] seventy-seven male lambs, twelve he-goats[n] as a sin offering, everything as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

36 Then we gave the laws[o] of the king to the satraps[p] of the king and the governors[q] beyond the River,[r] and they assisted the people[s] and the house of the [true] God.

9 And as soon as these things were finished, the princes[t] approached me, saying: "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated[u] themselves from the peoples of the lands as regards their detestable things,[v] namely, the Ca'naan·ites,[w] the Hit'tites,[x] the Per'iz·zites,[y] the Jeb'u·sites,[z] the Am'mon·ites,[a] the Mo'ab·ites,[b] the Egyptians[c] and the Am'or·ites.[d] 2 For they have accepted some of their daughters for

3 Now as soon as I heard of this thing I ripped apart my garment[f] and my sleeveless coat, and I began to pull out some of the hair of my head[g] and of my beard, and I kept sitting stunned.[h] 4 Also to me they came gathering themselves, everyone trembling[i] because of the words of the God of Israel against the unfaithfulness of the exiled people, while I was sitting stunned until the grain offering of the evening.[j]

5 And at the grain offering[k] of the evening I stood up from my humiliation, with my garment and my sleeveless coat torn apart, and I proceeded to kneel upon my knees[l] and spread out my palms to Jehovah my God.[m] 6 And I went on to say:[n] "O my God, I do feel ashamed[o] and embarrassed[p] to raise my face to you, O my God, for our errors[q] themselves have multiplied over our head and our guiltiness has grown great even to the heavens.[r] 7 From the days of our forefathers[s] we have been in great guiltiness until this day;[t] and because of our errors we have been given, we ourselves, our kings,[u] our priests,[v] into the hand of the kings of the lands with the sword,[w] with the captivity[x] and with the plunder[y] and with shame of face,[z] just as this day. 8 And now for a little moment favor[a] from Jehovah our God has come by leaving over for us those who escape[b] and by giving us a peg in his holy place, to make our eyes shine,[c] O our God, and to give us a little reviving in our servitude.[d] 9 For we are servants;[e] and in our servitude our God has not left us,[f] but he extends toward us loving-kindness before the kings of Persia,[a] to give us a reviving so as to raise up the house of our God[b] and to restore its desolated places[c] and to give us a stone wall[d] in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 "And now what shall we say, O our God, after this? For we have left your commandments,[e] 11 which you commanded by means of your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land that YOU people are going in to take possession of is an impure land because of the impurity of the peoples of the lands,[f] because of their detestable things[g] with which they have filled it from end[h] to end by their uncleanness.[i] 12 And now YOUR daughters do not YOU people give to their sons,[j] neither their daughters do YOU accept for YOUR sons; and to time indefinite YOU must not work for their peace[k] and their prosperity, in order that YOU may grow strong[l] and certainly eat the good of the land and indeed take possession [of it] for YOUR sons to time indefinite.'[m] 13 And after all that has come upon us for our bad deeds[n] and our great guiltiness—for you yourself, O our God, have underestimated our error,[o] and you have given us those who have escaped such as these[p]— 14 shall we go breaking your commandments again and forming marriage alliances[q] with the peoples of these detestable things?[r] Will you not get incensed at us to the limit[s] so that there will be none remaining[t] and none escaping? 15 O Jehovah the God of Israel, you are righteous,[u] because we have been left over as an escaped people as at this day. Here we are before you in our guiltiness,[v] for it is impossible to stand before you on account of this."[w]

10 Now as soon as Ez'ra had prayed[a] and he had made confession[b] while weeping and lying prostrate[c] before the house[d] of the [true] God, those of Israel collected themselves together to him, a very large congregation, men and women and children, for the people had wept profusely. 2 Then Shec·a·ni'ah the son of Je·hi'el[e] of the sons of E'lam[f] answered and said to Ez'ra: "We—we have acted unfaithfully against our God, so that we gave a dwelling to foreign wives from the peoples of the land.[g] Yet now there exists a hope[h] for Israel concerning this. 3 And now let us conclude a covenant[i] with our God to put away[j] all the wives and those born from them according to the counsel of Jehovah and of those trembling[k] at the commandment[l] of our God, that it may be done according to the law.[m] 4 Get up, for the matter devolves upon you, and we are with you. Be strong and act."

5 At that Ez'ra rose and had the chiefs of the priests, the Levites and all Israel take an oath[n] to do according to this word. Accordingly they took an oath. 6 Ez'ra now rose from before the house of the [true] God and went to the dining hall[o] of Je·ho·ha'nan the son of E·li'a·shib. Although he went there, he ate no bread[p] and drank no water, for he was mourning[q] over the unfaithfulness of the exiled people.

7 Then they caused a call to pass throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the former exiles[r] to collect themselves together at Jerusalem; 8 and anyone that did not come[s] in three days' time according to the counsel of the princes[t] and the older men—all his goods would be put under a ban[u] and he himself be separated[v] from the congregation of the exiled people. 9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin collected themselves together at Jerusalem within three days, that is, in the ninth[a] month on the twentieth [day] of the month, and all the people kept sitting in the open place of the house of the [true] God, shivering because of the matter and on account of the showers of rain.[b]

10 At length Ez'ra the priest rose and said to them: "YOU yourselves have acted unfaithfully in that YOU gave a dwelling to foreign wives[c] so as to add to the guiltiness of Israel.[d] 11 And now make confession[e] to Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers and do his pleasure[f] and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."[g] 12 To this all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice: "Exactly according to your word it devolves upon us to do.[h] 13 However, the people are many, and it is the season of showers of rain, and it is not possible to stand outside; and the business will not take one day or two, for we have rebelled to a great extent in this matter. 14 So, please, let our princes[i] act representatively for all the congregation; and, as for all in our cities who have given a dwelling to foreign wives, let them come at the times appointed and along with them the older men of each individual city and its judges, until we have turned back the burning anger of our God from us, on account of this matter."

15 (However, Jon'a·than the son of As'a·hel and Jah·zei'ah the son of Tik'vah themselves stood up against[j] this, and Me·shul'lam and Shab'be·thai[k] the Levites were the ones that helped them.) 16 And the former exiles[l] proceeded to do that way; and Ez'ra the priest [and] the men that were the heads of the fathers for their paternal house,[m] even all of them by [their] names, now separated themselves and began sitting on the first day of the tenth month[a] to inquire into the matter,[b] 17 and gradually they finished with all the men that had given a dwelling to foreign[c] wives by the first day of the first month. 18 And some of the sons of the priests[d] came to be found that had given a dwelling to foreign wives; of the sons of Jesh′u·a[e] the son of Je·hoz′a·dak[f] and his brothers, Ma·a·sei′ah and E·li·e′zer and Ja′rib and Ged·a·li′ah. 19 But they promised by shaking hands to put their wives away, and that, they being guilty,[g] there should be a ram[h] of the flock for their guiltiness.

20 And of the sons of Im′mer[i] there were Ha·na′ni and Zeb·a·di′ah; 21 and of the sons of Ha′rim,[j] Ma·a·sei′ah and E·li′jah and She·mai′ah and Je·hi′el and Uz·zi′ah; 22 and of the sons of Pash′hur,[k] Eli·o·e′nai, Ma·a·sei′ah, Ish′ma·el, Ne·than′el, Jo′za·bad and El·e·a′sah. 23 And of the Levites, Jo′za·bad and Shim′e·i and Ke·lai′ah (that is, Ke·li′ta), Peth·a·hi′ah, Judah and E·li·e′zer; 24 and of the singers, E·li′a·shib; and of the gatekeepers, Shal′lum and Te′lem and U′ri.

25 And of Israel, of the sons of Pa′rosh[l] there were Ra·mi′ah and Iz·zi′ah and Mal·chi′jah and Mij′a·min and El·e·a′zar and Mal·chi′jah and Be·nai′ah; 26 and of the sons of E′lam,[m] Mat·ta·ni′ah, Zech·a·ri′ah and Je·hi′el[a] and Ab′di and Jer′e·moth and E·li′jah; 27 and of the sons of Zat′tu,[b] Eli·o·e′nai, E·li′a·shib, Mat·ta·ni′ah and Jer′e·moth and Za′bad and A·zi′za; 28 and of the sons of Be′bai,[c] Je·ho·ha′nan, Han·a·ni′ah, Zab′bai, Ath′lai; 29 and of the sons of Ba′ni, Me·shul′lam, Mal′luch and A·dai′ah, Ja′shub and She′al [and] Jer′e·moth; 30 and of the sons of Pa′hath-mo′ab,[d] Ad′na and Che′lal, Be·nai′ah, Ma·a·sei′ah, Mat·ta·ni′ah, Bez′al·el and Bin′nu·i and Ma·nas′seh; 31 and [of] the sons of Ha′rim,[e] E·li·e′zer, Is·shi′jah, Mal·chi′jah,[f] She·mai′ah, Shim′e·on, 32 Benjamin, Mal′luch [and] Shem·a·ri′ah; 33 of the sons of Ha′shum,[g] Mat·te′nai, Mat′tat·tah, Za′bad, E·liph′e·let, Jer′e·mai, Ma·nas′seh [and] Shim′e·i; 34 of the sons of Ba′ni, Ma·a·da′i, Am′ram and U′el, 35 Be·nai′ah, Be·dei′ah, Chel′u·hi, 36 Va·ni′ah, Mer′e·moth, E·li′a·shib, 37 Mat·ta·ni′ah, Mat·te′nai and Ja′a·su; 38 and of the sons of Bin′nu·i, Shim′e·i 39 and Shel·e·mi′ah and Nathan and A·dai′ah, 40 Mach·nad′e·bai, Sha′shai, Sha′rai, 41 Az′ar·el and Shel·e·mi′ah, Shem·a·ri′ah, 42 Shal′lum, Am·a·ri′ah, Joseph; 43 of the sons of Ne′bo, Je·i′el, Mat·ti·thi′ah, Za′bad, Ze·bi′na, Jad′dai and Joel [and] Be·nai′ah. 44 These all had accepted foreign wives,[h] and they proceeded to send away wives along with sons.

NEHEMIAH

1 The words of Ne·he·mi′ah[a] the son of Hac·a·li′ah: Now it came about in the month Chis′lev,[b] in the twentieth year,[c] that I myself happened to be in Shu′shan[d] the castle. 2 Then Ha·na′ni,[a] one of my brothers, came in, he and other men from Judah, and I proceeded to ask[b] them about the Jews,[c]

those who had escaped,[a] who had been left over of the captivity,[b] and also about Jerusalem. 3 Accordingly they said to me: "Those left over, who have been left over from the captivity, there in the jurisdictional district,[c] are in a very bad plight[d] and in reproach;[e] and the wall[f] of Jerusalem is broken down, and its very gates[g] have been burned with fire."

4 And it came about that, as soon as I heard these words, I sat down and began to weep and mourn for days, and I was continually fasting[h] and praying before the God of the heavens.[i] 5 And I went on to say: "Ah, Jehovah the God of the heavens, the God great and fear-inspiring,[j] keeping the covenant[k] and loving-kindness toward those loving him[l] and keeping his commandments,[m] 6 please, let your ear become attentive[n] and your eyes opened, to listen to the prayer of your servant,[o] which I am praying before you today, day and night,[p] concerning the sons of Israel your servants, all the while making confession[q] concerning the sins[r] of the sons of Israel with which we have sinned against you. We have sinned, both I and the house of my father.[s] 7 We have unquestionably acted corruptly against you[t] and have not kept the commandments[u] and the regulations[v] and the judicial decisions[w] that you gave in command to Moses your servant.[x]

8 "Remember,[y] please, the word that you commanded Moses your servant, saying, 'Should YOU, for YOUR part, act unfaithfully, I, for my part, shall scatter YOU among the peoples.[z] 9 When YOU will have returned to me[a] and kept my commandments[b] and done them,[c] though YOUR dispersed people should happen to be at the end of the heavens, from there I shall collect[a] them and certainly bring them[b] to the place that I have chosen to have my name reside there.'[c] 10 And they are your servants[d] and your people,[e] whom you redeemed by your great power[f] and by your strong hand.[g] 11 Ah, Jehovah, please, let your ear become attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer[h] of your servants who take delight in fearing your name;[i] and, please, do grant success to your servant today[j] and make him an object of pity before this man."[k]

2 And it came about in the month Ni′san,[m] in the twentieth[n] year of Ar·ta·xerx′es[o] the king, that wine was before him, and I as usual took up the wine and gave it to the king.[p] But never had I happened to be gloomy before him.[q] 2 So the king said to me: "Why is your face gloomy[r] when you yourself are not sick? This is nothing but a gloominess of heart."[s] At this I became very much afraid.

3 Then I said to the king: "Let the king himself live to time indefinite![t] Why should not my face become gloomy when the city,[u] the house of the burial places of my forefathers,[v] is devastated, and its very gates have been eaten up with fire?"[w] 4 In turn the king said to me: "What is this that you are seeking to secure?"[x] At once I prayed[y] to the God of the heavens.[z] 5 After that I said to the king: "If to the king it does seem good,[a] and if your servant seems good before you,[b] that you would send me to Judah, to the city of the burial places of my forefathers, that I may rebuild[c] it." 6 At this the king said to me, as his queenly consort was sitting beside him: "How long will your journey come to be and when will you return?" So it seemed good[a] before the king that he should send me, when I gave him the appointed time.[b]

7 And I went on to say to the king: "If to the king it does seem good, let letters[c] be given me to the governors[d] beyond the River,[e] that they may let me pass until I come to Judah; 8 also a letter to A'saph the keeper of the park that belongs to the king, that he may give me trees to build with timber the gates of the Castle[f] that belongs to the house,[g] and for the wall[h] of the city and for the house into which I am to enter." So the king gave [them] to me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.[i]

9 Eventually I came to the governors[j] beyond the River and gave them the letters of the king. Moreover, the king sent with me chiefs of the military force and horsemen. 10 When San·bal'lat[k] the Hor'o·nite[l] and To·bi'ah[m] the servant, the Am'mon·ite,[n] got to hear [of it], then it seemed to them something very bad[o] that a man had come to seek something good for the sons of Israel.

11 At length I came to Jerusalem, and I continued there for three days. 12 Then I rose up by night, I and a few men with me, and I did not tell a man[p] what my God was putting into my heart to do for Jerusalem,[q] and there was no domestic animal with me except the domestic animal on which I was riding. 13 And I proceeded to go out by the Valley Gate[r] by night and in front of the Fountain of the Big Snake and to the Gate of the Ash-heaps,[s] and I was constantly examining the walls[t] of Jerusalem, how they were broken down and the gates[u] of it had been eaten up by fire. 14 And I went passing along to the Fountain Gate[a] and to the King's Pool, and there was no place for the domestic animal under me to pass along. 15 But I kept on ascending in the torrent[b] valley by night, and I kept on examining the wall; after which I came back and entered by the Valley Gate,[c] and so got back.

16 And the deputy rulers[d] themselves did not know where I had gone and what I was doing; and to the Jews and the priests and the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the doers of the work I had not yet told anything. 17 Finally I said to them: "You are seeing the bad plight in which we are, how Jerusalem is devastated and its gates have been burned with fire. Come and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer continue to be a reproach."[e] 18 And I went on to tell them of the hand[f] of my God, how it was good upon me,[g] and also of the king's words[h] that he had said to me. At this they said: "Let us get up, and we must build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.[i]

19 Now when San·bal'lat[j] the Hor'o·nite and To·bi'ah[k] the servant,[l] the Am'mon·ite,[m] and Ge'shem[n] the Arabian[o] heard of it, they began to deride us[p] and look on us despisingly and say: "What is this thing that YOU are doing? Is it against the king that YOU are rebelling?"[q] 20 However, I replied to them and said to them: "The God of the heavens[r] is the One that will grant us success,[s] and we ourselves, his servants, shall get up, and we must build; but YOU yourselves have no share,[t] nor just claim, nor memorial[u] in Jerusalem."

3 And E·li'a·shib[v] the high priest and his brothers, the priests, proceeded to get up and build the Sheep Gate.[w] They themselves sanctified it[a] and went setting up its doors; and as far as the Tower of Me'ah[b] they sanctified it, as far as the Tower of Ha·nan'el.[c] 2 And at their side the men of Jer'i·cho[d] did building. And at their side Zac'cur the son of Im'ri did building.

3 And the Fish Gate[e] was what the sons of Has·se·na'ah built; they themselves timbered it[f] and then set up its doors,[g] its bolts and its bars.[h] 4 And at their side Mer'e·moth[i] the son of U·ri'jah[j] the son of Hak'koz did repair work, and at their side Me·shul'lam[k] the son of Ber·e·chi'ah the son of Me·shez'a·bel did repair work; and at their side Za'dok the son of Ba'a·na did repair work. 5 And at their side the Te·ko'ites[l] did repair work; but their majestic ones[m] themselves did not bring the back of their neck into the service of their masters.

6 And the Gate[n] of the Old [City] was what Joi'a·da the son of Pa·se'ah and Me·shul'lam the son of Bes·o·dei'ah repaired; they themselves timbered it and then set up its doors and its bolts and its bars.[o] 7 And at their side Mel·a·ti'ah the Gib'e·on·ite[p] and Ja'don the Me·ron'o·thite,[q] did repair work, men of Gib'e·on[r] and Miz'pah,[s] belonging to the throne of the governor[t] beyond the River.[u] 8 At his side Uz'zi·el the son of Har·hai'ah, goldsmiths,[v] did repair work; and at his side Han·a·ni'ah a member of the ointment mixers[w] did repair work; and they proceeded to flagstone Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.[x] 9 And at their side Re·pha'iah the son of Hur, a prince of half the district of Jerusalem, did repair work. 10 And at their side Je·da'iah the son of Ha·ru'maph did repair work in front of his own house;[y] and at his side Hat'tush the son of Hash·ab·nei'ah did repair work.

11 Another measured section was what Mal·chi'jah the son of Ha'rim[a] and Has'shub the son of Pa'hath-mo'ab[b] repaired, and also the Tower of the Bake Ovens.[c] 12 And at his side Shal'lum the son of Hal·lo'hesh, a prince[d] of half the district of Jerusalem, did repair work, he and his daughters.

13 The Valley Gate[e] was what Ha'nun and the inhabitants of Za·no'ah[f] repaired; they themselves built it and then set up its doors,[g] its bolts[h] and its bars,[i] also a thousand cubits in the wall as far as the Gate of the Ash-heaps.[j] 14 And the Gate of the Ash-heaps was what Mal·chi'jah the son of Re'chab, a prince of the district of Beth-hac·che'rem,[k] repaired; he himself went building it and setting up its doors, its bolts and its bars.

15 And the Fountain Gate[l] was what Shal'lun the son of Col·ho'zeh, a prince of the district of Miz'pah,[m] repaired; he himself proceeded to build it and to roof it over and to set up its doors,[n] its bolts and its bars, and also the wall of the Pool[o] of the Canal to the King's Garden[p] and as far as the Stairway[q] that goes down from the City of David.[r]

16 After him Ne·he·mi'ah the son of Az'buk, a prince of half the district of Beth-zur,[s] did repair work as far as in front of the Burial Places[t] of David and as far as the pool[u] that had been made and as far as the House of the Mighty Ones.[v]

17 After him the Levites[w] did repair work, Re'hum the son of Ba'ni;[x] at his side Hash·a·bi'ah, a prince of half the district of Kei'lah,[y] did repair work for his district. 18 After him their brothers did repair work, Bav'vai the son of Hen'a·dad, a prince of half the district of Kei'lah.

19 And E'zer the son of Jesh'u·a,[z] a prince of Miz'pah,[a] proceeded at his side to repair another measured section in front of the going up to the Armory at the Buttress.[a] 20 After him Bar'uch the son of Zab'bai[b] worked with fervor[c] [and] repaired another measured section, from the Buttress as far as the entrance of the house of E·li'a·shib[d] the high priest.

21 After him Mer'e·moth the son of U·ri'jah[e] the son of Hak'koz repaired another measured section, from the entrance of the house of E·li'a·shib as far as the end of E·li'a·shib's house.

22 And after him the priests, men of the [Jordan] District,[f] did repair work. 23 After them Benjamin and Has'shub did repair work in front of their own house. After them Az·a·ri'ah the son of Ma·a·sei'ah the son of A·na·ni'ah did repair work close by his own house. 24 After him Bin'nu·i the son of Hen'a·dad repaired another measured section, from the house of Az·a·ri'ah as far as the Buttress[g] and as far as the corner.

25 [After him] Pa'lal the son of U'zai [did repair work] in front of the Buttress and the tower that goes out from the King's House,[h] the upper one that belongs to the Courtyard of the Guard.[i] After him there was Pe·dai'ah the son of Pa'rosh.[j]

26 And the Neth'i·nim[k] themselves happened to be dwellers in O'phel;[l] [they did repair work] as far as in front of the Water Gate[m] on the east and the protruding tower.

27 After them the Te·ko'ites[n] repaired another measured section, from in front of the great protruding tower as far as the wall of O'phel.

28 Above the Horse Gate[o] the priests did repair work, each one in front of his own house.

29 After them Za'dok[p] the son of Im'mer did repair work in front of his own house.

And after him She·mai'ah the son of Shec·a·ni'ah, the keeper of the East Gate,[a] did repair work.

30 After him Han·a·ni'ah the son of Shel·e·mi'ah and Ha'nun the sixth son of Za'laph repaired another measured section.

After him Me·shul'lam[b] the son of Ber·e·chi'ah did repair work in front of his own hall.[c]

31 After him Mal·chi'jah, a member of the goldsmith[d] guild, did repair work as far as the house of the Neth'i·nim[e] and the traders,[f] in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the roof chamber of the corner.

32 And between the roof chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate[g] the goldsmiths and the traders did repair work.

4 Now it came about that, as soon as San·bal'lat[h] heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry[i] and highly offended, and he kept deriding[j] the Jews. 2 And he began to say before his brothers[k] and the military force of Sa·mar'i·a, yes, he began to say: "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they depend upon themselves? Will they sacrifice?[l] Will they finish up in a day? Will they bring the stones to life out of the heaps of dusty rubbish[m] when they are burned?"

3 Now To·bi'ah[n] the Am'mon·ite[o] was alongside him, and he went on to say: "Even what they are building, if a fox[p] went up [against it], he would certainly break down their wall of stones."

4 Hear,[q] O our God, for we have become an object of contempt;[r] and make their reproach[s] return upon their own head, and give them to the plunder in the land of captivity. 5 And do not cover over their error[t] and their sin from before you. Let it not be wiped out, for they have committed offense against the builders.

6 So we kept building the wall, and the entire wall came to be joined together clear to half its [height], and the people continued to have a heart for working.[a]

7 Now it came about that, as soon as San·bal'lat[b] and To·bi'ah[c] and the Arabians[d] and the Am'mon·ites[e] and the Ash'dod·ites[f] heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem had gone forward, for the gaps had started to be stopped up, they became very angry. 8 And all of them began to conspire[g] together to come and fight against Jerusalem and cause me disturbance. 9 But we prayed[h] to our God and kept a guard posted against them day and night on account of them.

10 And Judah began to say: "The power of the burden bearer[i] has stumbled, and there is a great deal of rubbish;[j] and we ourselves are not able to build on the wall."

11 Moreover, our adversaries kept saying: "They will not know[k] and they will not see until we come right in among them, and we shall certainly kill them and put a stop to the work."

12 And it came about that, whenever the Jews dwelling close by them came in, they proceeded to say to us ten times: "[They will come up] from all the places where YOU people will return to us."

13 So I kept [men] posted at the lowest parts of the place behind the wall at the open places, and I kept the people posted by families with their swords,[l] their lances[m] and their bows. 14 When I saw [their fear] I immediately rose and said to the nobles[n] and the deputy rulers[o] and the rest of the people: "Do not be afraid[p] on their account. Jehovah the great[q] and the fear-inspiring[r] One keep in YOUR mind; and fight for YOUR brothers,[s] YOUR sons and YOUR daughters, YOUR wives and YOUR homes."

15 Now it came about that as soon as our enemies heard that it had become known to us, so that the [true] God had frustrated their counsel[a] and we had all of us gone back to the wall, each one to his work, 16 yes, it came about that from that day forward half of my young men[b] were active in the work and half of them were holding the lances, the shields and the bows and the coats of mail;[c] and the princes[d] were behind the whole house of Judah. 17 As for the builders on the wall and those who were carrying the burden of load bearers, [each] one was active in the work with his one hand while the other [hand][e] was holding the missile.[f] 18 And the builders were girded, each one with his sword upon his hip,[g] while building;[h] and the one to blow the horn[i] was alongside me.

19 And I proceeded to say to the nobles and the deputy rulers[j] and the rest of the people: "The work is large and extensive, and we are spread about upon the wall far apart from one another. 20 In the place where YOU hear the sound of the horn, there is where YOU will collect yourselves together to us. Our God himself will fight for us."[k]

21 While we were active in the work, the other half of them also were holding the lances, from the ascending of the dawn until the stars came out. 22 Besides, at that time I said to the people: "Let the men spend the night, each one with his attendant, in the midst of Jerusalem,[l] and they must become for us a guard by night and workers by day." 23 As for me[m] and my brothers[n] and my attendants[o] and the men of the guard[p] who were behind me, we were not taking off our garments, each one [having] his missile[q] in his right hand.

5 However, there came to be a great outcry[a] of the people and their wives against their Jewish brothers.[b] 2 And there were those who were saying: "Our sons and our daughters we are giving as security that we may get grain and eat and keep alive."[c] 3 And there were those who were saying: "Our fields and our vineyards and our houses we are giving as security[d] that we may get grain during the food shortage." 4 And there were those who were saying: "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute[e] on our fields and our vineyards.[f] 5 And now our flesh is the same as the flesh of our brothers;[g] our sons are the same as their sons, but here we are reducing our sons and our daughters to slaves,[h] and there are some of our daughters already reduced; and there is no power in our hands while our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

6 Now I became very angry as soon as I heard their outcry and these words. 7 So my heart took consideration within me, and I began finding fault[i] with the nobles and the deputy rulers, and went on to say to them: "Usury[j] is what YOU are exacting, each one from his own brother."

Further, I arranged a great assembly on their account.[k] 8 And I proceeded to say to them: "We ourselves have bought back[l] our own Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations, as far as it was in our power; and at the same time will YOU yourselves sell YOUR own brothers,[m] and must they be sold to us?" At this they became speechless, and they did not find a word.[n] 9 And I went on to say: "The thing that YOU are doing is not good.[o] Is it not in the fear[p] of our God[q] that YOU should walk because of the reproach[r] of the nations, our enemies?[s] 10 And also I, my brothers and my attendants are giving money and grain on loan among them. Let us, please, leave off this lending on interest.[a] 11 Please, restore to them on this day their fields,[b] their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, and the hundredth of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil that you are exacting as interest from them."

12 To this they said: "We shall make restoration,[c] and from them we shall ask nothing back.[d] We shall do precisely as you are saying."[e] So I called the priests and made them swear to do according to this word.[f] 13 Also, my bosom I shook out and then said: "In this manner may the [true] God shake out from his house and from his acquired property every man that does not carry out this word; and in this manner may he become shaken out and empty." To this all the congregation said: "Amen!"[g] And they began to praise Jehovah.[h] And the people proceeded to do according to this word.[i]

14 Another thing: From the day that he commissioned me to become their governor[j] in the land of Judah, from the twentieth[k] year to the thirty-second[l] year of Ar·ta·xerx'es[m] the king, twelve years, I myself and my brothers did not eat the bread due the governor.[n] 15 As for the former governors that were prior to me, they had made it heavy upon the people, and they kept taking from them for bread and wine daily forty silver shekels. Also, their attendants themselves domineered over the people.[o] As for me, I did not do that way[p] on account of the fear of God.[q]

16 And, what is more, in the work of this wall I took a hand,[r] and not a field did we acquire;[s] and all my attendants were collected together there for the work. 17 And the Jews and the deputy rulers, a hundred and fifty men, and those coming in to us from the nations that were around us were at my table.[a] 18 As for that which happened to be made ready daily, one bull, six select sheep and birds were made ready for me, and once every ten days every sort of wine[b] in abundance. And along with this the bread due the governor I did not demand, because the service upon this people was heavy. 19 Do remember for me,[c] O my God, for good,[d] all that I have done in behalf of this people.[e]

6 Now it came about that, as soon as it was told to San·bal'lat[f] and To·bi'ah[g] and to Ge'shem[h] the Arabian[i] and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall[j] and there had not been left in it a gap (although up to that time the doors[k] themselves I had not set up in the gates),[l] 2 San·bal'lat and Ge'shem immediately sent to me, saying: "Do come, and let us meet[m] together by appointment in the villages of the valley plain of O'no."[n] But they were scheming to do me harm.[o] 3 So I sent messengers to them,[p] saying: "It is a great work that I am doing,[q] and I am not able to go down. Why should the work cease while I take off from it and have to go down to YOU?"[r] 4 However, they sent me the same word four times, and I kept replying to them with the same word.

5 Finally San·bal'lat[s] sent his attendant to me with the same word a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. 6 There was written in it: "Among the nations it has been heard, and Ge'shem[t] is saying [it], that you and the Jews are scheming to rebel.[u] That is why you are building the wall; and you are becoming a king to them,[v] according to these words. 7 And there are even prophets that you have appointed to call out concerning you throughout Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' And now things like these will be told to the king. So now do come, and let us consult together."[a]

8 However, I sent to him, saying: "Things such as you are saying have not been brought about,[b] but it is out of your own heart that you are inventing them."[c] 9 For all of them were trying to make us afraid, saying: "Their hands[d] will drop down from the work so that it will not be done." But now strengthen my hands.[e]

10 And I myself entered the house of She·mai'ah the son of De·la'iah the son of Me·het'a·bel while he was shut up.[f] And he proceeded to say: "Let us meet by appointment[g] at the house of the [true] God, within the temple,[h] and let us close the doors of the temple; for they are coming in to kill you, even by night[i] they are coming in to kill you." 11 But I said: "Should a man like me run away?[j] And who is there like me that could enter into the temple and live?[k] I shall not enter!" 12 So I investigated, and here it was not God[l] that had sent him, but he had spoken[m] this prophecy against me as To·bi'ah and San·bal'lat[n] themselves had hired him.[o] 13 For this reason he had been hired[p] in order that I might be afraid[q] and do that way, and I should certainly sin[r] and it should certainly become in their possession a bad reputation,[s] in order that they might reproach me.[t]

14 Do remember,[u] O my God, To·bi'ah[v] and San·bal'lat, according to these deeds of [each] one, and also No·a·di'ah the prophetess[w] and the rest of the prophets that were continually trying to make me afraid.

15 At length the wall[x] came to completion on the twenty-fifth [day] of E'lul, in fifty-two days.

16 And it came about that, as soon as all our enemies[a] heard [of it] and all the nations that were around us got to see it, they at once fell very much in their own eyes, and they got to know that it was from our God[b] that this work had been done. 17 In those days also the nobles[c] of Judah were making numerous their letters that were going to To·bi'ah[d] and those of To·bi'ah that were coming in to them. 18 For many in Judah were sworn to him, for a son-in-law he was to Shec·a·ni'ah the son of A'rah;[e] and Je·ho·ha'nan his son had himself taken the daughter of Me·shul'lam[f] the son of Ber·e·chi'ah. 19 Also, good things about him they were continually saying before me.[g] And my own words they were continually taking out to him. There were letters that To·bi'ah sent to make me afraid.[h]

7 And it came about that, as soon as the wall had been rebuilt,[i] I at once set up the doors.[j] Then there were appointed the gatekeepers[k] and the singers[l] and the Levites.[m] 2 And I went on to put in command of Jerusalem Ha·na'ni[n] my brother and Han·a·ni'ah the prince of the Castle,[o] for he was such a trustworthy[p] man and feared[q] the [true] God more than many others. 3 So I said to them: "The gates[r] of Jerusalem should not be opened until the sun gets hot; and while they are standing by they should shut the doors and bolt [them].[s] And station guards of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each one at his own guardpost and each one in front of his own house."[t] 4 Now the city was wide and great, and there were few people inside it,[u] and there were no houses built.

5 But my God put [it] into my heart[v] that I should collect together the nobles and the deputy rulers and the people to get themselves enrolled genealogically.[a] Then I found the book of genealogical enrollment[b] of those who came up at the first, and found written in it:

6 These are the sons of the jurisdictional district[c] who came up out of the captivity[d] of the exiled people whom Neb·u·chad·nez'zar[e] the king of Babylon had taken into exile[f] and who later returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each to his own city;[g] 7 those who came in with Ze·rub'ba·bel,[h] Jesh'u·a,[i] Ne·he·mi'ah, Az·a·ri'ah, Ra·a·mi'ah, Na·ham'a·ni, Mor'de·cai,[j] Bil'shan, Mis'pe·reth, Big'vai, Ne'hum, Ba'a·nah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel: 8 The sons of Pa'rosh,[k] two thousand one hundred and seventy-two; 9 the sons of Sheph·a·ti'ah,[l] three hundred and seventy-two; 10 the sons of A'rah,[m] six hundred and fifty-two; 11 the sons of Pa'hath-mo'ab,[n] of the sons of Jesh'u·a and Jo'ab,[o] two thousand eight hundred and eighteen; 12 the sons of E'lam,[p] a thousand two hundred and fifty-four; 13 the sons of Zat'tu,[q] eight hundred and forty-five; 14 the sons of Zac'cai,[r] seven hundred and sixty; 15 the sons of Bin'nu·i,[s] six hundred and forty-eight; 16 the sons of Be'bai,[t] six hundred and twenty-eight; 17 the sons of Az'gad,[u] two thousand three hundred and twenty-two; 18 the sons of Ad·o·ni'kam,[v] six hundred and sixty-seven; 19 the sons of Big'vai,[w] two thousand and sixty-seven; 20 the sons of A'din,[x] six hundred and fifty-five; 21 the sons of A'ter,[y] of Hez·e·ki'ah, ninety-eight; 22 the sons of Ha'shum,[z]

and came to be called by their name. 64 These were the ones that looked for their register, to establish their genealogy publicly, and it was not found,[a] so that they were barred as polluted from the priesthood.[b] 65 Consequently the Tir·sha′tha[c] said to them that they should not eat[d] from the most holy things until the priest with U′rim[e] and Thum′mim[f] stood up.

66 The entire congregation as one group was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,[g] 67 apart from their men slaves[h] and their slave girls, these being seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven;[i] and they had two hundred and forty-five male[j] singers and female[k] singers. [68 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five.][l] 69 The camels were four hundred and thirty-five. The asses[m] were six thousand seven hundred and twenty.[n]

70 And there was a part of the heads[o] of the paternal[p] houses that gave to the work.[q] The Tir·sha′tha[r] himself gave to the treasure a thousand gold drachmas, fifty bowls, five hundred and thirty priests' robes.[s] 71 And there were some of the heads of the paternal houses that gave to the treasure for the work twenty thousand gold drachmas and two thousand two hundred silver mi′nas.[t] 72 And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand gold drachmas and two thousand silver mi′nas and sixty-seven priests' robes.

73 And the priests[u] and the Levites and the gatekeepers and the singers[v] and some of the people and the Neth′i·nim[w] and all Israel took up dwelling in their cities.[x] When the seventh month arrived,[y] the sons of Israel were then in their cities.[z]

8 And all the people proceeded to gather themselves as one man[a] at the public square[b] that was before the Water Gate.[c] Then they said to Ez′ra[d] the copyist to bring the book[e] of the law of Moses,[f] which Jehovah had commanded Israel.[g] 2 Accordingly Ez′ra the priest[h] brought the law before the congregation[i] of men as well as of women and of all intelligent enough to listen,[j] on the first day of the seventh month.[k] 3 And he continued to read[l] aloud from it before the public square that is before the Water Gate, from daybreak[m] till midday, in front of the men and the women and the other intelligent ones; and the ears[n] of all the people were [attentive][o] to the book of the law. 4 And Ez′ra the copyist kept standing upon a wooden podium,[p] which they had made for the occasion; and there were standing alongside him Mat·ti·thi′ah and She′ma and A·nai′ah and U·ri′ah and Hil·ki′ah and Ma·a·sei′ah to his right hand, and at his left Pe·dai′ah and Mish′a·el and Mal·chi′jah[q] and Ha′shum[r] and Hash-bad′da·nah, Zech·a·ri′ah [and] Me·shul′lam.

5 And Ez′ra proceeded to open[s] the book before the eyes of all the people, for he happened to be above all the people; and as he opened it all the people stood up.[t] 6 Then Ez′ra blessed Jehovah[u] the [true] God, the great One, at which all the people answered, "Amen! Amen!"[v] with the lifting up of their hands.[w] They then bowed low[x] and prostrated themselves to Jehovah with [their] faces to the earth.[y] 7 And Jesh′u·a and Ba′ni and She·re·bi′ah,[z] Ja′min, Ak′kub, Shab′be·thai, Ho·di′ah, Ma·a·sei′ah, Ke·li′ta, Az·a·ri′ah, Jo′za·bad,[a] Ha′nan, Pe·la′iah,[b] even the Levites, were explaining the law to the people,[c] while the people were in a standing position.[a] 8 And they continued reading[b] aloud from the book, from the law of the [true] God, it being expounded, and there being a putting of meaning [into it]; and they continued giving understanding in the reading.[c]

9 And Ne·he·mi′ah,[d] that is, the Tir·sha′tha,[e] and Ez′ra[f] the priest, the copyist, and the Levites who were instructing the people proceeded to say to all the people: "This very day is holy to Jehovah YOUR God.[g] Do not mourn or weep."[h] For all the people were weeping as they were hearing the words of the law.[i] 10 And he went on to say to them: "Go, eat the fatty things and drink the sweet things, and send portions[j] to the one for whom nothing has been prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord, and do not feel hurt, for the joy of Jehovah is YOUR stronghold." 11 And the Levites were ordering all the people to be silent, saying: "Keep quiet! for this day is holy; and do not feel hurt." 12 So all the people went away to eat and drink and to send out portions[k] and to carry on a great rejoicing,[l] for they had understood the words that had been made known to them.[m]

13 And on the second day the heads of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, gathered themselves together to Ez′ra the copyist, even to gain insight into the words of the law.[n] 14 Then they found written in the law that Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses[o] that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths[p] during the festival in the seventh month,[q] 15 and that they should make proclamation[r] and cause a call to pass throughout all their cities and throughout Jerusalem,[s] saying: "Go out to the mountainous region[t] and bring in olive[u] leaves and the leaves of oil trees and myrtle leaves and palm leaves and the leaves of branchy trees to make booths, according to what is written."

16 And the people proceeded to go out and bring [them] in and make booths for themselves, each one upon his own roof[a] and in their courtyards and in the courtyards[b] of the house of the [true] God and in the public square[c] of the Water Gate[d] and in the public square of the Gate of E′phra·im.[e] 17 Thus all the congregation of those who had come back from the captivity made booths and took up dwelling in the booths; for the sons of Israel had not done that way from the days of Joshua the son of Nun[f] until that day, so that there came to be very great rejoicing.[g] 18 And there was a reading aloud of the book of the law of the [true] God day by day,[h] from the first day until the last day; and they went on holding the festival seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the rule.[i]

9 And on the twenty-fourth day of this month[j] the sons of Israel gathered themselves together with fasting[k] and with sackcloth[l] and dirt[m] upon themselves. 2 And the seed of Israel proceeded to separate[n] themselves from all the foreigners,[o] and to stand and make confession[p] of their own sins[q] and the errors of their fathers.[r] 3 Then they rose up at their places[s] and they read aloud from the book of the law[t] of Jehovah their God a fourth part of the day;[u] and a fourth part they were making confession[v] and bowing down to Jehovah their God.[w]

out with a loud voice[a] to Jehovah their God. 5 And the Levites Jesh′u·a and Kad′mi·el, Ba′ni, Hash·ab·nei′ah, She·re·bi′ah, Ho·di′ah, Sheb·a·ni′ah [and] Peth·a·hi′ah went on to say: "Rise, bless[b] Jehovah YOUR God from time indefinite to time indefinite.[c] And let them bless your glorious name,[d] which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 "You are Jehovah alone;[e] you yourself have made the heavens,[f] [even] the heaven of the heavens, and all their army,[g] the earth[h] and all that is upon it,[i] the seas[j] and all that is in them;[k] and you are preserving all of them alive; and the army[l] of the heavens are bowing down to you. 7 You are Jehovah the [true] God, who chose A′bram[m] and brought him out of Ur of the Chal·de′ans[n] and constituted his name Abraham.[o] 8 And you found his heart faithful before you;[p] so there was a contracting of the covenant[q] with him to give [him] the land of the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Am′or·ites and the Per′iz·zites and the Jeb′u·sites and the Gir′ga·shites, to give [it] to his seed;[r] and you proceeded to carry out your words, because you are righteous.[s]

9 "So you saw[t] the affliction of our forefathers in Egypt, and their outcry at the Red Sea you heard.[u] 10 Then you gave signs and miracles against Phar′aoh and all his servants and all the people of his land,[v] for you knew that they acted presumptuously[w] against them; and you proceeded to make a name[x] for yourself as at this day. 11 And the sea you split[y] before them, so that they crossed over through the midst of the sea on the dry land;[z] and their pursuers you hurled into the depths[a] like a stone[b] in the strong waters.[c] 12 And by a pillar of cloud you led them by day,[a] and by a pillar of fire by night,[b] to light[c] up for them the way in which they should go. 13 And upon Mount Si′nai you came down[d] and spoke with them out of heaven[e] and went on to give them upright judicial decisions[f] and laws of truth,[g] good regulations[h] and commandments.[i] 14 And your holy sabbath[j] you made known to them, and commandments and regulations and a law you commanded them by means of Moses your servant.[k] 15 And bread from heaven you gave them for their hunger,[l] and waters out of the crag you brought forth to them for their thirst,[m] and you went on to say to them to enter[n] and possess the land that you had lifted your hand [in an oath] to give to them.[o]

16 "And they themselves, even our forefathers, acted presumptuously[p] and proceeded to harden their neck,[q] and they did not listen to your commandments. 17 So they refused to listen,[r] and they did not remember[s] your wonderful acts that you performed with them, but they hardened their neck[t] and appointed a head[u] to return to their servitude in Egypt. But you are a God of acts of forgiveness,[v] gracious[w] and merciful,[x] slow to anger[y] and abundant[z] in loving-kindness, and you did not leave them.[a] 18 Yes, when they had made for themselves a molten statue of a calf[b] and began to say, 'This is your God who led you up out of Egypt,'[c] and they went on to commit great acts of disrespect, 19 you, even you, in your abundant mercy did not leave[d] them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud itself did not depart from over them by day to lead them in the way,[e] nor the pillar of fire by night to light up for them the way in which they should go.[a] 20 And your good spirit[b] you gave to make them prudent, and your manna you did not hold back from their mouth,[c] and water you gave them for their thirst.[d] 21 And for forty[e] years you provided them with food in the wilderness. They lacked nothing.[f] Their very garments did not wear out,[g] and their feet themselves did not become swollen.[h]

22 "And you proceeded to give them kingdoms[i] and peoples, and to apportion them piece by piece;[j] so that they took possession of the land of Si′hon,[k] even the land of the king of Hesh′bon,[l] and the land of Og[m] the king of Ba′shan.[n] 23 And their sons you made as many as the stars of the heavens.[o] Then you brought them into the land[p] that you had promised to their forefathers[q] that [they] should enter to take possession. 24 So their sons[r] came in and took the land in possession,[s] and you proceeded to subdue[t] before them the inhabitants of the land, the Ca′naan·ites,[u] and to give them into their hand, even their kings[v] and the peoples of the land,[w] to do with them according to their liking.[x] 25 And they went capturing fortified cities[y] and a fat soil[z] and taking in possession houses full of all good things,[a] cisterns hewn out,[b] vineyards and olive groves[c] and trees for food in abundance, and they began to eat and to be satisfied[d] and to grow fat[e] and to luxuriate in your great goodness.[f]

26 "However, they became disobedient[g] and rebelled against you[h] and kept casting your law behind their back,[i] and your own prophets they killed,[j] who bore witness against them to bring them back to you;[k] and they went on committing acts of great disrespect.[l] 27 For this you gave them into the hand of their adversaries,[a] who kept causing them distress;[b] but in the time of their distress they would cry out to you,[c] and you yourself would hear from the very heavens;[d] and in accord with your abundant mercy[e] you would give them saviors[f] who would save them out of the hand of their adversaries.[g]

28 "But as soon as they were at rest, they would again do what is bad before you,[h] and you would leave them to the hand of their enemies, who would tread them down.[i] Then they would return and call to you for aid,[j] and you yourself would hear from the very heavens[k] and deliver them in accord with your abundant mercy, time and again.[l] 29 Although you would bear witness[m] against them to bring them back to your law,[n] they themselves even acted presumptuously[o] and did not listen to your commandments; and against your own judicial decisions[p] they sinned,[q] which, if a man will do, he must also live by means of them.[r] And they kept giving a stubborn shoulder,[s] and their neck they hardened,[t] and they did not listen.[u] 30 But you were indulgent with them for many years[v] and kept bearing witness[w] against them by your spirit by means of your prophets, and they did not give ear.[x] Finally you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.[y] 31 And in your abundant mercy you did not make an extermination of them[z] or leave[a] them; for you are a God gracious[b] and merciful.[c]

inspiring,[a] keeping the covenant[b] and loving-kindness,[c] do not let all the hardship that has found us,[d] our kings,[e] our princes[f] and our priests[g] and our prophets[h] and our forefathers[i] and all your people from the days of the kings of As·syr′i·a down to this day,[j] seem little before you.[k] 33 And you are righteous[l] as regards all that has come upon us, for faithfully[m] is how you have acted, but we are the ones that have done wickedly.[n] 34 As for our kings, our princes, our priests and our forefathers,[o] they have not performed your law,[p] nor paid attention to your commandments[q] or to your testimonies with which you bore witness[r] against them. 35 And they themselves—during their kingdom[s] and amid your abundant good things[t] that you gave to them and in the broad and fat land[u] that you made available for them, they did not serve you[v] and did not turn back from their bad practices.[w] 36 Look! We are today slaves;[x] and as for the land that you gave to our forefathers to eat its fruitage and its good things, look! we are slaves upon it,[y] 37 and its produce is abounding[z] for the kings[a] that you have put over us because of our sins,[b] and over our bodies they are ruling and over our domestic animals, according to their liking, and we are in great distress.[c]

38 "So in view of all this we are contracting a trustworthy arrangement,[d] both in writing and attested by the seal[e] of our princes, our Levites [and] our priests."[f]

10 Now attesting it by seal[g] there were:

Ne·he·mi′ah[h] the Tir·sha′tha,[i] the son of Hac·a·li′ah,[j]

And Zed·e·ki′ah, 2 Se·rai′ah,[k] Az·a·ri′ah, Jeremiah, 3 Pash′hur, Am·a·ri′ah, Mal·chi′jah, 4 Hat′tush, Sheb·a·ni′ah, Mal′luch, 5 Ha′rim,[a] Mer′e·moth, O·ba·di′ah, 6 Daniel,[b] Gin′ne·thon, Bar′uch, 7 Me·shul′lam, A·bi′jah, Mij′a·min, 8 Ma·a·zi′ah, Bil′gai [and] She·mai′ah, these being the priests.

9 Also the Levites: Jesh′u·a[c] the son of Az·a·ni′ah, Bin′nu·i of the sons of Hen′a·dad,[d] Kad′mi·el 10 and their brothers Sheb·a·ni′ah,[e] Ho·di′ah, Ke·li′ta, Pe·la′iah, Ha′nan, 11 Mi′ca, Re′hob, Hash·a·bi′ah, 12 Zac′cur, She·re·bi′ah,[f] Sheb·a·ni′ah, 13 Ho·di′ah, Ba′ni [and] Be·ni′nu.

14 The heads of the people: Pa′rosh, Pa′hath-mo′ab,[g] E′lam, Zat′tu, Ba′ni, 15 Bun′ni, Az′gad, Be′bai, 16 Ad·o·ni′jah, Big′vai, A′din, 17 A′ter, Hez·e·ki′ah, Az′zur, 18 Ho·di′ah, Ha′shum, Be′zai, 19 Ha′riph, An′a·thoth, Ne′bai, 20 Mag′pi·ash, Me·shul′lam, He′zir, 21 Me·shez′a·bel, Za′dok, Jad′du·a, 22 Pel·a·ti′ah, Ha′nan, A·nai′ah, 23 Ho·she′a, Han·a·ni′ah, Has′shub, 24 Hal·lo′hesh, Pil′ha, Sho′bek, 25 Re′hum, Ha·shab′nah, Ma·a·sei′ah, 26 and A·hi′jah, Ha′nan, A′nan, 27 Mal′luch, Ha′rim, Ba′a·nah.

28 As for the rest of the people, the priests,[h] the Levites,[i] the gatekeepers,[j] the singers,[k] the Neth′i·nim[l] and everyone separating himself from the peoples of the lands[m] to the law[n] of the [true] God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, everyone having knowledge [and] understanding,[o] 29 they were adhering to their brothers,[p] their majestic ones,[q] and coming into [liability to] a curse[r] and into an oath,[s] to walk in the law of the [true] God, which had been given by the hand of Moses the servant of the [true] God,[t] and to keep[u] and to perform all the commandments of Jehovah our Lord[v] and his judicial decisions and his regulations;[a] 30 and that we should not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and their daughters we should not take for our sons.[b]

31 As for the peoples of the land[c] who were bringing in wares and every kind of cereal on the sabbath day to sell, we should take nothing from them on the sabbath[d] or on a holy day,[e] and we should forego the seventh year[f] and the debt of every hand.[g]

32 Also, we imposed upon ourselves commandments to give, each of us, a third of a shekel yearly for the service of the house of our God,[h] 33 for the layer bread[i] and the constant grain offering[j] and the constant burnt offering of the sabbaths,[k] the new moons,[l] for the appointed feasts[m] and for the holy[n] things and for the sin offerings[o] to make atonement for Israel and all the work of the house of our God.[p]

34 Also, the lots[q] we cast concerning the supply of the wood[r] that the priests, the Levites and the people should bring to the house of our God, by the house of our forefathers, at the appointed times, year by year, to burn upon the altar of Jehovah our God,[s] according to what is written in the law;[t] 35 and to bring the first ripe fruits of our ground[u] and the first ripe fruits of all the fruitage of every sort of tree,[v] year by year, to the house of Jehovah; 36 and the firstborn[w] of our sons and of our domestic animals,[x] according to what is written in the law,[y] and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks,[z] to bring [them] to the house of our God, to the priests that were ministering in the house of our God.[a] 37 Also, the firstfruits of our coarse meal[b] and our contributions[c] and the fruitage of every sort of tree,[d] new wine[e] and oil[f] we should bring to the priests to the dining halls[a] of the house of our God, also the tenth from our soil to the Levites,[b] as they, the Levites, are the ones receiving a tenth in all our agricultural cities.

38 And the priest, the son of Aaron, must prove to be with the Levites when the Levites receive a tenth; and the Levites themselves should offer up a tenth of the tenth to the house of our God[c] to the dining halls[d] of the supply house. 39 For it is to the dining halls that the sons of Israel and the sons of the Levites should bring the contribution[e] of the grain, the new wine[f] and the oil, and there is where the utensils of the sanctuary and the priests that were ministering,[g] and the gatekeepers[h] and the singers[i] are; and we should not neglect the house of our God.[j]

11 Now the princes[k] of the people had their dwelling in Jerusalem;[l] but as for the rest of the people, they cast lots[m] to bring in one out of every ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city,[n] and the nine other parts in the other cities. 2 Moreover, the people blessed[o] all the men who volunteered[p] to dwell in Jerusalem.

3 And these are the heads of the jurisdictional district[q] who dwelt in Jerusalem;[r] but in the cities of Judah there dwelt, each one in his own possession, in their cities,[s] Israel,[t] the priests[u] and the Levites,[v] and the Neth′i·nim[w] and the sons of the servants of Sol′o·mon.[x]

4 Also, in Jerusalem there dwelt some of the sons of Judah and some of the sons of Benjamin.[y] Of the sons of Judah there were A·thai′ah the son of Uz·zi′ah the son of Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Am·a·ri′ah the son of Sheph·a·ti′ah the son of Ma-

hal'a·lel of the sons of Pe'rez;[a] 5 and Ma·a·sei'ah the son of Bar'uch the son of Col·ho'zeh the son of Ha·zai'ah the son of A·dai'ah the son of Joi'a·rib the son of Zech·a·ri'ah the son of the She·la'nite. 6 All the sons of Pe'rez who were dwelling in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight, capable men.

7 And these were the sons of Benjamin:[b] Sal'lu the son of Me·shul'lam[c] the son of Jo'ed the son of Pe·dai'ah the son of Ko·lai'ah the son of Ma·a·sei'ah the son of Ith'i·el the son of Je·sha'iah; 8 and after him Gab·ba'i [and] Sal·la'i, nine hundred and twenty-eight; 9 and Joel the son of Zich'ri, an overseer over them, and Judah the son of Has·se·nu'ah over the city as second.

10 Of the priests: Je·da'iah the son of Joi'a·rib,[d] Ja'chin,[e] 11 Se·rai'ah the son of Hil·ki'ah the son of Me·shul'lam[f] the son of Za'dok[g] the son of Me·ra'ioth the son of A·hi'tub,[h] a leader of the house of the [true] God; 12 and their brothers the doers of the work of the house,[i] eight hundred and twenty-two; and A·dai'ah the son of Je·ro'ham[j] the son of Pel·a·li'ah the son of Am'zi the son of Zech·a·ri'ah the son of Pash'hur[k] the son of Mal·chi'jah,[l] 13 and his brothers, heads of paternal houses,[m] two hundred and forty-two, and A·mash'sai the son of Az'ar·el the son of Ah'zai the son of Me·shil'le·moth the son of Im'mer, 14 and their brothers, mighty men of valor,[n] a hundred and twenty-eight, and there was an overseer[o] over them, Zab'di·el the son of the great ones.

15 And of the Levites:[p] She·mai'ah the son of Has'shub the son of Az·ri'kam the son of Hash·a·bi'ah[q] the son of Bun'ni, 16 and Shab'be·thai[r] and Jo'za·bad,[s] of the heads of the Levites, over the outside business of the house of the [true] God; 17 and Mat·ta·ni'ah[a] himself, the son of Mi'cah the son of Zab'di the son of A'saph,[b] the conductor of the praise [singing],[c] did the lauding at prayer,[d] and Bak·bu·ki'ah was second of his brothers, and Ab'da the son of Sham·mu'a the son of Ga'lal[e] the son of Je·du'thun.[f] 18 All the Levites in the holy[g] city were two hundred and eighty-four.

19 And the gatekeepers[h] were Ak'kub, Tal'mon[i] and their brothers who were keeping guard in the gates,[j] a hundred and seventy-two.

20 And the rest of Israel, of the priests [and] of the Levites, were in all the other cities of Judah, each one in his own hereditary possession.[k] 21 And the Neth'i·nim[l] were dwelling in O'phel;[m] and Zi'ha and Gish'pa were over the Neth'i·nim.

22 And the overseer[n] of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uz'zi the son of Ba'ni the son of Hash·a·bi'ah the son of Mat·ta·ni'ah[o] the son of Mi'ca[p] of the sons of A'saph,[q] the singers,[r] concerning the work of the house of the [true] God. 23 For there was a commandment of the king in behalf of them,[s] and there was a fixed provision for the singers as each day required.[t] 24 And Peth·a·hi'ah the son of Me·shez'a·bel of the sons of Ze'rah the son of Judah was at the side of the king for every matter of the people.

25 And as regards the settlements[u] in their fields, there were some of the sons of Judah that dwelt in Kir'i·ath-ar'ba[v] and its dependent towns and in Di'bon and its dependent towns and in Je·kab'ze·el[w] and its settlements, 26 and in Jesh'u·a and in Mo·la'dah[x] and in Beth-pel'et[y] 27 and in Ha'zar-shu'al[z] and in Be'er-she'ba[a] and its dependent towns 28 and in Zik'lag[b] and in Me·co'nah and its dependent towns 29 and in En-rim'mon[c] and in Zo'rah[d] and in Jar'muth,[e]

30 Za·no'ah,[a] A·dul'lam[b] and their settlements, La'chish[c] and its fields, A·ze'kah[d] and its dependent towns. And they took up camping from Be'er-she'ba clear to the valley of Hin'nom.[e]

31 And the sons of Benjamin were from Ge'ba,[f] Mich'mash[g] and Ai'ja[h] and Beth'el[i] and its dependent towns, 32 An'a·thoth,[j] Nob,[k] A·na·ni'ah, 33 Ha'zor, Ra'mah,[l] Git'ta·im,[m] 34 Ha'did, Ze·bo'im, Ne·bal'lat, 35 Lod[n] and O'no,[o] the valley of the craftsmen. 36 And of the Levites there were divisions of Judah for Benjamin.

12 And these were the priests and the Levites that went up with Ze·rub'ba·bel[p] the son of She·al'ti·el[q] and Jesh'u·a:[r] Se·rai'ah, Jeremiah, Ez'ra, 2 Am·a·ri'ah,[s] Mal'luch, Hat'tush, 3 Shec·a·ni'ah, Re'hum, Mer'e·moth, 4 Id'do, Gin'ne·thoi, A·bi'jah, 5 Mij'a·min, Ma·a·di'ah, Bil'gah, 6 She·mai'ah,[t] and Joi'a·rib, Je·da'iah,[u] 7 Sal'lu, A'mok,[v] Hil·ki'ah, Je·da'iah.[w] These were the heads of the priests and their brothers in the days of Jesh'u·a.[x]

8 And the Levites were Jesh'u·a,[y] Bin'nu·i,[z] Kad'mi·el,[a] She·re·bi'ah,[b] Judah, Mat·ta·ni'ah,[c] over the giving of thanks, he and his brothers. 9 And Bak·bu·ki'ah and Un'ni their brothers were opposite them for guard duties. 10 Jesh'u·a himself became father to Joi'a·kim,[d] and Joi'a·kim himself became father to E·li'a·shib,[e] and E·li'a·shib to Joi'a·da.[f] 11 And Joi'a·da himself became father to Jon'a·than, and Jon'a·than himself became father to Jad'du·a.[g]

12 And in the days of Joi'a·kim there happened to be priests, the heads of the paternal[h] houses: for Se·rai'ah,[i] Me·rai'ah; for Jeremiah, Han·a·ni'ah; 13 for Ez'ra,[j] Me·shul'lam; for Am·a·ri'ah, Je·ho·ha'nan; 14 for Mal'lu·chi, Jon'a·than; for Sheb·a·ni'ah,[a] Joseph; 15 for Ha'rim,[b] Ad'na; for Me·ra'ioth, Hel'kai; 16 for Id'do, Zech·a·ri'ah; for Gin'ne·thon, Me·shul'lam; 17 for A·bi'jah,[c] Zich'ri; for Mi·ni'a·min, ——; for Mo·a·di'ah, Pil'tai; 18 for Bil'gah,[d] Sham·mu'a; for She·mai'ah, Je·hon'a·than; 19 and for Joi'a·rib, Mat·te'nai; for Je·da'iah,[e] Uz'zi; 20 for Sal·la'i, Kal'lai; for A'mok, E'ber; 21 for Hil·ki'ah, Hash·a·bi'ah; for Je·da'iah,[f] Ne·than'el.

22 The Levites in the days of E·li'a·shib,[g] Joi'a·da[h] and Jo·ha'nan and Jad'du·a[i] were recorded as heads of paternal houses, also the priests, down till the kingship of Da·ri'us the Persian.

23 The sons of Le'vi as heads of the paternal houses[j] were recorded in the book of the affairs of the times, even down till the days of Jo·ha'nan the son of E·li'a·shib. 24 And the heads of the Levites were Hash·a·bi'ah, She·re·bi'ah[k] and Jesh'u·a the son of Kad'mi·el[l] and their brothers opposite them to offer praise [and] give thanks according to the commandment[m] of David the man of the [true] God, guard group corresponding with guard group. 25 Mat·ta·ni'ah[n] and Bak·bu·ki'ah, O·ba·di'ah, Me·shul'lam, Tal'mon, Ak'kub[o] were keeping guard as gatekeepers,[p] a guard group by the stores of the gates. 26 These were in the days of Joi'a·kim[q] the son of Jesh'u·a[r] the son of Jo'za·dak[s] and in the days of Ne·he·mi'ah[t] the governor and Ez'ra[u] the priest, the copyist.[v]

27 And at the inauguration[w] of the wall of Jerusalem they looked for the Levites, to bring them out of all their places to Jerusalem to carry on an inauguration and a rejoicing even with thanksgivings[x] and with song,[y] cymbals [and] stringed instruments[a] and with harps.[b] 28 And the sons of the singers proceeded to gather themselves even from the District,[c] from all around Jerusalem and from the settlements of the Ne·toph′a·thites,[d] 29 and from Beth-gil′gal[e] and from the fields of Ge′ba[f] and Az′ma·veth,[g] for there were settlements[h] that the singers had built for themselves all around Jerusalem. 30 And the priests and the Levites proceeded to cleanse[i] themselves and cleanse the people[j] and the gates[k] and the wall.[l]

31 Then I brought up the princes[m] of Judah upon the wall. Further, I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs[n] and processions, [and the one was walking] to the right upon the wall to the Gate of the Ash-heaps.[o] 32 And Ho·shai′ah and half of the princes of Judah began to walk behind them, 33 also Az·a·ri′ah, Ez′ra and Me·shul′lam, 34 Judah and Benjamin and She·mai′ah and Jeremiah; 35 also of the sons of the priests with the trumpets[p] Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Jon′a·than the son of She·mai′ah the son of Mat·ta·ni′ah the son of Mi·cai′ah the son of Zac′cur[q] the son of A′saph,[r] 36 and his brothers She·mai′ah and Az′ar·el, Mil′a·lai, Gil′a·lai, Ma′ai, Ne·than′el and Judah, Ha·na′ni, with the instruments[s] of song of David the man of the [true] God; and Ez′ra[t] the copyist before them. 37 And at the Fountain Gate[u] and straight ahead of them they went up on the Stairway[v] of the City of David[w] by the ascent of the wall above the House of David and clear to the Water Gate[x] to the east.

38 And the other thanksgiving choir[y] was walking in front, and I after it, also half of the people, upon the wall up over the Tower of the Bake Ovens[z] and on to the Broad Wall,[a] 39 and up over the Gate of E′phra·im[a] and on to the Gate of the Old [City][b] and clear to the Fish Gate[c] and the Tower of Ha·nan′el[d] and the Tower of Me′ah[e] and on to the Sheep Gate;[f] and they came to a stand at the Gate of the Guard.

40 At length the two thanksgiving choirs[g] came to a stand at the house[h] of the [true] God, also I and half of the deputy rulers with me,[i] 41 and the priests E·li′a·kim, Ma·a·sei′ah, Mi·ni′a·min, Mi·cai′ah, E·li·o·e′nai, Zech·a·ri′ah, Han·a·ni′ah with the trumpets,[j] 42 and Ma·a·sei′ah and She·mai′ah, and El·e·a′zar and Uz′zi and Je·ho·ha′nan and Mal·chi′jah and E′lam and E′zer. And the singers with Iz·ra·hi′ah the overseer kept making themselves heard.[k]

43 And they proceeded to sacrifice on that day great sacrifices[l] and to rejoice,[m] for the [true] God himself caused them to rejoice with great joy.[n] And also the women[o] and the children[p] themselves rejoiced, so that the rejoicing of Jerusalem could be heard far away.[q]

44 Further, there were appointed on that day men over the halls[r] for the stores,[s] for the contributions,[t] for the firstfruits[u] and for the tenths,[v] to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions [called for by] the law[w] for the priests and the Levites;[x] for the rejoicing of Judah was because of the priests and of the Levites[y] who were in attendance. 45 And they began taking care of the obligation[z] of their God and the obligation of the purification,[a] also the singers[b] and the gatekeepers,[c] according to the commandment of David [and] Sol′o·mon his son. 46 For in the days of David and A′saph in bygone time there were heads of the singers[a] and the song of praise and thanksgivings to God.[b] 47 And all Israel during the days of Ze·rub′ba·bel[c] and during the days of Ne·he·mi′ah[d] were giving the portions of the singers[e] and of the gatekeepers[f] according to the daily need and were sanctifying [them] to the Levites;[g] and the Levites were sanctifying [them] to the sons of Aaron.

13 On that day there was a reading[h] from the book[i] of Moses in the ears of the people; and there was found written in it that the Am′mon·ite[j] and the Mo′ab·ite[k] should not come into the congregation of the [true] God to time indefinite,[l] 2 for they had not met the sons of Israel with bread[m] and with water,[n] but went hiring against them Ba′laam[o] to call down evil upon them.[p] However, our God changed the malediction into a benediction.[q] 3 So it came about that, as soon as they heard the law,[r] they began to separate[s] all the mixed company from Israel.

4 Now before this, E·li′a·shib[t] the priest in charge of a dining hall[u] of the house of our God was a relative of To·bi′ah;[v] 5 and he proceeded to make for him a large dining hall,[w] where previously they were regularly putting the grain offering,[x] the frankincense and the utensils and the tenth of the grain, the new wine[y] and the oil,[z] to which the Levites[a] and the singers and the gatekeepers are entitled, and the contribution for the priests.

6 And during all this [time] I did not happen to be in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second[b] year of Ar·ta·xerx′es[c] the king of Babylon I came to the king, and sometime later I asked leave of absence from the king.[d] 7 Then I came to Jerusalem and got to notice the badness that E·li′a·shib[e] had committed for To·bi′ah[a] by making for him a hall in the courtyard of the house[b] of the [true] God. 8 And it seemed very bad to me.[c] So I threw[d] all the furniture of To·bi′ah's house outside the dining hall. 9 After that I said [the word] and they cleansed[e] the dining halls;[f] and I proceeded to put back there the utensils[g] of the house of the [true] God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.[h]

10 And I got to find out that the very portions[i] of the Levites had not been given [them], so that the Levites and the singers doing the work went running off, each one to his own field.[j] 11 And I began to find fault[k] with the deputy rulers[l] and say: "Why has the house of the [true] God been neglected?"[m] Consequently I collected them together and stationed them at their standing place. 12 And all Judah, for their part, brought in the tenth[n] of the grain[o] and of the new wine[p] and of the oil[q] to the stores.[r] 13 Then I put Shel·e·mi′ah the priest and Za′dok the copyist and Pe·dai′ah of the Levites in charge of the stores; and under their control there was Ha′nan the son of Zac′cur the son of Mat·ta·ni′ah,[s] for they were considered faithful;[t] and upon them it devolved to do the distributing[u] to their brothers.

14 Do remember me,[v] O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe[w] out my acts of loving-kindness that I have performed in connection with the house[x] of my God and the guardianship of it.

15 In those days I saw in Judah people treading winepresses on the sabbath[y] and bringing in grain heaps and loading[z] [them] upon asses,[a] and also wine, grapes and figs[a] and every sort of burden, and bringing [them] into Jerusalem on the sabbath day;[b] and I proceeded to bear witness [against them] on the day of their selling provisions. 16 And the Tyr'i·ans[c] themselves dwelt in [the city], bringing in fish and every sort of merchandise[d] and making sales on the sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem. 17 So I began to find fault with the nobles[e] of Judah and say to them: "What is this bad thing that YOU are doing, even profaning the sabbath day? 18 Was it not this way that YOUR forefathers did,[f] so that our God brought upon us all this calamity,[g] and also upon this city? Yet YOU are adding to the burning anger against Israel by profaning the sabbath."[h]

19 And it came about that, as soon as the gates of Jerusalem had grown shadowy before the sabbath, I immediately said [the word] and the doors began to be closed.[i] I said further that they should not open them until after the sabbath; and some of my own attendants I stationed at the gates that no burden might come in on the sabbath day.[j] 20 Consequently the traders and the sellers of every sort of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem once and a second time. 21 Then I proceeded to bear witness[k] against them and say to them: "Why are YOU spending the night in front of the wall? If YOU do it again, a hand I shall lay on YOU."[l] From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

22 And I went on to say to the Levites[m] that they should be regularly purifying[n] themselves and coming in, keeping guard of the gates[o] to sanctify[p] the sabbath day. This, also, do remember[q] to my account, O my God, and do feel sorry for me according to the abundance of your loving-kindness.[a]

23 Also, in those days I saw the Jews that had given a dwelling[b] to Ash'dod·ite,[c] Am'mon·ite [and] Mo'ab·ite[d] wives. 24 And as for their sons, half were speaking Ash'dod·ite, and there were none of them knowing how to speak Jewish,[e] but in the tongue of the different peoples. 25 And I began to find fault with them and call down evil upon them[f] and strike some men of them[g] and pull out their hair and make them swear by God:[h] "YOU should not give YOUR daughters to their sons, and YOU should not accept any of their daughters for YOUR sons or yourselves.[i] 26 Was it not because of these that Sol'o·mon the king of Israel sinned?[j] And among the many nations there proved to be no king like him;[k] and loved of his God he happened to be,[l] so that God constituted him king over all Israel. Even him the foreign wives caused to sin.[m] 27 And is it not something unheard of for YOU to commit all this great badness in acting unfaithfully against our God by giving a dwelling to foreign wives?"[n]

28 And one of the sons of Joi'a·da[o] the son of E·li'a·shib[p] the high priest was a son-in-law of San·bal'lat[q] the Hor'o·nite.[r] So I chased him away from me.[s]

29 Do remember them, O my God, on account of the defilement[t] of the priesthood and the covenant[u] of the priesthood and of the Levites.[v]

30 And I purified[w] them from everything foreign and proceeded to assign duties to the priests and to the Levites, each one in his own work,[x] 31 even for the supply of the wood[y] at appointed times and for the first ripe fruits.

Do remember me,[z] O my God, for good.[a]

ESTHER

1 Now it came about in the days of A·has·u·e'rus,[a] that is, the A·has·u·e'rus who was ruling as king from In'di·a to E·thi·o'pi·a, [over] a hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts,[b] 2 [that] in those days as King A·has·u·e'rus was sitting upon his royal throne,[c] which was in Shu'shan[d] the castle,[e] 3 in the third year of his reigning he held a banquet[f] for all his princes and his servants, the military force of Persia[g] and Me'di·a,[h] the nobles[i] and the princes of the jurisdictional districts before himself,[j] 4 when he showed the riches[k] of his glorious kingdom and the honor[l] [and] the beauty of his greatness for many days, a hundred and eighty days. 5 And when these days had come to the full, the king held a banquet for seven days for all the people that were found in Shu'shan the castle, for the great as well as the small, in the courtyard of the garden of the king's palace. 6 There were linen, fine cotton and blue[m] held fast in ropes of fine fabric, and wool dyed reddish purple[n] in silver rings and pillars of marble, couches[o] of gold and silver upon a pavement of porphyry and marble and pearl and black marble.

7 And there was a passing of wine to drink in gold vessels;[p] and the vessels were different from one another, and the royal wine[q] was in great quantity, according to the means of the king. 8 As regards the time of drinking according to the law, there was no one compelling, for that was the way the king had arranged for every great man of his household, to do according to the liking of each and every one.

9 Also, Vash'ti[r] the queen herself held a banquet for the women at the royal house that belonged to King A·has·u·e'rus.

10 On the seventh day, when the king's heart was in a merry mood with wine,[a] he said to Me·hu'man, Biz'tha, Har·bo'na,[b] Big'tha and A·bag'tha, Ze'thar and Car'kas, the seven court officials that were ministering[c] to the person of King A·has·u·e'rus, 11 to bring Vash'ti the queen in the royal headdress before the king, to show the peoples and the princes her loveliness; for she was beautiful in appearance.[d] 12 But Queen Vash'ti kept refusing[e] to come at the king's word that was [conveyed] by means of the court officials. At this the king grew highly indignant and his very rage flared up within him.[f]

13 And the king proceeded to say to the wise[g] men having knowledge of the times[h] (for in this way the king's matter [came] before all those versed in law and legal cases, 14 and those closest to him were Car·she'na, She'thar, Ad·ma'tha, Tar'shish, Me'res, Mar·se'na, [and] Me·mu'can, seven[i] princes of Persia and Me'di·a, having access to the king,[j] [and] who were sitting first in the kingdom): 15 "According to law what is to be done with Queen Vash'ti because she has not performed the saying of King A·has·u·e'rus by means of the court officials?"

16 To this Me·mu'can[k] said before the king and the princes: "It is not against the king alone that Vash'ti the queen has done wrong,[l] but against all the princes and against all the peoples that are in all the jurisdictional districts of King A·has·u·e'rus. 17 For the affair of the queen will go out will despise[a] their owners[b] in 'King A·has·u·e'rus himself said to bring in Vash'ti the queen princesses of Persia and Me'di·a, who have heard the affair of the queen, will talk to all the princes of the king, and there will be plenty of contempt and indignation.[c] 19 If to the king it does seem good,[d] let a royal word go out from his person, and let it be written among the laws[e] of Persia and Me'di·a, that it may not pass away,[f] that Vash'ti may not come in before King A·has·u·e'rus; and her royal dignity let the king give to the word of Me·mu'can. 22 So he sent written documents[j] to the king's attendants, his ministers,[q] said: "Let them seek[r] and let them collect together all the young women, virgins, beautiful in appearance, at Shu'shan the castle,[a] at the house of the women in charge of Heg'a·i[b] the king's eunuch,[c]

the guardian of the women; and let there be a giving of their massages. 4 And that young woman who seems pleasing in the king's eyes will be queen instead of Vash'ti."[d] And the thing was pleasing in the king's eyes, and he proceeded to do that way.
5 A certain man, a Jew, happened to be in Shu'shan[e] the castle, and his name was Mor'de·cai[f] the son of Ja'ir the son of Shim'e·i the son of Kish a Ben'ja·min·ite,[g] 6 who had been taken into exile[h] from Jerusalem with the deported people who were taken into exile with Jec·o·ni'ah[i] the king of Judah whom Neb·u·chad·nez'zar[j] the king of Babylon took into exile. 7 And he came to be the caretaker[k] of Ha·das'sah, that is, Esther, the daughter of his father's brother,[l] for she had neither father nor mother; and the young woman was pretty in form and beautiful in appearance,[m] and at the death of her father and her mother Mor'de·cai took her as his daughter.
8 And it came about that, when the king's word and his law were heard, and when many young women were collected together at Shu'shan[n] the castle in charge of Heg'a·i,[o] then Esther was taken to the king's house in charge of Heg'a·i the guardian of the women.
9 Now the young woman was pleasing in his eyes, so that she gained loving-kindness[p] before him and he made haste to give her her massages[q] and her appropriate food, and to give her seven selected young women from the king's house, and he proceeded to transfer her and her young women to the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not told about her people[a] or about her relatives, for Mor'de·cai himself had laid the command upon her that she should not tell.[b] 11 And day after day Mor'de·cai was walking before the courtyard of the house of the women to know of Esther's welfare and what was being done with her.
12 And when the turn of each young woman arrived to go in to King A·has·u·e'rus after it had happened to her according to the women's regulation for twelve months, for that was the way the days of their massage procedure were gradually fulfilled, six months with oil of myrrh[c] and six months with balsam oil[d] and with the massages of the women; 13 then on these conditions the young woman herself came in to the king. Everything that she would mention would be given her, to come with her from the house of the women to the king's house.[e] 14 In the evening she herself came in, and in the morning she herself returned to the second house of the women in charge of Sha·ash'gaz the king's eunuch,[f] the guardian of the concubines. She would not come in anymore to the king unless the king had taken delight in her and she had been called by name.[g]
15 And when the turn of Esther the daughter of Ab'i·ha·il the uncle of Mor'de·cai, whom he had taken as his daughter,[h] arrived to come in to the king, she did not request anything[i] except what Heg'a·i[j]
the king's eunuch, the guardian of the women, proceeded to mention (all the while Esther was continually gaining favor in the eyes of everyone seeing her).[k] 16 Then Esther was taken to King A·has·u·e'rus at his royal house in the tenth month, that is, the month Te'beth, in the seventh year[l] of his reign. 17 And the king came to love Esther more than all the other women, so that she gained more favor and loving-kindness before him than all the other virgins.[a] And he proceeded to put the royal headdress upon her head and make her queen[b] instead of Vash'ti. 18 And the king went on to hold a great banquet for all his princes and his servants, the banquet of Esther; and an amnesty[c] for the jurisdictional districts he granted, and he kept giving presents according to the means of the king.

19 Now when virgins[d] were collected together a second time, Mor'de·cai was sitting in the king's gate.[e] 20 Esther was not telling about her relatives and her people,[f] just as Mor'de·cai[g] had laid the command upon her;[h] and the saying of Mor'de·cai Esther was performing, just as when she happened to be under care by him.[i] 21 In those days while Mor'de·cai was sitting in the king's gate, Big'than and Te'resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, became indignant and kept seeking to lay hand[j] on King A·has·u·e'rus. 22 And the thing came to be known to Mor'de·cai, and he immediately told[k] Esther the queen. In turn Esther talked to the king in Mor'de·cai's name.[l] 23 So the matter was sought out and eventually found out, and both of them got to be hanged[m] on a stake;[n] after which it was written in the book of the affairs[o] of the days before the king.

3 After these things King A·has·u·e'rus magnified Ha'man[p] the son of Ham·me·da'tha the Ag'ag·ite[q] and proceeded to exalt him[r] and to put his throne above all the other princes that were with him.[s] 2 And all the king's servants that were in the king's gate[t] were bowing low and prostrating themselves to Ha'man, for so the king had commanded respecting him. But as for Mor′de·cai, he would neither bow low nor prostrate himself.[a] 3 And the king's servants who were in the king's gate began to say to Mor′de·cai: "Why are you sidestepping the king's commandment?"[b] 4 And it came about that, as they talked to him day by day, and he did not listen to them, then they told Ha′man to see whether Mor′de·cai's affairs would stand;[c] for he had told them that he was a Jew.[d]

5 Now Ha′man kept seeing that Mor′de·cai was not bowing low and prostrating himself to him,[e] and Ha′man became filled with rage.[f] 6 But it was despicable in his eyes to lay hand upon Mor′de·cai alone, for they had told him about Mor′de·cai's people; and Ha′man began seeking to annihilate[g] all the Jews who were in all the realm of A·has·u·e′rus, Mor′de·cai's people.[h]

7 In the first month,[i] that is, the month Ni′san, in the twelfth year[j] of King A·has·u·e′rus, someone cast Pur,[k] that is, the Lot,[l] before Ha′man from day to day and from month to month, [to] the twelfth, that is, the month A′dar.[m] 8 And Ha′man proceeded to say to King A·has·u·e′rus: "There is one certain people scattered[n] and separated among the peoples in all the jurisdictional districts of your realm;[o] and their laws are different from all other people's, and the king's own laws they are not performing,[p] and for the king it is not appropriate to let them alone. 9 If to the king it does seem good, let there be a writing that they be destroyed; and ten thousand[q] silver talents I shall pay into the hands of those doing the work[r] by bringing [it] into the king's treasury."

10 At that the king removed his signet ring[s] from his own hand and gave it to Ha′man[t] the son of Ham·me·da′tha the Ag′ag·ite,[a] the one showing hostility to the Jews.[b] 11 And the king went on to say to Ha′man: "The silver[c] is given to you, also the people, to do with them according to what is good in your own eyes."[d] 12 The king's secretaries[e] were then called in the first month on the thirteenth day of it, and writing[f] went on according to all that Ha′man commanded the king's satraps and the governors who were over the different jurisdictional districts,[g] and the princes of the different peoples, of each jurisdictional district, in its own style of writing,[h] and each people in its own tongue; in the name[i] of King A·has·u·e′rus it was written and it was sealed with the king's signet ring.[j]

13 And there was a sending of the letters by means of couriers[k] to all the king's jurisdictional districts, to annihilate, to kill and to destroy all the Jews, young man as well as old man, little ones and women, on one day,[l] on the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, that is, the month A′dar,[m] and to plunder the spoil of them.[n] 14 A copy of the writing to be given as law[o] in all the different jurisdictional districts[p] was being published to all the peoples, [for them] to become ready for this day. 15 The couriers themselves went out, being moved to speed[q] because of the king's word, and the law itself was given in Shu′shan[r] the castle. As for the king and Ha′man, they sat down to drink;[s] but as for the city of Shu′shan,[t] it was in confusion.[u]

4 And Mor′de·cai[v] himself got knowledge of everything that had been done;[w] and Mor′de·cai proceeded to rip his garments apart and put on sackcloth[x] and ashes[y] and go out into the middle of the city and cry out with a loud and bitter outcry.[z] 2 Finally he came as far as in front of the king's gate,[a] for no one was to come into the king's gate in clothing of sackcloth. 3 And in all the different jurisdictional districts,[b] wherever the king's word and his law were reaching, there was great mourning[c] among the Jews, and fasting[d] and weeping and wailing. Sackcloth[e] and ashes[f] themselves came to be spread out as a couch for many. 4 And Esther's young women and her eunuchs[g] began to come in and tell her. And the queen was very much pained. Then she sent garments to clothe Mor′de·cai and to remove his sackcloth off him. And he did not accept [them].[h] 5 At this Esther called Ha′thach,[i] one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had made to attend upon her, and she proceeded to give him a command concerning Mor′de·cai, to know what this meant and what this was all about.

6 So Ha′thach went out to Mor′de·cai into the public square of the city that was before the king's gate. 7 Then Mor′de·cai told him about all the things that had befallen him[j] and the exact statement of the money that Ha′man had said to pay to the king's treasury[k] against the Jews, to destroy them.[l] 8 And a copy[m] of the writing of the law that had been given in Shu′shan[n] to have them annihilated he gave him to show Esther and to tell her and to lay the command upon her[o] to come in to the king and implore favor of him[p] and make request directly before him for her own people.[q]

9 Ha′thach[r] now came in and told Esther Mor′de·cai's words. 10 Then Esther said to Ha′thach and commanded him concerning Mor′de·cai:[s] 11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's jurisdictional districts are aware that, as regards any man or woman that comes in to the king at the inner courtyard[a] who is not called, his one law[b] is to have [him] put to death; only in case the king holds out to him the golden scepter, he will also certainly stay alive.[c] As for me, I have not been called to come in to the king now for thirty days."

12 And they proceeded to tell Mor′de·cai the words of Esther. 13 Then Mor′de·cai said to reply to Esther: "Do not imagine within your own soul that the king's household will escape any more than all the other Jews.[d] 14 For if you are altogether silent at this time, relief and deliverance themselves will stand up for the Jews from another place;[e] but as for you and your father's house, you people will perish. And who is there knowing whether it is for a time like this that you have attained to royal dignity?"[f]

15 Accordingly Esther said to reply to Mor′de·cai: 16 "Go, gather all the Jews that are to be found in Shu′shan[g] and fast[h] in my behalf and neither eat nor drink for three days,[i] night and day. I too with my young women,[j] I shall fast likewise, and upon that I shall come in to the king, which is not according to the law; and in case I must perish,[k] I must perish." 17 At this Mor′de·cai passed along and proceeded to do according to all that Esther had laid in command upon him.

5 And it came about on the third day[l] that Esther went dressing up royally,[m] after which she took her stand in the inner courtyard[n] of the king's house opposite the king's house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the entrance of the house. 2 And it came about that, as soon as the king saw Esther the queen standing in the courtyard, she gained favor[o] in his eyes, so that the king held out to Esther the golden scepter[a] that was in his hand. Esther now came near and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then the king said to her: "What do you have, O Esther the queen, and what is your request?[b] To the half of the kingship[c]—let it even be given to you!" 4 In turn Esther said: "If to the king it does seem good, let the king with Ha'man[d] come today to the banquet[e] that I have made for him." 5 Accordingly the king said: "You men, have Ha'man act quickly[f] on the word of Esther." Later the king and Ha'man came to the banquet that Esther had made.

6 In time the king said to Esther during the banquet of wine: "What is your petition?[g] Let it even be granted you! And what is your request? To the half of the kingship—let it even be done!" 7 To this Esther answered and said: "My petition and my request is, 8 If I have found favor in the king's eyes[h] and if to the king it does seem good to grant my petition and to act on my request, let the king and Ha'man come to the banquet that I shall hold for them [tomorrow], and tomorrow I shall do according to the king's word."[i]

9 Consequently Ha'man went out on that day joyful[j] and merry of heart; but as soon as Ha'man saw Mor'de·cai in the king's gate[k] and that he did not rise[l] and did not quake on account of him,[m] Ha'man was immediately filled with rage[n] against Mor'de·cai. 10 However, Ha'man kept control of himself and came into his house. Then he sent and had his friends and Ze'resh[o] his wife brought in; 11 and Ha'man proceeded to declare to them the glory of his riches[p] and the large number of his sons[q] and everything with which the king had magnified him and how he had exalted him over the princes and the servants of the king.[a]

12 And Ha'man went on to say: "What is more, Esther the queen brought in with the king to the banquet that she had made no one but me,[b] and tomorrow[c] also I am invited to her with the king. 13 But all this—none of it suits me as long as I am seeing Mor'de·cai the Jew sitting in the king's gate." 14 At that Ze'resh his wife and all his friends said to him: "Let them make a stake[d] fifty cubits high. Then in the morning[e] say to the king that they should hang Mor'de·cai on it.[f] Then go in with the king to the banquet joyful." So the thing seemed good[g] before Ha'man, and he proceeded to have the stake made.[h]

6 During that night the king's sleep fled.[i] Therefore he said to bring the book of the records[j] of the affairs of the times. Thus there came to be a reading of them before the king. 2 At length there was found written what Mor'de·cai had reported[k] concerning Big·tha'na and Te'resh, two court officials[l] of the king, doorkeepers, who had sought to lay hand on King A·has·u·e'rus. 3 Then the king said: "What honor and great thing has been done to Mor'de·cai for this?" To this the king's attendants, his ministers, said: "Nothing has been done with him."[m]

4 Later the king said: "Who is in the courtyard?" Now Ha'man himself had come into the outer courtyard[n] of the king's house to say to the king to hang Mor'de·cai on the stake[o] that he had prepared for him. 5 Accordingly the king's attendants said to him: "Here is Ha'man[p] standing in the courtyard." So the king said: "Let him come in."

6 When Ha'man came in, the king proceeded to say to him:

"What is to be done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight?"[a] At this Ha'man said in his heart: "To whom would the king take delight in rendering an honor more than me?"[b] 7 So Ha'man said to the king: "As for the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight, 8 let them bring royal apparel[c] with which the king does clothe himself and a horse upon which the king does ride[d] and on the head of which the royal headdress has been put. 9 And let there be a putting of the apparel and the horse into the charge of one of the king's noble princes;[e] and they must clothe the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight, and they must make him ride on the horse in the public square[f] of the city,[g] and they must call out before him, 'This is how it is done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight.'"[h] 10 At once the king said to Ha'man: "Quickly, take the apparel and the horse, just as you have said, and do that way to Mor'de·cai the Jew who is sitting in the king's gate. Do not let anything go unfulfilled of all that you have spoken."[i]

11 And Ha'man proceeded to take the apparel[j] and the horse and clothe Mor'de·cai[k] and make him ride in the public square[l] of the city and call out before him:[m] "This is how it is done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight."[n] 12 Afterward Mor'de·cai returned to the king's gate.[o] As for Ha'man, he hurried to his house, mourning and with his head covered.[p] 13 And Ha'man went on to relate to Ze'resh[q] his wife and to all his friends everything that had befallen him. At that his wise men[r] and Ze'resh his wife said to him: "If it is from the seed of the Jews that Mor'de·cai is before whom you have started to fall, you will not prevail against him, but you will without fail fall before him."[a]

14 While they were yet speaking with him the king's court officials themselves arrived and proceeded hastily[b] to bring Ha'man to the banquet[c] that Esther had made.

7 Then the king and Ha'man[d] came in to banquet with Esther the queen. 2 The king now said to Esther also on the second day during the banquet of wine:[e] "What is your petition,[f] O Esther the queen? Let it even be given to you.[g] And what is your request? To the half of the kingship[h]—let it even be done!" 3 At this Esther the queen answered and said: "If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if to the king it does seem good, let there be given me my own soul[i] at my petition and my people[j] at my request. 4 For we have been sold,[k] I and my people, to be annihilated, killed and destroyed.[l] Now if we had been sold for mere men slaves[m] and for mere maidservants, I should have kept silent. But the distress is not appropriate when with damage to the king."

5 King A·has·u·e'rus now said, yes, he went on to say to Esther the queen: "Who is this,[n] and just where is the one who has emboldened[o] himself to do that way?" 6 Then Esther said: "The man, the adversary[p] and enemy,[q] is this bad Ha'man."

As for Ha'man, he became terrified[r] because of the king and the queen. 7 As for the king, he rose up in his rage[s] from the banquet of wine [to go] to the garden of the palace; and Ha'man himself stood up to make request for his soul from Esther the queen,[t] for he saw that bad had been determined[u] against him by the king.[v] 8 And the king himself returned from the garden of the palace to the house of the wine banquet;[a] and Ha'man was fallen upon the couch[b] on which Esther was. Consequently the king said: "Is there also to be a raping of the queen, with me in the house?" The word itself went out of the king's mouth,[c] and Ha'man's face they covered. 9 Har·bo'na,[d] one of the court officials[e] before the king, now said: "Also, there is the stake[f] that Ha'man made for Mor'de·cai, who had spoken good concerning the king,[g] standing in Ha'man's house—fifty cubits high." At that the king said: "YOU men, hang him on it."[h] 10 And they proceeded to hang Ha'man on the stake[i] that he had prepared for Mor'de·cai;[j] and the king's rage itself subsided.

8 On that day King A·has·u·e'rus gave to Esther the queen the house of Ha'man,[k] the one showing hostility to the Jews;[l] and Mor'de·cai himself came in before the king, because Esther had told what he was to her.[m] 2 Then the king removed his signet ring[n] that he had taken away from Ha'man and gave it to Mor'de·cai; and Esther went on to place Mor'de·cai over the house of Ha'man.[o]

3 Moreover, Esther spoke again before the king and fell down before his feet and wept and implored[p] favor of him to turn away the badness[q] of Ha'man the Ag'ag·ite and his scheme[r] that he had schemed against the Jews.[s] 4 Then the king held the golden scepter[t] out to Esther, at which Esther rose and stood before the king. 5 She now said: "If to the king it does seem good, and if I have found favor[u] before him and the thing is proper before the king and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to undo the written documents,[v] the scheme of Ha'man the son of Ham·me·da'tha the Ag'ag·ite,[w] which he wrote to destroy the Jews[a] that are in all the king's jurisdictional districts.[b] 6 For how can I [bear it] when I must look upon the calamity that will find my people, and how can I [bear it] when I must look upon the destruction of my relatives?"

7 So King A·has·u·e'rus said to Esther the queen and to Mor'de·cai the Jew: "Look! The house of Ha'man I have given to Esther,[c] and him they have hanged on the stake,[d] for the reason that he thrust out his hand against the Jews. 8 And YOU yourselves write in behalf of the Jews according to what is good in YOUR own eyes in the king's name[e] and seal [it] with the king's signet ring; for a writing that is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring it is not possible to undo."[f]

9 Accordingly the secretaries[g] of the king were called at that time in the third month, that is, the month of Si'van, on the twenty-third [day] of it; and writing went on according to all that Mor'de·cai commanded to the Jews and to the satraps[h] and the governors and the princes of the jurisdictional districts that were from In'di·a to E·thi·o'pi·a, a hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts,[i] [to] each jurisdictional district in its own style of writing[j] and [to] each people in its own tongue,[k] and to the Jews in their own style of writing and in their own tongue.[l]

10 And he proceeded to write in the name of King[m] A·has·u·e'rus and do the sealing[n] with the king's signet ring[o] and send written documents by the hand of the couriers on horses,[p] riding post horses used in the royal service, sons of speedy mares, 11 that the king granted to the Jews that were in all the different cities to congregate themselves[q] and stand for their souls, to annihilate and kill and destroy all the force of the people[a] and jurisdictional district that were showing hostility to them, little ones and women, and to plunder their spoil,[b] 12 on the one day[c] in all the jurisdictional districts of King A·has·u·e'rus, on the thirteenth [day][d] of the twelfth month, that is, the month of A'dar.[e] 13 A copy[f] of the writing was to be given as law throughout all the different jurisdictional districts, published to all the peoples, that the Jews should become ready for this day to avenge[g] themselves upon their enemies. 14 The couriers[h] themselves, riding post horses used in the royal service, went forth, being urged forward and being moved with speed[i] by the king's word; and the law itself was given out in Shu'shan[j] the castle.

9 And in the twelfth month, that is, the month of A'dar,[t] on the thirteenth day of it, when the king's word and his law came due to be performed,[u] on the day for which the enemies of the Jews had waited to domineer over them, there was even a turning to the contrary, in that the Jews themselves domineered over those hating them.[a] 2 The Jews congregated themselves[b] in their cities in all the jurisdictional districts of King A·has·u·e'rus[c] to lay hand on those seeking their injury,[d] and not a man stood his ground before them, for the dread[e] of them had fallen upon all the peoples. 3 And all the princes[f] of the jurisdictional districts and the satraps[g] and the governors and the doers of the business[h] that belonged to the king were assisting the Jews, for the dread[i] of Mor'de·cai had fallen upon them. 4 For Mor'de·cai was great[j] in the king's house and his fame[k] was traveling throughout all the jurisdictional districts, because the man Mor'de·cai was steadily growing greater.[l]

5 And the Jews went striking down all their enemies with a slaughter by the sword[m] and with a killing and destruction, and they went doing to those hating them according to their liking.[n] 6 And in Shu'shan[o] the castle the Jews killed and there was a destroying of five hundred men. 7 Also, Par·shan·da'tha and Dal'phon and As·pa'tha 8 and Po·ra'tha and A·da'li·a and A·ri·da'tha 9 and Par·mash'ta and Ar'i·sai and Ar'i·dai and Vai·za'tha, 10 the ten sons[p] of Ha'man[q] the son of Ham·me·da'tha, the one showing hostility to the Jews,[r] they killed; but on the plunder[s] they did not lay their hand.

11 On that day the number of those killed in Shu'shan the castle came before the king.

12 And the king proceeded to say to Esther the queen:[t] "In Shu'shan the castle[u] the Jews have killed, and there has been a destroying of five hundred men and the ten sons of Ha'man. In the rest of the jurisdictional districts[v] of the king what have they done?[w] And what is your petition? Let it even be given to you.[a] And what is your further request?[b] Let it even be done." 13 Accordingly Esther said: "If to the king it does seem good,[c] let it be granted tomorrow also to the Jews that are in Shu'shan to do according to the law of today;[d] and let the ten sons of Ha'man be hanged upon the stake."[e] 14 So the king said for it to be done that way.[f] Then a law was given out in Shu'shan, and the ten sons of Ha'man were hanged.

15 And the Jews that were in Shu'shan proceeded to congregate themselves also on the fourteenth[g] day of the month A'dar, and they got to kill in Shu'shan three hundred men; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand.[h]

16 As for the rest of the Jews that were in the jurisdictional districts[i] of the king, they congregated themselves, and there was a stand for their souls,[j] and there was an avenging[k] of themselves upon their enemies and a killing among those hating them of seventy-five thousand; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand, 17 on the thirteenth day of the month A'dar; and there was a rest on the fourteenth [day] of it, and there was a making of it a day of banqueting[l] and of rejoicing.[m]

18 As for the Jews that were in Shu'shan, they congregated themselves on the thirteenth[n] [day] of it and on the fourteenth [day] of it, and there was a rest on the fifteenth [day] of it, and there was a making of it a day of banqueting and of rejoicing.[o] 19 That is why the country Jews, inhabiting the cities of the outlying districts, were making the fourteenth day of the month A'dar[p] a rejoicing[q] and a banqueting and a good day[r] and a sending of portions[s] to one another.

20 And Mor'de·cai[t] proceeded to write these things and send written documents to all the Jews that were in all the jurisdictional districts[a] of King A·has·u·e'rus, the nearby and the distant ones, 21 to impose upon them the obligation[b] to be regularly holding the fourteenth day of the month A'dar and the fifteenth day of it in each and every year, 22 according to the days on which the Jews had rested from their enemies[c] and the month that was changed for them from grief to rejoicing and from mourning[d] to a good day, to hold them as days of banqueting and rejoicing and sending of portions to one another[e] and of gifts to the poor people.[f]

23 And the Jews accepted what they had started to do and what Mor'de·cai had written to them. 24 For Ha'man[g] the son of Ham·me·da'tha,[h] the Ag'ag·ite,[i] the one showing hostility[j] to all the Jews, had himself schemed against the Jews to destroy them,[k] and he had had Pur,[l] that is, the Lot,[m] cast, to disquiet them and destroy them. 25 But when Esther came in before the king he said with the written document:[n] "Let his bad scheme[o] that he has schemed against the Jews come back upon his own head";[p] and they hanged him and his sons upon the stake.[q] 26 That is why they called these days Pu'rim, by the name of the Pur.[r] That is why, according to all the words of this letter[s] and what they had seen as to this and what had come upon them, 27 the Jews imposed and accepted upon themselves and upon their offspring and upon all those joining themselves to them,[t] that it should not pass away, the obligation to be regularly holding these two days according to what was written concerning them and according to their appointed time in each and every year. 28 And these days were to be remembered and held in each and every generation, each family, each jurisdictional district and each city, and these days of Pu'rim themselves should not pass away from the midst of the Jews and the commemoration[a] itself of them not come to an end among their offspring.

29 And Esther the queen, the daughter of Ab'i·ha·il,[b] and Mor'de·cai the Jew proceeded to write with all forcefulness to confirm this second letter concerning Pu'rim. 30 Then he sent written documents to all the Jews in the one hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts,[c] the realm of A·has·u·e'rus,[d] [in] words of peace and truth,[e] 31 to confirm these days of Pu'rim at their appointed times, just as Mor'de·cai the Jew and Esther the queen had imposed upon them,[f] and just as they had imposed upon their own soul and upon their offspring,[a] the matters of the fasts[b] and their cry for aid.[c] 32 And the very saying of Esther confirmed these matters of Pu'rim,[d] and it was written down in a book.

10 And King A·has·u·e'rus proceeded to lay forced labor[e] upon the land and the isles[f] of the sea.

2 As for all his energetic work and his mightiness and the exact statement of Mor'de·cai's[g] greatness with which the king magnified[h] him, are they not written in the Book of the affairs[i] of the times of the kings of Me'di·a and Persia?[j] 3 For Mor'de·cai the Jew was second[k] to King A·has·u·e'rus and was great among the Jews and approved by the multitude of his brothers, working for the good of his people and speaking peace[l] to all their offspring.

JOB

1 There happened to be a man in the land of Uz[a] whose name was Job;[b] and that man proved to be blameless[c] and upright,[d] and fearing God[e] and turning aside from bad.[f] 2 And seven sons and three daughters came to be born to him.[g] 3 And his livestock[h] got to be seven thousand sheep and three thousand camels and five hundred spans of cattle and five hundred she-asses, along with a very large body of servants; and that man came to be the greatest of all the Orientals.[i]

4 And his sons went and held a banquet[j] at the house of each one on his own day; and they sent and invited their three sisters to eat and drink with them. 5 And it would occur that when the banquet days had gone round the circuit, Job would send and sanctify them;[a] and he got up early in the morning and offered up burnt sacrifices[b] according to the number of all of them; for, said Job, "maybe my sons have sinned and have cursed[c] God in their heart."[d] That is the way Job would do always.[e]

6 Now it came to be the day when the sons of the [true] God[f] entered to take their station before Jehovah,[g] and even Satan[h] proceeded to enter right among them.[i]

7 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Where do you come from?" At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: "From roving about in the earth[a] and from walking about in it."[b] 8 And Jehovah went on to say to Satan: "Have you set your heart upon my servant Job, that there is no one like him in the earth,[c] a man blameless[d] and upright,[e] fearing God[f] and turning aside from bad?"[g] 9 At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: "Is it for nothing that Job has feared God?[h] 10 Have not you yourself put up a hedge about him[i] and about his house and about everything that he has all around? The work of his hands you have blessed,[j] and his livestock itself has spread abroad in the earth. 11 But, for a change, thrust out your hand, please, and touch everything he has [and see] whether he will not curse you to your very face."[k] 12 Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: "Look! Everything that he has is in your hand. Only against him himself do not thrust out your hand!" So Satan went out away from the person of Jehovah.[l]

13 Now it came to be the day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother the firstborn.[m] 14 And there came a messenger[n] to Job, and he proceeded to say: "The cattle themselves happened to be plowing[o] and the she-asses were grazing at the side of them 15 when the Sa·be′ans[p] came making a raid and taking them, and the attendants they struck down with the edge of the sword; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."[q]

16 While this one was yet speaking that one came and proceeded to say: "The very fire of God fell from the heavens[r] and went blazing among the sheep and the attendants and eating them up; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."

17 While that one was yet speaking another one came and proceeded to say: "The Chal·de′ans[a] made up three bands and went dashing against the camels and taking them, and the attendants they struck down with the edge of the sword; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."

18 While this other one was yet speaking, still another one came and proceeded to say: "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine[b] in the house of their brother the firstborn. 19 And, look! there came a great wind[c] from the region of the wilderness, and it went striking the four corners of the house, so that it fell upon the young people and they died. And I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."

20 And Job proceeded to get up and rip[d] his sleeveless coat apart and cut the hair[e] off his head and fall to the earth[f] and bow down[g] 21 and say:

"Naked I came out of my mother's belly,[h]
And naked shall I return there.[i] Jehovah himself has given,[j] and Jehovah himself has taken away.[k]
Let the name of Jehovah continue to be blessed."[l]

22 In all this Job did not sin or ascribe anything improper to God.[m]

2 Afterward it came to be the day when the sons of the [true] God entered to take their station before Jehovah, and Satan also proceeded to enter right among them to take his station before Jehovah.[n]

2 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Just where do you come from?" At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: "From roving about in the earth and from walking about in it."[o] 3 And Jehovah went on to say to Satan: "Have you set your heart upon my servant Job,[p] that there is no one like him in the earth, a man blameless and upright,[a] fearing God[b] and turning aside from bad?[c] Even yet he is holding fast his integrity,[d] although you incite[e] me against him to swallow him up without cause."[f] 4 But Satan[g] answered Jehovah and said: "Skin in behalf of skin, and everything that a man has he will give in behalf of his soul.[h] 5 For a change, thrust out your hand, please, and touch as far as his bone and his flesh [and see] whether he will not curse you to your very face."[i]

6 Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: "There he is in your hand! Only watch out for his soul itself!" 7 So Satan went out away from the person of Jehovah[j] and struck Job with a malignant boil[k] from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 And he proceeded to take for himself a fragment of earthenware with which to scrape himself; and he was sitting in among the ashes.[l]

9 Finally his wife said to him: "Are you yet holding fast your integrity?[m] Curse God and die!" 10 But he said to her: "As one of the senseless[n] women speaks, you speak also. Shall we accept merely what is good from the [true] God and not accept also what is bad?"[o] In all this Job did not sin with his lips.[p]

11 And three companions of Job got to hear of all this calamity that had come upon him, and they proceeded to come, each one from his own place, El′i·phaz the Te′man·ite[q] and Bil′dad the Shu′hite[r] and Zo′phar the Na′a·ma·thite.[s] So they met together by appointment[t] to come and sympathize with him and comfort him.[u] 12 When they raised their eyes from far off they did not then recognize him. And they proceeded to raise their voice and weep and rip[v] each one his sleeveless coat apart and toss dust toward the heavens upon their heads.[a] 13 And they kept sitting[b] with him on the earth seven days and seven nights, and there was no one speaking a word to him, for they saw that the pain[c] was very great.

3 It was after this that Job opened his mouth and began to call down evil upon his day.[d] 2 Job now answered and said:

3 "Let the day perish on which I came to be born,[e]
Also the night that someone said, 'An able-bodied man has been conceived!'
4 As for that day, let it become darkness.
Let not God look for it from above,
Nor let daylight beam upon it.
5 Let darkness and deep shadow reclaim it.
Let a rain cloud reside over it.
Let the things that darken a day terrorize it.[f]
6 That night—let gloom take it;[g]
Let it not feel glad among the days of a year;
Among the number of the lunar months let it not enter.
7 Look! That night—let it become sterile;
Let no joyful cry come in it.[h]
8 Let cursers of the day execrate it,
Those ready to awaken Le·vi′a·than.[i]
9 Let the stars of its twilight grow dark;
Let it wait for the light and there be none;
And let it not see the beams of dawn.
10 For it did not close the doors of my [mother's] belly,[j]
And so conceal trouble from my eyes.
11 Why from the womb did I not proceed to die?[k]

[Why did I not] come forth from the belly itself and then expire?
12 Why was it that knees confronted me,
And why breasts[a] that I should take suck?
13 For by now I should have lain down that I might be undisturbed;[b]
I should have slept then; I should be at rest[c]
14 With kings and counselors of the earth,[d]
Those building desolate places for themselves,[e]
15 Or with princes who have gold,
Those who fill their houses with silver;
16 Or, like a hidden miscarriage,[f] I should not come to be,
Like children that have seen no light.[g]
17 There the wicked themselves have ceased from agitation,[h]
And there those weary in power are at rest.[i] 18 Together prisoners themselves are at ease;
They actually do not hear the voice of one driving them to work.[j]
19 Small and great are there the same,[k]
And the slave is set free from his master.
20 Why does he give light to one having trouble,
And life to those bitter of soul?[l]
21 Why are there those waiting for death, and it is not,[m]
Although they keep digging for it more than for hidden treasures?
22 Those who are rejoicing to gleefulness,
They exult because they find a burial place.
23 [Why does he give light] to able-bodied man, whose way has been concealed,[n]
And whom God hedges in?[o]
24 For before my food my sighing comes,[a]
And like waters my roaring cries pour forth;[b]
25 Because a dreadful thing I have dreaded, and it comes upon me;
And what I have been scared of comes to me.[c]
26 I have not been carefree, nor have I been undisturbed, Nor been at rest, and yet agitation comes."

4 And El′i·phaz[d] the Te′man·ite proceeded to reply and say:
2 "If one does try out a word to you, will you become weary?
But to put a restraint on words who is able?
3 Look! You have corrected many,[e]
And the weak hands you used to strengthen.[f]
4 Anyone stumbling, your words would raise up;[g]
And knees giving way you would make firm.[h]
5 But this time it comes to you, and you become weary;
It touches even you, and you get disturbed.
6 Is not your reverence [the basis of] your confidence?
Is not your hope even the integrity[i] of your ways?
7 Remember, please: Who that is innocent has ever perished?
And where have the upright[j] ever been effaced?
8 According to what I have seen, those devising what is hurtful
And those sowing trouble will themselves reap it.[k]
9 Through the breath of God they perish,
And through the spirit of his anger they come to an end.
10 There is the roaring of a lion, and the voice of a young lion,
But the teeth of maned young lions do get broken down.

11 A lion is perishing from there being no prey,
And the cubs of a lion are separated from one another.
12 Now to me a word was stealthily brought,
And my ear proceeded to get a whisper of it,[a] 13 In disquieting thoughts from visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
14 A dread came over me, and a trembling,
And the multitude of my bones it filled with dread.
15 And a spirit itself went passing over my face;
The hair of my flesh began to bristle.
16 It began to stand still,
But I did not recognize its appearance;
A form was in front of my eyes;
There was a calm, and I now heard a voice:
17 'Mortal man—can he be more just than God himself?
Or can able-bodied man be cleaner than his own Maker?'
18 Look! In his servants he has no faith,
And his messengers he charges with faultiness.
19 How much more so with those dwelling in houses of clay,
Whose foundation is in the dust![b]
One crushes them more quickly than a moth.
20 From morning to evening they are crushed to pieces;
Without anyone's taking [it to heart] they perish forever.
21 Has not their tent cord within them been pulled out?
They die for lack of wisdom.

5 "Call, please! Is there anyone answering you?
And to which one of the holy ones will you turn?
2 For the foolish one vexation will kill,
And the one easily enticed envying will put to death.
3 I myself have seen the foolish one taking root,[a]
But suddenly I began to execrate his abiding place.
4 His sons remain far from salvation,[b]
And they are crushed in the gate without a deliverer.
5 What he harvests the hungry one eats;
And even from butcher hooks one takes it,
And a snare actually snaps at their means of maintenance.
6 For not from mere dust does what is hurtful go forth,
And from mere ground trouble does not spring up.
7 For man himself is born for trouble,
As the very sparks fly upward.
8 However, I myself would apply to God,
And to God I would submit my cause,[c]
9 [To the] One doing great things unsearchable, Wonderful things without number;[d]
10 [To] the One giving rain upon the surface of the earth[e]
And sending waters upon the open fields;[f]
11 [To] the One putting those who are low on a high place,[g]
So that those who are sad are high up in salvation;

12 [To the] One frustrating the schemes of the shrewd,[a]
So that their hands do not work with effect;
13 [To the] One catching the wise in their own cunning,[b]
So that the counsel of astute ones is carried headlong;[c]
14 They encounter darkness even by day,
And they grope about at midday as if at night;[d]
15 And [to the] One saving from the sword out of their mouth,
And from the hand of the strong one, a poor one,[e]
16 So that for the lowly one there comes to be hope,[f]
But unrighteousness actually shuts its mouth.[g]
17 Look! Happy is the man whom God reproves;[h]
And the discipline of the Almighty do not you reject!
18 For he himself causes pain, but binds up [the wound];
He breaks to pieces, but his own hands do the healing.
19 In six distresses he will deliver you,[i]
And in seven nothing injurious will touch you.[j]
20 During famine he will certainly redeem you from death,[k]
And during war from the power of a sword.
21 From the whip of a tongue you will be hidden,[l]
And you will not be afraid of despoiling when it comes.
22 At despoiling and hunger you will laugh,
And of the wild beast of the earth you need not be afraid.
23 For with the stones of the field your covenant will be,
And the wild beast of the field himself will be made to live at peace with you.[a] 24 And you will certainly know that peace itself is your tent,
And you will be bound to go and see your pasture ground, and you will miss nothing.
25 And you will certainly know that your offspring are many[b]
And your descendants like the vegetation of the earth.[c]
26 You will come in vigor to the burial place,[d]
As when sheaves pile up in their time.
27 Look! This is what we have investigated. So is it.
Hear it, and you—know it for yourself."

6 And Job proceeded to answer and say:
2 "O that my vexation[e] were altogether weighed,
And that at the same time my adversity they would put on scales themselves!
3 For now it is heavier even than the sands of the seas.
That is why my own words have been wild talk.[f]
4 For the arrows of the Almighty are with me,[g]
The venom of which my spirit is drinking;[h]
The terrors from God range themselves up against me.[i]
5 Will a zebra[j] cry out over grass,
Or a bull low over its fodder?

12 Am I a sea or a sea monster,
That you should set a guard[q] over me?
13 When I said, 'My divan will comfort me,
My bed will help carry my concern,'
14 You even have terrified me with dreams,
And by visions you make me start up in fright,
15 So that my soul chooses suffocation,
Death[a] rather than my bones.
16 I have rejected [it];[b] to time indefinite I would not live.
Cease from me, for my days are an exhalation.[c]
17 What is mortal man[d] that you should rear him,
And that you should set your heart upon him,
18 And that you should pay attention to him every morning,
That every moment you should test him?[e]
19 Why will you not turn your gaze from me,[f]
Nor let me alone until I swallow my saliva?
20 If I have sinned, what can I accomplish against you, the Observer of mankind?[g]
Why is it that you have set me as your target, so that I should become a burden to you?
21 And why do you not pardon my transgression[h]
And overlook my error?
For now in dust[i] I shall lie down;
And you will certainly look for me, and I shall not be."

8 And Bil'dad the Shu'hite[j] proceeded to answer and say:
2 "How long will you keep uttering these things,[k]
When the sayings of your mouth are but a powerful wind?[l]
3 Will God himself pervert judgment,[m]
Or will the Almighty himself pervert righteousness?[a] 4 If your own sons have sinned against him,
So that he lets them go into the hand of their revolt,
5 If you yourself will look for God,[b]
And [if] of the Almighty you will implore favor, 6 If you are pure and upright,[c]
By now he would awake for you
And he would certainly restore your righteous abiding place.
7 Also, your beginning may have proved to be a small thing,
But your own end afterward would grow very great.[d]
8 Indeed, ask, please, of the former generation,[e]
And direct [your attention] to the things searched out by their fathers.[f] 9 For we were only yesterday,[g] and we know nothing,
Because our days on earth are a shadow.[h]
10 Will not they themselves instruct you, tell you,
And from their heart will they not bring forth words?
11 Will a papyrus plant[i] grow tall without a swampy place?
Will a reed grow big without water?
12 While it is yet in its bud, not plucked off,
Even ahead of all other grass it will dry up.[j]
13 Thus are the pathways of all those forgetting God,[k]
And the very hope of an apostate will perish,[l]
14 Whose confidence is cut off,
And whose trust is a spider's house.[m]
15 He will lean upon his house, but it will not keep standing;
He will take hold of it, but it will not last.
16 He is full of sap before the sun,
And in his garden his own twig goes forth.[a] 17 In a stone heap his roots become interwoven,
A house of stones he beholds.
18 If one swallows him up from his place,[b]
It will also certainly deny him, [saying,] 'I have not seen you.'[c] 19 Look! That is the dissolving of his way;[d]
And from the dust others spring up.
20 Look! God himself will not reject anyone blameless, Neither will he take hold of the hand of evildoers,
21 Until he fills your mouth with laughter,
And your lips with joyful shouting.
22 The very ones hating you will be clothed with shame,[e]
And the tent of wicked ones will not be."

9 And Job proceeded to answer and say:
2 "For a fact I do know that it is so.
But how can mortal man be in the right in a case with God?[f]
3 If he should find delight in contending with him,[g]
He cannot answer him once out of a thousand.
4 He is wise in heart and strong in power.[h]
Who can show stubbornness to him and come off uninjured?[i]
5 He is moving mountains away,[j] so that people do not even know [of them],
He who has overthrown them in his anger.[k]
6 He is making the earth go quaking from its place,
So that its very pillars[l] shudder.
7 He is saying to the sun

12 Look! He snatches away. Who can resist him?
Who will say to him, 'What are you doing?'[h]
13 God himself will not turn back his anger;[i]
Beneath him the helpers of a stormer[j] must bow down.
14 How much more so in case I myself answer him!
I will choose my words with him,[k]
15 Whom I would not answer, even though I were really in the right.[l]
Of my opponent-at-law I would implore favor.[m]
16 If I called him, would he answer me?[n]
I do not believe that he would give ear to my voice;
17 Who with a storm bruises me
And certainly makes my wounds many for no reason.[o]
18 He will not grant me my taking of a fresh breath,[p]
For he keeps glutting me with bitter things.
19 If in power anyone is strong, there [he is];[q]
And if in justice [anyone is strong], O that I may be summoned!
20 If I were in the right, my own mouth would pronounce me wicked;
Were I blameless, then he would declare me crooked.
21 Were I blameless, I would not know my soul;
I would refuse my life.
22 One thing there is. That is why I do say,
'One blameless, also a wicked one, he is bringing to their end.'[a] 23 If a flash flood itself should cause death suddenly,
At the very despair of the innocent ones he would mock.
24 Earth itself has been given into the hand of the wicked one;[b]
The face of its judges he covers.
If not, who, then, is it?
25 Also my own days have become swifter than a runner;[c]
They have run away, they will certainly not see good.
26 They have moved on like reed boats,
Like an eagle that darts to and fro for something to eat.[d]
27 If I have said, 'Let me forget my concern,[e]
Let me alter my countenance[f] and brighten up,'
28 I have been scared of all my pains;[g]
I do know that you will not hold me innocent.
29 I myself am to become wicked.
Why is it that I toil merely in vain?[h]

9 It is longer than the earth in measure,
And broader than the sea.
10 If he moves on and hands [someone] over
And calls a court, then who can resist him?
11 For he himself well knows men who are untrue.[a]
When he sees what is hurtful, will he not also show himself attentive?
12 Even a hollow-minded man himself will get good motive
As soon as an asinine zebra be born a man.
13 If you yourself will really prepare your heart
And actually spread out your palms to him,[b]
14 If what is hurtful is in your hand, put it far away,
And let no unrighteousness dwell in your tents.
15 For then you will raise your face without defect[c]
And you will certainly become established, and you will not fear.
16 For you—you will forget trouble itself;
As waters that have passed along you will remember [it].
17 And brighter than midday will [your] life's duration[d] arise;
Darkness will become like the morning itself.[e]
18 And you will be bound to trust because there exists hope;
And you will certainly look carefully around —in security you will lie down.[f]
19 And you will indeed stretch yourself out, with no one to make [you] tremble.
And many people will certainly put you in a gentle mood;[g]
20 And the very eyes of the wicked will fail;[h]
And a place for flight will certainly perish from them,[i]

And their hope will be an expiring of the soul."[a]

12 And Job proceeded to answer and say:
2 "For a fact you men are the people,
And with you wisdom will die out![b]
3 I too have a heart[c] as well as you.
I am not inferior to you,[d]
And with whom are there not things like these?
4 [One who is] a laughingstock to his fellowman I become,[e]
One calling to God that he should answer him.[f]
A laughingstock is the righteous, unblamable one.
5 In thought, the carefree one has contempt for extinction itself;[g]
It is made ready for those of wobbling feet.[h]

And understanding [in] length of days?
13 With him there are wisdom and mightiness;[a]
He has counsel and understanding.[b]
14 Look! He tears down, that there may be no building up;[c]
He makes it shut to man, that it may not be opened up.[d]
15 Look! He puts a restraint upon the waters and they dry up;[e]
And he sends them, and they change the earth.[f]
16 With him there are strength and practical wisdom;[g]
To him belong the one making a mistake and the one leading astray;[h]
17 He is making counselors go barefoot,[i]
And he makes judges themselves go crazy.
18 The bonds of kings he actually loosens,[j]
And he binds a belt upon their hips.
19 He is making priests walk barefoot,[k]
And permanently seated ones he subverts;[l]
20 He is removing speech from the faithful ones,
And the sensibleness of old men he takes away;
21 He is pouring out contempt upon nobles,[m]
And the girdle of powerful ones he actually weakens;
22 He is uncovering deep things from the darkness,[n]
And he brings forth to the light deep shadow;
23 Making the nations grow great, that he may destroy them;[o]
Spreading out the nations, that he may lead them away;
24 Taking away the heart of the head ones of the people of the land,
That he may make them

wander about in an empty place,[a] where there is no way.
25 They grope in darkness,[b] where there is no light,
That he may make them wander about like a drunken man.[c]

13 “Look! All this my eye has seen,
My ear has heard and considers it.
2 What YOU men know I myself well know also;
I am not inferior to YOU.[d]
3 However, I, for my part, would speak to the Almighty himself,[e]
And in arguing with God I would find delight.
4 On the other hand, YOU men are smearers of falsehood;[f]
All of YOU are physicians of no value.[g]
5 If only YOU would absolutely keep silent,
That it might prove to be wisdom on YOUR part![h]
6 Hear, please, my counterarguments,[i]
And to the pleadings of my lips pay attention.
7 Will YOU men speak unrighteousness for God himself,
And for him will YOU speak deceit?[j]
8 Will YOU be treating him with partiality,[k]
Or for the [true] God will YOU contend at law?
9 Would it be good that he sound YOU out?[l]
Or as one trifles with mortal man will YOU trifle with him?
10 He will positively reprove YOU[m]
If in secrecy YOU try to show partiality;[n]
11 Will not his very dignity make YOU start up with fright,
And the very dread of him fall upon YOU?[o]
12 YOUR memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes;
YOUR shield bosses are as shield bosses of clay.[a] 13 KEEP silent before me, that I myself may speak.
Then let come upon me whatever it may be!
14 Why do I carry my flesh in my teeth
And place my own soul in my palm?[b]
15 Even if he would slay me, would I not wait?[c]
I would only argue to his face for my own ways.
16 He would also be my salvation,[d]
For before him no apostate will come in.[e]

And let my declaration be in YOUR ears.
18 Look! Please, I have presented a case of justice;[g]
I well know that I myself am in the right.
19 Who is the one that will contend with me?[h]
For now were I to become silent I should simply expire!
20 Only two things do not do to me;
In that case I shall not conceal myself just on your account;[i] 21 Put your own hand far away from upon me,
And the fright of you—may it not terrify me.[j]

Or may I speak, and you return me answer.
23 In what way do I have errors and sins?
Make me to know my own revolt and my own sin.
24 Why do you conceal your very face[k]
And regard me as an enemy of yours?[l]

Or keep chasing after mere dry stubble?

And you make me possess [the consequences of] the errors of my youth.[a] 27 You also keep my feet put in the stocks,[b]
And you watch all my paths;
For the soles of my feet you mark your own line.
28 And he is like something rotten that wears out;[c]
Like a garment that a moth actually eats up.[d]

14 “Man, born of woman,[e]
Is short-lived[f] and glutted with agitation.[g]
2 Like a blossom he has come forth and is cut off,[h]
And he runs away like the shadow[i] and does not keep existing.
3 Yes, upon this one you have opened your eye,
And me you bring into judgment[j] with you.
4 Who can produce someone clean out of someone unclean?[k]
There is not one.
5 If his days are decided,[l]
The number of his months is with you;
A decree for him you have made that he may not go beyond.
6 Turn your gaze from upon him that he may have rest,[m]
Until he finds pleasure as a hired laborer does in his day.
7 For there exists hope for even a tree.
If it gets cut down, it will even sprout again,[n]
And its own twig will not cease to be.
8 If its root grows old in the earth
And in the dust its stump dies,
9 At the scent of water it will sprout[o]
And it will certainly produce a bough like a new plant.[p]
10 But an able-bodied man dies and lies vanquished;
And an earthling man expires, and where is he?[a] 11 Waters do disappear from a sea,
And a river itself drains off and dries up.[b]
12 Man also has to lie down and does not get up.[c]
Until heaven is no more they will not wake up,[d]
Nor will they be aroused from their sleep.[e]
13 O that in She'ol you would conceal me,[f]
That you would keep me secret until your anger turns back,
That you would set a time limit[g] for me and remember me![h]
14 If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?[i]
All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait,[j]
Until my relief comes.[k]
15 You will call, and I myself shall answer you.[l]
For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.
16 For now you keep counting my very steps;[m]
You watch for nothing but my sin.[n]
17 Sealed up in a bag is my revolt,[o]
And you apply glue over my error.
18 However, a mountain itself, falling, will fade away,
And even a rock will be moved away from its place.
19 Water certainly rubs away even stones;
Its outpouring washes off earth's dust.
So you have destroyed the very hope of mortal man.
20 You overpower him forever so that he goes away;[p]
You are disfiguring his face so that you send him away.

21 His sons get honored, but he does not know [it];[a]
And they become insignificant, but he does not consider them.
22 Only his own flesh while upon him will keep aching,
And his own soul while within him will keep mourning."

15 And El'i·phaz the Te'man·ite proceeded to answer and say:

2 "Will a wise person himself answer with windy knowledge,[b]
Or will he fill his belly with the east wind?[c]
3 Merely reproving with a word will be of no use,
And mere utterances will be of no benefit by themselves.
4 However, you yourself make fear [before God] to have no force,
And you diminish the having of any concern before God.
5 For your error trains your mouth,
And you choose the tongue of shrewd people.
6 Your mouth pronounces you wicked, and not I;
And your own lips answer against you.[d]
7 Were you the very first man to be born,[e]
Or before the hills[f] were you brought forth with labor pains?
8 To the confidential talk of God do you listen,[g]
And do you limit wisdom to yourself?
9 What do you actually know that we do not know?[h]
What do you understand that is not also with us?
10 Both the gray-headed and the aged one are with us,[i]
The one greater than your father in days.
11 Are the consolations of God not enough for you,
Or a word [spoken] gently with you?
12 Why does your heart carry you away,
And why do your eyes flash?
13 For you turn your spirit against God himself,
And you have caused words to go forth from your own mouth.
14 What is mortal man that he should be clean,[a]
Or that anyone born of a woman should be in the right?
15 Look! In his holy ones he has no faith,[b]
And the heavens themselves are actually not clean in his eyes.[c]
16 How much less so when one is detestable and corrupt,[d]
A man who is drinking in unrighteousness just like water!
17 I shall declare it to you. Listen to me![e]
Even this I have beheld, so let me relate [it], 18 That which wise ones[f] themselves tell
And which they did not hide, [it being] from their fathers.
19 To them alone the land was given,
And no stranger passed through the midst of them.
20 All his days a wicked one is suffering torture,
Even the very number of years that have been reserved for the tyrant.
21 The sound of dreadful things is in his ears;
During peace a despoiler himself comes upon him.[g]
22 He does not believe that he will come back out of darkness,[h]
And he is reserved for a sword.

23 He is straying about in search of bread—where is it?[a]
He well knows that the day of darkness[b] is ready at his hand.
24 Distress and anguish keep terrifying him;[c]
They overpower him like a king in readiness for the assault.
25 Because he stretches out his hand against God himself,
And over the Almighty he tries to show himself superior;[d]
26 [Because] he runs against him stiff-neckedly,
With the thick bosses of his shields;
27 Because he actually covers his face with his fatness
And he puts on fat upon his loins,[e]
28 He merely resides in cities that are to be effaced;
In houses in which people will not keep dwelling,
Which certainly prove destined for heaps of stones.
29 He will not grow rich and his wealth will not mount up,
Nor will he spread out the acquisition of them over the earth.[f]
30 He will not turn away from darkness;
His twig a flame will dry up,
And he will turn aside by a blast of His mouth.[g]
31 Let him put no faith in worthlessness, being led astray,
For mere worthlessness will prove to be what he gets in exchange;
32 Before his day will it be fulfilled.
And his shoot itself will certainly not grow luxuriantly.[h]
33 He will thrust away his unripe grapes just like a vine,
And cast off his blossoms just like an olive tree.
34 For the assembly of apostates is sterile,[a]
And fire itself must eat up the tents of bribery.[b]
35 There is a conceiving of trouble and a giving birth to what is hurtful,[c]
And their belly itself prepares deceit."

16 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 "I have heard many things like these.
All of YOU are troublesome comforters![d]
3 Is there an end to windy words?[e]
Or what galls you, that you answer?
4 I myself also could well speak as YOU men do.
If only YOUR souls existed where my soul is,
Would I be brilliant in words against YOU,[f]
And would I wag my head against YOU?[g]
5 I would strengthen YOU with the words of my mouth,[h]
And the consolation of my own lips would hold back—.
6 If I do speak, my own pain is not held back,[i]
And if I do cease doing so, what goes away from me?
7 Only now he has made me weary;[j]
He has made all those assembling with me desolate.
8 You also seize me. It has become a witness,[k]
So that my leanness rises up against me. In my face it testifies.
9 His very anger has torn [me] to pieces, and he harbors animosity[l] against me.
He actually grinds his teeth against me.[m]

My adversary himself sharpens his eyes against me.[a]

11 God hands me over to young boys,
And into the hands of wicked ones he throws me headlong.[d]
12 I had come to be at ease, but he proceeded to shake me up;[e]
And he grabbed me by the back of the neck and proceeded to smash me,
And he sets me up as a target for himself.
13 His archers[f] encircle me;
He splits open my kidneys[g] and feels no compassion;
He pours out my gallbladder to the very earth.
14 He keeps breaking through me with breach after breach;
He runs at me like a mighty one.[h]
15 Sackcloth[i] I have sewed together over my skin,
And I have thrust my horn in the very dust.[j]
16 My face itself has become reddened from weeping,[k]
And upon my eyelids there is deep shadow,[l]
17 Although there is no violence upon my palms,
And my prayer is pure.[m]
18 O earth, do not cover my blood![n]
And let there prove to be no place for my outcry!
19 Also now, look! in the heavens is one testifying about me,
And my witness is in the heights.[o]
20 My companions are spokesmen against me;[p]
To God my eye has looked sleeplessly.[a] 21 And the decision is to be made between an able-bodied man and God,
The same as between a son of man and his fellow.[b]
22 For just a few years are to come,
And by the path by which I shall not return I shall go away.[c]

17 "My very spirit has been broken,[d] my own days have been extinguished;

And amid their rebellious behavior my eye lodges.
3 Please, do put my security with yourself.[g]

4 For their heart you have closed to discretion.[i]
That is why you do not exalt them.
5 He may tell companions to take their shares,
But the very eyes of his sons will fail.[j]
6 And he has set me forth as a proverbial saying[k] of peoples,
So that I become someone into whose face to spit.[l]
7 And from vexation my eye grows dimmer[m]
And my members are all of them like the shadow.
8 Upright people stare in amazement at this,
And even the innocent one gets excited over the apostate.
9 The righteous one keeps holding fast to his way,[n]
And the one with clean hands[o] keeps increasing in strength.[p] 10 However, YOU men may all of YOU resume. So come on, please,

The wishes of my heart.
12 Night they keep putting for day:[d]
'Light is near on account of darkness.'
13 If I keep waiting, She'ol is my house;[e]
In the darkness[f] I shall have to spread out my lounge.
14 To the pit[g] I shall have to call out, 'You are my father!'
To the maggot,[h] 'My mother and my sister!'
15 So where, then, is my hope?[i]
And my hope—who is it that beholds it?
16 To the bars of She'ol they will go down,
When we, all together, must descend to the very dust."[j]

18 And Bil'dad the Shu'hite proceeded to answer and say:
2 "How long will YOU people be at putting an end to words?
YOU should understand, that afterward we may speak.
3 Why should we be reckoned as beasts[k]
[And] be regarded as unclean in YOUR eyes?
4 He is tearing his soul to pieces in his anger.
For your sake will the earth be abandoned,
Or a rock move away from its place?
5 The light also of wicked ones will be extinguished[l]
And the spark of his fire will not shine.
6 A light itself will certainly grow dark in his tent,[m]
And in it his own lamp will be extinguished.
7 His steps of vigor will become cramped.
Even his counsel will cast him off.[a]
8 For he will indeed be let go into a net by his feet,
And onto a network he will walk.[b]
9 A trap will seize [him] by the heel;[c]
A snare[d] keeps hold upon him.
10 A cord for him is hidden on the earth,
And a catching device for him on [his] pathway.
11 Round about, sudden terrors certainly make him start up in fright,[e]
And indeed chase him at his feet.
12 His vigor becomes famished,
And disaster[f] stands ready to make him limp.
13 It will eat the pieces of his skin;
The firstborn of death will eat his limbs.
14 His confidence will be torn away from his own tent[g]
And it will march him to the king of terrors.
15 There will reside in his tent something that is not his;
Sulphur[h] will be strewed upon his own abiding place.
16 Underneath will his very roots dry up,[i]
And, up above, his bough will wither.
17 The very mentioning of him will certainly perish from the earth,[j]
And he will have no name out in the street.
18 They will push him out of the light into the darkness,
And from the productive land they will chase him away.
19 He will have no posterity and no progeny among his people,[k]
And there will be no survivor in his place of alien residence.

21 Only these are the tabernacles of a wrongdoer,
And this is the place of one that has not known God."

19 And Job proceeded to answer and say:
2 "How long will YOU men keep irritating my soul[a]
And keep crushing me with words?[b]
3 These ten times YOU proceeded to rebuke me;
YOU are not ashamed [that] YOU deal so hard with me.[c]
4 And, granted that I have made a mistake,[d]

In order that YOU men may know there is a judge."[g]

20 And Zo'phar the Na'a·ma·thite proceeded to reply and say:
2 "Therefore do my own disquieting thoughts themselves answer me,
Even on account of my inward excitement.
3 An insulting exhortation to me I hear;
And a spirit without the understanding that I have replies to me.
4 Have you at all times known this very thing,
Since man was put upon the earth,[h]
5 That the joyful cry of wicked people is short[i]
And the rejoicing of an apostate is for a moment?
6 Although his excellency ascends to heaven itself[a]
And his very head reaches to the clouds,
7 Like his manure cakes he perishes forever;[b]
The very ones seeing him will say, 'Where is he?'[c]
8 Like a dream he will fly off, and they will not find him;
And he will be chased away like a vision of the night.[d]
9 The eye that has caught sight of him will not do so[e] again,
And no more will his place behold him.[f]
10 His own sons will seek the favor of lowly people,
And his own hands will give back his valuable things.[g]
11 His own bones have been full of his youthful vigor,
But with him it will lie down in mere dust.[h]
12 If what is bad tastes sweet in his mouth,
If he causes it to melt away under his tongue,
13 If he has compassion upon it and does not leave it,
And if he keeps holding it back in the midst of his palate,
14 His food itself will certainly be changed in his own intestines;
It will be the gall of cobras within him.
15 Wealth he has swallowed down, but he will vomit it up;
God will drive it out from his very belly.
16 The venom of cobras he will suck;
The tongue of a viper will kill him.[i]

18 He will be giving back [his] acquired property and will not swallow [it] down;
Like wealth from his trade, but which he will not enjoy.[a] 19 For he has crushed to pieces, he has left lowly ones;
He has snatched away a house itself that he did not proceed to build.[b]
20 For he will certainly know no ease in his belly;
By means of his desirable things he will not escape.[c]
21 There is nothing left over for him to devour;
That is why his well-being will not endure.
22 While his plenty is at its peak he will be feeling anxious;[d]
All the power of misfortune itself will come against him.
23 Let it occur that, to fill his belly,
He will send his burning anger upon him[e]
And will rain [it] upon him, into his bowels.
24 He will run away[f] from armor of iron;
A bow of copper will cut him up.
25 A missile itself will even go out through his back,
And a glittering weapon out through his gall;[g]
Frightful objects will go against him.[h]
26 All darkness will be reserved for his treasured things;
A fire that no one fanned will eat him up;[i]
It will go badly with a survivor in his tent.
27 Heaven will uncover his error,[j]
And earth will be in revolt against him.
28 A heavy shower will roll his house away;
There will be things poured forth on the day of his anger.[k]
29 This is the share of the wicked man from God,[a]
Even his stated inheritance from God."

21 And Job proceeded to answer and say:
2 "Listen, YOU men, attentively to my word,
And let this become YOUR consolation.
3 Put up with me, and I myself shall speak;
And after my speaking you may [each] deride.[b]
4 As for me, is my concern [expressed] to man?
Or why is it that my spirit does not get impatient?
5 Turn YOUR faces to me and stare in amazement,
And put [YOUR] hand upon [YOUR] mouth.[c]
6 And if I have remembered, I have also become disturbed,
And shuddering has taken hold of my flesh.
7 Why is it that the wicked themselves keep living,[d]
Have grown old, also have become superior in wealth?[e]
8 Their offspring are firmly established with them in their sight,
And their descendants before their eyes.
9 Their houses are peace itself, free from dread,[f]
And the rod of God is not upon them.
10 His own bull actually impregnates, and it does not waste semen;
His cow brings forth[g] and suffers no abortion.
11 They keep sending out their young boys just like a flock,
And their own male children go skipping about.
12 They continue raising [their voice] with the tambourine and harp,[h]
And keep rejoicing at the sound of the pipe.

13 They spend their days in good times,[a]
And in a moment down to She'ol they descend.
14 And they say to the [true] God, 'Turn away from us![b]
And in the knowledge of your ways we have found no delight.[c]
15 What does the Almighty amount to, that we should serve him,[d]
And how do we benefit ourselves in that we have come in touch with him?'[e] 16 Look! Their well-being is not in their own power.[f]
The very counsel of wicked ones has kept far from me.[g]
17 How many times is the lamp of the wicked ones extinguished,[h]
And [how many times] does their disaster come upon them?
[How many times] in his anger does he apportion destruction?[i]
18 Do they become like straw before a wind,[j]
And like chaff that a storm wind has stolen away?
19 God himself will store up one's hurtfulness for one's own sons;[k]
He will reward him that he may know [it].[l]
20 His eyes will see his decay,
And from the rage of the Almighty he will drink.[m]
21 For what will his delight be in his house after him,
When the number of his months will really be cut in two?[n]
22 Will he teach knowledge even to God,[o]
When that One himself judges high ones?[p]
23 This very one will die during his full self-sufficiency,[q]
When he is altogether carefree and at ease;
24 [When] his own thighs have become full of fat
And the very marrow of his bones is being kept moist.
25 And this other one will die with a bitter soul
When he has not eaten of good things.[a] 26 Together in the dust they will lie down[b]
And maggots themselves will form a cover over them.[c]
27 Look! I well know the thoughts of YOU men
And the schemes with which YOU would act violently against me.[d]
28 For YOU say, 'Where is the house of the noble one,
And where is the tent, the tabernacles of wicked ones?'[e]
29 Have YOU not asked those traveling over the roads?
And do YOU not carefully inspect their very signs,
30 That to the day of disaster an evil one is spared,[f]
At the day of fury he is delivered?
31 Who will tell him of his way to his very face?[g]
And for what he himself has done who will reward him?[h]
32 As for him, to the graveyard he will be brought,[i]
And over a tomb a vigil will be kept.
33 To him the clods of earth of a torrent valley will certainly become sweet,[j]
And after him he will drag all mankind,[k]
And those before him were without number.
34 So how vainly YOU men try to comfort me,[l]
And YOUR very replies do remain as unfaithfulness!"

of use to God himself,[a]
That anyone having insight should be of use toward him?
3 Does the Almighty have any delight in that you are righteous,[b]
Or any gain in that you make your way blameless?[c]
4 For your reverence will he reprove you,
Will he come with you into the judgment?[d]
5 Is not your own badness too much already,[e]
And will there be no end to your errors?
6 For you seize a pledge from your brothers without cause,[f]
And you strip off even the garments of naked people.
7 You do not give the tired one a drink of water,
And from the hungry one you hold back bread.[g]
8 As for a man of strength, the land is his,[h]
And one who is treated with partiality himself dwells in it.
9 Widows you have sent away empty-handed,

13 And yet you have said: 'What does God really know?
Through thick gloom can he judge?
14 Clouds are a concealment place for him so that he does not see,
And on the vault of heaven he walks about.'
15 Will you keep to the very way of long ago
That hurtful men have trodden,
16 [Men] who have been snatched away before their time,[a]
Whose foundation[b] is poured away just as a river, 17 Who are saying to the [true] God: 'Turn away from us!'[c]
And what can the Almighty accomplish against us?'
18 Yet he himself has filled their houses with good things;[d]

And the innocent one himself will hold them in derision:
20 'Truly our antagonists have been effaced;
And what is left of them a fire will certainly eat up.'
21 Acquaint yourself, please, with him, and keep peace;
Thereby good things will come to you.
22 Take, please, the law from his own mouth,
And put his sayings in your heart.[g]
23 If you return to the Almighty,[h] you will be built up;
[If] you will keep unrighteousness far from your tent,
24 And [if] there is a placing of precious ore in the dust
And gold of O'phir[i] in the rock of torrent valleys, 25 The Almighty also will indeed become your precious ores,
And silver, the choicest, to you.[j]
26 For then in the Almighty you will find your exquisite delight,[k]

23 And Job proceeded to answer and say:
2 "Even today my state of concern[i] is rebelliousness;
My own hand is heavy on account of my sighing.
3 O that I really knew where I might find him![j]
I would come clear to his fixed place.[k]

At the same time the afflicted of the earth have kept themselves hidden.
5 Look! [As] zebras[c] in the wilderness
They have gone forth in their activity, looking for food.
The desert plain [gives] to each one bread for the boys.
6 In the field its fodder they harvest,
And the vineyard of the wicked one they hastily despoil.
7 Naked, they pass the night without a garment,[d]
And without any covering in the cold.[e]
8 From the rainstorm of the mountains they get drenched,
And because there is no shelter[f] they have to hug a rock.
9 They snatch away a fatherless boy even from the breast,[g]
And what is on the afflicted one they take as a pledge.[h]
10 Naked, they have to go about without a garment,
And, hungry, they have to carry the reaped ears.[i]

25 And Bil'dad[e] the Shu'hite proceeded to answer and say:

2 "Rulership and dreadfulness are with him;[f]
He is making peace on his heights.
3 Is there any number to his troops?

27 And Job proceeded again to lift up his proverbial utterance[a] and went on to say:

2 "As God lives,[b] who has taken away my judgment,[c]
And as the Almighty [lives], who has made my soul bitter,[d]
3 While my breath is yet whole within me,
And the spirit of God is in my nostrils,[e]
4 My lips will speak no unrighteousness
And my own tongue will mutter no deceit!
5 It is unthinkable on my part that I should declare YOU men righteous![f]
Until I expire I shall not take away my integrity[g] from myself!
6 On my justness I have laid hold, and I shall not let it go;[h]
My heart will not taunt [me] for any of my days.[i]
7 Let my enemy become in every way a wicked man,[j]
And the one revolting against me really a wrongdoer.
8 For what is the hope of an apostate in case he cuts [him] off,[k]
In case God carries off his soul from him?[l] 9 Will God hear an outcry of his
In case distress comes upon him?[m]
10 Or in the Almighty will he find exquisite delight?
Will he call to God at all times?
11 I shall instruct YOU men by the hand of God;
That which is with the Almighty I shall not hide.[n]
12 Look! YOU yourselves have all of YOU seen visions;
So why is it that YOU show yourselves utterly vain?[o]
13 This is the share of the wicked man from God;[p]
And the inheritance of the tyrants they will receive from the Almighty himself.
14 If his sons become many, it is for a sword;[a]
And his descendants themselves will not have enough food.
15 His own survivors will be buried during a deadly plague,
And their own widows will not weep.[b]
16 If he should pile up silver like dust itself,
And he should prepare attire just as if clay,
17 He would prepare, but the righteous would be the one to clothe himself,[c]
And in the silver the innocent would be the one to have a share.
18 He has built his house like a mere moth,
And like a booth[d] that a watchman has made.
19 Rich he will lie down, but nothing will be gathered;
His eyes he has opened, but there will be nothing.[e]
20 Like waters sudden terrors will overtake him;[f]
At night a storm wind will certainly steal him away.
21 An east wind will carry him off[g] and he will go away,
And it will whirl him away from his place.[h]
22 And it will hurl itself at him and have no compassion;[i]
From its power he will without fail try to run away.[j]
23 One will clap his hands at him[k]
And will whistle[l] at him from his place.

Mal 3:3

2 Iron itself is taken from the very dust[a]
And [from] stone copper is being poured out.
3 An end to the darkness he has set;
And to every limit he is searching out[b]
Stone in the gloom and deep shadow.
4 He has sunk a shaft far from where [people] reside as aliens,[c]
Places forgotten far from the foot;
Some of mortal men have swung down, they have dangled.
5 As for the earth, out of it food goes forth;[d]
But underneath it, it has been upturned as if by fire.
6 Its stones are the place of the sapphire,[e]
And it has gold dust.
7 A pathway—no bird of prey[f] has known it,
Nor has the eye of a black kite caught sight of it.[g]
8 The majestic wild beasts have not trodden it down solid;
The young lion has not paced over it.
9 Upon the flint he has thrust out his hand;
He has overthrown mountains from [their] root;
10 Into the rocks he has channeled water-filled galleries,[h]
And all precious things his eye has seen.
11 The places from which rivers trickled he has dammed up,[i]
And the concealed thing he brings forth to the light.
12 But wisdom—where can it be found,[j]
And where, now, is the place of understanding?
13 Mortal man has not come to know its valuation,[k]
And it is not found in the land of those living.
14 The watery deep itself has said,
'It is not in me!'
The sea too has said, 'It is not with me!'[a] 15 Pure gold cannot be given in exchange for it,[b]
And silver cannot be weighed out as its price.
16 It cannot be paid for with gold of O'phir,[c]
With the rare onyx stone and the sapphire.
17 Gold and glass cannot be compared to it,
Nor is any vessel of refined gold an exchange for it.
18 Coral[d] and rock crystal themselves will not be mentioned,
But a bagful of wisdom is worth more than [one full of] pearls.[e]
19 The topaz[f] of Cush cannot be compared to it;
It cannot be paid for even with gold in its purity.
20 But wisdom itself—from where does it come,[g]
And where, now, is the place of understanding?
21 It has been hidden even from the eyes of everyone alive,[h]
And from the flying creatures of the heavens it has been concealed.
22 Destruction and death themselves have said,
'With our ears we have heard a report of it.'
23 God is the One who has understood its way,[i]
And he himself has known its place,
24 For he himself looks to the very ends of the earth;[j]
Under the whole heavens he sees,
25 To make a weight for the wind,[k]
While he has proportioned the waters themselves by a measure;[l]
26 When he made for the rain a regulation,[m]
And a way for the thunderous storm cloud,

27 Then it was that he saw [wisdom] and proceeded to tell about it;
He prepared it and also searched it through.
28 And he went on to say to man,
'Look! The fear of Jehovah—that is wisdom,[a]
And to turn away from bad is understanding.'"[b]

29 And Job proceeded again to lift up his proverbial utterance and went on to say:

2 "O that I were as in the lunar months of long ago,[c]
As in the days when God was guarding me;[d]
3 When he caused his lamp to shine upon my head,
[When] I would walk [through] darkness by his light;[e]
4 Just as I happened to be in the days of my prime,[f]
When intimacy with God was at my tent;[g]
5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
[When] my attendants were all around me!
6 When I washed my steps in butter,
And the rock kept pouring out streams of oil for me;[h]
7 When I went forth to the gate by the town,[i]
In the public square I would prepare my seat![j]
8 The boys saw me and hid themselves,
And even the aged ones rose up, they stood.[k]
9 Princes themselves restrained words,
And the palm they would put upon their mouth.[l]
10 The voice of the leaders themselves was hidden,
And their very tongue cleaved to their palate.[m]
11 For the ear itself listened and proceeded to pronounce me happy,
And the eye itself saw and proceeded to bear witness for me.
12 For I would rescue the afflicted one crying for help,[a]
And the fatherless boy and anyone that had no helper.[b]
13 The blessing[c] of the one about to perish—upon me it would come,
And the heart of the widow I would make glad.[d]
14 With righteousness I clothed myself, and it was clothing me.[e]
My justice was like a sleeveless coat—and a turban.
15 Eyes I became to the blind one;[f]
And feet to the lame one I was.
16 I was a real father to the poor ones;[g]
And the legal case of one whom I did not know—I would examine it.[h]
17 And I would break the jawbones of the wrongdoer,[i]
And from his teeth I would tear away the prey.
18 And I used to say, 'Within my nest I shall expire,[j]
And like the grains of sand I shall multiply [my] days.[k]
19 My root is opened for the waters,[l]
And dew itself will stay overnight upon my bough.
20 My glory is fresh with me,
And my bow in my hand will shoot repeatedly.'
21 To me they listened; and they waited,
And they would keep silent for my counsel.[m]
22 After my word they would not speak again,
And upon them my word would drip.[n]
23 And they waited for me as for the rain,[o]

And their mouth they opened wide for the spring rain.[a] 24 I would smile at them—they would not believe [it]—
And the light of my face[b] they would not cast down.
25 I would choose the way for them, and I was sitting as head;
And I resided as a king among [his] troops,[c]
As one who comforts the mourners.[d]

30 "And now they have laughed at me,[e]
Those younger in days than I am,[f]
Whose fathers I would have refused
To place with the dogs of my flock.
2 Even the power of their hands—of what use was it to me?
In them vigor has perished.[g]
3 Because of want and hunger they are sterile,
Gnawing at a waterless region,[h]
[Where] yesterday there were storm and desolation.
4 They were plucking the salt herb by the bushes,
And the root of broom trees was their food.
5 From the community they would be driven away;[i]
People would shout at them as at a thief.
6 [They have] to reside on the very slope of torrent valleys,
In holes of the dust and in rocks.
7 Among the bushes they would cry out;
Under the nettles they would huddle together.
8 Sons of the senseless one,[j] also sons of the nameless one,
They have been scourged out of the land.
9 And now I have become even the theme of their song,[a]
And I am to them for a byword.[b]
10 They have detested me, they have kept themselves far from me;[c]
And from my face they did not hold back [their] spit.[d]
11 For he loosened [my] own bowstring and proceeded to humble me,
And the bridle they left loose on my account.
12 At [my] right hand they rise up as a brood;
My feet they have let go,
But they proceeded to cast up against me their disastrous barriers.[e]
13 They have torn down my roadways;
They were beneficial only for adversity to me,[f]
Without their having any helper.
14 As through a wide gap they proceed to come;
Under a storm they have rolled along.
15 Sudden terrors have been turned upon me;
My noble bearing is chased like the wind,
And like a cloud my salvation has passed away.
16 And now my soul is poured out within me;[g]
Days of affliction[h] take hold upon me.
17 At night my very bones[i] have been bored through [and dropped] from off me,
And [pains] gnawing me do not take any rest.[j]
18 By the abundance of power my garment takes on a change;
Like the collar of my long garment it engirdles me.
19 He has brought me down to the clay,
So that I show myself like dust and ashes.

21 You change yourself to become cruel to me;[b]
With the full might of your hand you harbor animosity toward me.
22 You lift me to the wind, you cause me to ride [it];
Then you dissolve me with a crash.
23 For I well know that to death you will make me turn back,[c]
And to the house of meeting for everyone living.
24 Only no one thrusts his hand out against a mere heap of ruins,[d]
Nor during one's decay is there a cry for help respecting those things.
25 Certainly I have wept for the one having a hard day;[e]
My soul has grieved for the poor one.[f]
26 Although for good I waited, yet bad came;[g]
And I kept awaiting the light, but gloom came.
27 My own intestines were made to boil and did not keep silent;
Days of affliction confronted me.
28 Saddened[h] I walked about when there was no sunlight;
I got up in the congregation, I kept crying for help.
29 A brother to jackals I became,
And a companion to the daughters of the ostrich.[i] 30 My very skin became black[j] [and dropped] off me,
And my very bones became hot from dryness.
31 And my harp came to be merely for mourning,
And my pipe for the voice of weeping ones.

So how could I show myself attentive to a virgin?[b]
2 And what portion is there from God above,[c]
Or inheritance from the Almighty from on high?
3 Is there not disaster for a wrongdoer,[d]

And God will get to know my integrity.[i]
7 If my stepping deviates from the way,[j]

Or any defect has stuck in my own palms,[l]
8 Let me sow seed and someone else eat,[m]
And let my own descendants be rooted out.

And over her let other men kneel down.[p]

14 Then what can I do when God rises up?
And when he calls for an accounting, what can I answer him?[a] 15 Did not the One making me in the belly make him,[b]
And did not just One proceed to prepare us in the womb?
16 If I used to hold back the lowly ones from [their] delight,[c]
And the eyes of the widow I would cause to fail,[d]
17 And I used to eat my morsel by myself,
While the fatherless boy did not eat from it[e]
18 (For from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,
And from the belly of my mother I kept leading her);
19 If I used to see anyone perishing from having no garment,[f]
Or that the poor one had no covering;
20 If his loins did not bless me,[g]
Nor from the shorn wool[h] of my young rams he would warm himself;
21 If I waved my hand to and fro against the fatherless boy,[i]
When I would see [need of] my assistance in the gate,[j]
22 Let my own shoulder blade fall from its shoulder,
And let my own arm be broken from its upper bone.
23 For disaster from God was a dread to me,
And against his dignity[k] I could not hold out.
24 If I have put gold as my confidence,
Or to gold I have said, 'You are my trust!'[l]
25 If I used to rejoice because my property was much,[m]
And because my hand had found a lot of things;[n]
26 If I used to see the light when it would flash forth,
Or the precious moon walking along,[a] 27 And my heart began to be enticed in secrecy[b]
And my hand proceeded to kiss my mouth,
28 That too would be an error for [attention by] the justices,
For I should have denied the [true] God above.
29 If I used to rejoice at the extinction of one intensely hating me,[c]
Or I felt excited because evil had found him—
30 And I did not allow my palate to sin
By asking for an oath against his soul.[d]
31 If the men of my tent did not say,
'Who can produce anyone that has not been satisfied from food of his?'[e]— 32 Outside no alien resident would spend the night;[f]
My doors I kept open to the path.
33 If like an earthling man I covered over my transgressions[g]
By hiding my error in my shirt pocket—
34 Because I would suffer a shock at a large crowd,
Or the contempt itself of families would terrorize me
And I would keep silent, I would not go out of the entrance.
35 O that I had someone listening to me,[h]
That according to my signature the Almighty himself would answer me![i]
Or that the individual in the case at law with me had written a document itself!
36 Surely upon my shoulder I would carry it;

40 Instead of wheat let the thorny weed go forth,[d]
And instead of barley stinking weeds."

The words of Job have come to an end.

32 So these three men ceased from answering Job, for he was righteous in his own eyes.[e] 2 But the anger of E·li'hu the son of Bar'a·chel the Buz'ite[f] of the family of Ram came to be hot. Against Job his anger blazed over his declaring his own soul righteous rather than God.[g] 3 Also, against his three companions his anger blazed over the fact that they had not found an answer but they proceeded to pronounce God wicked.[h] 4 And E·li'hu himself had waited for Job with words, because they were older than he was in days.[i] 5 And E·li'hu gradually saw that there was no answer in the mouth[j] of the three men, and his anger kept getting hotter. 6 And E·li'hu the son of Bar'a·chel the Buz'ite proceeded to answer and say:

"Young I am in days
And YOU men are aged.[k]
That is why I drew back and was afraid
To declare my knowledge to YOU men.
7 I said, 'Days themselves should speak,
And a multitude of years are what should make wisdom known.'[a]
8 Surely it is the spirit in mortal men
And the breath of the Almighty [that] gives them understanding.[b]
9 It is not those merely abundant in days that prove wise,[c]
Nor those just old that understand judgment.[d]
10 Therefore I said, 'Do listen to me.
I shall declare my knowledge, even I.'
11 Look! I have waited for the words of YOU men,
I kept giving ear to YOUR reasonings,[e]
Until YOU could search for words [to say].
12 And to YOU I kept my attention turned,
And here there is no one reproving Job,
None of YOU answering his sayings,
13 That YOU may not say, 'We have found wisdom;[f]
It is God that drives him away, not a man.'
14 As he has not arrayed words against me,
So with the sayings of YOU men I shall not reply to him.
15 They have been terrified, they have answered no more;
Words have moved away from them.
16 And I have waited, for they do not continue speaking;
For they stood still, they answered no more.
17 I shall give in answer my part, even I;
I shall declare my knowledge, even I;
18 For I have become full of words;
Spirit has brought pressure[g] upon me in my belly.
19 Look! My belly is like wine that has no vent;

33 "Now, however, O Job, please hear my words,
And to all my speaking do give ear.
2 Look, please! I have to open my mouth;
My tongue with my palate[f] has to speak.
3 My sayings are the uprightness of my heart,[g]
And knowledge is what my lips do utter sincerely.[h]
4 God's own spirit made me,[i]
And the Almighty's own breath proceeded to bring me to life.[j]
5 If you are able, make reply to me,

From the clay I was shaped,[l] I too.
7 Look! No frightfulness in me will terrify you,

12 Look! In this you have not been in the right,[c] I answer you;
For God is much more than mortal man.[d]
13 Why is it against him that you contended,[e]
Because all your words he does not answer?[f]
14 For God speaks once,
And twice[g]—though one does not regard it—
15 In a dream,[h] a vision[i] of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
During slumbers upon the bed.[j]
16 It is then that he uncovers the ear of men,[k]
And on exhortation to them he puts his seal,
17 To turn aside a man from his deed,[l]
And that he may cover pride[m] itself from an able-bodied man.
18 He keeps his soul back from the pit[n]
And his life from passing away by a missile.[o]
19 And he is actually reproved with pain upon his bed,
And the quarreling of his bones is continual.
20 And his life certainly makes bread loathsome,[p]
And his own soul desirable food.
21 His flesh wastes away from sight,
And his bones that were not seen certainly grow bare.
22 And his soul draws near to the pit,[q]
And his life to those inflicting death.
23 If there exists for him a messenger,
A spokesman, one out of a thousand,
To tell to man his uprightness,

'Let him off from going down into the pit![a]
I have found a ransom![b]
25 Let his flesh become fresher than in youth;[c]
Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor.'[d]
26 He will make entreaty to God that he may take pleasure in him,[e]
And he will see his face with joyful shouting,
And He will restore His righteousness to mortal man.
27 He will sing to men and say,
'I have sinned;[f] and what is upright I have perverted,
And it certainly was not the proper thing for me.
28 He has redeemed my soul from passing into the pit,[g]
And my life itself will see the light.'
29 Look! All these things God performs,
Two times, three times, in the case of an able-bodied man,
30 To turn his soul back from the pit,[h]
That he may be enlightened with the light of those living.[i] 31 Pay attention, O Job! Listen to me!
Keep silent, and I myself shall continue speaking.
32 If there are any words [to say], make reply to me;
Speak, for I have taken delight in your righteousness.
33 If there are none, you yourself listen to me;[j]
Keep silent, and I shall teach you wisdom."

34 And E·li'hu continued to answer and say:
2 "Listen, YOU wise ones, to my words;
And YOU who know, give ear to me.
3 For the ear itself makes a test of words,[k]
Just as the palate tastes when eating.[a] 4 Judgment let us choose for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves what is good.
5 For Job has said, 'I certainly am in the right,[b]
But God himself has turned aside the judgment of me.[c]
6 Against my own judgment do I tell lies?
My severe wound is incurable though there is no transgression.'[d]
7 What able-bodied man is like Job,[e]
[Who] drinks up derision like water?[f]
8 And he is certainly on his way to companionship with practicers of what is hurtful
And to walking with men of wickedness.[g]
9 For he has said, 'An able-bodied man does not profit[h]
By his taking pleasure in God.'
10 Therefore, YOU men of heart,[i] listen to me.
Far be it from the [true] God to act wickedly,[j]
And the Almighty to act unjustly![k]
11 For [according to] the way earthling man acts he will reward[l] him,
And according to the path of man he will cause it to come upon him.
12 Yes, for a fact, God himself does not act wickedly,[m]
And the Almighty himself does not pervert judgment.[n]
13 Who has assigned to him the earth,
And who has appointed [to him] the productive land, even all of it?
14 If he sets his heart upon anyone,
[If] that one's spirit and breath he gathers to himself,[o]

15 All flesh will expire together,
And earthling man himself will return to the very dust.[a] 16 So if [you have] understanding, do listen to this;
Do give ear to the sound of my words.
17 Really will anyone hating justice control,[b]
And if a powerful one is righteous will you pronounce [him] wicked?[c] 18 Shall one say to a king, 'You are good for nothing'?
To nobles, 'You are wicked'?[d]
19 [There is One] who has not shown partiality to princes
And has not given more consideration to the noble[e] one than to the lowly one,
For all of them are the work of his hands.[f]
20 In a moment they die,[g] even in the middle of the night;[h]
The people shake back and forth and pass away,
And powerful ones depart by no hand.[i]
21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man,[j]
And all his steps he sees.
22 There is no darkness nor any deep shadow
For those practicing what is hurtful to conceal themselves there.[k]
23 For he sets no appointed time for any man
To go to God in judgment.
24 He breaks powerful ones[l] without any investigation,
And he makes others stand up instead of them.[m]
25 Therefore he recognizes what their works are,[n]
And he does overthrow [them] at night, and they get crushed.[o]
26 As wicked ones he does slap them
In the place of onlookers;[a]
27 For the reason that they have turned aside from following him,[b]
And none of his ways have they considered,[c]
28 So as to cause the outcry of the lowly one to come to him;
And so he hears the outcry of the afflicted ones.[d]
29 When he himself causes quietness, who, then, can condemn?
And when he conceals [his] face,[e] who can behold him,
Whether it is toward a nation[f] or toward a man, it being the same thing?
30 So that an apostate man may not reign,[g]
Nor there be snares[h] of the people.
31 For will anyone actually say to God himself,
'I have borne, although I do not act corruptly;[i] 32 Although I behold nothing, instruct me yourself;
If any unrighteousness I have committed,
I shall not do [it] again'?[j]
33 Will he make good for it from your standpoint because you do refuse [judgment],
Because you yourself choose, and not I?
Even what you well know, speak.
34 Men of heart[k] themselves will say to me—
Even a wise able-bodied man that is listening to me, 35 'Job himself speaks without knowledge,[l]
And his words are without [his] having insight.'
36 My father, let Job be tested out to the limit
Over his replies among men of hurtfulness.[m]
37 For on top of his sin he adds revolt;[n]
Among us he claps [his hands] and multiplies his sayings against the [true] God!"[a]

35 And E·li'hu continued answering and saying:

2 "Is this what you have regarded as justice?
You have said, 'My righteousness is more than God's.'[b]
3 For you say, 'Of what use is it to you?[c]
What benefit do I have more than by my sinning?'[d]
4 I myself shall reply to you
And to your companions[e] with you.
5 Look up to heaven[f] and see,
And behold the clouds,[g] [that] they are indeed higher than you.
6 If you actually sin, what do you accomplish against him?[h]
And [if] your revolts actually increase, what do you do to him?
7 If you are really in the right, what do you give him,
Or what does he receive from your own hand?[i]
8 Your wickedness may be against a man like you,[j]
And your righteousness to a son of earthling man.[k]
9 Because of the multitude of oppressions they keep calling for aid;[l]
They keep crying for help because of the arm of the great ones.[m]
10 And yet no one has said, 'Where is God my Grand Maker,[n]
The One giving melodies in the night?'[o]
11 He is the One teaching[p] us more than the beasts of the earth,[q]
And he makes us wiser than even the flying creatures of the heavens.
12 There they keep crying out, but he does not answer,[r]
Because of the pride[s] of the bad ones.
13 Only the untruth God does not hear,[a]
And the Almighty himself does not behold it.[b]
14 How much less, then, when you say you do not behold him![c]
The legal case is before him, and so you should wait anxiously for him.[d]
15 And now because his anger has not called for an accounting,[e]
He has also not taken note of the extreme rashness.[f]
16 And Job himself opens his mouth wide simply for nothing;
Without knowledge he multiplies mere words."[g]

36 And E·li'hu proceeded to say further:

2 "Have patience with me a little while, and I shall declare to you
That there are yet words [to say] for God.
3 I shall carry my knowledge from far off,
And to my Fashioner I shall ascribe righteousness.[h]
4 For my words are for a fact no falsehood;
The One perfect in knowledge[i] is with you.
5 Look! God is mighty[j] and will not reject;
[He is] mighty in power of heart;
6 He will not preserve anyone wicked alive,[k]
But the judgment of the afflicted ones he will give.[l]
7 He will not take away his eyes from anyone righteous;[m]
Even kings on the throne[n]—
He will also seat them forever, and they will be exalted.
8 And if they are bound in fetters,[o]

And he will say that they should turn back from what is hurtful.[b] 11 If they obey and serve,
They will finish their days in what is good
And their years in pleasantness.[c]
12 But if they do not obey, they will pass away[d] even by a missile,[e]

13 And those apostate in heart will themselves lay up anger.[f]
They should not cry for help because he has bound them.
14 Their soul will die in youth itself,[g]
And their life among male temple prostitutes.[h]
15 He will rescue the afflicted one in his affliction,
And he will uncover their ear in the oppression.
16 And he will also certainly allure you from the mouth of distress![i] Broader space,[j] not constraint, will be in its place,
And the consolation of your table will be full of fatness.[k]
17 With the judicial sentence upon the wicked one[l] you will certainly be filled;
Judicial sentence and justice will themselves take hold.
18 For [take care] that rage[m] does not allure you into [spiteful] handclapping,
And let not a large ransom[n] itself lead you astray.
19 Will your cry for help take effect?[a] No, nor in distress
Even all [your] powerful efforts.[b]
20 Do not pant for the night,
For peoples to retreat [from] where they are.
21 Be on your guard that you do not turn to what is hurtful,[c]
For this you have chosen rather than affliction.[d]

Mortal man himself keeps looking from far off.[i] 26 Behold! God is more exalted than we can know;[j]

27 For he draws up the drops of water;[l]
They filter as rain for his mist,
28 So that the clouds trickle,[m]
They drip upon mankind abundantly.

He gives food in abundance.[q]

And he lays a command upon it against an assailant.[r]

[And] the east wind[a] scatters about upon the earth?
25 Who has divided a channel for the flood
And a way for the thunderous storm cloud,[b]
26 To make it rain upon the land where there is no man,[c]
[Upon] the wilderness in which there is no earthling man, 27 To satisfy storm-stricken and desolate places
And to cause the growth of grass to sprout?[d]
28 Does there exist a father for the rain,[e]
Or who gave birth to the dewdrops?[f]
29 Out of whose belly does the ice actually come forth,
And as for the hoarfrost[g] of heaven, who indeed brings it to birth?
30 The very waters keep themselves hidden as by stone,
And the surface of the watery deep makes itself compact.[h]
31 Can you tie fast the bonds of the Ki'mah constellation,
Or can you loosen the very cords of the Ke'sil constellation?[i] 32 Can you bring forth the Maz'za·roth constellation in its appointed time?
And as for the Ash constellation alongside its sons, can you conduct them?
33 Have you come to know the statutes of the heavens,[j]
Or could you put its authority in the earth?
34 Can you raise your voice even to the cloud,
So that a heaving mass of water itself may cover you?[k]
35 Can you send forth lightnings that they may go
And say to you, 'Here we are!'?
36 Who put wisdom[a] in the cloud layers,
Or who gave understanding[b] to the sky phenomenon?
37 Who can exactly number the clouds in wisdom,
Or the water jars of heaven—who can tip [them] over,[c]
38 When the dust pours out as into a molten mass,
And the clods of earth themselves get stuck together?
39 Can you hunt prey for a lion itself
And can you satisfy the lively appetite of young lions,[d]
40 When they crouch in the hiding places,[e]
[Or] keep lying in the covert for an ambush?
41 Who prepares for the raven its food[f]
When its own young ones cry to God for help,
[When] they keep wandering about because there is nothing to eat?

39 "Have you come to know the appointed time for the mountain goats of the crag to give birth?[g]
Do you observe just when the hinds bring forth[h] with birth pangs?
2 Do you count the lunar months that they fulfill,
Or have you come to know the appointed time that they give birth?
3 They bow down when they cast forth their young ones,
[When] they get rid of their pangs.
4 Their sons become robust, they get big in the open field;
They actually go forth and do not return to them.
5 Who sent forth the zebra[i] free,

And who loosened the very bands of the wild ass,
6 Whose house I have appointed the desert plain
And whose dwelling places the salt country?[a] 7 It laughs at the turmoil of a town;
The noises of a stalker[b] it does not hear.
8 It explores mountains for its pasturage[c]
And after every sort of green plant[d] it seeks.
9 Does a wild bull want to serve you,[e]
Or will it spend the night by your manger?
10 Will you bind a wild bull fast with its ropes in the furrow,
Or will it harrow[f] low plains after you?
11 Will you trust in it because its power is abundant,
And will you leave your toil to it?
12 Will you rely on it that it will bring back your seed
And that it will gather to your threshing floor?
13 Has the wing of the female ostrich flapped joyously,
Or [has she] the pinions of a stork[g] and the plumage?
14 For she leaves her eggs to the earth itself
And in the dust she keeps them warm,
15 And she forgets that some foot may crush them
Or even a wild beast of the field may tread on them.
16 She does treat her sons roughly, as if not hers[h]—
In vain is her toil [because she has] no dread.
17 For God has made her forget wisdom,
And he has not given her a share in understanding.[i] 18 At the time she flaps [her wings] on high,
She laughs at the horse and at its rider.
19 Can you give to the horse mightiness?[a]
Can you clothe its neck with a rustling mane?
20 Can you cause it to leap like a locust?
The dignity of its snorting is frightful.[b]
21 It paws[c] in the low plain and exults in power;
It goes forth to meet armor.[d]
22 It laughs at dread, and is not terrified;[e]
Nor does it turn back on account of a sword.
23 Against it a quiver rattles,
The blade of a spear and a javelin.
24 With pounding and excitement it swallows up the earth,
And it does not believe that it is the sound of a horn.
25 As soon as the horn blows it says Aha!
And from far off it smells the battle,
The uproar of chiefs and the war cry.[f]
26 Is it owing to your understanding that the falcon soars up,
That it spreads its wings to the south wind?
27 Or is it at your order that an eagle[g] flies upward
And that it builds its nest high up,[h]
28 That on a crag it resides and stays during the night
Upon the tooth of a crag and an inaccessible place?
29 From there it has to search for food;[i]
Far into the distance its eyes keep looking.
30 And its young ones themselves keep sipping up blood;
And where the slain are, there it is."[j]

40 And Jehovah proceeded to answer Job and say:

2 "Should there be any contending of a faultfinder with the Almighty?[a]
Let the reprover of God himself answer it."[b]

3 And Job went on to answer Jehovah and say:

4 "Look! I have become of little account.[c]
What shall I reply to you?
My hand I have put over my mouth.[d]
5 Once have I spoken, and I will not answer;
And twice, and I will add nothing."

6 And Jehovah went on to answer Job out of the windstorm[e] and say:

7 "Gird up your loins, please, like an able-bodied man;[f]
I shall question you, and you inform me.[g]
8 Really, will you invalidate my justice?
Will you pronounce me wicked in order that you may be in the right?[h]
9 Or do you have an arm like that of the [true] God,[i]
And with a voice like his can you make it thunder?[j]
10 Deck yourself, please, with superiority[k] and highness;[l]
And with dignity[m] and splendor[n] may you clothe yourself.
11 Let flow the furious outbursts of your anger,[o]
And see every one haughty and bring him low.
12 See every one haughty, humble him,[p]
And tread down the wicked right where they are.
13 Hide them together in the dust,[q]
Bind their very faces in the hidden place,
14 And I, even I, shall commend you,
Because your right hand can save you.
15 Here, now, is Be·he'moth that I have made as well as you.
Green grass it eats[a] just as a bull does.
16 Here, now, its power is in its hips,
And its dynamic energy[b] in the tendons of its belly.
17 It bends down its tail like a cedar;
The sinews of its thighs are interwoven.
18 Its bones are tubes of copper;
Its strong bones are like wrought-iron rods.
19 It is the beginning of the ways of God;
Its Maker[c] can bring near his sword.
20 For the mountains themselves bear their produce for it,[d]
And all the wild beasts of the field themselves play there.
21 Under the thorny lotus trees it lies down,
In the concealed place of reeds[e] and the swampy place.[f]
22 The thorny lotus trees keep it blocked off with their shadow;
The poplars of the torrent valley surround it.
23 If the river acts violently, it does not run in panic.
It is confident, although the Jordan[g] should burst forth against its mouth.
24 Before its eyes can anyone take it?
With snares can anyone bore [its] nose?

Or will it say soft words to you?
4 Will it conclude a covenant with you,

Or will you tie it for your young girls?
6 Will partners barter for it?
Will they divide it up among tradesmen?
7 Will you fill its skin with harpoons,[b]
Or its head with fish spears?
8 Put your hand upon it.
Remember the battle. Do not do it again.
9 Look! One's expectation about it will certainly be disappointed.
One will also be hurled down at the mere sight of it.
10 None is so audacious that he should stir it up.
And who is it that can hold his ground before me?[c]
11 Who has given me something first, that I ought to reward him?[d]
Under the whole heavens it is mine.[e]
12 I shall not keep silent about its parts
Or the matter of [its] mightiness and the grace of its proportions.
13 Who has uncovered the face of its clothing?
Into its double jaw who will enter?
14 The doors of its face who has opened?
Its teeth round about are frightful.
15 Furrows of scales are its haughtiness,
Closed as with a tight seal.

And not even air can come in between them.

They grasp one another and cannot be separated.

And its eyes are like the beams of dawn.
19 Out of its mouth there go lightning flashes,
Even sparks of fire make their escape.
20 Out of its nostrils smoke goes forth,
Like a furnace set aflame even with rushes.
21 Its soul itself sets coals ablaze,
And even a flame goes forth out of its mouth.
22 In its neck lodges strength,
And before it despair leaps.
23 The folds of its flesh do cling together;
They are as a casting upon it, immovable.
24 Its heart is cast like stone,
Yes, cast like a lower millstone.
25 Due to its rising up the strong get frightened;[a]
Due to consternation they get bewildered.
26 Overtaking it, the sword itself does not prove equal,
Nor spear, dart or arrowhead.[b]
27 It regards iron[c] as mere straw,
Copper as mere rotten wood.
28 An arrow does not chase it away;
The slingstones[d] have been changed for it into mere stubble.

31 It causes the depths to boil just like a pot;
It makes the very sea like an ointment pot.
32 Behind itself it makes a pathway shine;
One would regard the watery deep as gray-headedness.
33 Upon the dust there is not the like of it,
The one made to be without terror.
34 Everything high it sees.
It is king over all majestic wild beasts."

42 And Job proceeded to answer Jehovah and say:
2 "I have come to know that you are able to do all things,[b]
And there is no idea that is unattainable for you.[c]
3 'Who is this that is obscuring counsel without knowledge?'[d]
Therefore I talked, but I was not understanding Things too wonderful for me, which I do not know.[e]
4 'Hear, please, and I myself shall speak.
I shall question you, and you inform me.'[f]
5 In hearsay I have heard about you,
But now my own eye does see you.
6 That is why I make a retraction,
And I do repent[g] in dust and ashes."

7 And it came about after Jehovah had spoken these words to Job, that Jehovah proceeded to say to El'i·phaz the Te'man·ite: "My anger has grown hot against you and your two companions,[a] for YOU men have not spoken concerning me what is truthful[b] as has my servant Job. 8 And now take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams[c] and go to my servant Job,[d] and YOU men must offer up a burnt sacrifice in YOUR own behalf; and Job my servant will himself pray for YOU.[e] His face only I shall accept so as not to commit disgraceful folly with YOU, for YOU have not spoken concerning me what is truthful, as has my servant Job."[f]

9 Accordingly El'i·phaz the Te'man·ite and Bil'dad the Shu'hite [and] Zo'phar the Na'a·ma·thite went and did just as Jehovah had spoken to them; and so Jehovah accepted Job's face.

10 And Jehovah himself turned back the captive condition of Job[g] when he prayed in behalf of his companions,[h] and Jehovah began to give in addition all that had been Job's, in double amount.[i] 11 And there kept coming to him all his brothers and all his sisters and all those formerly knowing him,[j] and they began to eat bread with him[k] in his house and to sympathize with him and to comfort him over all the calamity that Jehovah had let come upon him; and they proceeded each one to give him a piece of money and each one a gold ring.

12 As for Jehovah, he blessed[l] the end of Job afterward more than his beginning,[m] so that he came to have fourteen thousand sheep and six thousand camels and a thousand spans of cattle and a thousand she-asses. 13 He also came to have seven sons and three daughters.[n] 14 And he went calling the name of the first Je·mi'mah and the name of the second Ke·zi'ah and the name of the third Ker'en-hap'puch. 15 And no women were found as pretty as Job's daughters in all the land, and their father proceeded to give them an inheritance in among their brothers.[a]

PSALMS

BOOK ONE
(Psalms 1 - 41)

1 Happy[a] is the man that has not walked in the counsel of the wicked ones,[b]
And in the way of sinners has not stood,[c]
And in the seat of ridiculers has not sat.[d]
2 But his delight is in the law of Jehovah,[e]
And in his law he reads in an undertone day and night.[f]
3 And he will certainly become like a tree planted by streams of water,[g]
That gives its own fruit in its season[h]
And the foliage of which does not wither,[i]
And everything he does will succeed.[j]
4 The wicked are not like that,
But are like the chaff that the wind drives away.[k]
5 That is why the wicked ones will not stand up in the judgment,[l]
Nor sinners in the assembly of righteous ones.[m]
6 For Jehovah is taking knowledge of the way of righteous ones,[n]
But the very way of wicked ones will perish.[o]

2 Why have the nations been in tumult[p]
And the national groups themselves kept muttering an empty thing?[q]
2 The kings of earth take their stand[a]
And high officials themselves have massed together as one[b]
Against Jehovah[c] and against his anointed one,[d]
3 [Saying:] "Let us tear their bands apart[e]
And cast their cords away from us!"[f]
4 The very One sitting in the heavens[g] will laugh;
Jehovah himself will hold them in derision.[h]
5 At that time he will speak to them in his anger[i]
And in his hot displeasure he will disturb them,[j]
6 [Saying:] "I, even I, have installed my king[k]
Upon Zion,[l] my holy mountain."[m]
7 Let me refer to the decree of Jehovah;
He has said to me: "You are my son;[n]
I, today, I have become your father.[o]
8 Ask of me,[p] that I may give nations as your inheritance[q]

3 O Jehovah, why have my adversaries become many?[l]
Why are many rising up against me?[m]
2 Many are saying of my soul:
"There is no salvation for him by God."[n] Se'lah.
3 And yet you, O Jehovah, are a shield about me,[o]
My glory[p] and the One lifting up my head.[q]
4 With my voice I shall call to Jehovah himself,
And he will answer me
from his holy mountain.[r] Se'lah.
5 As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep;
I shall certainly awake,
for Jehovah himself
keeps supporting me.[s]
6 I shall not be afraid of ten thousands of people
Who have set themselves in array against me round about.[t]
7 Do arise,[u] O Jehovah! Save me,[v] O my God![w]
For you will have to strike all my enemies on the jaw.[x]
The teeth of wicked ones
you will have to break.[a] 8 Salvation belongs to Jehovah.[b]
Your blessing is upon your people.[c] Se'lah.

4 When I call, answer me, O
my righteous God.[e]
In the distress you must make broad space
for me.
Show me favor[f] and hear
my prayer.
2 You sons of men, how long must my glory[g] be for

[While] YOU keep loving empty things, [While] YOU keep seeking to find a lie? Se'lah.
3 So take knowledge that Jehovah will certainly distinguish his loyal one;[h]
Jehovah himself will hear when I call to him.[i]
4 BE agitated, but do not sin.[j]
Have YOUR say in YOUR heart, upon YOUR bed,[k]
and keep silent. Se'lah.
5 Sacrifice the sacrifices of righteousness,[l]
And trust in Jehovah.[m]
6 There are many saying:
"Who will show us good?"
Lift up the light of your face upon us,[n] O Jehovah.
7 You will certainly give a rejoicing in my heart[o]
Greater than in the time when their grain and their new wine have abounded.[p]
8 In peace I will both lie down and sleep,[q]
For you yourself alone,
O Jehovah, make me
dwell in security.[r]

To the director for Ne'hi·loth. A melody of David.

5 To my sayings do give ear,[a]
O Jehovah;
Do understand my sighing.
2 Do pay attention to the sound of my cry for help,[b]
O my King[c] and my God,
because to you I pray.[d]
3 O Jehovah, in the morning
you will hear my voice;[e]
In the morning I shall address myself to you and be on the watch.[f] 4 For you are not a God taking delight in wickedness;[g]
No one bad may reside for any time with you.[h]
5 No boasters may take their stand in front of your eyes.[i]
You do hate all those practicing what is hurtful;[j] 6 You will destroy those speaking a lie.[k]
A man of bloodshed[l] and deception[m] Jehovah detests.
7 As for me, in the abundance of your loving-kindness[n]
I shall come into your house,[o]
I shall bow down toward your holy temple in fear of you.[p]
8 O Jehovah, lead me in your righteousness[q] by reason of my foes;[r] Make your way smooth
before me.[s]
9 For in their mouth there is nothing trustworthy;[t]
Their inward part is adversity indeed.[u]
Their throat is an opened burial place;[v]
A smooth tongue they use.[w]
10 God will certainly hold them guilty;[x]
They will fall due to their own counsels.[y]
In the multitude of their transgressions let there be a dispersing of them,[a]
Because they have rebelled against you.[b] 11 But all those taking refuge in you will rejoice;[c]
To time indefinite they will cry out joyfully.[d]
And you will block approach to them,
And those loving your name will exult in you.[e] 12 For you yourself will bless anyone righteous,[f] O Jehovah;
As with a large shield,[g] with approval you will surround them.[h]

To the director on stringed instruments on the lower octave.[i] A melody of David.

6 O Jehovah, do not in your anger reprove me,[j]
And do not in your rage correct me.[k]
2 Show me favor, O Jehovah, for I am fading away.[l] Heal me,[m] O Jehovah, for my bones have been disturbed.
3 Yes, my own soul has been very much disturbed;[n]
And you, O Jehovah—how long?[o]
4 Do return,[p] O Jehovah, do rescue my soul;[q]
Save me for the sake of your loving-kindness.[r]
5 For in death there is no mention of you;[s]
In She'ol who will laud
you?[t]
6 I have grown weary with my sighing;[u]
All night long I make my couch swim;[v]
With my tears I make my own divan overflow.[w] 7 From vexation my eye has become weak,[x]
It has grown old because

8 Get away from me, all YOU practicers of what is hurtful,[b]

9 Jehovah will indeed hear my request for favor;[d]

10 All my enemies will be very much ashamed[f] and disturbed;
They will turn back, they will be ashamed instantly.[g]

A dirge of David that he sang to Jehovah concerning the words of Cush the Ben′ja·min·ite.

7 O Jehovah my God,[h] in you I have taken refuge.[i]
Save me from all those persecuting me and deliver me,[j]
2 That no one may tear my soul to pieces as a lion does,[k]
Snatching [me] away when there is no deliverer.[l]
3 O Jehovah my God, if I have done this,[m]
If there exists any injustice in my hands,[n]
4 If I have repaid the one rewarding me with what is bad,[o]
Or [if] I have despoiled anyone showing hostility to me without success,[p]
5 Let an enemy pursue my soul[q]
And let him overtake and trample my life down to the very earth
And cause my own glory to reside in the dust itself. Se′lah.
6 Do arise, O Jehovah, in your anger;[r]
Lift yourself up at the outbursts of fury of those showing hostility to me,[s]
And do awake for me,[a] [since] you have given command for judgment itself.[b]
7 And let the very assembly of national groups surround you,
And against it do you return on high.
8 Jehovah himself will pass sentence on the peoples.[c]
Judge me, O Jehovah, according to my righteousness[d]
And according to my integrity[e] in me.
9 Please, may the badness of wicked ones come to an end,[f]
And may you establish the righteous one;[g]
And God as righteous[h] is testing out heart[i] and kidneys.[j]
10 The shield for me is upon God,[k] a Savior of those upright in heart.[l]
11 God is a righteous Judge,[m]
And God is hurling denunciations every day.
12 If anyone will not return,[n] His sword he will sharpen,[o]
His bow he will certainly bend, and he will make it ready [for shooting].[p]
13 And for himself he must prepare the instruments of death;[q]
His arrows he will make flaming ones.[r]
14 Look! There is one that is pregnant with what is hurtful,[s]
And he has conceived trouble and is bound to give birth to falsehood.[t]
15 A pit he has excavated, and he proceeded to dig it;[u]
But he will fall into the hole [that] he went making.[v]

To the director upon the Git′tith.[f] A melody of David.

8 O Jehovah our Lord, how majestic your name is in all the earth,[g]
You whose dignity is recounted above the heavens![h]
2 Out of the mouth of children and sucklings you have founded strength,[i]
On account of those showing hostility to you,[j]
So as to make the enemy and the one taking his vengeance desist.[k]
3 When I see your heavens, the works of your fingers,[l]
The moon and the stars that you have prepared,[m]
4 What is mortal man[n] that you keep him in mind,[o]
And the son of earthling man that you take care of him?[p]
5 You also proceeded to make him a little less than godlike ones,[q]
And with glory[r] and splendor you then crowned him.[s]
6 You make him dominate over the works of your hands;[t]
Everything you have put under his feet:[u]
7 Small cattle and oxen, all of them,[v]
And also the beasts of the open field,[w]
8 The birds of heaven and the fish of the sea,[x]
Anything passing through the paths of the seas.[y]
9 O Jehovah our Lord, how majestic your name is in all the earth![a]

To the director upon Muth-lab′ben. A melody of David.

א [′A′leph]

9 I will laud [you], O Jehovah, with all my heart;[b]
I will declare all your wonderful works.[c]
2 I will rejoice and exult in you,[d]
I will make melody to your name, O Most High.[e]

3 When my enemies turn back,[f]
They will stumble and perish from before you.[g]
4 For you have executed my judgment and my cause;[h]
You have sat on the throne judging with righteousness.[i]

ג [Gi′mel]

5 You have rebuked nations,[j] you have destroyed the wicked one.[k]
Their name you have wiped out to time indefinite, even forever.[l]
6 O you enemy, [your] desolations have come to their perpetual finish,[m]
And the cities that you have uprooted.[n]

9 He keeps lying in wait in the concealed place like a lion in his covert.[g]
He keeps lying in wait[h] to carry off some afflicted one by force.
He carries off the afflicted one by force when he draws his net shut.[i] 10 He is crushed, he bows down,
And the army of dejected ones has to fall into his strong [claws].[j]

12 Do arise,[o] O Jehovah. O God, lift up your hand.[p]
Do not forget the afflicted ones.[q]
13 Why is it that the wicked one has disrespected God?[r]
He has said in his heart: "You will not require an accounting."[s]
ר [Rehsh]
14 For you yourself have seen trouble and vexation.

17 The desire of the meek ones you will certainly hear,[h] O Jehovah.
You will prepare their heart.[i]
You will pay attention with your ear,[j]
18 To judge the fatherless boy and the crushed one,[k]
That mortal man who is of the earth may no more cause trembling.[l]

To the director. Of David.

11 In Jehovah I have taken refuge.[m]
How dare YOU men say to my soul:
"Flee as a bird to YOUR mountain!"[n]
2 For, look! the wicked ones themselves bend the bow,[o]
They do make ready their arrow upon the bowstring,
To shoot in the gloom at the ones upright in heart.[p]
3 When the foundations themselves are torn down,[q]
What must anyone righteous do?
4 Jehovah is in his holy temple.[r]

Jehovah—in the heavens is his throne.[a]
His own eyes behold, his own beaming eyes examine[b] the sons of men.
5 Jehovah himself examines the righteous one as well as the wicked one,[c]
And anyone loving violence His soul certainly hates.[d]
6 He will rain down upon the wicked ones traps, fire and sulphur[e]
And a scorching wind, as the portion of their cup.[f]
7 For Jehovah is righteous;[g] he does love righteous acts.[h]
The upright are the ones that will behold his face.[i]

To the director on the lower octave.[j] A melody of David.

12 Do save [me],[k] O Jehovah, for the loyal one has come to an end;[l]
For faithful people have vanished from the sons of men.
2 Untruth they keep speaking one to the other;[m]
With a smooth lip[n] they keep speaking even with a double heart.[o]
3 Jehovah will cut off all smooth lips,
The tongue speaking great things,[p]
4 Those who have said: "With our tongue we shall prevail.[q]
Our lips are with us. Who will be a master to us?"
5 "Because of the despoiling of the afflicted ones, because of the sighing of the poor ones,[r]
I shall at this time arise," says Jehovah.[s]
"I shall put [him] in safety from anyone that puffs at him."[t]
6 The sayings of Jehovah are pure sayings,[u]
As silver refined in a smelting furnace of earth, clarified seven times.
7 You yourself, O Jehovah, will guard them;[a]
You will preserve each one from this generation to time indefinite.
8 The wicked ones walk all around,
Because vileness is exalted among the sons of men.[b]

To the director. A melody of David.

13 How long, O Jehovah, will you forget me?[c] Forever?[d]
How long will you conceal your face from me?[e]
2 How long shall I set resistance in my soul,
Grief in my heart by day?
How long will my enemy be exalted over me?[f]
3 Do look [upon me]; answer me, O Jehovah my God.
Do make my eyes shine,[g] that I may not fall asleep in death,[h]
4 That my enemy may not say: "I have won out over him!"
[That] my adversaries themselves may [not] be joyful because I am made to stagger.[i]
5 As for me, in your loving-kindness I have trusted;[j]
Let my heart be joyful in your salvation.[k]
6 I will sing to Jehovah, for he has dealt rewardingly with me.[l]

To the director. Of David.

14 The senseless one has said in his heart:

To the director. Of Jehovah's servant, of David, who spoke to Jehovah the words of this song in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the palm of all his enemies and out of the hand of Saul.[a] And he proceeded to say:

18 I shall have affection for you, O Jehovah my strength.[b]
2 Jehovah is my crag and my stronghold and the Provider of escape for me.[c]
My God is my rock. I shall take refuge in him,[d]
My shield and my horn of salvation, my secure height.[e]

6 In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah,
And to my God I kept crying for help.[l]

And my own cry before him for help now came into his ears.[n]
7 And the earth began to shake and rock,[o]
And the foundations of the mountains themselves became agitated,[p]
And they kept shaking back and forth because he had been angered.[q]
8 Smoke went up at his nostrils, and fire itself from his mouth kept devouring;[r]
Coals themselves blazed forth from him.
9 And he proceeded to bend the heavens down and descend.[s]

37 I shall pursue my enemies and overtake them;
And I shall not return until they are exterminated.[o]
38 I shall break them in pieces so that they will not be able to rise up;[p]
They will fall under my feet.[q]
39 And you will gird me with vital energy for warfare;
You will make those rising against me collapse under me.[r]
40 And as for my enemies, you will certainly give me the back of [their] neck;[s]
And as for those hating me intensely, I shall silence them.[t]
41 They cry for help, but there is no savior.[u]

To Jehovah, but he actually does not answer them.[a] 42 And I shall pound them fine like dust before the wind;[b]
Like the mire of the streets I shall pour them out.[c]
43 You will provide me escape from the faultfinding of the people.[d]
You will appoint me the head of the nations.[e]
A people that I have not known—they will serve me.[f]
44 At mere hearsay they will be obedient to me;[g]
Foreigners themselves will come cringing to me.[h]
45 Foreigners themselves will fade away,
And they will come quaking out from their bulwarks.[i] 46 Jehovah is living,[j] and blessed be my Rock,[k]
And let the God of my salvation be exalted.[l]
47 The [true] God is the Giver of acts of vengeance to me;[m]
And he subdues the peoples under me.[n]
48 He is providing escape for me from my angry enemies;[o]
Above those who rise up against me you will lift me up,[p]
From the man of violence you will deliver me.[q]

19 The heavens are declaring the glory of God;[a]
And of the work of his hands the expanse is telling.[b]
2 One day after another day causes speech to bubble forth,[c]
And one night after another night shows forth knowledge.[d]
3 There is no speech, and there are no words;
No voice on their part is being heard.[e]
4 Into all the earth their measuring line has gone out,[f]

In them he has set a tent for the sun,[h]
5 And it is like a bridegroom when coming out of his nuptial chamber;[i]
It exults as a mighty man does to run in a path.[j]
6 From one extremity of the heavens is its going forth,
And its [finished] circuit is to their [other] extremities;[k]
And there is nothing concealed from its heat.[l]
7 The law[m] of Jehovah is perfect,[n] bringing back the soul.[o]
The reminder[p] of Jehovah is trustworthy,[q] making the inexperienced one wise.[r]
8 The orders[s] from Jehovah are upright,[t] causing the heart to rejoice;[u]
The commandment[v] of Jehovah is clean,[w] making the eyes shine.[x]

9 The fear[a] of Jehovah is pure, standing forever.
The judicial decisions[b] of Jehovah are true;[c] they have proved altogether righteous.[d]
10 They are more to be desired than gold, yes, than much refined gold;[e]
And sweeter than honey[f] and the flowing honey of the combs.[g]

May the name of the God of Jacob protect you.[s]
2 May he send your help out of the holy place,[t]
And sustain you out of Zion itself.[u]
3 May he remember all your gift offerings,[v]
And may he accept your burnt offering as being fat.[w] Se'lah.
4 May he give to you according to your heart,[x]
And all your counsel may he fulfill.[a]
5 We will cry out joyfully because of your salvation,[b]
And in the name of our God we shall lift our banners.[c]
May Jehovah fulfill all your requests.[d]
6 Now I do know that Jehovah certainly saves his anointed one.[e]
He answers him from his holy heavens[f]
With the saving mighty acts of his right hand.[g]
7 Some concerning chariots and others concerning horses,[h]
But, as for us, concerning the name of Jehovah our God we shall make mention.[i]
8 Those very ones have broken down and fallen;[j]
But as for us, we have risen up, that we may be restored.[k]
9 O Jehovah, do save the king![l]
He will answer us in the day that we call.[m]

21 O Jehovah, in your strength the king rejoices;[n]
And in your salvation how very joyful he wants to be![o]

And the wish of his lips you have not withheld.[q] Se'lah.
3 For you proceeded to meet him with blessings of good,[r]
[And] to place on his head a crown of refined gold.[s]
4 Life he asked of you. You gave [it] to him,[t]
Length of days to time indefinite, even forever.[u]

23 Jehovah is my Shepherd.[a]
I shall lack nothing.[b]
2 In grassy pastures he makes me lie down;[c]
By well-watered resting-places he conducts me.[d]
3 My soul he refreshes.[e]
He leads me in the tracks of righteousness for his name's sake.[f]

Of David. A melody.

24 To Jehovah belong the earth and that which fills it,[p]
The productive land and those dwelling in it.[q]
2 For upon the seas he himself has solidly fixed it,[r]
And upon the rivers he keeps it firmly established.[s] trusted, that I may not wobble.[a] 2 Examine me, O Jehovah, and put me to the test;[b]

Refine my kidneys and my heart.[c]
3 For your loving-kindness is in front of my eyes,
And I have walked in your truth.[d]
4 I have not sat with men of untruth;[e]
And with those who hide what they are I do not come in.[f]
5 I have hated the congregation of evildoers,[g]
And with the wicked ones I do not sit.[h]
6 I shall wash my hands in innocency itself,[i]
And I will march around your altar, O Jehovah,[j]
7 To cause thanksgiving to be heard aloud,[k]

[Which] you have rendered to those taking refuge in you,
In front of the sons of men.[u]
20 You will conceal them in the secret place of your person[v]
From the banding together of men.[w]
You will hide them in your booth from the quarreling of tongues.[x]

21 Blessed be Jehovah,[a]
For he has rendered wonderful loving-kindness[b] to me in a city under stress.[c]
22 As for me, I said when I became panicky:[d]
"I shall certainly be exterminated from in front of your eyes."[e]
Surely you have heard the voice of my entreaties when I cried to you for help.[f]
23 O love Jehovah, all YOU loyal ones of his.[g]
The faithful ones Jehovah is safeguarding,[h]
But he is rewarding exceedingly anyone showing haughtiness.[i] 24 Be courageous, and may YOUR heart be strong,[j]
All YOU who are waiting for Jehovah.[k]

Of David. Mas'kil.

32 Happy is the one whose revolt is pardoned, whose sin is covered.[l]
2 Happy is the man to whose account Jehovah does not put error,[m]
And in whose spirit there is no deceit.[n]
3 When I kept silent my bones wore out through my groaning all day long.[o]
4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me.[p]
My life's moisture has been changed as in the dry heat of summer.[q] Se'lah.
5 My sin I finally confessed to you, and my error I did not cover.[r]
I said: "I shall make confession over my transgressions to Jehovah."[s]
And you yourself pardoned the error of my sins.[t] Se'lah.
6 On this account every loyal one will pray to you[u]
At such a time only as you may be found.[v]
As for the flood of many waters, they will not touch him himself.[a] 7 You are a place of concealment for me; you will safeguard me from distress itself.[b]
With joyful cries at providing escape you will surround me.[c] Se'lah.
8 "I shall make you have insight and instruct you in the way you should go.[d]
I will give advice with my eye upon you.[e]
9 Do not make yourselves like a horse or mule without understanding,[f]
Whose spiritedness is to be curbed even by bridle or halter[g]
Before [they] will come near to you."[h]
10 Many are the pains that the wicked one has;[i]
But as for the one trusting in Jehovah, loving-kindness itself surrounds him.[j]
11 Rejoice in Jehovah and be joyful, YOU righteous ones;[k]
And cry out joyfully, all YOU who are upright in heart.[l]

33 Cry out joyfully, O YOU righteous ones, because of Jehovah.[m]
On the part of the upright ones praise is fitting.[n]
2 Give thanks to Jehovah on the harp;[o]
On an instrument of ten strings[p] make melody to him.
3 Sing to him a new song;[q]
Do YOUR best at playing on the strings along with joyful shouting.[r]
4 For the word of Jehovah is upright,[s]

And all his work is in faithfulness.[a] 5 He is a lover of righteousness and justice.[b]
With the loving-kindness of Jehovah the earth is filled.[c]
6 By the word of Jehovah the heavens themselves were made,[d]
And by the spirit of his mouth all their army.[e]
7 He is gathering as by a dam the waters of the sea,[f]
Putting in storehouses the surging waters.
8 Let all [those of] the earth be in fear of Jehovah.[g]
At him let all the inhabitants of the productive land be frightened.[h]
9 For he himself said, and it came to be;[i]
He himself commanded, and it proceeded to stand so.[j]
10 Jehovah himself has broken up the counsel of the nations;[k]
He has thwarted the thoughts of the peoples.[l]
11 To time indefinite the very counsel of Jehovah will stand;[m]
The thoughts of his heart are to one generation after another generation.[n]
12 Happy is the nation whose God is Jehovah,[o]
The people whom he has chosen as his inheritance.[p]
13 From the heavens Jehovah has looked,[q]
He has seen all the sons of men.[r]
14 From the established place where he dwells[s]
He has gazed at all those dwelling on the earth.
15 He is forming their hearts all together;[t]
He is considering all their works.[u]
16 There is no king saved by the abundance of military forces;[v]
A mighty man himself is not delivered by the abundance of power.[a] 17 The horse is a deception for salvation,[b]
And by the abundance of its vital energy it does not afford escape.[c] 18 Look! The eye of Jehovah is toward those fearing him,[d]
To those waiting for his loving-kindness,[e]
19 To deliver their soul from death itself,[f]
And to preserve them alive in famine.[g]
20 Our very soul has been in expectation of Jehovah.[h]
Our helper and our shield he is.[i]
21 For in him our heart rejoices;[j]
For in his holy name we have put our trust.[k]
22 Let your loving-kindness, O Jehovah, prove to be upon us,[l]
Even as we have kept waiting for you.[m]

Of David.

35 Do conduct my case, O Jehovah, against my opponents;[a]
War against those warring against me.[b]
2 Take hold of buckler and large shield,[c]
And do rise up in assistance of me,[d]
3 And draw spear and double ax to meet those pursuing me.[e]
Say to my soul: "I am your salvation."[f]
4 May those be shamed and humiliated who are hunting for my soul.[g]
May those be turned back and be abashed who are scheming calamity for me.[h]
5 May they become like chaff before the wind,[i]
And let Jehovah's angel be pushing [them] along.[j]
6 Let their way become darkness and slippery places,[k]
And let Jehovah's angel be pursuing them.
7 For without cause they have hid for me their netted pit;[l]
Without cause they have dug it for my soul.[m]
8 Let ruin come upon him without his knowing,[n]
And let his own net that he hid catch him;[o]
With ruin let him fall into it.[p]
9 But let my own soul be joyful in Jehovah;[q]
Let it exult in his salvation.[r]
10 Let all my bones themselves say:[s]
"O Jehovah, who is there like you,[t]
Delivering the afflicted one from one stronger than he is,[u]
And the afflicted and poor one from the one robbing him?"[v]
11 Violent witnesses rise up;[w]
What I have not known they ask me.[x]

12 They reward me with bad for good,[a] Bereavement to my soul.[b]
13 As for me, when they became ill, my clothing was sackcloth,[c]
With fasting I afflicted my soul,[d]
And upon my bosom my own prayer would return.[e]
14 As for a companion, as for a brother of mine,[f]
I walked about like one mourning for a mother.[g]
Saddened, I bowed down.
15 But at my limping they rejoiced and gathered together;[h]
They gathered together against me,[i]
Striking [me] down when I did not know it;[j]
They ripped [me] to pieces and did not keep silent.[k]
16 Among the apostate mockers for a cake[l]
There was a grinding of their teeth even against me.[m]
17 O Jehovah, how long will you keep seeing [it]?[n]
Do bring back my soul from their ravages,[o]
Even my only one[p] from the maned young lions.
18 I will laud you in the big congregation;[q]
Among a numerous people I shall praise you.[r]
19 O may those who for no reason are my enemies not rejoice over me;[s]
As for those hating me without cause, let them not wink the eye.[t]
20 For it is not peace that they speak;[u]
But against the quiet ones of the earth
Things of deception they keep scheming.[v]
21 And they open wide

To the director.
Of Jehovah's servant, David.

36 The utterance of transgression to the wicked one is in the midst of his heart;[u]
There is no dread of God in front of his eyes.[v]
2 For he has acted too smoothly to himself in his own eyes[w]
To find out his error so as to hate [it].[a]
3 The words of his mouth are hurtfulness and deception;[b]
He has ceased to have insight for doing good.[c]
4 Hurtfulness is what he keeps scheming upon his bed.[d]
He stations himself on a way that is not good.[e]
What is bad he does not reject.[f]
5 O Jehovah, your loving-kindness is in the heavens;[g]
Your faithfulness is up to the clouds.[h]
6 Your righteousness is like mountains of God;[i]
Your judicial decision is a vast watery deep.[j]
Man and beast you save, O Jehovah.[k]
7 How precious your loving-kindness is, O God![l]
And in the shadow of your wings the sons of men themselves take refuge.[m]
8 They drink their fill of the fatness of your house;[n]
And of the torrent of your pleasures you cause them to drink.[o]
9 For with you is the source of life;[p]
By light from you we can see light.[q]
10 Continue your loving-kindness to those knowing you,[r]
And your righteousness to those upright in heart.[s]
11 O may not the foot of haughtiness come [against] me;[t]
As for the hand of wicked people, let it not make me a wanderer.[u]
12 There the practicers of hurtfulness have fallen;[v]
They have been pushed down and have been unable to get up.[w]

Of David.

א [’A′leph]

37 Do not show yourself heated up because of the evildoers.[a]
Do not be envious of those doing unrighteousness.[b]
2 For like grass they will speedily wither,[c]
And like green new grass they will fade away.[d]

ב [Behth]

3 Trust in Jehovah and do good;[e]
Reside in the earth, and deal with faithfulness.[f]
4 Also take exquisite delight in Jehovah,[g]
And he will give you the requests of your heart.[h]

ג [Gi′mel]

5 Roll upon Jehovah your way,[i]
And rely upon him,[j] and he himself will act.[k]
6 And he will certainly bring forth your righteousness as the light itself,[l]
And your justice as the midday.[m]

ד [Da′leth]

7 Keep silent before Jehovah[n]
And wait longingly for him.[o]
Do not show yourself heated up at anyone making his way successful,[p]
At the man carrying out [his] ideas.[q]

ה [He′]

8 Let anger alone and leave rage;[r]
Do not show yourself heated up only to do evil.[s]
9 For evildoers themselves will be cut off,[t]
But those hoping in Jehovah are the ones that will possess the earth.[u]

ו [Waw]

10 And just a little while longer, and the wicked one will be no more;[v]
And you will certainly give attention to his place, and he will not be.[a] 11 But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth,[b]
And they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace.[c]

ז [Za′yin]

12 The wicked one is plotting against the righteous one,[d]
And at him he is grinding his teeth.[e]
13 Jehovah himself will laugh at him,[f]
For he certainly sees that his day will come.[g]

ח [Chehth]

14 The wicked ones have drawn a sword itself and have bent their bow,[h]
To cause the afflicted and poor one to fall,[i]
To slaughter those who are upright in [their] way.[j]
15 Their own sword will enter into their heart,[k]
And their own bows will be broken.[l]

ט [Tehth]

16 Better is the little of the righteous one[m]
Than the abundance of the many wicked ones.[n]
17 For the very arms of the wicked ones will be broken,[o]
But Jehovah will be supporting the righteous ones.[p]

י [Yohdh]

18 Jehovah is aware of the days of the faultless ones,[q]
And their very inheritance will continue even to time indefinite.[r]
19 They will not be ashamed in the time of calamity,[s]

20 For the wicked themselves will perish,[b]
And the enemies of Jehovah will be like the preciousness of pastures;
They must come to their end.[c] In smoke they must come to their end.[d]

ל [La′medh]

21 The wicked one is borrowing and does not pay back,[e]
But the righteous one is showing favor and is making gifts.[f]
22 For those being blessed by him will themselves possess the earth,[g]
But those upon whom evil is called by him will be cut off.[h]

מ [Mem]

23 By Jehovah the very steps of an able-bodied man have been made ready,[i]
And in his way He takes delight.[j]
24 Although he may fall, he will not be hurled down,[k]

נ [Nun]

And yet I have not seen anyone righteous left entirely,[n]
Nor his offspring looking for bread.[o]
26 All day long he is showing favor and lending,[p]
And so his offspring are in line for a blessing.[q]

ס [Sa′mekh]

27 Turn away from what is bad and do what is good,[r]
And so reside to time indefinite.[s]
28 For Jehovah is a lover of justice,[t]
And he will not leave his loyal ones.[u]

ע [‘A′yin]

To time indefinite they will certainly be guarded;[a]
But as for the offspring of the wicked ones, they will indeed be cut off.[b]
29 The righteous themselves will possess the earth,[c]
And they will reside forever upon it.[d]

פ [Pe′]

30 The mouth of the righteous is the one that utters wisdom in an undertone,[e]
And his is the tongue that speaks justly.[f]
31 The law of his God is in his heart;[g]
His steps will not wobble.[h]

צ [Tsa·dheh′]

32 The wicked one is keeping on the watch for the righteous[i]
And is seeking to put him to death.[j]
33 As for Jehovah, he will not leave him to the hand of that one,[k]
And he will not pronounce him wicked when he is being judged.[l]

ק [Qohph]

34 Hope in Jehovah and keep his way,[m]
And he will exalt you to take possession of the earth.[n]
When the wicked ones are cut off, you will see [it].[o]

ר [Rehsh]

35 I have seen the wicked a tyrant[p]
And spreading himself as a luxuriant [tree] in native soil.[q]
36 And yet he proceeded to pass away, and there he was not;[r]
And I kept seeking him, and he was not found.[s]

37 Watch the blameless one and keep the upright one in sight,[a]

38 But the transgressors themselves will certainly be annihilated together;[c]

39 And the salvation of the righteous ones is from Jehovah;[e]
He is their fortress in the time of distress.[f]
40 And Jehovah will help them and provide them with escape.[g]
He will provide them with escape from wicked people and save them,[h]
Because they have taken refuge in him.[i]

A melody of David,
to bring to remembrance.

38 O Jehovah, do not in your indignation reprove me,[j]
Nor in your rage correct me.[k]
2 For your own arrows have sunk themselves deep into me,[l]
And upon me your hand is come down.[m]
3 There is no sound spot in my flesh because of your denunciation.[n]
There is no peace in my bones on account of my sin.[o]
4 For my own errors have passed over my head;[p]
Like a heavy load they are too heavy for me.[q]
5 My wounds have become stinky, they have festered,
Because of my foolishness.[r]
6 I have become disconcerted, I have bowed low to an extreme degree;[s]
All day long I have walked about sad.[t]
7 For my very loins have become full of burning,
And there is no sound spot in my flesh.[a] 8 I have grown numb and become crushed to an extreme degree;
I have roared due to the groaning of my heart.[b]
9 O Jehovah, in front of you is all my desire,
And from you my sighing itself has not been concealed.[c]
10 My own heart has palpitated heavily, my power has left me,
And the light of my own eyes also is not with me.[d]
11 As for my lovers and my companions, they keep standing away from my plague,[e]
And my close acquaintances themselves have stood off at a distance.[f]
12 But those seeking my soul lay out traps,[g]
And those working for a calamity to me have spoken of adversities,[h]
And deceptions they keep muttering all day long.[i] 13 As for me, like someone deaf, I would not listen;[j]
And like someone speechless, I would not open my mouth.[k]
14 And I came to be like a man that was not hearing,
And in my mouth there were no counterarguments.
15 For on you, O Jehovah, I waited;[l]
You yourself proceeded to answer, O Jehovah my God.[m]
16 For I said: "Otherwise they would rejoice at me;[n]
When my foot moved unsteadily,[o] they would certainly assume great airs against me."[p]
17 For I was ready to limp,[q]
And my pain was in front of me constantly.[r]

18 For I proceeded to tell about my own error;[a]
I began to be anxious over my sin.[b]
19 And my enemies who are alive became mighty,[c]
And those hating me for no reason became many.[d]
20 And they were rewarding me with bad for good;[e]
They kept resisting me in return for my pursuing what is good.[f]
21 Do not leave me, O Jehovah.
O my God, do not keep far away from me.[g]
22 Do make haste to my assistance,[h]
O Jehovah my salvation.[i]

To the director of Je·du'thun.[j]
A melody of David.

39 I said: "I will guard my ways[k]
To keep from sinning with my tongue.[l]
I will set a muzzle as a guard to my own mouth,[m]
As long as anyone wicked is in front of me."[n]
2 I became speechless with silence;[o]
I kept quiet from what is good,[p]
And my being pained was ostracized.
3 My heart grew hot inside me;[q]
During my sighing the fire kept burning.
I spoke with my tongue:
4 "Cause me, O Jehovah, to know my end,[r]
And the measure of my days—what it is,[s]
That I may know how transient I am.[t]
5 Look! You have made my days just a few;[u]
And my life's duration is as nothing in front of you.[v]
Surely every earthling man, though standing firm, is nothing but an exhalation.[w] Se'lah.
6 Surely in a semblance man walks about.[x]
Surely they are boisterous in vain.[a]
One piles up things and does not know who will be gathering them.[b]
7 And now for what have I hoped, O Jehovah?
My expectation is toward you.[c]
8 From all my transgressions deliver me.[d]
Do not set me as a reproach of the senseless one.[e]
9 I kept speechless;[f] I could not open my mouth,[g]
For you yourself acted.[h]
10 Remove from off me your plague.[i]
Due to the hostility of your hand I myself have come to an end.[j]
11 By reproofs against error you have corrected man,[k]
And you consume his desirable things just as a moth[l] does.
Surely every earthling man is an exhalation.[m] Se'lah.
12 Do hear my prayer, O Jehovah,
And to my cry for help do give ear.[n]
At my tears do not keep silent.[o]
For I am but an alien resident with you,[p]
A settler the same as all my forefathers.[q]
13 Look away from me, that I may brighten up[r]
Before I go away and I am not."[s]

To the director.
Of David, a melody.

40 I earnestly hoped in Jehovah,[t]
And so he inclined [his ear] to me and heard my cry for help.[u]
2 He also proceeded to bring me up out of a roaring pit,[v]

Out of the mire of [the] sediment.[a]
Then he raised up my feet upon a crag;[b]
He firmly established my steps.[c]
3 Further, he put in my mouth a new song,
Praise to our God.[d]
Many will see [it] and will fear,[e]
And they will trust in Jehovah.[f]
4 Happy is the able-bodied man that has put Jehovah as his trust[g]
And that has not turned his face to defiant people,
Nor to those falling away to lies.[h]
5 Many things you yourself have done,[i]
O Jehovah my God, even your wonderful works and your thoughts toward us;[j]
There is none to be compared to you.[k]
Were I inclined to tell and speak [of them],
They have become more numerous than I can recount.[l]
6 Sacrifice and offering you did not delight in;[m]
These ears of mine you opened up.[n]
Burnt offering and sin offering you did not ask for.[o]
7 In view of that, I said: "Here I have come,[p]
In the roll of the book it being written about me.[q]
8 To do your will, O my God, I have delighted,[r]
And your law is within my inward parts.[s]
9 I have told the good news of righteousness in the big congregation.[t]
Look! My lips I do not restrain.[u]
O Jehovah, you yourself know that well.[v]
10 Your righteousness I have not covered over within my heart.[w]
Your faithfulness and your salvation I have declared.[a]
I have not hidden your loving-kindness and your trueness in the big congregation."[b]
11 You yourself, O Jehovah, do not restrain your pity from me.[c]
Let your loving-kindness and your trueness themselves constantly safeguard me.[d]
12 For calamities encircled me until there was no numbering of them.[e]
More errors of mine overtook me than I was able to see;[f]
They became more numerous than the hairs of my head,[g]
And my own heart left me.[h]
13 Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me.[i]
O Jehovah, to my assistance do make haste.[j]

Who are saying to me: "Aha! Aha!"[o]
16 Let those exult and rejoice in you,[p]

Those who are loving salvation by you.[s]

v Ps 54:4; Isa 50:7; Heb 13:6; w Ps 143:7.

To the director.
A melody of David.

41 Happy is anyone acting with consideration toward the lowly one;[a]
In the day of calamity Jehovah will provide escape for him.[b]
2 Jehovah himself will guard him and preserve him alive.[c]
He will be pronounced happy in the earth;[d]
And you cannot possibly give him over to the soul of his enemies.[e]
3 Jehovah himself will sustain him upon a divan of illness;[f]
All his bed you will certainly change during his sickness.[g]
4 As for me, I said: "O Jehovah, show me favor.[h]
Do heal my soul, for I have sinned against you."[i]
5 As for my enemies, they say what is bad concerning me:[j]
"When will he die and his name actually perish?"
6 And if one does come to see [me], untruth is what his heart will speak;[k]
He will gather up for himself something hurtful;
He will go out; on the outside he will speak [of it].[a] 7 Unitedly against me all those hating me whisper to one another;[b]
Against me they keep scheming something bad for me:[c]
8 "A good-for-nothing thing is poured out upon him;[d]
Now that he has lain down, he will not get up again."[e]
9 Also the man at peace with me, in whom I trusted,[f]
Who was eating my bread,[g] has magnified [his] heel against me.[h]
10 As for you, O Jehovah, show me favor and cause me to get up,[i]
That I may pay them back.[j]
11 By this I do know that you have found delight in me, Because my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.[k]
12 As for me, because of my integrity you have upheld me,[l]
And you will set me before your face to time indefinite.[m]
13 Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel[n]
From time indefinite even to time indefinite.[o]
Amen and Amen.[p]

BOOK TWO
(Psalms 42 – 72)

To the director.
Mas'kil for the sons of Ko'rah.[a]

42 As the hind that longs for the water streams,
So my very soul longs for you, O God.[b]
2 My soul indeed thirsts for God,[c] for the living God.[d]
When shall I come and appear [before] God?[e]
3 To me my tears have become food day and night,[f]
While [they] say to me all day long: "Where is your God?"[a]
4 These things I will remember, and I will pour out my soul within me.[b]
For I used to pass along with the throng,
I used to walk slowly before them to the house of God,[c]

With the voice of a joyful cry and thanksgiving,[a]
Of a crowd celebrating a festival.[b]
5 Why are you in despair, O my soul,[c]
And why are you boisterous within me?[d]
Wait for God,[e]
For I shall yet laud him as the grand salvation of my person.[f]
6 O my God, within me my very soul is in despair.[g]
That is why I remember you,[h]
From the land of Jordan and the peaks of Her′mon,[i]
From the little mountain.[j]
7 Watery deep to watery deep is calling
At the sound of your (water)spouts.
All your breakers and your waves[k]—
Over me they have passed.[l]
8 By day Jehovah will command his loving-kindness,[m]
And by night his song will be with me;[n]
There will be prayer to the God of my life.[o]
9 I will say to God my crag:[p]
"Why have you forgotten me?[q]
Why do I walk sad because of the oppression of the enemy?"[r]
10 With murder against my bones those showing hostility to me have reproached me,[s]
While they say to me all day long: "Where is your God?"[t]
11 Why are you in despair, O my soul,[u]
And why are you boisterous within me?[v]

You went breaking national groups and sending them away.[a]
3 For it was not by their own sword that they took possession of the land,[b]
And their own arm was not what brought them salvation.[c]
For it was your right hand and your arm[d] and the light of your face,
Because you took pleasure in them.[e]
4 You yourself are my King, O God.[f]
Command grand salvation for Jacob.[g]
5 By you we shall push our adversaries themselves;[h]
In your name we shall tread down those rising up against us.[i]
6 For it was not in my bow that I kept trusting[j]
And it was not my sword that was saving me.[k]
7 For you saved us from our adversaries,[l]
And those intensely hating us you put to shame.[m]
8 In God we will offer praise all day long,[n]
And to time indefinite your name we shall laud.[o] Se′lah.
9 But now you have cast off and keep humiliating us,[p]
And you do not go forth with our armies.[q]
10 You keep making us turn back from the adversary,[r]
And the very ones intensely hating us have pillaged for themselves.[s]
11 You give us up like sheep, as something to eat,[t]
And among the nations you have scattered us.[u]
12 You sell your people for no value at all,[v]
And you have made no wealth by the price for them.

13 You set us as a reproach to our neighbors,[a]
A derision and jeering to those all around us.[b]
14 You set us as a proverbial saying among the nations,[c]
A shaking of the head among the national groups.[d]
15 All day long my humiliation is in front of me,
And the shame of my own face has covered me,[e]
16 Due to the voice of the one reproaching and speaking abusively, Because of the enemy and the one taking his revenge.[f]
17 All this is what has come upon us, and we have not forgotten you,[g]
And we have not acted falsely in your covenant.[h]
18 Our heart has not turned faithlessly back,[i]
Nor do our footsteps deviate from your path.[j]
19 For you have crushed us in the place of jackals,[k]
And you cover us over with deep shadow.[l]
20 If we have forgotten the name of our God,
Or we spread out our palms to a strange god,[m]
21 Will not God himself search this out?[n]
For he is aware of the secrets of the heart.[o]
22 But for your sake we have been killed all day long;
We have been accounted as sheep for slaughtering.[p]
23 Do arouse yourself. Why do you keep sleeping, O Jehovah?[q]
Do awake. Do not keep casting off forever.[r]
24 Why do you keep your very face concealed?
Why do you forget our affliction and our oppression?[s]

25 For our soul has bowed down to the dust itself;[a]
Our belly has clung to the very earth.
26 Do arise in assistance to us[b]
And redeem us for the sake of your loving-kindness.[c]

To the director upon The Lilies.
Of the sons of Ko'rah. Mas'kil.
A song of the beloved women.

45 My heart has become astir with a goodly matter.[d]
I am saying: "My works are concerning a king."[e]
May my tongue be the stylus[f] of a skilled copyist.[g]
2 You are indeed more handsome than the sons of men.[h]

That is why God has blessed you to time indefinite.[j]
3 Gird your sword[k] upon [your] thigh, O mighty one,[l]
[With] your dignity and your splendor.[m]
4 And in your splendor go on to success;[n]
Ride in the cause of truth and humility [and] righteousness,[o]
And your right hand will instruct you in fear-inspiring things.[p]
5 Your arrows are sharp—under you peoples keep falling[q]—
In the heart of the enemies of the king.[r]
6 God is your throne to time indefinite, even forever;[s]
The scepter of your kingship is a scepter of uprightness.[t]
7 You have loved righteousness[u] and you hate wickedness.[v]
That is why God, your God,[w] has anointed[x] you with the oil of exultation[a] more than your partners.[b]
8 All your garments are myrrh and aloeswood [and] cassia;[c]
Out from the grand ivory[d] palace stringed instruments themselves have made you rejoice.
9 The daughters[e] of kings are among your precious women.
The queenly consort[f] has taken her stand at your right hand in gold of O'phir.[g]
10 Listen, O daughter, and see, and incline your ear;
And forget your people and your father's house.[h]
11 And the king will long for your prettiness,[i]
For he is your lord,[j]
So bow down to him.[k]
12 The daughter of Tyre also with a gift[l]—

13 The king's daughter is all glorious within [the house];[n]
Her clothing is with settings of gold.
14 In woven apparel she will be brought to the king.[o]
The virgins in her train as her companions are being brought in to you.[p]
15 They will be brought with rejoicing and joyfulness;
They will enter into the palace of the king.
16 In place of your forefathers[q] there will come to be your sons,[r]
Whom you will appoint as princes in all the earth.[s]
17 I will make mention of your name throughout all generations to come.[t]
That is why peoples themselves will laud you to time indefinite, even forever.

upon The Maidens. A song.

46 God is for us a refuge and strength,[b]
A help that is readily to be found during distresses.[c]
2 That is why we shall not fear, though the earth undergo change[d]
And though the mountains totter into the heart of the vast sea;[e]
3 Though its waters be boisterous, foam over,[f]
Though the mountains rock at its uproar.[g] Se'lah.
4 There is a river the streams of which make the city of God rejoice,[h]
The holiest grand tabernacle of the Most High.[i]
5 God is in the midst of [the city];[j] it will not be made to totter.[k]
God will help it at the appearance of morning.[l]
6 The nations became boisterous,[m] the kingdoms tottered;
He sounded with his voice, the earth proceeded to melt.[n]
7 Jehovah of armies is with us;[o]
The God of Jacob is a secure height for us.[p] Se'lah.
8 Come, YOU people, behold the activities of Jehovah,[q]
How he has set astonishing events on the earth.[r]
9 He is making wars to cease to the extremity of the earth.[s]
The bow he breaks apart and does cut the spear in pieces;[t]
The wagons he burns in the fire.[u]
10 "Give in, YOU people, and know that I am God.[v]
I will be exalted among the nations,[a]
I will be exalted in the earth."[b]
11 Jehovah of armies is with us;[c]

47 All YOU peoples, clap YOUR hands.[e]
Shout in triumph to God with the sound of a joyful cry.[f]
2 For Jehovah, the Most High, is fear-inspiring,[g]
A great King over all the earth.[h]
3 He will subdue peoples under us[i]
And national groups under our feet.[j]
4 He will choose for us our inheritance,[k]
The pride of Jacob, whom he has loved.[l] Se'lah.
5 God has ascended with joyful shouting,[m]
Jehovah with the sound of the horn.[n]
6 MAKE melody to God, make melody.[o]
Make melody to our King, make melody.
7 For God is King of all the earth;[p]
MAKE melody, acting with discretion.[q]
8 God has become king over the nations.[r]
God himself has taken his seat upon his holy throne.[s]
9 The nobles of the peoples themselves have gathered together,[t]
[With] the people of the God of Abraham.[u]
For to God the shields of the earth belong.[v]

A melody of the sons of Ko′rah.[a]

48 Jehovah is great and much to be praised[b]
In the city of our God,[c] [in] his holy mountain.[d]
2 Pretty for loftiness, the exultation of the whole earth,[e]
Is Mount Zion on the remote sides of the north,[f]
The town of the grand King.[g]
3 In her dwelling towers God himself has become known as a secure height.[h]
4 For, look! the kings themselves have met by appointment,[i]
They have passed by together.[j]
5 They themselves saw; [and] so they were amazed.
They got disturbed, they were sent running in panic.[k]
6 Trembling itself took hold of them there,[l]
Birth pangs like those of a woman giving birth.[m]
7 With an east wind you wreck the ships of Tar′shish.[n]
8 Just as we have heard, so we have seen[o]
In the city of Jehovah of armies, in the city of our God.[p]
God himself will firmly establish it to time indefinite.[q] Se′lah.
9 We have pondered, O God, over your loving-kindness[r]
In the midst of your temple.[s] 10 Like your name,[t] O God, so your praise is
To the borders of the earth.
Your right hand is full of righteousness itself.[u]
11 May Mount Zion[v] rejoice,
May the dependent towns of Judah be joyful,[w] on account of your judicial decisions.[x]
12 March around Zion, YOU people, and go about it,[a] Count its towers.[b]
13 Set YOUR hearts upon its rampart.[c]
Inspect its dwelling towers,
In order that YOU may recount it to the future generation.[d]
14 For this God is our God to time indefinite, even forever.[e]
He himself will guide us until [we] die.[f]

To the director.
Of the sons of Ko′rah.[g] A melody.

49 Hear this, all YOU peoples.
Give ear, all YOU inhabitants of the system of things,[h]
2 YOU sons of humankind as well as YOU sons of man,
You rich one and you poor one together.[i]
3 My own mouth will speak things of wisdom,[j]
And the meditation of my heart will be of things of understanding.[k]
4 To a proverbial utterance I shall incline my ear;[l]
On a harp I shall open up my riddle.[m]
5 Why should I be afraid in the days of evil,[n]
[When] the very error of my supplanters surrounds me?[o]
6 Those who are trusting in their means of maintenance,[p]
And who keep boasting about the abundance of their riches,[q]
7 Not one of them can by any means redeem even a brother,[r]
Nor give to God a ransom for him;
8 (And the redemption price of their soul is so precious[s]
That it has ceased to time indefinite)

9 That he should still live forever [and] not see the pit.[a] 10 For he sees that even the wise ones die,[b]
Together the stupid one and the unreasoning one perish,[c]
And they must leave to others their means of maintenance.[d]
11 Their inward wish is that their houses may be to time indefinite,[e]
Their tabernacles to generation after generation.[f]
They have called their landed estates by their names.[g]
12 And yet earthling man, though in honor, cannot keep lodging;[h]
He is indeed comparable with the beasts that have been destroyed.[i] 13 This is the way of those who have stupidity,[j]
And of those coming after them who take pleasure in their very mouthings. Se′lah.
14 Like sheep they have been appointed to She′ol itself;[k]
Death itself will shepherd them;[l]
And the upright ones will have them in subjection in the morning,[m]
And their forms are due to wear away;[n]
She′ol rather than a lofty abode is for each one.[o]
15 However, God himself will redeem my soul from the hand of She′ol,[p]
For he will receive me. Se′lah.
16 Do not be afraid because some man gains riches,[q]
Because the glory of his house increases,[r]
17 For at his death he cannot take along anything at all;[s]
His glory will not go down along with him himself.[t]
18 For during his lifetime he kept blessing his own soul;[a]
(And people will laud you because you do well for yourself)[b]
19 [His soul] finally comes only as far as the generation of his forefathers.[c]
Nevermore will they see the light.[d]
20 Earthling man, although in honor, who does not understand,[e]
Is indeed comparable with the beasts that have been destroyed.[f]

A melody of A′saph.[g]

50 The Divine One,[h] God, Jehovah,[i] has himself spoken,[j]
And he proceeds to call the earth,[k]
From the rising of the sun until its setting.[l]
2 Out of Zion, the perfection of prettiness,[m] God himself has beamed forth.[n]
3 Our God will come and cannot possibly keep silent.[o]
Before him there devours a fire,[p]
And all around him it has become exceedingly stormy weather.[q]
4 He calls to the heavens above and to the earth[r]
So as to execute judgment on his people:[s]
5 "Gather to me my loyal ones,[t]
Those concluding my covenant over sacrifice."[u]
6 And the heavens tell of his righteousness,[v]
For God himself is Judge.[w] Se′lah.
7 "Do listen, O my people, and I will speak,[x]
O Israel, and I will bear witness against you.[y]
I am God, your God.[z]

8 Not concerning your sacrifices do I reprove you,[a]
Nor [concerning] your whole burnt offerings [that are] in front of me constantly.[b]
9 I will not take out of your house a bull,[c]
Out of your pens he-goats.
10 For to me belongs every wild animal of the forest,[d]
The beasts upon a thousand mountains.[e]
11 I well know every winged creature of the mountains,[f]
And the animal throngs of the open field are with me.[g]
12 If I were hungry, I would not say it to you;
For to me the productive land[h] and its fullness belong.[i]
13 Shall I eat the flesh of powerful [bulls],[j]
And the blood of he-goats shall I drink?[k]
14 Offer thanksgiving as your sacrifice to God,[l]
And pay to the Most High your vows;[m]
15 And call me in the day of distress.[n]
I shall rescue you, and you will glorify[o] me."
16 But to the wicked one God will have to say:[p]
"What right do you have to enumerate my regulations,[q]
And that you may bear my covenant in your mouth?[r]
17 Why, you—you have hated discipline,[s]
And you keep throwing my words behind you.[t]
18 Whenever you saw a thief, you were even pleased with him;[u]
And your sharing was with adulterers.[v]
19 Your mouth you have let loose to what is bad,[w]
And your tongue you keep attached to deception.[x]
20 You sit [and] speak against your own brother,[y]
Against the son of your mother you give away a fault.[a] 21 These things you have done, and I kept silent.[b]
You imagined that I would positively become like you.[c]
I am going to reprove you,[d] and I will set things in order before your eyes.[e]
22 Understand this, please, YOU forgetters of God,[f]
That I may not tear [YOU] to pieces without there being any deliverer.[g]
23 The one offering thanksgiving as his sacrifice is the one that glorifies me;[h]
And as for the one keeping a set way,
I will cause him to see salvation by God."[i]

To the director. A melody of David. When Nathan the prophet came in to him after he had had relations with Bath-she′ba.[j]

51 Show me favor, O God, according to your loving-kindness.[k]
According to the abundance of your mercies wipe out my transgressions.[l]
2 Thoroughly wash me from my error,[m]
And cleanse me even from my sin.[n]
3 For my transgressions I myself know,[o]
And my sin is in front of me constantly.[p]
4 Against you, you alone, I have sinned,[q]
And what is bad in your eyes I have done,[r]
In order that you may prove to be righteous when you speak,[s]
That you may be in the clear when you judge.[t]

5 Look! With error I was brought forth with birth pains,[a]
And in sin my mother conceived me.[b]
6 Look! You have taken delight in truthfulness itself in the inward parts;[c]
And in the secret self may you cause me to know sheer wisdom.[d]
7 May you purify me from sin with hyssop, that I may be clean;[e]
May you wash me, that I may become whiter even than snow.[f]

And put within me a new spirit, a steadfast one.[l]
11 Do not throw me away from before your face;[m]
And your holy spirit O do not take away from me.[n]
12 Do restore to me the exultation of salvation by you,[o]
And may you support me even with a willing spirit.[p]
13 I will teach transgressors your ways,[q]
That sinners themselves may turn right back to you.[r]
14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness,[s] O God the God of my salvation,[t]
That my tongue may joyfully tell about your righteousness.[u]
15 O Jehovah, may you open these lips of mine,[v]
That my own mouth may tell forth your praise.[w]
16 For you do not take delight in sacrifice—otherwise I would give [it];[a]
In whole burnt offering you do not find pleasure.[b]
17 The sacrifices to God are a broken spirit;[c]
A heart broken and crushed, O God, you will not despise.[d]
18 In your goodwill do deal well with Zion;[e]
May you build the walls of Jerusalem.[f]
19 In that case you will be delighted with sacrifices of righteousness,[g]
With burnt sacrifice and whole offering;[h]
In that case bulls will be offered up on your very own altar.[i]

To the director. Mas′kil. Of David, when Do′eg the E′dom·ite came and proceeded to tell Saul and say to him that David had come to the house of A·him′e·lech.[j]

Working deceitfully.[n]
3 You have loved what is bad more than what is good,[o]
Falsehood more than speaking righteousness.[p] Se′lah.
4 You have loved all devouring words,[q]
O you deceitful tongue.[r]

53 The senseless one has said in his heart:
"There is no Jehovah."[l]
They have acted ruinously and have acted detestably in unrighteousness;[m]
There is no one doing good.[n]
2 As for God, he has looked down from heaven itself upon the sons of men,[o]
To see whether there exists anyone having insight, anyone seeking Jehovah.[p]
3 They have all of them turned back, they are [all] alike corrupt;[q]
There is no one doing good,[r]
Not even one.
4 Have none of the practicers of what is hurtful got knowledge,[s]
Eating up my people as they have eaten bread?[a]
They have not called even upon Jehovah.[b]

Where there had proved to be no dread;[d]
For God himself will certainly scatter the bones of anyone camping against you.[e]
You will certainly put [them] to shame, for Jehovah himself has rejected them.[f]

And tyrants that do seek my soul.[o]

5 Fear, yes, trembling itself enters into me,[n]
And shuddering covers me.
6 And I keep saying: "O that I had wings as a dove has![o]
I would fly away and reside.[p]
7 Look! I would go far away in flight;[q]
I would lodge in the wilderness.[r]—Se'lah—
8 I would hasten to a place of escape for me
From the rushing wind, from the tempest."[s]
9 Confuse, O Jehovah, divide their tongue,[t]
For I have seen violence and disputing in the city.[u]
10 Day and night they go round about it upon its walls;[v]
And hurtfulness and trouble are within it.[a] 11 Adversities are within it;
And from its public square oppression and deception have not moved away.[b]
12 For it was not an enemy that proceeded to reproach me;[c]
Otherwise I could put up with it.
It was not an intense hater of me that assumed great airs against me;[d]
Otherwise I could conceal myself from him.[e]
13 But it was you, a mortal man who was as my equal,[f]
One familiar to me and my acquaintance,[g]
14 Because we used to enjoy sweet intimacy together;[h]
Into the house of God we used to walk with the throng.[i]
15 Desolations [be] upon them![j]
Let them go down into She'ol alive;[k]
For during their alien residence bad things have been within them.[l]
16 As for me, to God I shall call out;[m]
And Jehovah himself will save me.[n]
17 Evening and morning and noontime I cannot but show concern and I moan,[o]
And he hears my voice.[p]
18 He will certainly redeem [and put] my soul in peace from the fight that is against me,[q]
For in multitudes they have come to be against me.[r]
19 God will hear and answer them,[s]
Even He that is sitting [enthroned] as in the past[t]—Se'lah—

Those with whom there are no changings[a]
And who have not feared God.[b]
20 He has thrust out his hands against those at peace with him;[c]
He has profaned his covenant.[d]
21 Smoother than butter are [the words of] his mouth,[e]
But his heart is disposed to fight.[f]
His words are softer than oil,[g]
But they are drawn swords.[h]
22 Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself,[i]
And he himself will sustain you.[j]
Never will he allow the righteous one to totter.[k]
23 But you yourself, O God, will bring them down to the lowest pit.[l]
As for bloodguilty and deceitful men, they will not live out half their days.[m]
But as for me, I shall trust in you.[n]

To the director on the Silent Dove among those far away. Of David. Mik'tam. When the Phi·lis'tines laid hold of him in Gath.[o]

56 Show me favor, O God, because mortal man has snapped at me.[p]
Warring all day long, he keeps oppressing me.[q]
2 My foes have kept snapping all day long,[r]
For there are many warring against me highmindedly.[s]
3 Whatever day I get afraid, I, for my part, shall trust even in you.[t]
4 In union with God I shall praise his word.[u]
In God I have put my trust; I shall not be afraid.[v]
What can flesh do to me?[w]
5 All day long they keep hurting my personal affairs;
All their thoughts are against me for bad.[a] 6 They attack, they conceal themselves,[b]
They, for their part, keep observing my very steps,[c]
While they have waited for my soul.[d]
7 On account of [their] hurtfulness cast them forth.[e]
In anger bring down even the peoples, O God.[f]
8 My being a fugitive you yourself have reported.[g]
Do put my tears in your skin bottle.[h]
Are they not in your book?[i]
9 At that time my enemies will turn back, on the day that I call;[j]
This I well know, that God is for me.[k]
10 In union with God[l] I shall praise [his] word;
In union with Jehovah I shall praise [his] word.[m]
11 In God I have put my trust. I shall not be afraid.[n]
What can earthling man do to me?[o]
12 Upon me, O God, there are vows to you.[p]
I shall render expressions of thanksgiving to you.[q]
13 For you have delivered my soul from death[r]—
[Have you] not [delivered] my feet from stumbling?[s]—
That [I] may walk about before God in the light of those alive.[t]

To the director. "Do not bring to ruin." Of David. Mik'tam. When he ran away because of Saul, into the cave.[u]

57 Show me favor, O God, show me favor,[v]
For in you my soul has taken refuge;[w]

And in the shadow of your wings I take refuge until the adversities pass over.[a]
2 I call to God the Most High, to the [true] God who is bringing [them] to an end on my account.[b]
3 He will send from heaven and save me.[c]
He will certainly confuse the one snapping at me.[d] Se'lah.
God will send his loving-kindness and his trueness.[e]
4 My soul is in the middle of lions;[f]
I cannot but lie down among devourers, [even] the sons of men, Whose teeth are spears and arrows,[g]
And whose tongue is a sharp sword.[h]

To the director. "Do not bring to ruin." Of David. Mik'tam.

58 [In YOUR] silence can YOU really speak about righteousness itself?[a]
Can YOU judge in uprightness itself, O YOU sons of men?[b]
2 How much, rather, do YOU with the heart practice outright unrighteousness in the earth,[c]
[And] prepare the road for the very violence of YOUR hands![d]
3 The wicked ones have been perverts from the womb;[e]
They have wandered about from the belly onward;
They are speaking lies.[f]

Deaf like the cobra that stops up its ear,[h]
5 That will not listen to the voice of charmers,[i]
Though someone wise is binding with spells.[j]
6 O God, knock out their teeth in their mouth.[k]
Break down the very jawbones of maned young lions, O Jehovah.
7 May they dissolve as into waters that go their way;[l]
May he bend [the bow for] his arrows as they collapse.[m]

Like a miscarriage of a woman they will certainly not behold the sun.[n]

59 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;[g]
From those rising up against me may you protect me.[h]
2 Deliver me from the practicers of what is hurtful,[i]
And from bloodguilty men save me.
3 For, look! they have lain in wait for my soul;[j]
Strong ones make an attack upon me,[k]
For no revolt on my part, nor any sin on my part, O Jehovah.[l]

For God is my secure height, the God of loving-kindness to me.[a]

To the director on The Lily of Reminder. Mik'tam. Of David. For teaching.[b] When he engaged in a struggle with A'ram-na·ha·ra'im and A'ram-Zo'bah, and Jo'ab proceeded to return and strike down E'dom in the Valley of Salt, even twelve thousand.[c]

60 O God, you have cast us off, you have broken through us,[d]
You have become incensed. You should restore us.[e]
2 You have caused the earth to rock, you have split it open.[f]
Heal its breaches, for it has tottered.[g]
3 You have caused your people to see hardship.[h]
You have made us drink wine sending us reeling.[i]
4 You have given to those fearing you a signal[j]
To flee zigzag on account of the bow. Se'lah.
5 In order that your beloved ones may be rescued,[k]
O do save with your right hand and answer us.[l]
6 God himself has spoken in his holiness:[m]
"I will exult, I will give out She'chem as a portion;[n]
And the low plain of Suc'coth I shall measure off.[o]
7 Gil'e·ad belongs to me and Ma·nas'seh belongs to me,[p]
And E'phra·im is the fortress of my head one;
Judah is my commander's staff.[q]
8 Mo'ab is my washing pot.[r]
Over E'dom I shall throw my sandal.[s]
Over Phi·lis'ti·a I shall shout in triumph."[t]
9 Who will bring me to the besieged city?[u]
Who will certainly lead me as far as E'dom?[v]
10 Is it not you, O God, who have cast us off[a]
And who do not go forth with our armies as God?[b]
11 Do give us assistance from distress,[c]
As salvation by earthling man is worthless.[d]
12 By God we shall gain vital energy,[e]
And he himself will tread down our adversaries.[f]

To the director on stringed instruments. Of David.

61 Do hear, O God, my entreating cry.[g]
Do pay attention to my prayer.[h]
2 From the extremity of the earth I shall cry, even to you, when my heart grows feeble.[i]
Onto a rock that is higher than I am may you lead me.[j]
3 For you have proved to be a refuge for me,[k]

4 Indeed they give advice so as to allure from one's own dignity;[h]
They take pleasure in a lie.[i]
With their mouth they bless, but inside themselves they call down evil.[j] Se'lah.
5 Indeed toward God wait silently, O my soul,[k]
Because from him is my hope.[l]
6 Indeed he is my rock and my salvation, my secure height;[m]
I shall not be made to totter.[n]
7 Upon God are my salvation and my glory.[o]
My strong rock, my refuge is in God.[p]
8 Trust in him at all times, O people.[q]
Before him pour out YOUR heart.[r]
God is a refuge for us.[s] Se'lah.
9 Indeed the sons of earthling man are an exhalation,[t]
The sons of mankind are a lie.[u]
When laid upon the scales they are all together lighter than an exhalation.[v]

10 Do not put YOUR trust in defrauding,[a]
Nor become vain in sheer robbery.[b]
In case the means of maintenance should thrive, do not set YOUR heart [on them].[c]
11 Once God has spoken, twice I have heard even this,[d]
That strength belongs to God.[e]
12 Also loving-kindness belongs to you, O Jehovah,[f]
For you yourself pay back to each one according to his work.[g]

A melody of David, when he happened to be in the wilderness of Judah.[h]

63 O God, you are my God, I keep looking for you.[i]
My soul does thirst for you.[j]
For you my flesh has grown faint [with longing]
In a land dry and exhausted, where there is no water.[k]
2 Thus I have beheld you in the holy place,[l]
At seeing your strength and your glory.[m]
3 Because your loving-kindness is better than life,[n]
My own lips will commend you.[o]
4 Thus I shall bless you during my lifetime;[p]
In your name I shall raise my palms.[q]
5 As with the best part, even fatness, my soul is satisfied,[r]
And with lips of joyful cries my mouth offers praise.[s]

[But] their tongue is against their own selves.[h]
All those looking upon them will shake their head.[i]
9 And all earthling men will become afraid;[j]
And they will tell of the activity of God,[k]
And they will certainly have insight into his work.[l]
10 And the righteous one will rejoice in Jehovah and will indeed take refuge in him;[m]
And all the upright in heart will boast.[n]

To the director.

To the director. A song, a melody.

66 Shout in triumph to God, all [YOU people of] the earth.[d]
2 Make melody to the glory of his name.[e]
Render his praise glorious.[f]
3 Say to God: "How fear-inspiring your works are![g]

Through the river they went crossing over on foot.[n]
There we began to rejoice in him.[o]
7 He is ruling by his mightiness to time indefinite.[p]
Upon the nations his own eyes keep watch.[q]

To the director on stringed instruments. A melody, a song.

67 God himself will show us favor and bless us;[a]

2 That your way may be known in the earth,[c]
Your salvation even among all the nations.[d]
3 Let peoples laud you, O God;[e]
Let the peoples, all of them, laud you.[f]

For you will judge the peoples with uprightness;[h]
And as for national groups, on the earth you will lead them. Se′lah.

7 God will bless us,[m]
And all the ends of the earth will fear him.[n]

To the director. Of David. A melody, a song.

68 Let God arise,[o] let his enemies be scattered,[p]
And let those who intensely hate him flee because of him.[q]
2 As smoke is driven away, may you drive [them] away;[r]
As wax melts because of the fire,[s]
Let the wicked ones perish from before God.[t]
3 But as for the righteous, let them rejoice,[u]

As Jah, which is his name;[e] and jubilate before him;
5 A father of fatherless boys and a judge of widows[f]
Is God in his holy dwelling.[g]
6 God is causing the solitary ones to dwell in a house;[h]

16 Why do YOU, O YOU mountains of peaks, keep watching enviously
The mountain that God has desired for himself to dwell in?[g]
Even Jehovah himself will reside [there] forever.[h]
17 The war chariots of God are in tens of thousands, thousands over and over again.[i] Jehovah himself has come from Si'nai into the holy place.[j]
18 You have ascended on high;[k]
You have carried away captives;[l]
You have taken gifts in the form of men,[m]
Yes, even the stubborn ones,[n] to reside [among them],[o] O Jah God.
19 Blessed be Jehovah, who daily carries the load for us,[p]
The [true] God of our salvation.[q] Se'lah.

26 In congregated throngs bless God,[j]
Jehovah, [O YOU who are] from the Source of Israel.[k]
27 There is little Benjamin subduing them,[l]
The princes of Judah with their shouting crowd,
The princes of Zeb'u·lun, the princes of Naph'ta·li.[m]
28 Your God has laid command upon your strength.[n]
Do show strength, O God, you who have acted for us.[o]
29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem,[p]
Kings will bring gifts to you yourself.[q]
30 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds,[r] the assembly of bulls,[s]
With the calves of the peoples, each one stamping down on pieces of silver.[t]
He has scattered the peoples that take delight in fights.[u]
31 Bronzeware things will come out of Egypt;[v]
Cush itself will quickly stretch out its hands [with gifts] to God.[a] 32 O YOU kingdoms of the earth, sing to God,[b] Make melody to Jehovah
—Se'lah—
33 To the One riding on the ancient heaven of heavens.[c]
Lo! He sounds with his voice, a strong voice.[d]
34 ASCRIBE strength to God.[e]
Over Israel his eminence is and his strength is in the clouds.[f]
35 God is fear-inspiring out of your grand sanctuary.[g]
The God of Israel he is, giving strength, even might to the people.[h]
Blessed be God.[i]

To the director on
The Lilies.[j] Of David.

69 Save me, O God, for the waters have come clear to the soul.[k]
2 I have sunk down in deep mire, where there is no standing ground.[l]
I have come into profound waters,
And a flowing stream itself has washed me away.[m]
3 I have become tired by my calling out;[n]
My throat has become hoarse.
My eyes have failed while waiting for my God.[o]
4 Those hating me without a cause have become even more than the hairs of my head.[p]
Those bringing me to silence, being my enemies for no reason, have become numerous.[q]
What I had not taken by robbery I then proceeded to give back.
5 O God, you yourself have come to know my foolishness,

BOOK THREE
(Psalms 73 - 89)

A melody of A'saph.[a]

73 God is indeed good to Israel, to those clean in heart.[b]
2 As for me, my feet had almost turned aside,[c]
My steps had nearly been made to slip.[d]
3 For I became envious of the boasters,[e]
[When] I would see the very peace of wicked people.[f]
4 For they have no deathly pangs;[g]
And their paunch is fat.[h]
5 They are not even in the trouble of mortal man,[i]
And they are not plagued the same as other men.[j]
6 Therefore haughtiness has served as a necklace to them;[k]
Violence envelops them as a garment.[l]
7 Their eye has bulged from fatness;[m]
They have exceeded the imaginations of the heart.[n]
8 They scoff and speak about what is bad;[o]
About defrauding they speak in an elevated style.[p]
9 They have put their mouth in the very heavens,[q]
And their tongue itself walks about in the earth.[r]
10 Therefore he brings his people back hither,
And the waters of what is full are drained out for them.
11 And they have said: "How has God come to know?[s]
And does there exist knowledge in the Most High?"[t]
12 Look! These are the wicked, who are at ease indefinitely.[a]
They have increased [their] means of maintenance.[b]
13 Surely it is in vain that I have cleansed my heart[c]
And that I wash my hands in innocence itself.[d]
14 And I came to be plagued all day long,[e]
And my correction is every morning.[f]
15 If I had said: "I will tell a story like that,"
Look! against the generation of your sons I should have acted treacherously.[g]
16 And I kept considering so as to know this;[h]
It was a trouble in my eyes,
17 Until I proceeded to come into the grand sanctuary of God.[i]
I wanted to discern their future.[j]
18 Surely on slippery ground is where you place them.[k]
You have made them fall to ruins.[l]
19 O how they have become an object of astonishment as in a moment![m]
[How] they have reached their end, have been brought to their finish through sudden terrors!
20 Like a dream after awaking, O Jehovah,[n]
[So] when arousing [yourself] you will despise their very image.[o]
21 For my heart was soured[p]

Why does your anger keep smoking against the flock of your pasturage?[s]

This Mount Zion in which you have resided.[v]

6 And now the very engravings of it, one and all, they strike even with hatchet and iron-tipped beams.[d]
7 They have thrust your sanctuary into the fire itself.[e]
They have profaned the tabernacle of your name to the very earth.[f]
8 They, even their offspring, have said together in their own heart:
"All the meeting places of God must be burned in the land."[g]
9 Our signs we have not seen; there is no prophet anymore,[h]
And there is no one with us knowing how long.
10 How long, O God, will the adversary keep reproaching?[i]
Will the enemy keep treating your name with disrespect forever?[j]

A melody. Of A'saph.[a] A song.

76 God is known in Judah;[b]
In Israel his name is great.[c]
2 And his covert proves to be in Sa'lem itself,[d]
And his dwelling place in Zion.[e]
3 There he broke the flaming shafts of the bow,[f]
The shield and the sword and the battle.[g] Se'lah.
4 You are enveloped with light, more majestic than the mountains of prey.[h]
5 The ones powerful in heart have been despoiled,[i]
They have drowsed away to their sleep,[j]
And none of all the valiant men have found their hands.[k]
6 From your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the charioteer and the horse have fallen fast asleep.[l]
7 You—fear-inspiring you are,[m]
And who can stand before you because of the strength of your anger?[n]
8 From heaven you caused the legal contest to be heard;[o]
The earth itself feared and kept quiet[p]
9 When God rose up to judgment,[q]
To save all the meek of the earth.[r] Se'lah.
10 For the very rage of man will laud you;[s]
The remainder of raging you will gird upon yourself.
11 Vow and pay to Jehovah YOUR God, all YOU who are round about him.[t]
Let them bring a gift in fear.[u]
12 He will humble the spirit of leaders;[v]
Fear-inspiring he is to the kings of the earth.[w]

To the director on Je·du'thun.
Of A'saph.[a] A melody.

77 With my voice I will even cry out to God himself,[b]
With my voice to God, and he will certainly give ear to me.[c]
2 In the day of my distress I have searched for Jehovah himself.[d]
At night my very hand has been stretched out and does not grow numb;
My soul has refused to be comforted.[e]
3 I will remember God and be boisterous;[f]
I will show concern, that my spirit may faint away.[g] Se'lah.
4 You have seized hold of my eyelids;[h]
I have become agitated, and I cannot speak.[i]
5 I have thought upon the days of long ago,[j]
On the years in the indefinite past.
6 I will remember my string music in the night;[k]
With my heart I will show concern,[l]
And my spirit will carefully search.
7 Will it be to times indefinite that Jehovah keeps casting off,[m]
And will he no more be pleased again?[n]
8 Has his loving-kindness terminated forever?[o]
Has [his] saying come to nothing[p] for generation after generation?
9 Has God forgotten to be favorable,[q]
Or has he shut off his mercies in anger?[r] Se'lah.
10 And shall I keep saying: "This is what pierces me through,[s]
The changing of the right hand of the Most High"?[t]

14 You are the [true] God, doing marvelously.[g]
Among the peoples you have made your strength known.[h]
15 With [your] arm you have recovered your people,[i]
The sons of Jacob and of Joseph. Se'lah.
16 The waters have seen you, O God,
The waters have seen you; they began to be in severe pains.[j]
Also, the watery deeps began to be agitated.[k]
17 The clouds have thunderously poured down water;[l]
A sound the cloudy skies have given forth.
Also, your own arrows proceeded to go here and there.[m]
18 The sound of your thunder was like chariot wheels;[n]
Lightnings have lighted up the productive land;[o]
The earth became agitated and began to rock.[p]
19 Through the sea your way was,[q]
And your path was through many waters;
And your very footprints have not come to be known.
20 You have led your people just like a flock,[r]
By the hand of Moses and Aaron.[s]

4 Which we do not hide from their sons,[h]
Relating [them] even to the generation to come,[i]
The praises of Jehovah and his strength[j]

though armed shooters of the bow,[a] Retreated in the day of fight.[b]
10 They did not keep the covenant of God,[c]
And in his law they refused to walk.[d]
11 They also began to forget his dealings[e]
And his wonderful works that he caused them to see.[f]
12 In front of their forefathers he had done marvelously[g]
In the land of Egypt,[h] the field of Zo'an.[i] 13 He split the sea, that he might let them pass over,[j]
And he caused the waters to stand like a dam.[k]
14 And he continued to lead them with a cloud by day[l]
And the whole night with a light of fire.[m]
15 He proceeded to split rocks in the wilderness,[n]
That he might cause [them] to drink an abundance just like watery deeps.[o]
16 And he went bringing forth streams out of a crag[p]
And causing waters to descend just like rivers.[q]
17 And they kept sinning still more against him[r]
By rebelling against the Most High in the waterless region;[s]
18 And they proceeded to test God in their heart[t]
By asking for something to eat for their soul.[u]
19 So they began to speak against God.[v]
They said: "Is God able to arrange a table in the wilderness?"[w]
20 Look! He struck a rock[x]
That waters might flow and torrents themselves might flood forth.[y]

"Is he able also to give bread itself,[a]
Or can he prepare sustenance for his people?"[b]
21 That was why Jehovah heard and began to be furious;[c]
And fire itself was kindled against Jacob,[d]
And anger also ascended against Israel.[e]
22 For they did not put faith in God,[f]
And they did not trust in salvation by him.[g]
23 And he proceeded to command the cloudy skies above,
And he opened the very doors of heaven.[h]
24 And he kept raining upon them manna to eat,[i]
And the grain of heaven he gave to them.[j]
25 Men ate the very bread of powerful ones;[k]
Provisions he sent them to satisfaction.[l]
26 He began making an east wind burst forth in the heavens[m]
And making a south wind blow by his own strength.[n]
27 And he proceeded to make sustenance rain upon them just like dust,[o]
Even winged flying creatures just like the sand grains of the seas.[p]
28 And he kept making [them] fall in the middle of his camp,[q]
All around his tabernacles.[r]
29 And they went eating and satisfying themselves very much,[s]
And what they desired he proceeded to bring to them.[t]
30 They had not turned aside from their desire,
While their food was yet in their mouth,[u]
31 When God's wrath itself ascended against them.[v]

And he went killing among their stout ones;[a]
And the young men of Israel he made collapse.
32 Despite all this they sinned some more[b]
And did not put faith in his wonderful works.[c]
33 So he brought their days to an end as if a mere exhalation,[d]
And their years by the disturbance.
34 As often as he killed them, they also inquired for him,[e]
And they returned and looked for God.[f]
35 And they began to remember that God was their Rock,[g]
And that God the Most High was their Avenger.[h]
36 And they tried to fool him with their mouth;[i]
And with their tongue they tried to lie to him.[j]
37 And their heart was not steadfast with him;[k]
And they did not prove faithful in his covenant.[l]
38 But he was merciful;[m] he would cover the error[n] and not bring ruin.[o]
And many times he made his anger turn back,[p]
And he would not rouse up all his rage.
39 And he kept remembering that they were flesh,[q]
That the spirit is going forth and does not come back.[r]
40 How often they would rebel against him in the wilderness,[s]
They would make him feel hurt in the desert![t]
41 And again and again they would put God to the test,[u]
And they pained even the Holy One of Israel.[v]
42 They did not remember his hand,[w]
The day that he redeemed them from the adversary,[a] 43 How he put his signs in Egypt itself[b]
And his miracles in the field of Zoʹan;[c]
44 And how he began changing to blood their Nile canals,[d]
So that they could not drink from their own streams.[e]
45 He proceeded to send upon them gadflies, that these might eat them up;[f]
And frogs, that these might bring them to ruin.[g]
46 And he began to give to the cockroaches their yield,
And their toil to the locusts.[h]
47 He went killing their vine even by the hail[i]
And their sycamore trees by hailstones.[j]
48 And he proceeded to hand over their beasts of burden even to the hail[k]
And their livestock to the flaming fever.
49 He went sending upon them his burning anger,[l]
Fury and denunciation and distress,[m]
Deputations of angels bringing calamity.[n]
50 He proceeded to prepare a pathway for his anger.[o]
He did not hold back their soul from death itself;
And their life he handed over even to the pestilence.[p]
51 Finally he struck down all the firstborn in Egypt,[q]
The beginning of their generative power in the tents of Ham.[r]
52 Afterward he caused his people to depart just like a flock,[s]
And conducted them like a drove in the wilderness.[t]

53 And he kept leading them in security, and they felt no dread;[a]
And the sea covered their enemies themselves.[b]
54 And he proceeded to bring them to his holy territory,[c]
This mountainous region that his right hand acquired.[d]
55 And because of them he gradually drove out the nations,[e]
And by the measuring line he went allotting them an inheritance,[f]
So that he caused the tribes of Israel to reside in their own homes.[g]
56 And they began to test and rebel against God the Most High,[h]
And his reminders they did not keep.[i]
57 They also kept turning back and acting treacherously like their forefathers;[j]
They turned around like a loose bow.[k]
58 And they kept offending him with their high places,[l]
And with their graven images they kept inciting him to jealousy.[m]
59 God heard[n] and got to be furious,[o]
And so he contemned Israel very much.[p]
60 And he finally forsook the tabernacle of Shiʹloh,[q]
The tent in which he resided among earthling men.[r]
61 And he proceeded to give his strength even to captivity[s]
And his beauty into the hand of the adversary.[t]
62 And he kept handing over his people to the sword itself,[u]
And against his inheritance he became furious.[v]
63 His young men a fire ate up,
And his virgins were not praised.[w]
64 As for his priests, they fell by the very sword,[a]
And their own widows did not give way to weeping.[b]
65 Then Jehovah began to awake as from sleeping,[c]
Like a mighty one sobering up from wine.[d]
66 And he went striking down his adversaries from behind;[e]
A reproach of indefinite duration he gave to them.[f]
67 And he proceeded to reject the tent of Joseph;[g]
And the tribe of Eʹphraim he did not choose.[h]
68 But he chose the tribe of Judah,[i]
Mount Zion, which he loved.[j]
69 And he began to build his sanctuary just like the heights,[k]
Like the earth that he has founded to time indefinite.[l]
70 And so he chose David his servant[m]
And took him from the pens of the flock.[n]
71 From following the females giving suck[o]
He brought him in to be a shepherd over Jacob his people[p]
And over Israel his inheritance.[q]
72 And he began to shepherd them according to the integrity of his heart,[r]
And with the skillfulness of his hands he began leading them.[s]

A melody of Aʹsaph.

79 O God, the nations have come into your inheritance;[t]
They have defiled your holy temple;[u]

They have laid Jerusalem in a heap of ruins.[a]
2 They have given the dead body of your servants as food to the fowls of the heavens,[b]
The flesh of your loyal ones to the wild beasts of the earth.[c]
3 They have poured out their blood like water
All around Jerusalem, and there is no one to do the burying.[d]
4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors,[e]
A derision and a jeering to those round about us.[f]
5 How long, O Jehovah, will you be incensed? Forever?[g]
How long will your ardor burn just like fire?[h]
6 Pour out your rage upon the nations that have not known you,[i]
And upon the kingdoms that have not called upon your own name.[j]
7 For they have eaten up Jacob,[k]
And they have caused his own abiding place to be desolated.[l]
8 Do not remember against us the errors of ancestors.[m]
Hurry! Let your mercies confront us,[n]
For we have become greatly impoverished.[o]
9 Help us, O God of our salvation,[p]
For the sake of the glory of your name;[q]
And deliver us and cover over our sins on account of your name.[r]
10 Why should the nations say: "Where is their God?"[s]
Among the nations let there be known before our eyes[t]
The avenging of the blood of your servants that has been shed.[u]
11 May the sighing of the prisoner come in even before you.[a]
According to the greatness of your arm preserve those appointed to death.[b]
12 And repay to our neighbors seven times into their bosom[c]
Their reproach with which they have reproached you, O Jehovah.[d]
13 As for us your people and the flock of your pasturage,[e]
We shall give thanks to you to time indefinite;
From generation to generation we shall declare your praise.[f]

To the director upon The Lilies.[g] A reminder. Of A'saph.[h] A melody.

O Shepherd of Israel, do give ear,[i]
You who are conducting Joseph just like a flock.[j]
O you who are sitting upon the cherubs,[k] do beam forth.[l]
2 Before E'phra·im and Benjamin and Ma·nas'seh do rouse up your mightiness,[m]
And do come to our salvation.[n]
3 O God, bring us back;[o]
And light up your face, that we may be saved.[p]
4 O Jehovah God of armies, how long must you fume against the prayer of your people?[q]
5 You have made them eat the bread of tears,[r]
And you keep making them drink tears upon tears in [great] measure.[s]
6 You set us for strife to our neighbors,[t]

10 I, Jehovah, am your God,[b]

Open your mouth wide, and I shall fill it.[d]
11 But my people has not listened to my voice;[e]

And their time will prove to be to time indefinite.
16 And he will keep feeding him off the fat of the wheat,[n]
And out of the rock I shall satisfy you with honey[o] itself."

8 Do rise up, O God, do judge the earth;[h]
For you yourself should take possession of all the nations.[i]

A song. A melody of A'saph.[j]

83 O God, let there be no silence on your part;[k]
Do not keep speechless, and do not stay quiet, O Divine One.[l]
2 For, look! your very enemies are in an uproar;[m]
And the very ones intensely hating you have raised [their] head.[n]
3 Against your people they cunningly carry on their confidential talk;[o]
And they conspire against your concealed ones.[p]
4 They have said: "Come and let us efface them from being a nation,[q]
That the name of Israel may be remembered no more."[r]
5 For with the heart they have unitedly exchanged counsel;[s]
Against you they proceed to conclude even a covenant,[t]
6 The tents of E'dom[u] and the Ish'ma·el·ites, Mo'ab[v] and the Hag'rites,[w]

For the director upon the Git'tith.[a]
Of the sons of Ko'rah. A melody.

84 How lovely your grand tabernacle is,[b]
O Jehovah of armies![c]
2 My soul has yearned and also pined away for the courtyards of Jehovah.[d]
My own heart and my very flesh cry out joyfully to the living God.[e]
3 Even the bird itself has found a house,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she has put her young ones—
Your grand altar, O Jehovah of armies, my King and my God!
4 Happy are those dwelling in your house![f]
They still keep on praising you.[g] Se'lah.
5 Happy are the men whose strength is in you,[h]
In whose heart are the highways.[i]
6 Passing along through the low plain of the ba'ca bushes,[j]
They turn it into a spring itself;
Even with blessings the instructor[k] enwraps himself.
7 They will walk on from vital energy to vital energy;[l]
Each one appears to God in Zion.[m]
8 O Jehovah God of armies, do hear my prayer;[n]
Do give ear, O God of Jacob.[o] Se'lah.
9 O shield of ours, see, O God,[p]
And look upon the face of your anointed one.[q]
10 For a day in your courtyards is better than a thousand [elsewhere].[r]
I have chosen to stand at the threshold in the house of my God[s]
Rather than to move around in the tents of wickedness.[t]

11 For Jehovah God is a sun[a] and a shield;[b]
Favor and glory are what he gives.[c]
Jehovah himself will not hold back anything good from those walking in faultlessness.[d]
12 O Jehovah of armies, happy is the man that is trusting in you.[e]

For the director.
Of the sons of Ko'rah. A melody.

85 You have taken pleasure, O Jehovah, in your land;[f]
You have brought back the ones taken captive of Jacob.[g]
2 You have pardoned the error of your people;[h]
You have covered all their sin.[i] Se'lah.
3 You have controlled all your fury;[j]
You have turned back from the heat of your anger.[k]
4 Gather us back, O God of our salvation,[l]
And break off your vexation with us.[m]
5 Is it to time indefinite that you will be incensed at us?[n]
Will you draw out your anger to generation after generation?[o]
6 Will you yourself not enliven us again,[p]
That your people themselves may rejoice in you?[q]
7 Show us, O Jehovah, your loving-kindness,[r]
And your salvation may you give to us.[s]
8 I will hear what the [true] God Jehovah will speak,[t]
For he will speak peace to his people[u] and to his loyal ones,
But let them not return to self-confidence.[v]
9 Surely his salvation is near to those fearing him,[w]
For glory to reside in our land.[a] 10 As for loving-kindness and trueness, they have met each other;[b] Righteousness and peace—they have kissed each other.[c]
11 Trueness itself will sprout out of the very earth,[d]
And righteousness itself will look down from the very heavens.[e]
12 Also, Jehovah, for his part, will give what is good,[f]
And our own land will give its yield.[g]
13 Before him righteousness itself will walk,[h]
And it will make a way by his steppings.[i]

A prayer of David.

86 Incline, O Jehovah, your ear. Answer me,[j]
For I am afflicted and poor.[k]
2 O do guard my soul, for I am loyal.[l]
Save your servant—you are my God—that is trusting in you.[m]
3 Show me favor, O Jehovah,[n]
For to you I keep calling all day long.[o]
4 Make the soul of your servant rejoice,[p]
For to you, O Jehovah, I lift up my very soul.[q]
5 For you, O Jehovah, are good[r] and ready to forgive;[s]
And the loving-kindness to all those calling upon you is abundant.[t]
6 Do give ear, O Jehovah, to my prayer;[u]
And do pay attention to the voice of my entreaties.[v]
7 In the day of my distress I will call upon you,[w]
For you will answer me.[x]

Slow to anger[r] and abundant in loving-kindness and trueness.[s]

Do give your strength to your servant,[u]
And do save the son of your slave girl.[v]

That those hating me may see [it] and be ashamed.[w]
For you yourself, O Jehovah, have helped me and comforted me.[x]

Of the sons of Ko'rah.
A melody, a song.

87 His foundation is in the holy mountains.[a]
2 Jehovah is more in love with the gates of Zion[b]
Than with all the tabernacles of Jacob.[c]
3 Glorious things are being spoken about you, O city of the [true] God.[d] Se'lah.
4 I shall make mention of Ra'hab[e] and Babylon[f] as among those knowing me;
Here are Phi·lis'ti·a[g] and Tyre, together with Cush:
"This is one who was born there."[h]
5 And respecting Zion it will be said:
"Each and every one was born in her."[i]
And the Most High[j] himself will firmly establish her.[k]
6 Jehovah himself will declare, when recording the peoples:[l]
"This is one who was born there."[m] Se'lah.
7 There will also be singers as well as dancers of circle dances:[n]
"All my springs are in you."[o]

88 O Jehovah, the God of my salvation,[q]
By day I have cried out,[r]
In the night [also] in front of you.[s]
2 Before you my prayer will come.[t]
Incline your ear to my entreating cry.[u]

Whom you have remembered no longer
And who have been severed from your own [helping] hand.[g]

In dark places, in a large abyss.[h]

5 And the heavens will laud your marvelous act, O Jehovah,[c]
Yes, your faithfulness in the congregation of the holy ones.
6 For who in the skies can be compared to Jehovah?[d]
Who can resemble Jehovah among the sons of God?[e]
7 God is to be held in awe among the intimate group of holy ones;[f]

24 And my faithfulness and my loving-kindness are with him,[a]
And in my name his horn is exalted.[b]
25 And on the sea I have put his hand[c]
And on the rivers his right hand.[d]
26 He himself calls out to me, 'You are my Father,[e]
My God[f] and the Rock of my salvation.'[g]
27 Also, I myself shall place him as firstborn,[h]
The most high of the kings of the earth.[i] 28 To time indefinite I shall preserve my loving-kindness toward him,[j]
And my covenant will be faithful to him.[k]
29 And I shall certainly set up his seed forever[l]
And his throne as the days of heaven.[m]
30 If his sons leave my law[n]
And in my judicial decisions they do not walk,[o]
31 If they profane my own statutes
And they do not keep my own commandments,
32 I must also turn my attention to their transgression even with a rod[p]
And to their error even with strokes.[q]
33 But my loving-kindness I shall not break off from him,[r]
Nor shall I prove false with regard to my faithfulness.[s]
34 I shall not profane my covenant,[t]
And the expression out of my lips I shall not change.[u]
35 Once I have sworn in my holiness,[v]
To David I will not tell lies.[w]
36 His seed itself will prove to be even to time indefinite,[x]
And his throne as the sun in front of me.[y]
37 As the moon it will be firmly established for time indefinite,
And [as] a faithful witness in the skies." Se′lah.
38 But you—you have cast off and you keep contemning;[a]
You have become furious toward your anointed one.[b]
39 You have spurned the covenant of your servant;
You have profaned his diadem to the very earth.[c]
40 You have broken down all his stone pens;[d]
You have laid his fortifications in ruin.[e]
41 All those passing along the way have pillaged him;[f]
He has become a reproach to his neighbors.[g]
42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries;[h]
You have caused all his enemies to rejoice.[i] 43 What is more, you again treat his sword as a foe,[j]
And you have caused him not to gain ground in the battle.[k]
44 You have made [him] cease from his luster,[l]
And his throne you have hurled to the very earth.[m]
45 You have shortened the days of his youth;
You have enwrapped him with shame.[n] Se′lah.
46 How long, O Jehovah, will you keep yourself concealed? For all time?[o]
Will your rage keep on burning just like a fire?[p]
47 Remember of what duration of life I am.[q]
Is it all in vain that you have created all the sons of men?[r]

BOOK FOUR
(Psalms 90 - 106)

A prayer of Moses,
the man of the [true] God.[a]

90 O Jehovah, you yourself have proved to be a real dwelling for us[b]
During generation after generation.[c]
2 Before the mountains themselves were born,[d]
Or you proceeded to bring forth as with labor pains the earth[e] and the productive land,[f]
Even from time indefinite to time indefinite you are God.[g]
3 You make mortal man go back to crushed matter,[h]
And you say: "Go back, YOU sons of men."[i]
4 For a thousand years are in your eyes but as yesterday when it is past,[j]
And as a watch during the night.[k]
5 You have swept them away;[l] they become a mere sleep;[m]
In the morning [they are] just like green grass that changes.[n]
6 In the morning it puts forth blossoms and must change;[o]
At evening it withers and certainly dries up.[p]
7 For we have come to an end in your anger,[q]
And by your rage we have been disturbed.[a] 8 You have set our errors right in front of you,[b]
Our hidden things before your bright face.[c]
9 For all our days have come to their decline in your fury;[d]
We have finished our years just like a whisper.[e]
10 In themselves the days of our years are seventy years;[f]
And if because of special mightiness they are eighty years,[g]
Yet their insistence is on trouble and hurtful things;[h]
For it must quickly pass by, and away we fly.[i] 11 Who is there knowing the strength of your anger[j]
And your fury according to the fear of you?[k]
12 Show [us] just how to count our days in such a way[l]
That we may bring a heart of wisdom[m] in.
13 Do return, O Jehovah![n] How long will it be?[o]
And feel regret over your servants.[p]

14 Satisfy us in the morning with your loving-kindness,[a]
That we may cry out joyfully and may rejoice during all our days.[b]
15 Make us rejoice correspondingly to the days that you have afflicted us,[c]
The years that we have seen calamity.[d]
16 May your activity appear to your own servants[e]
And your splendor upon their sons.[f]
17 And let the pleasantness of Jehovah our God prove to be upon us,[g]
And the work of our hands do you firmly establish upon us.[h]
Yes, the work of our hands, do you firmly establish it.[i]

91 Anyone dwelling in the secret place[j] of the Most High[k]
Will procure himself lodging under the very shadow of the Almighty One.[l]
2 I will say to Jehovah: "[You are] my refuge and my stronghold,[m]
My God, in whom I will trust."[n]
3 For he himself will deliver you from the trap of the birdcatcher,[o]
From the pestilence causing adversities.[p]
4 With his pinions he will block approach to you,[q]
And under his wings you will take refuge.[r]
His trueness[s] will be a large shield[t] and bulwark.
5 You will not be afraid of anything dreadful by night,[u]
Nor of the arrow[v] that flies by day,
6 Nor of the pestilence that walks in the gloom,[w]
Nor of the destruction that despoils at midday.[x]
7 A thousand will fall at your very side
And ten thousand at your right hand;
To you it will not come near.[a]
8 Only with your eyes will you look on[b]
And see the retribution itself of the wicked ones.[c]
9 Because you [said]: "Jehovah is my refuge,"[d]
You have made the Most High himself your dwelling;[e]
10 No calamity will befall you,[f]
And not even a plague will draw near to your tent.[g]
11 For he will give his own angels a command concerning you,[h]
To guard you in all your ways.[i]
12 Upon their hands they will carry you,[j]
That you may not strike your foot against any stone.[k]
13 Upon the young lion and the cobra you will tread;[l]
You will trample down the maned young lion and the big snake.[m]
14 Because on me he has set his affection,[n]
I shall also provide him with escape.[o]
I shall protect him because he has come to know my name.[p]
15 He will call upon me, and I shall answer him.[q]
I shall be with him in distress.[r]
I shall rescue him and glorify him.[s]
16 With length of days I shall satisfy him,[t]
And I shall cause him to see salvation by me.[u]

A melody, a song,
for the sabbath day.

92 It is good to give thanks to Jehovah[a]
And to make melody to your name, O Most High;[b]
2 To tell in the morning about your loving-kindness[c]
And about your faithfulness during the nights,[d]
3 Upon a ten-stringed instrument and upon the lute,[e]
By resounding music on the harp.[f]
4 For you have made me rejoice, O Jehovah, because of your activity;
Because of the works of your hands I cry out joyfully.[g]
5 How great your works are, O Jehovah![h]
Very deep your thoughts are.[i]
6 No unreasoning man himself can know [them],[j]
And no one stupid can understand this.[k]
7 When the wicked ones sprout as the vegetation[l]
And all the practicers of what is hurtful blossom forth,
It is that they may be annihilated forever.[m]
8 But you are on high to time indefinite, O Jehovah.[n]
9 For, look! your enemies, O Jehovah,[o]
For, look! your own enemies will perish;[p]
All the practicers of what is hurtful will be separated from one another.[q]
10 But you will exalt my horn like that of a wild bull;[r]
I shall moisten [myself] with fresh oil.[s]
11 And my eye will look on my foes;[t]
My ears will hear about the very ones who rise up against me, the evildoers.
12 The righteous himself will blossom forth as a palm tree does;[a]
As a cedar in Leb'a·non does, he will grow big.[b]
13 Those who are planted in the house of Jehovah,[c]
In the courtyards of our God,[d] they will blossom forth.
14 They will still keep on thriving during gray-headedness,[e]
Fat and fresh they will continue to be,[f]
15 To tell that Jehovah is upright.[g]
[He is] my Rock,[h] in whom there is no unrighteousness.[i]

93 Jehovah himself has become king![j]
With eminence he is clothed;[k]
Jehovah is clothed—with strength he has girded himself.[l]
The productive land also becomes firmly established so that it cannot be made to totter.[m]
2 Your throne is firmly established from long ago;[n]
You are from time indefinite.[o]
3 The rivers have raised, O Jehovah,
The rivers have raised their sound;[p]
The rivers keep raising their pounding.[q]
4 Above the sounds of vast waters, the majestic breaking waves of the sea,[r]
Jehovah is majestic[s] in the height.
5 Your own reminders have proved very trustworthy.[t]
Holiness is befitting to your own house,[u] O Jehovah, for length of days.[v]

17 Unless Jehovah had been of assistance to me,[g]
In a little while my soul would have resided in silence.[h]
18 When I said: "My foot will certainly move unsteadily,"[i]
Your own loving-kindness, O Jehovah, kept sustaining me.[j]
19 When my disquieting thoughts became many inside of me,[k]
Your own consolations began to fondle my soul.[l]
20 Will the throne causing adversities be allied with you[m]
While it is framing trouble by decree?[n]
21 They make sharp attacks on the soul of the righteous one[o]
And pronounce wicked even the blood of the innocent one.[p]
22 But Jehovah will become a secure height for me,[q]
And my God the rock of my refuge.[r]
23 And he will turn back upon them their hurtfulness[s]
And will silence them with their own calamity.[t]

95 O come let us cry out joyfully to Jehovah![b]
Let us shout in triumph to our Rock of salvation.[c]
2 Let us come before his person with thanksgiving;[d]
Let us with melodies shout in triumph to him.[e]
3 For Jehovah is a great God[f]
And a great King over all [other] gods,[g]
4 He in whose hand are the inmost depths of the earth[h]
And to whom the peaks of the mountains belong;[i]
5 To whom the sea, which he himself made, belongs[j]
And whose own hands formed the dry land itself.[k]
6 O come in, let us worship and bow down;[l]
Let us kneel[m] before Jehovah our Maker.[n]

Of David. A melody.

101 About loving-kindness and judgment I will sing.[c]
To you, O Jehovah, I will make melody.[d]
2 I will act with discretion in a faultless way.[e]
When will you come to me?[f]
I shall walk about in the integrity of my heart inside my house.[g]
3 I shall not set in front of my eyes any good-for-nothing thing.[h]
The doing of those who fall away I have hated;[i]
It does not cling to me.[j]
4 A crooked heart departs from me;[k]
Nothing bad do I know.[l]
5 Anyone slandering his companion in secrecy,[m]
Him I silence.[n]
Anyone of haughty eyes and of arrogant heart,[o]
Him I cannot endure.[p]
6 My eyes are upon the faithful ones of the earth,[q]
That they may dwell with me.[r]
The one walking in a faultless way,[s]
He it is who will minister to me.[t]
7 There will dwell inside my house no worker of trickiness.[u]
As for anyone speaking falsehoods, he will not be firmly established[v]
In front of my eyes.[w]
8 Every morning I shall silence all the wicked ones of the earth,[x]
To cut off from the city[y] of Jehovah all the practicers of what is hurtful.[z]

A prayer of the afflicted in case he grows feeble and pours out his concern before Jehovah himself.[a]

102 O Jehovah, do hear my prayer;[b]
And to you may my own cry for help come.[c]
2 Do not conceal your face from me on the day that I am in sore straits.[d]
Incline to me your ear;[e]
On the day that I call, hurry, answer me.[f]
3 For my days have come to an end just like smoke,[g]
And my very bones have been made red-hot just like a fireplace.[h]
4 My heart has been struck just like vegetation and is dried up,[i]
For I have forgotten to eat my food.[j]
5 Because of the sound of my sighing[k]
My bones have stuck to my flesh.[l]
6 I do resemble the pelican of the wilderness.[m]
I have become like a little owl of desolated places.
7 I have grown emaciated,
And I am become like a bird isolated upon a roof.[n]
8 All day long my enemies have reproached me.[o]
Those making a fool of me have sworn even by me.[p]
9 For I have eaten ashes themselves just like bread,[q]
And the things I drink I have mingled even with weeping,[r]

Your years are throughout all generations.[e]
25 Long ago you laid the foundations of the earth itself,[f]
And the heavens are the work of your hands.[g]
26 They themselves will perish, but you yourself will keep standing;[h]
And just like a garment they will all of them wear out.[i]
Just like clothing you will replace them, and they will finish their turn.[j]
27 But you are the same, and your own years will not be completed.[k]
28 The sons of your servants will continue residing;[l]
And before you their own offspring will be firmly established."[m]

Of David.

103 Bless Jehovah, O my soul,[n]
Even everything within me, his holy name.[o]
2 Bless Jehovah, O my soul,
And do not forget all his doings,[p]
3 Him who is forgiving all your error,[q]
Who is healing all your maladies,[r]
4 Who is reclaiming your life from the very pit,[s]
Who is crowning you with loving-kindness and mercies,[t]

From one kingdom to another people.[a] 14 He did not allow any human to defraud them,[b]
But on their account he reproved kings,[c]
15 [Saying:] "Do not YOU men touch my anointed ones,[d]
And to my prophets do nothing bad."[e]
16 And he proceeded to call for a famine upon the land;[f]
He broke every rod around which ring-shaped loaves were suspended.[g]
17 He sent ahead of them a man
Who was sold to be a slave, Joseph.[h]
18 With fetters they afflicted his feet,[i]

21 He set him as master to his household[n]
And as ruler over all his property,[o]
22 To bind his princes agreeably to his soul[p]
And that he might teach wisdom to even his elderly men.[q]
23 And Israel proceeded to come into Egypt,[r]
And Jacob himself resided as an alien in the land of Ham.[s]
24 And he kept making his people very fruitful,[t]
And gradually made them mightier than their adversaries.[u]
25 He let their heart change to hate his people,[v]
To behave cunningly against his servants.[w]
26 He sent Moses his servant,[x]
Aaron whom he had chosen.[y]
27 They set among them the matters of his signs,[a]
And the miracles in the land of Ham.[b]
28 He sent darkness and so made it dark;[c]
And they did not rebel against his words.[d]
29 He changed their waters into blood,[e]
And proceeded to put their fish to death.[f]
30 Their land swarmed with frogs,[g]
In the interior rooms of their kings.
31 He said that the gadflies should come in,[h]
Gnats in all their territories.[i]
32 He made their downpours hail,[j]
A flaming fire on their land.[k]
33 And he proceeded to strike their vines and their fig trees
And to break the trees of their territory.[l]
34 He said that the locusts should come in,[m]
And a species of locust, even without number.[n]
35 And they went eating all the vegetation in their land;[o]
They also went eating the fruitage of their ground.
36 And he proceeded to strike down every firstborn in their land,[p]
The beginning of all their generative power.[q]
37 And he began to bring them out with silver and gold;[r]
And among his tribes there was no one stumbling along.
38 Egypt rejoiced when they went out,
For the dread of them had fallen upon them.[s]
39 He spread out a cloud for a screen,[t]

And fire to give light by night.[a] 40 They asked, and he proceeded to bring quails,[b]
And with bread from heaven he kept satisfying them.[c]
41 He opened a rock, and waters began to flow out;[d]
These went through the waterless regions as a river.[e]
42 For he remembered his holy word with Abraham his servant.[f]
43 So he brought out his people with exultation,[g]
His chosen ones even with a joyful cry.[h]
44 And gradually he gave them the lands of the nations,[i]
And they kept taking possession of the product of the hard work of national groups,[j]
45 To the end that they might keep his regulations[k]
And observe his own laws.[l]
Praise Jah, YOU people![m]

106 Praise Jah, YOU people![n]
Give thanks to Jehovah, for he is good;[o]
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.[p]
2 Who can utter the mighty performances of Jehovah,[q]
[Or] can make all his praise to be heard?[r]
3 Happy are those observing justice,[s]
Doing righteousness all the time.[t]
4 Remember me, O Jehovah, with the goodwill toward your people.[u]
Take care of me with your salvation,[v]
5 That I may see the goodness to your chosen ones,[w]
That I may rejoice with the rejoicing of your nation,[x]
That I may make my boast with your inheritance.[a]

6 We have sinned just the same as our forefathers;[b]
We have done wrong; we have acted wickedly.[c]
7 As for our forefathers in Egypt,
They did not show any insight into your wonderful works.[d]
They did not remember the abundance of your grand loving-kindness,[e]
But they behaved rebelliously at the sea, by the Red Sea.[f]
8 And he proceeded to save them for the sake of his name,[g]
So as to make his mightiness known.[h]
9 Accordingly he rebuked the Red Sea, and it was gradually dried up;[i]
And he went walking them through the watery deep as through the wilderness;[j]
10 And so he saved them from the hand of the hater[k]
And reclaimed them from the hand of the enemy.[l]
11 And the waters came covering their adversaries;[m]
Not one of them was left.[n]
12 Then they had faith in his word;[o]
They began to sing his praise.[p]
13 Quickly they forgot his works;[q]
They did not wait for his counsel.[r]
14 But they showed their selfish desire in the wilderness[s]
And went putting God to the proof in the desert.[t]
15 And he proceeded to give them their request[u]

And to send a wasting disease into their soul.[a] 16 And they began to envy Moses in the camp,[b]
Even Aaron the holy one of Jehovah.[c]
17 The earth then opened up and swallowed down Da′than,[d]
And covered over the assembly of A·bi′ram.[e]
18 And a fire went burning among their assembly;[f]
A flame itself went devouring the wicked ones.[g]
19 Furthermore, they made a calf in Ho′reb[h]
And bowed down to a molten image,[i] 20 So that they exchanged my glory[j]
For a representation of a bull, an eater of vegetation.[k]
21 They forgot God their Savior,[l]
The Doer of great things in Egypt,[m]
22 Wonderful works in the land of Ham,[n]
Fear-inspiring things at the Red Sea.[o]
23 And he was about to say to annihilate them,[p]

Who stood in the gap before him,[q]
To turn back his rage from bringing [them] to ruin.[r]
24 And they got to contemning the desirable land;[s]
They had no faith in his word.[t]
25 And they kept grumbling in their tents;[u]
They did not listen to the voice of Jehovah.[v]
26 So he proceeded to raise his hand [in an oath] concerning them,[w]
That he would make them fall in the wilderness,[x]
27 And that he would make their offspring fall among the nations,[y]

32 Further, they caused provocation at the waters of Mer′i·bah,[h]
So that it went badly with Moses by reason of them.[i] 33 For they embittered his spirit
And he began to speak rashly with his lips.[j]
34 They did not annihilate the peoples,[k]

38 So they kept spilling innocent blood,[s]

BOOK FIVE
(Psalms 107 – 150)

107 O give thanks to Jehovah, YOU people, for he is good;[a]
For his loving-kindness is to time indefinite.[b]
2 Let the reclaimed ones of Jehovah say so,[c]
Whom he has reclaimed from the hand of the adversary,[d]
3 And whom he has collected together even from the lands,[e]
From the sunrise and from the sunset,[f]
From the north and from the south.[g]
4 They wandered about in the wilderness,[h] in the desert;[i]
They did not find any way to a city of habitation.[a] 5 They were hungry, also thirsty;[b]
Their very soul within them began to faint away.[c]
6 And they kept crying out to Jehovah in their distress;[d]
Out of the stresses upon them he proceeded to deliver them,[e]
7 And to have them walk in the right way,[f]
So as to come to a city of habitation.[g]
8 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness[a]
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.[b]

9 For he has satisfied the dried-out soul;[c]
And the hungry soul he has filled with good things.[d]
10 There were those dwelling in darkness and deep shadow,[e]
Prisoners in affliction and irons.[f]
11 For they had behaved rebelliously[g] against the sayings of God;[h]
And the counsel of the Most High they had disrespected.[i]
12 So with trouble he proceeded to subdue their heart;[j]
They stumbled, and there was no one helping.[k]
13 And they began calling to Jehovah for help in their distress;[l]
Out of the stresses upon them he as usual saved them.[m]
14 He went bringing them out from darkness and deep shadow,[n]
And tearing even their bands apart.[o]
15 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness[p]
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.[q]
16 For he has broken the doors of copper,[r]
And he has cut down even the bars of iron.[s]
17 Those who were foolish, due to the way of their transgression[t]
And due to their errors, finally caused themselves affliction.[u]
18 Their soul got to detest even every sort of food,[v]
And they were arriving at the gates of death.[w]
19 And they began calling to Jehovah for help in their distress;[a]
Out of the stresses upon them he as usual saved them.[b]
20 He proceeded to send his word and heal them[c]
And to provide [them] escape out of their pits.[d]
21 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness[e]
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.[f]
22 And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving[g]
And declare his works with a joyful cry.[h]
23 Those going down to the sea in the ships,[i]
Doing business on vast waters,[j]
24 They are the ones that have seen the works of Jehovah[k]
And his wonderful works in the depths;[l]
25 How he says [the word] and causes a tempestuous wind to arise,[m]
So that it lifts up its waves.[n]
26 They go up to the heavens,
They go down to the bottoms.
Because of the calamity their very soul finds itself melting.[o]
27 They reel and move unsteadily like a drunken man,[p]
And even all their wisdom proves confused.[q]
28 And they begin crying out to Jehovah in their distress,[r]
And out of the stresses upon them he brings them forth.[s]
29 He causes the windstorm to stand at a calm,[t]
So that the waves of the sea keep quiet.[u]

30 And they rejoice because these become still,
And he leads them to the haven of their delight.[a] 31 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness[b]
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.[c]
32 And let them extol him in the congregation of the people;[d]
And in the seat of the elderly men let them praise him.[e]
33 He converts rivers into a wilderness,[f]
And the outflows of water into thirsty ground,[g]
34 Fruitful land into salt country,[h]
Owing to the badness of those dwelling in it.
35 He converts a wilderness into a reedy pool of water,[i]
And the land of a waterless region into outflows of water.[j]
36 And there he causes the hungry ones to dwell,[k]
So that they firmly establish a city of habitation.[l]
37 And they sow fields and plant vineyards,[m]
That they may yield fruitful crops.[n]
38 And he blesses them so that they become very many;[o]
And he does not let their cattle become few.[p]
39 Again they become few and crouch down[q]
Owing to restraint, calamity and grief.[r]
40 He is pouring out contempt upon nobles,[s]
So that he makes them wander about in a featureless place, where there is no way.[t]
41 But he protects the poor one from affliction[u]
And converts him into families just like a flock.[v]
42 The upright ones see and rejoice;[a]
But as for all unrighteousness, it has to shut its mouth.[b]
43 Who is wise? He will both observe these things[c]
And show himself attentive toward Jehovah's acts of loving-kindness.[d]

A song. A melody of David.

108 My heart is steadfast, O God.[e]
I will sing and make melody,[f]
Even my glory.[g]
2 Do awake, O stringed instrument; you too, O harp.[h]
I will awaken the dawn.[i]
3 I shall laud you among the peoples, O Jehovah;[j]
And I shall make melody to you among the national groups.[k]
4 For your loving-kindness is great up to the heavens,[l]
And your trueness up to the skies.[m]
5 O be exalted above the heavens, O God;[n]
And let your glory be above all the earth.[o]
6 In order that your beloved ones may be rescued,[p]
O do save with your right hand and answer me.[q]
7 God himself has spoken in his holiness:[r]
"I will exult, I will give out She′chem[s] as a portion;[t]
And the low plain of Suc′coth[u] I shall measure off.
8 Gil′e·ad[v] belongs to me; Ma·nas′seh[w] belongs to me;
And E′phra·im is the fortress of my head one;[x]
Judah is my commander's staff.[y]
9 Mo′ab[z] is my washing pot.[a]

Over Phi·lis′ti·a[c] I shall shout in triumph."[d]
10 Who will bring me to the fortified city?[e]
Who will actually lead me as far as E′dom?[f]
11 Is it not [you], O God, who have cast us off[g]
And who do not go forth with our armies as God?[h]
12 Do give us assistance from distress,[i]
As salvation by earthling man is worthless.[j]
13 By God we shall gain vital energy,[k]
And he himself will tread down our adversaries.[l]

To the director.
Of David. A melody.

109 O God of my praise,[m] do not keep silent.[n]
2 For the mouth of the wicked one and the mouth of deception have opened against me.[o]
They have spoken about me with the tongue of falsehood;[p]
3 And with words of hatred they have surrounded me,[q]
And they keep fighting against me without cause.[r]
4 For my love they keep resisting me;[s]
But on my part there is prayer.[t]
5 And they render to me bad for good[u]
And hatred for my love.[v]
6 Appoint over him someone wicked,
And may a resister[w] himself keep standing at his right hand.
7 When he is judged, let him go forth as someone wicked;
And let his very prayer become a sin.[x]
8 Let his days prove to be few;[y]
His office of oversight let someone else take.[a] 9 Let his sons become fatherless boys[b]
And his wife be a widow.[c]
10 And without fail let his sons go wandering about;[d]
And they must do begging,
And they must look for [food] from their desolate places.[e]
11 Let the usurer lay out traps for all that he has,[f]
And let strangers[g] make plunder of his product of toil.[h]
12 May he come to have no one extending loving-kindness,[i]
And may there prove to be no one showing favor to his fatherless boys.
13 Let his posterity be for cutting off.[j]
In the following generation let their name be wiped out.[k]
14 Let the error of his forefathers be remembered to Jehovah,[l]
And the sin of his mother[m]—may it not be wiped out.[n]
15 Let them prove to be in front of Jehovah constantly;[o]
And may he cut off the remembrance of them from the very earth;[p]
16 For the reason that he did not remember to exercise loving-kindness,[q]
But he kept pursuing the afflicted and poor man[r]
And the one dejected at heart, to put [him] to death.[s]
17 And he kept loving the malediction,[t] so that it came upon him;[u]
And he did not take delight in the blessing,[v]

So that it became far away from him;[a] 18 And he came to be clothed with malediction as his garment.[b]
So it came like waters into the midst of him[c]
And like oil into his bones.
19 May it prove to be for him like a garment with which he enwraps himself[d]
And as a girdle that he keeps girded about himself constantly.[e]
20 This is the wages from Jehovah of the one resisting me[f]
And of those speaking evil against my soul.[g]
21 But you are Jehovah the Sovereign[h] Lord.
Deal with me for the sake of your name.[i]
Because your loving-kindness is good, deliver[j] me.
22 For I am afflicted and poor,[k]
And my heart itself has been pierced within me.[l]
23 Like a shadow when it declines, I am obliged to go away;[m]

24 My knees themselves have swayed from fasting,[n]
And my very flesh has grown lean, without any oil.[o]
25 And to them I myself have become something reproachable.[p]

26 Help me, O Jehovah my God;[r]
Save me according to your loving-kindness.[s]
27 And may they know that this is your hand;[t]
That you yourself, O Jehovah, have done it.[u]
28 Let them, for their part, pronounce a malediction,[v]
But may you, for your part, pronounce a blessing.[a]
They have risen up, but let them be ashamed,[b]
And let your own servant rejoice.[c]
29 Let those resisting me be clothed with humiliation,[d]
And let them enwrap themselves with their shame just as with a sleeveless coat.[e]
30 I shall laud Jehovah very much with my mouth,[f]
And in among many people I shall praise him.[g]
31 For he will stand at the right hand of the poor,[h]
To save [him] from those judging his soul.

Of David. A melody.

110 The utterance of Jehovah to my Lord is:[i]
"Sit at my right hand[j]
Until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet."[k]
2 The rod[l] of your strength Jehovah will send out of Zion,[m] [saying:]
"Go subduing in the midst of your enemies."[n]
3 Your people[o] will offer themselves willingly[p] on the day of your military force.[q]
In the splendors of holiness,[r] from the womb of the dawn,
You have your company of young men just like dewdrops.[s]
4 Jehovah has sworn[t] (and he will feel no regret):[u]
"You are a priest to time indefinite[v]
According to the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek!"[w]

3 But our God is in the heavens;[a]
Everything that he delighted [to do] he has done.[b]
4 Their idols are silver and gold,[c]
The work of the hands of earthling man.[d]
5 A mouth they have, but they cannot speak;[e]
Eyes they have, but they cannot see;[f]
6 Ears they have, but they cannot hear.[g]
A nose they have, but they cannot smell.[h]
7 Hands are theirs, but they cannot feel.[i]
Feet are theirs, but they cannot walk;[j]
They utter no sound with their throat.[k]
8 Those making them will become just like them,[l]
All those who are trusting in them.[m]
9 O Israel, trust in Jehovah;[n]
He is their help and their shield.[o]
10 O house of Aaron, put YOUR trust in Jehovah;[p]
He is their help and their shield.[q]
11 You that fear Jehovah, trust in Jehovah;[r]
He is their help and their shield.[s]
12 Jehovah himself has remembered us; he will bless,[t]
He will bless the house of Israel,[u]
He will bless the house of Aaron.[v]
13 He will bless those fearing Jehovah,[w]
The small ones as well as the great ones.[x]

14 Jehovah will give increase to YOU,[a]
To YOU and to YOUR sons.[b]
15 You are the ones blessed by Jehovah,[c]
The Maker of heaven and earth.[d]
16 As regards the heavens, to Jehovah the heavens belong,[e]
But the earth he has given to the sons of men.[f]
17 The dead themselves do not praise Jah,[g]
Nor do any going down into silence.[h]
18 But we ourselves will bless Jah[i]
From now on and to time indefinite.[j]
Praise Jah, YOU people![k]

116 I do love, because Jehovah hears[l]
My voice, my entreaties.[m]
2 For he has inclined his ear to me,[n]
And throughout my days I shall call.[o]
3 The ropes of death encircled me[p]
And the distressing circumstances of She'ol themselves found me.[q]
Distress and grief I kept finding.[r]
4 But upon the name of Jehovah I proceeded to call:[s]
"Ah, Jehovah, do provide my soul with escape!"[t]
5 Jehovah is gracious and righteous;[u]
And our God is One showing mercy.[v]
6 Jehovah is guarding the inexperienced ones.[w]
I was impoverished, and he proceeded to save even me.[x]
7 Return to your resting-place, O my soul,[y]
For Jehovah himself has acted appropriately toward you.[z]
8 For you have rescued my soul from death,[a]
My eye from tears, my foot from stumbling.[b]
9 I will walk[c] before Jehovah in the lands of those living.[d]
10 I had faith,[e] for I proceeded to speak.[f]
I myself was very much afflicted.
11 I, for my part, said, when I became panicky:[g]
"Every man is a liar."[h]
12 What shall I repay to Jehovah[i]
For all his benefits to me?[j]
13 The cup of grand salvation[k] I shall take up,
And on the name of Jehovah I shall call.[l]
14 My vows I shall pay to Jehovah,[m]
Yes, in front of all his people.
15 Precious in the eyes of Jehovah
Is the death of his loyal ones.[n]
16 Ah, now, O Jehovah,[o]
For I am your servant.[p]
I am your servant, the son of your slave girl.[q]
You have loosened my bands.[r]
17 To you I shall offer the sacrifice of thanksgiving,[s]
And on the name of Jehovah I shall call.[t]
18 My vows I shall pay to Jehovah,[u]
Yes, in front of all his people,[v]
19 In the courtyards of the house of Jehovah,[w]
In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.[x]
Praise Jah, YOU people![y]

It was in the name of Jehovah that I kept holding them off.[c]
13 You pushed me hard that I should fall,[d]
But Jehovah himself helped me.[e]

But he did not give me over to death itself.[q] 19 Open to me the gates of righteousness,[r] YOU people.
I shall go into them; I shall laud Jah.[s]
20 This is the gate of Jehovah.[t]
The righteous themselves will go into it.[u]
21 I shall laud you, for you answered me[v]

In your righteousness preserve me alive.[a]

ו [Waw]

41 And may your loving-kindnesses come to me, O Jehovah,[b]
Your salvation according to your saying,[c]
42 That I may answer the one reproaching me with a word,[d]
For I have trusted in your word.[e]
43 And do not take away from my mouth the word of truth entirely,[f]
For I have waited for your own judicial decision.[g]
44 And I will keep your law constantly,[h]
To time indefinite, even forever.[i] 45 And I will walk about in a roomy place,[j]
For I have searched even for your orders.[k]
46 I will also speak about your reminders in front of kings,[l]
And I shall not be ashamed.[m]
47 And I shall show a fondness for your commandments[n]
That I have loved.[o]
48 And I shall raise my palms to your commandments that I have loved,[p]
And I will concern myself with your regulations.[q]

ז [Za'yin]

49 Remember the word to your servant,[r]
For which you have made me wait.[s]
50 This is my comfort in my affliction,[t]
For your own saying has preserved me alive.[u]
51 The presumptuous ones themselves have derided me to the extreme.[v]
From your law I have not deviated.[w]

52 I have remembered your judicial decisions from time indefinite, O Jehovah,[a]
And I find comfort for myself.[b]
53 A raging heat itself has taken hold of me because of the wicked,[c]
Who are leaving your law.[d]
54 Melodies your regulations have become to me[e]
In the house of my alien residences.[f]
55 In the night I have remembered your name, O Jehovah,[g]
That I may keep your law.[h]
56 Even this has become mine,
Because your orders I have observed.[i]

ח [Chehth]

57 Jehovah is my share;[j]
I have promised to keep your words.[k]
58 I have softened your face with all [my] heart.[l]
Show me favor according to your saying.[m]
59 I have considered my ways,[n]
That I may turn back my feet to your reminders.[o]
60 I hurried up, and I did not delay[p]
To keep your commandments.[q]
61 The very ropes of the wicked ones surrounded me.[r]
Your law I did not forget.[s]
62 At midnight I get up to give thanks to you[t]
For your righteous judicial decisions.[u]
63 A partner I am of all those who do fear you,[v]

And of those keeping your orders.[a] 64 Your loving-kindness, O Jehovah, has filled the earth.[b]

ט [Tehth]

65 You have dealt well indeed with your servant,[d]
O Jehovah, according to your word.[e]
66 Teach me goodness,[f] sensibleness[g] and knowledge themselves,[h]
For in your commandments I have exercised faith.[i] 67 Before I was under affliction I was sinning by mistake,[j]
But now I have kept your very saying.[k]
68 You are good and are doing good.[l]
Teach me your regulations.[m]
69 The presumptuous have smeared me with falsehood.[n]
As for me, with all [my] heart I shall observe your orders.[o]
70 Their heart has become unfeeling just like fat.[p]
I, for my part, have been fond of your own law.[q]
71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted,[r]
In order that I may learn your regulations.[s]
72 The law[t] of your mouth is good for me,[u]
More so than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.[v]

י [Yohdh]

73 Your own hands have made me, and they proceeded to fix me solidly.[w]
Make me understand, that I may learn your commandments.[x]
74 Those fearing you are the ones that see me and rejoice,[y]
For I have waited for your own word.[z]

75 I well know, O Jehovah, that your judicial decisions are righteousness[a]
And that with faithfulness you have afflicted me.[b]
76 May your loving-kindness serve, please, to comfort me,[c]
According to your saying to your servant.[d]
77 Let your mercies come to me, that I may keep living;[e]
For your law is what I am fond of.[f]
78 Let the presumptuous ones be ashamed, for without cause they have misled me.[g]
As for me, I concern myself with your orders.[h]
79 Let those fearing you turn back to me,[i]
Those also knowing your reminders.[j]
80 Let my heart prove faultless in your regulations,[k]
In order that I may not be ashamed.[l]

כ [Kaph]

81 For your salvation my soul has pined away;[m]
For your word I have waited.[n]
82 My eyes have pined away for your saying,[o]
While I say: "When will you comfort me?"[p]
83 For I have become like a skin bottle[q] in the smoke.
Your regulations I have not forgotten.[r]
84 How many are the days of your servant?[s]
When will you execute judgment against those persecuting me?[t]

85 The presumptuous have excavated pitfalls to get me,[a]
Those who are not in accord with your law.[b]
86 All your commandments are faithfulness itself.[c]
Without cause they have persecuted me. O help me.[d]
87 In a little while they would have exterminated me in the earth;[e]
But I myself did not leave your orders.[f]
88 According to your loving-kindness preserve me alive,[g]
That I may keep the reminder of your mouth.[h]

ל [La'medh]

89 To time indefinite, O Jehovah,[i]
Your word is stationed in the heavens.[j]
90 Your faithfulness is for generation after generation.[k]
You have solidly fixed the earth, that it may keep standing.[l]
91 According to your judicial decisions they have stood [till] today,[m]
For they are all your servants.[n]
92 If your law had not been what I am fond of,[o]
Then I should have perished in my affliction.[p]
93 To time indefinite I shall not forget your orders,[q]
Because by them you have preserved me alive.[r]
94 I am yours. O save me,[s]
Because I have searched for your own orders.[t]
95 For me the wicked have waited, to destroy me.[u]
To your reminders I keep showing myself attentive.[v]
96 To all perfection I have seen an end.[w]
Your commandment is very broad.

מ [Mem]

97 How I do love your law![a]
All day long it is my concern.[b]
98 Wiser than my enemies your commandment makes me,[c]
Because to time indefinite it is mine.[d]
99 More insight than all my teachers I have come to have,[e]
Because your reminders are a concern to me.[f]
100 With more understanding than older men I behave,[g]
Because I have observed your own orders.[h]
101 From every bad path I have restrained my feet,[i]
For the purpose that I may keep your word.[j]
102 From your judicial decisions I have not turned aside,[k]
For you yourself have instructed me.[l]
103 How smooth to my palate your sayings have been,
More so than honey to my mouth![m]
104 Owing to your orders I behave with understanding.[n]
That is why I have hated every false path.[o]

נ [Nun]

105 Your word is a lamp to my foot,[p]
And a light to my roadway.[q]
106 I have made a sworn statement, and I will carry it out,
To keep your righteous judicial decisions.[s]

129 Your reminders are wonderful.[a]
That is why my soul has observed them.[b]
130 The very disclosure of your words gives light,[c]
Making the inexperienced ones understand.[d]
131 My mouth I have opened wide, that I may pant,[e]
Because for your commandments I have longed.[f]
132 Turn to me and show me favor,[g]
According to [your] judicial decision toward those loving your name.[h]
133 Fix my own steps solidly in your saying,[i]
And may no kind of hurtful thing domineer over me.[j]
134 Redeem me from any defrauder of mankind,[k]
And I will keep your orders.[l]
135 Make your own face shine upon your servant,[m]
And teach me your regulations.[n]
136 Streams of water have run down my eyes[o]
Over the fact that they have not kept your law.[p]

צ [Tsa·dheh']

137 You are righteous, O Jehovah,[q]
And your judicial decisions are upright.[r]
138 You have commanded your reminders[s] in righteousness
And in exceeding faithfulness.[t]
139 My ardor has made an end of me,[u]
Because my adversaries have forgotten your words.[v]
140 Your saying is very much refined,[w]
And your own servant loves it.[x]
141 I am insignificant and contemptible.[a]
Your orders I have not forgotten.[b]
142 Your righteousness is a righteousness to time indefinite,[c]
And your law is truth.[d]
143 Distress and difficulty themselves found me.[e]
Your commandments I was fond of.[f]
144 The righteousness of your reminders is to time indefinite.[g]
Make me understand, that I may keep living.[h]

ק [Qohph]

145 I have called with [my] whole heart.[i] Answer me, O Jehovah.[j]
Your regulations I will observe.[k]
146 I have called upon you. O save me![l]
And I will keep your reminders.[m]
147 I have been up early in the morning twilight,[n] that I may cry for help.[o]
For your words I have waited.[p]
148 My eyes have been ahead of the night watches,[q]
[For me] to concern myself with your saying.[r]
149 O do hear my own voice according to your loving-kindness.[s]
O Jehovah, according to your judicial decision preserve me alive.[t] 150 Those in pursuit of loose conduct[u] have come near;
They have got far away from your own law.[v]
151 You are near, O Jehovah,[w]

And all your commandments are truth.[a] 152 Long ago I have known some of your reminders,[b]
For to time indefinite you have founded them.[c]

ר [Rehsh]

153 O see my affliction, and rescue me;[d]
For I have not forgotten your own law.[e]
154 O do conduct my legal case and recover me;[f]
Preserve me alive in agreement with your saying.[g]
155 Salvation is far away from the wicked ones,[h]
For they have not searched for your own regulations.[i] 156 Many are your mercies, O Jehovah.[j]
According to your judicial decisions, O preserve me alive.[k]
157 My persecutors and my adversaries are many.[l]
From your reminders I have not deviated.[m]
158 I have seen those who are treacherous in dealing,[n]
And I do feel a loathing, because they have not kept your own saying.[o]
159 O see that I have loved your own orders.[p]
O Jehovah, according to your loving-kindness preserve me alive.[q]
160 The substance of your word is truth,[r]
And every righteous judicial decision of yours is to time indefinite.[s]

שׂ [Sin] or [Shin]

161 Princes themselves have persecuted me for no cause,[t]
But my heart has been in dread of your own words.[u]
162 I am exulting over your saying[v]
Just as one does when finding much spoil.[a] 163 Falsehood I have hated,[b] and I do keep detesting it.[c]
Your law I have loved.[d]
164 Seven times in the day I have praised you[e]
Because of your righteous judicial decisions.[f]
165 Abundant peace belongs to those loving your law,[g]
And for them there is no stumbling block.[h]
166 I have hoped for your salvation, O Jehovah,[i]
And I have done your own commandments.[j]
167 My soul has kept your reminders,[k]
And I love them exceedingly.[l]
168 I have kept your orders and your reminders,[m]
For all my ways are in front of you.[n]

ת [Taw]

169 May my entreating cry come near before you, O Jehovah.[o]
According to your word, O make me understand.[p]
170 May my request for favor enter in before you.[q]
According to your saying, O deliver me.[r]
171 May my lips bubble forth praise,[s]
For you teach me your regulations.[t]
172 May my tongue sing forth your saying,[u]
For all your commandments are righteousness.[v]
173 May your hand serve to help me,[w]
Because your orders I have chosen.[x]

May there be peace upon Israel.[a]

A Song of the Ascents.

129 "Long enough they have shown hostility to me from my youth,"[b]
Let Israel now say,[c]
2 "Long enough they have shown hostility to me from my youth;[d]
Yet they have not prevailed over me.[e]
3 Plowmen have plowed upon my very back;[f]
They have lengthened their furrows."
4 Jehovah is righteous.[g]
He has cut in pieces the ropes of the wicked ones.[h]
5 They will be ashamed and turn themselves back,[i]
All those hating Zion.[j]
6 They will become like green grass of the roofs,[k]
Which before it has been torn out has dried up,[l]
7 With which the reaper has not filled his own hand,[m]
Nor anyone gathering sheaves his own bosom.
8 Nor have those passing by said:
"The blessing of Jehovah be upon YOU men.[n]
We have blessed YOU in the name of Jehovah."[o]

A Song of the Ascents.

130 Out of the depths I have called upon you, O Jehovah.[p]
2 O Jehovah, do hear my voice.[q]
May your ears prove to be attentive to the voice of my entreaties.[r]
3 If errors were what you watch,[s] O Jah,
O Jehovah, who could stand?[t]
4 For there is the [true] forgiveness with you,[u]
In order that you may be feared.[v]

Watching for the morning.[e]
7 Let Israel keep waiting for Jehovah.[f]
For there is loving-kindness with Jehovah,[g]
And abundantly so is there redemption with him.[h]
8 And he himself will redeem Israel out of all his errors.[i]

131 O Jehovah, my heart has not been haughty,[j]
Nor have my eyes been lofty;[k]
Nor have I walked in things too great,[l]
Nor in things too wonderful for me.[m]
2 Surely I have soothed and quieted my soul[n]
Like a weanling upon his mother.[o]
My soul is like a weanling upon me.[p]
3 Let Israel wait for Jehovah[q]

3 "I will not go into the tent of my house.[c]
I will not go up on the divan of my grand lounge.[d]
4 I will not give sleep to my eyes,[e]

We have found it in the fields of the forest.[j]
7 Let us come into his grand tabernacle;[k]
Let us bow down at his footstool.[l]

137 By the rivers of Babylon[g]—there we sat down.[h]
We also wept when we remembered Zion.[i]
2 Upon the poplar[j] trees in the midst of her
We hung our harps.[k]
3 For there those holding us captive asked us for the words of a song,[l]
And those mocking us—for rejoicing:[m]
"SING for us one of the songs of Zion."[n]
4 How can we sing the song of Jehovah[o]
Upon foreign ground?[p]
5 If I should forget you, O Jerusalem,[q]
Let my right hand be forgetful.
6 Let my tongue stick to my palate,[r]
If I were not to remember you,[s]
If I were not to make Jerusalem ascend Above my chief cause for rejoicing.[t]
7 Remember,[u] O Jehovah, regarding the sons of E′dom[v] the day of Jerusalem,[w]
Who were saying: "Lay [it] bare! Lay [it] bare to the foundation within it!"[x]
8 O daughter of Babylon, who are to be despoiled,[y]
Happy will he be that rewards you[z]
With your own treatment with which you treated us.[a] 9 Happy will he be that grabs ahold and does dash to pieces[b]
Your children against the crag.

Of David.

138 I shall laud you with all my heart.[a]

And I shall laud your name,[d]
Because of your loving-kindness[e] and because of your trueness.[f]
For you have magnified your saying[g] even above all your name.[h]
3 On the day that I called, you also proceeded to answer me;[i]
You began to make me bold in my soul with strength.[j]
4 All the kings of the earth will laud you, O Jehovah,[k]
For they will have heard the sayings of your mouth.
5 And they will sing about the ways of Jehovah,[l]
For the glory of Jehovah is great.[m]
6 For Jehovah is high, and yet the humble one he sees;[n]
But the lofty one he knows only from a distance.[o]
7 If I should walk in the midst of distress, you will preserve me alive.[p]
Because of the anger of my enemies you will thrust out your hand,[q]
And your right hand will save me.[r]
8 Jehovah himself will complete what is in my behalf.[s]

O Jehovah, to time indefinite is your loving-kindness.[a]
Do not desert the works of your own hands.[b]

For the director.
Of David. A melody.

139 O Jehovah, you have searched through me, and you know [me].[c]
2 You yourself have come to know my sitting down and my rising up.[d]
You have considered my thought from far off.[e]
3 My journeying and my lying outstretched you have measured off,[f]
And you have become familiar even with all my ways.[g]
4 For there is not a word on my tongue,[h]
But, look! O Jehovah, you already know it all.[i]
5 Behind and before, you have besieged me;
And you place your hand upon me.
6 [Such] knowledge is too wonderful for me.[j]
It is so high up that I cannot attain to it.[k]
7 Where can I go from your spirit,[l]
And where can I run away from your face?[m]
8 If I should ascend to heaven, there you would be;[n]
And if I should spread out my couch in She'ol, look! you [would be there].[o]
9 Were I to take the wings[p] of the dawn,
That I might reside in the most remote sea,[q]
10 There, also, your own hand would lead me[r]
And your right hand would lay hold of me.[s]
11 And were I to say: "Surely darkness itself will hastily seize me!"[t]
Then night would be light about me.[u]
12 Even the darkness itself would not prove too dark for you,[a]
But night itself would shine just as the day does;[b]
The darkness might just as well be the light.[c]
13 For you yourself produced my kidneys;[d]
You kept me screened off in the belly of my mother.[e]
14 I shall laud you because in a fear-inspiring way I am wonderfully made.[f]
Your works are wonderful,[g]
As my soul is very well aware.[h]
15 My bones were not hidden from you[i]
When I was made in secret,[j]
When I was woven in the lowest parts[k] of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw even the embryo of me,[l]
And in your book all its parts were down in writing,
As regards the days when they were formed[m]
And there was not yet one among them.
17 So, to me how precious your thoughts are![n]
O God, how much does the grand sum of them amount to![o]
18 Were I to try to count them, they are more than even the grains of sand.[p]
I have awaked, and yet I am still with you.[q]
19 O that you, O God, would slay the wicked one![r]
Then even the bloodguilty men[s] will certainly depart from me, 20 Who say things about you according to [their] idea;[t]
They have taken up [your

For the director.
A melody of David.

140 Rescue me, O Jehovah, from bad men;[k]
May you safeguard me even from the man of deeds of violence,[l]
2 Those who have schemed bad things in [their] heart,[m]
Who all day long keep attacking as in wars.[n]
3 They have sharpened their tongue like that of a serpent;[o]
The venom of the horned viper is under their lips.[p] Se'lah.
4 Keep me, O Jehovah, from the hands of the wicked one;[q]
May you safeguard me even from the man of deeds of violence,[r]
Those who have schemed to push my steps.[s]
5 The self-exalted ones have hidden a trap for me;[t]
And ropes they have spread out as a net at the side of the track.[u]
Snares they have set for me.[v] Se'lah.
6 I have said to Jehovah: "You are my God.[w]
Do give ear, O Jehovah, to the voice of my entreaties."[a] 7 O Jehovah the Sovereign Lord,[b] the strength of my salvation,[c]
You have screened over my head in the day of the armed force.[d]
8 Do not grant, O Jehovah, the cravings of the wicked one.[e]
Do not promote his plotting, that they may not be exalted.[f] Se'lah.
9 As for the heads of those surrounding me,[g]
May the trouble of their own lips cover them.[h]
10 May burning coals be dropped upon them.[i]
Let them be made to fall into the fire,[j] into watery pits, that they may not get up.[k]
11 The big talker—let him not be firmly established in the earth.[l]
The man of violence—let evil itself hunt him with repeated thrusts.[m]
12 I well know that Jehovah will execute[n]
The legal claim of the afflicted one, the judgment of the poor ones.[o]
13 Surely the righteous themselves will give thanks to your name;[p]
The upright ones will dwell before your face.[q]

Mas′kil. Of David, when he happened to be in the cave.[a] A prayer.

142 With my voice, to Jehovah I proceeded to call for aid;[b]
With my voice, to Jehovah I began to cry for favor.[c]
2 Before him I kept pouring out my concern;[d]
Before him I continued to tell about my own distress,[e]
3 When my spirit[f] fainted away within me.
Then you yourself knew my roadway.[g]
In the path in which I walk[h]
They have hidden a trap for me.[i]
4 Look to the right hand and see
That there is no one giving any recognition to me.[j]
My place for flight has perished from me;[k]
There is no one inquiring for my soul.[l]
5 I called to you, O Jehovah, for aid.[m]
I said: "You are my refuge,[n]
My share[o] in the land of the living ones."[p]
6 Do pay attention to my entreating cry,[q]
For I have become very much impoverished.[r]
Deliver me from my persecutors,[s]
For they are stronger than I am.[t]
7 Do bring my soul out of the very dungeon[u]
To laud your name.[v]
Around me let the righteous ones gather,[w]
Because you deal appropriately with me.[x]

143 O Jehovah, hear my prayer;[a]
Do give ear to my entreaty.[b]
In your faithfulness answer me in your righteousness.[c]
2 And do not enter into judgment with your servant;[d]

products of one sort after another,[q]
Our flocks multiplying by thousands, ten thousand to one, in our streets,
14 Our cattle loaded down, without any rupture
and with no abortion,[r]
And with no outcry in our public squares.[s]

[that]!"
Happy is the people whose God is Jehovah![t]

A praise, of David.

א ['A'leph]

145 I will exalt you, O my God the King,[a]
And I will bless your name to time indefinite, even forever.[b]

ב [Behth]

2 All day long I will bless you,[c]
And I will praise your name to time indefinite,
even forever.[d]

ג [Gi'mel]

3 Jehovah is great and very much to be praised,[e]
And his greatness is unsearchable.[f]

ד [Da'leth]

4 Generation after generation will commend your works,[g]
And about your mighty acts they will tell.[h]

ה [He']

5 The glorious splendor of your dignity[i]
And the matters of your wonderful works I will make my concern.[j]

ו [Waw]

6 And they will talk about the strength of your own fear-inspiring things;[k]
And as for your greatness,
I will declare it.[l]

ז [Za'yin]

7 With the mention of the abundance of your goodness they will bubble over,[m]
And [because of] your righteousness they will cry out joyfully.[n]

ח [Chehth]

8 Jehovah is gracious and merciful,[o]
Slow to anger and great in loving-kindness.[p]

9 Jehovah is good to all,[a]
And his mercies are over all his works.[b]

י [Yohdh]

10 All your works will laud you,
O Jehovah,[c]
And your loyal ones will bless you.[d]

כ [Kaph]

11 About the glory of your kingship they will talk,[e]
And about your mightiness they will speak,[f]

ל [La'medh]

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts[g]
And the glory of the splendor of his kingship.[h]

מ [Mem]

13 Your kingship is a kingship for all times indefinite,[i]
And your dominion is throughout all successive generations.[j]

ס [Sa'mekh]

14 Jehovah is giving support to all who are falling,[k]
And is raising up all who are bowed down.[l]

ע ['A'yin]

15 To you the eyes of all look hopefully,[m]
And you are giving them their food in its season.[n]

פ [Pe']

16 You are opening your hand[o]
And satisfying the desire of every living thing.[p]

צ [Tsa·dheh']

17 Jehovah is righteous in all his ways[q]
And loyal in all his works.[r]

ק [Qohph]

18 Jehovah is near to all those calling upon him,[s]
To all those who call upon him in trueness.[t]

ר [Rehsh]

19 The desire of those fearing him he will perform,[u]

PROVERBS

1 The proverbs[a] of Sol'o·mon[b] the son of David,[c] the king of Israel,[d] 2 for one to know wisdom[e] and discipline,[f] to discern the sayings of understanding,[g] 3 to receive the discipline[h] that gives insight,[i] righteousness[j] and judgment[k] and uprightness,[l] 4 to give to the inexperienced ones shrewdness,[m] to a young man knowledge[n] and thinking ability.[o]

5 A wise person will listen and take in more instruction,[p] and a man of understanding is the one who acquires skillful direction,[q] 6 to understand a proverb and a puzzling saying,[r] the words of wise persons[s] and their riddles.[t]

7 The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge.[u] Wisdom and discipline are what mere fools have despised.[v]

8 Listen, my son, to the discipline of your father,[w] and do not forsake the law of your mother.[x] 9 For they are a wreath of attractiveness to your head[y] and a fine necklace to your throat.[z]

10 My son, if sinners try to seduce you, do not consent.[a] 11 If they keep saying: "Do go with us. Do let us lie in ambush for blood.[a] Do let us lie in concealment for the innocent men without any cause.[b] 12 Let us swallow them down alive[c] just like She'ol,[d] even whole, like those going down into a pit.[e] 13 Let us find all sorts of precious valuables.[f] Let us fill our houses with spoil.[g] 14 Your lot you ought to cast in among us. Let there come to be just one bag belonging to all of us"[h]— 15 my son, do not go in the way with them.[i] Hold back your foot from their roadway.[j] 16 For their feet are those that run to sheer badness,[k] and they keep hastening to shed blood.[l] 17 For it is for nothing that the net is spread before the eyes of anything owning wings.[m] 18 Consequently they themselves lie in ambush for the very blood of these;[n] they lie in concealment for their souls.[a] 19 Thus are the paths of everyone making unjust profit.[b] It takes away the very soul of its owners.[c]

20 True wisdom[d] itself keeps crying aloud in the very street.[e] In the public squares it keeps giving forth its voice.[f] 21 At the upper end of the noisy streets it calls out.[g] At the entrances of the gates into the city it says its own sayings:[h]

22 "How long will YOU inexperienced ones keep loving inexperience,[i] and [how long] must YOU ridiculers desire for yourselves outright ridicule,[j] and [how long] will YOU stupid ones keep hating knowledge?[k] 23 Turn back at my reproof.[l] Then to YOU I will cause my spirit to bubble forth;[m] I will make my words known to YOU.[n] 24 Because I have called out but YOU keep refusing,[o] I have stretched out my hand but there is no one paying attention,[p] 25 and YOU keep neglecting all my counsel,[q] and my reproof YOU have not accepted,[r] 26 I also, for my part, shall laugh at YOUR own disaster,[s] I shall mock when what YOU dread comes,[t] 27 when what YOU dread comes just like a storm, and YOUR own disaster gets here just like a storm wind,[u] when distress and hard times come upon YOU.[v] 28 At that time they will keep calling me, but I shall not answer;[w] they will keep looking for me, but they will not find me,[x] 29 for the reason that they hated knowledge,[y] and the fear of Jehovah they did not choose.[z] 30 They did not consent to my counsel;[a] they disrespected all my reproof.[b] 31 So they will eat from the fruitage of their way,[c] and they will be glutted with their own counsels.[d] 32 For the renegading[e] of the inexperienced ones is what will kill them,[f] and the easygoingness of the stupid is what will destroy them.[g] 33 As for the one listening to me, he will reside in security[a] and be undisturbed from dread of calamity."[b]

2 My son, if you will receive my sayings[c] and treasure up my own commandments with yourself,[d] 2 so as to pay attention to wisdom with your ear,[e] that you may incline your heart to discernment;[f] 3 if, moreover, you call out for understanding[g] itself and you give forth your voice for discernment itself,[h] 4 if you keep seeking for it as for silver,[i] and as for hid treasures you keep searching for it,[j] 5 in that case you will understand the fear[k] of Jehovah, and you will find the very knowledge of God.[l] 6 For Jehovah himself gives wisdom;[m] out of his mouth there are knowledge and discernment.[n] 7 And for the upright ones he will treasure up practical wisdom;[o] for those walking in integrity he is a shield,[p] 8 by observing the paths of judgment,[q] and he will guard the very way of his loyal ones.[r] 9 In that case you will understand righteousness and judgment and uprightness, the entire course of what is good.[s]

10 When wisdom enters into your heart[t] and knowledge itself becomes pleasant to your very soul,[u] 11 thinking ability itself will keep guard over you,[v] discernment itself will safeguard you,[w] 12 to deliver you from the bad way,[x] from the man speaking perverse things,[y] 13 from those leaving the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness,[z] 14 from those who are rejoicing in doing bad,[a] who are joyful in the perverse things of badness;[b] 15 those whose paths are crooked and who are devious in their general course;[c] 16 to deliver you from the strange woman, from the foreign woman[d] who has made her own sayings smooth,[e] 17 who is leaving the confidential friend of her youth[f] and who has forgotten the very covenant of her God.[g] 18 For down to death her house does sink and down to those impotent in death her tracks.[h] 19 None of those having relations with her will come back, nor will they regain the paths of those living.[i]

20 The purpose is that you may walk in the way of good people[j] and that the paths of the righteous ones you may keep.[k] 21 For the upright are the ones that will reside in the earth,[l] and the blameless are the ones that will be left over in it.[m] 22 As regards the wicked, they will be cut off from the very earth;[n] and as for the treacherous, they will be torn away from it.[o]

3 My son, my law do not forget,[p] and my commandments may your heart observe,[q] 2 because length of days and years of life[r] and peace will be added to you.[s] 3 May loving-kindness and trueness themselves not leave you.[t] Tie them about your throat.[u] Write them upon the tablet of your heart,[v] 4 and so find favor and good insight in the eyes of God and of earthling man.[w] 5 Trust in Jehovah with all your heart[x] and do not lean upon your own understanding.[y] 6 In all your ways take notice of him,[z] and he himself will make your paths straight.[a]

7 Do not become wise in your own eyes.[b] Fear Jehovah and turn away from bad.[c] 8 May it become a healing[d] to your navel and a refreshment to your bones.[a]

9 Honor Jehovah with your valuable things[b] and with the firstfruits of all your produce.[c] 10 Then your stores of supply will be filled with plenty;[d] and with new wine your own press vats will overflow.[e]

11 The discipline of Jehovah, O my son, do not reject;[f] and do not abhor his reproof,[g] 12 because the one whom Jehovah loves he reproves,[h] even as a father does a son in whom he finds pleasure.[i]

13 Happy is the man that has found wisdom,[j] and the man that gets discernment,[k] 14 for having it as gain is better than having silver as gain and having it as produce than gold[l] itself. 15 It is more precious than corals,[m] and all other delights of yours cannot be made equal to it. 16 Length of days is in its right hand;[n] in its left hand there are riches and glory.[o] 17 Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its roadways are peace.[p] 18 It is a tree of life[q] to those taking hold of it, and those keeping fast hold of it[r] are to be called happy.[s]

19 Jehovah himself in wisdom founded the earth.[t] He solidly fixed the heavens in discernment.[u] 20 By his knowledge the watery deeps themselves were split apart,[v] and the cloudy skies keep dripping down light rain.[w] 21 My son, may they not get away from your eyes.[x] Safeguard practical wisdom and thinking ability,[y] 22 and they will prove to be life to your soul[z] and charm to your throat.[a] 23 In that case you will walk in security[a] on your way, and even your foot will not strike against anything.[b] 24 Whenever you lie down you will feel no dread;[c] and you will certainly lie down, and your sleep must be pleasurable.[d] 25 You will not need to be afraid of any sudden dreadful thing,[e] nor of the storm upon the wicked ones, because it is coming.[f] 26 For Jehovah himself will prove to be, in effect, your confidence,[g] and he will certainly keep your foot against capture.[h]

27 Do not hold back good from those to whom it is owing,[i] when it happens to be in the power of your hand to do [it].[j] 28 Do not say to your fellowman: "Go, and come back and tomorrow I shall give," when there is something with you.[k] 29 Do not fabricate against your fellowman anything bad,[l] when he is dwelling in a sense of security with you.[m] 30 Do not quarrel with a man without cause,[n] if he has rendered no bad to you.[o]

31 Do not become envious of the man of violence,[p] nor choose any of his ways.[q] 32 For the devious[r] person is a detestable thing to Jehovah,[s] but His intimacy is with the upright ones.[t] 33 The curse of Jehovah is on the house of the wicked one,[u] but the abiding place of the righteous ones he blesses.[v] 34 If it has to do with ridiculers,[w] he himself will deride;[x] but to the meek ones he will show favor.[y] 35 Honor is what the wise ones will come to possess,[z] but the stupid ones are exalting dishonor.[a]

4 Listen, O sons, to the discipline of a father[b] and pay attention, so as to know understanding.[c] 2 For good instruction is what I certainly shall give to you.[d] My law DO not leave.[e] 3 For I proved to be a real son to my father,[f] tender and the only one before my mother.[a] 4 And he would instruct me[b] and say to me: "May your heart[c] keep fast hold of my words.[d] Keep my commandments and continue living.[e] 5 Acquire wisdom,[f] acquire understanding.[g] Do not forget, and do not turn aside from the sayings of my mouth.[h] 6 Do not leave it, and it will keep you. Love it, and it will safeguard you. 7 Wisdom is the prime thing.[i] Acquire wisdom; and with all that you acquire, acquire understanding.[j] 8 Highly esteem it, and it will exalt you.[k] It will glorify you because you embrace it.[l] 9 To your head it will give a wreath of charm;[m] a crown of beauty it will bestow upon you."[n]

10 Hear, my son, and accept my sayings.[o] Then for you the years of life will become many.[p] 11 I will instruct you even in the way of wisdom;[q] I will cause you to tread in the tracks of uprightness.[r] 12 When you walk, your pace will not be cramped;[s] and if you run, you will not stumble.[t] 13 Take hold on discipline;[u] do not let go.[v] Safeguard it, for it itself is your life.[w]

14 Into the path of the wicked ones do not enter,[x] and do not walk straight on into the way of the bad ones.[y] 15 Shun it,[z] do not pass along by it;[a] turn aside from it, and pass along.[b] 16 For they do not sleep unless they do badness,[c] and their sleep has been snatched away unless they cause someone to stumble.[d] 17 For they have fed themselves with the bread of wickedness,[a] and the wine of acts of violence is what they drink.[b] 18 But the path of the righteous ones is like the bright light that is getting lighter and lighter until the day is firmly established.[c] 19 The way of the wicked ones is like the gloom;[d] they have not known at what they keep stumbling.[e]

20 My son, to my words do pay attention.[f] To my sayings incline your ear.[g] 21 May they not get away from your eyes.[h] Keep them in the midst of your heart.[i] 22 For they are life to those finding them[j] and health to all their flesh.[k] 23 More than all else that is to be guarded, safeguard your heart,[l] for out of it are the sources of life.[m] 24 Remove from yourself the crookedness of speech;[n] and the deviousness of lips put far away from yourself.[o] 25 As for your eyes, straight ahead they should look,[p] yes, your own beaming eyes should gaze straight in front of you.[q] 26 Smooth out the course of your foot,[r] and may all your own ways be firmly established.[s] 27 Do not incline to the right hand or to the left.[t] Remove your foot from what is bad.[u]

5 My son, to my wisdom O do pay attention.[v] To my discernment incline your ears,[w] 2 so as to guard thinking abilities;[x] and may your own lips safeguard knowledge itself.[y]

3 For as a honeycomb the lips of a strange woman keep dripping,[z] and her palate is smoother than oil.[a] 4 But the aftereffect from her is as bitter as wormwood;[b] it is as sharp as a two-edged sword.[c] 5 Her feet are descending to death.[d] Her very steps take hold on She'ol itself.[e] 6 The path of life she does not contemplate.[f] Her tracks have wandered she does not know [where].[g] 7 So now, O sons, listen to me[h] and do not turn away from the sayings of my mouth.[a] 8 Keep your way far off from alongside her, and do not get near to the entrance of her house,[b] 9 that you may not give to others your dignity,[c] nor your years to what is cruel;[d] 10 that strangers may not satisfy themselves with your power,[e] nor the things you got by pain be in the house of a foreigner,[f] 11 nor you have to groan in your future[g] when your flesh and your organism come to an end.[h] 12 And you will have to say: "How I have hated discipline[i] and my heart has disrespected even reproof![j] 13 And I have not listened to the voice of my instructors,[k] and to my teachers I have not inclined my ear.[l] 14 Easily I have come to be in every sort of badness[m] in the midst of the congregation and of the assembly."[n]

15 Drink water out of your own cistern, and tricklings out of the midst of your own well.[o] 16 Should your springs be scattered out of doors,[p] [your] streams of water in the public squares themselves? 17 Let them prove to be for you alone, and not for strangers with you.[q] 18 Let your water source prove to be blessed,[r] and rejoice with the wife of your youth,[s] 19 a lovable hind and a charming mountain goat.[t] Let her own breasts intoxicate you at all times.[u] With her love may you be in an ecstasy constantly.[v] 20 So why should you, my son, be in an ecstasy with a strange woman or embrace the bosom of a foreign woman?[w] 21 For the ways of man are in front of the eyes of Jehovah,[x]

and he is contemplating all his tracks.[a] 22 His own errors will catch the wicked one,[b] and in the ropes of his own sin he will be taken hold of.[c] 23 He will be the one to die because there is no discipline,[d] and [because] in the abundance of his foolishness he goes astray.[e]

6 My son, if you have gone surety for your fellowman,[f] [if] you have given your handshake even to the stranger,[g] 2 [if] you have been ensnared by the sayings of your mouth,[h] [if] you have been caught by the sayings of your mouth, 3 take this action then, my son, and deliver yourself, for you have come into the palm of your fellowman:[i] Go humble yourself and storm your fellowman with importunities.[j] 4 Do not give any sleep to your eyes, nor any slumber to your beaming eyes.[k] 5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand and like a bird from the hand of the birdcatcher.[l]

6 Go to the ant,[m] you lazy one;[n] see its ways and become wise. 7 Although it has no commander, officer or ruler, 8 it prepares its food even in the summer;[o] it has gathered its food supplies even in the harvest. 9 How long, you lazy one, will you keep lying down?[p] When will you rise up from your sleep?[q] 10 A little more sleep, a little more slumbering, a little more folding of the hands in lying down,[r] 11 and your poverty will certainly come just like some rover,[s] and your want like an armed man.[t]

12 A good-for-nothing man,[u] a man of hurtfulness, is walking with crookedness of speech,[v] 13 winking with his eye,[w] making signs with his foot, making indications with his fingers.[x] 14 Perverseness is in his heart.[y] He is fabricating something bad all the time.[z] He keeps sending out merely contentions.[a] 15 That is why suddenly there will come his disaster;[a] in an instant he will be broken, and there will be no healing.[b]

16 There are six things that Jehovah does hate;[c] yes, seven are things detestable to his soul:[d] 17 lofty eyes,[e] a false tongue,[f] and hands that are shedding innocent blood,[g] 18 a heart fabricating hurtful schemes,[h] feet that are in a hurry to run to badness,[i] 19 a false witness that launches forth lies,[j] and anyone sending forth contentions among brothers.[k]

20 Observe, O my son, the commandment of your father,[l] and do not forsake the law of your mother.[m] 21 Tie them upon your heart constantly;[n] bind them upon your throat.[o] 22 When you walk about, it will lead you;[p] when you lie down, it will stand guard over you;[q] and when you have waked up, it itself will make you its concern. 23 For the commandment is a lamp,[r] and a light the law is,[s] and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life,[t] 24 to guard you against the bad woman,[u] against the smoothness of the tongue of the foreign woman.[v] 25 Do not desire her prettiness in your heart,[w] and may she not take you with her lustrous eyes,[x] 26 because in behalf of a woman prostitute [one comes down] to a round loaf of bread;[y] but as regards another man's wife, she hunts even for a precious soul.[z] 27 Can a man rake together fire into his bosom and yet his very garments not be burned?[a] 28 Or can a man walk upon the coals and his feet themselves not be scorched? 29 Likewise with anyone having relations with the wife of his fellowman,[a] no one touching her will remain unpunishable.[b] 30 People do not despise a thief just because he commits thievery to fill his soul when he is hungry. 31 But, when found, he will make it good with seven times as much; all the valuables of his house he will give.[c] 32 Anyone committing adultery with a woman is in want of heart;[d] he that does it is bringing his own soul to ruin.[e] 33 A plague and dishonor he will find,[f] and his reproach itself will not be wiped out.[g] 34 For the rage of an able-bodied man is jealousy,[h] and he will not show compassion in the day of vengeance.[i] 35 He will have no consideration for any sort of ransom, neither will he show willingness, no matter how large you make the present.

7 My son, keep my sayings,[j] and may you treasure up my own commandments with you.[k] 2 Keep my commandments and continue living,[l] and my law like the pupil[m] of your eyes. 3 Tie them upon your fingers,[n] and write them upon the tablet of your heart.[o] 4 Say to wisdom:[p] "You are my sister"; and may you call understanding itself "Kinswoman," 5 to guard you against the woman stranger,[q] against the foreigner who has made her own sayings smooth.[r] 6 For at the window of my house, through my lattice[s] I looked down, 7 that I might peer upon the inexperienced ones.[t] I was interested in discerning among the sons a young man in want of heart,[u] 8 passing along on the street near her corner, and in the way to her house he marches,[v] 9 in the twilight, in the evening of the day,[w] at the approach of the night and the gloom. 10 And, look! there was a woman to meet him, with the garment of a prostitute[x] and cunning of heart. 11 She is boisterous and stubborn.[a] In her house her feet do not keep residing.[b] 12 Now she is outdoors, now she is in the public squares,[c] and near every corner she lies in wait.[d] 13 And she has grabbed hold of him and given him a kiss.[e] She has put on a bold face, and she begins to say to him:

14 "Communion sacrifices were incumbent upon me.[f] Today I have paid my vows.[g] 15 That is why I have come out to meet you, to look for your face, that I may find you. 16 With coverlets I have bedecked my divan, with many-colored things, linen of Egypt.[h] 17 I have besprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon.[i] 18 Do come, let us drink our fill of love until the morning; do let us enjoy each other with love expressions.[j] 19 For the husband is not in his house; he has gone traveling on a way of some distance.[k] 20 A bag of money he has taken in his hand. On the day of the full moon he will come to his house."

21 She has misled him by the abundance of her persuasiveness.[l] By the smoothness of her lips she seduces him.[m] 22 All of a sudden he is going after her,[n] like a bull that comes even to the slaughter, and just as if fettered for the discipline of a foolish man, 23 until an arrow cleaves open his liver,[o] just as a bird hastens into the trap,[p] and he has not known that it involves his very soul.[q]

24 And now, O sons, listen to me and pay attention to the sayings of my mouth.[r] 25 May your heart not turn aside to her ways. Do not wander into her roadways.[s] 26 For many are the ones she has caused to fall down slain,[t] and all those being killed by her are numerous.[u] 27 The ways to She′ol her house[v] is; they are descending to the interior rooms of death.[a]

8 Does not wisdom keep calling out,[b] and discernment keep giving forth its voice?[c] 2 On top of the heights,[d] by the way, at the crossing of the roadways it has stationed itself. 3 At the side of the gates, at the mouth of the town,[e] at the going in of the entrances it keeps crying loudly:[f]

4 "To you, O men, I am calling, and my voice is to the sons of men.[g] 5 O inexperienced ones, understand shrewdness;[h] and you stupid ones, understand heart.[i] 6 Listen, for it is about the foremost things that I speak,[j] and the opening of my lips is about uprightness.[k] 7 For my palate in low tones utters truth itself;[l] and wickedness is something detestable to my lips.[m] 8 All the sayings of my mouth are in righteousness.[n] Among them there is nothing twisted or crooked.[o] 9 All of them are straight to the discerning one, and upright to the ones finding knowledge.[p] 10 TAKE my discipline and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold.[q] 11 For wisdom is better than corals,[r] and all other delights themselves cannot be made equal to it.[s]

12 "I, wisdom, I have resided with shrewdness[t] and I find even the knowledge of thinking abilities.[u] 13 The fear of Jehovah means the hating of bad.[v] Self-exaltation and pride[w] and the bad way and the perverse mouth[x] I have hated. 14 I have counsel[y] and practical wisdom.[z] I—understanding;[a] I have mightiness.[b] 15 By me kings themselves keep reigning, and high officials themselves keep decreeing righteousness.[c] 16 By me princes themselves keep ruling as princes,[d] and nobles are all judging in righteousness.[e] 17 Those loving me I myself love,[f] and those looking for me are the ones that find me.[a] 18 Riches and glory are with me,[b] hereditary values and righteousness.[c] 19 My fruitage is better than gold, even than refined gold, and my produce than choice silver.[d] 20 In the path of righteousness I walk,[e] in the middle of the roadways of judgment,[f] 21 to cause those loving me to take possession of substance;[g] and their storehouses I keep filled.[h]

22 "Jehovah himself produced me as the beginning of his way,[i] the earliest of his achievements of long ago.[j] 23 From time indefinite I was installed,[k] from the start, from times earlier than the earth.[l] 24 When there were no watery deeps I was brought forth as with labor pains,[m] when there were no springs heavily charged with water. 25 Before the mountains themselves had been settled down,[n] ahead of the hills, I was brought forth as with labor pains, 26 when as yet he had not made the earth[o] and the open spaces and the first part of the dust masses of the productive land.[p] 27 When he prepared the heavens I was there;[q] when he decreed a circle upon the face of the watery deep,[r] 28 when he made firm the cloud masses above,[s] when he caused the fountains of the watery deep to be strong,[t] 29 when he set for the sea his decree that the waters themselves should not pass beyond his order,[u] when he decreed the foundations of the earth,[v] 30 then I came to be beside him as a master worker,[w] and I came to be the one he was specially fond[x] of day by day, I being glad before him all the time,[y] 31 being glad at the productive land of his earth,[z]

and the things I was fond of were with the sons of men.[a]

32 "And now, O sons, listen to me; yes, happy are the ones that keep my very ways.[b] 33 Listen to discipline and become wise,[c] and do not show any neglect.[d] 34 Happy is the man that is listening to me by keeping awake at my doors day by day, by watching at the posts of my entrances.[e] 35 For the one finding me will certainly find life,[f] and gets goodwill from Jehovah.[g] 36 But the one missing me is doing violence to his soul;[h] all those intensely hating me are the ones that do love death."[i]

9 True wisdom[j] has built its house;[k] it has hewn out its seven pillars. 2 It has organized its meat slaughtering; it has mixed its wine; more than that, it has set in order its table.[l] 3 It has sent forth its lady attendants, that it may call out on top of the heights of the town: 4 "Whoever is inexperienced, let him turn aside here."[m] Whoever is in want of heart[n]—she has said to him: 5 "Come, feed yourselves with my bread and share in drinking the wine that I have mixed.[o] 6 Leave the inexperienced ones and keep living,[p] and walk straight in the way of understanding."[q]

7 He that is correcting the ridiculer is taking to himself dishonor,[r] and he that is giving a reproof to someone wicked—a defect in him.[s] 8 Do not reprove a ridiculer, that he may not hate you.[t] Give a reproof to a wise person and he will love you.[u] 9 Give to a wise person and he will become still wiser.[v] Impart knowledge to someone righteous and he will increase in learning.

10 The fear of Jehovah is the start of wisdom,[w] and the knowledge of the Most Holy One is what understanding is.[a] 11 For by me your days will become many,[b] and to you years of life will be added.[c] 12 If you have become wise, you have become wise in your own behalf;[d] and if you have ridiculed, you will bear [it], just you alone.[e]

13 A woman of stupidity is boisterous.[f] She is simplemindedness itself and has come to know nothing whatever.[g] 14 And she has seated herself at the entrance of her house, upon a seat, [in] the high places of the town,[h] 15 to call out to those passing along the way, those who are going straight ahead on their paths:[i] 16 "Whoever is inexperienced, let him turn aside here."[j] And whoever is in want of heart[k]—she has also said to him: 17 "Stolen waters themselves are sweet,[l] and bread [eaten] in secrecy—it is pleasant."[m] 18 But he has not come to know that those impotent in death are there, that those called in by her are in the low places of She'ol.[n]

10 Proverbs of Sol'o·mon.[o]

A wise son is the one that makes a father rejoice,[p] and a stupid son is the grief of his mother.[q] 2 The treasures of the wicked one will be of no benefit,[r] but righteousness is what will deliver from death.[s] 3 Jehovah will not cause the soul of the righteous one to go hungry,[t] but the craving of the wicked ones he will push away.[u]

4 The one working with a slack hand will be of little means,[v] but the hand of the diligent one is what will make one rich.[w]

5 The son acting with insight is gathering during the summertime; the son acting shamefully is fast asleep during the harvest.[a]

6 Blessings are for the head of the righteous one,[b] but as regards the mouth of the wicked ones, it covers up violence.[c] 7 The remembrance of the righteous one is due for a blessing,[d] but the very name of the wicked ones will rot.[e]

8 The one wise in heart will accept commandments,[f] but the one foolish with his lips will be trodden down.[g]

9 He that is walking in integrity will walk in security,[h] but he that is making his ways crooked will make himself known.[i]

10 The one winking his eye will give pain,[j] and the one foolish with his lips will be trodden down.[k] 11 The mouth of the righteous one is a source of life;[l] but as regards the mouth of the wicked ones, it covers up violence.[m]

12 Hatred is what stirs up contentions,[n] but love covers over even all transgressions.[o]

13 On the lips of the understanding person wisdom is found,[p] but the rod is for the back of one in want of heart.[q]

14 The wise are the ones that treasure up knowledge,[r] but the mouth of the foolish one is near to ruin itself.[s]

15 The valuable things of a rich man are his strong town.[t] The ruin of the lowly ones is their poverty.[u]

16 The activity of the righteous one results in life;[v] the produce of the wicked one results in sin.[w]

17 He that is holding to discipline is a path to life,[x] but he that is leaving reproof is causing to wander.[y]

18 Where there is one covering over hatred there are lips of falsehood,[z] and the one bringing forth a bad report is stupid.[a]

19 In the abundance of words there does not fail to be transgression,[b] but the one keeping his lips in check is acting discreetly.[a]

20 The tongue of the righteous one is choice silver;[b] the heart of the wicked one is worth little.[c]

21 The very lips of the righteous one keep pasturing many,[d] but for want of heart the foolish themselves keep dying.[e]

22 The blessing of Jehovah—that is what makes rich,[f] and he adds no pain with it.[g]

23 To the stupid one the carrying on of loose conduct is like sport,[h] but wisdom is for the man of discernment.[i]

24 The thing frightful to the wicked one—that is what will come to him;[j] but the desire of the righteous ones will be granted.[k] 25 As when the storm wind passes over, so the wicked one is no more;[l] but the righteous one is a foundation to time indefinite.[m]

26 As vinegar to the teeth and as smoke to the eyes, so the lazy man is to those sending him forth.[n]

27 The very fear of Jehovah will add days,[o] but the years themselves of the wicked ones will be cut short.[p]

28 The expectation of the righteous ones is a rejoicing,[q] but the very hope of the wicked ones will perish.[r]

29 The way of Jehovah is a stronghold for the blameless[s] one, but ruin is for the practicers of what is hurtful.[t]

30 As for the righteous one, to time indefinite he will not be caused to stagger;[u] but as for the wicked ones, they will not keep residing on the earth.[v]

teous one—it bears the fruit of wisdom,[a] but the tongue of perverseness will be cut off.[b]

32 The lips of the righteous one—they come to know goodwill,[c] but the mouth of the wicked ones is perverseness.[d]

11 A cheating pair of scales is something detestable to Jehovah,[e] but a complete stone-weight is a pleasure to him.

2 Has presumptuousness come? Then dishonor will come;[f] but wisdom is with the modest ones.[g]

3 The integrity of the upright ones is what leads them,[h] but distortion by those dealing treacherously will despoil them.[i]

4 Valuable things will be of no benefit on the day of fury,[j] but righteousness itself will deliver from death.[k]

5 The righteousness of the blameless one is what will make his way straight,[l] but in his own wickedness the wicked one will fall.[m] 6 The righteousness of the upright ones is what will deliver them,[n] but by their craving those dealing treacherously will themselves be caught.[o]

7 When a wicked man dies, [his] hope perishes;[p] and even expectation [based] on powerfulness has perished.[q]

8 The righteous is the one rescued even from distress,[r] and the wicked one comes in instead of him.[s]

9 By [his] mouth the one who is an apostate brings his fellowman to ruin,[t] but by knowledge are the righteous rescued.[u]

10 Because of the goodness of the righteous ones a town is elated,[v] but when the wicked ones perish there is a joyful cry.[w]

11 Because of the blessing of the upright ones a town is exalted,[x] but because of the mouth of the wicked ones it gets torn down.[y]

12 The one in want of heart has despised his own fellowman,[a] but the man of broad discernment is one that keeps silent.[b]

13 The one walking about as a slanderer[c] is uncovering confidential talk,[d] but the one faithful in spirit is covering over a matter.[e]

14 When there is no skillful direction, the people fall;[f] but there is salvation in the multitude of counselors.[g]

15 One will positively fare badly because he has gone surety for a stranger,[h] but the one hating handshaking is keeping carefree.

16 A woman of charm is the one that takes hold of glory;[i] but the tyrants, for their part, take hold of riches.

17 A man of loving-kindness is dealing rewardingly with his own soul,[j] but the cruel person is bringing ostracism upon his own organism.[k]

18 The wicked one is making false wages,[l] but the one sowing righteousness, true earnings.[m]

19 The one firmly standing for righteousness is in line for life,[n] but the one chasing after what is bad is in line for his own death.[o]

20 Those crooked at heart are something detestable to Jehovah,[p] but the ones blameless in [their] way are a pleasure to him.[q]

21 Though hand be to hand, a bad person will not go unpunished;[r] but the offspring of the righteous ones will certainly escape.[s]

22 As a gold nose ring in the snout of a pig, so is a woman that is pretty but that is turning away from sensibleness.[t]

23 The desire of the righteous ones is surely good;[a] the hope of the wicked ones is fury.[b]

24 There exists the one that is scattering and yet is being increased;[c] also the one that is keeping back from what is right, but it results only in want.[d]

25 The generous soul will itself be made fat,[e] and the one freely watering [others] will himself also be freely watered.[f]

26 The one holding back grain—the populace will execrate him, but there is a blessing for the head of the one letting it be bought.[g]

27 He that is looking for good will keep seeking goodwill;[h] but as for the one searching for bad, it will come upon him.[i]

28 The one trusting in his riches—he himself will fall;[j] but just like foliage the righteous ones will flourish.[k]

29 As for anyone bringing ostracism upon his own house,[l] he will take possession of wind;[m] and a foolish person will be a servant to the one wise in heart.

30 The fruitage of the righteous one is a tree of life,[n] and he that is winning souls is wise.[o]

31 Look! The righteous one—in the earth he will be rewarded.[p] How much more should the wicked one and the sinner be![q]

12 A lover of discipline is a lover of knowledge,[r] but a hater of reproof is unreasoning.[s]

2 One that is good gets approval from Jehovah,[t] but the man of [wicked] ideas he pronounces wicked.[u]

3 No man will be firmly established by wickedness;[v] but as for the root-foundation of the righteous ones, it will not be caused to stagger.[w]

4 A capable wife is a crown to her owner,[x] but as rottenness in his bones is she that acts shamefully.[y]

5 The thoughts of the righteous ones are judgment;[z] the steering by the wicked ones is deception.[a]

6 The words of the wicked ones are a lying in wait for blood,[b] but the mouth of the upright ones is what will deliver them.[c]

7 There is an overthrowing of the wicked ones and they are no more,[d] but the very house of the righteous ones will keep standing.[e]

8 For his mouth of discretion a man will be praised,[f] but one who is twisted at heart will come to be for contempt.[g]

9 Better is the one lightly esteemed but having a servant than the one glorifying himself but in want of bread.[h]

10 The righteous one is caring for the soul of his domestic animal,[i] but the mercies of the wicked ones are cruel.[j]

11 The one cultivating his ground will himself be satisfied with bread,[k] but the one pursuing valueless things is in want of heart.[l]

12 The wicked one has desired the netted prey of bad men;[m] but as for the root of the righteous ones, it yields.[n]

13 By the transgression of the lips the bad person is ensnared,[o] but the righteous one gets out of distress.[p]

14 From the fruitage of a man's mouth he is satisfied with good,[q] and the very doing of a man's hands will come back to him.[r]

15 The way of the foolish one is right in his own eyes,[s] but the one listening to counsel is wise.[t]

the [same] day,[a] but the shrewd one is covering over a dishonor.[b]

17 He that launches forth faithfulness will tell what is righteous,[c] but a false witness, deception.[d]

18 There exists the one speaking thoughtlessly as with the stabs of a sword,[e] but the tongue of the wise ones is a healing.[f]

19 It is the lip of truth[g] that will be firmly established forever,[h] but the tongue of falsehood will be only as long as a moment.[i]

20 Deception is in the heart of those fabricating mischief,[j] but those counseling peace have rejoicing.[k]

21 Nothing hurtful will befall the righteous one,[l] but the wicked are the ones that will certainly be filled with calamity.[m]

22 False lips are something detestable to Jehovah,[n] but those acting in faithfulness are a pleasure to him.[o]

23 A shrewd man is covering knowledge,[p] but the heart of the stupid ones is one that calls out foolishness.[q]

24 The hand of the diligent ones is the one that will rule,[r] but the slack hand will come to be for forced labor.[s]

25 Anxious care in the heart of a man is what will cause it to bow down,[t] but the good word is what makes it rejoice.[u]

26 The righteous one spies out his own pasturage, but the very way of wicked ones causes them to wander about.[v]

27 Slackness will not start up one's game animals,[w] but the diligent one is a man's precious wealth.

28 In the path of righteousness there is life,[x] and the journey in its pathway means no death.[y]

13 A son is wise where there is a father's discipline,[z] but the ridiculer is one that has not heard rebuke.[a]

2 From the fruitage of his mouth a man will eat good,[a] but the very soul of those dealing treacherously is violence.[b]

3 The one guarding his mouth is keeping his soul.[c] The one opening wide his lips—he will have ruin.[d]

4 The lazy one is showing himself desirous, but his soul [has] nothing.[e] However, the very soul of the diligent ones will be made fat.[f]

5 A false word is what the righteous hates,[g] but the wicked ones act shamefully and cause disgrace for themselves.[h]

6 Righteousness itself safeguards the one who is harmless in his way,[i] but wickedness is what subverts the sinner.[j]

7 There exists the one that is pretending to be rich and yet he has nothing at all;[k] there is the one that is pretending to be of little means and yet [he has] many valuable things.

8 The ransom for a man's soul is his riches,[l] but the one of little means has not heard rebuke.[m]

9 The very light of the righteous ones will rejoice;[n] but the lamp of the wicked ones—it will be extinguished.[o]

10 By presumptuousness one only causes a struggle,[p] but with those consulting together there is wisdom.[q]

11 Valuable things resulting from vanity become fewer,[r] but the one collecting by the hand is the one that makes increase.[s]

12 Expectation postponed is making the heart sick,[t] but the thing desired is a tree of life when it does come.[u] is the one that will be rewarded.[a]

14 The law of the wise one is a source of life,[b] to turn one away from the snares of death.[c]

15 Good insight itself gives favor,[d] but the way of those dealing treacherously is rugged.[e]

16 Everyone shrewd will act with knowledge,[f] but the one that is stupid will spread abroad foolishness.[g]

17 A messenger that is wicked will fall into bad,[h] but a faithful envoy is a healing.[i]

18 The one neglecting discipline [comes to] poverty and dishonor,[j] but the one keeping a reproof is the one that is glorified.[k]

19 Desire when realized is pleasurable to the soul;[l] but it is something detestable to the stupid ones to turn away from bad.[m]

20 He that is walking with wise persons will become wise,[n] but he that is having dealings with the stupid ones will fare badly.[o]

21 Sinners are the ones whom calamity pursues,[p] but the righteous are the ones whom good rewards.[q]

22 One who is good will leave an inheritance to sons of sons, and the wealth of the sinner is something treasured up for the righteous one.[r]

23 Plowed ground of persons of little means [yields] a great deal of food,[s] but there exists the one that is swept away for lack of judgment.[t]

24 The one holding back his rod is hating his son,[u] but the one loving him is he that does look for him with discipline.[v]

25 The righteous is eating to the satisfaction of his soul,[w] but the belly of the wicked ones will be empty.[x]

14 The truly wise woman has built up her house,[y] but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.[z]

2 The one walking in his uprightness is fearing Jehovah,[a] but the one crooked in his ways is despising Him.[b]

3 The rod of haughtiness is in the mouth of the foolish one,[c] but the very lips of the wise ones will guard them.[d]

4 Where there are no cattle the manger is clean, but the crop is abundant because of the power of a bull.

5 A faithful witness is one that will not lie,[e] but a false witness launches forth mere lies.[f]

6 The ridiculer has sought to find wisdom, and there is none; but to the understanding one knowledge is an easy thing.[g]

7 Go away from in front of the stupid man,[h] for you will certainly not take note of the lips of knowledge.[i]

8 The wisdom of the shrewd is to understand his way,[j] but the foolishness of stupid ones is deception.[k]

9 Foolish are those who make a derision of guilt,[l] but among the upright ones there is agreement.[m]

10 The heart is aware of the bitterness of one's soul,[n] and with its rejoicing no stranger will intermeddle.

11 The house of wicked people will be annihilated,[o] but the tent of the upright ones will flourish.[p]

12 There exists a way that is upright before a man,[q] but the ways of death are the end of it afterward.[r]

13 Even in laughter the heart may be in pain;[s] and grief is what rejoicing ends up in.[t]

14 The one faithless at heart will be satisfied with the results of his own ways,[u] but the good man with the results of his dealings.[v]

puts faith in every word,[a] but the shrewd one considers his steps.[b]

16 The wise one fears and is turning away from badness,[c] but the stupid is becoming furious and self-confident.[d]

17 He that is quick to anger will commit foolishness,[e] but the man of thinking abilities is hated.[f]

18 The inexperienced ones will certainly take possession of foolishness,[g] but the shrewd ones will bear knowledge as a headdress.[h]

19 Bad people will have to bow down before the good ones,[i] and the wicked people at the gates of the righteous one.

20 Even to his fellowman one who is of little means is an object of hatred,[j] but many are the friends of the rich person.[k]

21 The one despising his own fellowman is sinning,[l] but happy is he who is showing favor to the afflicted ones.[m]

22 Will not those devising mischief go wandering about?[n] But there are loving-kindness and trueness as regards those devising good.[o]

23 By every kind of toil there comes to be an advantage,[p] but merely the word of the lips [tends] to want.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches; the foolishness of the stupid ones is foolishness.[q]

25 A true witness is delivering souls,[r] but a deceitful one launches forth mere lies.[s]

26 In the fear of Jehovah there is strong confidence,[t] and for his sons there will come to be a refuge.[u]

27 The fear of Jehovah is a well of life,[v] to turn away from the snares of death.[w]

28 In the multitude of people there is an adornment of a king,[x] but in the lack of population is the ruin of a high official.[y]

29 He that is slow to anger is abundant in discernment,[z] but one that is impatient is exalting foolishness.[a]

30 A calm heart is the life of the fleshly organism,[b] but jealousy is rottenness to the bones.[c]

31 He that is defrauding the lowly one has reproached his Maker,[d] but the one showing favor to the poor one is glorifying Him.[e]

32 Because of his badness the wicked will be pushed down,[f] but the righteous will be finding refuge in his integrity.[g]

33 In the heart of the understanding one there rests wisdom,[h] and in the midst of stupid ones it becomes known.

34 Righteousness is what exalts a nation,[i] but sin is something disgraceful to national groups.[j]

35 The pleasure of a king is in the servant who is acting with insight,[k] but his fury comes to be toward one acting shamefully.[l]

15 An answer, when mild, turns away rage,[m] but a word causing pain makes anger to come up.[n]

2 The tongue of wise ones does good with knowledge,[o] but the mouth of the stupid ones bubbles forth with foolishness.[p]

3 The eyes of Jehovah are in every place,[q] keeping watch upon the bad ones and the good ones.[r]

4 The calmness of the tongue is a tree of life,[s] but distortion in it means a breaking down in the spirit.[t]

5 Anyone foolish disrespects the discipline of his father,[u] but anyone regarding reproof is shrewd.[v]

6 In the house of the righteous one there is an abundant store,[w] but in the produce of the wicked one there is a becoming ostracized.[a]

7 The lips of the wise ones keep scattering knowledge about,[b] but the heart of the stupid ones is not like that.[c]

8 The sacrifice of the wicked ones is something detestable to Jehovah,[d] but the prayer of the upright ones is a pleasure to him.[e]

9 The way of the wicked one is something detestable to Jehovah,[f] but the one pursuing righteousness he loves.[g]

10 Discipline is bad to the one leaving the path;[h] anyone hating reproof will die.[i]

11 She'ol and [the place of] destruction[j] are in front of Jehovah.[k] How much more so the hearts of the sons of mankind![l]

12 The ridiculer does not love the one reproving him.[m] To the wise ones he will not go.[n]

13 A joyful heart has a good effect on the countenance,[o] but because of the pain of the heart there is a stricken spirit.[p]

14 The understanding heart is one that searches for knowledge,[q] but the mouth of stupid people is one that aspires to foolishness.[r]

15 All the days of the afflicted one are bad;[s] but the one that is good at heart [has] a feast constantly.[t]

16 Better is a little in the fear of Jehovah[u] than an abundant supply and confusion along with it.[v]

17 Better is a dish of vegetables where there is love[w] than a manger-fed bull and hatred along with it.[x]

18 An enraged man stirs up contention,[y] but one that is slow to anger quiets down quarreling.[z]

19 The way of the lazy one is like a brier hedge,[a] but the path of the upright ones is a way cast up.[b]

20 A wise son is the one that makes a father rejoice,[c] but a stupid man is despising his mother.[a]

21 Foolishness is a rejoicing to one who is in want of heart,[b] but the man of discernment is one who goes straight ahead.[c]

22 There is a frustrating of plans where there is no confidential talk,[d] but in the multitude of counselors there is accomplishment.[e]

23 A man has rejoicing in the answer of his mouth,[f] and a word at its right time is O how good![g]

24 The path of life is upward to one acting with insight,[h] in order to turn away from She'ol down below.[i]

25 The house of the self-exalted ones Jehovah will tear down,[j] but he will fix the boundary of the widow.[k]

26 The schemes of the bad one are something detestable to Jehovah,[l] but pleasant sayings are clean.[m]

27 The one making unjust profit is bringing ostracism upon his own house,[n] but the hater of gifts is the one that will keep living.[o]

28 The heart of the righteous one meditates so as to answer,[p] but the mouth of the wicked ones bubbles forth with bad things.[q]

29 Jehovah is far away from the wicked ones,[r] but the prayer of the righteous ones he hears.[s]

30 The brightness of the eyes[t] makes the heart rejoice;[u] a report[v] that is good makes the bones fat.[w]

pline[a] is rejecting his own soul, but the one listening to reproof is acquiring heart.[b]

33 The fear of Jehovah is a discipline toward wisdom,[c] and before glory there is humility.[d]

16 To earthling man belong the arrangings of the heart,[e] but from Jehovah is the answer of the tongue.[f]

2 All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes,[g] but Jehovah is making an estimate of spirits.[h]

3 Roll your works upon Jehovah himself[i] and your plans will be firmly established.[j]

4 Everything Jehovah has made for his purpose,[k] yes, even the wicked one for the evil day.[l]

5 Everyone that is proud in heart is something detestable to Jehovah.[m] Hand [may join] to hand, [yet] one will not be free from punishment.[n]

6 By loving-kindness and trueness error is atoned for,[o] and in the fear of Jehovah one turns away from bad.[p]

7 When Jehovah takes pleasure in the ways of a man[q] he causes even his enemies themselves to be at peace with him.[r]

8 Better is a little with righteousness[s] than an abundance of products without justice.[t]

9 The heart of earthling man may think out his way,[u] but Jehovah himself does the directing of his steps.[v]

10 Inspired decision should be upon the lips of a king;[w] in judgment his mouth should not prove unfaithful.[x]

11 The just indicator and scales belong to Jehovah;[y] all the stone weights of the bag are his work.[z]

12 The doing of wickedness is something detestable to kings,[a] for by righteousness is the throne firmly established.[b]

13 The lips of righteousness are a pleasure to a grand king;[c] and the speaker of upright things he loves.[d]

14 The rage of a king means messengers of death,[a] but the wise man is one that averts it.[b]

15 In the light of the king's face there is life,[c] and his goodwill is like the cloud of spring rain.[d]

16 The getting of wisdom is O how much better than gold![e] And the getting of understanding is to be chosen more than silver.[f]

17 The highway of the upright ones is to turn away from bad.[g] One who is safeguarding his way is keeping his soul.[h]

18 Pride is before a crash,[i] and a haughty spirit before stumbling.[j]

19 Better is it to be lowly in spirit with the meek ones[k] than to divide spoil with the self-exalted ones.[l]

20 He that is showing insight in a matter will find good,[m] and happy is he that is trusting in Jehovah.[n] ways of death are the end of it afterward.[a]

26 The soul of the hard worker has worked hard for him,[b] because his mouth has pressed him hard.[c]

27 A good-for-nothing man is digging up what is bad,[d] and upon his lips there is, as it were, a scorching fire.[e]

28 A man of intrigues keeps sending forth contention,[f] and a slanderer is separating those familiar with one another.[g]

29 A man of violence will seduce his fellow,[h] and certainly causes him to go in a way that is not good.[i] 30 He is blinking with his eyes to scheme up intrigues.[j] Pinching his lips together, he certainly brings mischief to completion.

31 Gray-headedness is a crown of beauty[k] when it is found in the way of righteousness.[l]

32 He that is slow to anger is better than a mighty man,[m] and he that is controlling his spirit than the one capturing a city.[n]

33 Into the lap the lot is cast down,[o] but every decision by it is from Jehovah.[p]

17 Better is a dry piece of bread with which there is quietness[q] than a house full of the sacrifices of quarreling.[r]

2 A servant that is showing insight will rule over the son who is acting shamefully,[s] and in among the brothers he will have a share of the inheritance.[t]

3 The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,[u] but Jehovah is the examiner of hearts.[v]

4 The evildoer is paying attention to the lip of hurtfulness.[w] A falsifier is giving ear to the tongue causing adversities.[x]

5 He that is holding the one of little means in derision has reproached his Maker.[y] He that is joyful at [another's] disaster will not be free from punishment.[z]

6 The crown of old men is the grandsons,[a] and the beauty of sons is their fathers.[b]

7 For anyone senseless the lip of uprightness is not fitting.[c] How much less so for a noble the lip of falsehood![d]

8 The gift is a stone winning favor in the eyes of its grand owner.[e] Everywhere that he turns he has success.[f]

9 The one covering over transgression is seeking love,[g] and he that keeps talking about a matter is separating those familiar with one another.[h]

10 A rebuke works deeper in one having understanding[i] than striking a stupid one a hundred times.[j]

11 Only rebellion is what the bad one keeps seeking,[k] and cruel is the messenger that is sent against him.[l]

12 Let there be an encountering by a man of a bear bereaved of its cubs[m] rather than anyone stupid in his foolishness.[n]

13 As for anyone repaying bad for good,[o] bad will not move away from his house.[p]

14 The beginning of contention is as one letting out waters;[q] so before the quarrel has burst forth, take your leave.[r]

15 Anyone pronouncing the wicked one righteous[s] and anyone pronouncing the righteous one wicked[t]—even both of them are something detestable to Jehovah.[u]

16 Why is it that there is in the hand of a stupid one the price to acquire wisdom,[v] when he has no heart?[w]

17 A true companion is loving all the time,[x] and is a brother that is born for when there is distress.[a]

18 A man that is wanting in heart shakes hands,[b] going full surety before his companion.[c]

19 Anyone loving transgression is loving a struggle.[d] Anyone making his entryway high is seeking a crash.[e]

20 He that is crooked at heart will not find good,[f] and he that is turned around in his tongue will fall into calamity.[g]

21 Anyone becoming father to a stupid child—it is a grief to him;[h] and the father of a senseless child does not rejoice.[i]

22 A heart that is joyful does good as a curer,[j] but a spirit that is stricken makes the bones dry.[k]

23 One who is wicked will take even a bribe from the bosom[l] to bend the paths of judgment.[m]

24 Wisdom is before the face of the understanding one,[n] but the eyes of the stupid one are at the extremity of the earth.[o]

25 A stupid son is a vexation to his father[p] and a bitterness to her that gave him birth.[q]

26 Furthermore, the laying of a fine upon the righteous one is not good.[r] To strike nobles is against what is upright.[s]

27 Anyone holding back his sayings is possessed of knowledge,[t] and a man of discernment is cool of spirit.[u]

28 Even anyone foolish, when keeping silent, will be regarded as wise;[v] anyone closing up his own lips, as having understanding.

18 One isolating himself will seek [his own] selfish longing;[w] against all practical wisdom he will break forth.[x]

2 Anyone stupid finds no delight in discernment,[y] except that his heart should uncover itself.[z]

3 When a wicked one comes in, contempt also must come in;[a] and along with dishonor[b] there is reproach.

4 The words of a man's mouth are deep waters.[a] The well of wisdom is a torrent bubbling forth.[b]

5 The showing of partiality to the wicked one is not good,[c] nor the turning aside of the righteous one in judgment.[d]

6 The lips of one who is stupid enter into quarreling,[e] and his very mouth calls even for strokes.[f]

7 The mouth of the stupid one is the ruin of him,[g] and his lips are a snare for his soul.[h]

8 The words of the slanderer are like things to be swallowed greedily,[i] which do go down into the innermost parts of the belly.[j]

9 Also, the one showing himself slack in his work[k]—he is a brother to the one causing ruin.[l]

10 The name of Jehovah is a strong tower.[m] Into it the righteous runs and is given protection.[n]

11 The valuable things of the rich are his strong town,[o] and they are like a protective wall in his imagination.[p]

12 Before a crash the heart of a man is lofty,[q] and before glory there is humility.[r]

13 When anyone is replying to a matter before he hears [it],[s] that is foolishness on his part and a humiliation.[t]

14 The spirit of a man can put up with his malady;[u] but as for a stricken spirit, who can bear it?[v]

15 The heart of the understanding one acquires knowledge,[w] and the ear of wise ones seeks to find knowledge.[x]

16 A man's gift will make a large opening for him,[y] and it will lead him even before great people.[z]

17 The one first in his legal case is righteous;[a] his fellow comes in and certainly searches him through.[b]

18 The lot puts even contentions to rest,[c] and it separates even the mighty from one another.[d]

19 A brother who is transgressed against is more than a strong town;[e] and there are contentions that are like the bar of a dwelling tower.[f]

20 From the fruitage of a man's mouth his belly will be satisfied;[g] he will be satisfied even with the produce of his lips.[h]

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue,[i] and he that is loving it will eat its fruitage.[j]

22 Has one found a [good] wife?[k] One has found a good thing,[l] and one gets goodwill from Jehovah.[m]

23 Entreaties the one of little means speaks out,[n] but one that is rich answers in a strong way.[o]

24 There exist companions disposed to break one another to pieces,[p] but there exists a friend sticking closer than a brother.[q]

19 Anyone of little means who is walking in his integrity is better[r] than the one crooked in his lips, and the one that is stupid.[s]

2 Also, that the soul should be without knowledge is not good,[t] and he that is hastening with his feet is sinning.[u]

3 It is the foolishness of an earthling man that distorts his way,[v] and so his heart becomes enraged against Jehovah himself.[w]

4 Wealth is what adds many companions,[x] but one that is lowly gets separated even from his companion.[y]

5 A false witness will not be free from punishment,[z] and he that launches forth lies will not escape.[a]

6 Many are those who soften the face of a noble,[a] and everybody is a companion to the man making gifts.[b]

7 The brothers of one of little means have all hated him.[c] How much farther have his personal friends kept away from him![d] He is pursuing with things to say; they are not.[e]

8 He that is acquiring heart[f] is loving his own soul. He that is guarding discernment is going to find good.[g]

9 The false witness will not be free from punishment,[h] and he that launches forth lies will perish.[i]

10 Luxury is not fitting for anyone stupid.[j] How much less for a servant to rule over princes![k]

11 The insight of a man certainly slows down his anger,[l] and it is beauty on his part to pass over transgression.[m]

12 The raging of a king is a growling like that of a maned young lion,[n] but his goodwill is like the dew upon the vegetation.[o]

13 A stupid son means adversities to his father,[p] and the contentions of a wife are as a leaking roof that drives one away.[q]

14 The inheritance from fathers is a house and wealth,[r] but a discreet wife is from Jehovah.[s]

15 Laziness causes a deep sleep to fall,[t] and a slack soul goes hungry.[u]

16 He that is keeping the commandment is keeping his soul;[v] he that is despising his ways will be put to death.[w]

17 He that is showing favor

30 Bruising wounds are what scours away the bad;[j] and strokes, the innermost parts of the belly.[k]

21 A king's heart is as streams of water in the hand of Jehovah.[l] Everywhere that he delights to, he turns it.[m]

2 Every way of a man is upright in his own eyes,[n] but Jehovah is making an estimate of hearts.[o]

3 To carry on righteousness and judgment is more preferable to Jehovah than sacrifice.[p]

4 Haughty eyes and an arrogant heart,[q] the lamp of the wicked ones, are sin.[r]

5 The plans of the diligent one surely make for advantage,[s] but everyone that is hasty surely heads for want.[t]

6 The getting of treasures by a false tongue is an exhalation driven away,[u] in the case of those seeking death.[v]

7 The very despoiling by the wicked ones will drag them away,[w] for they have refused to do justice.[x]

8 A man, even a stranger, is crooked in [his] way;[a] but the pure one is upright in his activity.[b]

9 Better is it to dwell upon a corner of a roof[c] than with a contentious wife, although in a house in common.[d]

10 The very soul of the wicked one has craved what is bad;[e] his fellow will be shown no favor in his eyes.[f]

11 By the laying of a fine on the ridiculer the inexperienced becomes wise;[g] and by one's giving insight to a wise person he gets knowledge.[h]

12 The Righteous One is giving consideration to the house of the wicked one,[i] subverting the wicked ones to [their] calamity.[j]

13 As for anyone stopping up his ear from the complaining cry of the lowly one,[k] he himself also will call and not be answered.[l]

14 A gift made in secrecy subdues anger;[m] and a bribe in the bosom,[n] strong rage.

15 It is a rejoicing for the righteous one to do justice,[o] but there is something terrible for those practicing what is hurtful.[p]

16 As for a man wandering from the way of insight,[q] he will rest in the very congregation of those impotent in death.[r]

17 He that is loving merriment will be an individual in want;[s] he that is loving wine and oil will not gain riches.[t]

18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous one;[u] and the one dealing treacherously takes the place of the upright ones.[v]

19 Better is it to dwell in a wilderness land than with a contentious wife along with vexation.[w]

20 Desirable treasure and oil are in the abode of the wise one,[x] but the man that is stupid will swallow it up.[y]

21 He that is pursuing righteousness[z] and loving-kindness will find life, righteousness and glory.[a]

22 A wise one has scaled even the city of mighty men, that he might bring down the strength of its confidence.[b]

23 He that is keeping his mouth and his tongue is keeping his soul from distresses.[c]

24 Presumptuous, self-assuming braggart is the name of the one who is acting in a fury of presumptuousness.[d]

25 The very craving of the lazy will put him to death, for his hands have refused to work.[e] 26 All the day he has shown himself eagerly craving, but the righteous one gives and holds nothing back.[f]

27 The sacrifice of the wicked ones is something detestable.[g] How much more so when one brings it along with loose conduct.[h]

28 A lying witness will perish,[i] but the man that is listening will speak even forever.[j]

29 A wicked man has put on a bold face,[k] but the upright is the one that will firmly establish his ways.[l]

30 There is no wisdom, nor any discernment, nor any counsel in opposition to Jehovah.[m]

31 The horse is something prepared for the day of battle,[n] but salvation belongs to Jehovah.[o]

22 A name is to be chosen rather than abundant riches;[p] favor is better than even silver and gold.[q]

2 The rich one and the one of little means have met each other.[r] The Maker of them all is Jehovah.[s]

ceeds to conceal himself,[a] but the inexperienced have passed along and must suffer the penalty.[b]

4 The result of humility [and] the fear of Jehovah is riches and glory and life.[c]

5 Thorns [and] traps are in the way of the crooked one;[d] he that is guarding his soul keeps far away from them.[e]

6 Train up a boy according to the way for him;[f] even when he grows old he will not turn aside from it.[g]

7 The rich is the one that rules over those of little means,[h] and the borrower is servant to the man doing the lending.[i]

8 He that is sowing unrighteousness will reap what is hurtful,[j] but the very rod of his fury will come to its end.[k]

9 He that is kindly in eye will be blessed, for he has given of his food to the lowly one.[l]

10 Drive away the ridiculer, that contention may go out and that legal contest and dishonor may cease.[m]

11 The one loving purity of heart[n]—for the charm of his lips the king will be his companion.[o]

12 The eyes of Jehovah himself have safeguarded knowledge,[p] but he subverts the words of the treacherous one.[q]

13 The lazy one has said:[r] "There is a lion outside![s] In the midst of the public squares I shall be murdered!"

14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit.[t] The one denounced by Jehovah will fall into it.[u]

15 Foolishness is tied up with the heart of a boy;[v] the rod of discipline is what will remove it far from him.[w]

16 He that is defrauding the lowly one to supply many things to himself,[x] he also that is giving to the rich one, is surely destined for want.[y]

17 Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise ones,[z] that you may apply your very heart to my knowledge.[a] 18 For it is pleasant that you should keep them in your belly,[b] that they may be firmly established together upon your lips.[c]

19 For your confidence to come to be in Jehovah himself[d] I have given you knowledge today, even you.

20 Have I not written you heretofore with counselings and knowledge,[e] 21 to show you the truthfulness of true sayings, so as to return sayings that are the truth—to the one sending you forth?[f]

22 Do not rob the lowly one because he is lowly,[g] and do not crush the afflicted one in the gate.[h] 23 For Jehovah himself will plead their cause,[i] and he will certainly rob of soul those robbing them.[j]

24 Do not have companionship with anyone given to anger;[k] and with a man having fits of rage you must not enter in, 25 that you may not get familiar with his paths and certainly take a snare for your soul.[l]

26 Do not get to be among those striking hands,[m] among those who go security for loans.[n] 27 If you have nothing to pay, why should he take your bed from under you?

28 Do not move back a boundary of long ago, which your forefathers have made.[o]

29 Have you beheld a man skillful in his work? Before kings is where he will station himself;[p] he will not station himself before commonplace men.

the owner of soul[ful desire].[a] 3 Do not show yourself craving his tasty dishes, as it is the food of lies.[b]

4 Do not toil to gain riches.[c] Cease from your own understanding.[d] 5 Have you caused your eyes to glance at it, when it is nothing?[e] For without fail it makes wings for itself like those of an eagle and flies away toward the heavens.[f]

6 Do not feed yourself with the food of anyone of ungenerous eye,[g] nor show yourself craving his tasty dishes.[h] 7 For as one that has calculated within his soul, so he is.[i] "Eat and drink," he says to you, but his heart itself is not with you.[j] 8 Your morsel that you have eaten, you will vomit it out, and you will have wasted your pleasant words.[k]

9 Into the ears of a stupid one do not speak,[l] for he will despise your discreet words.[m]

10 Do not move back the boundary of long ago,[n] and into the field of fatherless boys do not enter.[o] 11 For their Redeemer is strong; he himself will plead their cause with you.[p]

12 Do bring your heart to discipline and your ear to the sayings of knowledge.[q]

13 Do not hold back discipline from the mere boy.[r] In case you beat him with the rod, he will not die. 14 With the rod you yourself should beat him, that you may deliver his very soul from She'ol itself.[s]

15 My son, if your heart has become wise,[t] my heart will rejoice, even mine.[u] 16 And my kidneys will exult when your lips speak uprightness.[v]

17 Let your heart not be envious of sinners,[w] but be in the fear of Jehovah all day long.[x] 18 For in that case there will exist a future,[y] and your own hope will not be cut off.[z]

19 You, O my son, hear and become wise, and lead your heart on in the way.[a]

20 Do not come to be among heavy drinkers of wine,[a] among those who are gluttonous eaters of flesh.[b] 21 For a drunkard and a glutton will come to poverty,[c] and drowsiness will clothe one with mere rags.[d]

22 Listen to your father who caused your birth,[e] and do not despise your mother just because she has grown old.[f] 23 Buy truth itself[g] and do not sell it—wisdom and discipline and understanding.[h] 24 The father of a righteous one will without fail be joyful;[i] the one becoming father to a wise one will also rejoice in him.[j] 25 Your father and your mother will rejoice, and she that gave birth to you will be joyful.[k]

26 My son, do give your heart to me, and may those eyes of yours take pleasure in my own ways.[l] 27 For a prostitute is a deep pit[m] and a foreign woman is a narrow well. 28 Surely she, just like a robber, lies in wait;[n] and among men she increases the treacherous ones.[o]

29 Who has woe? Who has uneasiness? Who has contentions?[p] Who has concern? Who has wounds for no reason? have struck me, but I did not become sick; they have smitten me, but I did not know it. When shall I wake up?[a] I shall seek it yet some more."[b]

24 Do not be envious of bad men,[c] and do not show yourself craving to get in with them.[d] 2 For despoiling is what their heart keeps meditating, and trouble is what their own lips keep speaking.[e]

3 By wisdom a household will be built up,[f] and by discernment it will prove firmly established.[g] 4 And by knowledge will the interior rooms be filled with all precious and pleasant things of value.[h]

5 One wise in strength is an able-bodied man,[i] and a man of knowledge is reinforcing power.[j] 6 For by skillful direction you will carry on your war,[k] and in the multitude of counselors there is salvation.[l]

7 For a foolish one true wisdom is too high;[m] in the gate he will not open his mouth.

8 As for anyone scheming to do bad, he will be called a mere master at evil ideas.[n]

9 The loose conduct of foolishness is sin,[o] and a ridiculer is something detestable to mankind.[p]

10 Have you shown your*self discouraged in the day of* distress?[q] Your power will be scanty.

11 Deliver those who are being taken away to death; and those staggering to the slaughter, O may you hold [them] back.[r] 12 In case you should say: "Look! We did not know of this,"[s] will not he himself that is making an estimate of hearts discern it,[t] and he himself that is observing your soul know[u] and certainly pay back to earthling man according to his activity?[v]

13 My son, eat honey, for it is good; and let sweet comb honey be upon your palate.[w] 14 In the same way, do know wisdom for your soul.[a] If you have found [it], then there exists a future, and your own hope will not be cut off.[b]

15 Do not, as a wicked one, lie in wait for the abiding place of the righteous one;[c] do not despoil his resting-place.[d] 16 For the righteous one may fall even seven times, and he will certainly get up;[e] but the wicked ones will be made to stumble by calamity.[f]

17 When your enemy falls, do not rejoice; and when he is caused to stumble, may your heart not be joyful,[g] 18 that Jehovah may not see and it be bad in his eyes and he certainly turn back his anger from against him.[h]

19 Do not show yourself heated up at evildoers. Do not become envious of wicked people.[i] 20 For there will prove to be no future for anyone bad;[j] the very lamp of wicked people will be extinguished.[k]

21 My son, fear Jehovah and the king.[l] With those who are for a change, do not intermeddle.[m] 22 For their disaster will arise so suddenly,[n] that who is aware of the extinction of those who are for a change?[o]

23 These [sayings] also are for the wise ones:[p] The showing of partiality in judgment is not good.[q]

24 He that is saying to the wicked one: "You are righteous,"[r] the peoples will execrate him, national groups will denounce him. 25 But for those reproving [him] it will be pleasant,[s] and upon them there will come the blessing of good.[t] 26 Lips will he kiss who is replying in a straightforward way.[u]

doors, and make it ready for yourself in the field.[a] Afterward you must also build up your household.

28 Do not become a witness against your fellowman without grounds.[b] Then you would have to be foolish with your lips.[c] 29 Do not say: "Just as he did to me, so I am going to do to him.[d] I shall repay to each one according to his acting."[e]

30 I passed along by the field of the lazy individual[f] and by the vineyard of the man in need of heart.[g] 31 And, look! all of it produced weeds.[h] Nettles covered its very surface, and its stone wall itself had been torn down.[i]

32 So I proceeded to behold, I myself; I began taking [it] to heart;[j] I saw, I took the discipline:[k] 33 A little sleeping, a little slumbering, a little folding of the hands to lie down,[l] 34 and as a highwayman your poverty will certainly come and your neediness as an armed man.[m]

25 These also are the proverbs of Sol'o·mon[n] that the men of Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah[o] transcribed:

2 The glory of God is the keeping of a matter secret,[p] and the glory of kings is the searching through a matter.[q]

3 The heavens for height[r] and the earth for depth,[s] and the heart of kings, that is unsearchable.[t]

4 Let there be a removing of scummy dross from the silver, and all of it will come forth refined.[u]

5 Let there be the removing of the wicked one before the king,[v] and his throne will be firmly established by righteousness itself.[w]

6 Do not do yourself honor before the king,[x] and in the place of great ones do not stand.[y] 7 For it is better [for him] to say to you: "Come up here,"[z] than to abase you before a noble whom your eyes have seen.[a]

8 Do not go forth to conduct a legal case hastily, that it may not be a question of what you will do in the culmination of it when your fellowman now humiliates you.[b] 9 Plead your own cause with your fellowman,[c] and do not reveal the confidential talk of another;[d] 10 that the one listening may not put you to shame and the bad report by you can have no recall.

11 As apples of gold in silver carvings is a word spoken at the right time for it.[e]

12 An earring of gold, and an ornament of special gold, is a wise reprover upon the hearing ear.[f]

13 Just like the coolness of snow[g] in the day of harvest is the faithful envoy to those sending him, for he restores the very soul of his masters.[h]

14 As vaporous clouds and a wind without any downpour is a man boasting himself about a gift in falsehood.[i]

15 By patience a commander is induced, and a mild tongue itself can break a bone.[j]

16 Is it honey that you have found?[k] Eat what is sufficient for you, that you may not take too much of it and have to vomit it up.[l]

17 Make your foot rare at the house of your fellowman, that he may not have his sufficiency of you and certainly hate you.

18 As a war club and a sword and a sharpened arrow is a man testifying against his fellowman as a false witness.[m]

19 As a broken tooth and a wobbling foot is the confidence in one proving treacherous in the day of distress.[n]

20 He that is removing a garment on a cold day is as vinegar upon alkali and as a singer with songs upon a gloomy heart.[o]

21 If the one hating you is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink.[a] 22 For coals are what you are raking together upon his head,[b] and Jehovah himself will reward you.[c]

23 The wind from the north brings forth as with labor pains a downpour;[d] and a tongue [giving away] a secret, a denounced face.[e]

24 Better is it to dwell upon a corner of a roof than with a contentious wife, although in a house in common.[f]

25 As cold water upon a tired soul,[g] so is a good report from a distant land.[h]

26 A fouled spring and a ruined well is the righteous one when staggering before the wicked one.[i]

27 The eating of too much honey is not good;[j] and for people to search out their own glory, is it glory?[k]

28 As a city broken through, without a wall, is the man that has no restraint for his spirit.[l]

26 Like snow in summer and like rain in harvesttime,[m] so glory is not fitting for a stupid one.[n]

2 Just as a bird has cause for fleeing [and] just as a swallow for flying, so a malediction itself does not come without real cause.[o]

3 A whip is for the horse,[p] a bridle[q] is for the ass, and the rod is for the back of stupid people.[r]

4 Do not answer anyone stupid according to his foolishness, that you yourself also may not become equal to him.[s]

5 Answer someone stupid according to his foolishness, that he may not become someone wise in his own eyes.[t]

6 As one that is mutilating [his] feet, as one that is drinking mere violence, is he that is thrusting matters into the hand of someone stupid.[u]

7 Have the legs of the lame one drawn up water? Then there is a proverb in the mouth of stupid people.[a]

8 Like one shutting up a stone in a heap of stones, so is the one giving glory to a mere stupid one.[b]

9 As a thorny weed has come up into the hand of a drunkard, so a proverb into the mouth of stupid people.[c]

10 As an archer piercing everything is the one hiring someone stupid[d] or the one hiring passersby.

11 Just like a dog returning to its vomit, the stupid one is repeating his foolishness.[e]

12 Have you seen a man wise in his own eyes?[f] There is more hope for the stupid one[g] than for him.

13 The lazy one has said: "There is a young lion in the way, a lion in among the public squares."[h]

14 A door keeps turning upon its pivot, and the lazy one upon his couch.[i]

15 The lazy one has hidden his hand in the banquet bowl; he has become too weary to bring it back to his mouth.[j]

16 The lazy one is wiser in his own eyes[k] than seven giving a sensible reply.

17 As one grabbing hold of the ears of a dog is anyone passing by that is becoming furious at the quarrel that is not his.[l]

18 Just like someone mad that is shooting fiery missiles,[m] arrows and death, 19 so is the man that has tricked his fellowman and has said: "Was I not having fun?"[n]

20 Where there is no wood the fire goes out, and where there is no slanderer contention grows still.[o]

21 As charcoal for the embers and wood for the fire, so is a contentious man for causing a quarrel[p] to glow.

22 The words of a slanderer are like things to be swallowed greedily, which do go down into the innermost parts of the belly.[a]

23 As a silver glazing overlaid upon a fragment of earthenware are fervent lips along with a bad heart.[b]

24 With his lips the hater makes himself unrecognizable, but inside of him he puts deception.[c] 25 Although he makes his voice gracious,[d] do not believe in him,[e] for there are seven detestable things[f] in his heart. 26 Hatred is covered over by deceit. His badness will be uncovered in the congregation.[g]

27 He that is excavating a pit will fall into the same,[h] and he that is rolling away a stone—back to him it will return.[i]

28 A tongue that is false hates the one crushed by it,[j] and a flattering mouth causes an overthrow.[k]

27 Do not make your boast about the next day,[l] for you do not know what a day will give birth to.[m]

2 May a stranger, and not your own mouth, praise you; may a foreigner, and not your own lips, do so.[n]

3 The heaviness of a stone and a load of sand[o]—but the vexation by someone foolish is heavier than both of them.[p]

4 There is the cruelty of rage, also the flood of anger,[q] but who can stand before jealousy?[r]

5 Better is a revealed reproof[s] than a concealed love.

6 The wounds inflicted by a lover are faithful,[t] but the kisses of a hater are things to be entreated.[u]

7 A soul that is satisfied will tread down comb honey, but to a hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.[v]

8 Just like a bird fleeing away from its nest,[w] so is a man fleeing away from his place.[x]

9 Oil and incense[y] are what make the heart rejoice, also the sweetness of one's companion due to the counsel of the soul.[z]

10 Do not leave your own companion or the companion of your father, and do not enter the house of your own brother on the day of your disaster. Better is a neighbor that is near than a brother that is far away.[a]

11 Be wise, my son, and make my heart rejoice,[b] that I may make a reply to him that is taunting me.[c]

12 The shrewd one that has seen the calamity has concealed himself;[d] the inexperienced that have passed along have suffered the penalty.[e]

13 Take one's garment, in case one has gone surety for a stranger;[f] and in the instance of a foreign woman, seize from him a pledge.[g]

14 He that is blessing his fellowman with a loud voice early in the morning, as a malediction it will be accounted on his part.[h]

15 A leaking roof that drives one away in the day of a steady rain and a contentious wife are comparable.[i] 16 Anyone sheltering her has sheltered the wind, and oil is what his right hand encounters.

17 By iron, iron itself is sharpened. So one man sharpens the face of another.[j]

18 He that is safeguarding the fig tree will himself eat its fruit,[k] and he that is guarding his master will be honored.[l]

19 As in water face corresponds with face, so the heart of a man with [that of] a man.

20 She'ol and [the place of] destruction[m] themselves do not get satisfied;[n] neither do the eyes of a man get satisfied.[o]

21 The refining pot is for silver,[p] and the furnace is for gold;[q] and an individual is according to his praise.[r]

in a mortar, in among cracked grain, his foolishness will not depart from him.[a]

23 You ought to know positively the appearance of your flock. Set your heart to your droves;[b] 24 for treasure will not be to time indefinite,[c] nor a diadem for all generations.

25 The green grass has departed, and the new grass has appeared, and the vegetation of the mountains has been gathered.[d] 26 The young rams are for your clothing,[e] and the he-goats are the price of the field. 27 And there is a sufficiency of goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household, and the means[f] of life for your girls.

28 The wicked do flee when there is no pursuer,[g] but the righteous are like a young lion that is confident.[h]

2 Because of the transgression of a land many are its [successive] princes,[i] but by a discerning man having knowledge of right [the prince] will remain long.[j]

3 An able-bodied man that is of little means and that is defrauding[k] the lowly ones is as a rain that washes away so that there is no food.

4 Those who are leaving the law praise the wicked one,[l] but those who are keeping the law excite themselves against them.[m]

5 Men given to badness cannot understand judgment, but those who are seeking Jehovah can understand everything.[n]

6 Better is the one of little means who is walking in his integrity than anyone crooked in [his] ways, although he is rich.[o]

7 An understanding son is observing the law,[p] but one having companionship with gluttons humiliates his father.[q]

8 He that is multiplying his valuables by interest[r] and usury collects them merely for the one showing favor to the lowly ones.[s]

9 He that is turning his ear away from hearing the law[a]—even his prayer is something detestable.[b]

10 He that is causing the upright ones to go astray[c] into the bad way will himself fall into his own pit,[d] but the faultless ones themselves will come into possession of good.[e]

11 A rich man is wise in his own eyes,[f] but the lowly one who is discerning searches him through.[g]

12 When the righteous ones are exulting,[h] there is abundant beauty; but when the wicked ones rise up, a man disguises himself.[i]

13 He that is covering over his transgressions will not succeed,[j] but he that is confessing and leaving [them] will be shown mercy.[k]

14 Happy is the man that is feeling dread constantly,[l] but he that is hardening his heart will fall into calamity.[m]

15 As a growling lion and an onrushing bear is a wicked ruler over a lowly people.[n]

16 A leader that is in want of true discernment is also abundant in fraudulent practices,[o] but he that is hating unjust profit[p] will prolong [his] days.

17 A man burdened with the bloodguilt for a soul will himself flee even to the pit.[q] Let them not get hold of him.

18 He that is walking faultless will be saved,[r] but he that is made crooked in [his] ways will fall at once.[s]

19 He that is cultivating his own ground will have his sufficiency of bread,[t] and he that is pursuing valueless things will have his sufficiency of poverty.[u]

get many blessings,[a] but he that is hastening to gain riches will not remain innocent.[b]

21 The showing of partiality is not good,[c] nor that an able-bodied man should transgress over a mere piece of bread.

22 A man of envious eye is bestirring himself after valuable things,[d] but he does not know that want itself will come upon him.

23 He that is reproving a man[e] will afterward find more favor than he will that is flattering with his tongue.

24 He that is robbing his father and his mother[f] and is saying: "It is no transgression,"[g] is a partner of a man causing ruination.

25 He that is arrogant in soul stirs up contention,[h] but he that is relying upon Jehovah will be made fat.[i]

26 He that is trusting in his own heart is stupid,[j] but he that is walking in wisdom is the one that will escape.[k]

27 He that is giving to the one of little means will have no want,[l] but he that is hiding his eyes will get many curses.[m]

28 When the wicked rise up, a man conceals himself;[n] but when they perish, the righteous become many.[o]

29 A man repeatedly reproved[p] but making his neck hard[q] will suddenly be broken, and that without healing.[r]

2 When the righteous become many, the people rejoice;[s] but when anyone wicked bears rule, the people sigh.[t]

3 A man that is loving wisdom makes his father rejoice,[u] but he that is having companionship with prostitutes destroys valuable things.[v]

4 By justice a king makes a land keep standing,[w] but a man out for bribes tears it down.[x]

5 An able-bodied man that is flattering his companion[y] is spreading out a mere net for his steps.[a]

6 In the transgression of a bad man there is a snare,[b] but he that is righteous cries out joyfully and is glad.[c]

7 The righteous one is knowing the legal claim of the lowly ones.[d] He that is wicked does not consider such knowledge.[e]

8 Men of boastful talk inflame a town,[f] but those who are wise turn back anger.[g]

9 A wise man having entered into judgment with a foolish man—he has become excited and has also laughed, and there is no rest.[h]

10 Bloodthirsty men hate anyone blameless;[i] and as for the upright ones, they keep seeking for the soul of each one.[j]

11 All his spirit is what a stupid one lets out, but he that is wise keeps it calm to the last.[k]

12 Where a ruler is paying attention to false speech, all those waiting on him will be wicked.[l]

13 The one of little means and the man of oppressions have met each other;[m] [but] Jehovah is lighting up the eyes of them both.[n]

14 Where a king is judging the lowly ones in trueness,[o] his throne will be firmly established for all time.[p]

15 The rod and reproof are what give wisdom;[q] but a boy let on the loose will be causing his mother shame.[r]

16 When the wicked become many, transgression abounds; but those who are righteous will look on their very downfall.[s]

will bring you rest and give much pleasure to your soul.[a]

18 Where there is no vision the people go unrestrained,[b] but happy are they that are keeping the law.[c]

19 A servant will not let himself be corrected by mere words,[d] for he understands but he is paying no heed.[e]

20 Have you beheld a man hasty with his words?[f] There is more hope for someone stupid than for him.[g]

21 If one is pampering one's servant from youth on, in his later life he will even become a thankless one.

22 A man given to anger stirs up contention,[h] and anyone disposed to rage has many a transgression.[i]

23 The very haughtiness of earthling man will humble him,[j] but he that is humble in spirit will take hold of glory.[k]

24 He that is partner with a thief is hating his own soul.[l] An oath involving a curse he may hear, but he reports nothing.[m]

25 Trembling at men is what lays a snare,[n] but he that is trusting in Jehovah will be protected.[o]

26 Many are those seeking the face of a ruler,[p] but the judgment of a man is from Jehovah.[q]

27 A man of injustice is something detestable to the righteous ones,[r] and one who is upright in his way is something detestable to a wicked one.[s]

30 The words of A′gur the son of Ja′keh, the weighty message.[t] The utterance of the able-bodied man to Ith′i·el, to Ith′i·el and U′cal.

2 For I am more unreasoning than anyone else,[u] and I do not have the understanding of mankind;[v] 3 and I have not learned wisdom;[w] and the knowledge of the Most Holy One I do not know.[x]

4 Who has ascended to heaven that he may descend?[a] Who has gathered the wind[b] in the hollow of both hands? Who has wrapped up the waters in a mantle?[c] Who has made all the ends of the earth to rise?[d] What is his name[e] and what the name of his son, in case you know?[f]

5 Every saying of God is refined.[g] He is a shield to those taking refuge in him.[h] 6 Add nothing to his words,[i] that he may not reprove you, and that you may not have to be proved a liar.[j]

7 Two things I have asked of you.[k] Do not withhold them from me before I die.[l] 8 Untruth and the lying word put far away from me.[m] Give me neither poverty nor riches.[n] Let me devour the food prescribed for me,[o] 9 that I may not become satisfied and I actually deny [you][p] and say: "Who is Jehovah?"[q] and that I may not come to poverty and I actually steal and assail the name of my God.[r]

10 Do not slander a servant to his master,[s] that he may not call down evil upon you, and that you may not have to be held guilty.[t]

11 There is a generation that calls down evil even upon its father and that does not bless even its mother.[u]

12 There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes[v] but that has not been washed from its own excrement.[w]

13 There is a generation whose eyes have become O how lofty! and whose beaming eyes are lifted up.[x]

14 There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jawbones are slaughtering knives,[a] to eat up the afflicted ones off the earth and the poor ones from among mankind.[b]

15 The leeches have two daughters [that cry]: "Give! Give!" There are three things that do not get satisfied, four that have not said: "Enough!" 16 She′ol[c] and a restrained womb,[d] a land that has not been satisfied with water,[e] and fire[f] that has not said: "Enough!"[g]

17 The eye that holds a father in derision and that despises obedience to a mother[h]—the ravens of the torrent valley will pick it out and the sons of the eagle will eat it up.

18 There are three things that have proved too wonderful for me, and four that I have not come to know: 19 the way of an eagle in the heavens, the way of a serpent on a rock, the way of a ship in the heart of the sea[i] and the way of an able-bodied man with a maiden.[j]

20 Here is the way of an adulterous woman: she has eaten and has wiped her mouth and she has said: "I have committed no wrong."[k]

21 Under three things the earth has been agitated, and under four it is not able to endure: 22 under a slave when he rules as king,[l] and someone senseless when he has his sufficiency of food;[m] 23 under a hated woman when she is taken possession of as a wife,[n] and a maidservant when she dispossesses her mistress.[o]

24 There are four things that are the smallest of the earth, but they are instinctively wise:[p] 25 the ants are a people not strong,[q] and yet in the summer they prepare their food;[r] 26 the rock badgers[s] are a people not mighty, and yet upon a crag is where they put their house;[t] 27 the locusts[u] have no king, and yet they go forth all of them divided into groups;[a] 28 the gecko[b] lizard takes hold with its own hands and it is in the grand palace of a king.

29 There are three that do well in [their] pacing, and four that do well in [their] moving along: 30 the lion, which is the mightiest among the beasts and which does not turn back from before anyone;[c] 31 the greyhound or the he-goat, and a king of a band of soldiers of his own people.[d]

32 If you have acted senselessly by lifting yourself up,[e] and if you have fixed your thought [upon it], [put] the hand to the mouth.[f] 33 For the churning of milk is what brings forth butter, and the squeezing of the nose is what brings forth blood, and the squeezing out of anger is what brings forth quarreling.[g]

The words of Lem′u·el the king, the weighty message[h] that his mother gave to him in correction:[i]

2 What [am I saying], O son of mine, and what, O son of my belly,[j] and what, O son of my vows?[k]

3 Do not give your vital energy to women,[l] nor your ways to [what leads to] wiping out kings.[m]

4 It is not for kings, O Lem′u·el, it is not for kings to drink wine or for high officials [to say:] "Where is intoxicating liquor?"[n] 5 that one may not drink and forget what is decreed and pervert the cause of any of the sons of affliction.[o] 6 Give intoxicating liquor, YOU people, to the one about to perish[p] and wine to those who are bitter of soul.[q] 7 Let one drink and forget one's poverty, and let one remember one's own trouble no more.

ב [Behth]

11 In her the heart of her owner has put trust, and there is no gain lacking.[e]

ג [Gi′mel]

12 She has rewarded him with good, and not bad, all the days of her life.[f]

ד [Da′leth]

13 She has sought wool and linen, and she works at whatever is the delight of her hands.[g]

ה [He′]

14 She has proved to be like the ships of a merchant.[h] From far away she brings in her food.

ו [Waw]

15 She also gets up while it is still night,[i] and gives food to her household and the prescribed portion to her young women.[j]

ECCLESIASTES

1 The words of the congregator,[a] the son of David the king in Jerusalem.[b] 2 "The greatest vanity!"[c] the congregator has said, "the greatest vanity! Everything is vanity!"[d] 3 What profit does a man have in all his hard work at which he works[e] hard under the sun?[f] 4 A generation is going,[g] and a generation is coming;[h] but the earth is standing even to time indefinite.[i] 5 And the sun also has flashed forth, and the sun has set,[j] and it is coming panting to its place where it is going to flash forth.[k]

6 The wind is going to the south, and it is circling around to the north.[l] Round and round it is continually circling,[m] and right back to its circlings[n] the wind is returning.

7 All the winter torrents[o] are going forth to the sea,[p] yet the sea itself is not full.[q] To the place where the winter torrents are going forth, there they are returning so as to go forth.[r] 8 All things are wearisome;[s] no one is able to speak of it. The eye is not satisfied at seeing,[t] neither is the ear filled from hearing.[u] 9 That which has come to be, that is what will come to be;[v] and that which has been done, that is what will be done; and so there is nothing new under the sun.[w] 10 Does anything exist of which one may say: "See this; it is new"? It has already had existence for time indefinite;[x] what has come into existence is from time prior to us.[y] 11 There is no remembrance of people of former times, nor will there be of those also who will come to be later.[z] There will prove to be no remembrance even of them among those who will come to be still later on.[a]

12 I, the congregator, happened to be king over Israel in Jerusalem.[a] 13 And I set my heart to seek and explore wisdom[b] in relation to everything that has been done under the heavens—the calamitous occupation that God has given to the sons of mankind in which to be occupied.[c] 14 I saw all the works that were done under the sun,[d] and, look! everything was vanity and a striving after wind.[e]

15 That which is made crooked cannot be made straight,[f] and that which is wanting cannot possibly be counted. 16 I, even I, spoke with my heart,[g] saying: "Look! I myself have greatly increased in wisdom more than anyone that happened to be before me in Jerusalem,[h] and my own heart saw a great deal of wisdom and knowledge."[i] 17 And I proceeded to give my heart to knowing wisdom and to knowing madness,[j] and I have come to know folly,[k] that this too is a striving after wind.[l] 18 For in the abundance of wisdom there is an abundance of vexation,[m] so that he that increases knowledge increases pain.[n]

2 I said, even I, in my heart:[o] "Do come now, let me try you out with rejoicing.[p] Also, see good."[q] And, look! that too was vanity. 2 I said to laughter: "Insanity!"[r] and to rejoicing:[s] "What is this doing?"

3 I explored with my heart by cheering my flesh even with wine,[t] while I was leading my heart with wisdom,[a] even to lay hold on folly until I could see what good there was to the sons of mankind in what they did under the heavens for the number of the days of their life.[b] 4 I engaged in greater works.[c] I built houses for myself;[d] I planted vineyards for myself.[e] 5 I made gardens and parks for myself,[f] and I planted in them fruit trees of all sorts. 6 I made pools of water for myself,[g] to irrigate with them the forest, springing up with trees.[h] 7 I acquired menservants and maidservants,[i] and I came to have sons of the household.[j] Also, livestock, cattle and flocks in great quantity I came to have, more so than all those who happened to be before me in Jerusalem.[k] 8 I accumulated also silver and gold for myself,[l] and property peculiar to kings and the jurisdictional districts.[m] I made male singers and female singers[n] for myself and the exquisite delights[o] of the sons of mankind, a lady, even ladies.[p] 9 And I became greater and increased more than anyone that happened to be before me in Jerusalem.[q] Moreover, my own wisdom remained mine.[r]

10 And anything that my eyes asked for I did not keep away from them.[s] I did not hold back my heart from any sort of rejoicing, for my heart was joyful because of all my hard work,[t] and this came to be my portion from all my hard work.[u] 11 And I, even I, turned toward all the works of mine that my hands had done and toward the hard work that I had worked hard to accomplish,[v] and, look! everything was vanity and a striving after wind,[w] and there was nothing of advantage under the sun.[x]

12 And I, even I, turned to see wisdom[y] and madness and folly;[z] for what can the earthling man do who comes in after the king? The thing that people have already done. 13 And I saw, even I, that there exists more advantage for wisdom than for folly,[a] just as there is more advantage for light than for darkness.[b]

14 As regards anyone wise, his eyes are in his head;[c] but the stupid one is walking on in sheer darkness.[d] And I have come to know, I too, that there is one eventuality that eventuates to them all.[e] 15 And I myself said in my heart:[f] "An eventuality like that upon the stupid one[g] will eventuate to me, yes, me."[h] Why, then, had I become wise, I overmuch so[i] at that time? And I spoke in my heart: "This too is vanity." 16 For there is no more remembrance of the wise one than of the stupid one to time indefinite.[j] In the days that are already coming in, everyone is certainly forgotten; and how will the wise one die? Along with the stupid one.[k]

17 And I hated life,[l] because the work that has been done under the sun was calamitous from my standpoint,[m] for everything was vanity and a striving after wind.[n] 18 And I, even I, hated all my hard work at which I was working hard under the sun,[o] that I would leave behind for the man who would come to be after me.[p] 19 And who is there knowing whether he will prove to be wise or foolish?[q] Yet he will take control over all my hard work at which I worked hard and at which I showed wisdom under the sun.[r] This too is vanity. 20 And I myself turned around toward making my heart despair[s] over all the hard work at which I had worked hard under the sun. 21 For there exists the man whose hard work has been with wisdom and with knowledge and with proficiency,[a] but to a man that has not worked hard at such a thing will be given the portion of that one.[b] This too is vanity and a big calamity.[c]

22 For what does a man come to have for all his hard work and for the striving of his heart with which he is working hard under the sun?[d] 23 For all his days his occupation means pains and vexation,[e] also during the night his heart just does not lie down.[f] This too is mere vanity.

24 With a man there is nothing better [than] that he should eat and indeed drink and cause his soul to see good because of his hard work.[g] This too I have seen, even I, that this is from the hand of the [true] God.[h] 25 For who eats[i] and who drinks better than I do?[j]

26 For to the man that is good before him[k] he has given wisdom and knowledge and rejoicing,[l] but to the sinner he has given the occupation of gathering and bringing together merely to give to the one that is good before the [true] God.[m] This too is vanity and a striving after wind.[n]

3 For everything there is an appointed time,[o] even a time for every affair under the heavens: 2 a time for birth[p] and a time to die;[q] a time to plant and a time to uproot what was planted;[r] 3 a time to kill[s] and a time to heal;[t] a time to break down and a time to build;[u] 4 a time to weep[v] and a time to laugh;[w] a time to wail[x] and a time to skip about;[y] 5 a time to throw stones away[z] and a time to bring stones together;[a] a time to embrace[b] and a time to keep away from embracing;[c] 6 a time to seek[d] and a time to give up as lost; a time to keep and a time to throw away;[e] 7 a time to rip apart[a] and a time to sew together;[b] a time to keep quiet[c] and a time to speak;[d] 8 a time to love and a time to hate;[e] a time for war[f] and a time for peace.[g] 9 What advantage is there for the doer in what he is working hard at?[h]

10 I have seen the occupation that God has given to the sons of mankind in which to be occupied.[i] 11 Everything he has made pretty in its time.[j] Even time indefinite he has put in their heart,[k] that mankind may never find out the work that the [true] God has made from the start to the finish.[l] 12 I have come to know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good during one's life;[m] 13 and also that every man should eat and indeed drink and see good for all his hard work.[n] It is the gift of God.[o]

14 I have come to know that everything that the [true] God makes, it will prove to be to time indefinite.[p] To it there is nothing to add and from it there is nothing to subtract;[q] but the [true] God himself has made it,[r] that people may be afraid on account of him.[s]

15 What has happened to be, it had already been, and what is to come to be has already proved to be;[t] and the [true] God[u] himself keeps seeking that which is pursued.[v]

16 And I have further seen under the sun the place of justice where there was wickedness and the place of righteousness where wickedness was.[w] 17 I myself have said in my heart:[x] "The [true] God will judge both the righteous one and the wicked one,[a] for there is a time for every affair and concerning every work there."[b]

18 I, even I, have said in my heart with regard to the sons of mankind that the [true] God is going to select them, that they may see that they themselves are beasts.[c] 19 For there is an eventuality as respects the sons of mankind and an eventuality as respects the beast, and they have the same eventuality.[d] As the one dies, so the other dies;[e] and they all have but one spirit,[f] so that there is no superiority of the man over the beast, for everything is vanity. 20 All are going to one place.[g] They have all come to be from the dust,[h] and they are all returning to the dust.[i] 21 Who is there knowing the spirit of the sons of mankind, whether it is ascending upward; and the spirit of the beast, whether it is descending downward to the earth?[j] 22 And I have seen that there is nothing better than that the man should rejoice in his works,[k] for that is his portion; because who will bring him in to look on what is going to be after him?[l]

4 And I myself returned that I might see all the acts of oppression[m] that are being done under the sun, and, look! the tears of those being oppressed,[n] but they had no comforter;[o] and on the side of their oppressors there was power, so that they had no comforter. 2 And I congratulated the dead who had already died rather than the living who were still alive.[p] 3 So better than both of them [is] the one who has not yet come to be,[q] who has not seen the calamitous work that is being done under the sun.[r]

4 And I myself have seen all the hard work and all the proficiency in work,[s] that it means the rivalry of one toward another;[a] this also is vanity and a striving after the wind.

5 The stupid one is folding his hands[b] and is eating his own flesh.[c]

6 Better is a handful of rest than a double handful of hard work and striving after the wind.[d]

7 I myself returned that I might see the vanity under the sun: 8 There exists one, but not a second one;[e] also no son or brother does he have,[f] but there is no end to all his hard work. Also, his eyes themselves are not satisfied with riches:[g] "And for whom am I working hard and causing my soul to lack in good things?"[h] This too is vanity, and it is a calamitous occupation.[i]

9 Two are better than one,[j] because they have a good reward for their hard work.[k] 10 For if one of them should fall, the other one can raise his partner up.[l] But how will it be with just the one who falls when there is not another to raise him up?[m]

11 Moreover, if two lie down together, they also will certainly get warm; but how can just one keep warm?[n] 12 And if somebody could overpower one alone, two together could make a stand against him.[o] And a threefold cord cannot quickly be torn in two.

13 Better is a needy but wise child[p] than an old but stupid king,[q] who has not come to know enough to be warned any longer.[r] 14 For he has gone forth from the prison house itself to become king,[s] although in the kingship of this one he had been born as one of little means.[t] 15 I have seen all those alive who are walking about under the sun, [how it goes] with the child, who is second, that stands up in the other one's place.[a] 16 There is no end to all the people, to all those before whom he happened to be;[b] neither will people afterward rejoice in him,[c] for this too is vanity and a striving after the wind.[d]

5 Guard your feet[e] whenever you go to the house of the [true] God; and let there be a drawing near to hear,[f] rather than to give a sacrifice as the stupid ones do,[g] for they are not aware of doing what is bad.[h] 2 Do not hurry yourself as regards your mouth; and as for your heart,[i] let it not be hasty to bring forth a word before the [true] God.[j] For the [true] God is in the heavens[k] but you are on the earth. That is why your words should prove to be few.[l] 3 For a dream certainly comes in because of abundance of occupation,[m] and the voice of a stupid one because of the abundance of words.[n]
4 Whenever you vow a vow to God, do not hesitate to pay it,[o] for there is no delight in the stupid ones.[p] What you vow, pay.[q] 5 Better is it that you vow[r] not than that you vow and do not pay.[s] 6 Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin,[t] neither say before the angel[u] that it was a mistake.[v] Why should the [true] God become indignant on account of your voice and have to wreck the work of your hands?[w] 7 For because of abundance [of occupation] there are dreams,[x] and there are vanities and words in abundance. But fear the [true]
God himself.[y]
8 If you see any oppression of the one of little means and the violent taking away of judgment[z] and of righteousness in a jurisdictional district, do not be amazed over the affair,[a] for one that is higher than the high one[b] is watching,[c] and there are those who are high above them.
9 Also, the profit of the earth is among them all;[a] for a field the king himself has been served.[b]
10 A mere lover of silver will not be satisfied with silver, neither any lover of wealth with income.[c] This too is vanity.[d] 11 When good things become many, those eating them certainly become many.[e] And what advantage is there to the grand owner of them, except looking [at them] with his eyes?[f] 12 Sweet is the sleep[g] of the one serving, regardless of whether it is little or much that he eats; but the plenty belonging to the rich one is not permitting him to sleep.
13 There exists a grave calamity that I have seen under the sun: riches being kept for their grand owner to his calamity.[h] 14 And those riches have perished[i] because of a calamitous occupation, and he has become father to a son when there is nothing at all in his hand.[j]
15 Just as one has come forth from his mother's belly, naked will one go away again,[k] just as one came; and nothing at all can one carry away[l] for his hard work, which he can take along with his hand.
16 And this too is a grave calamity: exactly as one has come, so one will go away; and what profit is there to the one who keeps working hard for the wind?[m] 17 Also, all his days he eats in darkness itself, with a great deal of vexation,[n] with sickness on his part and [cause for] indignation.
18 Look! The best thing that I myself have seen, which is pretty, is that one should eat and drink and see good for all

19 Also every man to whom the [true] God has given riches

he has even empowered him to eat from it[c] and to carry in his hard work.[d] This is the 6 There exists a calamity that I have seen under the sun,

and it is frequent among mankind:
2 a man to whom the

him to eat from it,[i] although a mere foreigner[j] may eat it. This is vanity and it is a bad sickness.
3 If a man should become a father a hundred times,[k]
and he should live many years, so that numerous the days of his years should become,[l] yet his own soul is not satisfied with good things[m] and even the grave has not become his,[n]
I must say that one prematurely born is better off than he is.[o] 4 For in vain has this one come and in darkness he goes away, and with darkness his own name will be covered.[p] 5 Even the sun itself he has not seen, neither known.[q] This one has rest rather than the former one.[r] 6 Even supposing that he has lived a thousand years twice over and yet he has not seen what is good,[s] is it not to just one place that everyone is going?[t]
7 All the hard work of mankind is for their mouth,[u] but even their own soul does not get filled. 8 For what advantage does the wise have over the stupid one?[a] What does the afflicted one have in knowing how to walk in front of the living ones? 9 Better is the seeing by the eyes than the walking about of the soul.[b] This too is vanity and a striving after the wind.[c]
10 Whatever has come to be, its name has already been pronounced, and it has become known what man is;[d] and he is not able to plead his cause with one that is more powerful than he is.[e] 11 Because there exist many things that are causing much vanity,[f] what advantage does a man have? 12 For who is there knowing what good a man has in life[g] for the number of the days of his vain life, when he spends them like a shadow?[h]
For who can tell man what will happen after him under the sun?[i]

7 A name is better than good oil,[j] and the day of death than the day of one's being born.[k] 2 Better is it to go to the house of mourning than to go to the banquet house,[l] because that is the end of all mankind;
and the one alive should take [it] to his heart. 3 Better is vexation than laughter,[m] for by the crossness of the face the heart becomes better.[n] 4 The heart of the wise ones is in the house of mourning,[o] but the heart of the stupid ones is in the house of rejoicing.[p]
5 Better is it to hear the rebuke of someone wise[q] than to be the man hearing the song of the stupid ones.[r] 6 For as the sound of thorns under the pot, so is the laughter of the stupid
one;[s] and this too is vanity.
7 For mere oppression may make a wise one act crazy,[a] and a gift[b] can destroy the heart.[c]

8 Better is the end afterward of a matter than its beginning.[d] Better is one who is patient than one who is haughty in spirit.[e] 9 Do not hurry yourself in your spirit to become offended,[f] for the taking of offense is what rests in the bosom of the stupid ones.[g]

10 Do not say: "Why has it happened that the former days proved to be better than these?"[h] for it is not due to wisdom[i] that you have asked about this.

11 Wisdom along with an inheritance is good and is advantageous for those seeing the sun.[j] 12 For wisdom is for a protection[k] [the same as] money is for a protection;[l] but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom itself preserves alive its owners.[m]

13 See the work[n] of the [true] God, for who is able to make straight what he has made crooked?[o] 14 On a good day prove yourself to be in goodness,[p] and on a calamitous day see that the [true] God has made even this exactly as that,[q] to the intent that mankind may not discover anything at all after them.[r]

15 Everything I have seen during my vain days.[s] There exists the righteous one perishing in his righteousness,[t] and there exists the wicked one continuing long in his badness.[u]

16 Do not become righteous overmuch,[v] nor show yourself excessively wise.[w] Why should you cause desolation to yourself?[x] 17 Do not be wicked overmuch,[y] nor become foolish.[z] Why should you die when it is not your time?[a] 18 It is better that you should take hold of the one, but from the other also do not withdraw your hand;[b] for he that fears God will go forth with them all.[c]

19 Wisdom itself is stronger for the wise one than ten men in power who happened to be in a city.[a] 20 For there is no man righteous in the earth that keeps doing good and does not sin.[b]

21 Also, do not give your heart to all the words that people may speak,[c] that you may not hear your servant calling down evil upon you.[d] 22 For your own heart well knows even many times that you, even you, have called down evil upon others.[e]

23 All this I have tested with wisdom. I said: "I will become wise." But it was far from me.[f] 24 What has come to be is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out?[g] 25 I myself turned around, even my heart did,[h] to know and to explore and to search for wisdom[i] and the reason of things,[j] and to know about the wickedness of stupidity and the foolishness of madness;[k] 26 and I was finding out: More bitter than death[l] [I found] the woman who is herself nets for hunting and whose heart is dragnets [and] whose hands are fetters.[m] One is good before the [true] God if one escapes from her, but one is sinning if one is captured by her.[n]

27 "See! This I have found," said the congregator,[o] "one thing [taken] after another, to find out the sum-up,[p] 28 which my soul has continuously sought, but I have not found. One man out of a thousand I have found,[q] but a woman among all these I have not found.[r] 29 See! This only I have found, that the [true] God made mankind upright,[s] but they themselves have sought out many plans."[a]

8 Who is there like the wise one?[b] And who is there knowing the interpretation of a thing?[c] The wisdom of a man itself causes his face to shine, and even the sternness of his face is changed [for the better].[d]

2 I [say:] "Keep the very order of the king,[e] and that out of regard for the oath of God.[f] 3 Do not hurry yourself, that you may go out from before him.[g] Do not stand in a bad thing.[h] For all that he delights [to do] he will do,[i] 4 because the word of the king is the power of control;[j] and who may say to him: 'What are you doing?'"

5 He that is keeping the commandment will not know any calamitous thing,[k] and the wise heart will know both time and judgment.[l] 6 For there exists a time and judgment even for every affair,[m] because the calamity of mankind is abundant upon them.[n] 7 For there is no one knowing what will come to be,[o] because who can tell him just how it will come to be?

8 There is no man having power over the spirit to restrain the spirit;[p] neither is there any power of control in the day of death;[q] nor is there any discharge in the war.[r] And wickedness will provide no escape for those indulging in it.[s]

9 All this I have seen, and there was an applying of my heart to every work that has been done under the sun, [during] the time that man has dominated man to his injury.[t] 10 But, though this is so, I have seen the wicked ones being buried,[u] how they came in and how they would go away from the holy place[v] itself and be forgotten in the city where they acted that way.[w] This too is vanity.

11 Because sentence against a bad work has not been executed speedily,[x] that is why the heart of the sons of men has become fully set in them to do bad.[a] 12 Although a sinner may be doing bad[b] a hundred times and continuing a long time as he pleases, yet I am also aware that it will turn out well with those fearing the [true] God,[c] because they were in fear of him.[d] 13 But it will not turn out well at all with the wicked one,[e] neither will he prolong his days that are like a shadow,[f] because he is not in fear of God.[g]

14 There exists a vanity that is carried out on the earth, that there exist righteous ones to whom it is happening as if for the work of the wicked ones,[h] and there exist wicked ones to whom it is happening as if for the work of the righteous ones.[i] I said that this too is vanity.

15 And I myself commended rejoicing,[j] because mankind have nothing better under the sun than to eat and drink and rejoice, and that it should accompany them in their hard work for the days of their life,[k] which the [true] God has given them under the sun.[l] 16 In accord with this I applied my heart[m] to know wisdom and to see the occupation that is carried on in the earth,[n] because there is one seeing no sleep with his eyes, either by day or by night.[o]

17 And I saw all the work of the [true] God,[p] how mankind are not able to find out the work that has been done under the sun;[q] however much mankind keep working hard to seek, yet they do not find out.[r] And even if they should say they are wise enough to know,[a] they would be unable to find out.[b]

9 For I took all this to my heart, even to search out all this,[c] that the righteous ones and the wise ones and their works are in the hand of the [true] God.[d] Mankind are not aware of either the love or the hate that were all prior to them.[e] 2 All are the same in what all have.[f] One eventuality[g] there is to the righteous one[h] and the wicked one,[i] the good one and the clean one and the unclean one, and the one sacrificing and the one that is not sacrificing. The good one is the same as the sinner;[j] the one swearing is the same as whoever has been afraid of a sworn oath.[k] 3 This is what is calamitous in all that has been done under the sun, that, because there is one eventuality to all,[l] the heart of the sons of men is also full of bad;[m] and there is madness[n] in their heart during their lifetime, and after it—to the dead ones![o]

4 For as respects whoever is joined to all the living there exists confidence, because a live dog[p] is better off than a dead lion.[q] 5 For the living are conscious that they will die;[r] but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all,[s] neither do they anymore have wages, because the remembrance of them has been forgotten.[t] 6 Also, their love and their hate and their jealousy have already perished,[u] and they have no portion anymore to time indefinite in anything that has to be done under the sun.[v]

7 Go, eat your food with rejoicing and drink your wine with a good heart,[w] because already the [true] God has found pleasure in your works.[x] 8 On every occasion let your garments prove to be white,[y] and let oil not be lacking upon your head.[z] 9 See life with the wife whom you love[a] all the days of your vain life that He has given you under the sun, all the days of your vanity, for that is your portion in life[b] and in your hard work with which you are working hard under the sun. 10 All that your hand finds to do, do with your very power,[c] for there is no work nor devising nor knowledge[d] nor wisdom[e] in She'ol,[f] the place to which you are going.[g]

11 I returned to see under the sun that the swift do not have the race,[h] nor the mighty ones the battle,[i] nor do the wise also have the food,[j] nor do the understanding ones also have the riches,[k] nor do even those having knowledge have the favor;[l] because time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all.[m] 12 For man[n] also does not know his time.[o] Just like fishes that are being taken in an evil net,[p] and like birds that are being taken in a trap,[q] so the sons of men themselves are being ensnared at a calamitous time,[r] when it falls upon them suddenly.[s]

13 Also this I saw as respects wisdom under the sun—and it was great to me: 14 There was a little city, and the men in it were few; and there came to it a great king, and he surrounded it and built against it great strongholds.[t] 15 And there was found in it a man, needy [but] wise, and that one provided escape for the city by his wisdom.[u] But no man remembered that needy man.[v] 16 And I myself said: "Wisdom is better than mightiness;[w] yet the wisdom of the needy one is despised, and his words are not listened to."[x]

17 The words of the wise ones in quietness are more to be heard[a] than the cry of one ruling among stupid people.[b] 18 Wisdom is better than implements for fighting, and merely one sinner can destroy much good.[c]

10 Dead flies are what cause the oil of the ointment maker[d] to stink, to bubble forth. [So] a little foolishness does to one who is precious for wisdom and glory.[e]

2 The heart of the wise is at his right hand,[f] but the heart of the stupid at his left hand.[g] 3 And also in whatever way the foolish one is walking,[h] his own heart is lacking, and he certainly says to everybody that he is foolish.[i]

4 If the spirit of a ruler should mount up against you, do not leave your own place,[j] for calmness itself allays great sins.[k]

5 There exists something calamitous that I have seen under the sun, as when there is a mistake[l] going forth on account of the one in power:[m] 6 Foolishness has been put in many high positions,[n] but the rich ones themselves keep dwelling merely in a low condition.

7 I have seen servants on horses but princes walking on the earth just like servants.[o]

8 He that is digging a pit will himself fall right into it;[p] and he that is breaking through a stone wall, a serpent will bite him.[q]

9 He that is quarrying out stones will hurt himself with them. He that is splitting logs will have to be careful with them.[r]

10 If an iron tool has become blunt and someone has not whetted its edge,[s] then he will exert his own vital energies. So the using of wisdom to success means advantage.[t]

11 If the serpent bites when no charming results,[u] then there is no advantage to the one indulging in the tongue.

12 The words of the mouth of the wise one mean favor,[a] but the lips of the stupid one swallow him up.[b] 13 The start of the words of his mouth is foolishness,[c] and the end afterward of his mouth is calamitous madness. 14 And the foolish one speaks many words.[d]

Man does not know what will come to be; and that which will come to be after him, who can tell him?[e]

15 The hard work of the stupid ones makes them weary,[f] because not one has come to know how to go to the city.[g]

16 How will it be with you, O land, when your king is a boy[h] and your own princes keep eating even in the morning? 17 Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of noble ones and your own princes eat at the proper time for mightiness, not for mere drinking.[i]

18 Through great laziness the beamwork sinks in, and through the letting down of the hands the house leaks.[j]

19 Bread is for the laughter of the workers, and wine itself makes life rejoice;[k] but money is what meets a response in all things.[l]

20 Even in your bedroom do not call down evil upon the king himself,[m] and in the interior rooms where you lie down do not call down evil upon anyone rich;[n] for a flying creature of the heavens will convey the sound and something owning wings will tell the matter.[o]

11 Send out your bread[p] upon the surface of the waters,[q] for in the course of many days you will find it again.[r] 2 Give a portion to seven, or even to eight,[s] for you do not know what calamity will occur on the earth.[a]

3 If the clouds are filled [with water], they empty out a sheer downpour upon the earth;[b] and if a tree falls to the south or if to the north, in the place where the tree[c] falls there it will prove to be.

4 He that is watching the wind will not sow seed; and he that is looking at the clouds will not reap.[d]

5 Just as you are not aware of what is the way of the spirit in the bones in the belly of her that is pregnant,[e] in like manner you do not know the work of the [true] God, who does all things.[f]

6 In the morning sow your seed and until the evening do not let your hand rest;[g] for you are not knowing where this will have success,[h] either here or there, or whether both of them will alike be good.

7 The light is also sweet, and it is good for the eyes to see the sun;[i] 8 for if a man should live even many years, in all of them let him rejoice.[j] And let him remember the days of darkness,[k] though they could be many; every [day] that has come in is vanity.[l]

9 Rejoice,[m] young man, in your youth, and let your heart do you good in the days of your young manhood, and walk in the ways of your heart and in the things seen by your eyes.[n] But know that on account of all these the [true] God will bring you into judgment.[o] 10 So remove vexation from your heart, and ward off calamity from your flesh;[p] for youth and the prime of life are vanity.[q]

12 Remember, now, your Grand Creator[r] in the days of your young manhood,[s] before the calamitous days proceed to come,[t] or the years have arrived when you will say: "I have no delight in them";[u] 2 before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark,[a] and the clouds have returned, afterward the downpour; 3 in the day when the keepers of the house[b] tremble, and the men of vital energy have bent themselves,[c] and the grinding women[d] have quit working because they have become few, and the ladies seeing at the windows[e] have found it dark; 4 and the doors onto the street have been closed,[f] when the sound of the grinding mill becomes low,[g] and one gets up at the sound of a bird, and all the daughters of song sound low.[h] 5 Also, they have become afraid merely at what is high, and there are terrors in the way. And the almond tree carries blossoms,[i] and the grasshopper drags itself along, and the caper berry bursts, because man is walking to his long-lasting house[j] and the wailers have marched around in the street;[k] 6 before the silver cord is removed, and the golden bowl gets crushed,[l] and the jar at the spring is broken, and the waterwheel for the cistern has been crushed. 7 Then the dust returns to the earth[m] just as it happened to be and the spirit[n] itself returns to the [true] God[o] who gave it.[p]

8 "The greatest vanity!" said the congregator,[q] "Everything is vanity."[r]

9 And besides the fact that the congregator had become wise,[s] he also taught the people knowledge continually,[t] and he pondered and made a thorough search,[u] that he might arrange many proverbs in order.[v] 10 The congregator sought to find the delightful words[w] and the writing of correct words of truth.[x]

11 The words of the wise ones are like oxgoads,[a] and just like nails driven in[b] are those indulging in collections [of sentences]; they have been given from one shepherd.[c] 12 As regards anything besides these, my son, take a warning: To the making of many books there is no end, and much devotion [to them] is wearisome to the flesh.[d]

13 The conclusion of the matter, everything having been heard, is: Fear the [true] God[a] and keep his commandments.[b] For this is the whole [obligation] of man. 14 For the [true] God himself will bring every sort of work into the judgment in relation to every hidden thing, as to whether it is good or bad.[c]

THE SONG OF SOLOMON

1 The superlative song,[a] which is Sol′o·mon's:[b] 2 "May he kiss me with the kisses of his mouth,[c] for your expressions of endearment are better than wine.[d] 3 For fragrance your oils[e] are good. Like an oil that is poured out is your name.[f] That is why maidens themselves have loved you. 4 Draw me with you;[g] let us run. The king has brought me into his interior rooms![h] Do let us be joyful and rejoice in you. Do let us mention your expressions of endearment more than wine.[i] Deservedly they have loved you.[j]

5 "A black girl I am, but comely, O you daughters of Jerusalem,[k] like the tents of Ke′dar,[l] [yet] like the tent cloths[m] of Sol′o·mon. 6 Do not YOU look at me because I am swarthy, because the sun has caught sight of me. The sons of my own mother grew angry with me; they appointed me the keeper of the vineyards, [although] my vineyard,[n] one that was mine, I did not keep.

7 "Do tell me, O you whom my soul has loved,[o] where you do shepherding,[p] where you make the flock lie down at midday. Just why should I become like a woman wrapped in mourning among the droves of your partners?"

8 "If you do not know for yourself, O you most beautiful one among women,[a] go out yourself in the footprints of the flock and pasture your kids of the goats alongside the tabernacles of the shepherds."

9 "To a mare of mine in the chariots of Phar′aoh I have likened you,[b] O girl companion of mine.[c] 10 Your cheeks are comely among the hair braids, your neck in a string of beads.[d] 11 Circlets of gold we shall make for you,[e] along with studs of silver."

12 "As long as the king is at his round table my own spikenard[f] has given out its fragrance.[g] 13 As a bag of myrrh[h] my dear one is to me; between my breasts[i] he will spend the night. 14 As a cluster of henna[j] my dear one is to me, among the vineyards of En-ge′di."[k]

15 "Look! You are beautiful, O girl companion of mine.[l] Look! You are beautiful. Your eyes are [those of] doves."[m] foliage. 17 The beams of our grand house are cedars,[a] our rafters juniper trees.

2 "A mere saffron[b] of the coastal plain[c] I am, a lily of the low plains."[d]

2 "Like a lily among thorny weeds, so is my girl companion among the daughters."[e]

3 "Like an apple tree[f] among the trees of the forest, so is my dear one among the sons.[g] His shade I have passionately desired, and there I have sat down, and his fruit has been sweet to my palate. 4 He brought me into the house of wine,[h] and his banner[i] over me was love.[j] 5 Do YOU people refresh me with cakes of raisins,[k] sustain me with apples; for I am lovesick.[l] 6 His left hand is under my head; and his right hand—it embraces me.[m] 7 I have put YOU under oath,[n] O daughters of Jerusalem, by the female gazelles[o] or by the hinds[p] of the field, that YOU try not to awaken or arouse love [in me] until it feels inclined.[q]

8 "The sound of my dear one![r] Look! This one is coming,[s] climbing upon the mountains, leaping upon the hills. 9 My dear one is resembling a gazelle[t] or the young of the stags. Look! This one is standing behind our wall, gazing through the windows, glancing through the lattices.[u] 10 My dear one has answered and said to me, 'Rise up, you girl companion of mine, my beautiful one,[v] and come away.[w] 11 For, look! the rainy season[x] itself has passed, the downpour itself is over, it has gone its way. 12 Blossoms themselves have appeared in the land,[y] the very time of vine trimming[z] has arrived, and the voice of the turtledove[a] itself has been heard in our land. 13 As for the fig tree,[b] it has gained a mature color for its early figs;[c] and the vines are abloom, they have given [their] fragrance. Rise up, come, O girl companion of mine,[a] my beautiful one, and come away. 14 O my dove[b] in the retreats of the crag, in the concealed place of the steep way, show me your form,[c] let me hear your voice, for your voice is pleasurable and your form is comely.'"[d]

15 "Do YOU people grab hold of the foxes[e] for us, the little foxes that are making spoil of the vineyards, as our vineyards are abloom."[f]

16 "My dear one is mine and I am his.[g] He is shepherding[h] among the lilies.[i] 17 Until the day breathes and the shadows have fled, turn around, O my dear one; be like the gazelle[j] or like the young of the stags upon the mountains of separation.

3 "On my bed during the nights I have sought the one whom my soul has loved.[k] I sought him, but I did not find him. 2 Let me rise up, please, and go round about in the city;[l] in the streets and in the public squares[m] let me seek the one whom my soul has loved. I sought him, but I did not find him. 3 The watchmen[n] who were going around in the city found me, 'The one whom my soul has loved have YOU men seen?' 4 Hardly had I passed on from them until I found the one whom my soul has loved. I grabbed hold of him, and I would not let go of him, until I had brought him into my mother's house and into the interior room of her that had been pregnant with me. 5 I have put YOU under oath,[o] O daughters of Jerusalem, by the female gazelles or by the hinds of the field,[p] that YOU try not to awaken or arouse love [in me] until it feels inclined."[q]

7 "Look! It is his couch, the one belonging to Sol'o·mon. Sixty mighty men are all around it, from the mighty men of Israel,[a] 8 all of them in possession of a sword, being taught in warfare, each one with his sword upon his thigh because of dread during the nights."[b]

9 "It is the litter that King Sol'o·mon has made for himself from the trees of Leb'a·non.[c] 10 Its pillars he has made of silver, its supports of gold. Its seat is of wool dyed reddish purple, its interior being fitted out lovingly by the daughters of Jerusalem."

11 "Go out and look, O YOU daughters of Zion, on King Sol'o·mon with the wreath[d] that his mother[e] wove for him on the day of his marriage and on the day of the rejoicing of his heart."[f]

4 "Look! You are beautiful,[g] O girl companion of mine. Look! You are beautiful. Your eyes are [those of] doves,[h] behind your veil.[i] Your hair is like a drove of goats[j] that have hopped down from the mountainous region of Gil'e·ad.[k] 2 Your teeth are like a drove of freshly shorn [ewes][l] that have gone up from the washing, all of which are bearing twins, with none among them having lost its young ones. 3 Your lips are just like a scarlet thread, and your speaking is agreeable.[m] Like a segment of pomegranate are your temples behind your veil.[n] 4 Your neck[o] is like the tower[p] of David, built in courses of stone, upon which are hung a thousand shields, all the circular shields[q] of the mighty men. 5 Your two breasts[r] are like two young ones, the twins of a female gazelle, that are feeding among the lilies."[s]

6 "Until the day breathes[t] and the shadows have fled, I shall go my way to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense."[a]

7 "You are altogether beautiful,[b] O girl companion of mine, and there is no defect in you.[c] 8 With me from Leb'a·non, O bride,[d] with me from Leb'a·non[e] may you come. May you descend from the top of Anti-Leb'a·non, from the top of Se'nir,[f] even Her'mon,[g] from the lairs of lions, from the mountains of leopards. 9 You have made my heart beat, O my sister,[h] [my] bride,[i] you have made my heart beat by one of your eyes,[j] by one pendant of your necklace. 10 How beautiful your expressions of endearment are,[k] O my sister, my bride! How much better your expressions of endearment are than wine and the fragrance of your oils than all sorts of perfume![l] 11 With comb honey your lips keep dripping,[m] O [my] bride. Honey[n] and milk are under your tongue, and the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance[o] of Leb'a·non. 12 A garden barred in is my sister,[p] [my] bride, a garden barred in, a spring sealed up. 13 Your skin is a paradise of pomegranates, with the choicest fruits,[q] henna plants along with spikenard[r] plants; 14 spikenard[s] and saffron,[t] cane[u] and cinnamon,[v] along with all sorts of trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes,[w] along with all the finest perfumes;[x] 15 [and] a spring of gardens, a well of fresh water,[y] and trickling streams from Leb'a·non.[z] 16 Awake, O north wind, and come in, O south wind.[a] Breathe upon my garden.[b] Let its perfumes trickle."

My very soul had gone out [of me] when he spoke. I sought him, but I did not find him.[i] I called him, but he did not answer me. 7 The watchmen[j] that were going about in the city found me. They struck me, they wounded me. The watchmen of the walls[k] lifted my wide wrap off me.

8 "I have put YOU under oath,[l] O daughters of Jerusalem,[m] that, if YOU find my dear one,[n] YOU should tell him that I am lovesick."[o]

9 "How is your dear one more than any other dear one,[p] O you most beautiful one among women?[q] How is your dear one more than any other dear one, that you have put us under such an oath as this?"[r]

10 "My dear one is dazzling and ruddy, the most conspicuous of ten thousand.[s] 11 His head is gold, refined gold. The locks of his hair are date clusters. His black [hair] is like the raven. 12 His eyes are like doves by the channels of water, which are bathing themselves in milk, sitting within the rims. 13 His cheeks are like a garden bed of spice,[a] towers of scented herbs. His lips are lilies, dripping with liquid myrrh.[b] 14 His hands are cylinders of gold, filled with chrys'o·lite. His abdomen is an ivory plate covered with sapphires. 15 His legs are pillars of marble based on socket pedestals of refined gold. His appearance is like Leb'a·non, choice like the cedars.[c] 16 His palate is sheer sweetness, and everything about him is altogether desirable.[d] This is my dear one, and this is my boy companion, O daughters of Jerusalem."

6 "Where has your dear one gone, O most beautiful one among women?[e] Where has your dear one turned, that we may seek him with you?"

2 "My own dear one has gone down to his garden,[f] to the garden beds of spice plants,[g] to shepherd[h] among the gardens, and to pick lilies. 3 I am my dear one's, and my dear one is mine.[i] He is shepherding[j] among the lilies."

4 "You are beautiful, O girl companion of mine,[k] like Pleasant City,[l] comely like Jerusalem,[m] awesome as companies[n] gathered around banners.[o] 5 Turn your eyes[p] away from in front of me, for they themselves have alarmed me. Your hair is like a drove of goats that have hopped down from Gil'e·ad.[q] 6 Your teeth are like a drove of ewes that have come up from the washing, all of which are bearing twins, none among them having lost its young ones.[r] 7 Like a segment of pomegranate are your temples behind your veil.[s] 8 There may be sixty queens and eighty concubines and maidens without number.[a] 9 One there is who is my dove,[b] my blameless one.[c] One there is who belongs to her mother. She is the pure one of the one giving birth to her. The daughters have seen her, and they proceeded to pronounce her happy; queens and concubines, and they proceeded to praise her,[d] 10 'Who is this woman[e] that is looking down like the dawn,[f] beautiful like the full moon,[g] pure like the glowing sun,[h] awesome as companies gathered around banners?'"[i]

11 "To the garden[j] of nut trees I had gone down, to see the buds in the torrent valley,[k] to see whether the vine had sprouted, whether the pomegranate trees had blossomed.[l] 12 Before I knew it, my own soul had put me at the chariots of my willing people."

13 "Come back, come back, O Shu'lam·mite! Come back, come back, that we may behold you!"[m]

"What do YOU people behold in the Shu'lam·mite?"[n]

"Something like the dance of two camps!"

7 "How beautiful your steps have become in [your] sandals,[o] O willing[p] daughter! The curvings of your thighs are like ornaments,[q] the work of an artisan's hands. 2 Your navel roll is a round bowl. Let not the mixed wine[r] be lacking [from it]. Your belly is a heap of wheat, fenced about with lilies.[s] 3 Your two breasts are like two young ones, the twins of a female gazelle.[t] 4 Your neck[u] is like an ivory tower. Your eyes[v] are like the pools in Hesh'bon,[w] by the gate of Bath-rab'bim. Your nose is like the tower of Leb'a·non, which is looking out toward Damascus. 5 Your head upon you is like Car'mel,[x] and the tresses[y] of your head are like wool dyed reddish purple.[z] The king is held bound by the flowings.[a] 6 How beautiful you are, and how pleasant you are, O beloved girl, among exquisite delights![b] 7 This stature of yours does resemble a palm tree,[c] and your breasts,[d] date clusters. 8 I have said, 'I shall go up on the palm tree, that I may take hold of its fruit stalks of dates.'[e] And, please, may your breasts become like clusters of the vine, and the fragrance of your nose like apples, 9 and your palate like the best wine[f] that is going with a slickness[g] for my dear one, softly flowing over the lips of sleeping ones."

10 "I am my dear one's,[h] and toward me is his craving.[i] 11 Do come, O my dear one, let us go forth to the field;[j] do let us lodge among the henna[k] plants. 12 Do let us rise early and go to the vineyards, that we may see whether the vine has sprouted,[l] the blossom has burst open,[m] the pomegranate trees have bloomed.[n] There I shall give my expressions of endearment to you.[o] 13 The mandrakes[p] themselves have given [their] fragrance, and by our entranceways there are all sorts of the choicest fruits.[q] The new ones as well as the old, O my dear one, I have treasured up for you.

8 "O that you were like a brother of mine,[r] sucking the breasts of my mother![s] Should I find you outside, I would kiss you.[t] People would not even despise me. 2 I would lead you, I would bring you into the house of my mother,[u] who used to teach me. I would give you a drink of spiced wine,[v] the fresh juice of pomegranates. 3 His left hand would be under my head; and his right hand—it would embrace me.[w] love [in me] until it feels inclined."[a]

5 "Who is this woman[b] coming up from the wilderness,[c] leaning upon her dear one?"[d]

"Under the apple tree I aroused you. There your mother was in birth pangs with you. There she that was giving birth to you experienced birth pangs.[e]

6 "Place me as a seal upon your heart,[f] as a seal upon your arm; because love is as strong as death is,[g] insistence on exclusive devotion[h] is as unyielding as She'ol is. Its blazings are the blazings of a fire, the flame of Jah.[i] 7 Many waters themselves are not able to extinguish love,[j] nor can rivers themselves wash it away.[k] If a man would give all the valuable things of his house for love, persons would positively despise them."

ISAIAH

1 The vision[a] of Isaiah[b] the son of A'moz that he visioned concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uz·zi'ah,[c] Jo'tham,[d] A'haz[e] [and] Hez·e·ki'ah,[f] kings of Judah:[g]

2 Hear,[h] O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken: "Sons I have brought up and raised,[i] but they themselves have revolted against me.[j] 3 A bull well knows its buyer, and the ass the manger of its owner; Israel itself has not known,[k] my own people have not behaved understandingly."[l]

4 Woe to the sinful nation,[m] the people heavy with error, an evildoing seed,[n] ruinous sons![o] They have left Jehovah,[a] they have treated the Holy One of Israel with disrespect,[b] they have turned backwards.[c] 5 Where else will YOU be struck still more,[d] in that YOU add more revolt?[e] The whole head is in a sick condition, and the whole heart is feeble.[f] 6 From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no sound spot in it.[g] Wounds and bruises and fresh stripes—they have not been squeezed out or bound up, nor has there been a softening with oil.[h] 7 YOUR land is a desolation,[a] YOUR cities are burned with fire;[b] YOUR ground—right in front of YOU strangers[c] are eating it up,[d] and the desolation is like an overthrow by strangers.[e] 8 And the daughter of Zion[f] has been left remaining like a booth in a vineyard, like a lookout hut in a field of cucumbers, like a blockaded city.[g] 9 Unless Jehovah of armies himself had left remaining to us just a few survivors,[h] we should have become just like Sod'om, we should have resembled Go·mor'rah itself.[i]

10 Hear the word of Jehovah,[j] YOU dictators[k] of Sod'om.[l] Give ear to the law of our God, YOU people of Go·mor'rah. 11 "Of what benefit to me is the multitude of YOUR sacrifices?" says Jehovah. "I have had enough of whole burnt offerings[m] of rams[n] and the fat of well-fed animals;[o] and in the blood[p] of young bulls and male lambs and he-goats[q] I have taken no delight.[r] 12 When YOU people keep coming in to see my face,[s] who is it that has required this from YOUR hand, to trample my courtyards?[t] 13 Stop bringing in any more valueless grain offerings.[u] Incense—it is something detestable to me.[v] New moon[w] and sabbath,[x] the calling of a convention[y]—I cannot put up with the [use of] uncanny power[z] along with the solemn assembly. 14 YOUR new moons and YOUR festal seasons my soul has hated.[a] To me they have become a burden;[b] I have become tired of bearing [them].[c] 15 And when YOU spread out YOUR palms,[d] I hide my eyes from YOU.[e] Even though YOU make many prayers,[f] I am not listening;[g] with bloodshed YOUR very hands have become filled.[h] 16 Wash yourselves;[i] make yourselves clean;[j] remove the badness of YOUR dealings from in front of my eyes;[k] cease to do bad.[a] 17 Learn to do good;[b] search for justice;[c] set right the oppressor;[d] render judgment for the fatherless boy;[e] plead the cause of the widow."[f]

18 "Come, now, YOU people, and let us set matters straight between us," says Jehovah.[g] "Though the sins of YOU people should prove to be as scarlet, they will be made white just like snow;[h] though they should be red like crimson cloth, they will become even like wool. 19 If YOU people show willingness and do listen, the good of the land YOU will eat.[i] 20 But if YOU people refuse[j] and are actually rebellious, with a sword YOU will be eaten up; for the very mouth of Jehovah has spoken [it]."[k]

21 O how the faithful town[l] has become a prostitute![m] She was full of justice;[n] righteousness itself used to lodge in her,[o] but now murderers.[p] 22 Your silver itself has become scummy dross.[q] Your wheat beer is diluted with water.[r] 23 Your princes are stubborn and partners with thieves.[s] Every one of them is a lover of a bribe[t] and a chaser after gifts.[u] For a fatherless boy they do not render judgment; and even the legal case of a widow does not get admittance to them.[v]

24 Therefore the utterance of the [true] Lord, Jehovah of armies, the Powerful One of Israel,[w] is: "Aha! I shall relieve myself of my adversaries, and I will avenge[x] myself on my enemies.[y] 25 And I will turn back my hand upon you, and I shall smelt away your scummy dross as with lye, and I will remove all your waste products.[a] 26 And I will bring back again judges for you as at the first, and counselors for you as at the start.[b] After this you will be called City of Righteousness, Faithful Town.[c] 27 With justice Zion herself will be redeemed,[d] and those returning of her, with righteousness.[e] 28 And the crash of revolters and that of sinful ones will be at the same time,[f] and those leaving Jehovah will come to their finish.[g] 29 For they will be ashamed of the mighty trees that YOU people desired,[h] and YOU will be abashed because of the gardens that YOU have chosen.[i] 30 For YOU will become like a big tree the foliage of which is withering,[j] and like a garden that has no water. 31 And the vigorous man will certainly become tow,[k] and the product of his activity a spark; and both of them will certainly go up in flames at the same time, with no one to do the extinguishing."[l]

2 The thing that Isaiah the son of A'moz visioned concerning Judah and Jerusalem:[m] 2 And it must occur in the final part of the days[n] [that] the mountain of the house[o] of Jehovah will become firmly established above the top of the mountains,[p] and it will certainly be lifted up above the hills;[q] and to it all the nations must stream.[r] 3 And many peoples will certainly go and say: "Come,[s] YOU people, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will instruct us about his ways, and we will walk in his paths."[t] For out of Zion law will go forth, and the word of Jehovah out of Jerusalem.[u] 4 And he will certainly render judgment among the nations[v] and set matters straight[a] respecting many peoples.[b] And they will have to beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning shears.[c] Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.[d]

5 O men of the house of Jacob, come and let us walk in the light of Jehovah.[e]

6 For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob.[f] For they have become full of what is from the East,[g] and they are practicers of magic[h] like the Phi·lis'tines, and with the children of foreigners they abound.[i] 7 And their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no limit to their treasures.[j] And their land is filled with horses, and there is no limit to their chariots.[k] 8 And their land is filled with valueless gods.[l] To the work of one's hands they bow down, to that which one's fingers have made.[m] 9 And earthling man bows down, and man becomes low, and you cannot possibly pardon them.[n]

10 Enter into the rock and hide yourself in the dust because of the dreadfulness of Jehovah, and from his splendid superiority.[o] 11 The haughty eyes of earthling man must become low, and the loftiness of men must bow down;[p] and Jehovah alone must be put on high in that day.[q] 12 For it is the day belonging to Jehovah of armies.[r] It is upon everyone self-exalted and lofty and upon everyone lifted up or low;[s] 13 and upon all the cedars of Leb'a·non[t] that are lofty and lifted up and upon all the massive trees of Ba'shan;[a] 14 and upon all the lofty mountains and upon all the hills that are lifted up;[b] 15 and upon every high tower and upon every fortified wall;[c] 16 and upon all the ships of Tar'shish[d] and upon all desirable boats. 17 And the haughtiness of the earthling man must bow down, and the loftiness of men must become low;[e] and Jehovah alone must be put on high in that day.[f]

18 And the valueless gods themselves will pass away completely.[g] 19 And people will enter into the caves of the rocks and into the holes of the dust because of the dreadfulness of Jehovah and from his splendid superiority,[h] when he rises up for the earth to suffer shocks.[i] 20 In that day the earthling man will throw his worthless gods of silver and his valueless gods of gold that they had made for him to bow before to the shrewmice and to the bats,[j] 21 in order to enter into the holes in the rocks and into the clefts of the crags, because of the dreadfulness of Jehovah and from his splendid superiority,[k] when he rises up for the earth to suffer shocks. 22 For YOUR own sakes, hold off from the earthling man, whose breath is in his nostrils,[l] for on what basis is he himself to be taken into account?[m]

3 For, look! the [true] Lord,[n] Jehovah of armies, is removing from Jerusalem[o] and from Judah support and stay, the whole support of bread and the whole support of water,[p] 2 mighty man and warrior, judge and prophet,[q] and practicer of divination and elderly man,[r] 3 chief of fifty[s] and highly respected man and counselor and expert in magical arts, and the skilled charmer.[t] 4 And I shall certainly make boys their princes, and mere arbitrary power will rule over them.[a] 5 And the people will actually tyrannize one over the other, even each one over his fellowman.[b] They will storm, the boy against the old man,[c] and the lightly esteemed one against the one to be honored.[d] 6 For each one will lay hold of his brother in the house of his father, [saying:] "You have a mantle. A dictator[e] you ought to become to us, and this overthrown mass should be under your hand." 7 He will raise [his voice] in that day, saying: "I shall not become a wound dresser; and in my house there is neither bread nor a mantle. YOU men must not set me as dictator over the people."

8 For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah itself has fallen,[f] because their tongue and their dealings are against Jehovah,[g] in behaving rebelliously in the eyes of his glory.[h] 9 The very expression of their faces actually testifies against them,[i] and of their sin like that of Sod'om they do tell.[j] They have not hidden [it]. Woe to their soul! For they have dealt out to themselves calamity.[k]

10 Say, YOU men, that it [will be] well with the righteous one,[l] for they will eat the very fruitage of their dealings.[m] 11 Woe to the wicked one!—Calamity; for the treatment [rendered] by his own hands will be rendered to him![n] 12 As for my people, its task assigners are dealing severely, and mere women actually rule over it.[o] O my people, those leading you on are causing [you] to wander,[p] and the way of your paths they have confused.[q]

himself to contend and is standing up to pass sentence upon peoples.[a] 14 Jehovah himself will enter into judgment with the elderly ones of his people and its princes.[b]

"And YOU yourselves have burned down the vineyard. What was taken by robbery from the afflicted one is in YOUR houses.[c] 15 What do YOU men mean in that YOU crush my people, and that YOU grind the very faces of the afflicted ones?"[d] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies.

16 And Jehovah says: "For the reason that the daughters of Zion have become haughty and they walk with their throats stretched forth and ogling with their eyes, they go walking with tripping steps, and with their feet they make a tinkling sound,[e] 17 Jehovah also will actually make the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion scabby,[f] and Jehovah himself will lay their very forehead bare.[g] 18 In that day Jehovah will take away the beauty of the bangles and the headbands and the moon-shaped ornaments,[h] 19 the eardrops and the bracelets and the veils,[i] 20 the headdresses and the step chains and the breastbands[j] and the 'houses of the soul' and the ornamental humming shells,[k] 21 the finger rings and the nose rings,[l] 22 the robes of state and the overtunics and the cloaks and the purses, 23 and the hand mirrors[m] and the undergarments and the turbans[n] and the large veils.[o]

24 "And it must occur that instead of balsam oil[p] there will come to be merely a musty smell; and instead of a belt, a rope; and instead of an artistic hair arrangement, baldness;[q] and instead of a rich garment, a girding of sackcloth;[r] a brand mark[s] instead of prettiness. 25 By the sword your own men will fall, and your mightiness by war.[a] 26 And her entrances will have to mourn[b] and express sorrow, and she will certainly be cleaned out. She will sit down on the very earth."[c]

4 And seven women will actually grab hold of one man in that day,[d] saying: "We shall eat our own bread and wear our own mantles; only may we be called by your name to take away our reproach."[e]

2 In that day what Jehovah makes sprout[f] will come to be for decoration and for glory,[g] and the fruitage of the land will be something to be proud of[h] and something beautiful for those of Israel who have escaped.[i] 3 And it must occur that the ones remaining in Zion and the ones left over in Jerusalem will be said to be holy to him,[j] everyone written down for life in Jerusalem.[k]

4 When Jehovah will have washed away the excrement of the daughters of Zion[l] and he will rinse[m] away even the bloodshed[n] of Jerusalem from within her by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning down,[o] 5 Jehovah will also certainly create over every established place of Mount Zion[p] and over her convention place a cloud by day and a smoke, and the brightness of a flaming fire[q] by night;[r] because over all the glory there will be a shelter.[s] 6 And there will come to be a booth for a shade by day from the dry heat,[t] and for a refuge and for a hiding place from the rainstorm and from the precipitation.[u]

5 Let me sing, please, to my beloved one a song of my loved one concerning his vineyard.[v] There was a vineyard that my beloved one came to have on a fruitful hillside. 2 And he proceeded to dig it up and to rid it of stones and to plant it with a choice red vine, and to build a tower in the middle of it.[a] And there was also a winepress that he hewed out in it.[b] And he kept hoping for it to produce grapes,[c] but it gradually produced wild grapes.[d]

3 "And now, O YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem and YOU men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard.[e] 4 What is there yet to do for my vineyard that I have not already done in it?[f] Why is it that I hoped for it to produce grapes, but it gradually produced wild grapes? 5 And now, please, may I make known to YOU men what I am doing to my vineyard: There will be a removing of its hedge,[g] and it must be destined for burning down.[h] There must be a breaking down of its stone wall, and it must be destined for a place of trampling.[i] 6 And I shall set it as a thing destroyed.[j] It will not be pruned, nor will it be hoed.[k] And it must come up with the thornbush and weeds;[l] and upon the clouds I shall lay a command to keep from precipitating any rain upon it.[m] 7 For the vineyard[n] of Jehovah of armies is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are the plantation of which he was fond.[o] And he kept hoping for judgment,[p] but, look! the breaking of law; for righteousness, but, look! an outcry."[q]

8 Woe to the ones joining house to house,[r] [and] those who annex field to field until there is no more room[s] and YOU men have been made to dwell all by yourselves in the midst of the land! 9 In my ears Jehovah of armies [has sworn that] many houses, though great and good, will become an outright object of astonishment, without an inhabitant.[a] 10 For even ten acres[b] of vineyard will produce but one bath measure,[c] and even a ho'mer measure of seed will produce but an e'phah measure.[d]

11 Woe to those who are getting up early in the morning that they may seek just intoxicating liquor,[e] who are lingering till late in the evening darkness so that wine itself inflames them![f] 12 And there must prove to be harp and stringed instrument, tambourine and flute, and wine at their feasts;[g] but the activity of Jehovah they do not look at, and the work of his hands they have not seen.[h]

13 Therefore my people will have to go into exile for lack of knowledge;[i] and their glory will be famished men,[j] and their crowd will be parched with thirst.[k] 14 Therefore She'ol has made its soul spacious and has opened its mouth wide beyond bounds;[l] and what is splendid in her, also her crowd and her uproar and the exultant one, will certainly go down into it.[m] 15 And earthling man will bow down, and man will become low, and even the eyes of the high ones will become low.[n] 16 And Jehovah of armies will become high through judgment,[o] and the [true] God, the Holy One,[p] will certainly sanctify himself through righteousness.[q] 17 And the male lambs will actually graze as in their pasture; and the desolate places of well-fed animals alien residents will eat.[r]

18 Woe to those drawing error with ropes of untruth, and as with wagon cords sin;[s] 19 those who are saying: "Let his work hasten; do let it come quickly, in order that we may see [it]; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know [it]!"[a]

20 Woe to those who are saying that good is bad and bad is good,[b] those who are putting darkness for light and light for darkness, those who are putting bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter![c]

21 Woe to those wise in their own eyes and discreet even in front of their own faces![d]

22 Woe to those who are mighty in drinking wine, and to the men with vital energy for mixing intoxicating liquor,[e] 23 those who are pronouncing the wicked one righteous in consideration of a bribe,[f] and who take away even the righteousness of the righteous one from him![g]

24 Therefore just as a tongue of fire eats up the stubble[h] and into the flames mere dried grass sinks down, their very rootstock will become just like a musty smell,[i] and their blossom itself will go up just like powder, because they have rejected the law of Jehovah of armies,[j] and the saying of the Holy One of Israel they have disrespected.[k] 25 That is why the anger of Jehovah has grown hot against his people, and he will stretch out his hand against them and strike them.[l] And the mountains will be agitated,[m] and their dead bodies will become like the offal in the midst of the streets.[n]

In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still. 26 And he has raised up a signal to a great nation far away,[o] and he has whistled to it at the extremity of the earth;[p] and, look! in haste it will swiftly come in.[q] 27 There is no one tired nor is anyone stumbling among them. No one is drowsy and no one sleeps. And the belt around their loins will certainly not be opened, nor the laces of their sandals be torn in two; 28 because their arrows are sharpened and all their bows are bent.[a] The very hoofs of their horses will have to be accounted as flint itself,[b] and their wheels as a storm wind.[c] 29 The roaring of theirs is like that of a lion, and they roar like maned young lions.[d] And they will growl and grab hold of the prey and bring [it] safely away, and there will be no deliverer.[e] 30 And they will growl over it in that day as with the growling of the sea.[f] And one will actually gaze at the land, and, look! there is distressing darkness;[g] and even the light has grown dark because of the drops falling on it.

6 In the year that King Uz·zi'ah died[h] I, however, got to see Jehovah,[i] sitting on a throne[j] lofty and lifted up, and his skirts were filling the temple.[k] 2 Seraphs were standing above him.[l] Each one had six wings. With two he kept his face covered,[m] and with two he kept his feet covered, and with two he would fly about. 3 And this one called to that one and said: "Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah of armies.[n] The fullness of all the earth is his glory." 4 And the pivots[o] of the thresholds began to quiver at the voice of the one calling, and the house itself gradually filled with smoke.[p]

5 And I proceeded to say: "Woe to me! For I am as good as brought to silence, because a man unclean in lips I am,[q] and in among a people unclean in lips I am dwelling;[r] for my eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of armies, himself!"[s]

6 At that, one of the seraphs flew to me, and in his hand there was a glowing coal[t] that he had taken with tongs off the altar.[a] 7 And he proceeded to touch my mouth[b] and to say: "Look! This has touched your lips, and your error has departed and your sin itself is atoned for."[c]

8 And I began to hear the voice of Jehovah saying: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"[d] And I proceeded to say: "Here I am! Send me."[e] 9 And he went on to say: "Go, and you must say to this people, 'Hear again and again, O men, but do not understand; and see again and again, but do not get any knowledge.'[f] 10 Make the heart of this people unreceptive,[g] and make their very ears unresponsive,[h] and paste their very eyes together, that they may not see with their eyes and with their ears they may not hear, and that their own heart may not understand and that they may not actually turn back and get healing for themselves."[i]

11 At this I said: "How long, O Jehovah?"[j] Then he said: "Until the cities actually crash in ruins, to be without an inhabitant, and the houses be without earthling man, and the ground itself is ruined into a desolation;[k] 12 and Jehovah actually removes earthling men far away, and the deserted condition does become very extensive in the midst of the land.[l] 13 And there will still be in it a tenth,[m] and it must again become something for burning down, like a big tree and like a massive tree in which, when there is a cutting down [of them],[n] there is a stump;[o] a holy seed will be the stump of it."[p]

7 Now it came about in the days of A'haz[q] the son of Jo'tham the son of Uz·zi'ah, the king of Judah, that Re'zin[r] the king of Syria and Pe'kah[s] the son of Rem·a·li'ah, the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem for war against it, and he proved unable to war against it.[a] 2 And a report was made to the house of David, saying: "Syria has leaned upon E'phra·im."[b]

And his heart and the heart of his people began to quiver, like the quivering of the trees of the forest because of a wind.[c]

3 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Isaiah: "Go out, please, to meet A'haz, you and She'ar-ja'shub[d] your son, to the end of the conduit[e] of the upper pool by the highway of the laundryman's field.[f] 4 And you must say to him, 'Watch yourself and keep undisturbed.[g] Do not be afraid, and do not let your heart itself be timid[h] because of the two tail ends of these smoking logs, because of the hot anger of Re'zin and Syria and the son of Rem·a·li'ah,[i] 5 for the reason that Syria [with] E'phra·im and the son of Rem·a·li'ah has advised what is bad against you, saying: 6 "Let us go up against Judah and tear it apart and by breakthroughs take it for ourselves; and let us make another king reign inside it, the son of Tab'e·el."[j]

7 "'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "It will not stand, neither will it take place.[k] 8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Re'zin; and within just sixty-five years E'phra·im will be shattered to pieces so as not to be a people.[l] 9 And the head of E'phra·im is Sa·mar'i·a,[m] and the head of Sa·mar'i·a is the son of Rem·a·li'ah.[n] Unless YOU people have faith, you will in that case not be of long duration."'"[o]

10 And Jehovah went on speaking some more to A'haz, saying: 11 "Ask for yourself a sign from Jehovah your God,[p] making it as deep as She'ol or making it high as the upper regions." 12 But A'haz said: "I shall not ask, neither shall I put Jehovah to the test."

13 And he proceeded to say: "Listen, please, O house of David. Is it such a little thing for YOU to tire out men, that YOU should also tire out my God?[a] 14 Therefore Jehovah himself will give YOU men a sign: Look! The maiden[b] herself will actually become pregnant,[c] and she is giving birth to a son,[d] and she will certainly call his name Im·man'u·el. 15 Butter and honey he will eat by the time that he knows how to reject the bad and choose the good.[e] 16 For before the boy will know how to reject the bad and choose the good,[f] the ground of whose two kings you are feeling a sickening dread will be left entirely.[g] 17 Jehovah will bring against you[h] and against your people and against the house of your father days such as have not come since the day of E'phra·im's turning away from alongside Judah,[i] namely, the king of As·syr'i·a.[j]

18 "And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will whistle for the flies that are at the extremity of the Nile canals of Egypt and for the bees[k] that are in the land of As·syr'i·a,[l] 19 and they will certainly come in and settle down, all of them, upon the precipitous torrent valleys and upon the clefts of the crags and upon all the thorn thickets and upon all the watering places.[m]

20 "In that day, by means of a hired razor in the region of the River,[n] even by means of the king of As·syr'i·a,[o] Jehovah will shave the head and the hair of the feet, and it will sweep away even the beard itself.[p]

21 "And it must occur in that day that an individual will preserve alive a young cow of the herd and two sheep.[q] 22 And it must occur that, due to the abundance of the producing of milk, he will eat butter; because butter and honey[a] are what everyone left remaining in the midst of the land will eat.

23 "And it must occur in that day that every place where there used to be a thousand vines, worth a thousand pieces of silver,[b] will come to be—for the thornbushes and for the weeds it will come to be.[c] 24 With arrows and the bow he will come there,[d] because all the land will become mere thornbushes and weeds. 25 And all the mountains that used to be cleared of troublesome plants with a hoe—you will not come there for fear of thornbushes and weeds; and it will certainly become a place for letting bulls loose and a trampling ground of sheep."[e]

8 And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: "Take for yourself a large tablet[f] and write upon it with the stylus of mortal man, 'Ma'her-shal'al-hash-baz.' 2 And let me have attestation[g] for myself by faithful witnesses,[h] U·ri'ah the priest[i] and Zech·a·ri'ah the son of Je·ber·e·chi'ah."

3 Then I went near to the prophetess, and she came to be pregnant and in time gave birth to a son.[j] Jehovah now said to me: "Call his name Ma'her-shal'al-hash-baz, 4 for before the boy will know how to call out,[k] 'My father!' and 'My mother!' one will carry away the resources of Damascus and the spoil of Sa·mar'i·a before the king of As·syr'i·a."[l]

5 And Jehovah proceeded to speak yet further to me, saying: 6 "For the reason that this people has rejected[m] the waters of the Shi·lo'ah[n] that are going gently, and there is exultation[o] over Re'zin and the son of Rem·a·li'ah;[p] 7 even therefore, look! Jehovah is bringing up against them[q] the mighty and the many waters of the River,[a] the king of As·syr'i·a[b] and all his glory.[c] And he will certainly come up over all his streambeds and go over all his banks 8 and move on through Judah. He will actually flood and pass over.[d] Up to the neck he will reach.[e] And the outspreading of his wings[f] must occur to fill the breadth of your land, O Im·man'u·el!"[g]

9 Be injurious, O YOU peoples, and be shattered to pieces; and give ear, all YOU in distant parts of the earth![h] Gird yourselves,[i] and be shattered to pieces![j] Gird yourselves, and be shattered to pieces! 10 Plan out a scheme, and it will be broken up![k] Speak any word, and it will not stand, for God is with us![l] 11 For this is what Jehovah has said to me with strongness of the hand, that he may make me turn aside from walking in the way of this people, saying: 12 "YOU men must not say, 'A conspiracy!' respecting all that of which this people keep saying, 'A conspiracy!'[m] and the object of their fear YOU men must not fear, nor must YOU tremble at it.[n] 13 Jehovah of armies—he is the One whom YOU should treat as holy,[o] and he should be the object of YOUR fear,[p] and he should be the One causing YOU to tremble."[q]

14 And he must become as a sacred place;[r] but as a stone to strike against and as a rock over which to stumble[s] to both the houses of Israel, as a trap and as a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.[t] 15 And many among them will be certain to stumble and to fall and be broken, and to be snared and caught.[u]

16 Wrap up the attestation,[v] put a seal about the law among my disciples![w] 17 And I will keep in expectation of Jehovah,[x] who is concealing his face from the house of Jacob,[a] and I will hope in him.[b]

18 Look! I and the children whom Jehovah has given me[c] are as signs[d] and as miracles in Israel from Jehovah of armies, who is residing in Mount Zion.[e]

19 And in case they should say to YOU people: "Apply to the spiritistic mediums[f] or to those having a spirit of prediction who are chirping[g] and making utterances in low tones," is it not to its God that any people should apply?[h] [Should there be application] to dead persons in behalf of living persons?[i] 20 To the law and to the attestation![j]

Surely they will keep saying what is according to this statement[k] that will have no light of dawn.[l] 21 And each one will certainly pass through the land hard pressed and hungry;[m] and it must occur that because he is hungry and has made himself feel indignant, he will actually call down evil upon his king and upon his God[n] and will certainly peer upward. 22 And to the earth he will look, and, lo! distress and darkness,[o] obscurity, hard times and gloominess with no brightness.[p]

9 However, the obscureness will not be as when the land had stress, as at the former time when one treated with contempt the land of Zeb'u·lun and the land of Naph'ta·li[q] and when at the later time one caused [it] to be honored[r]—the way by the sea, in the region of the Jordan, Gal'i·lee of the nations.[s] 2 The people that were walking in the darkness have seen a great light.[t] As for those dwelling in the land of deep shadow,[u] light itself has shone upon them.[a] 3 You have made the nation populous;[b] for it you have made the rejoicing great.[c] They have rejoiced before you as with the rejoicing in the harvesttime,[d] as those who are joyful when they divide up the spoil.[e]

4 For the yoke of their load[f] and the rod upon their shoulders, the staff of the one driving them to work,[g] you have shattered to pieces as in the day of Mid′i·an.[h] 5 For every boot of the one tramping[i] with tremors and the mantle rolled in blood have even come to be for burning as food for fire.[j] 6 For there has been a child born to us,[k] there has been a son given to us;[l] and the princely rule will come to be upon his shoulder.[m] And his name will be called Wonderful Counselor,[n] Mighty God,[o] Eternal Father,[p] Prince of Peace.[q] 7 To the abundance of the princely rule[r] and to peace there will be no end,[s] upon the throne of David[t] and upon his kingdom in order to establish it firmly[u] and to sustain it by means of justice[v] and by means of righteousness,[w] from now on and to time indefinite. The very zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.[x]

8 There was a word that Jehovah sent against Jacob, and it fell upon Israel.[y] 9 And the people will certainly know [it],[z] even all of them, E′phra·im and the inhabitant of Sa·mar′i·a,[a] because of [their] haughtiness and because of [their] insolence of heart in saying:[b] 10 "Bricks are what have fallen, but with hewn stone[c] we shall build. Sycamore[d] trees are what have been cut down, but with cedars we shall make replacement." 11 And Jehovah will set the adversaries of Re′zin on high against him, and the enemies of that one he will goad on,[e] 12 Syria from the east[f] and the Phi·lis′tines from behind,[a] and they will eat up Israel with open mouth.[b] In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.[c]

13 And the people themselves have not returned to the One striking them,[d] and Jehovah of armies they have not sought.[e] 14 And Jehovah will cut off from Israel head[f] and tail,[g] shoot and rush, in one day.[h] 15 The aged and highly respected one is the head,[i] and the prophet giving false instruction is the tail.[j] 16 And those who are leading this people on prove to be the ones causing [them] to wander;[k] and those of them who are being led on, the ones who are being confused.[l] 17 That is why Jehovah will not rejoice even over their young men,[m] and upon their fatherless boys and upon their widows he will have no mercy; because all of them are apostates[n] and evildoers and every mouth is speaking senselessness. In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.[o]

18 For wickedness has become aflame just like a fire;[p] thornbushes and weeds it will eat up.[q] And it will catch fire in the thickets of the forest,[r] and they will be borne aloft as the billowing of smoke.[s] 19 In the fury of Jehovah of armies the land has been set afire, and the people will become as food for the fire.[t] No one will show compassion even on his brother.[u] 20 And one will cut down on the right and will certainly be hungry; and one will eat on the left, and they will certainly not be satisfied.[v] They will each one eat the flesh of his own arm,[w] 21 Ma·nas′seh

E′phra·im, and E′phra·im Ma·nas′seh. Together they will be against Judah.[a] In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.[b]

10 Woe to those who are enacting harmful regulations[c] and those who, constantly writing, have written out sheer trouble, 2 in order to push away the lowly ones from a legal case and to wrest away justice from the afflicted ones of my people,[d] for the widows to become their spoil, and that they may plunder even the fatherless boys![e] 3 And what will YOU men do at the day of being given attention[f] and at the ruin, when it comes from far away?[g] Toward whom will YOU flee for assistance,[h] and where will YOU leave YOUR glory,[i] 4 except it be that one must bow down under the prisoners and that people keep falling under those who have been killed?[j] In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.[k]

5 "Aha, the As·syr′i·an,[l] the rod for my anger,[m] and the stick that is in their hand for my denunciation! 6 Against an apostate[n] nation I shall send him, and against the people of my fury I shall issue a command to him,[o] to take much spoil and to take much plunder and to make it a trampling place like the clay of the streets.[p] 7 Though he may not be that way, he will feel inclined; though his heart may not be that way, he will scheme, because to annihilate is in his heart,[q] and to cut off nations not a few.[r] 8 For he will say, 'Are not my princes at the same time kings?[s] 9 Is not Cal′no[t] just like Car′che·mish?[u] Is not Ha′math[v] just like Ar′pad?[w] Is not Sa·mar′i·a[x] just like Damascus?[y] 10 Whenever my hand has reached the kingdoms of the valueless god whose graven images are more than those at Jerusalem and at Sa·mar′i·a,[a] 11 will it not be that just as I shall have done to Sa·mar′i·a and to her valueless gods,[b] even so I shall do to Jerusalem and to her idols?'[c]

12 "And it must occur that when Jehovah terminates all his work in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, I shall make an accounting for the fruitage of the insolence of the heart of the king of As·syr′i·a and for the self-importance of his loftiness of eyes.[d] 13 For he has said, 'With the power of my hand I shall certainly act,[e] and with my wisdom, for I do have understanding; and I shall remove the boundaries of peoples,[f] and their things stored up I shall certainly pillage,[g] and I shall bring down the inhabitants just like a powerful one.[h] 14 And just as if a nest, my hand[i] will reach the resources[j] of the peoples; and just as when one gathers eggs that have been left, I myself will gather up even all the earth, and there will certainly be no one fluttering [his] wings or opening [his] mouth or chirping.'"

15 Will the ax enhance itself over the one chopping with it, or the saw magnify itself over the one moving it back and forth, as though the staff moved back and forth the ones raising it on high, as though the rod raised on high the one who is not wood?[k] 16 Therefore the [true] Lord, Jehovah of armies, will keep sending upon his fat ones a wasting disease,[l] and under his glory a burning will keep burning away like the burning of a fire.[m] 17 And Israel's Light[n] must become a fire,[o] and his Holy One a flame;[p] and it must blaze up and eat up his weeds and his thornbushes[q]

remnant of Jacob, to the Mighty God.[h] 22 For although your people, O Israel, would prove to be like the grains of sand of the sea,[i] a mere remnant among them will return.[j] An extermination[k] decided upon will be flooding through in righteousness,[l] 23 because an exterminating[m] and a strict decision
the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, will be executing in the midst of the whole land.[n]

24 Therefore this is what the Sovereign[o] Lord, Jehovah of armies, has said: "Do not be afraid, O my people who are dwelling in Zion,[p] because of the As·syr′i·an, who with the rod used to strike [you][q] and who used to lift up his own staff against you in the way that Egypt did.[r] 25 For yet a very little while—and the denunciation[s] will have come to an end, and my anger, in their wearing away.[t] 26 And Jehovah of armies will certainly brandish against him a whip[u] as at the defeat of Mid′i·an by the rock O′reb;[v] and his staff will be upon the sea,[w] and he will certainly lift it up in the way that he did with Egypt.[x]

27 "And it must occur in that day that his load will depart from upon your shoulder,[a] and his yoke from upon your neck,[b] and the yoke will certainly be wrecked[c] because of the oil."

28 He has come upon Ai′ath;[d]
he has passed along through Mig′ron; at Mich′mash[e] he deposits his articles. 29 They have passed over the ford, Ge′ba[f] is a place for them to spend the night, Ra′mah[g] has trembled, Gib′e·ah[h] of Saul itself has fled. 30 Let your voice out in shrill cries, O daughter of Gal′lim.[i] Pay attention, O La′i·shah. O you afflicted one, An′a·thoth![j] 31 Mad·me′nah has run away. The inhabitants of Ge′bim themselves have taken to shelter. 32 It is yet day in Nob[k] to make a halt. He waves his hand [threateningly] at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.[l]

33 Look! The [true] Lord, Jehovah of armies, is lopping off boughs with a terrible crash;[m] and those tall in growth are being cut down, and the high ones themselves become low.[n] 34 And he has struck down the thickets of the forest with an iron tool, and by a powerful one Leb′a·non itself will fall.[o]

11 And there must go forth a twig[p] out of the stump of Jes′se;[q] and out of his roots a sprout[r] will be fruitful.[s]
2 And upon him the spirit of Jehovah must settle down,[t] the spirit of wisdom[u] and of understanding,[v]
the spirit of counsel and of mightiness,[w] the spirit of knowledge[x] and of the fear of Jehovah;[y] 3 and there will be enjoyment by him in the fear of Jehovah.[z]

And he will not judge by any mere appearance to his eyes, nor reprove simply according to the thing heard by his ears.[a] 4 And with righteousness he must judge the lowly ones,[b] and with uprightness he must give reproof in behalf of the meek ones of the earth. And he must strike the earth with the rod of his mouth;[c] and with the spirit of his lips he will put the wicked one to death.[d] 5 And righteousness must prove to be the belt of his hips,[e] and faithfulness

the belt of his loins.[f]

6 And the wolf will actually reside for a while with the male lamb,[g] and with the kid the leopard itself will lie down, and the calf and the maned young lion[h] and the well-fed animal all together;[i] and a mere little boy will be leader over them. 7 And the cow and the bear themselves will feed; together their young ones will lie down. And even the lion will eat straw just like the bull.[j] 8 And the sucking child will certainly play upon the hole of the cobra;[k] and upon the light aperture of a poisonous snake will a weaned child actually put his own hand. 9 They will not do any harm[l] or cause any ruin in all my holy mountain;[m] because the earth will certainly be filled with the knowledge of Jehovah as the waters are covering the very sea.[n]

10 And it must occur in that day[o] that there will be the root of Jes′se[p] that will be standing up as a signal for the peoples.[q]
To him even the nations will turn inquiringly,[r] and his resting-place must become glorious.[s]

11 And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will again offer his hand, a second time,[t] to acquire the remnant of his people who will remain over from
As·syr′i·a[u] and from Egypt[v] and from Path′ros[w] and from Cush[x] and from E′lam[y] and from Shi′nar[a] and from Ha′math and from the islands of the sea.[b] 12 And he will certainly raise up a signal for the nations and gather the dispersed ones of Israel;[c] and the scattered ones of Judah he will collect together from the four extremities of the earth.[d]

13 And the jealousy of E′phra·im must depart,[e] and even those showing hostility to Judah will be cut off. E′phra·im itself will not be jealous of Judah, nor will Judah show hostility toward E′phra·im.[f] 14 And they must fly at the shoulder of the Phi·lis′tines to the west;[g] together they will plunder the sons of the East.[h] E′dom and Mo′ab will be those upon whom they will thrust out their hand,[i] and the sons of Am′mon will be their subjects.[j] 15 And Jehovah will certainly cut off the tongue of the Egyptian sea,[k] and wave his hand at the River[l] in the glow of his spirit. And he must strike it in [its] seven torrents, and he will actually cause people to walk in [their] sandals.[m] 16 And there must come to be a highway[n] out of
As·syr′i·a for the remnant[o] of his people who will remain over,[p] just as there came to be [one] for Israel in the day of his coming up out of the land of Egypt.

12 And in that day[q] you will be sure to say: "I shall thank you, O Jehovah, for [although] you got incensed at me, your anger gradually turned back,[r] and you proceeded to comfort me.[s] 2 Look! God is my salvation.[t] I shall trust and be in no dread;[u] for Jah Jehovah is my strength[v] and [my] might,[w] and he came to be the salvation of me."[x]

3 With exultation you people will be certain to draw water out of the springs of salvation.[a] 4 And in that day you will certainly say: "Give thanks to Jehovah, you people![b] Call upon his name.[c] Make known among the peoples his dealings.[d] Make mention that his name is put on high.[e] 5 Make melody to Jehovah,[f] for he has done surpassingly.[g] This is made known in all the earth.

6 "Cry out shrilly and shout for joy, O you inhabitress of Zion, for great in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel."[h]

13 The pronouncement against Babylon[i] that Isaiah the son of A'moz[j] saw in vision: 2 "Upon a mountain of bare rocks raise up a signal,[k] you men. Lift up the voice to them, wave the hand,[l] that they may come into the entrances of the nobles.[m] 3 I myself have issued the command to my sanctified ones.[n] I have also called my mighty ones for [expressing] my anger,[o] my eminently exultant ones. 4 Listen! A crowd in the mountains, something like a numerous people![p] Listen! The uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathered together![q] Jehovah of armies is mustering the army of war.[r] 5 They are coming from the land far away,[s] from the extremity of the heavens, Jehovah and the weapons of his denunciation, to wreck all the earth.[t]

6 "Howl, you people,[u] for the day of Jehovah is near![v] As a despoiling from the Almighty it will come.[w] 7 That is why all hands themselves will drop down, and the whole heart itself of mortal man will melt.[x] 8 And people have become disturbed.[y] Convulsions and birth pains themselves grab hold; like a woman that is giving birth they have labor pains.[z] They look at each other in amazement. Their faces are inflamed faces.[a]

9 "Look! The day of Jehovah itself is coming, cruel both with fury and with burning anger, in order to make the land an object of astonishment,[b] and that it may annihilate [the land's] sinners out of it.[c] 10 For the very stars of the heavens and their constellations of Ke'sil[d] will not flash forth their light; the sun will actually grow dark at its going forth, and the moon itself will not cause its light to shine. 11 And I shall certainly bring home [its own] badness upon the productive land,[e] and their own error upon the wicked themselves. And I shall actually cause the pride of the presumptuous ones to cease, and the haughtiness of the tyrants I shall abase.[f] 12 I shall make mortal man rarer than refined gold,[g] and earthling man [rarer] than the gold of O'phir.[h] 13 That is why I shall cause heaven itself to become agitated,[i] and the earth will rock out of its place at the fury of Jehovah of armies[j] and at the day of his burning anger.[k] 14 And it must occur that, like a gazelle chased away and like a flock without anyone to collect them together,[l] they will turn, each one to his own people; and they will flee, each one to his own land.[m] 15 Every one that is found will be pierced through, and every one that is caught in the sweep will fall by the sword;[n] 16 and their very children will be dashed to pieces before their eyes.[o] Their houses will be pillaged, and their own wives will be raped.[p]

17 "Here I am arousing against them the Medes,[q] who account silver itself as nothing and who, as respects gold, take no delight in it. 18 And [their] bows will dash even young men to pieces.[a] And the fruitage of the belly they will not pity;[b] for sons their eye will not feel sorry. 19 And Babylon, the decoration of kingdoms,[c] the beauty of the pride of the Chal·de'ans,[d] must become as when God overthrew Sod'om and Go·mor'rah.[e] 20 She will never be inhabited,[f] nor will she reside for generation after generation.[g] And there the Arab will not pitch his tent, and no shepherds will let [their flocks] lie down there. 21 And there the haunters of waterless regions will certainly lie down, and their houses must be filled with eagle owls.[h] And there the ostriches must reside, and goat-shaped demons themselves will go skipping about there.[i] 22 And jackals must howl in her dwelling towers,[j] and the big snake will be in the palaces of exquisite delight. And the season for her is near to come, and her days themselves will not be postponed."[k]

14 For Jehovah will show mercy to Jacob,[l] and he is yet certain to choose Israel;[m] and he will actually give them rest upon their soil,[n] and the alien resident must be joined to them, and they must attach themselves to the house of Jacob.[o] 2 And peoples will actually take them and bring them to their own place, and the house of Israel must take them to themselves as a possession upon the soil of Jehovah as menservants and as maidservants;[p] and they must become the captors[q] of those holding them captive, and they must have in subjection those who were driving them to work.[r]

3 And it must occur in the day when Jehovah gives you rest from your pain and from your agitation and from the hard slavery in which you were made a slave,[s] 4 that you must raise up this proverbial saying against the king of Babylon and say:

"How has the one driving [others] to work come to a stop, the oppression come to a stop![a] 5 Jehovah has broken the rod of the wicked ones, the staff of the ruling ones,[b] 6 the one striking peoples in fury with a stroke incessantly,[c] the one subduing nations in sheer anger with a persecution without restraint.[d] 7 The whole earth has come to rest,[e] has become free of disturbance. People have become cheerful with joyful cries.[f] 8 Even the juniper trees[g] have also rejoiced at you, the cedars of Leb'a·non, [saying,] 'Ever since you have lain down, no [wood]cutter[h] comes up against us.'

9 "Even She'ol[i] underneath has become agitated at you in order to meet you on coming in. At you it has awakened those impotent in death,[j] all the goatlike leaders[k] of the earth. It has made all the kings of the nations get up from their thrones.[l] 10 All of them speak up and say to you, 'Have you yourself also been made weak like us?[m] Is it to us that you have been made comparable?[n] 11 Down to She'ol your pride has been brought, the din of your stringed instruments.[o] Beneath you, maggots are spread out as a couch; and worms are your covering.'[p]

12 "O how you have fallen from heaven,[q] you shining one, son of the dawn! How you have been cut down to the earth,[r] you who were disabling the nations![s] 13 As for you, you have said in your heart, 'To the heavens I shall go up.[t] Above the stars[u] of God I shall lift up my throne,[v] and I shall sit down upon the

High.'[d]

15 "However, down to She'ol you will be brought,[e] to the remotest parts of the pit.[f] 16 Those seeing you will gaze even at you; they will give close examination even to you, [saying,] 'Is this the man that was agitating the earth, that was making kingdoms rock,[g] 17 that made the productive land like the wilderness and that overthrew its very cities,[h] that did not open the way you, you have been thrown away will not become united with them in a grave, because you brought your own land to ruin, you killed your own people. To rise up and actually take possession of the earth and fill the face of the productive land with cities."[p]

22 "And I will rise up against them,"[q] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

"And I will cut off from Babylon name[r] and remnant and progeny and posterity,"[s] is the utterance of Jehovah.

23 "And I will make her a possession of porcupines and reedy pools of water, and I will sweep her with the broom of annihilation,"[a] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

24 Jehovah of armies has sworn,[b] saying: "Surely just as I have figured, so it must occur;
and just as I have counseled,
that is what will come true,[c] 25 in order to break the Assyr'i·an in my land[d] and that upon them and that his very load may depart from upon their shoulder."[f]

26 This is the counsel that is counseled against all the earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out against all the nations. 27 For Jehovah of armies himself has counseled,[g] and who can break [it] up?[h] And his hand is the one stretched out, and who can turn it back?[i]

28 In the year that King
A'haz died[j] this pronouncement occurred: 29 "Do not rejoice,[k] O Phi·lis'ti·a,[l] any one of you, just because the staff of the one striking you has been broken.[m] For out of the root of the serpent[n] there will come forth a poisonous snake,[o] and its fruit will be a flying fiery snake.[p] 30 And the firstborn ones of the lowly ones will certainly feed, and in security the poor ones themselves will lie down.[q] And with famine I will put your root to death, and what remains over of you will be killed.[r] 31 Howl, O gate!
Cry out, O city! All of you must become disheartened, O Phi·lis'ti·a! For out of the north a smoke is coming, and there is no one getting isolated from his ranks."[s]

32 And what will anyone say in answer to the messengers[t] of the nation? That Jehovah himself has laid the foundation of Zion,[u] and in her the afflicted ones of his people will take

15 The pronouncement against Mo'ab:[a] Because in the night it has been despoiled, Ar[b] of Mo'ab itself has been silenced. Because in the night it has been despoiled, Kir[c] of Mo'ab itself has been silenced. 2 He has gone up to The House and to Di'bon,[d] to the high places, to a weeping. Over Ne'bo[e] and over Med'e·ba[f] Mo'ab itself howls. On all heads in it there is baldness;[g] every beard is clipped.
3 In its streets they have girded on sackcloth.[h] Upon the roofs[i] thereof and in the public squares thereof everyone thereof howls, going down with weeping.[j] 4 And Hesh'bon and E·le·a'leh[k] cry out. As far as Ja'haz[l] their voice has been heard. That is why the armed men of Mo'ab themselves keep shouting. His very soul has quivered within him.

5 My own heart cries out over Mo'ab himself.[m] The runaways thereof are as far along as Zo'ar[n] [and] Eg'lath-she·li'shi·yah.[o] For on the ascent of Lu'hith[p]—with weeping [each] one goes up on it;
for on the way to Hor·o·na'im[q] they arouse the outcry about the catastrophe. 6 For the very waters of Nim'rim[r] become sheer desolations. For the green grass has dried up, the grass has come to an end; nothing has become green.[s] 7 That is why the leftovers and their stored goods that they have put up, they keep carrying them away right over the torrent valley of the poplars. 8 For the outcry has gone around the territory of Mo'ab.[t] The howling thereof is clear to Eg·la'im; the howling thereof is clear to Be'er-e'lim, 9 because the very waters of Di'mon have become full of blood. For upon Di'mon I shall place additional things, such as a lion for the escapees of Mo'ab who escape and for the remaining ones of the ground.[a]

16 Send a ram, YOU men, to the ruler of the land,[b] from Se'la toward the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion.[c]

2 And it must occur [that] like a fleeing winged creature, chased away from [its] nest,[d]
the daughters of Mo'ab will become at the fords of Ar'non.[e]

3 "Bring in counsel, YOU men, execute the decision.[f]

"Make your shadow just like the night in the midst of noontime.[g] Conceal the dispersed ones;[h] do not betray anyone fleeing.[i] 4 May my dispersed ones reside as aliens even in you, O Mo'ab.[j] Become a place of concealment to them because of the despoiler.[k] For the oppressor has reached his end;
the despoiling has terminated; those trampling down [others] have been finished off the earth.[l]

5 "And in loving-kindness a throne will certainly be firmly established;[m] and one must sit down upon it in trueness in the tent of David,[n] judging and seeking justice and being prompt in righteousness."[o]

6 We have heard of the pride of Mo'ab, that he is very proud;[p] his haughtiness and his pride and his fury[q]—his empty talk will not be so.[r] 7 Therefore Mo'ab will howl for Mo'ab; even all of it will howl.[s] For the raisin cakes of Kir-har'e·seth[t]
the stricken ones indeed will moan, 8 because the terraces themselves of Hesh'bon[u] have withered. The vine of Sib'mah[v]
—the owners of the nations themselves have smitten down its bright-red [branches]. As far as Ja'zer[w] they had reached;
they had wandered about in the wilderness. Its own shoots had been left to luxuriate for themselves; they had gone over to the sea.

9 That is why I shall weep with the weeping of Ja'zer over the vine of Sib'mah.[a] With my tears I shall drench you, O Hesh'bon[b] and E·le·a'leh,[c] because shouting even over your summer and over your harvest has fallen down.[d] 10 And rejoicing and joyfulness have been taken away from the orchard;
and in the vineyards there is no joyful crying out, there is no shouting done.[e] No wine in the presses does the treader tread out.[f] Shouting I have caused to cease.[g]
11 That is why my very inwards are boisterous just like a harp even over Mo'ab,[h] and the midst of me over Kir-har'e·seth.[i] 12 And it occurred that it was seen that Mo'ab was made weary upon the high place;[j] and he came to his sanctuary to pray,[k] and he could not accomplish anything.[l]
13 This is the word that Jehovah spoke concerning Mo'ab formerly. 14 And now Jehovah has spoken, saying: "Within three years, according to the years of a hired laborer,[m] the glory[n] of Mo'ab must also be disgraced with much commotion of every sort, and those who remain over will be a trifling few, not mighty."[o]

17 The pronouncement against Damascus:[p]
"Look! Damascus removed from being a city, and she has become a heap, a decaying ruin.[q] 2 The cities of A·ro'er[r] that have been left behind become mere places for droves, where they actually lie down, with no one to make [them] tremble.[s] 3 And the fortified city has been made to cease out of E'phra·im,[t] and the kingdom out of Damascus;[u] and those of Syria remaining over will become just like the glory of the sons of Israel," is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.[a] 4 "And it must occur in that day that the glory of Jacob will become lowly,[b] and even the fatness of his flesh will be made lean.[c] 5 And it must occur that when the harvester is gathering the standing grain and his own arm harvests the ears of grain,[d] he must even become like one gleaning ears of grain in the low plain of Reph'a·im.[e] 6 And there must remain in it a gleaning as when there is a beating off of the olive tree: two [or] three ripe olives in the top of the branch; four [or] five on the fruit-bearing boughs thereof,"
is the utterance of Jehovah
the God of Israel.[f]
7 In that day earthling man will look up to his Maker, and his own eyes will gaze at the Holy One of Israel himself.[g] 8 And he will not look to the altars,[h] the work of his hands;[i] and at what his fingers have made he will not gaze, either at the sacred poles or at the incense stands.[j] 9 In that day his fortress cities will become like a place left entirely in the woodland, even the branch that they have left entirely on account of the sons of Israel; and it must become a desolate waste.[k] 10 For you have forgotten[l] the God of your salvation;[m] and the Rock[n] of your fortress you have not remembered.
That is why you plant pleasant plantations, and with the shoot of a stranger you set it. 11 In the day you may carefully fence about the plantation of yours, and in the morning you may cause the seed of yours to sprout, [but] the harvest will certainly flee in the day of the disease and incurable pain.[o]

12 Ha for the commotion of many peoples, who are boisterous as with the boisterousness of the seas! And for the noise of national groups, who make a din just like the noise of mighty waters![a] 13 The national groups[b] themselves will make a din just like the noise of many waters. And He will certainly rebuke it,[c] and it must flee far away and be chased like the chaff of the mountains before a wind and like a thistle whirl before a storm wind.[d] 14 At evening time, why, look!
there is sudden terror. Before morning—it is no more.[e] This is the share of those pillaging us, and the lot belonging to those plundering us.[f]

18 Ha for the land of the whirring insects with wings, which is in the region of the rivers of E·thi·o'pi·a![g] 2 It is the one sending forth envoys[h] by means of the sea, and by means of vessels of papyrus upon the surface of the waters, [saying:] "Go, YOU swift messengers, to a nation drawn out
and scoured, to a people fear-inspiring everywhere, a nation of tensile strength and of treading down, whose land the rivers have washed away."[i] 3 All YOU inhabitants of the productive land[j] and YOU residents of the earth, YOU will see a sight just as when there is the raising up of a signal upon the mountains,[k] and YOU will hear a sound just as when there is the blowing of a horn.[l] 4 For this is what Jehovah has said to me: "I will keep undisturbed and look upon my established place,[m] like the dazzling heat along with the light,[n] like the cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.[o]
5 For before the harvest, when the blossom comes to perfection and the bloom becomes a ripening grape, one must also cut off the sprigs with pruning shears and must remove the tendrils, must lop [them] off.[a] 6 They will be left all together for the bird of prey of the mountains and for the beast of the earth.[b] And upon it the bird of prey will certainly pass the summer, and upon it even every beast of the earth will pass the harvesttime.[c] 7 "In that time a gift will be brought to Jehovah of armies,[d] [from] a people drawn out and scoured,[e] even from a people fear-inspiring everywhere, a nation of tensile strength and of treading down, whose land the rivers have washed away, to the place of the name of Jehovah of armies, Mount Zion."[f]

19 The pronouncement against Egypt:[g] Look! Jehovah is riding on a swift cloud[h] and coming into Egypt. And the valueless gods of Egypt will certainly quiver because of him,[i] and the very heart of Egypt will melt in the midst of it.[j]
2 "And I will goad Egyptians against Egyptians, and they will certainly war each one against his brother, and each one against his companion, city against city, kingdom against kingdom.[k] 3 And the spirit of Egypt must become bewildered in the midst of it,[l] and I shall confuse its own counsel.[m] And they will be certain to resort to the valueless gods[n] and to the charmers and to the spirit mediums and to the professional foretellers of events.[o]
4 And I will deliver up Egypt into the hand of a hard master, and strong will be the king that will rule over them,"[p] is the utterance of the [true] Lord, Jehovah of armies.
5 And the water will certainly be dried up from the sea, and the river itself will become parched and actually run dry.[q] 6 And the rivers must stink; the Nile canals of Egypt must become low and parched.[a] The reed[b] and the rush themselves must molder. 7 The bare places by the Nile River, at the mouth of the Nile River, and every seedland of the Nile River will dry up.[c] It will certainly be driven away, and it will be no more. 8 And the fishers will have to mourn, and all those casting fishhooks into the Nile River must express sorrow, and even those spreading fishing nets upon the surface of the water will actually fade away.[d] 9 And the workers in carded flax[e] must become ashamed; also the loom workers on white fabrics. 10 And her weavers[f] must become crushed, all the wage workers grieved in soul.

11 The princes of Zo′an[g] are indeed foolish. As regards the wise ones of Phar′aoh's counselors, [their] counsel is something unreasonable.[h] How will YOU men say to Phar′aoh: "I am the son of wise ones, the son of kings of ancient time"? 12 Where, then, are they—the wise men of yours[i]—that they may now tell you and that they may know what Jehovah of armies has counseled concerning Egypt?[j] 13 The princes of Zo′an have acted foolishly,[k] the princes of Noph[l] have been deceived, the keymen[m] of her tribes have caused Egypt to wander about. 14 Jehovah himself has mingled in the midst of her the spirit of disconcertedness;[n] and they have caused Egypt to wander about in all its work, just as someone drunk is made to wander about in his vomit.[o] 15 And Egypt will not come to have any work that the head or the tail, the shoot or the rush, can do.[p]

16 In that day Egypt will become like women, and it will certainly tremble[q] and be in dread because of the waving of the hand of Jehovah of armies which he is waving against it.[a] 17 And the ground of Judah must become to Egypt a cause for reeling.[b] Everybody to whom one mentions it is in dread because of the counsel of Jehovah of armies that he is counseling against him.[c]

18 In that day there will prove to be five cities in the land of Egypt[d] speaking the language of Ca′naan[e] and swearing[f] to Jehovah of armies. The City of Tearing Down will one [city] be called.

19 In that day there will prove to be an altar to Jehovah in the midst of the land of Egypt,[g] and a pillar to Jehovah beside its boundary. 20 And it must prove to be for a sign and for a witness to Jehovah of armies in the land of Egypt;[h] for they will cry out to Jehovah because of the oppressors,[i] and he will send them a savior, even a grand one, who will actually deliver them.[j] 21 And Jehovah will certainly become known to the Egyptians;[k] and the Egyptians must know Jehovah in that day, and they must render sacrifice and gift[l] and must make a vow to Jehovah and pay it.[m] 22 And Jehovah will certainly deal Egypt a blow.[n] There will be a dealing of a blow and a healing;[o] and they must return to Jehovah,[p] and he must let himself be entreated by them and must heal them.[q]

23 In that day there will come to be a highway[r] out of Egypt to As·syr′i·a, and As·syr′i·a will actually come into Egypt, and Egypt into As·syr′i·a; and they will certainly render service, Egypt with As·syr′i·a. 24 In that day Israel will come to be the third with Egypt and with As·syr′i·a,[s] namely, a blessing in the midst of the earth,[t]

25 because Jehovah of armies will have blessed it,[a] saying: "Blessed be my people, Egypt, and the work of my hands, As·syr′i·a,[b] and my inheritance, Israel."[c]

20 In the year that Tar′tan[d] came to Ash′dod,[e] when Sar′gon the king of As·syr′i·a sent him,[f] and he proceeded to war against Ash′dod and to capture it;[g] 2 at that time Jehovah spoke by the hand of Isaiah the son of A′moz,[h] saying: "Go,[i] and you must loosen the sackcloth from off your hips;[j] and your sandals you should draw from off your feet."[k] And he proceeded to do so, walking about naked and barefoot.[l]

3 And Jehovah went on to say: "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked about naked and barefoot three years as a sign[m] and a portent against Egypt[n] and against E·thi·o′pi·a,[o] 4 so the king of As·syr′i·a will lead the body of captives of Egypt[p] and the exiles of E·thi·o′pi·a, boys and old men, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks stripped, the nakedness of Egypt.[q] 5 And they will certainly be terrified and be ashamed of E·thi·o′pi·a their looked-for hope[r] and of Egypt their beauty.[s] 6 And the inhabitant of this coastland will be certain to say in that day, 'There is how our looked-for hope is, to which we fled for assistance, in order to be delivered because of the king of As·syr′i·a![t] And how shall we ourselves escape?'"

21 The pronouncement against the wilderness of the sea:[u] Like storm winds[v] in the south in moving onward, from the wilderness it is coming, from a fear-inspiring land.[w] 2 There is a hard vision[x] that has been told to me: The treacherous dealer is dealing treacherously, and the despoiler is despoiling.[y] Go up, O E′lam! Lay siege, O Me′di·a![a] All sighing due to her I have caused to cease.[b] 3 That is why my hips have become full of severe pains.[c] Convulsions themselves have grabbed hold of me, like the convulsions of a woman that is giving birth.[d] I have become disconcerted so that I do not hear; I have become disturbed so that I do not see. 4 My heart has wandered about; a shuddering itself has terrified me. The twilight for which I had an attachment has been made for me a trembling.[e]

5 Let there be a setting of the table in order, an arranging of the location of seats, an eating, a drinking![f] Get up, YOU princes,[g] anoint the shield.[h] 6 For this is what Jehovah has said to me:

"Go, post a lookout that he may tell just what he sees."[i]

7 And he saw a war chariot [with] a span of steeds, a war chariot of asses, a war chariot of camels. And he paid strict attention, with much attentiveness. 8 And he proceeded to call out like a lion:[j] "Upon the watchtower, O Jehovah, I am standing constantly by day, and at my guardpost I am stationed all the nights.[k] 9 And here, now, there is coming a war chariot of men, [with] a span of steeds!"[l]

And he began to speak up and say: "She has fallen! Babylon has fallen,[m] and all the graven images of her gods he has broken to the earth!"[n]

10 O my threshed ones and the son of my threshing floor,[o] what I have heard from Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, I have reported to YOU people.

11 The pronouncement against Du′mah: To me there is one calling out from Se′ir:[p]

"Watchman, what about the night? Watchman, what about the night?"[a] 12 The watchman said: "The morning has to come, and also the night. If YOU people would inquire, inquire. Come again!"

13 The pronouncement against the desert plain: In the forest in the desert plain YOU will spend the night, O caravans of men of De'dan.[b] 14 To meet the thirsty one BRING water. O YOU inhabitants of the land of Te'ma,[c] confront the one fleeing away with bread for him. 15 For because of the swords they have fled away, because of the drawn sword, and because of the bent bow and because of the heaviness of the war.

16 For this is what Jehovah has said to me: "Within yet a year, according to the years of a hired laborer,[d] all the glory of Ke'dar[e] must even come to its end. 17 And the ones remaining over of the number of bow[men], the mighty men of the sons of Ke'dar, will become few,[f] for Jehovah himself, the God of Israel, has spoken [it]."[g]

22 The pronouncement of the valley of the vision:[h] What is the matter with you, then, that you have gone up in your entirety to the roofs?[i] 2 With turmoil you were full, a boisterous city, an exultant town.[j] Your slain ones are not those slain with the sword, nor those dead in battle.[k] 3 All your dictators[l] themselves have fled at one time.[m] Without [need of] a bow they have been taken prisoner. All those of you who have been found have been taken prisoner together.[n] Far off they had run away.

4 That is why I have said: "Turn YOUR gaze away from me. I will show bitterness in weeping.[o] Do not YOU people insist on comforting me over the despoiling of the daughter of my people.[p] 5 For it is the day of confusion[a] and of downtreading[b] and of confounding[c] that the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has in the valley of the vision. There is the demolisher of the wall,[d] and the cry to the mountain.[e] 6 And E'lam[f] itself has taken up the quiver, in the war chariot of earthling man, [with] steeds; and Kir[g] itself has uncovered the shield. 7 And it will occur that the choicest of your low plains must become full of war chariots, and the very steeds must without fail set themselves in position at the gate, 8 and one will remove the screen of Judah. And you will look in that day toward the armory[h] of the house of the forest,[i] 9 and YOU people will certainly see the very breaches of the City of David, for they will actually be many.[j] And YOU will collect the waters of the lower pool.[k] 10 And the houses of Jerusalem YOU will actually count. You will also pull down the houses to make the wall[l] unattainable. 11 And there will be a collecting basin that YOU must make between the two walls for the waters of the old pool.[m] And YOU will certainly not look at the grand maker of it, and the one forming it long ago YOU will certainly not see.

12 "And the Sovereign[n] Lord, Jehovah of armies, will call in that day for weeping[o] and for mourning and for baldness and for girding on sackcloth.[p] 13 But, look! exultation and rejoicing, the killing of cattle and the slaughtering of sheep, the eating of flesh and the drinking of wine,[q] 'Let there be eating and drinking, for tomorrow we shall die.'"[r]

14 And in my ears Jehovah of armies has revealed himself:[s] "'This error will not be atoned[t] for in YOUR behalf until YOU people die,'[u] the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has said."

15 This is what the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has said: "Go, enter in to this steward, to Sheb'na,[a] who is over the house,[b] 16 'What is there of interest to you here, and who is there of interest to you here, that you have hewed out for yourself here a burial place?'[c] On a height he is hewing out his burial place; in a crag he is cutting out a residence for himself. 17 'Look! Jehovah is hurling you down with violent hurling, O able-bodied man, and grasping you forcibly. 18 Without fail he will wrap you up tightly, like a ball for a wide land. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be the dishonor of the house of your master. 19 And I will push you away from your position; and from your official standing one will tear you down.[d]

20 "'And it must occur in that day that I will call my servant,[e] namely, E·li'a·kim[f] the son of Hil·ki'ah.[g] 21 And I will clothe him with your robe, and your sash I shall firmly bind about him,[h] and your dominion I shall give into his hand; and he must become a father to the inhabitant of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.[i] 22 And I will put the key[j] of the house of David upon his shoulder, and he must open without anyone's shutting, and he must shut without anyone's opening.[k] 23 And I will drive him in as a peg[l] in a lasting place, and he must become as a throne of glory to the house of his father.[m] 24 And they must hang upon him all the glory of the house of his father, the descendants and the offshoots, all the vessels of the small sort, the vessels of the bowl sort as well as all the vessels of the large jars.

25 "'In that day,' is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, 'the peg[a] that is driven in a lasting place will be removed,[b] and it must be hewn down and fall, and the load that is upon it must be cut off, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it].'"[c]

23 The pronouncement of Tyre:[d] Howl, YOU ships of Tar'shish![e] for it has been despoiled from [being] a port, from [being a place] to enter in.[f] From the land of Kit'tim[g] it has been revealed to them. 2 Be silent, YOU inhabitants of the coastland. The merchants from Si'don,[h] the ones crossing over the sea—they have filled you. 3 And on many waters has been the seed of Shi'hor,[i] the harvest of the Nile, her revenue; and it came to be the profit of the nations.[j]

4 Be ashamed, O Si'don;[k] because the sea, O you stronghold of the sea, has said: "I have not had birth pains, and I have not given birth, nor have I brought up young men, raised up virgins."[l] 5 Just as at the report pertaining to Egypt,[m] people will likewise be in severe pains at the report on Tyre.[n] 6 Cross over to Tar'shish; howl, YOU inhabitants of the coastland. 7 Is this YOUR [city] that was exultant from days of long ago, [from] her early times? Her feet used to bring her far away to reside as an alien.

8 Who is it that has given this counsel[o] against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants were princes, whose tradesmen were the honorable ones of the earth?[p]

9 Jehovah of armies himself has given this counsel,[q] to profane the pride of all beauty,[r] to treat with contempt all the honorable ones of the earth.[s]

10 Cross over your land like the Nile River, O daughter of Tar'shish.[t] There is no shipyard any longer.[a] 11 His hand he has stretched out over the sea; he has caused kingdoms to be agitated.[b] Jehovah himself has given a command against Phoe·ni′cia, to annihilate her strongholds.[c] 12 And he says: "You must never again exult,[d] O oppressed one, the virgin daughter of Si′don.[e] Get up, cross over to Kit′tim[f] itself. Even there it will not be restful for you."

13 Look! The land of the Chal·de′ans.[g] This is the people—As·syr′i·a[h] did not prove to be [the one]—they founded her for the desert haunters.[i] They have erected their siege towers;[j] they have stripped bare her dwelling towers;[k] one has set her as a crumbling ruin.[l]

14 Howl, YOU ships of Tar′shish, for YOUR stronghold has been despoiled.[m]

15 And it must occur in that day that Tyre must be forgotten seventy years,[n] the same as the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of a prostitute: 16 "Take a harp, go around the city, O forgotten prostitute.[o] Do your best at playing on the strings; make your songs many, in order that you may be remembered."

17 And it must occur at the end of seventy years that Jehovah will turn his attention to Tyre, and she must return to her hire[p] and commit prostitution with all the kingdoms of the earth upon the surface of the ground.[q] 18 And her profit and her hire[r] must become something holy to Jehovah. It will not be stored up, nor be laid up, because her hire will come to be for those dwelling before Jehovah,[s] for eating to satisfaction and for elegant covering.[t]

24 Look! Jehovah is emptying the land and laying it waste,[u] and he has twisted the face of it[v] and scattered its inhabitants.[a] 2 And it must come to be the same for the people as for the priest; the same for the servant as for his master; the same for the maidservant as for her mistress; the same for the buyer as for the seller; the same for the lender as for the borrower; the same for the interest taker as for the one paying the interest.[b] 3 Without fail the land will be emptied, and without fail it will be plundered,[c] for Jehovah himself has spoken this word.[d] 4 The land has gone to mourning,[e] has faded away. The productive land has withered, has faded away. The high ones of the people of the land have withered.[f] 5 And the very land has been polluted under its inhabitants,[g] for they have bypassed the laws,[h] changed the regulation,[i] broken the indefinitely lasting covenant.[j] 6 That is why the curse itself has eaten up the land,[k] and those inhabiting it are held guilty. That is why the inhabitants of the land have decreased in number, and very few mortal men have remained over.[l]

7 The new wine has gone to mourning, the vine has withered,[m] all those glad at heart have gone to sighing.[n] 8 The exultation of the tambourines has ceased, the noise of the highly elated ones has discontinued, the exultation of the harp has ceased.[o] 9 It is with no song that they drink wine; the intoxicating liquor becomes bitter to those drinking it. 10 The deserted town has been broken down;[p] every house has been shut up from entering. 11 There is an outcry in the streets for [want of] wine. All rejoicing has passed away; the exultation of the land has departed.[q] 12 In the city an astonishing condition has been left behind; the gate has been crushed to a mere rubble heap.[a]

13 For thus it will become in the midst of the land, in among the peoples, like the beating off of the olive tree,[b] like the gleaning when the grape gathering has come to an end.[c] 14 They themselves will raise their voice, they will cry out joyfully. In the superiority of Jehovah they will certainly cry out shrilly from the sea.[d] 15 That is why in the region of light[e] they must glorify Jehovah,[f] in the islands of the sea the name of Jehovah,[g] the God of Israel. 16 From the extremity of the land there are melodies that we have heard:[h] "Decoration to the Righteous One!"[i]

But I say: "For me there is leanness,[j] for me there is leanness! Woe to me! The treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously.[k] Even with treachery the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously."[l]

17 Dread and the hollow and the trap are upon you, you inhabitant of the land.[m] 18 And it must occur that anyone fleeing from the sound of the dreaded thing will fall into the hollow, and anyone coming up from inside the hollow will be caught in the trap.[n] For the very floodgates on high will actually be opened,[o] and the foundations of the land will rock.[p] 19 The land has absolutely burst apart, the land has absolutely been shaken up, the land has absolutely been sent staggering.[q] 20 The land absolutely moves unsteadily like a drunken man, and it has swayed to and fro like a lookout hut.[r] And its transgression has become heavy upon it,[s] and it must fall, so that it will not rise up again.[t]

21 And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will turn his attention upon the army of the height in the height, and upon the kings of the ground upon the ground.[a] 22 And they will certainly be gathered with a gathering as of prisoners into the pit,[b] and be shut up in the dungeon;[c] and after an abundance of days they will be given attention.[d] 23 And the full moon has become abashed, and the glowing [sun] has become ashamed,[e] for Jehovah of armies has become king[f] in Mount Zion[g] and in Jerusalem and in front of his elderly men with glory.[h]

25 O Jehovah, you are my God.[i] I exalt you,[j] I laud your name,[k] for you have done wonderful things,[l] counsels[m] from early times, in faithfulness,[n] in trustworthiness.[o] 2 For you have made a city a pile of stones, a fortified town a crumbling ruin, a dwelling tower of strangers to be no city, which will not be rebuilt even to time indefinite.[p] 3 That is why those who are a strong people will glorify you; the town of the tyrannical nations, they will fear you.[q] 4 For you have become a stronghold to the lowly one, a stronghold to the poor one in the distress that he has,[r] a refuge from the rainstorm, a shade[s] from the heat, when the blast of the tyrannical ones is like a rainstorm against a wall. 5 Like the heat in a waterless country, the noise of strangers you subdue, the heat with the shadow of a cloud.[t] The melody itself of the tyrannical ones becomes suppressed.[u]

6 And Jehovah of armies will certainly make for all the peoples,[v] in this mountain,[w] a banquet of well-oiled dishes,[a] a banquet of [wine kept on] the dregs, of well-oiled dishes filled with marrow,[b] of [wine[c] kept on] the dregs, filtered.[d] 7 And in this mountain he will certainly swallow up the face of the envelopment that is enveloping over all the peoples,[e] and the woven work that is interwoven upon all the nations. 8 He will actually swallow up death forever,[f] and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.[g] And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth,[h] for Jehovah himself has spoken [it].

9 And in that day one will certainly say: "Look! This is our God.[i] We have hoped in him,[j] and he will save us.[k] This is Jehovah.[l] We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him."[m]

10 For the hand of Jehovah will settle down on this mountain,[n] and Mo'ab must be trodden down[o] in its place as when a straw heap is trodden down in a manure[p] place. 11 And he must slap out his hands in the midst of it as when a swimmer slaps [them] out to swim, and he must abase its haughtiness[q] with the tricky movements of his hands. 12 And the fortified city, with your high walls of security, he must lay low; he must abase [it], bring [it] into contact with the earth, to the dust.[r]

26 In that day[s] this song will be sung[t] in the land of Judah:[u] "We have a strong city.[v] He sets salvation itself for walls and rampart.[w] 2 Open the gates,[x] YOU men, that the righteous nation that is keeping faithful conduct may enter.[y] 3 The inclination that is well supported you will safeguard in continuous peace,[z] because it is in you that one is made to trust.[a] 4 Trust in Jehovah,[b] YOU people, for all times, for in Jah Jehovah is the Rock[c] of times indefinite.

5 "For he has laid low those inhabiting the height,[d] the elevated town.[e] He abases it, he abases it to the earth; he brings it in touch with the dust.[f] 6 The foot will trample it down, the feet of the afflicted one, the steps of the lowly ones."[g]

7 The path of the righteous one is uprightness.[h] You being upright, you will smooth out the very course of a righteous one.[i] 8 Yes, for the path of your judgments, O Jehovah, we have hoped in you.[j] For your name and for your memorial[k] the desire of the soul has been.[l] 9 With my soul I have desired you in the night;[m] yes, with my spirit within me I keep looking for you;[n] because, when there are judgments from you for the earth,[o] righteousness[p] is what the inhabitants of the productive land will certainly learn.[q] 10 Though the wicked one should be shown favor, he simply will not learn righteousness.[r] In the land of straightforwardness he will act unjustly[s] and will not see the eminence of Jehovah.[t]

11 O Jehovah, your hand has become high,[u] [but] they do not behold [it].[v] They will behold and be ashamed[w] at the zeal for [your] people. Yes, the very fire[x] for your own adversaries will eat them up. 12 O Jehovah, you will adjudge peace to us,[y] because even all our works you have performed for us.[a] 13 O Jehovah our God, other masters besides you have acted as owners of us.[b] By you only shall we make mention of your name.[c] 14 They are dead; they will not live.[d] Impotent in death,[e] they will not rise up.[f] Therefore you have turned your attention that you might annihilate them and destroy all mention of them.[g]

15 You have added to the nation; O Jehovah, you have added to the nation;[h] you have glorified yourself.[i] You have extended afar all the borders of the land.[j] 16 O Jehovah, during distress they have turned their attention to you;[k] they have poured out a whisper [of prayer] when they had your disciplining.[l] 17 Just as a pregnant woman draws near to giving birth, has labor pains, cries out in her birth pangs, so we have become because of you, O Jehovah.[m] 18 We have become pregnant, we have had labor pains;[n] as it were, we have given birth to wind. No real salvation do we accomplish as regards the land,[o] and no inhabitants for the productive land proceed to fall [in birth].[p]

19 "Your dead ones will live.[q] A corpse of mine—they will rise up.[r] Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust![s] For your dew[t] is as the dew of mallows,[u] and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth].[v]

20 "Go, my people, enter into your interior rooms, and shut your doors behind you.[w] Hide yourself for but a moment until the denunciation passes over.[x] 21 For, look! Jehovah is coming forth from his place to call to account the error of the inhabitant of the land against him,[y] and the land will certainly expose her bloodshed[z] and will no longer cover over her killed ones."[a]

27 In that day Jehovah,[a] with his hard and great and strong sword,[b] will turn his attention to Le·vi'a·than,[c] the gliding serpent,[d] even to Le·vi'a·than, the crooked serpent, and he will certainly kill the sea monster[e] that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing to her,[f] YOU people: "A vineyard[g] of foaming wine! 3 I, Jehovah, am safeguarding her.[h] Every moment I shall water her.[i] In order that no one may turn his attention against her, I shall safeguard her even night and day.[j] 4 There is no rage that I have.[k] Who will give me thornbushes[l] [and] weeds in the battle? I will step on such. I will set such on fire at the same time.[m] 5 Otherwise let him take hold of my stronghold, let him make peace with me; peace let him make with me."[n]

6 In the coming [days] Jacob will take root, Israel[o] will put forth blossoms and actually sprout; and they will simply fill the surface of the productive land with produce.[p]

7 As with the stroke of one striking him does one have to strike him? Or as with the slaughter of his killed ones does he have to be killed?[q] 8 With a scare cry you will contend with her when sending her forth. He must expel [her] with his blast, a hard one in the day of the east wind.[r] 9 Therefore by this means the error of Jacob will be atoned for,[s] and this is all the fruit [when] he takes away his sin,[t] when he makes all the stones of the altar like chalkstones that have been pulverized, so that the sacred poles[u] and the incense stands will not rise up.[a] 10 For the fortified city will be solitary, the pasture ground will be left to itself and abandoned like a wilderness.[b] There the calf will graze, and there it will lie down; and he will actually consume her boughs.[c] 11 When her sprigs have dried up, women coming in will break [them] off, lighting them up.[d] For it is not a people of keen understanding.[e] That is why its Maker will show it no mercy, and its own Former will show it no favor.[f]

12 And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will beat off [the fruit],[g] from the flowing stream of the River[h] to the torrent valley of Egypt,[i] and so YOU yourselves will be picked up one after the other,[j] O sons of Israel. 13 And it must occur in that day that there will be a blowing on a great horn,[k] and those who are perishing in the land of As·syr′i·a[l] and those who are dispersed in the land of Egypt[m] will certainly come and bow[n] down to Jehovah in the holy mountain in Jerusalem.[o]

28 Woe to the eminent crown of the drunkards of E′phra·im,[p] and the fading blossom of its decoration of beauty that is upon the head of the fertile valley of those overpowered by wine! 2 Look! Jehovah has someone strong and vigorous.[q] Like a thunderous storm of hail,[r] a destructive storm, like a thunderous storm of powerful, flooding waters,[s] he will certainly do a casting down to the earth with force. 3 With the feet the eminent crowns of the drunkards of E′phra·im will be trampled[t] down. 4 And the fading flower[u] of its decoration of beauty that is upon the head of the fertile valley must become like the early fig[v] before summer, that, when the seer sees it, while it is yet in his palm, he swallows it down.

5 In that day Jehovah of armies will become as a crown of decoration[a] and as a garland of beauty[b] to the ones remaining[c] over of his people, 6 and as a spirit of justice to the one sitting in the judgment,[d] and as mightiness [to] those turning away the battle from the gate.[e]

7 And these also—because of wine they have gone astray and because of intoxicating liquor they have wandered about. Priest and prophet[f]—they have gone astray because of intoxicating liquor, they have become confused as a result of the wine, they have wandered[g] about as a result of the intoxicating liquor; they have gone astray in their seeing, they have reeled as to decision. 8 For the tables themselves have all become full of filthy vomit[h]—there is no place [without it].

9 Whom will one instruct in knowledge,[i] and whom will one make understand what has been heard?[j] Those who have been weaned from the milk, those moved away from the breasts?[k] 10 For it is "command upon command, command upon command, measuring line upon measuring line, measuring line upon measuring line, here a little, there a little."[l] 11 For by those stammering with their lips[m] and by a different tongue[n] he will speak to this people,[o] 12 those to whom he has said: "This is the resting-place. GIVE rest to the weary one. And this is the place of ease," but who were not willing to hear.[p] 13 And to them the word of Jehovah will certainly become "command upon command, command upon command, measuring line upon measuring line, measuring line upon measuring line,[q] here a little, there a little," in order that they may go and certainly stumble backwards and actually be broken and ensnared and caught.[a]

14 Therefore hear the word of Jehovah, YOU braggarts, YOU rulers[b] of this people who are in Jerusalem: 15 Because YOU men have said: "We have concluded a covenant with Death;[c] and with She′ol we have effected a vision;[d] the overflowing flash flood, in case it should pass through, will not come to us, for we have made a lie our refuge[e] and in falsehood we have concealed ourselves";[f] 16 therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Here I am laying as a foundation in Zion[g] a stone,[h] a tried stone,[i] the precious corner[j] of a sure foundation.[k] No one exercising faith will get panicky.[l] 17 And I will make justice the measuring line[m] and righteousness[n] the leveling instrument; and the hail[o] must sweep away the refuge of a lie,[p] and the waters themselves will flood out the very place of concealment.[q] 18 And YOUR covenant with Death will certainly be dissolved,[r] and that vision of YOURS with She′ol will not stand.[s] The overflowing flash flood, when it passes through[t]—YOU must also become for it a trampling place.[u] 19 As often as it passes through, it will take YOU men away,[v] because morning by morning it will pass through, during the day and during the night; and it must become nothing but a reason for quaking[w] to make [others] understand what has been heard."

20 For the couch has proved too short for stretching oneself on, and the woven sheet itself is [too] narrow when wrapping oneself up. 21 For Jehovah will rise up just as at Mount Pe·ra′zim,[x] he will be agitated just as in the low plain near Gib′e·on,[y] that he may do his deed—his deed is strange—and that he may work his work—his work is unusual.[a] 22 And now do not show yourselves scoffers,[b] in order that YOUR bands may not grow strong, for there is an extermination, even something decided upon, that I have heard of from the Sovereign[c] Lord, Jehovah of armies, for all the land.[d]

23 Give ear, YOU men, and listen to my voice; pay attention and listen to my saying. 24 Is it all day long[e] that the plower plows in order to sow seed, that he loosens and harrows his ground?[f] 25 Does he not, when he has smoothed out its surface, then scatter black cumin and sprinkle the cumin,[g] and must he not put in wheat, millet,[h] and barley in the appointed place,[i] and spelt[j] as his boundary?[k] 26 And one corrects[l] him according to what is right. His own God instructs him.[m] 27 For it is not with a threshing instrument[n] that black cumin is given a treading; and upon cumin no wheel of a wagon is turned. For it is with a rod[o] that black cumin is generally beaten out, and cumin with a staff. 28 Is breadstuff itself generally crushed? For never does one incessantly[p] keep treading it out.[q] And he must set the roller of his wagon in motion, and his own steeds, [but] he will not crush it.[r] 29 This also is what has come forth from Jehovah of armies himself,[s] who has been wonderful in counsel, who has done greatly in effectual working.[t]

29 "Woe to Ar′i·el,[u] to Ar′i·el, the town where David encamped![v] Add year upon year, YOU people; let the festivals[w] run the round. 2 And I have to make things tight[x] for Ar'i·el, and there must come to be mourning and lamentation,[a] and she must become to me as the altar hearth of God.[b] 3 And I must encamp on all sides against you, and I must lay siege to you with a palisade and raise up against you siegeworks.[c] 4 And you must become low so that you will speak from the very earth, and as from the dust your saying will sound low.[d] And like a spirit medium your voice must become even from the earth, and from the dust your own saying will chirp.[e] 5 And the crowd of those strange to you must become just like fine powder,[f] and the crowd of the tyrants[g] just like the chaff that is passing away.[h] And it must occur in an instant, suddenly.[i] 6 From Jehovah of armies you will have attention with thunder and with quaking and with a great sound, storm wind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire."[j]

7 And it must occur just as in a dream, in a vision of the night, regarding the crowd of all the nations that are waging war against Ar'i·el,[k] even all those waging war against her, and the siege towers against her and those making things tight for her.[l] 8 Yes, it must occur just as when someone hungry dreams and here he is eating, and he actually awakes and his soul is empty;[m] and just as when someone thirsty dreams and here he is drinking, and he actually awakes and here he is tired and his soul is dried out; thus it will occur with the crowd of all the nations that are waging war against Mount Zion.[n]

9 Linger, YOU men, and be amazed;[o] blind yourselves, and be blinded.[p] They have become intoxicated,[q] but not with wine; they have moved unsteadily, but not because of intoxicating liquor.[a]

10 For upon YOU men Jehovah has poured a spirit of deep sleep;[b] and he closes YOUR eyes, the prophets,[c] and he has covered even YOUR heads,[d] the visionaries.[e] 11 And for YOU men the vision of everything becomes like the words of the book that has been sealed up,[f] which they give to someone knowing the writing, saying: "Read this out loud, please," and he has to say: "I am unable, for it is sealed up";[g] 12 and the book must be given to someone that does not know writing, [somebody] saying: "Read this out loud, please," and he has to say: "I do not know writing at all."

13 And Jehovah says: "For the reason that this people have come near with their mouth, and they have glorified me merely with their lips,[h] and they have removed their heart itself far away from me,[i] and their fear toward me becomes men's commandment that is being taught,[j] 14 therefore here I am, the One that will act wonderfully again with this people,[k] in a wonderful manner and with something wonderful; and the wisdom of their wise men must perish, and the very understanding of their discreet men will conceal itself."[l]

15 Woe to those who are going very deep in concealing counsel from Jehovah himself,[m] and whose deeds have occurred in a dark place,[n] while they say: "Who is seeing us, and who is knowing of us?"[o] 16 The perversity of YOU men! Should the potter himself be accounted just like the clay?[p] For should the thing made say respecting its maker: "He did not make me"?[q] And does the very thing formed actually say respecting its former: "He showed no understanding"?[r]

17 Is it not yet but a very little time and Leb'a·non must be turned into an orchard[a] and the orchard itself will be accounted just as a forest?[b] 18 And in that day the deaf ones will certainly hear the words of the book,[c] and out of the gloom and out of the darkness even the eyes of the blind ones will see.[d] 19 And the meek[e] ones will certainly increase their rejoicing in Jehovah himself, and even the poor ones of mankind will be joyful in the Holy One of Israel himself,[f] 20 because the tyrant must reach his end,[g] and the bragger must come to his finish,[h] and all those keeping alert to do harm[i] must be cut off, 21 those bringing a man into sin by [his] word,[j] and those who lay bait even for the one reproving in the gate,[k] and those who push aside the righteous one with empty arguments.[l]

22 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said to the house of Jacob, he that redeemed Abraham:[m] "Jacob will not now be ashamed, nor will his own face now grow pale;[n] 23 for when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him,[o] they will sanctify my name,[p] and they will certainly sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,[q] and the God of Israel they will regard with awe.[r] 24 And those who are erring in [their] spirit will actually get to know understanding, and even those who are grumbling will learn instruction."[s]

30 "Woe to the stubborn sons,"[t] is the utterance of Jehovah, "[those disposed] to carry out counsel, but not that from me;[u] and to pour out a libation, but not with my spirit, in order to add sin to sin;[v] 2 those who are setting out to go down to Egypt[w] and who have not inquired of my own mouth,[x] to take shelter in the stronghold of Phar'aoh and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt![a] 3 And the stronghold of Phar'aoh must become even for YOU men a reason for shame,[b] and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt a cause for humiliation.[c] 4 For his princes have come to be in Zo'an[d] itself, and his own envoys reach even Ha'nes. 5 Every one will certainly become ashamed of a people that bring no benefit to one, that are of no help and bring no benefit, but are a reason for shame and also a cause for reproach."[e]

6 The pronouncement against the beasts of the south:[f] Through the land of distress[g] and hard conditions, of the lion and the leopard growling, of the viper and the flying fiery snake,[h] on the shoulders of full-grown asses they carry their resources, and on the humps of camels[i] their supplies. In behalf of the people they will prove of no benefit. 7 And the Egyptians are mere vanity, and they will help simply for nothing.[j] Therefore I have called this one: "Ra'hab[k]—they are for sitting still."

8 "Now come, write it upon a tablet with them, and inscribe it even in a book,[l] that it may serve for a future day, for a witness to time indefinite.[m] 9 For it is a rebellious people,[n] untruthful sons,[o] sons who have been unwilling to hear the law of Jehovah;[p] 10 who have said to the ones seeing, 'You must not see,' and to the ones having visions, 'You must not envision for us any straightforward things.[q] Speak to us smooth things; envision deceptive things.[r] 11 Turn aside from the way; deviate from the path.[a] Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease just on account of us.'"[b]

12 Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel has said: "In view of YOUR rejecting of this word,[c] and [since] YOU men trust in defrauding and in what is devious and YOU support yourselves on it,[d] 13 therefore for YOU this error will become like a broken section about to fall down, a swelling out in a highly raised wall,[e] the breakdown of which may come suddenly, in an instant.[f] 14 And one will certainly break it as in the breaking of a large jar of the potters,[g] crushed to pieces without one's sparing [it], so that there cannot be found among its crushed pieces a fragment of earthenware with which to rake the fire from the fireplace or to skim water from a marshy place."[h]

15 For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel,[i] has said: "By coming back and resting YOU people will be saved. YOUR mightiness will prove to be simply in keeping undisturbed and in trustfulness."[j] But YOU were not willing.[k] 16 And YOU proceeded to say: "No, but on horses we shall flee!"[l] That is why YOU will flee. "And on swift [horses] we shall ride!"[m] That is why those pursuing YOU will show themselves swift.[n] 17 A thousand will tremble on account of the rebuke of one;[o] on account of the rebuke of five YOU will flee until YOU will have remained over like a mast on the top of a mountain and like a signal on a hill.[p]

18 And therefore Jehovah will keep in expectation of showing YOU favor,[q] and therefore he will rise up to show YOU mercy.[r] For Jehovah is a God of judgment.[s] Happy[t] are all those keeping in expectation of him.[a] 19 When the very people in Zion[b] will dwell in Jerusalem,[c] you will by no means weep.[d] He will without fail show you favor at the sound of your outcry; as soon as he hears it he will actually answer you.[e] 20 And Jehovah will certainly give YOU people bread in the form of distress and water in the form of oppression;[f] yet your Grand Instructor will no longer hide himself, and your eyes must become [eyes] seeing your Grand Instructor.[g] 21 And your own ears will hear a word behind you saying: "This is the way.[h] Walk in it, YOU people," in case YOU people should go to the right or in case YOU should go to the left.[i]

22 And YOU people must defile the overlaying of your graven images of silver[j] and the close-fitting covering of your molten[k] statue of gold.[l] You will scatter them.[m] Like a menstruating woman, you will say to it: "Mere dirt!"[n] 23 And he will certainly give the rain for your seed with which you sow the ground,[o] and as the produce of the ground bread, which must become fat and oily.[p] Your livestock will graze in that day in a spacious pasture.[q] 24 And the cattle and the full-grown asses cultivating the ground will eat fodder seasoned with sorrel, which was winnowed with the shovel[r] and with the fork. 25 And upon every high mountain and upon every elevated hill there must come to be streams,[s] water ditches, in the day of the big slaughter when the towers fall.[t] 26 And the light of the full moon must become as the light of the glowing [sun]; and the very light of the glowing [sun] will become seven times as much,[u] like the light of seven days, in the day that Jehovah binds up the breakdown[a] of his people and heals[b] even the severe wound resulting from the stroke by him.

27 Look! The name of Jehovah is coming from far away, burning with his anger[c] and with heavy clouds. As for his lips, they have become full of denunciation, and his tongue is like a devouring fire.[d] 28 And his spirit is like a flooding torrent that reaches clear to the neck,[e] to swing the nations to and fro with a sieve[f] of worthlessness; and a bridle[g] that causes one to wander about will be in the jaws of the peoples.[h] 29 YOU people will come to have a song[i] like that in the night that one sanctifies oneself for a festival,[j] and rejoicing of heart like that of one walking with a flute[k] to enter into the mountain of Jehovah,[l] to the Rock of Israel.[m]

30 And Jehovah will certainly make the dignity of his voice[n] to be heard and will make the descending of his arm to be seen,[o] in the raging of anger[p] and the flame of a devouring fire[q] [and] cloudburst and rainstorm[r] and hailstones.[s] 31 For because of the voice of Jehovah As·syr'i·a will be struck with terror;[t] he will strike [it] even with a staff.[u] 32 And every swing of his rod of chastisement that Jehovah will cause to settle down upon [As·syr'i·a] will certainly prove to be with tambourines and with harps;[v] and with battles of brandishing he will actually fight against them.[w] 33 For his To'pheth[x] is set in order from recent times; it is also prepared for the king himself.[y] He has made its pile deep. Fire and wood are in abundance. The breath of Jehovah, like a torrent of sulphur, is burning against it.[z]

31 Woe to those going down to Egypt for assistance,[a] those who rely on mere horses,[b] and who put their trust in war chariots,[c] because they are numerous, and in steeds, because they are very mighty, but who have not looked to the Holy One of Israel and have not searched for Jehovah himself.[d] 2 And he is also wise[e] and will bring in what is calamitous,[f] and he has not called back his own words;[g] and he will certainly rise up against the house of evildoers[h] and against the assistance of those practicing what is hurtful.[i]

3 The Egyptians, though, are earthling men,[j] and not God; and their horses are flesh,[k] and not spirit. And Jehovah himself will stretch out his hand, and he that is offering help will have to stumble, and he that is being helped will have to fall,[l] and at the same time they will all of them come to an end.

4 For this is what Jehovah has said to me: "Just as the lion growls, even the maned young lion,[m] over its prey, when there is called out against it a full number of shepherds, [and] in spite of their voice he will not be terrified and in spite of their commotion he will not stoop; in the same way Jehovah of armies will come down to wage war over Mount Zion and over her hill.[n] 5 Like birds flying, Jehovah of armies will in the same way defend Jerusalem.[o] Defending [her], he will also certainly deliver [her].[p] Sparing [her], he must also cause [her] to escape."

6 "Return,[q] YOU people, to the One against whom the sons of Israel have gone deep in their revolt.[r] 7 For in that day they will reject each one his worthless gods of silver and his valueless gods of gold,[a] that YOUR hands have made for yourselves as a sin.[b] 8 And the As·syr′i·an must fall by the sword, not [that of] a man; and a sword, not [that of] earthling man, will devour him.[c] And he must flee because of the sword, and his own young men will come to be for forced labor itself. 9 And his own crag will pass away out of sheer fright, and because of the signal[d] his princes must be terrified," is the utterance of Jehovah, whose light is in Zion and whose furnace[e] is in Jerusalem.

32 Look! A king[f] will reign for righteousness[g] itself; and as respects princes,[h] they will rule as princes for justice itself. 2 And each one must prove to be like a hiding place from the wind and a place of concealment from the rainstorm,[i] like streams of water in a waterless country,[j] like the shadow of a heavy crag in an exhausted land.[k]

3 And the eyes of those seeing will not be pasted together, and the very ears of those hearing will pay attention.[l] 4 And the heart itself of those who are overhasty will consider knowledge,[m] and even the tongue of the stammerers will be quick in speaking clear things.[n] 5 The senseless one will no longer be called generous; and as for the unprincipled man, he will not be said to be noble;[o] 6 because the senseless one himself will speak mere senselessness,[p] and his very heart will work at what is hurtful,[q] to work at apostasy[r] and to speak against Jehovah what is wayward, to cause the soul of the hungry one to go empty,[s] and he causes even the thirsty one to go without drink itself. 7 As for the unprincipled man, his instruments are bad;[t] he himself has given counsel for acts of loose conduct,[a] to wreck the afflicted ones with false sayings,[b] even when someone poor speaks what is right.

8 As regards the generous one, it is for generous things that he has given counsel; and in favor of generous things he himself will rise up.[c]

9 "YOU women who are at ease, rise up, listen to my voice![d] YOU careless daughters, give ear to my saying! 10 Within a year and some days YOU careless ones will be agitated,[e] because the grape picking will have come to an end [but] no [fruit] gathering will come in.[f] 11 Tremble, YOU women who are at ease! time indefinite.[a] 18 And my people must dwell in a peaceful abiding place and in residences of full confidence and in undisturbed resting-places.[b] 19 And it will certainly hail when the forest goes down[c] and the city becomes low in an abased state.[d]

20 "Happy are YOU people who are sowing seed alongside all waters,[e] sending forth the feet of the bull and of the ass."[f]

33 Woe to you who are despoiling, without you yourself being despoiled, and to you who are dealing treacherously, without [others] having dealt treacherously with you![g] As soon as you have finished as a despoiler, you will be despoiled.[h] As soon as you have done with dealing treacherously, they will deal treacherously with you.[i]

2 O Jehovah, show us favor.[j] In you we have hoped.[k] Become our arm[l] every morning,[m] yes, our salvation in the time of distress.[n] 3 At the sound of turmoil peoples have fled.[o] At your arising nations have been dispersed.[p] 4 And the spoil[q] of YOU people will actually be gathered [like] the cockroaches when gathering in, like the onrush of locust swarms that is rushing against one.[r] 5 Jehovah will certainly be put on high,[s] for he is residing in the height.[t] He must fill Zion with justice and righteousness.[u] 6 And the trustworthiness of your times must prove to be a wealth of salvations[v]—wisdom and knowledge,[w] the fear of Jehovah,[x] which is his treasure.

7 Look! Their very heroes have cried out in the street; the very messengers of peace[y] will weep bitterly. 8 The highways have been made desolate;[z] the one passing over the path has ceased.[a] He has broken the covenant;[b] he has contemned the cities;[c] he has taken no account of mortal man.[a] 9 The land has gone mourning, has withered away.[b] Leb′a·non has become abashed;[c] it has moldered. Shar′on[d] has become like the desert plain; and Ba′shan and Car′mel are shaking off [their leaves].[e]

10 "Now I will rise up,"[f] says Jehovah, "now I will exalt myself;[g] now I will lift myself up.[h] 11 YOU people conceive dried grass;[i] YOU will give birth to stubble. YOUR own spirit, as a fire,[j] will eat YOU up.[k] 12 And peoples must become as the burnings of lime. As thorns cut away, they will be set ablaze even with fire.[l] 13 Hear, YOU men who are far away, what I must do![m] And know, YOU who are nearby, my mightiness.[n] 14 In Zion the sinners have come to be in dread;[o] shivering has grabbed hold of the apostates:[p] 'Who of us can reside for any time with a devouring fire?[q] Who of us can reside for any time with long-lasting conflagrations?'[r]

15 "There is one who is walking in continual righteousness[s] and speaking what is upright,[t] who is rejecting the unjust gain from frauds,[u] who is shaking his hands clear from taking hold on a bribe,[v] who is stopping up his ear from listening to bloodshed, and who is closing his eyes so as not to see what is bad.[w] 16 He is the one that will reside on the heights themselves;[x] his secure height will be craggy places difficult to approach.[y] His own bread will certainly be given [him];[z] his water supply will be unfailing."[a]

17 A king in his handsomeness is what your eyes will behold;[b] they will see a land far away.[c] 18 Your own heart will comment in low tones[a] on a frightful thing: "Where is the secretary? Where is the one that does the paying out?[b] Where is the one counting the towers?"[c] 19 No insolent people will you see, a people too deep in language to listen to, of a stammering tongue without [your] understanding.[d] 20 Behold Zion,[e] the town of our festal occasions![f] Your own eyes will see Jerusalem an undisturbed abiding place, a tent that no one will pack up.[g] Never will its tent pins be pulled out, and none of its ropes will be torn in two.[h] 21 But there the Majestic One,[i] Jehovah, will be for us a place of rivers,[j] of wide canals. On it no galley fleet will go, and no majestic ship will pass over it. 22 For Jehovah is our Judge,[k] Jehovah is our Statute-giver,[l] Jehovah is our King;[m] he himself will save us.[n]

23 Your ropes must hang loose; their mast they will not hold firmly erect; they have not spread a sail.

At that time even spoil in abundance will have to be divided up; the lame ones themselves will actually take a big plunder.[o] 24 And no resident will say: "I am sick."[p] The people that are dwelling in [the land] will be those pardoned for their error.[q]

34 Come up close, YOU nations, to hear;[r] and YOU national groups,[s] pay attention. Let the earth and that which fills it listen,[t] the productive land[u] and all its produce.[v] 2 For Jehovah has indignation against all the nations,[w] and rage against all their army.[x] He must devote them to destruction; he must give them to the slaughter.[y] 3 And their slain ones will be thrown out; and as for their carcasses, their stink will ascend;[z] and the mountains must melt because of their blood.[a] 4 And all those of the army of the heavens must rot away.[b] And the heavens must be rolled up,[c] just like a book scroll; and their army will all shrivel away, just as the leafage shrivels off the vine and like a shriveled [fig] off the fig tree.[d]

5 "For in the heavens my sword[e] will certainly be drenched. Look! Upon E'dom it will descend,[f] and upon the people devoted by me to destruction[g] in justice. 6 Jehovah has a sword; it must be filled with blood;[h] it must be made greasy with the fat, with the blood of young rams and he-goats, with the fat[i] of the kidneys of rams. For Jehovah has a sacrifice in Boz'rah, and a great slaughtering in the land of E'dom.[j] 7 And the wild bulls[k] must come down with them, and young bulls with the powerful ones;[l] and their land must be drenched with blood, and their very dust will be made greasy with the fat."[m]

8 For Jehovah has a day of vengeance,[n] a year of retributions for the legal case over Zion.[o]

9 And her torrents must be changed into pitch, and her dust into sulphur; and her land must become as burning pitch.[p] 10 By night or by day it will not be extinguished; to time indefinite its smoke will keep ascending.[q] From generation to generation she will be parched;[r] forever and ever no one will be passing across her.[s] 11 And the pelican and the porcupine must take possession of her, and long-eared owls and ravens themselves will reside in her;[t] and he must stretch out over her the measuring line[u] of emptiness and the stones of wasteness. 12 Her nobles—there are none there whom they will call to the kingship itself, and her very princes will all become nothing.[a] 13 On her dwelling towers thorns must come up, nettles and thorny weeds in her fortified places;[b] and she must become an abiding place of jackals,[c] the courtyard for the ostriches.[d] 14 And haunters of waterless regions must meet up with howling animals, and even the goat-shaped demon[e] will call to its companion. Yes, there the nightjar will certainly take its ease and find for itself a resting-place.[f] 15 There the arrow snake has made its nest and lays [eggs], and it must hatch [them] and gather [them] together under its shadow. Yes, there the gledes[g] must collect themselves together, each one with her mate.

16 Search for yourselves in the book[h] of Jehovah and read out loud: not one has been missing of them;[i] they actually do not fail to have each one her mate, for it is the mouth of Jehovah that has given the command,[j] and it is his spirit that has collected them together.[k] 17 And it is He that has cast for them the lot, and his own hand has apportioned the place to them by the measuring line.[l] To time indefinite they will take possession of it; for generation after generation they will reside in it.

35 The wilderness and the waterless region will exult,[m] and the desert plain will be joyful and blossom as the saffron.[n] 2 Without fail it will blossom,[o] and it will really be joyful with joyousness and with glad crying out.[p] The glory of Leb'a·non itself must be given to it,[q] the splendor of Car'mel[r] and of Shar'on.[s] There will be those who will see the glory of Jehovah,[a] the splendor of our God.[b]

3 Strengthen the weak hands, YOU people, and make the knees that are wobbling firm.[c] 4 Say to those who are anxious at heart:[d] "Be strong.[e] Do not be afraid.[f] Look! YOUR own God will come with vengeance[g] itself, God even with a repayment.[h] He himself will come and save YOU people."[i]

5 At that time the eyes of the blind ones will be opened,[j] and the very ears of the deaf ones will be unstopped.[k] 6 At that time the lame one will climb up just as a stag does,[l] and the tongue of the speechless one will cry out in gladness.[m] For in the wilderness waters will have burst out, and torrents in the desert plain. 7 And the heat-parched ground will have become as a reedy pool, and the thirsty ground as springs of water.[n] In the abiding place of jackals,[o] a resting-place for [them], there will be green grass with reeds and papyrus[p] plants.

8 And there will certainly come to be a highway[q] there, even a way; and the Way of Holiness it will be called.[r] The unclean one will not pass over it.[s] And it will be for the one walking on the way, and no foolish ones will wander about [on it]. 9 No lion will prove to be there, and the rapacious sort of wild beasts will not come up on it.[t] None will be found there;[u] and the repurchased ones must walk [there].[v] 10 And the very ones redeemed by Jehovah will return[w] and certainly come to Zion with a joyful cry;[x] and rejoicing to time indefinite will be upon their head.[y] To exultation and rejoicing they will attain, and grief and sighing must flee away.[z]

36 Now it came about in the fourteenth year of King Hez·e·ki′ah that Sen·nach′er·ib[a] the king of As·syr′i·a[b] came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and proceeded to seize them.[c] 2 And the king of As·syr′i·a finally sent Rab′sha·keh[d] from La′chish[e] to Jerusalem,[f] to King Hez·e·ki′ah, with a heavy military force, and he proceeded to stand still by the conduit[g] of the upper pool[h] at the highway of the laundryman′s field.[i] 3 Then there came out to him E·li′a·kim[j] the son of Hil·ki′ah, who was over the household, and Sheb′na[k] the secretary and Jo′ah[l] the son of A′saph[m] the recorder.[n]

4 Accordingly Rab′sha·keh said to them: “Please, say to Hez·e·ki′ah, ‘This is what the great king,[o] the king of As·syr′i·a,[p] has said: “What is this confidence in which you have trusted?[q] 5 You have said (but it is the word of lips), ‘There are counsel and mightiness for the war.’[r] Now in whom have you put trust, that you have rebelled against me?[s] 6 Look! You have trusted in the support of this crushed reed,[t] in Egypt,[u] which, if a man should brace himself upon it, would certainly enter into his palm and pierce it. That is the way Phar′aoh[v] the king of Egypt is to all those putting their trust in him.[w] 7 And in case you should say to me, ‘It is Jehovah our God in whom we have trusted,’ is he not the one whose high places[x] and whose altars Hez·e·ki′ah has removed,[y] while he says to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘Before this altar YOU should bow down’?” ’[z] 8 Now, then, make a wager,[a] please, with my lord the king of As·syr′i·a,[b] and let me give you two thousand horses [to see] whether you are able, on your part, to put riders upon them.[c] 9 How, then, could you turn back the face of one governor of the smallest servants of my lord,[a] while you, for your part, put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?[b] 10 And now is it without authorization from Jehovah that I have come up against this land to bring it to ruin? Jehovah himself said to me,[c] ‘Go up against this land, and you must bring it to ruin.’ ”[d]

11 At this E·li′a·kim[e] and Sheb′na[f] and Jo′ah[g] said to Rab′sha·keh:[h] “Speak, please, to your servants in the Syrian language,[i] for we are listening; and do not speak to us in the Jews′ language[j] in the ears of the people that are on the wall.”[k] 12 But Rab′sha·keh said: “Is it to your lord and to you that my lord has sent me to speak these words? Is it not to the men sitting upon the wall, that they may eat their own excrement and drink their own urine with YOU men?”[l]

13 And Rab′sha·keh continued to stand[m] and call out in a loud voice in the Jews′ language,[n] and he went on to say: “HEAR the words of the great king, the king of As·syr′i·a.[o] 14 This is what the king has said, ‘Do not let Hez·e·ki′ah deceive YOU people,[p] for he is not able to deliver YOU.[q] 15 And do not let Hez·e·ki′ah cause YOU to trust in Jehovah,[r] saying: “Without fail Jehovah will deliver us.[s] This city will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a.”[t] 16 Do not listen to Hez·e·ki′ah, for this is what the king of As·syr′i·a has said: “Make a capitulation to me[u] and come out to me and eat each one from his own vine and each one from his own fig tree[v] and drink each one the water of his own cistern,[w] 17 until I come and actually take YOU to a land like YOUR own land,[x] a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards; 18 in order that Hez·e·ki′ah may not allure YOU,[a] saying, ‘Jehovah himself will deliver us.’ Have the gods of the nations delivered each one his own land out of the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a?[b] 19 Where are the gods of Ha′math[c] and Ar′pad?[d] Where are the gods of Seph·ar·va′im?[e] And have they delivered Sa·mar′i·a out of my hand?[f] 20 Who are there among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand[g] so that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?” ’ ”[h]

21 And they continued to keep silent and did not answer him a word,[i] for the commandment of the king was, saying: “You must not answer him.”[j] 22 But E·li′a·kim[k] the son of Hil·ki′ah, who was over the household,[l] and Sheb′na[m] the secretary and Jo′ah[n] the son of A′saph the recorder came to Hez·e·ki′ah with their garments ripped apart,[o] and told him the words of Rab′sha·keh.[p]

37 And it came about that as soon as King Hez·e·ki′ah heard, he immediately ripped his garments apart and covered himself with sackcloth[q] and came into the house of Jehovah.[r] 2 Further, he sent E·li′a·kim,[s] who was over the household, and Sheb′na the secretary[t] and the older men of the priests[u] covered with sackcloth to Isaiah[v] the son of A′moz the prophet.[w] 3 And they proceeded to say to him: “This is what Hez·e·ki′ah has said, ‘This day is a day of distress[x] and of rebuke and of scornful insolence,[y] for the sons have come as far as the womb′s mouth, and there is no power to give birth.[z] 4 Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear the words of Rab′sha·keh,[a] whom the king of As·syr′i·a his lord sent to taunt[b] the living God, and he will actually call him to account for the words that Jehovah your God has heard.[c] And you must lift up prayer[a] in behalf of the remnant that are to be found.’ ”[b]

5 So the servants of King Hez·e·ki′ah came in to Isaiah.[c] 6 Then Isaiah said to them: “This is what YOU should say to YOUR lord, ‘This is what Jehovah has said:[d] “Do not be afraid[e] because of the words that you have heard with which the attendants[f] of the king of As·syr′i·a spoke abusively of me. 7 Here I am putting a spirit[g] in him, and he must hear a report[h] and return to his own land; and I shall certainly cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.” ’ ”[i]

8 After that Rab′sha·keh[j] returned and found the king of As·syr′i·a fighting against Lib′nah,[k] for he had heard that he had pulled away from La′chish.[l] 9 Now he heard it said concerning Tir·ha′kah[m] the king of E·thi·o′pi·a: “He has come out to fight against you.” When he heard, he at once sent messengers[n] to Hez·e·ki′ah, saying: 10 “This is what YOU men should say to Hez·e·ki′ah the king of Judah, ‘Do not let your God in whom you are trusting deceive you,[o] saying: “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a.”[p] 11 Look! You yourself have heard what the kings of As·syr′i·a did to all the lands by devoting them to destruction,[q] and will you yourself be delivered?[r] 12 Have the gods[s] of the nations that my forefathers brought to ruin delivered them,[t] even Go′zan[u] and Ha′ran[v] and Re′zeph and the sons of E′den[w] that were in Tel-as′sar? 13 Where is the king of Ha′math[x] and the king of Ar′pad[y] and the king of the city of Seph·ar·va′im[z]—of He′na and of Iv′vah?’ ”[a]

14 Then Hez·e·ki′ah took the letters out of the hand of the messengers and read them,[a] after which Hez·e·ki′ah went up to the house of Jehovah and spread it out before Jehovah.[b] 15 And Hez·e·ki′ah began to pray to Jehovah,[c] saying:
16 “O Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel,[d] sitting upon the cherubs, you alone are the [true] God of all the kingdoms of the earth.[e] You yourself have made the heavens and the earth.[f] 17 Incline your ear, O Jehovah, and hear.[g] Open your eyes,[h] O Jehovah, and see, and hear all the words of Sen·nach′er·ib[i] that he has sent to taunt the living God.[j] 18 It is a fact, O Jehovah, that the kings of As·syr′i·a have devastated all the lands, and their own land.[k] 19 And there was a consigning of their gods to the fire,[l] because they were no gods,[m] but the workmanship of man's hands,[n] wood and stone, so that they destroyed them.[o] 20 And now, O
Jehovah our God,[p] save us out of his hand,[q] that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O Jehovah, are [God] alone.”[r]

21 And Isaiah the son of
A′moz proceeded to send to Hez·e·ki′ah, saying: “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennach′er·ib
the king of As·syr′i·a,[s]
22 this is the word that Jehovah
has spoken against him:

“The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you, she has held you in derision.[t]
Behind you the daughter of Jerusalem has wagged [her] head.[u]
23 Whom have you taunted[v] and spoken of abusively?[w]
And against whom have you lifted up [your] voice[x]
And do you raise your eyes on high?[a]
It is against the Holy One of Israel![b]
24 By means of your servants you have taunted Jehovah and you say,[c]
‘With the multitude of my war chariots I myself[d]—
I shall certainly ascend the height of mountainous regions,[e]
The remotest parts of Leb′a·non;[f]
And I shall cut down its lofty cedars, its choice juniper trees.[g]
And I shall enter its final height, the forest of its orchard.[h]
25 I myself shall certainly dig and drink waters,
And I shall dry up with the soles of my feet all the Nile[i] canals of Egypt.’[j]
26 Have you not heard?[k] From remote times it is what I will do.[l]
From bygone days I have even formed it.[m] Now I will bring it in.[n]
And you will serve to make fortified cities become desolate as piles of ruins.[o]
27 And their inhabitants will be feeble-handed;[p]
They will simply be terrified and ashamed.[q]
They must become as vegetation of the field and green tender grass,[r]
Grass of the roofs[s] and of the terrace before the east wind.[t]
28 And your sitting quiet and your going out[u] and your coming in I well know,[v]
And your exciting yourself against me,[w]

29 Because your exciting yourself against me[a] and your roaring have come up into my ears.[b]
And I shall certainly put my hook in your nose and my bridle between your lips,[c]
And I shall indeed lead you back by the way by which you have come.”[d]

30 “‘And this will be the sign for you: There will be an eating this year of the growth from spilled kernels,[e] and in the second year grain that shoots up of itself; but in the third year sow seed, you people, and reap, and plant vineyards and eat their fruitage.[f] 31 And those who escape of the house of Judah, those who are left remaining,[g]
will certainly take root downward and produce fruitage upward.[h] 32 For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go forth[i]
and those who escape out of Mount Zion.[j] The very zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.[k]

33 “‘Therefore this is what Jehovah has said concerning the king of As·syr′i·a:[l] “He will not come into this city,[m] nor will he shoot an arrow there, nor confront it with a shield,
nor cast up a siege rampart against it.”’[n]

34 “‘By the way by which he came he will return, and into this city he will not come,’
is the utterance of Jehovah.[o] 35 ‘And I shall certainly defend[p] this city to save it for my own sake[q] and for the sake of David my servant.’”[r]

36 And the angel[s] of Jehovah proceeded to go forth and strike down a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyr′i·ans.[t]
When people rose up early in the morning, why, there all of them were dead carcasses.[u] 37 Hence Sen·nach′er·ib[v]
the king of As·syr′i·a pulled away and went and returned[w] and took up dwelling in Nin′e·veh.[x] 38 And it came about that as he was bowing down at the house of Nis′roch[a] his god,[b] A·dram′me·lech and Share′zer, his own sons, struck him down with the sword,[c] and they themselves escaped to the land of Ar′a·rat.[d] And E′sar-had′don[e]
his son began to reign in place
of him.

38 In those days Hez·e·ki′ah got sick to the point of dying.[f] Accordingly Isaiah[g] the son of A′moz the prophet came in to him and said to him: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘Give commands to your household,[h]
for you yourself will indeed die and will not live.’”[i] 2 At that Hez·e·ki′ah turned his face to the wall[j] and began to pray to Jehovah[k] 3 and to say: “I beseech you, O Jehovah, remember,[l]
please, how I have walked[m] before you in truthfulness[n] and with a complete heart,[o] and what was good in your eyes I have done.” And Hez·e·ki′ah began to weep profusely.[p]

4 And the word[q] of Jehovah
now occurred to Isaiah, saying:
5 “Go, and you must say to Hez·e·ki′ah, ‘This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather[r] has said: “I have heard your prayer.[s] I have seen your tears.[t] Here I am adding onto your days fifteen years;[u] 6 and out of the palm of the king of As·syr′i·a I shall deliver you and this city, and I will defend this city.[v] 7 And this is the sign for you from Jehovah that Jehovah will perform this word that he has spoken:[w]
8 Here I am making the shadow of the steps that had gone down on the steps [of the stairs] of A′haz by the sun[x] retrace backward ten steps.”’”[y] And the sun gradually went back ten steps on the steps [of the stairs] that it had gone down.[z]

9 A writing of Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah, when he got sick[a] and revived from his sickness.[b]

10 I myself said: "In the midst of my days I will go into the gates[c] of She'ol.
I must be deprived of the remainder[d] of my years."
11 I have said: "I shall not see Jah, even Jah, in the land of the living ones.[e]
I shall no more look on mankind—with the inhabitants of [the land of] cessation.
12 My own habitation has been pulled out[f] and removed from me like the tent of shepherds.
I have rolled up my life just like a loom worker;
One proceeds to cut me off[g] from the very threads of the warp.
From daylight till night you keep handing me over.[h]
13 I have soothed myself until the morning.[i]
Like a lion, so he keeps breaking all my bones;[j]
From daylight till night you keep handing me over.[k]
14 Like the swift, the bulbul, so I keep chirping;[l]
I keep cooing like the dove.[m]
My eyes have looked languishingly to the height:[n]
'O Jehovah, I am under oppression. Stand good for me.'[o]
15 What shall I speak, and [what] will he actually say to me?[p]
He himself has also acted.[q]
I keep walking solemnly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.[r]
16 'O Jehovah, on that account they keep living; and as with everybody, thereby is the life of my spirit.[s]
And you will restore me to health and certainly preserve me alive.[a] 17 Look! For peace I had what was bitter, yes, bitter;[b]
And you yourself have become attached to my soul [and kept it] from the pit of disintegration.[c]
For you have thrown behind your back all my sins.[d]
18 For it is not She'ol that can laud you;[e] death itself cannot praise you.[f]
Those going down into the pit cannot look hopefully to your trueness.[g]
19 The living, the living, he is the one that can laud you,[h]
Just as I can this day.[i]
The father himself can give knowledge[j] to his own sons concerning your trueness.
20 O Jehovah, [undertake] to save me,[k] and we shall play my string selections[l]
All the days of our life at the house of Jehovah.'"[m]

21 And Isaiah proceeded to say: "Let them take a cake of pressed dried figs and rub [it] in upon the boil,[n] that he may revive."[o] 22 Meantime, Hez·e·ki'ah said: "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of Jehovah?"[p]

39 At that time Mer'o·dach-bal'a·dan[q] the son of Bal'a·dan the king of Babylon[r] sent letters and a gift[s] to Hez·e·ki'ah, after he heard that he had been sick but was strong again.[t] 2 So Hez·e·ki'ah began to rejoice over them[u] and proceeded to show them his treasure-house,[v] the silver and the gold and the balsam oil[w] and the good oil and all his armory[x] and all that was to be found in his treasures. There proved to be nothing that Hez·e·ki'ah did not show them in his own house[a] and in all his dominion.[b]

3 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez·e·ki'ah and said to him:[c] "What did these men say, and from where did they proceed to come to you?" So Hez·e·ki'ah said: "From a distant land they came to me, from Babylon."[d] 4 And he went on to say: "What did they see in your house?"[e] To this Hez·e·ki'ah said: "Everything that is in my house they saw. There proved to be nothing that I did not show them in my treasures." 5 Isaiah now said to Hez·e·ki'ah:[f] "Hear the word of Jehovah of armies, 6 'Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your own house and that your forefathers have stored up down to this day will actually be carried to Babylon.'[g] 'Nothing will be left,'[h] Jehovah has said. 7 'And some of your own sons that will come forth from you, to whom you will become father, will themselves be taken[i] and actually become court officials[j] in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"[k]

8 At that Hez·e·ki'ah said to Isaiah: "The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good."[l] And he went on to say: "Because peace and truth[m] will continue in my own days."[n]

40 "COMFORT, comfort my people," says the God of YOU men.[o] 2 "SPEAK to the heart of Jerusalem[p] and call out to her that her military service has been fulfilled,[q] that her error has been paid off.[r] For from the hand of Jehovah she has received a full amount for all her sins."[s]

3 Listen! Someone is calling out in the wilderness:[t] "Clear up the way of Jehovah,[u] YOU people! MAKE the highway for our God through the desert plain straight.[v] 4 Let every valley be raised up,[w] and every mountain and hill be made low.[a] And the knobby ground must become level land, and the rugged ground a valley plain.[b] 5 And the glory of Jehovah will certainly be revealed,[c] and all flesh must see [it] together,[d] for the very mouth of Jehovah has spoken [it]."[e]

6 Listen! Someone is saying: "Call out!"[f] And one said: "What shall I call out?"

"All flesh is green grass, and all their loving-kindness is like the blossom of the field.[g] 7 The green grass has dried up, the blossom has withered,[h] because the very spirit of Jehovah has blown upon it.[i] Surely the people are green grass.[j] 8 The green grass has dried up, the blossom has withered;[k] but as for the word of our God, it will last to time indefinite."[l]

9 Make your way up even onto a high mountain,[m] you woman bringing good news for Zion.[n] Raise your voice even with power, you woman bringing good news for Jerusalem.[o] Raise [it]. Do not be afraid.[p] Say to the cities of Judah: "Here is YOUR God."[q] 10 Look! The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself will come even as a strong one, and his arm will be ruling for him.[r] Look! His reward is with him,[s] and the wage he pays is before him.[t] 11 Like a shepherd he will shepherd his own drove.[u] With his arm he will collect together the lambs;[v] and in his bosom he will carry [them].[w] Those giving suck he will conduct [with care].[x]

12 Who has measured the waters in the mere hollow of his hand,[y] and taken the proportions of the heavens themselves with a mere span[z] and included in a measure the dust of the earth,[a] or weighed with an indicator the mountains, and the hills in the scales? 13 Who has taken the proportions of the spirit of Jehovah, and who as his man of counsel can make him know anything?[a] 14 With whom did he consult together that one might make him understand, or who teaches him in the path of justice, or teaches him knowledge,[b] or makes him know the very way of real understanding?[c]

15 Look! The nations are as a drop from a bucket; and as the film of dust on the scales they have been accounted.[d] Look! He lifts the islands[e] themselves as mere fine [dust]. 16 Even Leb'a·non is not sufficient for keeping a fire burning, and its wild animals[f] are not sufficient for a burnt offering.[g] 17 All the nations are as something nonexistent in front of him;[h] as nothing and an unreality they have been accounted to him.[i]

18 And to whom can YOU people liken God,[j] and what likeness can YOU put alongside him?[k] 19 The craftsman has cast a mere molten image,[l] and with gold the metalworker overlays it,[m] and silver chains he is forging.[n] 20 A certain tree as a contribution, a tree that is not rotten, he chooses.[o] A skillful craftsman he searches out for himself, to prepare a carved image[p] that may not be made to totter.[q]

21 Do YOU people not know? Do YOU not hear? Has it not been told to YOU from the outset? Have YOU not applied understanding from the foundations of the earth?[r] 22 There is One who is dwelling above the circle of the earth,[s] the dwellers in which are as grasshoppers, the One who is stretching out the heavens just as a fine gauze, who spreads them out like a tent in which to dwell,[t] 23 the One who is reducing high officials to nothing, who has made the very judges of the earth as a mere unreality.[a]

24 Never yet have they been planted; never yet have they been sown; never yet has their stump taken root in the earth.[b] And one has only to blow upon them and they dry up;[c] and like stubble the windstorm itself will carry them away.[d]

25 "But to whom can YOU people liken me so that I should be made his equal?" says the Holy One.[e] 26 "Raise YOUR eyes high up and see. Who has created these things?[f] It is the One who is bringing forth the army of them even by number, all of whom he calls even by name.[g] Due to the abundance of dynamic energy,[h] he also being vigorous in power, not one [of them] is missing.

27 "For what reason do you say, O Jacob, and do you speak out, O Israel, 'My way has been concealed from Jehovah,[i] and justice to me eludes my God himself'?[j] 28 Have you not come to know or have you not heard?[k] Jehovah, the Creator of the extremities of the earth, is a God to time indefinite.[l] He does not tire out or grow weary.[m] There is no searching out of his understanding.[n] 29 He is giving to the tired one power;[o] and to the one without dynamic energy[p] he makes full might abound. 30 Boys will both tire out and grow weary, and young men themselves will without fail stumble, 31 but those who are hoping[q] in Jehovah will regain power.[r] They will mount up with wings like eagles.[s] They will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not tire out."[t]

"Attend to me in silence, YOU islands;[a] and let national groups[b] themselves regain power. Let them approach.[c] At that time let them speak. Let us come up close together for the judgment[d] itself.

2 "Who has roused up [someone] from the sunrise?[e] [Who] proceeded in righteousness to call him to His feet, to give before him the nations, and to make [him] go subduing even kings?[f] [Who] kept giving [them] like dust to his sword, so that they have been driven about like mere stubble with his bow?[g] 3 [Who] kept pursuing them, kept peacefully passing along on his feet over the path [by which] he did not proceed to come? 4 Who has been active[h] and has done [this], calling out the generations from the start?[i]

"I, Jehovah, the First One;[j] and with the last ones I am the same."[k]

5 The islands[l] saw and began to fear. The very extremities of the earth began trembling.[m] They drew near and kept coming. 6 They went helping each one his companion, and one would say to his brother: "Be strong."[n] 7 So the craftsman went strengthening the metalworker;[o] the one doing the smoothing out with the forge hammer him that is hammering away at the anvil, saying regarding the soldering: "It is good." Finally one fastened it with nails that it could not be made to totter.[p]

8 "But you, O Israel, are my servant,[q] you, O Jacob, whom I have chosen,[r] the seed of Abraham[s] my friend;[t] 9 you, whom I have taken hold of from the extremities of the earth,[u] and you, whom I have called even from the remote parts of it.[v] And so I said to you, 'You are my servant;[w] I have chosen you,[x] and I have not rejected you.[y] 10 Do not be afraid, for I am with you.[a] Do not gaze about, for I am your God.[b] I will fortify you.[c] I will really help you.[d] I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand[e] of righteousness.'[f]

11 "Look! All those getting heated up against you will become ashamed and be humiliated.[g] The men in a quarrel with you will become as nothing and will perish.[h] 12 You will search for them, but you will not find them, those men in a struggle with you.[i] They will become as something nonexistent and as nothing,[j] those men at war with you. 13 For I, Jehovah your God, am grasping your right hand,[k] the One saying to you, 'Do not be afraid.[l] I myself will help you.'[m]

14 "Do not be afraid, you worm[n] Jacob, you men of Israel.[o] I myself will help you," is the utterance of Jehovah, even your Repurchaser,[p] the Holy One of Israel. 15 "Look! I have made you a threshing sledge,[q] a new threshing instrument having double-edged [teeth]. You will tread down the mountains and crush [them]; and the hills you will make just like the chaff.[r] 16 You will winnow[s] them, and a wind itself will carry them away,[t] and a windstorm itself will drive them different ways.[u] And you yourself will be joyful in Jehovah.[v] In the Holy One of Israel you will boast about yourself."[w]

17 "The afflicted ones and the poor ones are seeking for water,[x] but there is none. Because of thirst[y] their very tongue has become dry.[z] I myself, Jehovah, shall answer them.[a] I, the God of Israel, shall not leave them.[b] 18 Upon bare hills I shall open up rivers, and in the midst of the valley plains, springs.[a] I shall make the wilderness into a reedy pool of water, and the waterless land into sources of water.[b] 19 In the wilderness I shall set the cedar tree, the acacia and the myrtle and the oil tree.[c] In the desert plain I shall place the juniper tree, the ash and the cypress at the same time;[d] 20 in order that people may see and know and pay heed and have insight at the same time, that the very hand of Jehovah has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has himself created it."[e]

21 "Bring YOUR controversial case[f] forward," says Jehovah. "Produce YOUR arguments,"[g] says the King of Jacob.[h] 22 "Produce and tell to us the things that are going to happen. The first things—what they were—do tell, that we may apply our heart and know the future of them. Or cause us to hear even the things that are coming.[i] 23 Tell the things that are to come afterward, that we may know that YOU are gods.[j] Yes, YOU ought to do good or do bad, that we may gaze about and see [it] at the same time.[k] 24 Look! YOU are something nonexistent, and YOUR achievement is nothing.[l] A detestable thing is anyone that chooses YOU.[m]

25 "I have roused up [someone] from the north, and he will come.[n] From the rising of the sun[o] he will call upon my name. And he will come upon deputy rulers as [if they were] clay[p] and just as a potter that tramples down the moist material.

26 "Who has told anything from the start, that we may know, or from times past, that we may say, 'He is right'?[q] Really there is no one telling. Really there is no one causing [one] to hear. Really there is no one that is hearing any sayings of YOU men."[r]

27 There is one first, [saying] to Zion: "Look! Here they are!"[a] and to Jerusalem I shall give a bringer of good news.[b] 28 And I kept seeing, and there was not a man; and out of these there was also no one that was giving counsel.[c] And I kept asking them, that they might make a reply. 29 Look! All of them are something nonexistent. Their works are nothing. Their molten images are wind and unreality.[d]

42 Look! My servant,[e] on whom I keep fast hold![f] My chosen one,[g] [whom] my soul has approved![h] I have put my spirit in him.[i] Justice to the nations is what he will bring forth.[j] 2 He will not cry out or raise [his voice], and in the street he will not let his voice be heard.[k] 3 No crushed reed will he break;[l] and as for a dim flaxen wick, he will not extinguish it. In trueness he will bring forth justice.[m] 4 He will not grow dim nor be crushed until he sets justice in the earth itself;[n] and for his law the islands themselves will keep waiting.[o]

5 This is what the [true] God, Jehovah, has said, the Creator of the heavens[p] and the Grand One stretching them out;[q] the One laying out the earth[r] and its produce,[s] the One giving breath[t] to the people on it,[u] and spirit to those walking in it:[v] 6 "I myself, Jehovah, have called you in righteousness,[w] and I proceeded to take hold of your hand.[x] And I shall safeguard you and give you as a covenant of the people,[y] as a light of the nations,[z] 7 [for you] to open the blind eyes,[a] to bring forth out of the dungeon the prisoner,[b] out of the house of detention those sitting in darkness.[a]

8 "I am Jehovah. That is my name;[b] and to no one else shall I give my own glory,[c] neither my praise[d] to graven images.[e]

9 "The first things—here they have come,[f] but new things I am telling out. Before they begin to spring up, I cause YOU people to hear [them]."[g]

10 Sing to Jehovah a new song,[h] his praise from the extremity of the earth,[i] YOU men that are going down to the sea[j] and to that which fills it, YOU islands and YOU inhabiting them.[k] 11 Let the wilderness[l] and its cities raise [their voice], the settlements that Ke'dar inhabits.[m] Let the inhabitants of the crag[n] cry out in joy. From the top of the mountains let people cry aloud. 12 Let them attribute to Jehovah glory,[o] and in the islands let them tell forth even his praise.[p]

13 Like a mighty man Jehovah himself will go forth.[q] Like a warrior he will awaken zeal.[r] He will shout, yes, he will let out a war cry;[s] over his enemies he will show himself mightier.[t]

14 "I have kept quiet for a long time.[u] I continued silent.[v] I kept exercising self-control.[w] Like a woman giving birth I am going to groan, pant, and gasp at the same time.[x] 15 I shall devastate[y] mountains and hills, and all their vegetation I shall dry up. And I will turn rivers into islands, and reedy pools I shall dry up.[z] 16 And I will make the blind ones walk in a way that they have not known;[a] in a roadway that they have not known I shall cause them to tread.[b] I shall turn a dark place before them into light,[c] and rugged terrain into level land.[d] These are the things that I will do for them, and I will not leave them."[e]

17 They must be turned back, they will be very much ashamed, those who are putting trust in the carved image,[a] those who are saying to a molten image: "You are our gods."[b]

18 Hear, YOU deaf ones; and look forth to see, YOU blind ones.[c] 19 Who is blind, if not my servant, and who is deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is blind as the one rewarded, or blind as the servant of Jehovah?[d] 20 It was a case of seeing many things, but you did not keep watching.[e] It was a case of opening the ears, but you did not keep listening.[f] 21 Jehovah himself for the sake of his righteousness[g] has taken a delight in that he should magnify the law[h] and make it majestic. 22 But it is a people plundered and pillaged,[i] all of them being trapped in the holes, and in the houses of detention they have been kept hidden.[j] They have come to be for plunder without a deliverer,[k] for pillage without anyone to say: "Bring back!"

23 Who among YOU people will give ear to this? Who will pay attention and listen for later times?[l] 24 Who has given Jacob for mere pillage, and Israel to the plunderers? Is it not Jehovah, the One against whom we have sinned, and in whose ways they did not want to walk and to whose law they did not listen?[m] 25 So He kept pouring out upon him rage, his anger, and the strength of war.[n] And it kept consuming him all around,[o] but he took no note;[p] and it kept blazing up against him, but he would lay nothing to heart.[q]

43 And now this is what Jehovah has said, your Creator,[r] O Jacob, and your Former,[s] O Israel: "Do not be afraid, for I have repurchased you.[a] I have called [you] by your name.[b] You are mine.[c] 2 In case you should pass through the waters,[d] I will be with you;[e] and through the rivers, they will not flood over you.[f] In case you should walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, neither will the flame itself singe you.[g] 3 For I am Jehovah your God, the Holy One of Israel your Savior.[h] I have given Egypt as a ransom for you,[i] E·thi·o′pi·a[j] and Se′ba in place of you. 4 Owing to the fact that you have been precious in my eyes,[k] you have been considered honorable, and I myself have loved you.[l] And I shall give men in place of you, and national groups in place of your soul.[m]

5 "Do not be afraid, for I am with you.[n] From the sunrising I shall bring your seed, and from the sunset I shall collect you together.[o] 6 I shall say to the north,[p] 'Give up!' and to the south, 'Do not keep back. Bring my sons from far off, and my daughters from the extremity of the earth,[q] 7 everyone that is called by my name[r] and that I have created for my own glory,[s] that I have formed, yes, that I have made.'[t]

8 "Bring forth a people blind though eyes themselves exist, and the ones deaf though they have ears.[u] 9 Let the nations all be collected together at one place, and let national groups be gathered together.[v] Who is there among them that can tell this?[w] Or can they cause us to hear even the first things?[x] Let them furnish their witnesses,[y] that they may be declared righteous, or let them hear and say, 'It is the truth!'"[z]

10 "YOU are my witnesses,"[a] is the utterance of Jehovah, "even my servant whom I have chosen,[b] in order that YOU may know[c] and have faith in me,[d] and that YOU may understand that I am the same One.[e] Before me there was no God formed,[a] and after me there continued to be none.[b] 11 I—I am Jehovah,[c] and besides me there is no savior."[d]

12 "I myself have told forth and have saved and have caused [it] to be heard,[e] when there was among YOU no strange [god].[f] So YOU are my witnesses,"[g] is the utterance of Jehovah, "and I am God.[h] 13 Also, all the time I am the same One;[i] and there is no one effecting deliverance out of my own hand.[j] I shall get active,[k] and who can turn it back?"[l]

14 This is what Jehovah has said, the Repurchaser of YOU people,[m] the Holy One of Israel:[n] "For YOUR sakes I will send to Babylon and cause the bars of the prisons to come down,[o] and the Chal·de′ans in the ships with whining cries on their part.[p] 15 I am Jehovah YOUR Holy One,[q] the Creator of Israel,[r] YOUR King."[s]

16 This is what Jehovah has said, the One making a way through the sea itself and a roadway even through strong waters,[t] 17 the One bringing forth the war chariot and the horse, the military force and the strong ones at the same time:[u] "They will lie down.[v] They will not get up.[w] They will certainly be extinguished.[x] Like a flaxen wick they must be put out."[y]

18 "Do not remember the first things, and to the former things do not turn YOUR consideration. 19 Look! I am doing something new.[z] Now it will spring up. YOU people will know it, will YOU not?[a] Really, through the wilderness I shall set a way,[b] through the desert rivers.[c] 20 The wild beast of the field will glorify me,[a] the jackals and the ostriches;[b] because I shall have given water even in the wilderness, rivers in the desert,[c] to cause my people, my chosen one,[d] to drink, 21 the people whom I have formed for myself, that they should recount the praise of me.[e]

22 "But you have not called even me, O Jacob,[f] because you have grown weary of me, O Israel.[g] 23 You have not brought me the sheep of your whole burnt offerings, and with your sacrifices you have not glorified me.[h] I have not compelled you to serve me with a gift, nor have I made you weary with frankincense.[i] 24 For me you have bought no [sweet] cane[j] with any money; and with the fat of your sacrifices you have not saturated me.[k] In reality you have compelled me to serve because of your sins; you have made me weary with your errors.[l]

25 "I—I am the One that is wiping[m] out your transgressions[n] for my own sake,[o] and your sins I shall not remember.[p] 26 Remind me; let us put ourselves on judgment together;[q] tell your own account of it in order that you may be in the right.[r] 27 Your own father, the first one, has sinned,[s] and your own spokesmen have transgressed against me.[t] 28 So I shall profane the princes of the holy place, and I will give Jacob over as a man devoted to destruction and Israel over to words of abuse.[u]

44 "And now listen, O Jacob my servant,[v] and you, O Israel, whom I have chosen.[w] 2 This is what Jehovah has said, your Maker[x] and your Former,[y] who kept helping you even from the belly,[z] 'Do not be afraid,[a] O my servant Jacob, and you, Jesh′u·run,[b] whom I have chosen. 3 For I shall pour out water upon the thirsty one,[a] and trickling streams upon the dry place.[b] I shall pour out my spirit upon your seed,[c] and my blessing upon your descendants. 4 And they will certainly spring up as among the green grass,[d] like poplars[e] by the water ditches. 5 This one will say: "I belong to Jehovah."[f] And that one will call [himself] by the name of Jacob,[g] and another will write upon his hand: "Belonging to Jehovah." And by the name of Israel one will betitle [himself].'[h]

6 "This is what Jehovah has said, the King of Israel[i] and the Repurchaser of him,[j] Jehovah of armies, 'I am the first and I am the last,[k] and besides me there is no God.[l] 7 And who is there like me?[m] Let him call out, that he may tell it and present it to me.[n] From when I appointed the people of long ago,[o] both the things coming and the things that will enter in let them tell on their part. 8 Do not be in dread, YOU people, and do not become stupefied.[p] Have I not from that time on caused you individually to hear and told [it] out?[q] And YOU are my witnesses.[r] Does there exist a God besides me?[s] No, there is no Rock.[t] I have recognized none.'"

9 The formers of the carved image are all of them an unreality,[u] and their darlings themselves will be of no benefit;[v] and as their witnesses they see nothing and know nothing,[w] in order that they may be ashamed.[x] 10 Who has formed a god or cast a mere molten image?[y] Of no benefit at all has it been.[z] 11 Look! be ashamed,[a] and the craftsmen are from earthling men. They will all of them collect themselves together.[b] They will stand still. They will be in dread. They will be ashamed at the same time.[c]

12 As for the carver of iron with the billhook, he has been busy [at it] with the coals; and with the hammers he proceeds to form it, and he keeps busy at it with his powerful arm.[d] Also, he has become hungry, and so without power. He has not drunk water; so he gets tired.

13 As for the wood carver, he has stretched out the measuring line; he traces it out with red chalk; he works it up with a wood scraper; and with a compass he keeps tracing it out, and gradually he makes it like the representation of a man,[e] like the beauty of mankind, to sit in a house.[f]

14 There is one whose business is to cut down cedars; and he takes a certain species of tree, even a massive tree, and he lets it become strong for himself among the trees of the forest.[g] He planted the laurel tree, and the pouring rain itself keeps making it get big. 15 And it has become [something] for man to keep a fire burning. So he takes part of it that he may warm himself. In fact he builds a fire and actually bakes bread. He also works on a god to which he may bow down.[h] He has made it into a carved image,[i] and he prostrates himself to it. 16 Half of it he actually burns up in a fire. Upon half of it he roasts well the flesh that he eats, and he becomes satisfied. He also warms himself and says: "Aha! I have warmed myself. I have seen the firelight." 17 But the remainder of it he actually makes into a god itself, into his carved image. He prostrates himself to it and bows down and prays to it and says: "Deliver me, for you are my god."[a]

18 They have not come to know,[b] nor do they understand,[c] because their eyes have been besmeared so as not to see,[d] their heart so as to have no insight.[e] 19 And no one recalls to his heart[f] or has knowledge or understanding,[g] saying: "The half of it I have burned up in a fire, and upon its coals I have also baked bread; I roast flesh and eat. But the rest of it shall I make into a mere detestable thing?[h] To the dried-out wood of a tree shall I prostrate myself?" 20 He is feeding on ashes.[i] His own heart that has been trifled with has led him astray.[j] And he does not deliver his soul, nor does he say: "Is there not a falsehood in my right hand?"[k]

21 "Remember these things, O Jacob,[l] and you, O Israel, because you are my servant.[m] I have formed you.[n] You are a servant belonging to me. O Israel, you will not be forgotten on my part.[o] 22 I will wipe out your transgressions just as with a cloud,[p] and your sins just as with a cloud mass. Do return to me,[q] for I will repurchase you.[r]

23 "Joyfully cry out, YOU heavens,[s] for Jehovah has taken action![t] Shout in triumph,[u] all YOU lowest parts of the earth![v] Become cheerful, YOU mountains,[w] with joyful outcry, you forest and all YOU trees in it! For Jehovah has repurchased Jacob, and on Israel he shows his beauty."[x]

24 This is what Jehovah has said, your Repurchaser[y] and the Former of you from the belly: "I, Jehovah, am doing everything, stretching out the heavens[z] by myself, laying out the earth.[a] Who was with me? 25 [I am] frustrating the signs of the empty talkers, and [I am] the One that makes diviners themselves act crazily;[a] the One turning wise men backwards, and the One that turns even their knowledge into foolishness;[b] 26 the One making the word of his servant come true, and the One that carries out completely the counsel of his own messengers;[c] the One saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited,'[d] and of the cities of Judah, 'They will be rebuilt,[e] and her desolated places I shall raise up';[f] 27 the One saying to the watery deep, 'Be evaporated; and all your rivers I shall dry up';[g] 28 the One saying of Cyrus,[h] 'He is my shepherd, and all that I delight in he will completely carry out';[i] even in [my] saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be rebuilt,' and of the temple, 'You will have your foundation laid.'"[j]

45 This is what Jehovah has said to his anointed one,[k] to Cyrus, whose right hand I have taken hold of,[l] to subdue before him nations,[m] so that I may ungird even the hips of kings; to open before him the two-leaved doors, so that even the gates will not be shut: 2 "Before you I myself shall go,[n] and the swells of land I shall straighten out.[o] The copper doors I shall break in pieces, and the iron bars I shall cut down.[p] 3 And I will give you the treasures[q] in the darkness and the hidden treasures in the concealment places, in order that you may know that I am Jehovah, the One calling [you] by your name,[r] the God of Israel. 4 For the sake of my servant Jacob and of Israel my chosen one,[s] I even proceeded to call you by your name; I proceeded to give you a name of honor, although you did not know me.[t] 5 I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.[u] With the exception of me there is no God.[v] I shall closely gird you, although you have not known me, 6 in order that people may know from the rising of the sun and from its setting that there is none besides me.[a] I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.[b] 7 Forming light[c] and creating darkness,[d] making peace[e] and creating calamity,[f] I, Jehovah, am doing all these things.[g]

8 "O YOU heavens, cause a dripping from above;[h] and let the cloudy skies themselves trickle with righteousness.[i] Let the earth open up, and let it be fruitful with salvation, and let it cause righteousness itself to spring up[j] at the same time. I myself, Jehovah, have created it."[k]

9 Woe to the one that has contended with his Former,[l] as an earthenware fragment with the other earthenware fragments of the ground! Should the clay[m] say to its former: "What do you make?" And your achievement [say]: "He has no hands"? 10 Woe to the one saying to a father: "What do you become father to?" and to the wife: "What are you in birth pains with?"[n]

11 This is what Jehovah has said, the Holy One of Israel[o] and the Former[p] of him: "Ask me even about the things that are coming[q] concerning my sons;[r] and concerning the activity[s] of my hands YOU people should command me. 12 I myself have made the earth[t] and have created even man upon it.[u] I—my own hands have stretched out the heavens,[v] and all the army of them I have commanded."[w] build my city,[a] and those of mine in exile he will let go,[b] not for a price[c] nor for bribery," Jehovah of armies has said.

14 This is what Jehovah has said: "The unpaid laborers of Egypt[d] and the merchants of E·thi'o·pi·a and the Sa·be'ans,[e] tall men,[f] will themselves come over even to you, and yours they will become.[g] Behind you they will walk; in fetters[h] they will come over, and to you they will bow down.[i] To you they will pray, [saying,] 'Indeed God is in union with you,[j] and there is no one else; there is no [other] God.'"[k]

15 Truly you are a God keeping yourself concealed,[l] the God of Israel, a Savior.[m] 16 They will certainly be ashamed and even be humiliated, all of them. Together in humiliation[n] the manufacturers of [idol] forms will have to walk. 17 As for Israel, he will certainly be saved in union with Jehovah[o] with a salvation for times indefinite.[p] YOU people will not be ashamed,[q] nor will YOU be humiliated[r] for the indefinite times of eternity.

18 For this is what Jehovah has said, the Creator of the heavens,[s] He the [true] God,[t] the Former of the earth and the Maker of it,[u] He the One who firmly established it,[v] who did not create it simply for nothing, who formed it even to be inhabited:[w] "I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.[x] 19 In a place of concealment I spoke not,[y] in a dark place of the earth; nor said I to the seed of Jacob, 'Seek me simply for nothing, YOU people.'[z] I am Jehovah, speaking what is righteous, telling what is upright.[a]

20 "Collect yourselves and come.[b] Bring yourselves up close together, YOU escapees from the nations.[c] Those carrying the wood of their carved image have not come to any knowledge, neither have those praying to a god that cannot save.[a] 21 Make YOUR report and YOUR presentation.[b] Yes, let them consult together in unity. Who has caused this to be heard from a long time ago?[c] [Who] has reported it from that very time?[d] Is it not I, Jehovah, besides whom there is no other God;[e] a righteous God and a Savior,[f] there being none excepting me?[g]

22 "Turn to me and be saved,[h] all YOU [at the] ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no one else.[i] 23 By my own self I have sworn[j]—out of my own mouth in righteousness the word has gone forth,[k] so that it will not return[l]—that to me every knee will bend down,[m] every tongue will swear,[n] 24 saying, 'Surely in Jehovah there are full righteousness and strength.[o] All those getting heated up against him will come straight to him and be ashamed.[p] 25 In Jehovah all the seed[q] of Israel will prove to be right[r] and will boast about themselves.'"[s]

46 Bel[t] has bent down,[u] Ne'bo is stooping over; their idols[v] have come to be for the wild beasts and for the domestic animals, their loads, pieces of luggage, a burden for the tired animals. 2 They must stoop over; they must each alike bend down; they are simply unable to furnish escape[w] for the burden, but into captivity their own soul must go.[x]

3 "Listen to me, O house of Jacob, and all YOU remaining ones of the house of Israel,[y] YOU the ones conveyed [by me] from the belly, the ones carried from the womb.[z] 4 Even to [one's] old age I am the same One;[a] and to [one's] gray-headedness I myself shall keep bearing up.[b] I myself shall certainly act,[c] that I myself may carry and that I myself may bear up and furnish escape.[d]

5 "To whom will YOU people liken me[e] or make [me] equal or compare me that we may resemble each other?[f] 6 There are those who are lavishing out the gold from the purse, and with the scale beam they weigh out the silver. They hire a metalworker, and he makes it into a god.[g] They prostrate themselves, yes, they bow down.[h] 7 They carry it upon the shoulder,[i] they bear it and deposit it in its place that it may stand still. From its standing place it does not move away.[j] One even cries out to it, but it does not answer; out of one's distress it does not save one.[k]

8 "Remember this, that YOU people may muster up courage. Lay it to heart,[l] YOU transgressors.[m] 9 Remember the first things of a long time ago,[n] that I am the Divine One[o] and there is no other God,[p] nor anyone like me;[q] 10 the One telling from the beginning the finale,[r] and from long ago the things that have not been done;[s] the One saying, 'My own counsel will stand,[t] and everything that is my delight I shall do';[u] 11 the One calling from the sunrising a bird of prey,[v] from a distant land the man to execute my counsel.[w] I have even spoken [it]; I shall also bring it in.[x] I have formed [it], I shall also do it.[y]

12 "Listen to me, YOU the ones powerful at heart,[z] YOU the ones far away from righteousness.[a] 13 I have brought near my righteousness.[b] It is not far away,[c] and my own salvation will not be late.[d] And I will give in Zion salvation, to Israel my beauty."[e]

47 Come down and sit down in the dust,[a] O virgin daughter of Babylon.[b] Sit down on the earth where there is no throne,[c] O daughter of the Chal·de'ans.[d] For you will not experience again that people call you delicate and dainty.[e] 2 Take a hand mill[f] and grind out flour. Uncover your veil.[g] Strip off the flowing skirt.[h] Uncover the leg.[i] Cross over the rivers. 3 You ought to uncover your nakedness.[j] Also, your reproach ought to be seen.[k] Vengeance is what I shall take,[l] and I shall not meet any man [kindly].

4 "There is One repurchasing us.[m] Jehovah of armies is his name,[n] the Holy One of Israel."[o]

5 Sit down silently[p] and come into the darkness,[q] O daughter of the Chal·de'ans;[r] for you will not experience again that people call you Mistress[s] of Kingdoms.[t] 6 I grew indignant at my people.[u] I profaned my inheritance,[v] and I proceeded to give them into your hand.[w] You showed them no mercies.[x] Upon the old man you made your yoke very heavy.[y] 7 And you kept saying: "To time indefinite I shall prove to be Mistress,[z] forever." You did not take these things to your heart; you did not remember the finale of the matter.[a]

8 And now hear this, you pleasure-given [woman], the one sitting in security,[b] the one saying in her heart: "I am, and there is nobody else.[c] I shall not sit as a widow, and I shall not know the loss of children."[d] 9 But to you these two things will come suddenly, in one day:[e] loss of children and widowhood. In their complete measure they must come upon you,[a] for the abundance of your sorceries, for the full might of your spells—exceedingly.[b] 10 And you kept trusting in your badness.[c] You have said: "There is no one seeing me."[d] Your wisdom and your knowledge[e]—this is what has led you away; and you keep saying in your heart: "I am, and there is nobody else." 11 And upon you calamity must come; you will know no charming against it. And upon you adversity will fall;[f] you will not be able to avert it. And upon you there will suddenly[g] come a ruin that you are not accustomed to know.

12 Stand still, now, with your spells and with the abundance of your sorceries,[h] in which you have toiled from your youth; that perhaps you might be able to benefit, that perhaps you might strike people with awe. 13 You have grown weary with the multitude of your counselors. Let them stand up, now, and save you, the worshipers of the heavens, the lookers at the stars,[i] those giving out knowledge at the new moons concerning the things that will come upon you. 14 Look! They have become like stubble.[j] A fire itself will certainly burn them up.[k] They will not deliver their soul[l] from the power of the flame.[m] There will be no glow of charcoals for people to warm themselves, no firelight in front of which to sit down. 15 Thus they will certainly become to you, with whom you have toiled as your charmers[n] from your youth. They will actually wander, each one to his own region. There will be no one to save you.[o]

48 Hear this, O house of Jacob, YOU who are calling yourselves by the name of Israel[p] and who have come forth from the very waters of Judah,[a] YOU who are swearing by the name of Jehovah[b] and who make mention even of the God of Israel,[c] not in truth and not in righteousness.[d] 2 For they have called themselves as being from the holy city,[e] and upon the God of Israel they have supported themselves,[f] Jehovah of armies being his name.[g]

3 "The first things I have told even from that time, and out of my own mouth they went forth, and I kept making them heard.[h] Suddenly I acted, and the things proceeded to come in.[i] 4 Due to my knowing that you are hard[j] and that your neck is an iron sinew[k] and your forehead is copper,[l] 5 I also kept telling you from that time. Before it could come in, I caused you to hear [it],[m] that you might not say, 'My own idol has done them, and my own carved image and my own molten image have commanded them.'[n] 6 You have heard.[o] Behold it all.[p] As for YOU people, will YOU not tell [it]?[q] I have made you hear new things from the present time, even things kept in reserve, that you have not known.[r] 7 At the present time they must be created, and not from that time, even things that before today you have not heard, that you may not say, 'Look! I have already known them.'[s]

8 "Moreover, you have not heard,[t] neither have you known, nor from that time on has your ear been opened. For I well know that without fail you kept dealing treacherously,[u] and a 'transgressor from the belly' you have been called.[v] 9 For the sake of my name I shall check my anger,[w] and for my praise I shall restrain myself toward you that there may be no cutting you off.[x] 10 Look! I have refined you, but not in [the form of] silver.[a] I have made choice of you in the smelting furnace of affliction.[b] 11 For my own sake, for my own sake I shall act,[c] for how could one let oneself be profaned?[d] And to no one else shall I give my own glory.[e]

12 "Listen to me, O Jacob, and you Israel my called one. I am the same One.[f] I am the first.[g] Moreover, I am the last.[h] 13 Moreover, my own hand laid the foundation of the earth,[i] and my own right hand extended out the heavens.[j] I am calling to them, that they may keep standing together.[k]

14 "Be collected together, all YOU people, and hear.[l] Who among them has told these things? Jehovah himself has loved him.[m] He will do what is his delight upon Babylon,[n] and his own arm will be upon the Chal·de'ans.[o] 15 I—I myself have spoken. Moreover, I have called him.[p] I have brought him in, and there will be a making of his way successful.[q]

16 "Come near to me, YOU people. Hear this. From the start I have spoken in no place of concealment at all.[r] From the time of its occurring I have been there."

And now the Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself has sent me, even his spirit.[s] 17 This is what Jehovah has said, your Repurchaser,[t] the Holy One of Israel:[u] "I, Jehovah, am your God, the One teaching you to benefit [yourself],[v] the One causing you to tread in the way in which you should walk.[w] 18 O if only you would actually pay attention to my commandments![x] Then your peace would become just like a river,[y] and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.[z] 19 And your offspring would become just like the sand, and the descendants from your inward parts like the grains of it.[a] One's name would not be cut off or be annihilated from before me."[a]

20 Go forth, YOU people, out of Babylon![b] Run away from the Chal·de'ans.[c] Tell forth even with the sound of a joyful cry, cause this to be heard.[d] Make it to go forth to the extremity of the earth.[e] Say: "Jehovah has repurchased his servant Jacob.[f] 21 And they did not get thirsty[g] when he was making them walk even through devastated places.[h] Water out of the rock he caused to flow forth for them, and he proceeded to split a rock that the water might stream forth."[i]

22 "There is no peace," Jehovah has said, "for the wicked ones."[j]

49 Listen to me, O YOU islands,[k] and pay attention, YOU national groups far away.[l] Jehovah himself has called me[m] even from the belly.[n] From the inward parts of my mother he has made mention of my name.[o] 2 And he proceeded to make my mouth like a sharp sword.[p] In the shadow[q] of his hand he has hidden me.[r] And he gradually made me a polished arrow. He concealed me in his own quiver. 3 And he went on to say to me: "You are my servant, O Israel,[s] you the one in whom I shall show my beauty."[t]

4 But as for me, I said: "It is for nothing that I have toiled.[u] For unreality and vanity I have used up my own power.[v] Truly my judgment is with Jehovah,[w] and my wages with my God."[x] 5 And now Jehovah, the One forming me from the belly as a servant belonging to him,[y] has said [for me] to bring back Jacob to him,[z] in order that to him Israel itself may be gathered.[a] And I shall be glorified in the eyes of Jehovah, and my own God will have become my strength. 6 And he proceeded to say: "It has been more than a trivial matter for you to become my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back even the safeguarded ones of Israel;[a] I also have given you for a light of the nations,[b] that my salvation may come to be to the extremity of the earth."[c]

7 This is what Jehovah, the Repurchaser of Israel,[d] his Holy One, has said to him that is despised in soul,[e] to him that is detested by the nation,[f] to the servant of rulers:[g] "Kings themselves will see and certainly rise up,[h] [and] princes, and they will bow down, by reason of Jehovah, who is faithful,[i] the Holy One of Israel, who chooses you."[j]

8 This is what Jehovah has said: "In a time of goodwill I have answered you,[k] and in a day of salvation I have helped you;[l] and I kept safeguarding you that I might give you as a covenant for the people,[m] to rehabilitate the land,[n] to bring about the repossessing of the desolated hereditary possessions,[o] 9 to say to the prisoners,[p] 'Come out!'[q] to those who are in the darkness,[r] 'Reveal yourselves!'[s] By the ways they will pasture, and on all beaten paths their pasturing will be.[t] 10 They will not go hungry,[u] neither will they go thirsty,[v] nor will parching heat or sun strike them.[w] For the One who is having pity upon them will lead them,[x] and by the springs of water he will conduct them.[y] 11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways themselves will be on an elevation.[z] 12 Look! These will come even from far away,[a] and, look! these from the north[b] and from the west,[c] and these from the land of Si′nim."

13 Give a glad cry, YOU heavens,[a] and be joyful, you earth.[b] Let the mountains become cheerful with a glad outcry.[c] For Jehovah has comforted his people,[d] and he shows pity upon his own afflicted ones.[e]

14 But Zion kept saying: "Jehovah has left me,[f] and Jehovah himself has forgotten me."[g] 15 Can a wife forget her suckling so that she should not pity the son of her belly?[h] Even these women can forget,[i] yet I myself shall not forget you.[j] 16 Look! Upon [my] palms I have engraved you.[k] Your walls are in front of me constantly.[l] 17 Your sons have hurried up. The very ones tearing you down and devastating you will go forth even from you. 18 Raise your eyes all around and see. They have all of them been collected together.[m] They have come to you. "As I am living," is the utterance of Jehovah,[n] "with all of them you will clothe yourself just as with ornaments, and you will bind them on yourself like a bride.[o] 19 Although there are your devastated places and your desolated places and the land of your ruins,[p] although now you are too cramped to be dwelling, and those swallowing you down have been far away,[q] 20 yet in your own ears the sons of your bereaved state[r] will say, 'The place has become too cramped for me.[s] Do make room for me, that I may dwell.'[t] 21 And you will for certain say in your heart, 'Who has become father to these for me, since I am a woman bereaved of children and sterile, gone into exile and taken prisoner?[u] As for these, who has brought [them] up?[v] Look! I myself had been left behind alone.[w] These—where have they been?' "[x]

22 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Look! I shall raise up my hand even to the nations,[a] and to the peoples I shall lift up my signal.[b] And they will bring your sons in the bosom, and upon the shoulder they will carry your own daughters.[c] 23 And kings must become caretakers for you,[d] and their princesses nursing women for you. With faces to the earth they will bow down to you,[e] and the dust of your feet they will lick up;[f] and you will have to know that I am Jehovah, of whom those hoping in me will not be ashamed."[g]

24 Can those already taken be taken from a mighty man himself,[h] or can the body of captives of the tyrant make their escape?[i] 25 But this is what Jehovah has said: "Even the body of captives of the mighty man will be taken away,[j] and those already taken by the tyrant himself will make their escape.[k] And against anyone contending against you I myself shall contend,[l] and your own sons I myself shall save.[m] 26 And I will make those maltreating you eat their own flesh; and as with the sweet wine they will become drunk with their own blood. And all flesh will have to know that I, Jehovah,[n] am your Savior[o] and your Repurchaser,[p] the Powerful One of Jacob."[q]

50 This is what Jehovah has said: "Where, then, is the divorce certificate[r] of the mother of YOU people, whom I sent away?[s] Or which one of my creditors is it to whom I have sold YOU people?[t] Look! Because of YOUR own errors[u] YOU have been sold, and because of YOUR own transgressions YOUR mother has been sent away.[v] 2 Why is it that, when I came in, there was no one?[w] When I called, there was nobody answering?[x] Has my hand become in fact so short that it cannot redeem,[y] or is there in me no power to deliver? Look! With my rebuke[a] I dry up the sea;[b] I make rivers a wilderness.[c] Their fish stink due to there being no water, and they die because of thirst.[d] 3 I clothe the heavens with obscurity,[e] and I make sackcloth itself their covering."[f]

4 The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself has given me the tongue of the taught ones,[g] that I may know how to answer the tired one with a word.[h] He awakens morning by morning; he awakens my ear to hear like the taught ones.[i] 5 The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself has opened my ear, and I, for my part, was not rebellious.[j] I did not turn in the opposite direction.[k] 6 My back I gave to the strikers, and my cheeks[l] to those plucking off [the hair]. My face I did not conceal from humiliating things and spit.[m]

7 But the Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself will help me.[n] That is why I shall not have to feel humiliated. That is why I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.[o] 8 The One declaring me righteous is near.[p] Who can contend with me? Let us stand up together.[q] Who is my judicial antagonist?[r] Let him approach me.[s] 9 Look! The Sovereign Lord Jehovah himself will help me. Who is there that can pronounce me wicked?[t] Look! All of them, like a garment, will wear out.[u] A mere moth will eat them up.[v]

10 Who among YOU people is in fear[w] of Jehovah, listening to the voice of his servant,[x] who has walked in continual darkness[y] and for whom there has been no brightness? Let him trust in the name of Jehovah[z] and support himself upon his God.[a]

11 "Look! All YOU who are igniting a fire, making sparks light up, walk in the light of YOUR fire, and amid the sparks that YOU have set ablaze. From my hand YOU will certainly come to have this: In sheer pain YOU will lie down.[b]

51 "Listen to me, YOU people who are pursuing after righteousness,[c] YOU who are seeking to find Jehovah.[d] Look to the rock[e] from which YOU were hewn out, and to the hollow of the pit from which YOU were dug out. 2 Look to Abraham[f] YOUR father[g] and to Sarah[h] who gradually brought YOU forth with childbirth pains. For he was one when I called him,[i] and I proceeded to bless him and to make him many.[j] 3 For Jehovah will certainly comfort Zion.[k] He will for certain comfort all her devastated places,[l] and he will make her wilderness like E'den[m] and her desert plain like the garden of Jehovah.[n] Exultation and rejoicing themselves will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of melody.[o]

4 "Pay attention to me, O my people; and you national group of mine,[p] to me give ear. For from me a law itself will go forth,[q] and my judicial decision I shall cause to repose even as a light to the peoples.[r] 5 My righteousness is near.[s] My salvation[t] will certainly go forth, and my own arms will judge even the peoples.[u] In me the islands themselves will hope,[v] and for my arm they will wait.[w]

6 "Raise YOUR eyes to the heavens themselves,[x] and look at the earth beneath. For the very heavens must be dispersed in fragments just like smoke,[y] and like a garment the earth itself will wear out,[z] and its inhabitants themselves will die like a mere gnat. But as for my salvation, it will prove to be even to time indefinite,[a] and my own righteousness will not be shattered.[b]

7 "Listen to me, YOU the ones knowing righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law.[c] Do not be afraid of the reproach of mortal men, and do not be struck with terror just because of their abusive words.[d] 8 For the moth will eat them up just as if a garment, and the clothes moth will eat them up just as if wool.[e] But as for my righteousness, it will prove to be even to time indefinite, and my salvation to unnumbered generations."[f]

9 Awake, awake, clothe yourself with strength,[g] O arm of Jehovah![h] Awake as in the days of long ago, as during the generations of times long past.[i] Are you not the one that broke Ra'hab[j] to pieces, that pierced the sea monster?[k] 10 Are you not the one that dried up the sea, the waters of the vast deep?[l] The one that made the depths of the sea a way for the repurchased ones to go across?[m] 11 Then the redeemed ones of Jehovah themselves will return and must come to Zion with a joyful outcry,[n] and rejoicing to time indefinite will be upon their head.[o] To exultation and rejoicing they will attain.[p] Grief and sighing will certainly flee away.[q]

12 "I—I myself am the One that is comforting YOU people.[r]

"Who are you that you should be afraid of a mortal man that will die,[s] and of a son of mankind that will be rendered as mere green grass?[t] 13 And that you should forget Jehovah your Maker,[u] the One stretching out the heavens[v] and laying

the foundation of the earth,[a] so that you were in dread constantly the whole day long on account of the rage of the one hemming [you] in,[b] as though he was all set to bring [you] to ruin?[c] And where is the rage of the one hemming [you] in?[d]

14 "The one stooping in chains will certainly be loosened speedily,[e] that he may not go in death to the pit[f] and that his bread may not be lacking.[g]

15 "But I, Jehovah, am your God, the One stirring up the sea that its waves may be boisterous.[h] Jehovah of armies is his name.[i] 16 And I shall put my words in your mouth,[j] and with the shadow of my hand I shall certainly cover you,[k] in order to plant the heavens[l] and lay the foundation of the earth[m] and say to Zion, 'You are my people.'[n]

17 "Rouse yourself, rouse yourself, rise up, O Jerusalem,[o] you who have drunk at the hand of Jehovah his cup of rage.[p] The goblet, the cup causing reeling, you have drunk, you have drained out.[q] 18 There was none of all the sons[r] that she brought to birth conducting her, and there was none of all the sons that she brought up taking hold of her hand.[s] 19 Those two things were befalling you.[t] Who will sympathize with you?[u] Despoiling and breakdown, and hunger and sword![v] Who will comfort you?[w] 20 Your own sons have swooned away.[x] They have lain down at the head of all the streets like the wild sheep in the net,[y] as those who are full of the rage of Jehovah,[z] the rebuke of your God."[a]

21 Therefore listen to this, please, O woman[b] afflicted and drunk, but not with wine.[c] 22 This is what your Lord, Jehovah, even your God, who contends[d] for his people, has said: "Look! I will take away from your hand the cup causing reeling.[a] The goblet, my cup of rage—you will not repeat the drinking of it anymore.[b] 23 And I will put it in the hand of the ones irritating you,[c] who have said to your soul, 'Bow down that we may cross over,' so that you used to make your back just like the earth, and like the street for those crossing over."[d]

52 Wake up, wake up, put on your strength,[e] O Zion! Put on your beautiful garments,[f] O Jerusalem, the holy city![g] For no more will there come again into you the uncircumcised and unclean one.[h] 2 Shake yourself free from the dust,[i] rise up, take a seat, O Jerusalem. Loosen for yourself the bands on your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.[j]

3 For this is what Jehovah has said: "It was for nothing that YOU people were sold,[k] and it will be without money that YOU will be repurchased."[l]

4 For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "It was to Egypt that my people went down in the first instance to reside there as aliens;[m] and without cause As·syr'i·a, for its part, oppressed them."

5 "And now, what interest do I have here?" is the utterance of Jehovah. "For my people were taken for nothing.[n] The very ones ruling over them kept howling,"[o] is the utterance of Jehovah, "and constantly, all day long, my name was being treated with disrespect.[p] 6 For that reason my people will know my name,[q] even for that reason in that day, because I am the One that is speaking.[r] Look! It is I."

one publishing peace,[a] the one bringing good news of something better,[b] the one publishing salvation,[c] the one saying to Zion: "Your God has become king!"[d]

8 Listen! Your own watchmen[e] have raised [their] voice.[f] In unison they keep crying out joyfully; for it will be eye into eye[g] that they will see when Jehovah gathers back Zion.[h]

9 Become cheerful, cry out joyfully in unison, YOU devastated places of Jerusalem,[i] for Jehovah has comforted his people;[j] he has repurchased Jerusalem.[k] 10 Jehovah has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations;[l] and all the ends of the earth must see the salvation of our God.[m]

11 Turn away, turn away, get out of there,[n] touch nothing unclean;[o] get out from the midst of her,[p] keep yourselves clean, YOU who are carrying the utensils of Jehovah.[q] 12 For YOU people will get out in no panic, and YOU will go in no flight.[r] For Jehovah will be going even before YOU,[s] and the God of Israel will be YOUR rear guard.[t]

13 Look! My servant[u] will act with insight.[v] He will be in high station and will certainly be elevated and exalted very much.[w] 14 To the extent that many have stared at him in amazement[x]—so much was the disfigurement as respects his appearance[y] more than that of any other man and as respects his stately form[z] more than that of the sons of mankind— 15 he will likewise startle many nations.[a] At him kings will shut their mouth,[b] because what had not been recounted to them they will actually see, and to what they had not heard they must turn their consideration.[c]

53 Who has put faith in the thing heard by us?[d] And as for the arm of Jehovah,[e] to whom has it been revealed?[f] 2 And he will come up like a twig[a] before one, and like a root out of waterless land. No stately form does he have, nor any splendor;[b] and when we shall see him, there is not the appearance so that we should desire him.[c]

3 He was despised and was avoided by men,[d] a man meant for pains and for having acquaintance with sickness.[e] And there was as if the concealing of one's face from us.[f] He was despised, and we held him as of no account.[g] 4 Truly our sicknesses were what he himself carried;[h] and as for our pains, he bore them.[i] But we ourselves accounted him as plagued,[j] stricken by God[k] and afflicted.[l] 5 But he was being pierced[m] for our transgression;[n] he was being crushed for our errors.[o] The chastisement meant for our peace was upon him,[p] and because of his wounds[q] there has been a healing for us.[r] 6 Like sheep we have all of us wandered about;[s] it was each one to his own way that we have turned; and Jehovah himself has caused the error of us all to meet up with that one.[t] 7 He was hard pressed,[u] and he was letting himself be afflicted;[v] yet he would not open his mouth. He was being brought just like a sheep to the slaughtering;[w] and like a ewe that before her shearers has become mute, he also would not open his mouth.[x]

8 Because of restraint and of judgment he was taken away;[y] and who will concern himself even with [the details of] his generation?[z] For he was severed[a] from the land of the living ones.[b] Because of the transgression[c] of my people he had the stroke.[d] 9 And he will make his burial place even with the wicked ones,[e] and with the rich class in his death,[f] despite the fact that he had done no violence[g] and there was no deception in his mouth.[h]

10 But Jehovah himself took delight in crushing him;[i] he made him sick.[j] If you will set his soul as a guilt offering,[k] he will see his offspring,[l] he will prolong [his] days,[m] and in his hand what is the delight[n] of Jehovah will succeed.[o] 11 Because of the trouble of his soul he will see,[p] he will be satisfied.[q] By means of his knowledge the righteous one, my servant,[r] will bring a righteous standing to many people;[s] and their errors he himself will bear.[t] 12 For that reason I shall deal him a portion among the many,[u] and it will be with the mighty ones that he will apportion the spoil,[v] due to the fact that he poured out his soul to the very death,[w] and it was with the transgressors that he was counted in;[x] and he himself carried the very sin of many people,[y] and for the transgressors he proceeded to interpose.[z]

54 "Cry out joyfully, you barren woman that did not give birth![a] Become cheerful with a joyful outcry and cry shrilly,[b] you that had no childbirth pains,[c] for the sons of the desolated one are more numerous than the sons of the woman with a husbandly owner,"[d] Jehovah has said. 2 "Make the place of your tent more spacious.[e] And let them stretch out the tent cloths of your grand tabernacle. Do not hold back. Lengthen out your tent cords, and make those tent pins of yours strong.[f] 3 For to the right and to the left you will break forth,[g] and your own offspring will take possession even of nations,[a] and they will inhabit even the desolated cities.[b] 4 Do not be afraid,[c] for you will not be put to shame;[d] and do not feel humiliated, for you will not be disappointed.[e] For you will forget even the shame of your time of youth,[f] and the reproach of your continuous widowhood you will remember no more."

5 "For your Grand Maker[g] is your husbandly owner,[h] Jehovah of armies being his name;[i] and the Holy One of Israel is your Repurchaser.[j] The God of the whole earth he will be called.[k] 6 For Jehovah called you as if you were a wife left entirely and hurt in spirit,[l] and as a wife of the time of youth[m] who was then rejected,"[n] your God has said.

7 "For a little moment I left you entirely,[o] but with great mercies I shall collect you together.[p] 8 With a flood of indignation I concealed my face from you for but a moment,[q] but with loving-kindness to time indefinite I will have mercy upon you,"[r] your Repurchaser,[s] Jehovah, has said.

9 "This is just as the days of Noah to me.[t] Just as I have sworn that the waters of Noah shall no more pass over the earth,[u] so I have sworn that I will not become indignant toward you nor rebuke you.[v] 10 For the mountains themselves may be removed, and the very hills may stagger,[w] but my loving-kindness itself will not be removed from you,[x] nor will my covenant of peace itself stagger,"[y] Jehovah, the One having mercy upon you,[a] has said.

11 "O woman afflicted,[b] tempest-tossed,[c] uncomforted,[d] here I am laying with hard mortar your stones,[e] and I will lay your foundation[f] with sapphires.[g] 12 And I will make your battlements of rubies, and your gates of fiery glowing stones,[h] and all your boundaries of delightsome stones. 13 And all your sons[i] will be persons taught by Jehovah,[j] and the peace of your sons will be abundant.[k] 14 You will prove to be firmly established in righteousness itself.[l] You will be far away from oppression[m]—for you will fear none—and from anything terrifying, for it will not come near you.[n] 15 If anyone should at all make an attack, it will not be at my orders.[o] Whoever is making an attack upon you will fall even on account of you."[p]

16 "Look! I myself have created the craftsman, the one blowing[q] upon the fire of charcoal[r] and bringing forth a weapon as his workmanship. I myself, too, have created the ruinous man[s] for wrecking work. 17 Any weapon whatever that will be formed against you will have no success,[t] and any tongue at all that will rise up against you in the judgment you will condemn.[u] This is the hereditary possession of the servants of Jehovah,[v] and their righteousness is from me," is the utterance of Jehovah.[w]

55 Hey there, all YOU thirsty ones![x] Come to the water.[y] And the ones that have no money! Come, buy and eat.[z] Yes, come, buy wine[a] and milk[b] even without money and without price.[c] 2 Why do YOU people keep paying out money for what is not bread, and why is YOUR toil for what results in no satisfaction?[d] Listen intently to me, and eat what is good,[e] and let YOUR soul find its exquisite delight in fatness itself.[a] 3 Incline YOUR ear[b] and come to me.[c] Listen, and YOUR soul will keep alive,[d] and I shall readily conclude with YOU people an indefinitely lasting covenant[e] respecting the loving-kindnesses to David that are faithful.[f] 4 Look! As a witness[g] to the national groups[h] I have given him,[i] as a leader[j] and commander[k] to the national groups.

5 Look! A nation that you do not know you will call,[l] and those of a nation who have not known you will run even to you,[m] for the sake of Jehovah your God,[n] and for the Holy One of Israel,[o] because he will have beautified you.[p]

6 Search for Jehovah, YOU people, while he may be found.[q] Call to him while he proves to be near.[r] 7 Let the wicked man leave his way,[s] and the harmful man his thoughts;[t] and let him return to Jehovah, who will have mercy upon him,[u] and to our God, for he will forgive in a large way.[v]

8 "For the thoughts of YOU people are not my thoughts,[w] nor are my ways YOUR ways,"[x] is the utterance of Jehovah. 9 "For as the heavens are higher than the earth,[y] so my ways are higher than YOUR ways,[z] and my thoughts than YOUR thoughts.[a] 10 For just as the pouring rain descends, and the snow, from the heavens and does not return to that place, unless it actually saturates the earth and makes it produce and sprout,[b] and seed is actually given to the sower and bread to the eater,[a] 11 so my word that goes forth from my mouth will prove to be.[b] It will not return to me without results,[c] but it will certainly do that in which I have delighted,[d] and it will have certain success in that for which I have sent it.[e]

12 "For with rejoicing YOU people will go forth,[f] and with peace YOU will be brought in.[g] The mountains and the hills themselves will become cheerful before YOU with a joyful outcry,[h] and the very trees of the field will all clap their hands.[i] 13 Instead of the thicket of thorns the juniper tree will come up.[j] Instead of the stinging nettle the myrtle tree will come up.[k] And it must become for Jehovah something famous,[l] a sign to time indefinite[m] that will not be cut off."

56 This is what Jehovah has said: "Keep justice,[n] YOU people, and do what is righteous.[o] For my salvation is at hand to come in,[p] and my righteousness to be revealed.[q] 2 Happy is the mortal man that does this,[r] and the son of mankind that lays hold of it,[s] keeping the sabbath in order not to profane it,[t] and keeping his hand in order not to do any kind of badness.[u] 3 And let not the foreigner that has joined himself to Jehovah say,[v] 'Without doubt Jehovah will divide me off from his people.'[w] Neither let the eunuch[x] say, 'Look! I am a dry tree.'"

4 For this is what Jehovah has said to the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths and that have chosen what I have delighted in[y] and that are laying hold of my covenant:[z] 5 "I will even give to them in my house[a] and within my walls a monument[b] and a name,[c] something better than sons and daughters.[d] A name to time indefinite I shall give them,[e] one that will not be cut off.[f]

6 "And the foreigners that have joined themselves to Jehovah to minister to him[a] and to love the name of Jehovah,[b] in order to become servants to him, all those keeping the sabbath in order not to profane it and laying hold of my covenant,[c] 7 I will also bring them to my holy mountain[d] and make them rejoice inside my house of prayer.[e] Their whole burnt offerings[f] and their sacrifices[g] will be for acceptance upon my altar.[h] For my own house will be called even a house of prayer for all the peoples."[i]

8 The utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, who is collecting together the dispersed ones of Israel,[j] is: "I shall collect together to him others besides those already collected together of his."[k]

9 All YOU wild animals of the open field, come to eat, all YOU wild animals in the forest.[l] 10 His watchmen are blind.[m] None of them have taken note.[n] All of them are speechless dogs; they are not able to bark,[o] panting, lying down, loving to slumber.[p] 11 They are even dogs strong in soul[ful desire];[q] they have known no satisfaction.[r] They are also shepherds that have not known how to understand.[s] They have all of them turned to their own way, each one for his unjust gain from his own border:[t] 12 "Come, men! Let me take some wine; and let us drink intoxicating liquor to the limit.[u] And tomorrow will certainly turn out just as today, great in a very much larger way."[v]

57 The righteous one himself has perished,[a] but there is no one taking [it] to heart.[b] And men of loving-kindness are being gathered [to the dead],[c] while no one discerns that it is because of the calamity that the righteous one has been gathered away.[d] 2 He enters into peace;[e] they take rest[f] upon their beds,[g] [each] one that is walking straightforwardly.[h]

3 "As for YOU men, come up close here,[i] YOU sons of a soothsaying woman,[j] the seed of an adulterous person and of a woman that commits prostitution:[k] 4 Over whom is it that YOU have a jolly good time?[l] Against whom do YOU keep opening wide the mouth, keep sticking out the tongue?[m] Are YOU not the children of transgression, the seed of falsehood,[n] 5 those who are working up passion among big trees,[o] under every luxuriant tree,[p] slaughtering the children in the torrent valleys under the clefts of the crags?[q]

6 "With the smooth stones of the torrent valley was your portion.[r] They—they were your lot.[s] Moreover, to them you poured out a drink offering,[t] you offered up a gift. For these things shall I comfort myself?[u] 7 Upon a mountain high and lifted up you set your bed.[v] There also you went up to offer sacrifice.[w] 8 And behind the door and the doorpost you set your memorial.[x] For apart from me you uncovered [yourself] and proceeded to go up; you made your bed spacious.[y] And for yourself you went concluding a covenant with them. You loved a bed with them.[z] The male organ you beheld. 9 And you proceeded to descend toward Mel'ech with oil, and kept making your ointments abundant.[a] And you continued sending your envoys far off, so that you lowered matters to She'ol.[b] 10 In the multitude of your ways you have toiled.[a] You have not said, 'It is hopeless!' You have found a revival of your own power.[b] That is why you have not grown sick.[c]

11 "Whom did you become frightened at and begin to fear,[d] so that you took up lying?[e] But I was not the one that you remembered.[f] You took nothing to your heart.[g] Was I not keeping silent and hiding matters?[h] So you were in no fear even of me.[i] 12 I myself shall tell forth your righteousness[j] and your works,[k] that they will not benefit you.[l] 13 When you cry for aid your collection of things will not deliver you,[m] but a wind will carry even all of them away.[n] An exhalation will take them away, but the one taking refuge in me[o] will inherit the land and will take possession of my holy mountain.[p] 14 And one will certainly say, 'Bank up, YOU people, bank up! Clear the way.[q] Remove any obstacle from the way of my people.'"[r]

15 For this is what the High and Lofty One,[s] who is residing forever[t] and whose name is holy,[u] has said: "In the height and in the holy place is where I reside,[v] also with the one crushed and lowly in spirit,[w] to revive the spirit of the lowly ones and to revive the heart of the ones being crushed.[x] 16 For it will not be to time indefinite that I shall contend, nor perpetually that I shall be indignant;[y] for because of me the spirit itself would grow feeble,[z] even the breathing creatures that I myself have made.[a]

17 "At the erroneousness of his unjust gain[b] I grew indignant, and I proceeded to strike him, concealing [my face],[c] while I was indignant. But he kept walking as a renegade[a] in the way of his heart. 18 I have seen his very ways; and I began to heal him[b] and conduct him[c] and make compensation with comfort[d] to him and to his mourning ones."[e]

19 "I am creating the fruit of the lips.[f] Continuous peace there will be to the one that is far away and to the one that is near,"[g] Jehovah has said, "and I will heal him."[h]

20 "But the wicked are like the sea that is being tossed, when it is unable to calm down, the waters of which keep tossing up seaweed and mire. 21 There is no peace," my God has said, "for the wicked ones."[i]

58 "Call out full-throated; do not hold back.[j] Raise your voice just like a horn, and tell my people their revolt,[k] and the house of Jacob their sins. 2 Yet day after day it was I whom they kept seeking, and it was in the knowledge of my ways that they would express delight,[l] like a nation that carried on righteousness itself and that had not left the very justice of their God,[m] in that they kept asking me for righteous judgments, drawing near to God in whom they had delight.[n]

3 "'For what reason did we fast and you did not see,[o] and did we afflict our soul[p] and you would take no note?'[q]

"Indeed YOU people were finding delight in the very day of YOUR fasting, when there were all YOUR toilers that YOU kept driving to work.[r] 4 Indeed for quarreling and struggle YOU would fast,[s] and for striking with the fist of wickedness.[t] Did YOU not keep fasting as in the day for making YOUR voice to be heard in the height? 5 Should the fast that I choose become like this, as a day for earthling man to afflict his soul?[u] For bowing down his head just like a rush, and that he should spread out mere sackcloth and ashes as his couch?[a] Is it this that you call a fast and a day acceptable to Jehovah?[b]

6 "Is not this the fast that I choose? To loosen the fetters of wickedness,[c] to release the bands of the yoke bar,[d] and to send away the crushed ones free,[e] and that YOU people should tear in two every yoke bar?[f] 7 Is it not the dividing of your bread out to the hungry one,[g] and that you should bring the afflicted, homeless people into [your] house?[h] That, in case you should see someone naked, you must cover him,[i] and that you should not hide yourself from your own flesh?[j]

8 "In that case your light would break forth just like the dawn;[k] and speedily would recuperation spring up for you.[l] And before you your righteousness would certainly walk;[m] the very glory of Jehovah would be your rear guard.[n] 9 In that case you would call, and Jehovah himself would answer; you would cry for help,[o] and he would say, 'Here I am!'

"If you will remove from your midst the yoke bar,[p] the poking out of the finger[q] and the speaking of what is hurtful;[r] 10 and you will grant to the hungry one your own soul[ful desire],[s] and you will satisfy the soul that is being afflicted, your light also will certainly flash up even in the darkness, and your gloom will be like midday.[t] 11 And Jehovah will be bound to lead[u] you constantly[v] and to satisfy your soul even in a scorched land,[w] and he will invigorate your very bones;[x] and you must become like a well-watered garden,[y] and like the source of water, the waters of which do not lie. 12 And at your instance men will certainly build up the places devastated a long time;[a] you will raise up even the foundations of continuous generations.[b] And you will actually be called the repairer of [the] gap,[c] the restorer of roadways by which to dwell.

13 "If in view of the sabbath you will turn back your foot as regards doing your own delights on my holy day,[d] and will actually call the sabbath an exquisite delight, a holy [day] of Jehovah, one being glorified,[e] and will actually glorify it rather than doing your own ways, rather than finding what delights you and speaking a word; 14 you will in that case find your exquisite delight in Jehovah,[f] and I will make you ride upon the high places of the earth;[g] and I will cause you to eat from the hereditary possession of Jacob your forefather,[h] for the mouth of Jehovah itself has spoken [it]."[i]

59 Look! The hand of Jehovah has not become too short that it cannot save,[j] nor has his ear become too heavy that it cannot hear.[k] 2 No, but the very errors of YOU people have become the things causing division between YOU and YOUR God,[l] and YOUR own sins have caused the concealing of [his] face from YOU to keep from hearing.[m] 3 For YOUR own palms have become polluted with blood,[n] and YOUR fingers with error. YOUR own lips have spoken falsehood.[o] YOUR own tongue kept muttering sheer unrighteousness.[p] 4 There is no one calling out in righteousness,[q] and no one at all has gone to court in faithfulness. There has been a trusting in unreality,[r] and a speaking of worthlessness.[s] There has been a conceiving of trouble, and a bringing of what is hurtful to birth.[t]

5 The eggs of a poisonous snake are what they have hatched, and they kept weaving the mere cobweb of a spider.[a] Anyone eating some of their eggs would die, and the [egg] that was smashed would be hatched into a viper.[b] 6 Their mere cobweb will not serve as a garment, nor will they cover themselves with their works.[c] Their works are hurtful works, and the activity of violence is in their palms.[d] 7 Their own feet keep running to sheer badness,[e] and they are in a hurry to shed innocent blood.[f] Their thoughts are hurtful thoughts;[g] despoiling and breakdown are in their highways.[h] 8 The way of peace[i] they have ignored, and there is no justice in their tracks.[j] Their roadways they have made crooked for themselves.[k] No one at all treading in them will actually know peace.[l]

9 That is why justice has come to be far away from us, and righteousness does not catch up with us. We keep hoping for light, but, look! darkness; for brightness, [but] in continuous gloom we kept walking.[m] 10 We keep groping for the wall just like blind men, and like those without eyes we keep groping.[n] We have stumbled at high noon just as in evening darkness; among the stout ones [we are] just like dead people.[o] 11 We keep groaning, all of us, just like bears; and like doves we mournfully keep cooing.[p] We kept hoping for justice,[q] but there was none; for salvation, [but] it has stayed far away from us.[r] 12 For our revolts have become many in front of you;[s] and as for our sins, each one has testified against us.[t] For our revolts are with us; and as for our errors, we well know them.[u] 13 There have been transgressing and a denying of Jehovah;[v] and there was a moving back from our God, a speaking of oppression and revolt,[a] a conceiving and a muttering of words of falsehood from the very heart.[b] 14 And justice was forced to move back,[c] and righteousness itself kept standing simply far off.[d] For truth has stumbled even in the public square, and what is straightforward is unable to enter.[e] 15 And the truth proves to be missing,[f] and anyone turning away from badness is being despoiled.[g]

And Jehovah got to see, and it was bad in his eyes that there was no justice.[h] 16 And when he saw that there was no man, he began to show himself astonished that there was no one interposing.[i] And his arm proceeded to save for him, and his own righteousness was the thing that supported him.[j] 17 Then he put on righteousness as a coat of mail,[k] and the helmet of salvation upon his head.[l] Furthermore, he put on the garments of vengeance as raiment[m] and enwrapped himself with zeal as if a sleeveless coat.[n] 18 In accordance with the dealings he will reward correspondingly,[o] rage to his adversaries, due treatment to his enemies.[p] To the islands he will recompense due treatment.[q] 19 And from the sunset they will begin to fear the name of Jehovah,[r] and from the rising of the sun the glory of him,[s] for he will come in like a distressing river, which the very spirit of Jehovah has driven along.[t]

20 "And to Zion[u] the Repurchaser[v] will certainly come, and to those turning from transgression in Jacob,"[w] is the utterance of Jehovah.

21 "And as for me, this is my covenant with them,"[x] Jehovah has said.

"My spirit that is upon you[y] and my words that I have put in your mouth[z]—they will not be removed from your mouth or from the mouth of your offspring or from the mouth of the offspring of your offspring," Jehovah has said, "from now on even to time indefinite."[a]

60 "Arise,[b] O woman, shed forth light,[c] for your light has come[d] and upon you the very glory of Jehovah has shone forth.[e] 2 For, look! darkness[f] itself will cover the earth, and thick gloom the national groups; but upon you Jehovah will shine forth, and upon you his own glory will be seen.[g] 3 And nations will certainly go to your light,[h] and kings[i] to the brightness of your shining forth.[j]

4 "Raise your eyes all around and see! They have all of them been collected together;[k] they have come to you.[l] From far away your own sons keep coming, and your daughters who will be taken care of on the flank.[m] 5 At that time you will see and certainly become radiant,[n] and your heart will actually quiver and expand, because to you the wealthiness of the sea will direct itself; the very resources of the nations will come to you.[o] 6 The heaving mass of camels itself will cover you, the young male camels of Mid′i·an and of E′phah.[p] All those from She′ba[q]—they will come. Gold and frankincense they will carry. And the praises of Jehovah they will announce.[r] 7 All the flocks of Ke′dar[s]—they will be collected together to you. The rams of Ne·ba′ioth[t]—they will minister to you.[u] With approval they will come up upon my altar,[v] and I shall beautify my own house of beauty.[w]

like doves to their birdhouse holes? 9 For in me the islands themselves will keep hoping,[a] the ships of Tar′shish[b] also as at the first, in order to bring your sons from far away,[c] their silver and their gold being with them,[d] to the name[e] of Jehovah your God and to the Holy One of Israel,[f] for he will have beautified you.[g] 10 And foreigners will actually build your walls,[h] and their own kings will minister to you;[i] for in my indignation I shall have struck you,[j] but in my goodwill I shall certainly have mercy upon you.[k]

11 "And your gates will actually be kept open constantly;[l] they will not be closed even by day or by night, in order to bring to you the resources of the nations,[m] and their kings will be taking the lead.[n] 12 For any nation and any kingdom that will not serve you will perish; and the nations themselves will without fail come to devastation.[o]

13 "To you the very glory of Leb′a·non will come, the juniper tree, the ash tree and the cypress at the same time,[p] in order to beautify the place of my sanctuary;[q] and I shall glorify the very place of my feet.[r]

14 "And to you the sons of those afflicting you must go, bowing down;[s] and all those treating you disrespectfully must bend down at the very soles of your feet,[t] and they will have to call you the city of Jehovah, Zion[u] of the Holy One of Israel.

15 "Instead of your proving to be one left entirely and hated, with nobody passing through,[v] I will even set you as a thing of pride to time indefinite, an exultation for generation after generation.[w] 16 And you will actually suck the milk of nations,[x] and the breast of kings you will suck;[y] and you will be certain to know that I, Jehovah,[z] am your Savior,[a] and the Powerful One[a] of Jacob is your Repurchaser.[b] 17 Instead of the copper I shall bring in gold,[c] and instead of the iron I shall bring in silver, and instead of the wood, copper, and instead of the stones, iron; and I will appoint peace as your overseers[d] and righteousness as your task assigners.[e] captive[a] and the wide opening [of the eyes] even to the prisoners;[b] 2 to proclaim the year of goodwill on the part of Jehovah[c] and the day of vengeance on the part of our God;[d] to comfort all the mourning ones;[e] 3 to assign to those mourning over Zion, to give them a headdress instead of ashes,[f] the oil of exultation[g] instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of the downhearted spirit;[h] and they must be called big trees of righteousness,[i] the planting of Jehovah,[j] for [him] to be beautified.[k] 4 And they must rebuild the long-standing devastated places;[l] they will raise up even the desolated places of former times,[m] and they will certainly make anew the devastated cities,[n] the places desolate for generation after generation.

5 "And strangers will actually stand and shepherd the flocks of YOU people,[o] and the foreigners[p] will be YOUR farmers and YOUR vinedressers.[q] 6 And as for YOU, the priests of Jehovah YOU will be called;[r] the ministers[s] of our God YOU will be said to be.[t] The resources of the nations YOU people will eat,[u] and in their glory YOU will speak elatedly about yourselves.[v] 7 Instead of YOUR shame there will be a double portion,[w] and instead of humiliation they will cry out joyfully over their share.[x] Therefore in their land they will take possession of even a double portion.[y] Rejoicing to time indefinite is what will come to be theirs.[z] 8 For I, Jehovah, am loving justice,[a] hating robbery along with unrighteousness.[b] And I will give their wages in trueness,[c] and an indefinitely lasting covenant I shall conclude toward them.[d] 9 And their offspring will actually be known even among the nations,[e] and their descendants in among the peoples. All those seeing them will recognize them,[a] that they are the offspring whom Jehovah has blessed."[b]

10 Without fail I shall exult in Jehovah.[c] My soul will be joyful in my God.[d] For he has clothed me with the garments of salvation;[e] with the sleeveless coat of righteousness he has enwrapped me,[f] like the bridegroom who, in a priestly way, puts on a headdress,[g] and like the bride who decks herself with her ornamental things.[h] 11 For as the earth itself brings forth its sprout, and as the garden itself makes the things that are sown in it sprout,[i] in like manner the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will cause the sprouting of righteousness[j] and of praise in front of all the nations.[k]

62 For the sake of Zion I shall not keep still,[l] and for the sake of Jerusalem[m] I shall not stay quiet until her righteousness goes forth just like the brightness,[n] and her salvation like a torch that burns.[o]

2 "And the nations will certainly see your righteousness,[p] [O woman,][q] and all kings your glory.[r] And you will actually be called by a new name,[s] which the very mouth of Jehovah will designate. 3 And you must become a crown of beauty in the hand of Jehovah,[t] and a kingly turban in the palm of your God. 4 No more will you be said to be a woman left entirely;[u] and your own land will no more be said to be desolate;[v] but you yourself will be called My Delight Is in Her,[w] and your land Owned as a Wife. For Jehovah will have taken delight in you, and your own land will be owned as a wife.[a] 5 For just as a young man takes ownership of a virgin as his wife, your sons will take ownership of you as a wife.[b] And with the exultation of a bridegroom over a bride,[c] your God will exult even over you.[d] 6 Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have commissioned watchmen.[e] All day long and all night long, constantly, let them not keep still.[f]

"You who are making mention of Jehovah,[g] let there be no silence on YOUR part,[h] 7 and do not give him any silence until he fixes solidly, yes, until he sets Jerusalem as a praise in the earth."[i]

8 Jehovah has sworn with his right hand[j] and with his strong arm:[k] "I will no more give your grain as food to your enemies,[l] nor will foreigners drink your new wine,[m] for which you have toiled. 9 But the very ones gathering it will eat it, and they will be certain to praise Jehovah; and the very ones collecting it will drink it in my holy courtyards."[n]

10 Pass out, pass out through the gates, YOU men. Clear the way of the people.[o] Bank up, bank up the highway. Rid [it] of stones.[p] Raise up a signal for the peoples.[q]

11 Look! Jehovah himself has caused [it] to be heard to the farthest part of the earth:[r] "Say, YOU people, to the daughter of Zion,[s] 'Look! Your salvation is coming.[t] Look! The reward he gives is with him,[u] and the wages he pays are before him.'"[v]

12 And men will certainly call them the holy people,[w] those repurchased by Jehovah;[x] and you yourself will be called Searched For, a City Not Left Entirely.[y]

63 Who is this one coming from E'dom,[z] the one with garments of glowing colors from Boz'rah,[a] this one who is honorable in his clothing, marching in the abundance of his power?

"I, the One speaking in righteousness,[a] the One abounding [in power] to save."[b]

2 Why is it that your clothing is red, and your garments are like those of one treading in the winepress?[c]

3 "The wine trough I have trodden by myself,[d] while there was no man with me from the peoples. And I kept treading them in my anger,[e] and I kept trampling them down in my rage.[f] And their spurting blood kept spattering upon my garments,[g] and all my clothing I have polluted. 4 For the day of vengeance is in my heart,[h] and the very year of my repurchased ones has come. 5 And I kept looking, but there was no helper; and I began to show myself astonished, but there was no one offering support.[i] So my arm furnished me salvation,[j] and my rage[k] was what supported me. 6 And I kept stamping down peoples in my anger, and I proceeded to make them drunk with my rage[l] and to bring down to the earth their spurting blood."[m]

7 The loving-kindnesses of Jehovah I shall mention,[n] the praises of Jehovah, according to all that Jehovah has rendered to us,[o] even the abundant goodness to the house of Israel[p] that he has rendered to them according to his mercies[q] and according to the abundance of his loving-kindnesses. 8 And he went on to say: "Surely they are my people,[r] sons that will not prove false."[s] So it was to them that he came to be a Savior.[t] 9 During all their distress it was distressing to him.[u] And his own personal messenger saved them.[v] In his love and in his compassion he himself repurchased them,[w] and he proceeded to lift them up and carry them all the days of long ago.[a]

10 But they themselves rebelled[b] and made his holy spirit feel hurt.[c] He now was changed into an enemy[d] of theirs; he himself warred against them.[e] 11 And one began to remember the days of long ago, Moses his servant: "Where is the One that brought them up out of the sea[f] with the shepherds of his flock?[g] Where is the One that put within him His own holy spirit?[h] 12 The One making His beautiful arm[i] go at the right hand of Moses; the One splitting the waters from before them[j] in order to make an indefinitely lasting name for his own self;[k] 13 the One making them walk through the surging waters so that, like a horse in the wilderness, they did not stumble?[l] 14 Just as when a beast itself goes down into the valley plain, the very spirit of Jehovah proceeded to make them rest."[m]

Thus you led your people in order to make a beautiful name for your own self.[n]

15 Look from heaven[o] and see out of your lofty abode of holiness and beauty.[p] Where are your zeal[q] and your full might, the commotion of your inward parts,[r] and your mercies?[s] Toward me they have restrained themselves.[t] 16 For you are our Father;[u] although Abraham himself may not have known us and Israel himself may not recognize us, you, O Jehovah, are our Father. Our Repurchaser of long ago is your name.[v] 17 Why do you, O Jehovah, keep making us wander from your ways? Why do you make our heart hard against the fear of you?[w] Come back for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your hereditary possession.[x] 18 For a little while your holy people[y] had possession. Our own adversaries have stamped down your sanctuary.[a] 19 We have for a long time become as those over whom you did not rule, as those upon whom your name had not been called.[b]

64 O if only you had ripped the heavens apart, that you had come down,[c] that on account of you the very mountains had quaked,[d] 2 as when a fire ignites the brushwood, [and] the fire makes the very water boil up, in order to make your name known to your adversaries,[e] that on account of you the nations might be agitated![f] 3 When you did fear-inspiring things[g] for which we could not hope, you came down. On account of you the mountains themselves quaked.[h] 4 And from time long ago none have heard,[i] nor have any given ear, nor has an eye itself seen a God, except you,[j] that acts for the one that keeps in expectation of him.[k] 5 You have met up with the one exulting and doing righteousness,[l] those who keep remembering you in your own ways.[m]

Look! You yourself became indignant,[n] while we kept sinning[o]—in them a long time, and should we be saved?[p] 6 And we become like someone unclean, all of us, and all our acts of righteousness are like a garment for periods of menstruation;[q] and we shall fade away like leafage,[r] all of us, and our errors themselves will carry us away just like a wind.[s] 7 And there is no one calling upon your name,[t] no one rousing himself to lay hold on you; for you have concealed your face from us,[u] and you cause us to melt[v] by the power of our error.

8 And now, O Jehovah, you are our Father.[w] We are the clay,[x] and you are our Potter;[y] and all of us are the work of your hand.[a] 9 Do not be indignant, O Jehovah, to the extreme,[b] and do not forever remember [our] error.[c] Look, now, please: we are all your people.[d] 10 Your own holy cities[e] have become a wilderness. Zion[f] itself has become a sheer wilderness, Jerusalem a desolate waste.[g] 11 Our house of holiness and beauty,[h] in which our forefathers praised you,[i] has itself become something for burning in the fire;[j] and every one of our desirable things[k] has become a devastation. 12 In the face of these things will you continue keeping yourself in check,[l] O Jehovah? Will you stay still and let us be afflicted to the extreme?[m]

65 "I have let myself be searched for[n] by those who had not asked [for me].[o] I have let myself be found by those who had not looked for me.[p] I have said, 'Here I am, here I am!'[q] to a nation that was not calling upon my name.[r]

2 "I have spread out my hands all day long to a stubborn[s] people, those who are walking in the way that is not good,[t] after their thoughts;[u] 3 the people [made up of] those offending[v] me right to my face constantly, sacrificing in the gardens[w] and making sacrificial smoke[x] upon the bricks, 4 seating themselves among the burial places,[y] who also pass the night even in the watch huts, eating the flesh of the pig,[z] even the broth of foul things[a] being in their vessels; 5 those who are saying, 'Keep close to yourself. Do not approach me, for I shall certainly convey holiness to you.'[b] These are a smoke in my nostrils,[c] a fire burning all day long.[d]

6 "Look! It is written before me.[e] I shall not keep still,[f] but I will render a reward; I will even render the reward[g] into their own bosom,[h] 7 for their own errors and for the errors of their forefathers at the same time,"[a] Jehovah has said. "Because they have made sacrificial smoke upon the mountains, and upon the hills[b] they have reproached me,[c] I will also measure out their wages first of all into their own bosom."[d]

8 This is what Jehovah has said: "In the same way that the new wine[e] is found in the cluster and someone has to say, 'Do not ruin it,[f] because there is a blessing in it,'[g] so I shall do for the sake of my servants in order not to bring everybody to ruin.[h] 9 And I will bring forth out of Jacob an offspring[i] and out of Judah the hereditary possessor of my mountains;[j] and my chosen ones must take possession of it,[k] and my own servants will reside there.[l] 10 And Shar′on[m] must become a pasture ground for sheep[n] and the low plain of A′chor[o] a resting-place for cattle, for my people who will have looked for me.[p]

11 "But YOU men are those leaving Jehovah,[q] those forgetting my holy mountain,[r] those setting in order a table for the god of Good Luck[s] and those filling up mixed wine for the god of Destiny.[t] 12 And I will destine YOU men to the sword,[u] and YOU will all of YOU bow down to being slaughtered;[v] for the reason that I called,[w] but YOU did not answer; I spoke, but YOU did not listen;[x] and YOU kept doing what was bad in my eyes,[y] and the thing in which I took no delight YOU chose."[z]

13 Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Look! My own servants will eat,[a] but YOU yourselves will go hungry.[b] Look! My own servants will drink,[c] but YOU yourselves will go thirsty.[d] Look! My own servants will rejoice,[e] but YOU yourselves will suffer shame.[f] 14 Look! My own servants will cry out joyfully because of the good condition of the heart,[g] but YOU yourselves will make outcries because of the pain of heart and YOU will howl because of sheer breakdown of spirit.[h] 15 And YOU men will certainly lay up YOUR name for an oath by my chosen ones, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will actually put [YOU] individually to death,[i] but his own servants he will call by another name;[j] 16 so that anyone blessing himself in the earth will bless himself by the God of faith,[k] and anyone making a sworn statement in the earth will swear by the God of faith;[l] because the former distresses will actually be forgotten and because they will actually be concealed from my eyes.[m]

17 "For here I am creating new heavens[n] and a new earth;[o] and the former things will not be called to mind,[p] neither will they come up into the heart.[q] 18 But exult, YOU people,[r] and be joyful forever in what I am creating.[s] For here I am creating Jerusalem a cause for joyfulness and her people a cause for exultation.[t] 19 And I will be joyful in Jerusalem and exult in my people;[u] and no more will there be heard in her the sound of weeping or the sound of a plaintive cry."[v]

20 "No more will there come to be a suckling a few days old from that place,[w] neither an old man that does not fulfill his days;[x] for one will die as a mere boy, although a hundred years of age; and as for the sinner, although a hundred years of age he will have evil called down upon him.[y] 21 And they will certainly build houses and have occupancy;[a] and they will certainly plant vineyards and eat [their] fruitage.[b] 22 They will not build and someone else have occupancy; they will not plant and someone else do the eating. For like the days of a tree will the days of my people be;[c] and the work of their own hands my chosen ones will use to the full.[d] 23 They will not toil for nothing,[e] nor will they bring to birth for disturbance;[f] because they are the offspring made up of the blessed ones of Jehovah,[g] and their descendants with them.[h] 24 And it will actually occur that before they call out I myself shall answer;[i] while they are yet speaking, I myself shall hear.[j]

25 "The wolf[k] and the lamb themselves will feed as one,[l] and the lion will eat straw just like the bull;[m] and as for the serpent, his food will be dust.[n] They will do no harm[o] nor cause any ruin in all my holy mountain,"[p] Jehovah has said.

66 This is what Jehovah has said: "The heavens are my throne,[q] and the earth is my footstool.[r] Where, then, is the house that YOU people can build for me,[s] and where, then, is the place as a resting-place for me?"[t]

2 "Now all these things my own hand has made, so that all these came to be,"[u] is the utterance of Jehovah. "To this one, then, I shall look, to the one afflicted and contrite in spirit[v] and trembling at my word.[w]

3 "The one slaughtering the bull is as one striking down a man.[x] The one sacrificing the sheep is as one breaking the neck of a dog.[y] The one offering up a gift—the blood of a pig![a] The one presenting a memorial of frankincense[b] is as one saying a blessing with uncanny words.[c] They are also the ones that have chosen their own ways, and in their disgusting things their very soul has taken a delight.[d] 4 I myself, in turn, shall choose ways of ill-treating them;[e] and the things frightful to them I shall bring upon them;[f] for the reason that I called, but there was no one answering; I spoke, but there were none that listened;[g] and they kept on doing what was bad in my eyes, and the thing in which I took no delight they chose."[h]

5 Hear the word of Jehovah, YOU men who are trembling at his word:[i] "YOUR brothers that are hating YOU,[j] that are excluding YOU by reason of my name,[k] said, 'May Jehovah be glorified!'[l] He must also appear with rejoicing on YOUR part,[m] and they are the ones that will be put to shame."[n]

6 There is a sound of uproar out of the city, a sound out of the temple![o] It is the sound of Jehovah repaying what is deserved to his enemies.[p]

7 Before she began to come into labor pains she gave birth.[q] Before birth pangs could come to her, she even gave deliverance to a male child.[r] 8 Who has heard of a thing like this?[s] Who has seen things like these?[t] Will a land[u] be brought forth with labor pains in one day?[v] Or will a nation[w] be born at one time?[x] For Zion has come into labor pains as well as given birth to her sons.

9 "As for me, shall I cause the breaking through and not cause the giving birth?"[y] says Jehovah. "Or am I causing a giving birth and do I actually cause a shutting up?" your God has said.

10 Rejoice with Jerusalem and be joyful with her,[z] all YOU lovers of her.[a] Exult greatly with her, all YOU keeping yourselves in mourning over her;[b] 11 for the reason that YOU will suck and certainly get satisfaction from the breast of full consolation by her; for the reason that YOU will sip and experience exquisite delight from the teat of her glory.[c] 12 For this is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am extending to her peace just like a river[d] and the glory of nations just like a flooding torrent,[e] and YOU will certainly suck.[f] Upon the flank YOU will be carried, and upon the knees YOU will be fondled.[g] 13 Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting YOU people;[h] and in the case of Jerusalem YOU will be comforted.[i] 14 And YOU will certainly see, and YOUR heart will be bound to exult,[j] and YOUR very bones[k] will sprout just like tender grass.[l] And the hand of Jehovah will certainly be made known to his servants,[m] but he will actually denounce his enemies."[n]

15 "For here Jehovah himself comes as a very fire,[o] and his chariots are like a storm wind,[p] in order to pay back his anger with sheer rage and his rebuke with flames of fire.[q] 16 For as fire Jehovah himself will for a fact take up the controversy, yes, with his sword,[r] against all flesh; and the slain of Jehovah will certainly become many.[s] 17 Those sanctifying themselves and cleansing themselves for the gardens[t] behind one in the center, eating the flesh of the pig[u] and the loathsome thing, even the jumping rodent,[v] they will all together reach their end," is the utterance of Jehovah. 18 "And as

JEREMIAH

1 The words of Jeremiah[a] the son of Hil·ki'ah, one of the priests that were in An'a·thoth[b] in the land of Benjamin;[c] 2 to whom the word of Jehovah occurred in the days of Jo·si'ah[d] the son of A'mon,[e] the king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reigning.[f] 3 And it kept on occurring in the days of Je·hoi'a·kim[g] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, until the completion of the eleventh year of Zed·e·ki'ah[h] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, until Jerusalem went into exile in the fifth month.[i]

4 And the word of Jehovah began to occur to me, saying: 5 "Before I was forming you in the belly[a] I knew you,[b] and before you proceeded to come forth from the womb I sanctified you.[c] Prophet to the nations I made you."

6 But I said: "Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Here I actually do not know how to speak,[d] for I am but a boy."[e]

7 And Jehovah went on to say to me: "Do not say, 'I am but a boy.' But to all those to whom I shall send you, you should go; and everything that I shall command you, you should speak.[f] 8 Do not be afraid because of their faces,[g] for 'I am with you to deliver you,'[a] is the utterance of Jehovah."

9 At that Jehovah thrust his hand out and caused it to touch my mouth.[b] Then Jehovah said to me: "Here I have put my words in your mouth.[c] 10 See, I have commissioned you this day to be over the nations and over the kingdoms,[d] in order to uproot and to pull down and to destroy and to tear down,[e] to build and to plant."[f]

11 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: "What are you seeing, Jeremiah?"

So I said: "An offshoot of an almond tree is what I am seeing."

12 And Jehovah went on to say to me: "You have seen well, for I am keeping awake concerning my word in order to carry it out."[g]

13 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me the second time, saying: "What are you seeing?"

So I said: "A widemouthed cooking pot blown upon is what I am seeing, and its mouth is away from the north."

14 At this Jehovah said to me: "Out of the north the calamity will be loosened against all the inhabitants of the land.[h] 15 For 'here I am calling for all the families of the kingdoms of the north,' is the utterance of Jehovah;[i] 'and they will certainly come and place each one his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem,[j] and against all her walls round about and against all the cities of Judah.[k] 16 And I will speak with them my judgments over all their badness,[l] in that they have left me[m] and they keep making sacrificial smoke to other gods[n] and bowing down to the works of their own hands.'[o]

17 "And as for you, you should gird up your hips,[p] and you must rise up and speak to them everything that I myself command you. Do not be struck with any terror because of them,[a] in order that I may not strike you with terror before them. 18 But as for me, here I have made you today a fortified city and an iron pillar and copper walls[b] against all the land,[c] toward the kings of Judah, toward her princes, toward her priests and toward the people of the land.[d] 19 And they will be certain to fight against you, but they will not prevail against you,[e] for 'I am with you,'[f] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'to deliver you.'"[g]

2 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me,[h] saying: 2 "Go, and you must call out in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said:[i] "I well remember, on your part, the loving-kindness of your youth,[j] the love during your being engaged to marry,[k] your walking after me in the wilderness, in a land not sown with seed.[l] 3 Israel was something holy to Jehovah,[m] the first yield to Him."'[n] 'Any persons devouring him would make themselves guilty.[o] Calamity itself would come upon them,' was the utterance of Jehovah."[p]

4 Hear the word of Jehovah, O house of Jacob,[q] and all YOU families of the house of Israel.[r] 5 This is what Jehovah has said: "What have YOUR fathers found in me that was unjust,[s] so that they have become far off from me,[t] and they kept walking after the vain idol[u] and becoming vain themselves?[v] 6 And they have not said, 'Where is Jehovah, the One bringing us up out of the land of Egypt,[w] the One walking us through the wilderness, through a land of desert plain[a] and pit, through a land of no water[b] and of deep shadow,[c] through a land through which no man passed and in which no earthling man dwelt?'

7 "And I gradually brought YOU to a land of the orchard, to eat its fruitage and its good things.[d] But YOU came in and defiled my land; and my own inheritance YOU made something detestable.[e] 8 The priests themselves did not say, 'Where is Jehovah?'[f] And the very ones handling the law did not know me;[g] and the shepherds themselves transgressed against me,[h] and even the prophets prophesied by Ba'al,[i] and after those who could bring no benefit they walked.[j]

9 "'Therefore I shall contend further with YOU people,'[k] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and with the sons of YOUR sons I shall contend.'[l]

10 "'But pass over to the coastlands of the Kit'tim[m] and see. Yes, send even to Ke'dar[n] and give YOUR special consideration, and see whether anything like this has happened.[o] 11 Has a nation exchanged gods,[p] even for those that are no gods?[q] But my own people have exchanged my glory for what can bring no benefit.[r] 12 Stare in amazement, O YOU heavens, at this; and bristle up in very great horror,' is the utterance of Jehovah,[s] 13 'because there are two bad things that my people have done: They have left even me,[t] the source of living water,[u] in order to hew out for themselves cisterns, broken cisterns, that cannot contain the water.'

14 "'Is Israel a servant,[v] or a slave born in the household? Why is it that he has come to be for plunder? 15 Against him maned young lions roar;[w] they have given out their voice.[x] And they went making his land an object of astonishment. His own cities have been set afire, so that there is no inhabitant.[a] 16 Even the sons of Noph[b] and Tah'pan·es[c] themselves kept feeding on you at the crown of the head.[d] 17 Is not this what you proceeded to do to yourself by your leaving Jehovah your God[e] during the time of [his] walking you in the way?[f] 18 And now what concern should you have for the way of Egypt[g] in order to drink the waters of Shi'hor?[h] And what concern should you have for the way of As·syr'i·a[i] in order to drink the waters of the River? 19 Your badness should correct you,[j] and your own acts of unfaithfulness should reprove you.[k] Know, then, and see that your leaving Jehovah your God is something bad and bitter,[l] and no dread of me [has resulted] to you,'[m] is the utterance of the Sovereign[n] Lord, Jehovah of armies.

20 "'For long ago I broke your yoke to pieces;[o] I tore your bands apart. But you said: "I am not going to serve," for upon every high hill and under every luxuriant tree[p] you were lying sprawled out,[q] prostituting yourself.[r] 21 And as for me, I had planted you as a choice red vine,[s] all of it a true seed. So how have you been changed toward me into the degenerate [shoots] of a foreign vine?'[t]

22 "'But though you should do the washing with alkali and take to yourself large quantities of lye,[u] your error would certainly be a stain before me,'[v] is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 23 How can you say, 'I have not defiled myself.[a] After the Ba′als I have not walked'?[b] See your way in the valley.[c] Take note of what you have done. A swift young she-camel aimlessly running to and fro in her ways; 24 a zebra[d] accustomed to the wilderness, at the craving of her soul, snuffing up the wind;[e] at her time for copulation, who can turn her back? All those who are looking for her will not go tiring themselves out. In her month they will find her. 25 Hold your foot back from [becoming] barefoot, and your throat from thirst.[f] But you proceeded to say, 'It is hopeless![g] No, but I have fallen in love with strangers,[h] and after them I am going to walk.'[i]

26 "As with the shame of a thief when he is found out, so those of the house of Israel have felt shame,[j] they, their kings, their princes and their priests and their prophets.[k] 27 They are saying to a tree, 'You are my father,'[l] and to a stone, 'You yourself brought me to birth.' But to me they have turned the back of the neck and not the face.[m] And in the time of their calamity they will say, 'Do rise up and save us!'[n]

28 "But where are your gods that you have made for yourself?[o] Let them rise up if they can save you in the time of your calamity.[p] For as the number of your cities your gods have become, O Judah.[q]

29 "'Why do YOU people keep contending against me?[r] Why have YOU transgressed, all of YOU, against me?'[s] is the utterance of Jehovah. 30 To no effect I have struck YOUR sons.[t] No discipline did they take.[u] YOUR sword has devoured YOUR prophets, like a lion that is causing ruin.[v] 31 O generation, see for yourselves the word of Jehovah.[w]

"Have I become a mere wilderness to Israel[x] or a land of intense darkness? Why is it that these, my people, have said, 'We have roamed. We shall come to you no more'?[a] 32 Can a virgin forget her ornaments, a bride her breastbands? And yet my own people—they have forgotten me days without number.[b]

33 "Why do you, O woman, improve your way in order to look for love? Therefore it has also been in bad things that you have taught your ways.[c] 34 Also, in your skirts there have been found the blood marks of the souls[d] of the innocent poor ones.[e] Not in the act of breaking in have I found them, but [they are] upon all these.[f]

35 "But you say, 'I have remained innocent. Surely his anger has turned back from me.'[g]

"Here I am entering into controversy with you on account of your saying, 'I have not sinned.'[h] 36 Why do you treat as very insignificant the changing of your way?[i] Of Egypt, too, you will become ashamed,[j] just as you became ashamed of As·syr′i·a.[k] 37 For this cause also you will go forth with your hands upon your head,[l] because Jehovah has rejected the objects of your confidence, and you will have no success with them."

3 There is a saying: "If a man should send away his wife and she should actually go away from him and become another man's, should he return to her anymore?"[m]

Has that land not positively been polluted?[n]

"And you yourself have committed prostitution with many companions;[o] and should there be a returning to me?"[p] is the utterance of Jehovah. 2 "Raise your eyes to the beaten paths and see.[q] Where is it that you have not been raped?[a] Alongside the ways you have sat for them, like an Arabian in the wilderness;[b] and you keep polluting the land with your acts of prostitution and with your badness.[c] 3 So copious showers are withheld,[d] and not even a spring rain has occurred.[e] And the forehead of a wife committing prostitution is what has become yours. You have refused to feel humiliated.[f] 4 Have you from now on called out to me, 'My Father,[g] you are the confidential friend of my youth![h] 5 Should one stay resentful to time indefinite, or keep watching [something] forever?'[i] Look! You have spoken, and you went on to do bad things and prevail."[j]

6 And Jehovah proceeded to say to me in the days of Jo·si′ah the king:[k] "'Have you seen what unfaithful Israel has done?[l] She is going upon every high mountain[m] and underneath every luxuriant tree,[n] that she may commit prostitution there.[o] 7 And after her doing all these things I kept saying that she should return even to me, but she did not return;[p] and Judah kept looking at her own treacherous sister.[q] 8 When I got to see that, for the very reason that unfaithful Israel had committed adultery, I sent her away[r] and proceeded to give the certificate of her full divorce to her,[s] yet treacherously dealing Judah her sister did not become afraid, but she herself also began to go and commit prostitution.[t] 9 And her prostitution occurred because of [her] frivolous view, and she kept polluting the land[u] and committing adultery with stones and with trees;[v] 10 and even for all this her treacherous sister Judah did not return to me with all her heart,[a] only falsely,'[b] is the utterance of Jehovah."

11 And Jehovah went on to say to me: "Unfaithful Israel has proved her own soul to be more righteous than treacherously dealing Judah.[c] 12 Go, and you must proclaim these words to the north[d] and say:

"'"Do return, O renegade Israel," is the utterance of Jehovah.'[e] '"I shall not have my face drop [angrily] upon YOU people,[f] for I am loyal,"[g] is the utterance of Jehovah.' '"I shall not stay resentful to time indefinite.[h] 13 Only take note of your error, for it is against Jehovah your God that you have transgressed.[i] And you continued scattering your ways to the strangers[j] under every luxuriant tree,[k] but to my voice YOU people did not listen," is the utterance of Jehovah.'"

14 "Return, O YOU renegade sons,"[l] is the utterance of Jehovah. "For I myself have become the husbandly owner of YOU people;[m] and I will take YOU, one out of a city and two out of a family, and I will bring YOU to Zion.[n] 15 And I will give YOU shepherds in agreement with my heart,[o] and they will certainly feed YOU with knowledge and insight.[p] 16 And it must occur that YOU will become many and certainly bear fruit in the land in those days," is the utterance of Jehovah.[q] "No more will they say, 'The ark of the covenant of Jehovah!'[r] nor will it come up into the heart, nor will they remember it[s] or miss it, and no more will it be made. 17 In that time they will call Jerusalem the throne of Jehovah;[t] and to her all the nations must be brought together[u] to the name of Jehovah at Jerusalem,[a] and they will no more walk after the stubbornness of their bad heart."[b]

18 "In those days they will walk, the house of Judah alongside the house of Israel,[c] and together[d] they will come out of the land of the north into the land that I gave as a hereditary possession to YOUR forefathers.[e] 19 And I myself have said, 'O how I proceeded to place you among the sons and to give you the desirable land,[f] the hereditary possession of the ornament of the armies of the nations!' And I further said, '"My Father!"[g] you people will call out to me, and from following me YOU people will not turn back.' 20 'Truly [as] a wife has treacherously gone from her companion,[h] so YOU, O house of Israel, have dealt treacherously with me,'[i] is the utterance of Jehovah."

"If you would return, O Israel," is the utterance of Jehovah, "you may return even to me.[a] And if you will take away your disgusting things on my account,[b] then you will not go as a fugitive. 2 And [if] you will certainly swear,[c] 'As Jehovah is alive in truth,[d] in justice and in righteousness!'[e] then in him the nations will actually bless themselves, and in him they will boast about themselves."[f]

3 For this is what Jehovah has said to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem: "Plow for yourselves arable land, and do not keep sowing among thorns.[g] 4 Get yourselves circumcised to Jehovah, and take away the foreskins of YOUR hearts,[h] YOU men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; that my rage may not go forth just like a fire, and it certainly burn with no one to do the extinguishing, on account of the badness of YOUR dealings."[i]

5 Tell [it] in Judah, YOU men, and publish [it] even in Jerusalem,[j] and say [it] out, and blow a horn throughout the land.[k] Call out loudly and say: "Gather yourselves together, and let us enter into the fortified cities.[l] 6 Raise a signal toward Zion. Make provision for shelter. Do not stand still." For there is a calamity that I am bringing in from the north,[m] even a great crash. 7 He has gone up as a lion out of his thicket,[n] and the one who is bringing the nations to ruin has pulled away;[o] he has gone forth from his place in order to render your land as an object of astonishment. Your own cities will fall in ruins so that there will be no inhabitant.[p] 8 On this account gird on sackcloth, YOU people.[q] Beat YOUR breasts and howl,[a] because the burning anger of Jehovah has not turned back from us.[b]

9 "And it must occur in that day," is the utterance of Jehovah, "that the heart of the king will perish,[c] also the heart of the princes; and the priests will certainly be driven to astonishment, and the prophets themselves will be amazed."[d]

10 And I proceeded to say: "Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Truly you have absolutely deceived this people[e] and Jerusalem, saying, 'Peace itself will become YOURS,'[f] and the sword has reached clear to the soul."

11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: "There is a searing wind of the beaten paths through the wilderness[g] [on] the way to the daughter of my people;[h] it is not for winnowing, nor for cleansing. 12 The full wind itself comes even from these to me. Now I myself also shall speak forth the judgments with them.[i] 13 Look! way and your dealings—there will be a rendering of these to you.[a] This is the calamity upon you, for it is bitter;, because it has reached clear to your heart."

19 O my intestines, my intestines! I am in severe pains in the walls of my heart.[b] My heart is boisterous within me.[c] I cannot keep silent, for the sound of the horn is what my soul has heard, the alarm signal of war.[d] 20 Crash upon crash is what has been called out, for the whole land has been despoiled.[e] Suddenly my tents have been despoiled,[f] in a moment my tent cloths. 21 How long shall I keep seeing the signal, keep hearing the sound of the horn?[g] 22 For my people is foolish.[h] Of me they have not taken note.[i] They are unwise sons; and they are not those having understanding.[j] Wise they are for doing bad, but for doing good they actually have no knowledge.[k]

23 I saw the land, and, look! [it was] empty and waste;[l] and into the heavens, and their light was no more.[m] 24 I saw the mountains, and, look! they were rocking, and the hills themselves were all given a shaking.[n] 25 I saw, and, look! there was not an earthling man, and the flying creatures of the heavens had all fled.[o] 26 I saw, and, look! the orchard itself was a wilderness, and the very cities of it had all been torn down.[p] It was because of Jehovah, because of his burning anger.

27 For this is what Jehovah has said: "A desolate waste is what the whole land will become,[q] and shall I not carry out a sheer extermination?[r] 28 On this account the land will mourn,[s] and the heavens above will certainly become dark.[t] It is because I have spoken, I have considered, and I have not felt regret, nor shall I turn back from it.[a] 29 Because of the sound of the horsemen and bow shooters the entire city is running away.[b] They have entered into the thickets, and into the rocks they have gone up.[c] Every city is left, and there is no man dwelling in them."

30 Now that you are despoiled, what will you do, since you used to clothe yourself with scarlet, since you used to deck yourself with ornaments of gold, since you used to enlarge your eyes with black paint?[d] It is in vain that you used to make yourself pretty.[e] Those lusting after [you] have rejected you; they keep seeking for your very soul.[f] 31 For a voice like that of a sick woman I have heard, the distress like that of a woman giving birth to her first child,[g] the voice of the daughter of Zion who keeps gasping for breath. She keeps spreading out her palms:[h] "Woe, now, to me, for my soul is tired of the killers!"[i]

5 Go roving about in the streets of Jerusalem and see, now, and know, and seek for yourselves in her public squares whether YOU can find a man,[j] whether there exists anyone doing justice,[k] anyone seeking faithfulness,[l] and I shall forgive her. 2 Even if they should say: "As Jehovah is alive!" they would thereby be swearing to sheer falsehood.[m]

3 O Jehovah, are not those eyes of yours toward faithfulness?[n] You have struck them,[o] but they did not become ill.[p] You exterminated them.[q] They refused to take discipline.[r] They made their faces harder than a crag.[s] They refused to turn back.[t] 4 Even I myself had said: "Surely they are of low class. They acted foolishly, for they have ignored the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God.[a] 5 I will go my way to the great ones and speak with them;[b] for they themselves must have taken note of the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God.[c] Surely they themselves must have all together broken the yoke; they must have torn apart the bands."[d]

6 That is why a lion out of the forest has struck them, a wolf itself of the desert plains keeps despoiling them,[e] a leopard is keeping awake at their cities.[f] Everyone going forth from them gets torn to pieces. For their transgressions have become many; their acts of unfaithfulness have become numerous.[g]

7 How can I forgive you for this very thing? Your own sons have left me, and they keep swearing[h] by what is no God.[i] And I kept satisfying them,[j] but they continued committing adultery,[k] and to the house of a prostitute woman they go in troops. 8 Horses seized with sexual heat, having [strong] testicles, they have become. They neigh each one to the wife of his companion.[l]

9 "Should I not take an accounting because of these very things?" is the utterance of Jehovah.[m] "Or upon a nation that is like this should not my soul avenge itself?"[n]

10 "Come up against her [vine] rows and cause ruin,[o] but do not YOU men make an actual extermination.[p] Take away her luxuriating shoots, for they do not belong to Jehovah.[q] 11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have positively dealt treacherously with me," is the utterance of Jehovah.[r] 12 "They have denied Jehovah, and they keep saying, 'He is not.[s] And upon us no calamity will come, and no sword or famine shall we see.'[a] 13 And the prophets themselves become a wind, and the word is not in them.[b] That is how it will be done to them."

14 Therefore this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, has said: "For the reason that YOU men are saying this thing, here I am making my words in your mouth a fire,[c] and this people will be pieces of wood, and it will certainly devour them."[d]

15 "Here I am bringing in upon YOU men a nation from far away,[e] O house of Israel," is the utterance of Jehovah. "It is an enduring nation.[f] It is a nation of long ago, a nation whose language you do not know, and you cannot hear [understandingly] what they speak. 16 Their quiver is like an open burial place; all of them are mighty men.[g] 17 They will also certainly eat up your harvest and your bread.[h] The men will eat up your sons and your daughters. They will eat up your flocks and your herds. They will eat up your vine and your fig tree.[i] They will shatter with the sword your fortified cities in which you are trusting."

18 "And even in those days," is the utterance of Jehovah, "I shall not carry out an extermination of YOU men.[j] 19 And it must occur that YOU will say, 'Due to what fact has Jehovah our God done to us all these things?'[k] And you must say to them, 'Just as YOU have left me and have gone serving a foreign god in YOUR land, so YOU will serve strangers in a land that is not YOURS.'"[l]

20 TELL this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying: 21 "Hear, now, this, O unwise people that is without heart:[m] They have eyes, but they cannot see;[n] they have ears, but they cannot hear.[o] 22 'Do YOU not fear even me,'[p] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'or are YOU in no severe pains even because of me,[a] who have set the sand as the boundary for the sea, an indefinitely lasting regulation that it cannot pass over? Although its waves toss themselves, still they cannot prevail; and [although] they do become boisterous, still they cannot pass over it.[b] 23 But this very people has come to have a stubborn and rebellious heart; they have turned aside and keep walking in their course.[c] 24 But they have not said in their heart: "Let us, now, fear Jehovah our God,[d] the One who is giving the downpour and the autumn rain and the spring rain in its season,[e] the One who guards even the prescribed weeks of the harvest for us."[f] 25 YOUR own errors have turned these things away, and YOUR own sins have held back what is good from YOU people.[g]

26 "'For among my people there have been found wicked men.[h] They keep peering, as when birdcatchers crouch down.[i] They have set a ruinous [trap]. It is men that they catch. 27 As a cage is full of flying creatures, so their houses are full of deception.[j] That is why they have become great and they gain riches.[k] 28 They have grown fat;[l] they have become shiny. They have also overflowed with bad things. No legal case have they pleaded,[m] even the legal case of the fatherless boy,[n] that they may gain success;[o] and the judgment of the poor ones they have not taken up.'"

29 "Should I not hold an accounting because of these very things," is the utterance of Jehovah, "or on a nation that is like this should not my soul avenge itself?[p] 30 An astonishing situation, even a horrible thing, has been brought to be in the land:[a] 31 The prophets themselves actually prophesy in falsehood;[b] and as for the priests, they go subduing according to their powers.[c] And my own people have loved [it] that way;[d] and what will YOU men do in the finale of it?"[e]

6 Take shelter, O YOU sons of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem; and in Te·ko′a[f] blow the horn.[g] And over Beth-hac·che′rem[h] raise a fire signal; because calamity itself has looked down out of the north, even a great crash.[i] 2 The daughter of Zion has resembled indeed a comely and daintily bred woman.[j] 3 To her the shepherds and their droves proceeded to come. Against her they pitched [their] tents all around.[k] They grazed off each one his own part.[l] 4 Against her they have sanctified war:[m] "Rise up, and let us go up at midday!"[n]

"Woe to us, for the day has declined, for the shadows of evening keep extending themselves!"

5 "Rise up, and let us go up during the night and bring to ruin her dwelling towers."[o]

6 For this is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Cut down wood[p] and throw up against Jerusalem a siege rampart.[q] She is the city with which an accounting must be held.[r] She is nothing but oppression in the midst of her.[s] 7 As a cistern keeps its waters cool, so she has kept her badness cool. Violence and despoiling are heard in her;[t] sickness and plague are before my face constantly. 8 Be corrected,[u] O Jerusalem, that my soul may not turn away disgusted from you;[v] that I may not set you as a desolate waste, a land not inhabited."[w]

9 This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "They will without fail glean the remnant of Israel just like a vine.[x] Put your hand back like one that is gathering grapes upon the vine tendrils."

10 "To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Look! Their ear is uncircumcised, so that they are unable to pay attention.[a] Look! The very word of Jehovah has become to them a reproach,[b] in which [word] they can take no delight.[c] 11 And with the rage of Jehovah I have become full. I have become weary with holding in."[d]

"Pour [it] out upon the child in the street[e] and upon the intimate group of young men at the same time; for they will also be caught, a man along with his wife, an old man along with one that is full of days.[f] 12 And their houses will certainly be turned over to others for possession, the fields and the wives at the same time.[g] For I shall stretch my hand out against the inhabitants of the land," is the utterance of Jehovah.[h]

13 "For from the least one of them even to the greatest one of them, every one is making for himself unjust gain;[i] and from the prophet even to the priest, each one is acting falsely.[j] 14 And they try to heal the breakdown of my people lightly,[k] saying, 'There is peace! There is peace!' when there is no peace.[l] 15 Did they feel shame because it was something detestable that they had done?[m] For one thing, they positively do not feel any shame; for another thing, they have not come to know even how to feel humiliated.[n] Therefore they will fall among those who are falling;[o] in the time that I must hold an accounting with them they will stumble," Jehovah has said.

16 This is what Jehovah has said:

n Jer 3:3; o Jer 23:12.

"Stand still in the ways, YOU people, and see, and ask for the roadways of long ago, where, now, the good way is;[a] and walk in it,[b] and find ease for YOUR souls."[c] But they kept saying: "We are not going to walk."[d] 17 "And I raised up over YOU people watchmen,[e] 'Pay attention to the sound of the horn!'"[f] But they kept saying: "We are not going to pay attention."[g] 18 "Therefore hear, O YOU nations! And know, O you assembly, what will be among them. 19 Listen, O earth! Here I am bringing in calamity upon this people[h] as the fruitage of their thoughts,[i] for they paid no attention to my very own words; and my law—they also kept rejecting it."[j]

20 "What does this matter to me that you bring in even frankincense from She′ba[k] and the good cane from the land far away? The whole burnt offerings of YOU people serve for no pleasure,[l] and YOUR very sacrifices have not been gratifying to me."[m] 21 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am setting for this people stumbling blocks,[n] and they will certainly stumble over them, fathers and sons together; the neighbor and his companion—they will perish."[o]

22 This is what Jehovah has said: "Look! A people is coming from the land of the north, and there is a great nation that will be awakened from the remotest parts of the earth.[p] 23 The bow and the javelin they will grab hold of.[q] It is a cruel one, and they will have no pity. Their very voice will resound just like the sea,[r] and upon horses they will ride.[s] It is drawn up in battle order like a man of war against you, O daughter of Zion."[t]

24 We have heard the report about it. Our hands have dropped.[u] Distress itself has seized hold of us, labor pains like those of a woman giving birth.[a] 25 Do not go out into the field, and do not walk even in the way; for there is the sword belonging to the enemy, there is fright all around.[b] 26 O daughter of my people, gird on sackcloth[c] and wallow in the ashes.[d] Make your mourning that for an only [son], the wailing of bitterness;[e] because suddenly the despoiler will come upon us.[f]

27 "I have made you a metal tester among my people, one making a thorough search; and you will take note and you must examine their way.[g] 28 All of them are the most stubborn men,[h] walking about as slanderers[i]—copper and iron. They are all of them ruinous.[j] 29 The bellows[k] have been scorched. Out from their fire there is lead.[l] One has kept refining intensely simply for nothing, and those who are bad have not been separated.[m] 30 Rejected silver is what people will certainly call them,[n] for Jehovah has rejected them."[o]

7 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Stand in the gate of the house of Jehovah, and you must proclaim there this word,[p] and you must say, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, all YOU of Judah, who are entering into these gates to bow down to Jehovah. 3 This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "Make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good, and I will keep YOU people residing in this place.[q] 4 Do not put YOUR trust in fallacious words,[r] saying, 'The temple of Jehovah, the temple of Jehovah, the temple of Jehovah they are!' 5 For if YOU will positively make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good, if YOU will positively carry out justice between a man and his companion,[s] 6 if no alien resident, no fatherless boy and no widow YOU will oppress,[a] and innocent blood YOU will not shed in this place,[b] and after other gods YOU will not walk for calamity to yourselves,[c] 7 I, in turn, shall certainly keep YOU residing in this place, in the land that I gave to YOUR forefathers, from time indefinite even to time indefinite."'"[d]

8 "Here YOU are putting YOUR trust in fallacious words—it will certainly be of no benefit at all.[e] 9 Can there be stealing,[f] murdering[g] and committing adultery[h] and swearing falsely[i] and making sacrificial smoke to Ba′al[j] and walking after other gods whom YOU had not known,[k] 10 and must YOU come and stand before me in this house upon which my name has been called,[l] and must YOU say, 'We shall certainly be delivered,' in the face of doing all these detestable things? 11 Has this house upon which my name has been called[m] become a mere cave of robbers in YOUR eyes?[n] Here I myself also have seen [it]," is the utterance of Jehovah.[o]

12 "'However, GO, now, to my place that was in Shi′loh,[p] where I caused my name to reside at first,[q] and see what I did to it because of the badness of my people Israel.[r] 13 And now for the reason that YOU kept doing all these works,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and I kept speaking to YOU, getting up early and speaking,[s] but YOU did not listen,[t] and I kept calling YOU, but YOU did not answer,[u] 14 I will do also to the house upon which my name has been called,[v] in which YOU are trusting,[w] and to the place that I gave to YOU and to YOUR forefathers, just as I did to Shi′loh.[x] 15 And I will throw YOU out from before my face,[y] just as I threw out all YOUR brothers, the whole offspring of E′phra·im.'[z]

16 "And as for you, do not pray in behalf of this people, neither raise in their behalf an entreating cry or a prayer nor beseech me,[a] for I shall not be listening to you.[b] 17 Are you not seeing what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?[c] 18 The sons are picking up sticks of wood, and the fathers are lighting the fire, and the wives are kneading flour dough in order to make sacrificial cakes to the 'queen of the heavens';[d] and there is a pouring out of drink offerings[e] to other gods for the purpose of offending me.[f] 19 'Is it I whom they are offending?' is the utterance of Jehovah.[g] 'Is it not they themselves, for the purpose of shame to their faces?'[h] 20 Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Look! My anger and my rage are being poured forth upon this place,[i] upon mankind and upon domestic animal, and upon the tree of the field[j] and upon the fruitage of the ground; and it must burn, and it will not be extinguished.'[k]

21 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Add those whole burnt offerings of YOURS to YOUR sacrifices and eat flesh.[l] 22 For I did not speak with YOUR forefathers, nor did I command them in the day of my bringing them out from the land of Egypt concerning the matters of whole burnt offering and sacrifice.[m] 23 But this word I did express in command upon them, saying: "Obey my voice,[n] and I will become YOUR God,[o] and YOU yourselves will become my people; and YOU must walk in all the way[p] that I shall command YOU, in order that it may go well with YOU."'[a] 24 But they did not listen, neither did they incline their ear,[b] but they went walking in the counsels in the stubbornness of their bad heart,[c] so that they became backward in direction and not forward,[d] 25 from the day that YOUR forefathers came forth out of the land of Egypt until this day;[e] and I kept sending to YOU all my servants the prophets, daily getting up early and sending [them].[f] 26 But they did not listen to me, and they did not incline their ear,[g] but they kept hardening their neck.[h] They acted worse than their forefathers![i]

27 "And you must speak to them all these words,[j] but they will not listen to you; and you must call to them, but they will not answer you.[k] 28 And you must say to them, 'This is the nation whose people have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah its God,[l] and have not taken discipline.[m] Faithfulness has perished, and it has been cut off from their mouth.'[n]

29 "Shear off your uncut hair and throw [it] away,[o] and upon the bare hills raise a dirge,[p] for Jehovah has rejected[q] and will desert the generation with which he is furious.[r] 30 'For the sons of Judah have done what is bad in my eyes,' is the utterance of Jehovah. 32 "'Therefore, look! days are coming,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'when it will no more be said [to be] To′pheth and the valley of the son of Hin′nom, but the valley of the killing;[a] and they will have to bury in To′pheth without there being enough place.[b] 33 And the dead bodies of this people must become food for the flying creatures of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth, with nobody to make [them] tremble.[c] 34 And I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of exultation and the voice of rejoicing, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride;[d] for the land will become nothing but a devastated place.'"[e]

"At that time," is the utterance of Jehovah, "people will also bring forth the bones of the kings of Judah and the bones of its princes and the bones of the priests and the bones of the prophets and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem from their graves.[f] 2 And they will actually spread them out to the sun and to the moon and to all the army of the heavens that they have loved and that they have served and that they have walked after[g] and that they have sought and that they have bowed down to.[h] They will not be gathered, nor will they be buried. 3 "And death will certainly be chosen rather than life[j] on the part of all the remnant of those remaining out of this bad family in all the places of the remaining ones, where I will have dispersed them,"[k] is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

'This is what Jehovah has said: "Will they fall and not get up again?[a] If one would turn back, will the other not also turn back?[b] 5 Why is it that this people, Jerusalem, is unfaithful with an enduring unfaithfulness? They have taken hold of trickiness;[c] they have refused to turn back.[d] 6 I have paid attention,[e] and I kept listening.[f] It was not right the way they kept speaking. There was not a man repenting over his badness,[g] saying, 'What have I done?' Each one is going back into the popular course,[h] like a horse that is dashing into the battle. 7 Even the stork in the heavens—it well knows its appointed times;[i] and the turtledove[j] and the swift and the bulbul—they observe well the time of each one's coming in. But as for my people, they have not come to know the judgment of Jehovah."'[k]

8 "'How can YOU men say: "We are wise, and the law of Jehovah is with us"?[l] Surely, now, the false stylus[m] of the secretaries has worked in sheer falsehood. 9 The wise ones have become ashamed.[n] They have become terrified and will be caught. Look! They have rejected the very word of Jehovah, and what wisdom do they have?[o] 10 Therefore I shall give their wives to other men, their fields to those taking possession;[p] for, from the least one even to the greatest one, each one is making unjust gain;[q] from the prophet even to the priest, each one is acting falsely.[r] 11 And they try to heal the breakdown of the daughter of my people lightly,[s] saying: "There is peace! There is peace!" when there is no peace.[t] 12 Did they feel shame because they had done even what was detestable?[u] For one thing, they positively could not feel ashamed; for another thing, they did not know even how to feel humiliated.[a]

"'Therefore they will fall among those who are falling. In the time of their being given attention,[b] they will stumble,' Jehovah has said.[c]

13 "'When doing the gathering, I shall bring them to their finish,' is the utterance of Jehovah.[d] 'There will be no grapes on the vine,[e] and there will be no figs on the fig tree, and the foliage itself will certainly wither. And things that I give to them will pass by them.'"

14 "Why are we sitting still? Gather yourselves together, and let us enter into the fortified cities[f] and be silent there. For Jehovah our God has himself put us to silence,[g] and he gives us poisoned water to drink,[h] because we have sinned against Jehovah. 15 There was a hoping for peace, but no good [came];[i] for a time of healing, but, look! terror![j] 16 From Dan[k] has been heard the snorting of his horses. Due to the sound of the neighing of his stallions the whole land has begun to rock.[l] And they come in and eat up the land and what fills it, the city and its inhabitants."

17 "For here I am sending in among YOU serpents, poisonous snakes,[m] for which there is no charming,[n] and they will certainly bite YOU," is the utterance of Jehovah.

18 A grief that is beyond curing has come up into me.[o] My heart is ill. 19 Here there is the sound of the cry for help of the daughter of my people from a land far away:[p] "Is Jehovah not in Zion?[q] Or is her king not in her?"[r]

"Why is it that they have offended me with their graven images, with their vain foreign gods?"[s]

20 "The harvest has passed, the summer has come to an end; but as for us, we have not been saved!"[a]

21 Over the breakdown[b] of the daughter of my people I have become shattered.[c] I have grown sad. Outright astonishment has seized hold of me.[d] 22 Is there no balsam in Gil'ead?[e] Or is there no healer there?[f] Why is it, then, that the recuperation[g] of the daughter of my people has not come up?[h]

9 O that my head were waters, and that my eyes were a source of tears![i] Then I could weep day and night for the slain ones of the daughter of my people.[j]

2 O that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of travelers![k] Then I would leave my people and go away from them, for all of them are adulterers,[l] a solemn assembly of treacherous dealers;[m] 3 and they bend their tongue as their bow in falsehood;[n] but not for faithfulness have they proved mighty in the land.

"For from badness to badness they went forth, and they ignored even me,"[o] is the utterance of Jehovah.

4 "Guard yourselves each one against his own companion,[p] and put YOUR trust in no brother at all.[q] For even every brother would positively supplant,[r] and every companion himself would walk around as a mere slanderer.[s] 5 And they keep trifling each one with his companion;[t] and they speak no truth at all. They have taught their tongue to speak falsehood.[u] They have tired themselves out merely in doing wrong.[v]

6 "Your sitting is in the midst of deception.[w] Through deception they have refused to know me,"[x] is the utterance of Jehovah.

7 Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Here I am smelting them, and I have to examine them,[a] because how otherwise shall I act on account of the daughter of my people?[b] 8 Their tongue is a slaughtering arrow.[c] Deception is what it has spoken. With his mouth, peace is what [a person] keeps speaking with his own companion; but within himself he sets his ambush."[d]

9 "Because of these things should I not hold an accounting with them?" is the utterance of Jehovah. "Or upon a nation that is like this should not my soul avenge itself?[e] 10 Over the mountains I shall raise a weeping and lamentation,[f] and over the pasture grounds of the wilderness a dirge; for they will have been burned[g] so that there is no man passing through and people actually will not hear the sound of livestock.[h] Both the flying creature of the heavens and the beast will have fled; they will have gone.[i] 11 And I will make Jerusalem piles of stones,[j] the lair of jackals;[k] and the cities of Judah I shall make a desolate waste, without an inhabitant.[l]

12 "Who is the man that is wise, that he may understand this, even the one to whom the mouth of Jehovah has spoken, that he may tell it?[m] On what account should the land actually perish, be actually burned like the wilderness without anyone passing through?"[n]

13 And Jehovah proceeded to say: "On account of their leaving my law that I gave [to be] before them, and [because] they have not obeyed my voice and have not walked in it,[o] 14 but they kept on walking after the stubbornness of their heart[p] and after the Ba'al images,[q] about which their fathers had taught them;[r] 15 therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Here I am making them, that is, this people, eat wormwood,[a] and I will make them drink poisoned water;[b] 16 and I will scatter them among the nations that neither they nor their fathers have known,[c] and I will send after them the sword until I shall have exterminated them.'[d]

17 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Behave with understanding, YOU people, and call the dirge-chanting women,[e] that they may come; and send even to the skilled women, that they may come,[f] 18 and that they may hurry and raise up over us a lamentation. And may our eyes run down with tears and our own beaming eyes trickle with waters.[g] 19 For the voice of lamentation is what has been heard from Zion:[h] "How we have been despoiled![i] How much we have felt shame! For we have left the land; for they have thrown away our residences."[j] 20 But hear, O YOU women, the word of Jehovah, and may YOUR ear take the word of his mouth. Then teach YOUR daughters a lamentation,[k] and each woman her companion a dirge.[l] 21 For death has come up through our windows; it has come into our dwelling towers, in order to cut off the child from the street, the young men from the public squares.'[m]

22 "Speak, 'This is what the utterance of Jehovah is: "The dead bodies of mankind must also fall like manure upon the face of the field and like a row of newly cut grain after the reaper, with no one to do the gathering up."'"[n]

23 This is what Jehovah has said: "Let not the wise man brag about himself because of his wisdom,[o] and let not the mighty man brag about himself because of his mightiness.[p] Let not the rich man brag about himself because of his riches."[a]

24 "But let the one bragging about himself brag about himself because of this very thing, the having of insight[b] and the having of knowledge of me, that I am Jehovah,[c] the One exercising loving-kindness, justice and righteousness in the earth;[d] for in these things I do take delight,"[e] is the utterance of Jehovah.

25 "Look! Days are coming," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and I will hold an accounting with everyone circumcised [but still] in uncircumcision,[f] 26 upon Egypt[g] and upon Judah[h] and upon E'dom[i] and upon the sons of Am'mon[j] and upon Mo'ab[k] and upon all those with hair clipped at the temples who are dwelling in the wilderness;[l] for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."[m]

10 Hear the word that Jehovah has spoken against YOU people, O house of Israel. 2 This is what Jehovah has said: "Do not learn the way of the nations at all,[n] and do not be struck with terror even at the signs of the heavens, because the nations are struck with terror at them.[o] 3 For the customs of the peoples[p] are just an exhalation, because it is a mere tree[q] out of the forest that one has cut down, the work of the hands of the craftsman with the billhook.[r] 4 With silver and with gold one makes it pretty.[s] With nails and with hammers they fasten them down, that none may reel.[t] 5 They are like a scarecrow of a cucumber field, and cannot speak.[u] Without fail they are carried, for they cannot take any steps.[a] Do not be afraid because of them, for they can do nothing calamitous and, what is more, the doing of any good is not with them."[b]

6 In no way is there anyone like you, O Jehovah.[c] You are great, and your name is great in mightiness.[d] 7 Who should not fear you,[e] O King of the nations,[f] for to you it is fitting; because among all the wise ones of the nations and among all their kingships there is in no way anyone like you.[g] 8 And at one and the same time they prove to be unreasoning and stupid.[h] A tree is a mere exhortation of vanities.[i] 9 Silver beaten into plates is what is brought in even from Tar'shish,[j] and gold from U'phaz,[k] the workmanship of a craftsman and of the hands of a metalworker; their clothing is blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple. They are all the workmanship of skilled people.[l]

10 But Jehovah is in truth God.[m] He is the living God[n] and the King to time indefinite.[o] Because of his indignation the earth will rock,[p] and no nations will hold up under his denunciation.[q] 11 This is what YOU men will say to them: "The gods[r] that did not make the very heavens and the earth are the ones who will perish from the earth[s] and from under these heavens." 12 He is the Maker of the earth by his power,[t] the One firmly establishing the productive land by his wisdom,[u] and the One who by his understanding stretched out the heavens.[v] 13 At [his] voice there is a giving by him of a turmoil of waters in the heavens,[w] and he causes vapors to ascend from the extremity of the earth.[x] He has made even sluices for the rain,[y] and he brings forth the wind from his storehouses.[z]

14 Every man has behaved so unreasoningly as not to know.[a] Every metalworker will certainly feel shame because of the carved image;[b] for his molten image is a falsehood,[c] and there is no spirit in them.[d] 15 They are vanity, a work of mockery.[e] In the time of their being given attention they will perish.[f]

16 The Share of Jacob[g] is not like these things, for he is the Former of everything,[h] and Israel is the staff of his inheritance.[i] Jehovah of armies is his name.[j]

17 Gather up from the earth your pack load,[k] O woman dwelling under stress.[l] 18 For this is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am slinging out the inhabitants of the earth on this occasion,[m] and I will cause them distress in order that they may find out."[n]

19 Woe to me on account of my breakdown![o] My stroke has become sickish. And I myself have said: "Surely this is my sickness, and I shall carry it.[p] 20 My own tent has been despoiled, and my own tent cords have all been torn in two.[q] My own sons have gone forth from me, and they are no more.[r] There is no one stretching out my tent anymore or raising up my tent cloths. 21 For the shepherds have behaved unreasoningly,[s] and they have not looked even for Jehovah.[t] That is why they have not acted with insight, and all their pastured animals have been scattered."[u]

22 Listen! A report! Here it has come, also a great pounding from the land of the north,[v] in order to make the cities of Judah a desolate waste, the lair of jackals.[w]

23 I well know, O Jehovah, that to earthling man his way does not belong. It does not belong to man who is walking even to direct his step.[a] 24 Correct me, O Jehovah, however with judgment;[b] not in your anger,[c] that you may not reduce me to nothing.[d] 25 Pour out your rage upon the nations[e] who have ignored you,[f] and upon the families who have not called even upon your name.[g] For they have eaten up Jacob.[h] Yes, they have eaten him up, and they keep at exterminating him;[i] and his abiding place they have desolated.[j]

11 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Hear the words of this covenant, YOU men!

"And you must speak[k] them to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 3 and you must say to them, 'This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: "Cursed is the man that does not listen to the words of this covenant,[l] 4 which I commanded YOUR forefathers in the day of my bringing them out of the land of Egypt,[m] out of the furnace of iron,[n] saying, 'Obey my voice, and YOU must do things according to all that I command YOU;[o] and YOU will certainly become my people and I myself shall become YOUR God,[p] 5 for the purpose of carrying out the oath that I swore to YOUR forefathers,[q] to give them the land flowing with milk and honey,[r] as in this day.'"'"

And I proceeded to answer and say: "Amen, O Jehovah."

6 And Jehovah went on to say to me: "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem,[s] saying, 'Hear, YOU people, the words of this covenant, and YOU must do them.[t] 7 For I solemnly admonished YOUR forefathers in the day of my bringing them up out of the land of Egypt[a] and down to this day, rising up early and admonishing, saying: "Obey my voice."[b] 8 But they did not listen or incline their ear,[c] but they kept walking each one in the stubbornness of their bad heart;[d] and so I brought upon them all the words of this covenant that I commanded [them] to do, but that they did not do.'"

9 Furthermore, Jehovah said to me: "Conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.[e] 10 They have returned to the errors of their forefathers,[f] the first ones, who refused to obey my words, but who themselves have walked after other gods in order to serve them.[g] The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant that I concluded with their forefathers.[h] 11 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am bringing upon them a calamity[i] that they will not be able to get out of;[j] and they will certainly call to me for aid, but I shall not listen to them.[k] 12 And the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will have to go and call for aid to the gods to which they are making sacrificial smoke,[l] but which will positively bring no salvation to them in the time of their calamity.[m] 13 For your gods have become as many as your cities, O Judah;[n] and as many altars as the streets of Jerusalem YOU people have placed for the shameful thing,[o] altars to make sacrificial smoke to Ba'al.'[p]

14 "And as for you, do not pray in behalf of this people, and do not lift up in their behalf an entreating cry or a prayer,[a] for I shall not be listening in the time of their calling out to me in regard to their calamity.[b]

15 "What business does my beloved one have in my house,[c] that many of them should do this thing,[d] the [evil] device?[e] And with holy flesh will they make [it] pass over from upon you,[f] when your calamity [comes]? At that time will you exult?[g] 16 'A luxuriant olive tree, pretty with fruit [and] in form,' is what Jehovah has called your name.[h] With sound of the great roaring, he has set a fire blazing against her, and they have broken its branches.[i]

17 "And Jehovah of armies himself, the Planter of you,[j] has spoken against you a calamity on account of the badness of the house of Israel[k] and the house of Judah that they have committed on their own part to offend me in making sacrificial smoke to Ba'al."[l]

18 And Jehovah himself has informed me that I may know. At that time you caused me to see their dealings.[m] 19 And I was like a male lamb, an intimate one, that is brought to slaughter,[n] and I did not know that it was against me that they thought out schemes:[o] "Let us bring to ruin the tree with its food, and let us cut him off from the land of the living ones,[p] that his very name may no more be remembered." 20 But Jehovah of armies is judging with righteousness;[q] he is examining the kidneys and the heart.[r] O may I see your vengeance on them, for it is to you that I have revealed my case at law.[s]

21 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said against the men of An'a·thoth[t] who are seeking for your soul, saying: "You must not prophesy in the name of Jehovah,[u] that you may not die at our hand"; 22 therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Here I am turning my attention upon them. The young men themselves will die by the sword.[a] Their sons and their daughters themselves will die by the famine.[b] 23 And not even a remnant will there come to be for them, because I shall bring calamity upon the men of An'a·thoth,[c] the year of their being given attention."[d]

12 You are righteous,[e] O Jehovah, when I make my complaint to you, indeed when I speak even about matters of judgment with you. Why is it that the way of wicked ones is what has succeeded,[f] that all those who are committing treachery are the unworried ones? 2 You have planted them; they have also taken root. They keep going ahead; they have also produced fruit. You are near in their mouth, but far away from their kidneys.[g] 3 And you yourself, O Jehovah, know me well;[h] you see me, and you have examined my heart in union with yourself.[i] Single them out like sheep for the slaughtering,[j] and set them apart for the day of killing. 4 How long should the land keep withering away,[k] and the very vegetation of all the field dry up?[l] Because of the badness of those dwelling in it the beasts and the flying creatures have been swept away.[m] For they have said: "He does not see our future."

5 Because with footmen you have run, and they would tire you out, how, then, can you run a race with horses?[n] And in the land of peace are you confident?[o] So how will you act among the proud [thickets] along the Jordan?[p] 6 For even your own brothers and the household of your own father, even they themselves have dealt treacherously with you.[a] Even they themselves have called out loudly behind you. Do not put any faith in them, just because they speak to you good things.[b]

7 "I have left my house;[c] I have deserted my inheritance;[d] I have given the beloved one of my soul into the palm of her enemies.[e] 8 My inheritance has become to me like a lion in the forest. She has let loose her voice even against me. That is why I have hated her.[f] 9 My inheritance[g] is as a many-colored bird of prey to me; the birds of prey are round about upon it.[h] Come, gather together, all YOU wild beasts of the field; bring [them] to eat.[i] 10 Many shepherds[j] themselves have brought my vineyard to ruin;[k] they have stamped down my share.[l] They have turned my desirable[m] share into a wilderness of a desolate waste. 11 One has made it a desolate waste;[n] it has withered away; it is desolated to me.[o] The whole land has been made desolate, because there is no man that has taken [it] to heart.[p] 12 On all the beaten paths through the wilderness the despoilers have come. For the sword belonging to Jehovah is devouring from one end of the land even to the other end of the land.[q] There is no peace for any flesh. 13 They have sown wheat, but thorns are what they have reaped.[r] They have worked themselves sick; they will be of no benefit.[s] And they will certainly be ashamed of the products of YOU people because of the burning anger of Jehovah."

14 This is what Jehovah has said against all my bad neighbors,[t] who are touching the hereditary possession that I caused my people, even Israel, to possess:[u] "Here I am uprooting them from off their ground;[v] and the house of Judah I shall uproot from the midst of them.[a] 15 And it must occur that after my uprooting them I shall again certainly have mercy upon them[b] and will bring them back, each one to his hereditary possession and each one to his land."[c]

16 "And it must occur that if they will without fail learn the ways of my people in swearing by my name,[d] 'As Jehovah is alive!' just as they taught my people to swear by Ba'al,[e] they will also be built up in the midst of my people.[f] 17 But if they will not obey, I will also uproot that nation, uprooting and destroying [it],"[g] is the utterance of Jehovah.

13 This is what Jehovah has said to me: "Go, and you must get for yourself a linen belt and put it upon your hips, but you must not bring it into any water." 2 So I got the belt in accord with the word of Jehovah and put it upon my hips. 3 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me a second time, saying: 4 "Take the belt that you got, that is upon your hips, and rise up, go to the Eu·phra'tes,[h] and hide it there in a cleft of the crag." 5 So I went and hid it by the Eu·phra'tes, just as Jehovah had commanded me.

6 But it came about at the end of many days that Jehovah proceeded to say to me: "Rise up, go to the Eu·phra'tes and take from there the belt that I commanded you to hide there." 7 Accordingly I went to the Euphra'tes and dug and took the belt from the place in which I had hid it, and, look! the belt had been ruined; it was not fit for anything.

8 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 9 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'In the same way I shall bring to ruin the pride of Judah[i] and the abundant pride of

Jerusalem. 10 This bad people who are refusing to obey my words,[a] who are walking in the stubbornness of their heart[b] and who keep walking after other gods in order to serve them and to bow down to them,[c] will also become just like this belt that is fit for nothing.' 11 'For just as a belt clings to the hips of a man, so I caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling even to me,'[d] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'in order to become to me a people[e] and a name[f] and a praise and something beautiful; but they did not obey.'[g]

12 "And you must say to them this word, 'This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: "Every large jar is something that gets filled with wine."'[h] And they will certainly say to you, 'Do we not positively know that every large jar is something that gets filled with wine?' 13 And you must say to them, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am filling all the inhabitants of this land and the kings that are sitting for David[i] upon his throne and the priests and the prophets and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with drunkenness.[j] 14 And I will dash them one against another, both the fathers and the sons, at the same time,"[k] is the utterance of Jehovah. "I shall show no compassion, nor feel any sorrow, and I shall not have the mercy to keep from bringing them to ruin."'[l]

15 "Hear, YOU people, and give ear. Do not be haughty,[m] for Jehovah himself has spoken.[n] 16 Give to Jehovah YOUR God glory,[o] before he causes darkness[p] and before YOUR feet strike up against each other on the mountains at dusk.[q] And YOU will certainly hope for the light,[r] and he will actually make it deep shadow;[s] he will turn [it] into thick gloom.[a] 17 And if YOU will not hear it,[b] in places of concealment my soul will weep because of pride and will positively shed tears; and my eye will run down with tears,[c] because the drove[d] of Jehovah will have been carried captive.

18 "Say to the king and to the lady,[e] 'Seat yourselves in a lower place,[f] for down from YOUR heads YOUR crown of beauty will certainly come.'[g] 19 The cities of the south themselves have been shut up, so that there is no one opening [them]. Judah in its entirety has been taken into exile. It has been taken into exile completely.[h]

20 "Raise your eyes and see those who are coming from the north.[i] Where is the drove that one gave to you, your beautiful flock?[j] 21 What will you say when one turns his attention upon you,[k] when you yourself have taught them as confidential friends right alongside you at the start?[l] Will not birth pangs themselves seize hold of you, like those of a wife giving birth?[m] 22 And when you will say in your heart,[n] 'Why is it that these things have befallen me?'[o] because of the abundance of your error your skirts have been taken off as a cover;[p] your heels have been treated violently.

23 "Can a Cush'ite[q] change his skin? or a leopard its spots?[r] You yourselves would also be able to do good, who are persons taught to do bad.[s] 24 So I shall scatter them[t] like stubble that is passing along in the wind from the wilderness.[u] 25 This is your lot, your measured portion from me,"[v] is the utterance of Jehovah, "because you have forgotten me[w] and you keep putting your trust in falsehood.[x] 26 And I myself also will lift up your skirts over your face, and your dishonor will certainly be seen,[a] 27 your acts of adultery[b] and your neighings,[c] your loose conduct in prostitution. Upon the hills, in the field, I have seen your disgusting things.[d] Woe to you, O Jerusalem! You cannot be clean[e]—after how much longer?"[f]

14 [This is] what occurred as the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah concerning the matters of the droughts:[g] 2 Judah has gone mourning,[h] and its very gates have faded away.[i] They have become dejected to the earth,[j] and even the outcry of Jerusalem has gone up.[k] 3 And their majestic ones themselves have sent their insignificant ones for water.[l] They have come to the ditches. They have found no water.[m] They have returned with their vessels empty. They have been put to shame[n] and have been disappointed, and they have covered their head.[o] 4 On account of the soil that has been shattered because there has occurred no downpour upon the land,[p] the farmers have become ashamed; they have covered their head.[q] 5 For even the hind in the field has given birth, but leaving [it], because there proved to be no tender grass. 6 And the zebras[r] themselves have stood still upon the bare hills; they have snuffed up the wind like the jackals; their eyes have failed because there is no vegetation.[s] 7 Even if our own errors do testify against us, O Jehovah, act for the sake of your name;[t] for our acts of unfaithfulness have become many;[u] it is against you that we have sinned.[v]

8 O you the hope of Israel,[w] the Savior of him[x] in the time of distress,[y] why do you become like an alien resident in the land, and like a traveler that has turned aside to spend the night?[a] 9 Why do you become like a man astounded, like a mighty man that is unable to do any saving?[b] Yet you yourself are in the midst of us,[c] O Jehovah, and upon us it is that your own name has been called.[d] Do not let us down.

10 This is what Jehovah has said concerning this people: "Thus they have loved to wander about;[e] their feet they have not kept in check.[f] So Jehovah himself has taken no pleasure in them.[g] Now he will remember their error and will give attention to their sins."[h]

11 And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: "Do not pray in behalf of this people for any good.[i] 12 When they fast, I am not listening to their entreating cry;[j] and when they offer up the whole burnt offering and the grain offering, I am taking no pleasure in them;[k] for by the sword and by famine and by pestilence I am bringing them to their end."[l]

13 At this I said: "Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Here the prophets are saying to them, 'YOU will see no sword, and there will be no famine to happen to YOU, but true peace is what I shall give YOU in this place.'"[m]

14 And Jehovah went on to say to me: "Falsehood is what the prophets are prophesying in my name.[n] I have not sent them, nor have I commanded them or spoken to them.[o] A false vision and divination and a valueless thing[p] and the trickiness of their heart they are speaking prophetically to YOU people.[q] 15 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said concerning the prophets who are prophesying in my name and whom I myself did not send and who are saying that no sword or famine will occur in this land, 'By sword and by famine those prophets will come to their finish.[a] 16 And the very people to whom they are prophesying will become people cast out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword, with no one to do the burying of them—them, their wives and their sons and their daughters.[b] And I will pour out upon them their calamity.'[c]

17 "And you must say to them this word, 'Let my eyes run down with tears night and day and let them not keep still,[d] for with a great crash the virgin daughter of my people has been broken,[e] with an extremely sickish stroke.[f] 18 If I actually go out into the field, look, now, those slain by the sword![g] And if I actually come into the city, look, also, the maladies from the famine![h] For both the prophet and the priest themselves have gone around to a land that they have not known.'"[i]

19 Have you absolutely rejected Judah,[j] or has your soul abhorred even Zion?[k] Why is it that you have struck us, so that there is no healing for us?[l] There was a hoping for peace, but no good [came]; and for a time of healing, and, look! terror![m] 20 We do acknowledge, O Jehovah, our wickedness, the error of our forefathers,[n] for we have sinned against you.[o] 21 Do not disrespect [us] for the sake of your name;[p] do not despise your glorious throne.[q] Remember; do not break your covenant with us.[r] 22 Do there exist among the vain idols[s] of the nations any that can pour down rain, or can even the heavens themselves give copious showers?[t] Are you not the One, O Jehovah our God?[a] And we hope in you, for you yourself have done all these things.[b]

15 And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: "If Moses[c] and Samuel[d] were standing before me, my soul would not be toward this people.[e] There would be a sending of them away from before my face, that they might go out.[f] 2 And it must occur that should they say to you, 'Where shall we go out to?' you must also say to them, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Whoever is for deadly plague, to deadly plague! And whoever is for the sword, to the sword! And whoever is for the famine, to the famine![g] And whoever is for the captivity, to the captivity!"'[h]

3 "'And I will commission over them four families,'[i] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'the sword to kill, and the dogs to drag away, and the flying creatures of the heavens[j] and the beasts of the earth to eat and to bring to ruin. 4 And I will give them for a quaking to all the kingdoms of the earth[k] on account of Ma·nas′seh the son of Hez·e·ki′ah, the king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.[l] 5 For who will show compassion upon you, O Jerusalem, and who will sympathize with you,[m] and who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?'

6 "'You yourself have deserted me,'[n] is the utterance of Jehovah. 'Backwards is the way you keep walking.[o] And I shall stretch out my hand against you and bring you to ruin.[p] I have got tired of feeling regret.[q] 7 And I shall winnow them with a fork[r] in the gates of the land. own ways.[a] 8 To me their widows have become more numerous than the sand grains of the seas. I will bring for them, upon mother, young man, the despoiler at midday.[b] I will cause to fall upon them suddenly excitement and disturbances.[c] 9 The woman giving birth to seven has faded away; her soul has struggled for breath.[d] Her sun has set while it is yet day;[e] it has become ashamed and felt abashed.' 'And to the sword I shall give the mere remnant of them before their enemies,'[f] is the utterance of Jehovah."

10 Woe to me,[g] O my mother, because you have given birth to me, a man subject to quarrel and a man subject to strife with all the earth.[h] I have given no loan, and they have given me no loan. All of them are calling down evil upon me.[i]

11 Jehovah has said: "Surely
I will minister to you for good.[j]
Surely I will intercede for you in the time of calamity[k] and in the time of distress, against the enemy.[l] 12 Can one break iron in pieces, iron out of the north, and copper? 13 Your resources and your treasures I shall give for mere plunder,[m] not for a price, but for all your sins, even in all your territories.[n]
14 And I will cause
[them] to pass over with your enemies into a land that you have not known.[o] For a fire itself has been ignited in my anger.[p] Against you people it is kindled."

15 You yourself have known.[q] O Jehovah, remember me[r] and turn your attention to me and avenge me upon my persecutors.[s] In your slowness to anger do not take me away.[t] Take note of my bearing reproach on account of your own self.[u] 16 Your words were found, and I proceeded to eat them;[v] and your word becomes to me the exultation[w]
and the rejoicing of my heart;[x] for your name has been called upon me,[a] O Jehovah God of armies.[b] 17 I have not sat down in the intimate group of those playing jokes[c] and begun exulting.[d]
Because of your hand
I have sat down all by myself,[e] for it is with denunciation that you have filled me.[f] 18 Why has my pain become chronic[g]
and my stroke incurable?[h] It has refused to be healed. You positively become to me like something deceitful,[i] like waters that have proved untrustworthy.[j]

19 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: "If you will come back, then I shall bring you back.[k] Before me you will stand.[l] And if you will bring forth what is precious from valueless things, you will become like my own mouth. They themselves will come back to you, but you yourself will not come back to them."

20 "And I have made you to this people a fortified copper wall;[m] and they will certainly fight against you, but they will not prevail over you.[n] For I am with you, to save you and to deliver you,"[o] is the utterance of Jehovah. 21 "And I will deliver you out of the hand of the bad ones,[p] and I will redeem you out of the palm of the tyrannical ones."

16 And the word of Jehovah
continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "You must not take for yourself a wife, and you must not come to have sons and daughters in this place.[q] 3 For this is what Jehovah has said concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who are giving them birth and concerning their fathers who are causing their birth in this land,[r] 4 'With deaths from maladies they will die.[s] They will not be bewailed,[t] neither will they be buried.[u] As manure upon the surface of the ground they will become;[a] and by the sword and by famine they will come to an end,[b] and their dead bodies will actually serve as food for the flying creatures of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth.'[c]

5 "For this is what Jehovah has said, 'Do not enter into the house of a mourners' feast, and do not go to bewail and do not sympathize with them.'[d]

"'For I have taken away
my peace from this people,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'even loving-kindness and mercies.[e] 6 And they will certainly die, the great ones and the small ones, in this land. They will not be buried,[f] neither will people beat themselves for them, nor will anyone make cuts upon himself[g] or make himself bald for them.[h] 7 And they will not deal out to them any bread on account of mourning to comfort someone over the dead;[i] neither will they give them the cup of consolation to drink on account of one's father and on account of one's mother.[j] 8 And you must enter no house of banqueting at all to sit down with them to eat and to drink.'[k]

9 "For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Here I am causing to cease out of this place before the eyes of YOU people and in YOUR days the voice of exultation and the voice of rejoicing, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.'[l]

10 "And it must occur that,
when you tell to this people all these words and they actually say to you, 'On what account has Jehovah spoken against us all this great calamity, and what is our error and what is our sin with which we have sinned against Jehovah our God?'[m] 11 you must also say to them, '"On account of the fact that YOUR fathers left me,"[n] is the utterance of Jehovah,
"and they kept going after other gods and serving them and bowing down to them.[a] But me they left, and my law they did not keep.[b] 12 And YOU yourselves have acted worse in YOUR doing than YOUR fathers,[c] and here YOU are walking each one after the stubbornness[d] of his bad heart in not obeying me.[e] 13 And I will hurl YOU out from off this land[f] into the land that YOU yourselves have not known,[g] neither YOUR fathers, and there YOU will have to serve other gods[h] day and night, because I shall not give YOU any favor."'

14 "'Therefore, look! days are coming,'[i] is the utterance of Jehovah,
'when it will no more
be said: "As Jehovah is alive who brought the sons of Israel
up out of the land of Egypt!"[j] 15 but: "As Jehovah is alive
who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the lands to which he had dispersed them!" and I shall certainly bring them back to their soil, which I gave to their forefathers.'[k]

16 "'Here I am sending for many fishers,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and they will certainly fish for them; and afterward
I shall send for many hunters,[l] and they will certainly hunt them from every mountain and from every hill and out of the clefts of the crags.[m] 17 For my eyes are upon all their ways. They have not been concealed from before me, neither has their error been hid from in front of my eyes.[n] 18 And, first of all,
I will repay the full amount of their error[o] and of their sin, on account of their profaning my land.[p] With the corpses of their disgusting things and their detestable things they had filled
my inheritance.'"[q]

place for flight in the day of distress,[a] to you the nations themselves will come from the ends of the earth,[b] and they will say: "Indeed our forefathers came to possess sheer falsehood,[c] vanity and things in which there was nothing beneficial."[d] 20 Can earthling man make for himself gods when they are no gods?[e]

21 "Therefore here I am causing them to know; at this one time I shall cause them to know my hand and my mightiness,[f] and they will have to know that my name is Jehovah."[g]

"The sin of Judah is written down with an iron stylus.[h] With a diamond point it is engraved on the tablet of their heart,[i] and on the horns of their altars,[j] 2 when their sons remember their altars and their sacred poles beside a luxuriant tree, upon the high hills,[k] 3 [on] the mountains in the field. Your resources, all your treasures, I shall give for mere plunder[l]—your high places because of sin throughout all your territories.[m] 4 And you let loose, even of your own accord, from your hereditary possession that I had given you.[n] I also will make you serve your enemies in the land that you have not known;[o] for as a fire YOU people have been ignited in my anger.[p] To time indefinite it will keep kindled."

5 This is what Jehovah has said: "Cursed is the able-bodied man who puts his trust in earthling man[q] and actually makes flesh his arm,[r] and whose heart turns away from Jehovah himself.[s] 6 And he will certainly become like a solitary tree in the desert plain and will not see when good comes;[t] but he must reside in parched places in the wilderness, in a salt country that is not inhabited.[u] 7 Blessed is the able-bodied man who puts his trust in Jehovah, and whose confidence Jehovah has become.[a] 8 And he will certainly become like a tree planted by the waters, that sends out its roots right by the watercourse; and he will not see when heat comes, but his foliage will actually prove to be luxuriant.[b] And in the year of drought[c] he will not become anxious, nor will he leave off from producing fruit.

9 "The heart is more treacherous than anything else and is desperate.[d] Who can know it? 10 I, Jehovah, am searching the heart,[e] examining the kidneys,[f] even to give to each one according to his ways,[g] according to the fruitage of his dealings.[h] 11 [As] the partridge that has gathered together what it has not laid is the one making riches, but not with justice.[i] At the half of his days he will leave them,[j] and in his finale he will prove to be senseless."[k]

12 There is the glorious throne on high from the start;[l] it is the place of our sanctuary.[m] 13 O Jehovah, the hope of Israel,[n] all those who are leaving you will be put to shame.[o] Those apostatizing from me[p] will be written down even in the earth, because they have left the source of living water, Jehovah.[q] 14 Heal me, O Jehovah, and I shall be healed.[r] Save me, and I will be saved;[s] for you are my praise.[t]

15 Look! There are those saying to me: "Where is the word of Jehovah?[u] Let it come in, please." 16 But as for me, I did not hasten from being a shepherd following you, and for the desperate day I did not show any craving. You yourself have known the expression of my lips; in front of your face it has occurred. 17 Do not become something terrifying to me.[a] You are my refuge in the day of calamity.[b] 18 Let my persecutors be put to shame,[c] but let me personally be put to no shame.[d] Let them be the ones to be struck with terror, but let me personally not be struck with terror. Bring upon them the day of calamity,[e] and break them even with twice as much breakdown.[f]

19 This is what Jehovah has said to me: "Go, and you must stand in the gate of the sons of the people by which the kings of Judah enter in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem.[g] 20 And you must say to them, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, YOU kings of Judah and all Judah and all YOU inhabitants of Jerusalem, who are entering in by these gates.[h] 21 This is what Jehovah has said: "Watch out for YOUR souls,[i] and do not carry on the sabbath day any load that YOU must bring in through the gates of Jerusalem.[j] 22 And YOU must bring no load out of YOUR homes on the sabbath day; and no work at all must YOU do.[k] And YOU must sanctify the sabbath day, just as I commanded YOUR forefathers;[l] 23 but they did not listen or incline their ear,[m] and they proceeded to harden their neck[n] in order not to hear and in order to receive no discipline."'[o]

24 "'"And it must occur that, if YOU strictly obey me,"[p] is the utterance of Jehovah, "to bring in no load through the gates of this city on the sabbath day[q] and to sanctify the sabbath day by not doing on it any work,[r] 25 there will also certainly enter in by the gates of this city kings with princes,[s] sitting on the throne of David,[t] riding in the chariot and upon horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city will certainly be inhabited to time indefinite. 26 And people will actually come from the cities of Judah and from round about Jerusalem and from the land of Benjamin[a] and from the lowland[b] and from the mountainous region[c] and from the Neg'eb,[d] bringing whole burnt offering[e] and sacrifice[f] and grain offering[g] and frankincense[h] and bringing thanksgiving sacrifice into the house of Jehovah.[i]

27 "'"But if YOU will not obey me by sanctifying the sabbath day and not carrying a load,[j] but there is a coming in [with it] through the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, I will also set a fire ablaze in her gates,[k] and it will certainly devour the dwelling towers of Jerusalem[l] and will not be extinguished."'"[m]

The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Rise up, and you must go down to the house of the potter,[n] and there I shall cause you to hear my words."

3 And I proceeded to go down to the house of the potter, and there he was doing work upon the potter's wheels. 4 And the vessel that he was making with the clay was spoiled by the potter's hand, and he turned back and went making it into another vessel, just as it looked right in the eyes of the potter to make.[o]

5 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 6 "'Am I not able to do just like this potter to YOU people, O house of Israel?' is the utterance of Jehovah. 'Look! As the clay in the hand of the potter, so YOU are in my hand, O house of Israel.[p] 7 At any moment that I may speak against a nation and against a kingdom to uproot [it] and to pull [it] down and to destroy [it],[q] 8 and that nation actually turns back from its badness against which I spoke,[a] I will also feel regret over the calamity that I had thought to execute upon it.[b] 9 But at any moment that I may speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom to build [it] up and to plant [it],[c] 10 and it actually does what is bad in my eyes by not obeying my voice,[d] I will also feel regret over the good that I said [to myself] to do for its good.'

11 "And now say, please, to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Here I am forming against YOU a calamity and thinking against YOU a thought.[e] Turn back, please, each one from his bad way, and make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good."'"[f]

12 And they said: "It is hopeless![g] For after our own thoughts we shall walk, and we are going to carry out each one the stubbornness of his bad heart."[h]

13 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said: "Ask for yourselves, please, among the nations. Who has heard things like these? There is a horrible thing that the virgin of Israel has done to an excess.[i] 14 Will the snow of Leb'a·non go away from the rock of the open field? Or will strange waters, cool, trickling, be dried up? 15 For my people have forgotten me[j] in that they make sacrificial smoke to something worthless,[k] and in that they make men stumble in their ways,[l] the paths of long ago,[m] to walk in roadways, a way not banked up, 16 in order to make their land an object of astonishment,[n] for whistling at to time indefinite.[o] Every last one passing along by it will stare in astonishment and shake his head.[p] 17 As with an east wind I shall scatter them before the enemy.[q] The back, and not the face,[r] I shall show them in the day of their disaster."

18 And they proceeded to say: "Come, men, and let us think out against Jeremiah some thoughts,[a] for the law will not perish from the priest[b] or counsel from the wise one or the word from the prophet.[c] Come and let us strike him with the tongue,[d] and let us pay no attention to any of his words."

19 Do pay attention to me, O Jehovah, and listen to the voice of my opponents.[e] 20 Should bad be repaid for good?[f] For they have excavated a pit for my soul.[g] Remember my standing before you to speak good even concerning them, to turn back your rage from them.[h] 21 Therefore give their sons over to the famine,[i] and deliver them over to the power of the sword;[j] and may their wives become women bereaved of children, and widows.[k] And may their own men become those killed with deadly plague, their young men those struck down with the sword in the battle.[l] 22 Let a cry be heard out of their houses, when you bring upon them suddenly a marauder band.[m] For they have excavated a pit to capture me, and traps they have hid for my feet.[n]

23 But you yourself, O Jehovah, well know all their counsel against me for [my] death.[o] Do not cover over their error, and do not wipe out that sin of theirs from before you; but let them become those who are made to stumble before you.[p] In the time of your anger take action against them.[q]

19 This is what Jehovah said: "Go, and you must get an earthenware flask of a potter[r] and some of the older men of the people and some of the older men of the priests. 2 And you must go out to the valley of the son of Hin'nom,[a] which is at the entrance of the Gate of the Potsherds. And there you must proclaim the words that I shall speak to you.[b] 3 And you must say, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, O you kings of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem.[c] This is what Jehovah of armies,[d] the God of Israel, has said:

"'"Here I am bringing a calamity upon this place, of which when anyone hears, his ears will tingle;[e] 4 for the reason that they have left me[f] and have proceeded to make this place unrecognizable[g] and to make sacrificial smoke in it to other gods whom they had not known,[h] they and their forefathers and the kings of Judah; and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent ones.[i] 5 And they built the high places of the Ba'al in order to burn their sons in the fire as whole burnt offerings to the Ba'al,[j] something that I had not commanded or spoken of,[k] and that had not come up into my heart."'[l]

6 "'"Therefore, look! there are days coming," is the utterance of Jehovah, "when this place will be called no more To'pheth[m] and the valley of the son of Hin'nom,[n] but the valley of the killing. 7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and of Jerusalem in this place,[o] and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of those seeking for their soul.[p] And I will give their dead bodies as food to the flying creatures of the heavens and to the beasts of the earth.[q] 8 And I will make this city an object of astonishment and something to be whistled at.[r] Every last one passing along by it will stare in astonishment and whistle over all its plagues.[s] 9 And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they will eat each one the flesh of his fellowman, because of the tightness and because of the stress with which their enemies and those seeking for their soul will hem them in."'[a]

10 "And you must break the flask before the eyes of the men who are going with you. 11 And you must say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "In the same way I shall break this people and this city as someone breaks the vessel of the potter so that it is no more able to be repaired;[b] and in To'pheth[c] they will bury until there is no more place to bury."'[d]

12 "'That is how I shall do to this place,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and to the inhabitants of it, even to make this city like To'pheth.[e] 13 And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah must become like the place of To'pheth,[f] unclean ones, that is, all the houses upon the roofs of which they made sacrificial smoke to all the army of the heavens[g] and there was a pouring out of drink offerings to other gods.'"[h]

14 And Jeremiah proceeded to come from To'pheth,[i] to which Jehovah had sent him to prophesy, and to stand in the courtyard of the house of Jehovah and say to all the people:[j] 15 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Here I am bringing upon this city and upon all its cities all the calamity that I have spoken against it, because they have hardened their neck in order not to obey my words.'"[k]

20 Now Pash'hur the son of Im'mer,[l] the priest, who was also the leading commissioner in the house of Jehovah,[m] kept listening to Jeremiah while prophesying these words.

2 Then Pash'hur struck Jeremiah the prophet[a] and put him into the stocks[b] that were in the Upper Gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of Jehovah. 3 But it came about on the following day that Pash'hur proceeded to let Jeremiah out from the stocks,[c] and Jeremiah
now said to him:

"Jehovah has called your name,[d] not Pash'hur, but Fright all around.[e] 4 For this is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am making you a fright to yourself and to all your lovers, and they will certainly fall by the sword of their enemies[f] while your eyes will be looking on;[g] and all Judah I shall give into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will actually take them into exile in Babylon and strike them down with the sword.[h]
5 And I will give all the stored-up things of this city and all its product and all its precious things; and all the treasures of the kings of Judah I am going to give into the hand of their enemies.[i] And they will certainly plunder them and take them and bring them to Babylon.[j]

7 You have fooled me, O Jehovah, so that I was fooled.
You used your strength against me, so that you prevailed.[n] I became an object of laughter all day long; everyone is holding me in derision.[o] 8 For as often as I speak, I cry out. Violence and despoiling are what I long.[q] 9 And I said: "I am not her forest,[a] and it will certainly devour all the things round about her.'"[b]

22 This is what Jehovah has said: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and you must speak there this word. 2 And you must say, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, O king of Judah who are sitting on the throne of David,[c] you with your servants and your people, those who are coming in through these gates.[d] 3 This is what Jehovah has said: "RENDER justice and righteousness, and deliver the one that is being robbed out of the hand of the defrauder; and do not maltreat any alien resident, fatherless boy or widow.[e] Do [them] no violence.[f] And do not shed any innocent blood in this place.[g] 4 For if YOU will by all means perform this word, there will also certainly come in through the gates of this house the kings sitting for David upon his throne,[h] riding in chariots and on horses, he with his servants and his people."'[i]

5 "'But if YOU will not obey these words, by myself I do swear,'[j] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'that this house will become a mere devastated place.'[k]

6 "For this is what Jehovah has said concerning the house of the king of Judah, 'You are as Gil'e·ad to me, the head of Leb'a·non.[l] Assuredly I shall make you a wilderness;[m] as for the cities, not one will be inhabited.[n] 7 And I will sanctify against you those bringing ruin,[o] each one and his weapons;[p] and they must cut down the choicest of your cedars[q] and cause them to fall into the fire.[r] 8 And many nations will actually pass along by this city and say one to the other: "On what account did Jehovah do like this to this great city?"[s] 9 And they will have to say: "On account of the fact that they left the covenant of Jehovah their God[t] and proceeded to bow down to other gods and to serve them."'[a]

10 "Do not weep for the dead one,[b] and do not sympathize with him, YOU people. Weep profusely for the one going away, for he will return no more and he will actually not see the land of his relatives. 11 For this is what Jehovah has said concerning Shal'lum[c] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah who is reigning instead of Jo·si'ah his father,[d] who has gone forth from this place, 'He will return there no more. 12 For in the place where they have taken him into exile he will die, and this land he will see no more.'[e]

13 "Woe to the one building his house,[f] but not with righteousness, and his upper chambers, but not with justice, by use of his fellowman who serves for nothing, and whose wages he does not give him;[g] 14 the one saying, 'I am going to build for myself a roomy house and commodious upper chambers;[h] and my windows must be widened out for it, and the paneling will be with cedar[i] and smeared with vermilion.'[j] 15 Will you continue reigning because you are competing by use of cedar? As for your father, did he not eat and drink and execute justice and righteousness?[k] In that case it went well with him.[l] 16 He pleaded the legal claim of the afflicted one and the poor one.[m] In that case it went well. 'Was not that a case of knowing me?' is the utterance of Jehovah. 17 'Assuredly your eyes and your heart are upon nothing but upon your unjust gain,[n] and upon the blood of the innocent one in order to shed [it],[o] and upon defrauding and upon extortion in order to carry [them] on.'

18 "Therefore this is what Jehovah has said concerning Je·hoi'a·kim[p] the son of Jo·si'- ah, the king of Judah, 'They will not wail for him: "Alas, my brother! And alas, [my] sister!" They will not wail for him: "Alas, O master! And alas, his dignity!"[a] 19 With the burial of a he-ass he will be buried,[b] with a dragging about and a throwing away, out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.'[c]

20 "Go up onto Leb'a·non[d] and cry out, and on Ba'shan[e] let your voice out. And cry out from Ab'a·rim,[f] because all those intensely loving you have been broken.[g] 21 I spoke to you during your freedom from care.[h] You said, 'I shall not obey.'[i] This has been your way since your youth, for you did not obey my voice.[j] 22 A wind will shepherd all your own shepherds;[k] and as for those intensely loving you, they will go into captivity itself.[l] For at that time you will be ashamed and certainly feel humiliated because of all your calamity.[m] 23 O you who are dwelling in Leb'a·non,[n] being nested in the cedars,[o] how you will certainly sigh when there come to you birth pangs,[p] the labor pains like those of a woman giving birth!"[q]

24 "'As I am alive,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'even if Co·ni'ah[r] the son of Je·hoi'a·kim,[s] the king of Judah, happened to be the seal ring[t] on my right hand, from there I would pull you off![u] 25 And I will give you into the hand of those who are seeking for your soul[v] and into the hand of those of whom you are scared and into the hand of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon and into the hand of the Chal·de'ans.[w] 26 And I will hurl you and your mother[x] who gave you birth out into another land in which YOU people were not born, and there is where YOU will die.[y] 27 And into the land to which they will be lifting up their soul to return, there they will not return.[a] 28 Is this man Co·ni'ah[b] a mere form despised, dashed to pieces,[c] or a vessel in which there is no delight?[d] Why is it that he himself and his offspring must be hurled down and thrown into the land that they have not known?'[e]

29 "O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of Jehovah.[f] 30 This is what Jehovah has said, 'WRITE down this man as childless,[g] as an able-bodied man who will not have any success in his days; for from his offspring not a single one will have any success,[h] sitting upon the throne of David[i] and ruling anymore in Judah.'"

23 "Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasturage!"[j] is the utterance of Jehovah.

2 Therefore this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said against the shepherds who are shepherding my people: "YOU yourselves have scattered my sheep; and YOU kept dispersing them, and YOU have not turned your attention to them."[k]

"Here I am turning my attention upon YOU for the badness of YOUR dealings,"[l] is the utterance of Jehovah.

3 "And I myself shall collect together the remnant of my sheep out of all the lands to which I had dispersed them,[m] and I will bring them back to their pasture ground,[n] and they will certainly be fruitful and become many.[o] 4 And I will raise up over them shepherds who will actually shepherd them;[p] and they will be afraid no more, neither will they be struck with any terror,[q] and none will be missing," is the utterance of Jehovah.

ing," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and I will raise up to David a righteous sprout.[a] And a king will certainly reign[b] and act with discretion and execute justice and righteousness in the land.[c] 6 In his days Judah will be saved,[d] and Israel itself will reside in security.[e] And this is his name with which he will be called, Jehovah Is Our Righteousness."[f]

7 "Therefore, look! there are days coming," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and they will no more say, 'Jehovah is alive who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,'[g] 8 but, 'Jehovah is alive who brought up and who brought in the offspring of the house of Israel out of the land of the north and out of all the lands to which I have dispersed them,' and they will certainly dwell on their own ground."[h]

9 As regards the prophets, my heart has been broken within me. All my bones have begun shaking. I have become like a man that is drunk,[i] and like an able-bodied man whom wine has overcome, because of Jehovah and because of his holy words. 10 For it is with adulterers[j] that the land has become full.[k] For because of the curse the land has gone to mourning,[l] the pasture grounds of the wilderness have dried up;[m] and their course of action proves to be bad, and their mightiness is not right.

11 "For both the prophet and the priest themselves have become polluted.[n] Also in my own house I have found their badness,"[o] is the utterance of Jehovah. 12 "Therefore their way will become for them like slippery places[p] in the gloom, into which they will be pushed and certainly fall."[q]

16 This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are prophesying to YOU people.[l] They are making YOU become vain.[m] The vision of their own heart is what they speak[n]—not from the mouth of Jehovah.[o] 17 They are saying again and again to those who are disrespectful of me, 'Jehovah has spoken: "Peace is what YOU people will come to have."'[p] And [to] every one walking in the stubbornness of his heart[q] they have said, 'No calamity will come upon YOU people.'[r] 18 For who has stood in the intimate[s] group of Jehovah that he might see and hear his word?[t] Who has given attention to his word that he might hear it?[u] 19 Look! utterance of Jehovah, "and like a forge hammer that smashes the crag?"[a]

30 "Therefore here I am against the prophets,"[b] is the utterance of Jehovah, "the ones who are stealing away my words, each one from his companion."[c]

31 "Here I am against the prophets," is the utterance of Jehovah, "the ones who are employing their tongue that they may utter forth, 'An utterance!'"[d]

32 "Here I am against the prophets of false dreams," is the utterance of Jehovah, "who relate them and cause my people to wander about because of their falsehoods[e] and because of their boasting."[f]

"But I myself did not send them or command them. So they will by no means benefit this people,"[g] is the utterance of Jehovah.

33 "And when this people or the prophet or priest asks you, saying, 'What is the burden of Jehovah?'[h] you must also say to them, '"You people are—O what a burden![i] And I shall certainly abandon YOU,"[j] is the utterance of Jehovah.' 34 As for the prophet or the priest or the people who say, 'The burden of Jehovah!' I will also turn my attention upon that man and upon his household.[k] 35 This is what YOU keep saying each one to his fellow and each one to his brother, 'What has Jehovah answered? And what has Jehovah spoken?'[l] 36 But the burden[m] of Jehovah mention no more[n] YOU people, for the burden itself becomes to each one his own word,[o] and YOU have changed the words of the living God,[p] Jehovah of armies, our God.

37 "This is what you will say to the prophet, 'What answer has Jehovah given you? And what has Jehovah spoken?[q] 38 And if "The burden of Jehovah!" is what YOU keep on saying, therefore this is what Jehovah has said: "By reason of YOUR saying, 'This word is the very burden of Jehovah,' when I kept sending to YOU, saying, 'You must not say: "The burden of Jehovah!"' 39 therefore here I am! And I will give YOU people to neglect, with finality,[a] and I will desert YOU and the city that I gave to YOU and to YOUR forefathers —from before me.[b] 40 And I will put upon YOU reproach to time indefinite and humiliation to time indefinite, which will not be forgotten."'"[c]

24 And Jehovah showed me, and, look! two baskets of figs set before the temple of Jehovah, after Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon had carried into exile Jec·o·ni'ah[d] the son of Je·hoi'a·kim,[e] the king of Judah, and the princes of Judah and the craftsmen[f] and the builders of bulwarks, from Jerusalem that he might bring them to Babylon.[g] 2 As for the one basket, the figs were very good, like early figs;[h] and as for the other basket, the figs were very bad, so that they could not be eaten for badness.

3 And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: "What are you seeing, Jeremiah?" So I said: "Figs, the good figs being very good, and the bad ones being very bad, so that they cannot be eaten for badness."[i]

4 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 5 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Like these good figs, so I shall regard the exiles of Judah, whom I will send away from this place to the land of the Chal·de'ans,[j] in a good way.[k] 6 And I will set my eye upon them in a good way,[l] and I shall certainly cause them to return to this land.[m] And I will build them up, and I shall not tear down; and I will plant them, and I shall not uproot.[a] 7 And I will give them a heart to know me,[b] that I am Jehovah; and they must become my people,[c] and I myself shall become their God, for they will return to me with all their heart.[d]

8 "'And like the bad figs that cannot be eaten for badness,[e] this in fact is what Jehovah has said: "So I shall give Zed·e·ki'ah[f] the king of Judah and his princes and the remnant of Jerusalem who are remaining over in this land[g] and those who are dwelling in the land of Egypt[h]— 9 I will also give them over for quaking, for calamity, in all the kingdoms of the earth,[i] for reproach and for a proverbial saying, for a taunt[j] and for a malediction,[k] in all the places to which I shall disperse them.[l] 10 And I will send against them the sword,[m] the famine[n] and the pestilence,[o] until they come to their finish off the ground that I gave to them and to their forefathers."'"[p]

25 The word that occurred to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Je·hoi'a·kim[q] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, that is, the first year of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon; 2 which Jeremiah the prophet spoke concerning all the people of Judah and concerning all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:

3 "From the thirteenth year of Jo·si'ah[r] the son of A'mon, the king of Judah, and down to this day, these twenty-three years the word of Jehovah has occurred to me, and I kept speaking to YOU people, rising up early and speaking, but YOU did not listen.[s] 4 And Jehovah sent to YOU all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending [them], but

YOU did not listen,[a] neither did YOU incline YOUR ear to listen,[b] 5 they saying, 'Turn back, please, every one from his bad way and from the badness of YOUR dealings,[c] and continue dwelling upon the ground that Jehovah gave to YOU and to YOUR forefathers from long ago and to a long time to come.[d] 6 And do not walk after other gods in order to serve them and to bow down to them, that YOU may not offend me with the work of YOUR hands, and that I may not cause calamity to YOU.'[e]

7 "'But YOU did not listen to me,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'to the intent that YOU might offend me with the work of YOUR hands, for calamity to yourselves.'[f]

8 "Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said, '"For the reason that YOU did not obey my words, 9 here I am sending and I will take all the families of the north,"[g] is the utterance of Jehovah, "even [sending] to Neb·u·chad·rez'zar the king of Babylon, my servant,[h] and I will bring them against this land[i] and against its inhabitants and against all these nations round about;[j] and I will devote them to destruction and make them an object of astonishment and something to whistle[k] at and places devastated to time indefinite.[l] 10 And I will destroy out of them the sound of exultation and the sound of rejoicing,[m] the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride,[n] the sound of the hand mill[o] and the light of the lamp.[p] 11 And all this land must become a devastated place, an object of astonishment, and these nations will have to serve the king of Babylon seventy years."'[q]

12 "'And it must occur that when seventy years have been fulfilled[r] I shall call to account against the king of Babylon and against that nation,'[a] is the utterance of Jehovah, 'their error, even against the land of the Chal·de'ans,[b] and I will make it desolate wastes to time indefinite.[c] 13 And I will bring in upon that land all my words that I have spoken against it, even all that is written in this book that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations.[d] 14 For even they themselves, many nations and great kings,[e] have exploited them as servants;[f] and I will repay them according to their activity and according to the work of their hands.'"[g]

15 For this is what Jehovah the God of Israel said to me: "Take this cup of the wine of rage out of my hand, and you must make all the nations to whom I am sending you drink it.[h] 16 And they must drink and shake back and forth and act like crazed men because of the sword that I am sending among them."[i]

17 And I proceeded to take the cup out of the hand of Jehovah and to make all the nations drink to whom Jehovah had sent me:[j] 18 namely, Jerusalem and the cities of Judah and her kings, her princes, to make them a devastated place, an object of astonishment,[k] something to whistle at and a malediction, just as at this day;[l] 19 Phar'aoh the king of Egypt and his servants and his princes and all his people;[m] 20 and all the mixed company, and all the kings of the land of Uz,[n] and all the kings of the land of the Phi·lis'tines[o] and Ash'ke·lon[p] and Ga'za[q] and Ek'ron[r] and the remnant of Ash'dod;[s]

27 "And you must say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "Drink and get drunk and puke and fall so that YOU cannot get up[m] because of the sword that I am sending among YOU."'[n] 28 And it must occur that in case they refuse to take the cup out of your hand to drink, you must also say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "You will drink without fail.[o] 29 For, look! it is upon the city upon which my name is called that I am starting off in bringing calamity,[p] and should YOU yourselves in any way go free of punishment?"'[q]

"'YOU will not go free of punishment, for there is a sword that I am calling against all the inhabitants of the earth,' is the utterance of Jehovah of armies.

30 "And as for you, you will prophesy to them all these words, and you must say to them, 'From on high Jehovah himself will roar,[r] and from his holy dwelling he will give forth his voice.[a] Without fail he will roar upon his abiding place. A shout like that of those treading [the winepress] he will sing out against all the inhabitants of the earth.'[b]

31 "'A noise will certainly come clear to the farthest part of the earth, for there is a controversy that Jehovah has with the nations.[c] He must personally put himself in judgment with all flesh.[d] As regards the wicked ones, he must give them to the sword,'[e] is the utterance of Jehovah.

32 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Look! A calamity is going forth from nation to nation,[f] and a great tempest itself will be roused up from the remotest parts of the earth.[g] 33 And those slain by Jehovah will certainly come to be in that day from one end of the earth clear to the other end of the earth.[h] They will not be bewailed, neither will they be gathered up or be buried.[i] As manure on the surface of the ground they will become.'[j]

34 "Howl, YOU shepherds, and cry out![k] And wallow about,[l] YOU majestic ones of the flock,[m] because YOUR days for slaughtering and for YOUR scatterings have been fulfilled,[n] and YOU must fall like a desirable vessel![o] 35 And a place to flee to has perished from the shepherds, and a means of escape from the majestic ones of the flock.[p] 36 Listen! The outcry of the shepherds, and the howling of the majestic ones of the flock, for Jehovah is despoiling their pasturage. 37 And the peaceful abiding places have been rendered lifeless because of the burning anger of Jehovah.[q] 38 He has left his covert just like a maned young lion,[r] for their land has become an object of astonishment because of the maltreating sword and because of his burning anger."[s]

26 In the beginning of the royal rule of Je·hoi'a·kim[a] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, this word occurred from Jehovah, saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Stand in the courtyard of the house of Jehovah,[b] and you must speak concerning all the cities of Judah that are coming in to bow down at the house of Jehovah all the words that I will command you to speak to them.[c] Do not take away a word.[d] 3 Perhaps they will listen and return, each one from his bad way,[e] and I shall have to feel regret for the calamity that I am thinking to execute upon them because of the badness of their dealings.[f] 4 And you must say to them: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'If YOU will not listen to me by walking in my law[g] that I have put before YOU,[h] 5 by listening to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I am sending to YOU, even rising up early and sending [them], whom YOU have not listened to,[i] 6 I will, in turn, make this house like that in Shi'loh,[j] and this city I shall make a malediction to all the nations of the earth.'"'"[k]

7 And the priests and the prophets and all the people began to hear Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of Jehovah.[l] 8 So it came about that when Jeremiah had completed speaking all that Jehovah had commanded [him] to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying: "You will positively die.[m] 9 Why is it that you have prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying, 'Like that in Shi'loh[n] is how this house will become, and this very city will be devastated so as to be without an inhabitant'?" And all the people kept congregating themselves about Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah.

10 In time the princes of Judah got to hear these words, and they proceeded to come up from the house of the king to the house of Jehovah[a] and to sit down in the entrance of the new gate of Jehovah.[b] 11 And the priests and the prophets began to say to the princes and to all the people: "To this man the judgment of death belongs,[c] because he has prophesied concerning this city just as YOU have heard with YOUR own ears."[d]

12 At that Jeremiah said to all the princes and to all the people: "It was Jehovah that sent me to prophesy concerning this house and concerning this city all the words that YOU have heard.[e] 13 And now make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good,[f] and obey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God, and Jehovah will feel regret for the calamity that he has spoken against YOU.[g] 14 And as for me, here I am in YOUR hand.[h] Do to me according to what is good and according to what is right in YOUR eyes.[i] 15 Only YOU should by all means know that, if YOU are putting me to death, it is innocent blood that YOU are putting upon yourselves and upon this city and upon her inhabitants,[j] for in truth Jehovah did send me to YOU to speak in YOUR ears all these words."[k]

16 Then the princes[l] and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: "There is no judgment of death belonging to this man,[m] for it was in the name of Jehovah our God that he spoke to us."[n]

17 Furthermore, certain ones of the older men of the land rose up and began saying to all the congregation of the people:[o] 18 "Mi'cah[p] of Mo'resh·eth[q] himself happened to be prophesying in the days of Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah[r] and went on to say to all the people of Judah, 'This is what

Jehovah of armies has said: "Zion herself will be plowed up as a mere field,[a] and Jerusalem herself will become mere heaps of ruins,[b] and the mountain of the House will be for high places of a forest."'[c] 19 Did Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah and all those of Judah by any means put him to death? Did he not fear Jehovah and proceed to soften the face of Jehovah,[d] so that Jehovah got to feeling regret for the calamity that he had spoken against them?[e] So we are working up a great calamity against our souls.[f]

20 "And there also happened to be a man prophesying in the name of Jehovah, U·ri'jah the son of She·mai'ah from Kir'i·ath-je'a·rim.[g] And he kept prophesying against this city and against this land in accord with all the words of Jeremiah. 21 And King Je·hoi'a·kim[h] and all his mighty men and all the princes got to hear his words, and the king began seeking to put him to death.[i] When U·ri'jah got to hear [of it] he at once became afraid[j] and ran away and came into Egypt. 22 But King Je·hoi'a·kim sent men to Egypt, El·na'than the son of Ach'bor[k] and other men with him to Egypt. 23 And they proceeded to bring U·ri'jah out from Egypt and to bring him to King Je·hoi'a·kim, who then struck him down with the sword[l] and cast his dead body into the graveyard of the sons of the people."

24 Moreover, it was the hand of A·hi'kam[m] the son of Sha'phan[n] that proved to be with Jeremiah, in order not to give him into the hand of the people to have him put to death.[o]

27 In the beginning of the kingdom of Je·hoi'a·kim the son of Jo·si'ah,[p] the king of Judah, this word occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah has said to me, 'Make for yourself bands and yoke bars,[a] and you must put them upon your neck.[b] 3 And you must send them to the king of E'dom[c] and to the king of Mo'ab[d] and to the king of the sons of Am'mon[e] and to the king of Tyre[f] and to the king of Si'don[g] by the hand of the messengers who are coming to Jerusalem to Zed·e·ki'ah the king of Judah. 4 And you must give them a command for their masters, saying:

"'"This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel,[h] has said; this is what YOU should say to YOUR masters, 5 'I myself have made the earth,[i] mankind[j] and the beasts[k] that are upon the surface of the earth by my great power[l] and by my stretched-out arm;[m] and I have given it to whom it has proved right in my eyes.[n] 6 And now I myself have given all these lands into the hand of Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king of Babylon,[o] my servant;[p] and even the wild beasts of the field I have given him to serve him.[q] 7 And all the nations must serve even him[r] and his son and his grandson until the time even of his own land comes,[s] and many nations and great kings must exploit him as a servant.'[t]

8 "'"'And it must occur that the nation and the kingdom that will not serve him, even Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king of Babylon; and the one that will not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, with the sword[u] and with the famine[v] and with the pestilence[w] I shall turn my attention upon that nation,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'until I shall have finished them off by his hand.'[x]

9 "'"'And as for YOU men, do not listen to YOUR prophets[y] and to YOUR practicers of divination and to YOUR dreamers[a] and to YOUR practicers of magic and to YOUR sorcerers,[b] who are saying to YOU: "YOU men will not serve the king of Babylon."[c] 10 For falsehood is what they are prophesying to YOU, for the purpose of having YOU taken far away from off YOUR ground; and I shall have to disperse YOU, and YOU will have to perish.[d]

11 "'"'And as for the nation that will bring its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and actually serve him, I will also let it rest upon its ground,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and it will certainly cultivate it and dwell in it.'"'"[e]

12 Even to Zed·e·ki'ah[f] the king of Judah I spoke according to all these words,[g] saying: "Bring YOUR necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people and keep on living.[h] 13 Why should you yourself and your people die by the sword,[i] by the famine[j] and by the pestilence[k] according to what Jehovah has spoken to the nation that does not serve the king of Babylon? 14 And do not listen to the words of the prophets that are saying to YOU men, 'YOU will not serve the king of Babylon,'[l] because falsehood is what they are prophesying to YOU.[m]

15 "'For I have not sent them,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'but they are prophesying in my name falsely, to the end that I shall disperse YOU,[n] and YOU will have to perish,[o] YOU men and the prophets that are prophesying to YOU.'"[p]

16 And to the priests and to all this people I spoke, saying: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Do not listen to the words of YOUR prophets that are prophesying to YOU, saying: "Look! The utensils of the house of Jehovah are being brought back from Babylon soon now!"[q] For falsehood is what they are prophesying to YOU.[r] 17 Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and keep on living.[a] Why should this city become a devastated place?[b] 18 But if they are prophets and if the word of Jehovah does exist with them, let them, please, beseech Jehovah of armies,[c] that the utensils that are remaining over in the house of Jehovah and the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem may not come into Babylon.'

19 "For this is what Jehovah of armies has said concerning the pillars[d] and concerning the sea[e] and concerning the carriages[f] and concerning the remainder of the utensils that are remaining over in this city,[g] 20 that Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king of Babylon had not taken when he carried Jec·o·ni'ah[h] the son of Je·hoi'a·kim, the king of Judah, into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, together with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;[i] 21 for this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said concerning the utensils that are remaining over at the house of Jehovah and the house of the king of Judah and Jerusalem,[j] 22 '"To Babylon is where they will be brought[k] and there they will continue to be until the day of my turning my attention to them,"[l] is the utterance of Jehovah. 28 Then it came about in that year, in the beginning of the kingdom of Zed·e·ki'ah[n] the king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Han·a·ni'ah[o] the son of Az'zur, the prophet who was from Gib'e·on,[p] said to me in the house of Jehovah before the eyes of the priests and of all the people: 2 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.[a] 3 Within two full years more I am bringing back to this place all the utensils of the house of Jehovah that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon[b] took from this place that he might bring them to Babylon.’” 4 “‘And Jec·o·ni′ah[c] the son of Je·hoi′a·kim,[d] the king of Judah, and all the exiles of Judah who have come to Babylon[e] I am bringing back to this place,’ is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘for I shall break the yoke[f] of the king of Babylon.’”

5 And Jeremiah the prophet proceeded to say to Han·a·ni′ah the prophet before the eyes of the priests and before the eyes of all the people who were standing in the house of Jehovah;[g] 6 yes, Jeremiah the prophet proceeded to say: “Amen![h] Thus may Jehovah do! May Jehovah establish your words that you have prophesied by bringing back the utensils of the house of Jehovah and all the exiled people from Babylon to this place![i] 7 However, hear, please, this word that I am speaking in your ears and in the ears of all the people.[j] 8 As regards the prophets that happened to be prior to me and prior to you from long ago,[k] they also used to prophesy concerning many lands and concerning great kingdoms, of war and of calamity and of pestilence.[l] 9 As regards the prophet that prophesies of peace,[m] when the word of the prophet comes true the prophet whom Jehovah has sent in truth will become known.”[n]

10 At that Han·a·ni′ah the prophet took the yoke bar from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it.[o] 11 And Han·a·ni′ah[p] went on to say before the eyes of all the people: “This is what Jehovah has said,[q] ‘Just like this I shall break the yoke of Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon within two full years more from off the neck of all the nations.’”[a] And Jeremiah the prophet proceeded to go his way.[b]

12 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah,[c] after Han·a·ni′ah the prophet had broken the yoke bar from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, saying: 13 “Go, and you must say to Han·a·ni′ah, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Yoke bars[d] of wood you have broken, and instead of them you will have to make yoke bars of iron.”[e] 14 For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “A yoke of iron I will put upon the neck of all these nations, to serve Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon;[f] and they must serve him.[g] And even the wild beasts of the field I will give him.”’”[h]

15 And Jeremiah the prophet went on to say to Han·a·ni′ah[i] the prophet: “Listen, please, O Han·a·ni′ah! Jehovah has not sent you, but you yourself have caused this people to trust in a falsehood.[j] 16 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Look! I am sending you away from off the surface of the ground. This year you yourself must die,[k] for you have spoken outright revolt against Jehovah.’”[l]

17 So Han·a·ni′ah the prophet died in that year, in the seventh month.[m]

29 And these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the remainder of the older men of the exiled people and to the priests and to the prophets and to all the people, whom Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon,[n] 2 after Jec·o·ni′ah[o] the king and the lady[p] and the court officials, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem,[q] and the craftsmen and the builders of bulwarks[r] had gone forth from Jerusalem. 3 It was by the hand of El·a′sah

the son of Sha′phan[a] and Gem·a·ri′ah the son of Hil·ki′ah, whom Zed·e·ki′ah[b] the king of Judah sent to Babylon to Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon, saying:

4 “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said to all the exiled people, whom I have caused to go into exile[c] from Jerusalem to Babylon, 5 ‘Build houses and inhabit [them], and plant gardens and eat their fruitage.[d] 6 Take wives and become father to sons and to daughters;[e] and take wives for YOUR own sons and give YOUR own daughters to husbands, that they may give birth to sons and to daughters; and become many there, and do not become few. 7 Also, seek the peace of the city to which I have caused YOU to go into exile, and pray in its behalf to Jehovah, for in its peace there will prove to be peace for YOU yourselves.[f] 8 For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Let not YOUR prophets who are in among YOU and YOUR practicers of divination deceive YOU,[g] and do not YOU listen to their dreams that they are dreaming.[h] 9 For ‘it is in falsehood that they are prophesying to YOU in my name. I have not sent them,’[i] is the utterance of Jehovah.”’”

10 “For this is what Jehovah has said, ‘In accord with the fulfilling of seventy years at Babylon I shall turn my attention to YOU people,[j] and I will establish toward YOU my good word in bringing YOU back to this place.’[k]

11 “‘For I myself well know the thoughts that I am thinking toward YOU,’[l] is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘thoughts of peace, and not of calamity,[m] to give YOU a future and a hope.[n] 12 And YOU will certainly call me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to YOU.’[o]

13 “‘And YOU will actually seek me and find [me],[a] for YOU will search for me with all YOUR heart.[b] 14 And I will let myself be found by YOU,’[c] is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘And I will gather YOUR body of captives and collect YOU together out of all the nations and out of all the places to which I have dispersed YOU,’[d] is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘And I will bring YOU back to the place from which I caused YOU to go into exile.’[e]

15 “But YOU have said, ‘Jehovah has raised up for us prophets in Babylon.’
